Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittneys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittneys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Issues and Opportunities, December, 2012

It is a beautiful autumn Saturday afternoon in Michigan. The running of the National Open Gun Dog Championship is over. Fifty-two dogs have run in this event over the past 5 days. Handlers have done their best to show each dog as well as it can be presented to the judges. Judges have ridden in warm weather, cool weather, rainy weather, dry weather, calm weather, and windy weather, paying careful attention to each dog's performance. Scouts have scouted, marshals have kept the gallery in check, and members of the gallery have watched intently as each dog has vied for the title of 2012 National Open Gun Dog Champion. At this moment, everything is over except the announcement of placements. Dogs have been put out, horses unsaddled and watered, and small groups of people are gathering in the parking lot and around the clubhouse, chatting about the trial and discussing who they think will win. Slowly, the groups began moving toward the clubhouse. Chatter continues for some, but others are lost in their own thoughts, wondering what, if any, placement their dog may receive. Some handlers already know they will not hear their dog's name called. Their dog may not have made the hour, or did not have a sufficient performance during its hour to impress the judges enough to be posted on that day. Others "made the board" but know that other dogs had quality performances as well. What are the judges looking for? Did my dog cover sufficient ground during its hour? Was it stylish enough on point? Did it handle well enough to beat out the competition? Anxiety mounts as the Field Trial Chairman asks for everyone's attention. Words of thanks are spoken for everyone who helped put on the trial, for the corporate sponsors, words of remembrance are said for those no longer with us. Finally, the stakes manager begins to announce the placements: "Judges Award of Merit..." to 4 dogs. Applause follows each. "Fourth Place...". More applause. "Third Place..." "Second Place..." Applause following each name. Finally, "Winner and 2012 American Brittany Club's National Open Gun Dog Champion..." An ovation from the crowd for the owners/handlers. For some, jubilation; for others, disappointment in not getting higher recognition, but still happy for the winners and a sense of satisfaction of having qualified to run and at least having a chance to compete, knowing in the end that there can only be one Champion. This is the essence of Sportsmanship. Giving it your very best in competition but being gracious when your best is not quite good enough to win on this day. You offer sincere congratulations to those who beat you, but you come away with a desire to work harder next year so you can go through the same thing again and hope you will be the one whose name is called last.

We are now in a season when we look back at the past while planning for the future. We celebrate Thanksgiving to recognize our blessings from the previous year. December holidays commemorate renewal and light, be it the lighting of the candles during Hanukkah, the Star of Bethlehem heralding the birth of Jesus, or the Winter Solstice marking the change from decreasing daylight to increasing daylight. Our lives are filled with light and dark, successes and failures. The same is true of our club. As we close this year and start a new one, I hope we can all learn from the past as we plan for the future. It is fitting that the first of our regional Futurities, where we evaluate the future of our breed, is scheduled for the first month of next year. Which of these dogs will go on to become a National Champion or National Specialty Winner? Weather permitting, I plan to attend both the Eastern and Central Futurities; logistics will determine if I can make it to the Western Futurity. I look forward to seeing many of you at those events next year.

Until then,

I WISH YOU ALL
A WONDERFUL AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

GO WITH YOU

By Rick Smith & Sharon Potter

Over our many columns, we've often mentioned the three basic things a bird dog has to do to be a good, solid citizen, and you'll find that the majority of problems you may have will trace back to one of them. Those three components are: the dog has to go with you; come to you; and stand still. These three skills harness the natural ability of a bird dog and make it work for you instead of for itself.

To put it in a slightly different perspective, think of the opposite of the three skills. Imagine if, instead of your dog coming to you, it went the other way and you had to go to it. Or, instead of the dog standing still, it kept breaking and flushing birds. And last but not least, when you turned it loose to hunt, the dog took off in the other direction and you had to follow it, going to where it led. Not exactly a productive day in the field!

The idea of our dogs "going with us" covers a range of situations. Everything, from heeling at our side to working loose in the field at several hundred yards away, requires our dogs to watch us and go in the direction of our choosing. That doesn't mean giving them hand signals or hollering at them; it means the dog has to keep an eye on us, and when we change direction, the dog needs to glance over to us, see that we've made a turn, and then follow suit. It's about the dog paying attention and working with us as a team member.

We start this when they're puppies and going for walks off lead. The younger the pup, the closer they stick to us, so taking advantage of that is a big benefit in teaching the youngster to change directions with us. One big mistake we see often is when people walk in a straight line with their puppy off lead. If you always walk in a straight line, your dog has no reason to look for you, because you're always in the same place.

Same goes for always staying on a path: If you always walk a path, the dog will run

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

ahead of you and stick close to the path. If you want the dog to get into the cover, you've got to get off the path and into the cover. If, instead, you change direction often, the dog has to keep changing direction, too, and will learn to pay closer attention to you.

Think of the face of a clock, with 12 o'clock being straight ahead of you. When your dog crosses the 10 o'clock spot, you turn right and go toward two o'clock. When the dog crosses two o'clock, you turn left and go back the other way. During this teaching phase, you'll be doing more direction changes than the dog, but that's the point of the exercise. If you want your dog to change direction, you've got to do it, too.

As the puppy matures, their range expands and so does their confidence in their surroundings. That's where a checkcord comes in handy. When the dog decides to ignore your change of direction, it's time to add a 20-foot checkcord and start using the point of contact on the dog's neck to remind it to watch and go with you. This shouldn't turn into a power struggle or tug-of-war if the dog understands how to give in to the tug of the collar on its neck.

The important part of the checkcord is using a bit of slack and not getting the dog's legs (or yours!) wrapped up in it. Use just enough slack that the rope isn't taut and straight, but not so much that it touches the ground. Then change direction, and if your dog doesn't turn with you, give a sharp tug just as the dog hits the end of the rope. Timing is everything here, and it takes some repetition and practice to get it right.

Also, as you prepare to make a turn, flip the bit of slack over the dog's back so the rope will be on the side you're turning toward, making the tug cue more effective. If your dog is going to the right and you want to turn left, you'll flip the slack over the dog's back to the left side so that when you tug, the collar tugs the dog back to the left. This eventually transfers over to the e-collar once the dog has learned the cue on the neck means "turn". And the stimulation is the same: Use a momentary stimulation, or "nick", with your transmitter, just like you would with the checkcord.

The "go with you" part that many people have the hardest time with is simply having the dog walk alongside them in a heel position. We tend to add this after the field work is well underway, because too much heeling too early can make a dog "sticky": They are so tuned into heeling that they don't leave you side like they need to when they're released to hunt.

Heeling is the same thing as going with us in the field. The dog's job is to pay attention to our direction, watch our body, and go with us, changing direction as we do. They also have to adapt their speed and pace to ours, moving forward when we do and stopping when we do. It's all about body language and little about the lead. The lead has two purposes: to restrict the dog, and to cue the dog. This is just like the checkcord, except the dog is expected to stay at our side.

Restricting the dog doesn't mean keeping the lead tight and holding the dog in position. The restriction of the lead is defined by the length of the lead. The number-one error we see is people keeping a very short hold on the lead and holding the dog in place. When the dog starts pulling, the person on the end of the lead pulls back, and before you know it, you're skating behind your dog and playing tug-of-war. That's not teaching the dog anything, and it's actually much harder of the dog due to the constant pressure on its throat.

It's great to have a dog walk calmly alongside us on a loose lead, but that's only possible if we give them a loose lead. If we do that, we make the dog read our body language and watch our legs - which is what they're supposed to do. It's just like what we did on the checkcord, only we're restricting the dog to a tighter space.

This means lots of direction changes in short distances and letting the dog find out how to keep the slack in the lead from you giving a sharp tug at the appropriate time. The dog's shoulders should stay even with your leg. If the dog forges ahead, make sure you give it plenty of slack and then do a hard 180-degree turn and go to the opposite direction, giving a good tug when the dog hits the end going away from you. It should take only a few corrections for the dog to anticipate your speed and direction and watch you to speed and direction and watch you to see where you're going and stay with you.

If the dog starts to lean in toward you and sneak ahead just a little, make a sharp left turn and walk into and through the dog right at its shoulders, as if it weren't there. Bringing your opposite knee up and around and bumping it into the dog's shoulder will encourage it to turn and get out of your way. Through all of this, having slack in your lead is the important part.

When you're doing these drills, don't do a lot of straight lines at first, and make your direction changes every couple of steps, including stopping. If you do this, it doesn't give your dog a chance to find something else to focus on, and it will pay close attention and stay with you. If the dog can't watch you two steps at a time, it has no chance of doing better at 50 steps. Be sure to get plenty of off-lead field time, too, so your dog stays fresh and continues to range out away from you while watching your direction. Too much heeling can be detrimental without enough field work to balance it and keep the dog loosened up and confident about working at a distance.

A good balance between the two will give you a confident dog that will go with you in the field, change directions as you do, and be the envy of your hunting buddies.

ABC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

MOTION TO APPOINT JUDY GRAVES AS TREASURER UNTIL A NEW ONE IS APPOINTED ON A PERMANENT BASIS

MOTION BY: Steve Ralph, Central Director

SECONDED BY: Dan Riedl, East Central Director

Due to the unfortunate death of the ABC Treasurer - Janet Chase, I believe the ABC BOD must designate a successor to serve for the remainder of the 2012 term.

From the ABC Policy Book:

By-Laws (Article VI)

Section 8: Vacancies: In the event of the death, resignation or inability of any Officer, the Executive Secretary, Delegate to The American Kennel Club, or Editor of "The American Brittany" to perform the duties of office, the Board of Directors shall have the power to designate a successor to serve for the remainder of such term, commencing at the time of designation, by a majority vote of the Board. Only persons eligible for election as an Officer, Executive Secretary, Delegate to The American Kennel Club, or Editor of "The American Brittany" magazine shall be eligible for such appointment.

Motion:

I move that Judy Graves serve as the ABC Treasurer for the remainder of the 2012 term and until one can be found.

Motion Passed October 26, 2012. 15 YES Votes. 0 NO Votes.

Mary Jo Trimble
ABC Executive Secretary

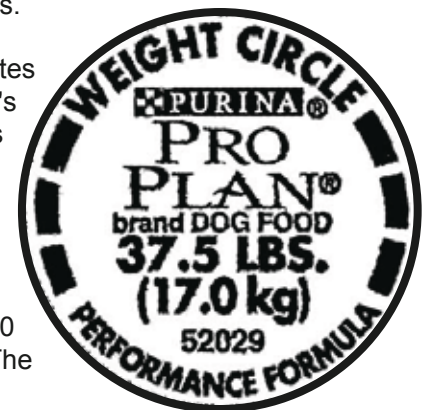

SEND IN THOSE PURINA WEIGHT CIRCLES!

As most of us know, submitting Purina weight circles as a member of the Purina Pro Club personally earns us credits towards dog food checks, apparel and merchandise and checks for veterinary services.

In addition, Purina, through the Purina Parent Club Partnership Program (PPCP), donates $10 for every $100 worth of submitted weight circles. Of that $10, $5 goes to the ABC's Donor Advised Fund at the AKC Canine Health Foundation (AKC/CHF) and $5 goes directly to ABC for health research, rescue and education. So when we collect and submit weight circles from bags of participating Purina brand dog foods, ABC can receive funding for Brittany specific health studies as well as benefitting the AKC/CHF Donor Advised Fund.

The Health and Genetics Committee recently participated in making a $10,000 contribution from the 2012 Donor Advised Fund to the Canine Athlete Initiative(CAI). The focus of the CAI is understanding the proper conditioning, nutrition, training and rehabilitation specific to canine athletes.

If you are not a member of the Purina Pro Club, join now at PurinaProClub.com. If you are a member, submit those weight circles before the end of the year so ABC and AKC/CHF can get the contributions for 2013 health studies that enable dogs like yours to live longer, healthier lives.

Derby Classic - Lynda Zartarian & Dennis Harkcom with Ace's Grand Slam II, judges Patti Hunt & Mike Blondin, Leslie Hunt with Bebop Harry James

The New England Brittany Championship was held at Flaherty Field Trial here in East Windsor, CT over the week of September 17. We were blessed with beautiful weather and well maintained grounds. Thanks to Connecticut's DEP for all the work maintaining the premier field trial grounds in New England. There was plenty of water on the course and an abundance of birds. Also thanks to Purina for their longtime loyal support.

Special thanks also to John & Rita Poland, not only for their help with the meals but invaluable support for the entire week. We could not have the event without the help of the bird planters. Thanks to Dennis Harkcom who was up early bagging birds and seeding the course and Mike Blondin, Johnny Poland, Michele Sala, Robin Shadle and I think first time bird planter Patti Hunt managed a few braces. Ralph and Judy Kiracofe put on a delicious dinner and party on Monday to celebrate last year's winner Hit's a Rocky Road.

We were privileged to have as judges Patricia Carney and Mitch Swierzinski for the amateur and Gus Allimonos and Dennis Harkcom for the open. Dennis stepped up to replace a judge injured in a recent quad accident. We had 17 starters for both the open and the amateur and six derby starters.

Open Limited Gun Dog - Kyle Merrill with Hybritins BJ Betty, Bill Gorman with Cisco's Rocky, Patti Hunt with One Off Mojito Mike and Ben Lorensen with July. Back row judge Dennis Harcom, Fran Gorman

This year's big star was Hybrittin's BJ Betty, owned by Art and Judy Cohen. Betty was named champion of both the amateur and the open. Betty ran the amateur in brace eight with Art Cohen handling. Judges said he did a great job of hanging on to her. She did a phenomenal job on the ground while demonstrating her ability as a bird dog. In the open Betty was handled by Kyle Merrill. Judges stated she had five super finds, all heart and a great run.

Runner up in the amateur was Marjo's Here for the Party owned by Joe & Marsha Luisi and helped by Joe Luisi. Judges said she was the ultimate bird dog and got stronger as the hour progressed. Hit's a Rocky Road, owned by Ralph and Judy Kiracofe, handled by Ralph placed third and Suemac's Sky King, owned by Roger McPherson and Ray Gorman, handled by Roger placed fourth. Thanks to all our amateur participants.

The Derby Classic was held on Tuesday and judges were Patti Hunt and Mike Blondin. First place went to Ace's Grand Slam II owned by Lynda Zartarian and handled by Dennis Harkcom. Yazzie has a great run and three staunch finds. Bebop Harry James, owned and handled by Leslie Hunt took second with several finds and a strong run.

The open started on Wednesday with cooler temps and a blue sky. Runner up champion was Cisco's Rocky, owned by Fran Gorman and handled by Kyle Merrill. Rocky had six stylish finds and stayed to the front. One Off Mojito Mike, owned by Patti Hunt and handled by Kyle Merrill had four finds with great style and run. Fourth place July owned by Vic Williams and Joyce Roberts was handled by Ben Lorenson. Judges also mentioned great performances by Finn MacCuhah and Piney Run Hank.

I'd like to thank everyone for participating and making this another successful championship. Thanks to our chairman Bob Fleury, helpers Leslie Hunt and Fran and Bill Gorman, and our wrangler Robin Shadle

SATIN DOLL Part Two

Staunch Brothers, by Claiborne Gregory, Jr.

He scouted for Billy Kahn the first brace after lunch. Billy's dog did a pretty good job, Ed thought. He figured Billy should make the call back, but he made no prediction to Billy.

Then Doll's brace was down, and she was away through the sedge grass, yipping like a puppy on her release. Soon she was running the edge of a big soybean field, a dot flying for the horizon. Before her hour ended she had found coveys twice, handled them appropriately, her tail elevation a little less than in her salad days, but all any judge had a right to expect. Despite his usual paranoia, he thought from their expressions that the judges had liked Doll's work.

At the end of the day's final heat, everyone gathered at the clubhouse for the judges' announcement of the finalists, the dogs called back to run two-hour heats tomorrow. The wait seemed an eternity, and then trial chairman read the six names from the judges' note: Doll and Billy's entry had made the finals.

He looked after his horses and dogs (the gelding getting another injection), then headed for the motel with Doll on the seat beside him. She seemed in good shape in spite of the grueling hour in mud and cold—the temperature hadn't climbed above 40 degrees. A tough old girl, that was for sure. At a roadside grocery, he bought two pounds of hamburger, mixed it in her dry food; she wolfed it down, then drank water. She stretched out by the radiator, closed her eyes and slept.

He watched her from the bed. Could she go two more hours tomorrow? That was the question on five other handlers' minds as well, as they pondered strategy for the finals.

Doll would go in the third brace after lunch at 1:30, braced with Billy Kahn's entry. Both of them had to find alternate scouts; he had chosen a local amateur who knew the grounds like the back of his hand.

His mare was worn out—Paducah's infamous mud had taken its toll—and his gelding was still ailing. His substitute scout had offered to lend him a dog horse. The prospect of handling off a strange horse and with a scout who didn't know his dog made him uneasy.

As he drove out to the grounds next morning, the tension built in his chest as it always did when the chips were down. For the morning braces, he rented a horse, a sorry nag that made him appreciate his mare even more. He saw two good performances; either dog would make a worthy champion, he had to admit. To win, Doll would have to perform superbly in her two hours after lunch.

He was too nervous to eat lunch. The temperature was dropping; snow would fall in the afternoon. Most who had come just to watch or who hadn't made the finals had already left—no one wanted to be caught away from home in snow trailering horses.

Ed Paine and the man who would scout for him walked to the bunker-stable where the horses waited. He had seen the scout riding the horse he'd been promised, a big strong bay with a smooth walk and easy canter. But when they led him out of his stall, Ed's heart sank; the poor devil was stove up in the hindquarters, unfit to be ridden. Ed panicked—he must find a horse. He jumped in his truck and drove from stable to stable, looking for someone who could lend him a horse—but all the owners of spare dog horses were gone, trying to beat the storm. He would have to ride the mare once more. He prayed she would have enough for Doll's two hours, but in his heart he knew she would not.

As Ed Paine curried and saddled the tired mare, his old enemy, paranoia, began its attack. Had the man who would scout for him intentionally offered a stove-up horse? Did he have loyalties to others with dogs in the finals? And why wasn't there someone around with a dog horse to lend him? Any of the popular handlers would have had a half dozen offers. Then the scout offered Ed his own horse, but with a caveat.

"This horse is a little peculiar—he don't much like to be rode away from the gallery except by me. He may buck you a little."

No, he wouldn't trade mounts, he couldn't handle Doll off a horse likely to throw him, one that might not go where he needed to be. And the scout outweighed him thirty pounds; a trade would be worse for his mare.

He could feel the weariness in his mare as they rode for the breakaway. But Doll pulled ahead on the rope like a puppy.

When they reached the breakaway, big wet flakes began to fall. The air was still, the sky slate gray. Only a dozen riders made up the gallery. He handed his scout a wide blaze orange collar for Doll—she would be hard to see in the snow.

By the one-hour mark, only the judges, one marshal and Billy's dog's owner were still riding. The snow had turned the flat crop fields and rolling woodlots into a stark white wasteland. Doll was undaunted, hunting her heart out, far to the front. Occasionally a plume of flying snow marked her position, and Ed Paine's arm went up to point her out.

"We've got her," the judges responded to his time-honored signal. He could tell from their tone they liked what they saw. And then she was pointing.

He raised his cap to signal the point—and snow went down his neck, but he didn't notice. The mare saw Doll too, and broke into a canter, but before she had covered the quarter mile to Doll he knew she was finished, completely blown out; to ride her further might kill her. He'd flush Doll's birds, then withdraw from the contest.

He rolled from the saddle, blew through the barrel of the .410 to be sure it was unobstructed by snow, inserted the blank and walked in to flush. The quail boiled out, their brown feathers stark in detail against the snow's whiteness. Doll stood proud and unflinching as the gun barked mutely in the snow-filled atmosphere.

Leaving Doll on point, Ed walked slowly to his mare and reached for the check cord to leash Doll. The mare stood with head down, sides heaving.

Then Ed felt a touch on his shoulder, heard a gentle voice behind him.

"Here, Ed, take my horse. I'll lead your mare out to the road, see she gets back to the stables."

He turned to face Bob Welsh, the owner of Billy Kahn's dog, Doll's brace mate. He could hear Billy's calls far in the distance looking for his dog...

"But you're riding front, you've got to have your horse to handle from if your dog comes in while Billy's off looking for her..."

"Billy can take care of my dog...Doll deserves a chance to finish."

Ed looked into his eyes and saw something he'd never recognized before. This man had never been his friend, had in fact avoided being around him at trials over many years, didn't like him, he was sure of that. Why would he offer his horse, risk defeat of his own dog, running out there somewhere in the snow, maybe on point?

He took the reins, muttered "thanks", adjusted the stirrups and mounted. Then he hit his whistle, and Doll was away through the falling snow.

She had another good find just before time. Then it was over, and he was warming himself beside the clubhouse fire, waiting with the few still around for the judges' decision.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this year's Invitational Champion is Satin Doll—no runner-up will be named."

The little crowd broke into applause. Tears flowed down Ed Paine's cheeks. They were all around him, offering congratulations, shaking his hand.

"Thank you, Mr. Welsh..." It was all he could bring himself to say.

He woke Doll from her sleep on the truck seat and posed her for the pictures, then caught a ride to town with Billy Kahn, Doll in his lap (his own truck's tires were too slick to risk the drive).

After a quick supper, he called Doll's owner, John Blevins, his oldest customer in age (85) and years of patronage—he'd had a dog with Ed from the start. Too infirm to ride now, he enjoyed Doll vicariously through Ed's calls, the one sentence summaries in the American Field where a narrative of each trial appeared.

"She's my best ever, and my last. Shouldn't we retire her on this win?" John asked.

"No, lets let her try the Continental, maybe the Free-For-All. She's still got what it takes, and she still loves it," Ed said. He didn't tell John Blevins of his loss of the other dogs—no need to dampen the old man's joy.

After they hung up, he got a half dozen calls of congratulations from trial fans across the country—news of Doll's win had gone out among the fraternity by phone and Internet. Not one of the callers offered him a dog for his string. By the time he fell asleep, despair had returned.

Next morning, as Ed sat by the clubhouse fire after seeing to his horses and dogs (he'd left Doll sleeping in their motel room), Bob Welsh walked over and sat beside him.

"Mr. Welsh—I didn't see you come in...thank you again for what you did yesterday."

"Forget it Ed—I didn't do it for you, I did it for Doll. If you hadn't been handling her, I'd have left you out there to freeze."

He said it with a little grin. Even Ed, notoriously short on a sense of humor, recognized the tease.

"Ed, I've got a proposition for you."

Ed assumed he wanted to buy his horses. Everyone knew he was out of business. Might as well see what he'll offer, Ed thought. What followed came as his biggest shock since ten years before when he'd come home off the circuit in March to find his wife gone and divorce papers tacked on the front door of his double-wide.

"Ed, I'm looking for a manager for my quail shooting place at Thomasville. Would you consider the job?"

"Now, I know you've always said you'd never work for anyone but yourself. But despite the fact you're as ornery as a badger, you're a perfectionist too. You take pride—sometimes too much pride—in what you do. You take good care of your horses and your dogs. You stay sober.

"I think you could do a good job with my place. It would be different in some ways, but the same in lots of others. The object is to show my customers a good, safe time. That means having good dogs, well broke. I know you can do that part. It also means putting up with occasional jerks—that will be the hard part for you. I'll pay the going rate.

"By the way, I offered the job to Billy Kahn—have several times—but he's not ready to give up the circuit yet."

Ed was speechless. He'd never dreamed he'd get a chance to manage a quail plantation, always figured his reputation as a hothead and sore loser would bar him,

It took him less than a minute to make up his mind. The realization swept him—twenty-five years on the circuit was enough. He could still work out-of-doors with dogs and horses. He could go to the prairies to train July through September. Sure, some of the work would not be to his liking—the burning in March, sucking up to Bob Welch's customers—but he could put up with that. And he could run a quail plantation as well as any man—he was sure of it.

"You've got yourself a manager, Mr. Welsh...but can I finish this season? I'd like to run Doll in the Continental, maybe the Free-For-All."

"Of course. And the National too. She deserves another go at the Ames Plantation. I'll advance you if you need some to make it."

Back at the motel, Doll's unerring nose for birds had led her to the pillows; a snow of down covered the room as she slept curled on the bed.

ABC New England Grouse Woodcock Classic/Championship

Kilkenny WMA, Berlin, NH

September 23-24, 2012

Rear (L-R) Judges Jane Bjork and Lloyd Murray

Front (L-R) Ray Gorman with Coos Tiger Lily, John Poland with Mr. P's D'Evil Dog of Coos, Roger McPherson with Suemac's Liberty Belle, and Les Casselberry with Scirocco Del Prado.

The ABC New England Brittany Grouse-Woodcock Classic was held September 23-24, 2012 in the Kilkenny WMA in the White Mountain National Forest, Berlin, NH. Our judges were Jane Bjork, Hopkinton, NH and Lloyd Murray, Groveton, NH. Both judges have many years of experience in the woods and field trialing. Each of the four one hour courses was rugged and challenging for the judges, handler, and dogs. The cool weather made for wonderful scenting conditions, and birds were plentiful on each course. The committee worked smoothly to direct the handlers to the head of the courses, move cars to the end of the courses, as well as provide mid-morning coffee and donuts and lunch. We appreciate every effort to hold a smooth running trial. The brace by brace report follows. Thank you to all who attended and worked. Also thanks to Purina for their generous support of ABC events.

Sunday's Running

Brace One Course: Moosehorn

Spring Hill's Chica Del Prado (Chica)-Les Casselberry and Centerville's Dot (Dot)-Sarah Conyngham

Chica initially started forward only to get hung up on the left and require considerable effort to get forward. At 22, Dot established point not far off the path on the right in likely cover with Chica backing. Woodcock produced at some distance and all in order with nice style for both dogs. Chica answered this with a woodcock of her own at 25, handled with manners. At 23, Dot established point with Chica backing. After a moderate flushing effort, Sarah Elected to relocate and the dog moved forward ten feet. The woodcock got up just as the dog stopped. A grouse was walked up at 49. At 54 Les saw a grouse pop and Sarah whoa'd her dog, followed by Les whoaing his. Les's dog could not possibly see the other dog and he moved his dog on. Sarah could not find any bird and thus, Dot carded a non-productive. Neither Judge Saw a bird.

Brace two Course: Ammonoosuc

Suemac's Liberty Belle (Libby)-Roger McPherson and Mr. P's D'Evil Dog of Coos (D'Evil)-Johnny Poland

This brace started off with both dogs forward and hunting, as was to be the pattern for both throughout the brace. As we wound our way down toward the river, Johnny kept losing his bell, only to have the dog show to the front. At 15, we had neither dog's bells, and Johnny assumed he needed to wait to get to his dog. The other handler continued forward to find Belle backing and D'Evil Dog standing stylishly. Point was yelled out and Johnny was a considerable distance back. A grouse flushed wild and in the open in front of the dog, affording a long view of his escape. D'Evil never moved, and his handler was still about a minute and a half away. Johnny caught up and fired, and both dogs were mannerly throughout. At 20 came up D'Evil stopped with his front legs up on a log, and Libby buried in cover. Calling a divided find, both handlers began flushing to no avail, getting further and further from the dogs. During this long flushing attempt, Devil came off the log and moved forward. At this point, both handlers chose to relocate, with Libby establishing point again briefly only to move on. No bird was produced. By 47 we were along the river, with Libby to the front and D'Evil making casts to the front to the right. Point was called by Roger, and both handlers cautioned D'Evil Dog, who stopped without being able to see the pointing Libby. A grouse lifted and both handlers fired. Both dogs were credited with this find as, after discussion of the judges and considering wind direction and bird location, that D'Evil was pointing on his own. Shortly after this, Libby's bell went silent on the left along likely woodcock cover. D'Evil backed and Roger began searching for a bird. Fresh woodcock splatter was noted. After looking for a couple of minutes, the gallery, which had walked at least 15 feet in front of the farthest the handler had walked in front of the dog, called "bird up". Neither judge saw this bird due to the heavy cover, and this eliminated the possibility of the handler relocating. The dogs were taken on, and the gallery interference was noted. Both dogs were going strong to the front at time.

Brace Three Course: Goldenrod

Centerville's Whim (Whim)-Sarah Conyngham and Coos Riley (Riley)-Ray Gorman

Both dogs broke away going up the hill. Whim's bell disappeared to the left, and judge and handler went looking. A woodcock was walked up and the dog's location was unknown. The dog's bell came into hearing range and it could not be ascertained if the dog was pointing this bird. No gun was fired. Meanwhile, Riley made big casts which unfortunately did not result in bird contact, and he would get behind at times. Whim's bell stopped at 36 on the left about 20 feet in the woods off of a clearing to produce a woodcock with all in order. Whim began to slow in her applications, and was not up to her usual race. Once across the road, a grouse was walked up with neither dog involved.

Brace Four: Pancake

Scirocco Del Prado (Rico)-Les Casselberry and Sunshines Sey Hey Kid (Mike)-Ken Mercer

All went up the hill and this looked like it would be a good brace with both dogs reaching nicely and at a quick pace. At 17, a grouse was walked up with neither dog involved. At 19, Rico was located, Mike came by; ran past from the rear and then circled in front and was leashed for lack of an honor. Even with this commotion, Les was able to produce a woodcock who elected to sit still and make it worth Les's entry fee, with Rico high and tight throughout. At 34, Rico's bell stopped to the right as the course flattened out. No bird was produced so Rico was carded with a non-productive. Rico fished the hour running strong and deep, but some back-casting cost him a higher placement.

Monday's Running

Brace Five Course: Moosehorn

Colby's Hobo Run (Colby)-Sarah Conyngham and Suemac's Sky King (Sky)-Roger McPherson

It took both dogs a bit to get lined out, focused and working likely cover. Colby had his bird-finding shoes on, with woodcock at 16 and 18. His style was a bit tentative on both birds but this young dog got stronger and bolder as the brace went on. At 46, Sky's bell went silent on the right just before a bend where the course straightens to the last stretch and Roger and the judge and Scout went looking. Colby kept moving forward and a grouse flushed from behind the dog at 48 with Colby giving a quick glance but never breaking stride. At 51, he stopped high and tight. Sarah flushed a grouse that was about 30 feet in front, fired and collared the dog. As she walked him out of the area, another grouse flushed at 52. Colby finished with a big move to be made at time. Sky's venture proved to be not his usual self, and he finished the hour with bird work.

Brace Six Course: Ammonoosuc

Coos Tiger Lily (Lily)-Ray Gorman and The Holiday Kid (Kid) Fran Gorman. Lily took in large chunks of cover, with Ray waiting for her, often thinking she was to the rear, and almost without exception she would show to the front. Lily ran beautiful lines in the woods. Kid was more lateral but hunting hard. At 14, we lost Lily's bell, and the search ensued to the left of the course. As we looked, two grouse go up separately. We still had no bell, and the search continued. Fran and Kid continued forward when the judge announced that there was Lily, stylishly on point, in the area where the grouse lifted and the course bends around. Kid was backing. At 26, Kid had a non-productive, followed by two nice woodcock finds at 40 and 43 along the river with nice style and all in order. Meanwhile, at 24 Lily's bell disappeared to the right of the course, and after some deliberation, and waiting, the handler decided to go looking. We all went deep in the cover, to find Lily locked up tight on a woodcock, that flushed as if choreographed when the handler went in front with Lily high and tight on both ends. Lily finished the course taking the high road at the base of the hill where it meets the swamp running strong and to the front. Kid hunted the river bottom looking for more woodcock but ended her hour with the two finds. Two woodcock were additionally walked up on this course.

Brace Seven Course: Pancake

Penelope of Coos (Penny)-Ray Gorman and Orvis-Sarah Conyngham.

This was a brace of nice running dogs who perhaps zigged instead of zagged where the course went through likely cover. At 31, a grouse was walked up. In a wet area at the top of the course at 36, Penny's bell stopped but no bird could be produced. There was a grouse drumming in the vicinity. At this point, Orvis cruised on through but did not orient himself to see the pointing Penny and was left down. Relocation proved fruitless and Penny finished the hour hunting hard but without bird contact. Orvis's race was undiminished, fast and forward taking in large amounts of cover and was pressing our winners had he had a bird to his credit. Unfortunately, he finished his hour without bird contact.

THE RIGHT FIT

by Jessica Hlebak

There is no substitute for a well-fitted saddle. Your horse will be more comfortable and in turn you will also be more comfortable. Often other problems can stem from an ill-fitting saddle such as gaiting problems, head tossing and being cold backed. Each horse's back is different and not all saddles will fit every horse. Here are some tips on how to be sure that you have the right saddle for your horse.

How do you know if you have the wrong saddle? There are several signs that will tell you if your saddle is not right for your horse. The first and most obvious is that your horse will develop sores or rubs on his back. This is caused by pressure points that are created when the saddle does not fit correctly. Another sign that may be less obvious is that your horse will have sore or tender places on his back. This is again caused by uneven pressure that comes from an ill-fitting saddle. You can look for sore spots on your horse's back by firmly pressing down with your hand and running it along the spine from the withers back. Usually when you get to a sore spot the horse will react by squatting down or flinching from the pressure. This will also help you identify exactly where the saddle is causing discomfort. One more sign is that when you unsaddle your horse and he is sweaty there should ideally be a uniform pattern of sweat. If there are dry patches of hair these could be areas where there is more pressure being exerted and it will cause an inability to sweat in those areas because so much pressure is on that one spot.

If you do notice any of these signs, do not run out and purchase a new saddle immediately. There are some cases where these problems can be fixed with a saddle pad. There are now many different saddle pads on the market that are designed to conform to the horses back and provide extra support where the horse might need it.

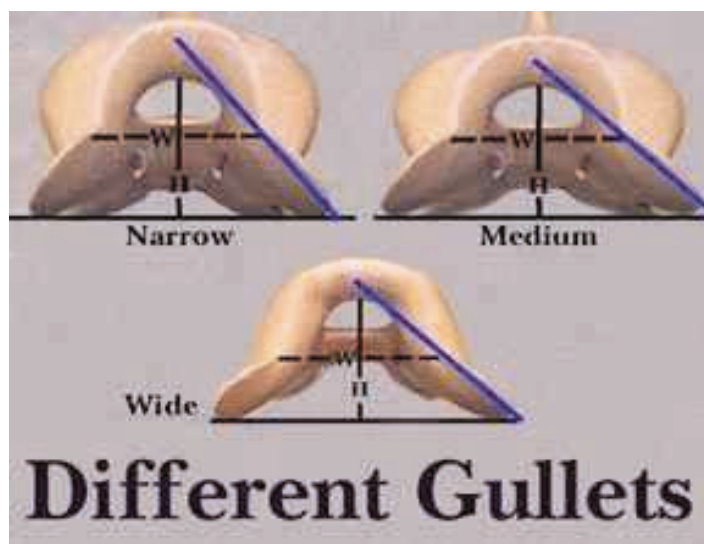

In order to determine where your horse will need support you will have to look at the conformation of your horse's back. If you have a high withered horse you will need to look for a saddle pad that will provide extra support on either side of the withers. Typically a high withered horse will have "hollows" on either side of the withers and the right saddle pad will fill those in, allowing the saddle to sit level and not put too much pressure on the withers. If your horse has a "low back" or the more extreme "sway back" you will want to look for a saddle pad that will help fill in that area. This will lift the saddle in the center and help remove any pressure points over the lumbar region of the back.

While not every saddle fit problem can be corrected with a saddle pad, there are many that can be. The goal is to have the saddle sitting level on the horse's back, thus creating an even distribution of weight and a more comfortable horse.

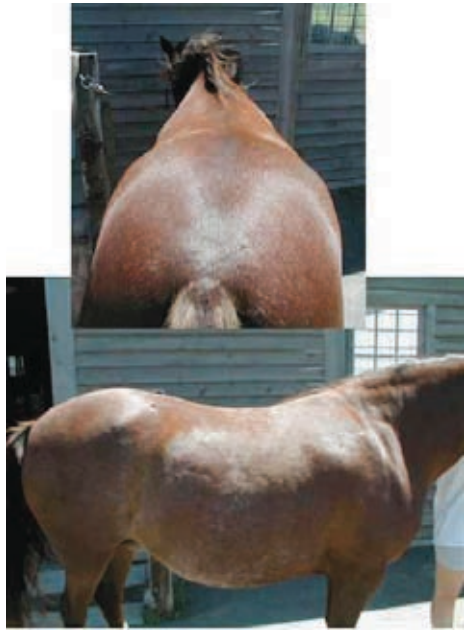

Even with a correction saddle pad there is still the possibility that there is an improper saddle fit. Again, the conformation of the horse will dictate the build of the saddle. The main area of the saddle that can be fitted to the horse is the gullet. This dictates how wide or narrow the saddle is. If you have a saddle that is too narrow for your horse it will pinch near the shoulders. On the other hand, if your saddle is too wide for your horse it will roll and also will fall down on the withers putting extra pressure on the spine.

This photo illustrates different gullet widths. Typically a horse with a wide back and flat withers will need a wider gullet while a horse with narrow high withers will need a narrow gullet. There are saddles on the market that have the option of interchangeable gullets to allow one saddle to fit many different horses.

Between the two pictures below you can see that one horse has a wide back and will need a wide gullet. The second picture shows a horse with a narrow back who will need a more narrow gullet and also a corrective saddle pad.

A reputable tack shop should be able to assist you in finding the correct saddle for you and your horse. Many will let you take a saddle home to try out and be sure it fits your horse and others will allow you to bring your horse to the shop and they can help you to find just the right fit. There are also saddle fitters who are specifically trained in getting the perfect fit between horse and saddle. The right fit is very important, not only will your horse be more comfortable but you will also. A properly fitted saddle will keep your horse comfortable, happy and more willing to work.

2012 ABC Summer Specialty Show

June 23, 2012

Orlando, FL

Hosted by the Mid-Florida Brittany Club

Submitted by Jay L. Hallaron, Event Coordinator

The Board of Directors of the Mid-Florida Brittany Club (MFBC), along with its members, thanks the American Brittany Club for accepting our application to host the 2012 ABC Summer Specialty! The event was held in conjunction with the Orlando Cluster, June 22-24, 2012 at the Central Florida Fair Grounds. We would like to thank Ken Windom, President of the ABC, for being present at each event. We appreciate his support of our club and the ABC.

As is typically the case in June, summer weather provided challenges to exhibitors most of the weekend with temperatures in the 90s and intermittent thunderstorms. Through it all, no exhibitors or their dogs were lost due to the weather!

The event began Saturday morning with Ms. Jessie Ruela judging Sweepstakes. Ms. Ruela is a well-known German Shorthaired breeder in Florida. The Summer Specialty was judged by Dr. Steve Herman. After the event, both related how honored they were to be chosen to judge such a prestigious event! The MFBC Specialty was judged by Dr. Mary Lynne Jensen, a devoted breeder of Dalmatians, and Mr. William Cunningham.

The Mid-Florida Brittany Club's Specialty Committee had many challenges putting together the four events that constituted the event calendar. The committee was charged with planning and holding the first All-Brittany Agility Trial held in conjunction with the Summer Specialty, the Mid-Florida Specialty, and a Judges Seminar. We feel each event offered was an unconditional success!

A Judges Seminar was held at the host hotel and was well attended by prospective Brittany judges, current judges and MFBC members. The training was hosted by Mr. Ken Windom, and his presentation was well received.

The MFBC sends its thanks to all of the members of the specialty Committee for the dedication and effort in getting the job done and done well. Thank you: Patty McCarthy and Irene Pinard, Trophies; Cindy Allen, Ribbons/Premium Development; Victoria MacVicar and LouAnn McGahey, All Brittany Agility Event and Memorabilia; Eva Bailey, Tonja Pittman, Helen Conklin and Jackie Arnold, Judges and Exhibitors Gifts; Sherry Foster, Signs; Jackie Arnold, Fundraising and Silent Auction; Debi Micklitsch, Food; Jay and Jean Hallaron, Local Arrangements; Tabitha Millard, Advertising, and Cindy Allen and Sandra Moruzzi, Judging Panels. We also extend a huge thank you to our host hotel, Holiday Inn Express, Ocoee East, Florida. Their assistance with on-line reservations, special room rate and donating the meeting room for the Judges Seminar is well appreciated!

Our deepest thanks go to those dedicated to the Brittany breed in supporting the summer events with their generous financial donations to the Trophy Fund, as well as donations to the Silent Auction!

Finally, the MFBC offers its sincerest gratitude to Purina for supporting the ABC Summer Specialty and the MFBC Specialty. Their donation of gifts and large bags of dog food to each of the winners and small bags to each exhibitor was greatly appreciated by everyone. We hope that Purina will continue to support many future Brittany events!

ABC Summer Specialty Show Notes

It's always a huge undertaking for any Club to host the Summer Specialty and it was no different for the Mid Florida Club. Hosting the 2012 Summer Specialty was over a year in planning and it was truly a monumental task for such a small club.

Entries were lower than we had initially planned for; the economy has taken its toll on entries across the south and the Orlando Cluster was no different. We would like to thank those who did make the trek south and supported this ABC event. We hope that they enjoyed the Southern Style Barbeque offered by the club and cooked by cook off award winning Paul Jensen, husband of the Sunday Sweeps judge Mary Lynn Jensen.

The Silent Auction featured a wide variety of items from a handmade oak crate to Quail Hunts offered by some of the Florida Shooting preserves to an autographed football and basketball. Thanks go to Jackie Arnold for all the hard work procuring items and donations and setting up the auction area and manning the booth during the shows.

There were large goodie bags prepared by MFBC members Helen Conklin and Tonja Pittman for the Brittany kids along with a pizza party on Saturday night.

Many thanks go to Jay and Jeannie Hallaron who wore so many different hats on preparation for these shows. Patty McCarthy was in charge of trophies and the compliments on the lovely glassware items were justly deserved.

ABC President Ken Windom and his lovely wife were in attendance and it was a delight meeting them both. Ken put on the Judges Education Seminar as well as playing host during the Summer Specialty.

The Mid Florida Brittany Club would like to thank Chris Ward-Weber for all her help from providing the logo for the Summer Specialty to fielding the 1000s of questions concerning this event.

Anne Harris made the long trip south to Florida with her lovely dog RJ's Paddington Bear and I'm told went home with a new Champion.

"FURTHER MUSINGS . . . OF A FIELD TRIAL SECRETARY"

PAGES 124 - 125

Do we field trial in foul, muddy conditions, wet clammy clothing, and the face of cold northwest winds, solely for the love of it? Indeed, no.

During some field trial days nature smiles, and it is a pleasure to be out-of-doors; but fair or foul, a major purpose of the sport is to identify the consistent winners and producers that can be used to improve the breed.

During evening hours recently this field trial secretary has been recording the results of a late February (1985) trial, run under strenuous conditions of rain, mud, and wind. One hundred thirteen dogs were entered in six stakes before two sets of judges.

As he has been before, this observer was struck by the persistence with which certain dogs dominated, as winners and the producers of winners. Consider the following: Jacque of Connie was the sire of the winner of the open limited all age stake, of two of the placed dogs in the open all age stake, of one in the amateur all age stake, and was the grandsire of two of the derby winners and one of the winning puppies!

Gringo de Britt was the sire of the winner of the gun dog stake, grandsire of one of the winners in the amateur all age stake, and grandsire of one derby and two puppy winners! Each of these three puppy and derby winners was sired by a son of Gringo that at the time of this writing was still being campaigned and offered at stud, and so will not be named here.

Ban-Dee was the sire of one of the adult winners that placed in two stakes and grandsire of one of the puppy winners. Blue Grass Tex sired on adult winner that placed in two stakes. Allair's Evereddy sired two adult winners.

One current campaigner sired two of the derby winners and placed in the open all age stake. Another sired a puppy winner and placed in the amateur all age stake.

As has been pointed out before, all that this may prove is that dogs that are often bred to produce many pups, but I think it proves much more. All who wish may run, and at least in this part of the country certain bloodlines prevail.

Consider these things when you breed a litter or buy a pup.

"Observations of a Field Trial Reporter"
Illinois Spring Trial- -1970

"The high point of this trial came when Doug Croxton, out alone in the Crab Orchard wilderness, found two runaway dogs but lost his horse. Doug had whoad both dogs some distance apart, put one on a leash, and was leading it and his horse toward the other, when the bridle came off the horse and it departed toward the distant barn. All turned out well, however, and horse, dogs, and Doug all got back to the barn safely". (American Brittany, May, 1970).

{While the names of some of the dogs and people mentioned may not be familiar to some of our newer members, the concept behind these types of articles are still current today. Field trial secretaries might consider doing similar studies on their trials to see which bloodlines are predominate in today's events. For those of us with gray hair, it often brings a smile to remember those we no longer see or hear from the likes of Doug Croxton and his father Wayne. Where are you Doug? We could conjure up lots of interesting stories about some of those folks who have come into our lives, moved on, but left lots of memories that it is fun to revive from time to time. 2012 ABC Prairie Chicken Classic/Championship

Bassett, NE

September 17-21, 2012

by Mary Karbiner

The annual running of the American Brittany Club Prairie Chicken Classic/Championship commenced September 17, 2012 near Bassett, Nebraska. We were again the guest of Rock County ranchers Ted Morton and Butch Fisher. We appreciate the hospitality shown by the area businesses.

From the fifty-two entries taken to the line, Kinwashkly Dirty Ned Pepper emerged the winner. Ned is owned by Vern and Kim Brunen of Canada and handled by Scott Johnson of Kansas. Ned is a snappy running, orange and white, six year old male. He is sired by Kinwashkly Mac Magoo x Kinwashkly French Velour.

Runner-up is no stranger to hour stakes. Carolina Sea Biscuit was also handled by Scott Johnson. Biscuit is a white and orange male born in 2004 and owned by Bill Oliver of Kansas. Biscuit is sired by Carolina Ranger II x Carolina Blue. His race showed maturity in application.

Third place was awarded to Hal-J's Smarteyes-Joker's EZ Ace handled by Jim John of Kansas. His owner Hal Revoir of Minnesota was on hand to see the performance and receive congratulations. Ace is out of Smarteyes-Joker x Allied's Sassie Sadie II.

Fourth place, also handled by Jim John was Joker's Jackpot. Jack is a five-year-old male out of Smarteyes-Joker x S'no Fun Seahawk and owned by Steve Ralph of Minnesota.

In 1964, the first ABC Prairie Chicken Classic was held in Wisconsin at the Buena Vista Marsh. In 1975 was the first rotation to Nebraska on the Taylor Ranch near Burwell. Wisconsin last held the event in 2000. From 2001 thru 2004, its home was the Taylor Ranch. In 2005, the event moved to Bassett about 60 miles northwest and is still its current venue.

I will use an excerpt from an article written by Rand Constale "Mr. Chicken" of Badger Brittany Club (Wisc) for the ABC magazine mid 60s issue. "Very few people have the opportunity to see the true Prairie Chicken (Tympanuchus Cupido). This bird should not be confused with the sharp-tailed grouse, which in some sections are called "chicken". The sharp-tail is a bird of brush edges, where as the Prairie Chicken shuns brush and forest and is only in the grass. One of the reasons the true Prairie Chicken was vanishing from the American scene is that he requires large acreages of undisturbed grasslands".

This is the last true all age hour stake on native birds. Those people who support this event see, feel and care about the Prairie Chicken Championship and its future.

We wish to thank Nestle-Purina for their support. They have been longtime sponsors of the ABC Classics and field trials. They are one of the world's largest animal food producers. Their research and development is ongoing. Mr. Roy Pelton was on hand for several days to visit with folks answer questions about the product.

Tri Tronics has been generous with their product for the ABC hour events. They provide a training collar to the winning handler. Their products are widely used to train all varieties of animals.

The judges for this year's event "know chickens". Mr. Howard Burbach of Missouri and Mr. Garvin Collins rode with a keen eye to the performances of each entry. They were attentive to the task at hand plus a pleasure to visit with.

Jeana Harmon of the Coral Bar in Bassett supplied the coffee and rolls for the morning breaks. There was also a dinner on Tuesday evening that she organized for the handlers, participants and landowners. With the many fires in the area, fundraisers for the fire departments and other community needs were attended by dog people. A Beef Cook-Off contest/fund raiser was held at the Bassett Country Club. The Bassett senior Center held a hamburger feed and bingo night that was enjoyed by those who attended. Howard and Harlan thought that they were big winners. The American Legion had a steak feed on Wednesday where all gathered.

A special thanks to Niobrara Valley Equipment and Mr. Chris Raymon of Ainsworth, Nebraska for the use of a gator. It made it much easier to get around the country with the dog trailer.

Missed this year was Wade Haines of Ohio. He had family medical to attend to. Wade and Ray Trimble are the "Senior Supporters" of this Nebraska event and attend annually. There were people from Nebraska, Texas, Illinois, Kansas, New Mexico and Kentucky. All enjoyed the ample prairie chicken sightings and to catch up on news through the summer.

Workers-What every field trial begs to find. This event through the years has a network of workers who make sure the little things are taken care of. When you cross thousands of acres, there are gates to open and close. We greatly appreciate those people who got off and on horseback to do so. Stan and Claudia Truksa of the Nebraska Brittany Club are the organizers and backbone of this event and for their amazing efforts, we sincerely thank them.

Come join us next September to experience the Nebraska Sandhills, prairie chicken habitat and small town hospitality.

The Running: Kinwashkly Fat Bastard, Tracy and Hal-J's Smarteye's Joker's EZ Ace, John. Under overcast skies and moderate winds we ran course one in reverse to better accommodate a new turn on the grounds. At 4', Fatty acknowledged the flight of a small covey of chickens in the distance and went on. At 15', point was called as he stood in a swale. Nothing was produced. His race was wide and forward. At 19', Ace handled a find nicely in the meadow. He had an unproductive at 35'. Ace's applications were wide at the turns causing him to be lateral at times.

Ruffwood's Own Agenda, Tillson and Odyssey's Ace of Hearts, Holman. We rode up three different batches of birds in the first half of this brace. Neither dog pointed any game in the hour. Gen made some nice moves early then midway in the hour she shortened being distracted with ground scent. Ace made some good moves using the country well.

Shady's Desert Knight, Johnson and Jac's Over Aces, Holman. The front had moved off and sunshine was abundant. Knight had bird contact early in the hour but not handling the situation well and was leashed. Dan showed some immaturity and didn't appear to want to participate today. He was leashed shortly after.

Jake's Acres in Disquish, Gorrow and Ugh, Stumblin From The Shadow, Tillson. Both dogs started slow making wider swings into the hour. Jake made a wide turn as we traveled the far eastern boundary of course one being out of pocket. He had no birds in the hour. Bubba had bird contact at 37'. A single lifted and he honored the flight. At the shot, another bird lifted and he stood throughout. His application is fluid and ground covering.

Oz II, Stonehouse and Jayhawk's October Skye, John. We passed through the gate near Adams Lake, east of camp riding into bird alley. A large covey lifted to our left. Shortly after at 7' Oz is seen under a single. Skye traveled along the lake edge where point was called, releasing herself, when another covey flushed and she wanted a closer look.

Uncle Kracker, Tracy and Ru-Jem's A Touch of Bourbon, McGee. We left from south edge of camp. Kracker being the wider of the pair as Chug started slow. Chug had an unproductive at 45' near a gate. At 52', Kracker was credited with a find with all in order. Chug had a find at 53' finishing at moderate range.

Repete Call, Holman and Tj's Prairie Blizzard, Tillson. Blizzard was directionally challenged; he wanted to go in another way. Pete had a hard time maintaining a forward pattern and was up midway to end the hour.

Early Times, Tracy and Whizki's Sting, Holman. Holly made some strong moves. Near the gate at Adams Lake, she pointed staunchly but at the flush, there was too much temptation and she went with the birds. Earl ran the hour like the seasoned hour dog, showing how the prairie is covered. He was not rewarded with game for his efforts.

McChesney's Tequila River, John and Windtuck Rocket's Red Glare, Milam. Both dogs started at moderate range, working the cover. Rio finished at the same range with an unproductive near the end of the hour. Rocket at 45' made a downwind cast across two pastures and was just a spec at time. He had no bird contact.

August Rush, Tracy and Tsunami, Johnson. Auggie started with some wide casts, a distraction with cattle marred his hour. Sue had an early encounter with a jackrabbit but returned to work the country. Neither dog had bird contact.

KD's Slip and Slide, Tillson and Carolina Sea Biscuit, Johnson. We left from Adams Lake pasture. Across the pasture, at the fence line Splash handled a find nicely at 14' through the shot with more birds lifting. Both dogs moved into the hay meadow south of the Morton house. A large covey lifted from the cover. Biscuit stood nicely with Splash in pursuit. Handler shot and another nice sized covey lifted nearby. He ran smartly using the terrain, checking the likely places for birds. At 59', he had a baron stand in a swale. He finished the hour forward.

Jaboub's Buzz N Bayou, Tracy and Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy, John. Buzz started strong making bold casts; midway he slowed and was leashed at 45'. Gypsy ran a strong prairie race. She maintained her snap even running in the heat. She was not rewarded with birds.

Grand Junction Jake, Holman and Kinwashkly Dirty Ned Pepper, Johnson. Overcast skies, mid 50s at daylight. The wind was to change to northwest and increase near midday. Jake made strong casts in prairie fashion. He had an unproductive near the end of the hour. Ned made wide casts across the country. At 24' he pointed near the fence line at the lone pine on course one. A single lifted with all in order. He finished the hour near Adams Lake with a find on a single chicken. His manners were sterling.

Brushbuster's Lakota Jill, John and Brisco's Mr. Stub, Gorrow. Jill started strong and snappy. Stub didn't get lined out and was up early. The wind as was forecasted had increased with gusts. Jill has shortened her race and was leashed near the end of the hour.

The Crash Scene, Tracy and Tequila's Barbed Wire, Tillson. Both dogs started well. Trouble cruised across the terrain while Crash went wide to the hay meadow. As we traveled in a westerly direction, the wind intensified and dogs were fighting to stay forward. The brace ended at 40'.

Sandy Pines Chase The Wind, Holman and Mr. Magic II, John. Early in the hour, dogs ran with the wind and went off to "Hazel Bakers". Chavy returned first and Magic was last seen on the far northerly hills heading north. Chavy had two unproductives at 39' and 58'. Magic was not returned to judgment.

Georgia's Texas Two Step, Tracy and Black Creek Tim, Holman. The wind was still strong with gusts. Both dogs gave their best shots but just couldn't buck the wind. The brace was over at 40'.

Wimberley Rowdy Bo-Dandy, Johnson and Tlm Frequent Flyer, Gerardy. Rowdy had trouble with the wind and was leashed midway in the hour. Flyer made a few casts using the terrain. At 33' in the Thompson pasture he pointed, relocated several times trailing ground scent, without producing any game at 41'. He pointed staunchly again, was relocated and worked the area to no avail and was leashed.

Wolf Rivers Winning Ticket, Gorrow and TLM Copilot, Gerardy. Both dogs started strong. Cash made good moves and maintained his strong application throughout the hour but was not rewarded with game. Jack ran a strong race getting wider in the eastern part of our travels. He was out of pocket and not returned to judgment at 45'.

Black Creek Deacon, Holman and Kinwashkly ML Benjamin Patrick, Johnson. Both dogs made prairie casts early in the hour with De being wider of the pair. Ben became more methodical and was up at 45'. De finished the hour headed west out of site. He did not have any bird contact during the hour.

Roustabout's White Knight, Tracy and Trucker's Wild Ride, Gorrow. We left the windmill with both dogs going to the lowlands. We made the turn toward the hay meadow fence Trucker had slowed and was leashed. Knight was not maintaining a forward pattern and he also was taken to the wagon.

Cedar Valley Bandit, Tracy and Joker's Jackpot, John. Some sun peeked through the clouds. Temperatures pleasantly cool. Bandit started forward and strong as the hour progressed he marched to his own drum. He was leashed shortly before the end of the hour. Jack made an opening cast into the northwest wind, which took him lateral in our direction of travel. He has a ground-grabbing gait as he moves across the country. At 53', at the edge of Adams Lake, he established point. At the handlers approach a small covey took flight. He stood rock solid throughout. He finished the hour through the T-road gate, well forward near the windmill.

Shadow Attack, Tillson and Wimberley Jim Dandy, Johnson. We broke away under overcast skies, quickly into the hour, the sun broke through the clouds and it was as if we stepped under a boilerplate. The dogs started with strong casts but quickly felt the heat. Dandy was up at 45' and Tack was up at 54' with no "want to" left.

Shady Way's Red Tail Hawk, John and Shadow's Tequila Tryst, Tillson. This pair started strong. At 4' Mo established point, riding to him the birds lifted. He hesitated and released himself. Tristyn worked forward into the next pasture where she proceeded to point and work forward as if trailing something. (Reporters observation- this is the same area where another dog acted the same way on a previous day.) She was leashed to end the brace.

Roustabout's Sniksoh Sadie, Tracy and Trademark's ATM, Holman. Off at 8:00 am under sunny skies and cool temperatures. At 3', point is called for Sadie. She stood tall in a swale. Handler flushed a nice covey of chickens as she stood staunchly. An unproductive at 35' then finishing the hour at moderate range, southeast of Adams Lake. Cash started slow gaining range. At 13', he pointed in a swale, relocated, but nothing was produced. Cash continued to hunt the country until we turned into the wind; he shortened as was leashed at 48'.

Trademark's Iceman, Holman and Brittmont the Hawk, Gorrow. We left the east end gate at Adams Lake. Hawk not getting lined out was leashed early. Timmie started at moderate range, working the terrain. He finished the hour without bird contact.

Specialty Shows

SAN DIEGO Pomona, CA May 26, 2012

The San Diego Brittany Club's 38th annual Specialty Show was held in conjunction with the San Fernando Kennel Club all breed show on May 26 at the "Mission Circuit". The following day the California Brittany Club had their Specialty and Sweepstakes, all in all we had four days of majors. The location is indoors so there are no worries about weather, but the weather was pretty good when it was time for our potluck out in a grove of trees. After our potluck, we had a short club meeting to discuss the Fall Walking Trial. Our gratitude to our two judges and all those who supported our show and congratulations to all the winners.

CALIFORNIA
Pomona, CA
May 27, 2012

This year we had back to back Brittany specialties held in conjunction with the four day Mission Circuit Cluster at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds in Pomona California. Sunday, May 27th the California Brittany Club Specialty followed the San Diego Brittany Club Specialty on the 26th.

Ms. Sharon Zaker did a wonderful job judging our Sweepstakes with loving hands and a careful eye. Ms. Zaker is an AKC judge of mostly non-sporting breeds but has a family history with Brittans. In Sweepstakes she awarded Mary Brown and Rashelle (Brown) Systema's handsome orange and white dog River, Copley's Red River handled by Rashelle Best in Sweepstakes. Best of Opposite was a beautiful liver and white bitch, Shiloh's One Tough Cookie owned by Emily Fisk and Kyle Hodges, handled by Emily.

We had several wonderful veterans competing this year to a loud round of applause from the spectators. Best of Veterans was awarded to Jenelle and Nancy Larson's, GCH Britt's Ramblin Bourne Identity handled by Jenelle. Best Opposite in Veterans was CH Swift River's Destiny's Child JH AX AXJ, owned, loved and handled by Sharon Kalionzes. The trophies awarded for the Best and Best Opposite in Sweepstakes and Veterans were large bone shaped pink and blue beds with Brittany embroidered Bone Dry grooming towels. Of course pink went to the girls and blue to the boys. All placements received goodie bags filled with toys and biscuits.

Our Specialty judge was Mr. Ken J. Murray who judged the breed with a knowing eye that indicated his years of experience with our breed. He awarded Best of Breed to GCH Dual Lanes Cam owned by Christopher and Leslie Robinson and Katherine Harper, handled by David Harper. Best of Winners and Winners Dog, Copley's Red River owned by Mary Brown, handled by co-owner Rachele Systma. Best of Opposite was GCH Britt's Ramblin the Perfect Cut, owner handled by Jenelle Larson, co-owner Karen Schoppa. Select Dog, GCH Mich's Aim Mt Ready Aim Fire, Kristina, Lori and Tom Rickard and John Davies handled by Kristina. Select Bitch, CH Sanbar's Evening Shades, Robert and Polly West and Carolyn West, Handler Adrienne Owen. Shiloh's Babblin Brook won Winners Bitch for her first major. She is owned by Mary Brown and Linda McDonald handled by Rachele (Brown) Systma. This year due to an error in the judge's book Awards of Merit were not awarded. However, the following were in consideration for Breed, CH Premier's All About Avatar, GCH Gourley's DFL 99 Carat Diamond and GCH paw print bowls filled with assorted dog items.

Our Specialty show was successful because of the contribution of its show committee, trophy sponsors and members. Linda McDonald was our in charge Show Chairperson. Trophy and Trophy Sponsor Chairperson, Deborah Frane with help from her mom, Jean Page and daughter-in-law Cherrella Chumley. During her visit Deborah's mom made the beautiful red and tan paw print tissue flowers. Cherrella created the Show Brittany cartoons for use on all the tags and cards. Joy Ory took charge of the trophies making sure the Ring Steward had the correct trophies for each class while Deborah photographed our event. Leah Shirokoff and Sheri Harder did a great job setting up our hospitality table with assorted goodies including Leah's signature donuts. Don and Peggy Echavarria with Dena Miller did a great job putting together our raffle items. Tom Temple and Mark Ambre were in charge of supply transport and setup. Carl Miller delivered the newly titled Celebration Cake to the picnic site.

This year we celebrated two new Grand Champions and a Champion, GCH TK's Good Golly Miss Molly's CDX owned by Carl and Dena Miller, GCH Brigade's Hi Hopes Rocket JH, Deborah and Michael Frane and CH Redline's Hunting for My Halo, Tom and Doreen Kearney.

Following the Specialty was our annual Pot Luck, Raffle and Meeting. During our announcements our club President, Sheri Harder presented Linda McDonald an embroidered canvas tote with her breeds, Bull Mastiff and Brittany in recognition for Linda's fifth year as Show Chairperson. Linda was very happy and surprised that Deborah was able to keep it a secret for weeks.

We like to thank everybody for attending our 2012 California Brittany Club Specialty. Your participation is what makes this a great Brittany event!

Results were printed on page 42 of the August issue of The American Brittany.

Trophy Table

Brigade's Hi Hopes Rocket JH (Field Trial).

This was a great finishing weekend for club members. Michael and Deborah Frane's Angel, Shiloh's Swift Kiss A Taq handled by Valerie Nunes-Atkinson's assistant Lauren Lavitt finished with a five point major at the San Diego Brittany Club Specialty. On Monday at the CBC supported entry Mary Brown and Linda Mc Donald's Pebbles, Shiloh's Babblin Brook won her 2nd back to back major finishing her Champion title.

This year's trophy theme was Brittans, Paw Prints and Bones. The top placements received beautiful Brittany embroidered beige linen look totes with matching engraved key fobs. The totes were filled with this year's artist cards, towels and a dedicated autographed copy of David Frei's book, Angel on A Leash. Winners Dog and Winners Bitch received large paw print bowls filled with toys, biscuits and Brittany embroidered grooming towels. Best Bred-By and Best Puppy were Biscuit Tins with an embroidered towel and toys. All other placements received stainless steel

Our first combined specialty was well attended. We had 64 entries and five point majors in dogs and bitches. Our judge Debbie Davis stated how exciting it was to have an entry of such good quality dogs and it was a pleasure and an honor to judge them.

Thank you to all who entered, helped and supported; it was much appreciated. As this was our first combined Michigan and Western Michigan specialty Diane and I were excited and pleased it was so well attended and supported. A big thank you to you all. See you next year!

October 22, 2012

About four years ago I decided to try to have a specialty show just prior to the National Gun Dog Championships in Ionia. We held our first fall specialty in 2010. We had a pretty nice entry, but I really wanted this to be at least a two club event. This year with Cathy Rigoulot as Show Chairman for the Michigan Brittany club, my dream came true. We held our first combined specialty and it was a huge success! My thanks go to Cathy for understanding my vision and doing everything in her power to make it happen.

The Western Michigan specialty started at 8:30 a.m. at the Western Michigan Rifle and Pistol Club in Ionia on Monday, October 22, the day before the gun dog championships began. Our judge, Jim Fehring came from Tulsa, Oklahoma to look at our 64 dog entry. He had taken judge's education in 2010 and 2011 and stayed for both national specialties so I figured he had a pretty good idea of what our standard said and had seen enough dogs to be able to apply it correctly.

I'd like to thank everyone who supported these specialties with their entries. Thanks go to everyone who helped set-up the show site and then cleaned up afterwards. Special thanks go to my husband Gary who totes all the ring material to Ionia, sets it up, and takes it down again. He puts up with my "last minute" requests and we really could not have the specialty without him. Deb Smelt, our Canadian member, came down nearly a week early to help me get things ready for the specialty and lunch. She comes down every year and it is most appreciated. She may not be able to attend meetings, but she makes up for it by the amount of work she's done and the dedication she has shown.

Please plan on coming to our spring specialty in conjunction with our spring field trial and join in the fun we have in Michigan! In the spring we are followed by the Michigan Brittany Championship, Michigan Shooting Dog Championship, Derby Classic and the Michigan Brittany Club trial. It's ten days of fun that you really shouldn't miss!

Hunt Test

ANTHRACITE

Weatherly, PA

September 22-23, 2012

Anthracite Brittany Club held its fall hunt test on September 22 and 23, 2012, at Freeland Kennel Club. The grounds were lush green, along with cool temps making a nice setting for the weekend's tests. Thank you to all who participated: judges, volunteers, and handlers. Jack N' Lins food court provided not only a large hot and cold breakfast and lunch menu, but a very good Judges' dinner Saturday evening. Congratulations to all participants for having their dogs ready for one of the first hunt tests of the season, and especially to all passing dogs and handlers. Eighty-four dogs ran over the two days with some finishing their titles.

October 13-14, 2012

The Greater Indianapolis Brittany Club was blessed with good weather, as approaching storms held off until after the events. Saturday was overcast with cool temperatures and light breezes and a brief shower. Sunday had very windy conditions and also a brief shower. The high winds affected some of the dogs and several shots could not be taken because of them. Some excellent gunning made the event a success. Saturday evening was once again finished with a superb meal provided by the GIBC for all members, entrants and judges. Thank you to Vickie Manifold, Sandy Mewbourn, Jill Schaefer and Carol Rich for all their work in the kitchen. Thank you to our gunners: Jeff Parks, Rob Rich, Justin Rich, Herb Manifold and Chuck Schaefer. Great joy guys! Thanks go out to our judges, especially Mark Holzinger and Lisa Cleveland for stepping in for John Prikosovich. Thank you to Mark Redick and Tim Piotrkowski for planting birds. Also, a special thanks to Marc and Nickie Redick for laying out the bird field and filling water barrels.

Obedience/Agility/Rally Special Feature: Physical Therapy Applications for Pain Management in Sports Medicine

By Carla Simon

By Laurie Edge-Hughes, BScPT, MAnimSt
(Animal Physio.), CAFCI, CCRT
The Canine Fitness Centre Ltd, Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Canine athletes can suffer from a wide variety of musculoskeletal injuries, which may impede their ability to compete in their sport until the injury is fully resolved. However, a good number of athletes may suffer from painful chronic musculoskeletal conditions that are not injuries per se, but rather conditions of overuse or aging. One such condition is osteoarthritis, which can be managed with physical therapy applications in order to improve the quality of life of the animal athlete and allow for the continuance of engaging in sporting activities.

OSTEOARTHRITIS

Osteoarthritis creates both mechanical pain, due to abnormal loading and stress on the joint, and some inflammatory pain, due to chemicals released. Following inflammation, it has been shown there is an increase in nerve responses to both painful stimuli and non-painful joint movement. This phenomenon is called peripheral sensitization or wind-up pain (i.e. the nerve endings in and around a painful joint start signaling the brain and spinal cord that there is pain in an area even when nothing painful is happening to the joint). This can lead to an exaggerated recognition of pain signals by the spinal cord and brain – a phenomenon called central sensitization. When all of this occurs the brain and spinal cord stop being ‘objective’ about the pain messaging... and before you know it – everything causes pain!!! Together, these changes observed with osteoarthritis can contribute to pain and loss of function.

Osteoarthritis (OA) clinically manifests with aching, discomfort, and pain that increases with excessive activity, a reduction in the overall activity level or ability to perform activities, poorer body awareness, joint stiffness and enlargement, swelling, and loss of flexibility and strength. While dogs with severe cases of OA should likely be retired from sport, there are a number of dogs in competition sports that have mild to moderate OA and still derive a seemingly tremendous amount of joy from these activities. It is this subset of athletes that can benefit from proactive physical therapy pain management strategies.

THERMOTHERAPY

Heat has long been used for symptomatic treatment of arthritic pain and stiffness. Improvement in arthritic stiffness has been shown with thermal therapies. Additionally superficial heat has demonstrated short-term reductions in pain in cases of acute or subacute low back pain. Thus heat can be utilized for the above benefits as part of the day to day management of arthritic joints and prior to engaging in physical activities.

CRYOTHERAPY

Ice is often utilized and well supported by research in cases of acute pain and injury. Reviews have shown that clinically, ice provides benefits in terms of swelling and range of motion in osteoarthritic joints. Thus icing may be effectively utilized post-sporting activities to aid in pain relief in addition to its use in acute inflammatory conditions or in cases of OA ‘flare ups’.

THERAPEUTIC LASER

Low-level laser therapy (LLLT) uses laser light to aid tissue repair, relieve pain, and stimulate acupuncture points. Its general effectiveness can be attributed to anti-inflammatory mechanisms, the ability to overuse stresses, new blood vessel formation, cartilage repair, and bone repair, and slowing down the nerves signaling system. Research into the use of LLLT for pain reduction and tissue repair spans more than 30 years. Data suggests that positive pain-relieving effects are immediate and can be maintained for up to 3 months after treatment ceases.

TRANSCUTANEOUS ELECTRICAL NEUROMUSCULAR STIMULATION (TENS)

Transcutaneous electrical neuromuscular stimulation (TENS) is a modality commonly utilized for pain relief. The two main mechanisms by which TENS produces pain relief are blocking of pain signals at the level of the spinal cord, and inhibition of ‘reactions’ to pain. Other studies have also shown that TENS can stimulate the body’s own production of endorphins and other pain-relieving chemicals. TENS application can not only be localized to the painful area but also to the spine in order to treat the nerve roots that supply the painful area.

PULSED ELECTROMAGNETIC FIELD THERAPY

Pulsed Electromagnetic Field Therapy (PEMF) is a greatly debated therapeutic tool in physical therapy practice. Conflicting results exist for its use in the treatment of osteoarthritis pain. However one paper reviewed relevant studies and concluded that PEMF improved clinical scores and function in patients with osteoarthritis of the knee. So it is certainly worth trying as well.

THERAPEUTIC ULTRASOUND

Ultrasound is a highly utilized modality in human physical therapy practice. Clinically, it has been shown to be of benefit for pain relief and improved function in osteoarthritis. The proposed mechanisms for this are either via heating mechanisms, whereby the deep heating may improve peripheral nerve function, or increased blood flow. Alternately non-thermal/mechanical mechanisms have been proposed whereby the movement of fluids across cell membranes or the creation of transient gas bubbles in the treated area, may enhance cellular permeability and allow for better local utilization of anti-inflammatory medications.

MOBILIZATIONS

The proposed mechanisms through which mobilization and manipulation affect pain and motion restrictions are recently being broadened. Research has not been able to substantiate a biomechanical effect (e.g. correction of a positional fault). However, the neurological effects of mobilizations are reportedly a reduction in pain and reduction of reflex muscle spasms. Mobilization via repetitive (oscillatory) or sustained manual stimulation can reduce the 'firing' of nerve ending that sense and report pain. This can result in a reduction of joint pressure and 'over-reporting' of pain by the nervous system.

MASSAGE

Massage can have effects on the brain, the whole body, and the specific tissues being massaged. From a pain perspective, massage has been shown to endorphins, decrease systolic blood pressure, and reduce stress hormones. Not only is there a pain reduction, but an increase in pain tolerance that is present with repeated treatments and lasts for as long as a regular massage regimen is continued. Massage-like-stroking has also been found to optimize digestion and improve nutrient assimilation. The psychological benefits of massage may have a direct impact on pain. Massage has been shown to improve mood, reduce anxiety and depression, and improve sleep.

STRETCHING

Stretching as it relates to osteoarthritis pain has not been studied. One study found that it may increase the effectiveness of exercise in terms of functional improvement in patients with knee osteoarthritis. Another study found that Labrador Retrievers demonstrated an increase in osteoarthritic joint range of motion utilizing daily passive stretching. It is unknown if these functional improvements may indirectly contribute to pain management.

EXERCISE THERAPY

Systematic review show that exercise is beneficial for a variety of pain conditions including neck pain, chronic low back pain, pelvic pain, osteoarthritis, patellofemoral pain, fibromyalgia, rheumatoid arthritis, and tendonitis. Strengthening exercises, specifically, have been shown to be effective for hip osteoarthritis. Thus in addition to allowing the animal to maintain participation in sports, it may also be wise to partake in exercises specific to the affected joint in order to further improve function (and subsequently reduce pain).

CONCLUSION

Mild and moderate osteoarthritis is often a common condition in sporting animals. With an evidence informed approach to pain management for this condition, physical therapies can be part of a multimodal treatment regimen for the canine athlete that can enable the animal to enjoy participation in sports as he or she ages.

SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND Flaherty Field East Windsor, CT September 28-30, 2012

The Southern New England Club held its fall field trial at Flaherty Field in East Windsor, CT September 28-30, 2012. We had torrential rains on Friday during the hour long Open Limited Stake. Otherwise, the weather was perfect for handlers and dogs. We enjoyed a barbecued chicken dinner under the pavilion on Saturday. Sunday's events ran smoothly as well.

Our club has a dedicated core of workers, which makes a trial of this size very manageable. Thank you to our excellent panel of judges, the handlers and their dogs. Hope to see everyone back in the spring.

MINNESOTA The Bird Sanctuary Solon Springs, WI October 6-7, 2012

The Minnesota Brittany Club held its Fall Trial at the Bird Sanctuary in Douglas County Wisconsin, located near Solon Springs. The weather was typical fall stuff with cloudy, windy conditions with little sunshine and a spatter of snow. It all made for good scenting conditions for the dogs and it showed with lots of bird contact over the weekend. The grounds at the Bird Sanctuary are historic, colorful in the fall and have lots of room to run. Seventy-seven dogs came to the line over the two days on four different courses finding wild and planted birds. The Minnesota Brittany Club would like to thank our Judges for the weekend: Chris Benskin, Jim Brigham, Kevin Jahr, Bob Powell, Dan and Becky Voss and Jack Witchita. We appreciate your time in the saddle and your willingness to let the handlers show their dogs over their respective courses. We would also like to thank the Professional Handlers that brought some really good dogs to our event: Greg Dixon, Matt Eder and Wes Lodes. Dave Carlson was the Field Trial Secretary and I would like to thank the members of the Minnesota Brittany Club that helped make the event a success. Chairman Jackie Swanson, Carlos and Eileen Gust, Diane Hedstrom, Katy Gill, George and Cindy McCann, Mary Tyson and Amy Pluth. A Trial can't happen without folks like you getting dogs to the line, planting birds, hauling water and providing food. We also had help from outside our Club to keep the Trial running smoothly: Kelly, Chris, Heather and Greg pitched in wherever they could. Our Club appreciates the help. Over the weekend, I saw people loaning horses, scouting at the spur of the moment, grabbing the bird bag and a lot of good bird work by the dogs and handlers to learn from. Now that's a Brittany club Field Trial!

Ardmore, OK

October 5-7, 2012

Our fall trial usually has temperatures ranging from low 60s to mid 80s. It was an early cool front that gave us good dog weather of lows in the upper 40s to highs in the low 70s. It certainly perked the dogs up and lifted the spirits of the participants. This combined with the fact that several pre-released coveys were pointed made for a very enjoyable trial.

Scott Johnson, Vic Carrington, David Downing and Jimmy Berneathy brought their fine strings of dogs. It was evident that they had been working this fall. Jimmy was a "Ribbon Hog" winning the majority of the ribbons. However, Harlan Gerardy, an amateur, took second in the Open All Age with TLM Frequent Flyer and followed that up with the blue in the Amateur. David blew the competition away with a big running puppy in the Open Puppy. Thanks for coming guys.

No one person puts on a field trial. Good judges are a must and we had these in Gary Young, Rob Rankin, and Jim Crawford. Rick Conner was his usual proficient self, having the dog wagon at the right place at the right time. Ed Peace passed away during the summer and was missed by everyone. His daughter, Tony, came and brought homemade cookies and candy. Everyone enjoyed them. Thank you to everyone that helped and all of the participants. We hope to see you in the spring.

2012 Kansas Brittany All Age Championship

October 9-12, 2012

Reported by Tom Milam

The 16th running of the Kansas Open Brittany All Age Championship, sponsored by the Southern Kansas Brittany Club, was held October 9th thru the 12th, 2012. The club has always had a backbone of hard workers such as Francis Clasen, Johnny Pappan, Cecil Duncan, and Herb Rea. It continues in the good hands of Larry Hagedorn, Terry Gowin and Matt Kitchen.

The venue is the beautiful Oliver Ranch in the Flint Hills of Kansas. The ranch is owned by Bill and Mary Lynn Oliver and they graciously allow the use of the ranch. Also, they are long time patrons of Brittanys. Lyle Johnson campaigned several dogs for them including the great National Champion Microdot. The Olivers presently own Carolina Sea Biscuit which recently garnered the Runner Up title in the Chicken Championship under the guidance of Scott Johnson.

The judges were Howard Burbach and Kendall Schmidt. They paid attention to the dogs and their decisions were well received. The Championship was sponsored by PMI Exclusive dog food and Williams Ace Hardware of Andover, Kansas. Their generous participation is greatly appreciated.

The Running-1 Hour Stake
Tuesday, October 9, 2012

1. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG - BURCHETT/SHADOWS TEQUILA TRYST - TILLSON: Chug was the more active off the break. At six, both dogs are pointing separate birds. Chug went with his when they were flushed. Tryst exhibited excellent bird finding ability finishing with five finds but her race suffered.

2. TJ'S PRAIRIE BLIZZARD - TILLSON/ROCKLAN'S MISTY'S ALLIE T-BEAR - BURCHETT: T-Bear missed a turn and was not returned to judgment. Blizzard toured the course like the pro he is. He was to the front at good range. One cast had him on the left hand side of a line to the end and then coming across the front on the right. He had one stylish find and finished well.

3. SPARKY'S PRAIRIE WIND GYPSY - JOHN/TSUNAMI - JOHNSON: Gypsy was doing a good job on the ground but was lost at the mouth of Sycamore Canyon. Sue was on her best behavior. She was forward at competitive range, had one find but suffered two non-productives.

4. PARKER'S HARD CASH - BURCHETT/SHADOW ATTACK - TILLSON: Hard Cash had a find, was touring the country like he owned it, and then he was gone. Tack started a little slow but got it going. He had a stylish find at twenty and had a good finish going away.

5. ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT - BURCHETT/UGH STUBMLIN FROM THE SHADOW - TILLSON: Flat Out was appropriately named. That is the way she runs, a real pleasure. No birds. Shadow, call name Bubba, is a happy camper. He had a forward race, never behind, to go with two good finds and an acceptable finish.

6. WINTUCK ROCKET'S RED GLARE - MILAM/TRAMP'S FRECKLED FANCY - ROGERS: Rocket had a very strong breakaway heading up the creek past Jim's crossing. Deer were seen leaving the area, but Rocket wasn't, however he was not returned to judgment. Rocket was "Dog Gone" early. Fancy's handler called point at 28, but was unable to produce a bird. Fancy hunted hard and ran the course but was not rewarded.

Wednesday, October 10, 2012

7. HAL-JS SMARTEYES JOKER ACE - JOHN/KINWASHKLY DIRTY NED PEPPER - JOHNSON: Both dogs were out of pocket in the first 30 minutes. The handlers asked for the Garmins as we left the "Bowl".

8. WIMBERLY JIM DANDY - JOHNSON/JOKERS JACKPOT - JOHN: Breakaway was from the gate at the south of the Bowl. Both dogs made big casts toward the lake. They carried the casts into the creek feeding the lake. Dandy was further north in the creek and pointed. Jack had also established point to the south of him. Both were high on both ends, looking good. As John arrived at Jack so did his dog from the previous brace, however Ace did not get credit for a back. Shots were fired and Dandy and Jack were broke away. Jack made a showy cast around the lake. He had a second find at 35. Dandy became misplaced in the lake area and was not returned to judgment. Jack made a cast off course up windmill creek with John and the judges in tow. Thankfully, they all returned and the brace was culminated on course. A job well done.

9. TEQUILA'S BARBED WIRE - TILLSON/RICO'S HI-PROOF BOOTLEGGER - BURCHETT: Wire breezed around early but was lost at 25. Bootlegger had a find at 15 and maintained a forward application. He tired and the handler threw in the towel at 45.

10. TLM CO PILOT - GERARDY/DESERT ROSE IV - BERNEATHY: Co Pilot bailed out early, was seen by the dog wagon but not the handler or scout. Rose made several nice casts around the course. Point was called at 58 but a bird was not produced. The hour ended without bird work.

11. CHIEF'S NUBBIN'S LIL LADY - BERNEATHY/RU-JEM'S FIST FULL OF DOLLARS - MCGEE: Lady had two non-productives early in the brace. Dollar had a moderate race and no birds.

12. ROUSTABOUT'S NEW QUICK - BURCHETT/BE LINE'S QUEEN - ROGERS: Quick is a young roan dog that shows a lot of promise. He made big casts to the front, found birds, looked good. Oops, he helped in the flushing. Queen was not suiting her handler and was up early.

13. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT - JOHNSON/CRESENT CITY GIRL - BURCHETT: Knight had a non-productive at 25 and a find at 34. He became erratic in his application and didn't finish the brace. Girl was also picked up by her handler after one find.

Thursday, October 11, 2012

14. TLM FREQUENT FLYER - GERARDY/MR. MAGIC - JOHN: Both dogs had strong breakaways. Magic went over the hill into the Bowl and wasn't seen again until located by the tracker. Jack had a find as he entered the Bowl and another at the crossing in the slew. He pointed again shortly after his second find but a bird was not produced. He made a nice move around the ridge past the high post gate, and another in the draw above the watershed lake, but overall had a moderate race.

15. PRIMETIME OUTLAW JOHNNY (CASH) - REA/CAST A BRITT MICRO SAMME - BURCHETT: Samme was lost early. Cash made a big cast up a side canyon shortly after the start. He showed over the hill and went to the front dropping into the draw leading to the old home place. Point was called by the scout at 15. A nice covey was flushed with all in order. This was the only time this covey was found. Cash had another find at 35 and one non-productive. He was handy in the Bowl for a few minutes until he was watered. However, he had a fantastic finish around a hill showing to the front.

16. OCAJE - GOWIN/STARLIGHT'S BLAIZNG SIRIUS - THOMAS: Ocaje (Grace) incurred a non-productive at 27 but then carded three finds at 34, 42, and 55. She ran a good race on the third course. The first dog to do so with birds. She may have been given further consideration on course one or two. Sirius failed to back on the first find.

17. SHADY'S RED TAIL HAWK - JOHN/ROCKLAN'S WHIZZLE STOP - BURCHETT: Whizzle got hot and was up early at 26. Hawk had a non-productive and one stop to flush at 44. He had a strong competitive 50 minutes but tired the last ten.

Jim John with FC/AFC Joker's Jackpot, Judge Howard Burbach, Pedro Rodriguez, Judge Kendell Schmidt, Herb Rea with NFC/FC Primetime Outlaw Johnny, Tom Milam, Ed Tillson, Jessica Carlson with FC/AFC TJ's Prairie Blizzard, Kevin Stonehouse with FC OZ II

18. CAROLINA SEA BISCUIT - OLIVER/JJ'S TASMANIAN DEVIL - TILLSON: Devil was not up to par this day and Ed raised the white flag at 32. Sea Biscuit was here, there, everywhere. The scout's horse had a hard work out. No birds were encountered in this entertaining hour.

19. OZ II - STONEHOUSE/MAXWELL'S FINE LINE - ROGERS: Fine Line had a find and a forward race the first half. The scout did a good job the second half to make the hour. Oz made some big casts with the handler keeping him in sight. The application was 10 to 2 by the book with a finish at the end. He had one find and looked good on it, perfect manners.

Friday, October 12, 2012

20. KD'S SLIP AND SLIDE - TILLSON/SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY - BURCHETT: Splash and Ed weren't on the same page today and he was picked up at about 20. Willy had a find just as he entered the Bowl. He suffered two non-productives before the high post gate and was picked up.

21. BRUSHBUSTER'S LAKOTA JILL - JOHN: The young Jill ran as a buy brace and was short overall, but made some nice moves in the draws west of the road showing future promise. She finished the hour without bird work.

The Champions was Joker's Jackpot owned by Steve and Lorrie Ralph; well trained and handled by Jim John. The Runner Up was Primetime Outlaw Johnny owned and handled by Herb Rea. The winners were pressed by TJ's Prairie Blizzard and Oz II.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB, INC. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club. Full Membership cost is $30.00 per year and $3.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues.
