VOLUME LXV • NUMBER 7 • JULY 2013

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittans and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittans in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Issues and Opportunities, July, 2013

Summer is finally here and the pace of things has changed along with the season. No field trials on the calendar, but many Brittany fanciers will hit the show circuits around the country over the next few months. I would like to encourage as many people as possible to attend the ABC Summer Specialty in Enumclaw, Washington next month. It sounds like they have a great event planned. Be sure to take in many of the activities available in the Pacific Northwest while you are there.

July is the month that both the U.S. and Canada celebrate our national independence. In the U.S., July 4th commemorates the signing of the Declaration of Independence, in which we find the cherished phrase “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.” As we pursue the happiness that we derive from our association with Brittanys, I would ask that each of you stop to think of the people who make all of this possible. Summer is filled with holidays that have a patriotic basis, starting with Memorial Day (which actually occurs in spring, but is considered by many as the unofficial start of summer), followed by Flag Day, and culminating with Independence Day. Many of us celebrate these holidays with picnics or by attending dog shows (that is how I spent Memorial Day weekend this year), but our ability to do those activities is because of the sacrifices made by others. As a kid growing up, I remember that what is now called Memorial Day was referred to as Decoration Day and occurred on Sunday instead of Monday. My family would spend all day Saturday going to the various cemeteries where my ancestors were buried, cleaning up the graves and placing fresh flowers on each. The memorial service was held in church the next day. Special mention was made of those who had died in military combat, going back as far as the Civil War. Independence Day was a big celebration, complete with fireworks and parades, as it continues to be today. As we participate in these festivities, we need to remain aware of those who gave of themselves to protect the freedoms we all have and defend a way of life that allows us to engage in such activities as dog shows and field trials, or simply to go hunting with our Brittanys. Many people in other parts of the world do not have such opportunities. It is important that we not take them for granted. So, to all the veterans and current service men and women, I want to say “Thank You” for all you have done. I personally know many Brittany people who served in Viet Nam, the Gulf War and Desert Storm, or Afghanistan. I hesitate to list names lest I leave out someone, but I want you all to know how grateful we are for your service.

Other people also serve in different capacities that allow us to participate in activities with our beloved Brittanys. I am talking about those members who volunteer their time, and very often money from their own pockets, to serve on the committees that keep the American Brittany Club operating on a day-to-day basis. The membership, through the elected Board of Directors, establishes what activities ABC will conduct, but it is up to the committees to see to it that these activities actually get done. As president, I am automatically on all committees unless otherwise specified in the Policy Book, so I know how much effort and coordination is required for the successful conclusion of the task assigned to each. One such committee, with which I have the most familiarity by virtue of having served on for several years before becoming president, is the Magazine Committee. Members of the Magazine Committee are engaged almost every day with some activity related with getting the information put together for the next issue of the magazine. Unlike many committees that are in charge of an event that occurs once each year, the Magazine Committee has to put out an issue each and every month of the year. This committee has expanded in the years since I was originally made a member and now includes people who compile information on activities that were not covered a decade ago. Unlike commercial publications, there is no paid staff of writers, photographers, graphic design artists, proofreaders, or salesmen soliciting advertisers. I think we have a great publication, and have had individuals from other breed clubs comment to me about how much nicer our magazine is than what they receive from their parent club. As with everything else in life, there is always room for improvement and there will be times when mistakes occur and/or the committee chooses to publish something in a manner different from what some individual members would prefer. In these instances, it is appropriate to bring such items to the attention of the Magazine Committee, but please keep in mind that this committee is working hard to provide you, the members, with a quality product. If you agree, please let the members of this committee know the next time you see one of them.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

The End of the Season

By Rick Smith & Sharon Potter

By the time many of you in the North reads this, hunting season will be wrapped up for another year. And for those in the South, there are only a few weeks left to enjoy. No matter where you live or what birds you hunt, the sun is setting on another year afield with a shotgun and a dog. (To those south of the equator, with seasons reversed, we're actually pretty jealous because you're just gearing up for hunting season!)

So your shotgun is thoroughly cleaned, oiled, and back in the gun safe; your hunting clothes are washed and put away; and your dog is still sitting expectantly by the door, waiting for one more hunting excursion. Is there anything we need to do for our dogs at season's end? Obviously, we can't pack them into a closet like the rest of our gear, but there are steps we can

Keep the dog tuned into you and refresh the skills it knows.

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Dogs are born and bred to hunt. It's in their blood, in their genes, and in their hearts. They love it even more than we do. They can tell when it's getting close to the season – the air gets cooler, mornings become crisp, and preparation for hunting has been going on for the last couple of months. Preparation for the dog entails working into prime physical shape via increased exercise, and also into peak mental condition via training or, in the case of a finished dog, a tuneup.

Those two months are a steady buildup to opening day, when the real fun begins. Just like any other athletic endeavor, we condition our dogs to peak at the right time. This means they'll be at their best, most fit physical condition in time for the heaviest hunting schedule we plan. In addition to increasing their exercise to build fitness, we've probably had to increase their feed to accommodate the additional calories they're burning.

All of this preparation helps a dog get through a strenuous season while maintaining good muscle and weight. But what about when it's over? Do we simply quit for the next six months until it's time to get ready for next season? While time off is a good thing, to completely change gears and go from a lot of hard, physical hunting to instant couch potato isn't a good thing. If your dog is also a family dog and lives in the house with you all year long, the change from hunting back to just family dog isn't as dramatic as it is for a strictly outdoor kennel dog, but it still requires some effort on your part.

Look at the change from the dog's perspective. Emotionally, it's sort of like a small child having Christmas overload. Imagine if, rather than just one day of excitement and opening gifts, there were two months of excitement and buildup until Christmas, then three months or so of Christmas happening a couple days a week, and then bam! Nothing. No attention, no excitement, just boredom. Physically, it can be hard to go from maximum activity to nothing, too. Athletes, which our bird dogs certainly qualify as, don't just quit when their season is over.

So, what should we do to make the transition from hunting to the off-season easier for our dogs? First, evaluate the dog's physical condition. Hunting comes with hazards, and the off-season gives your dog a chance to recover from all the little things that crop up. Check your dog's feet, toes, nails, and pads. Pads may be worn or have stuff between them, and nails may have a small hangnail that needs attention before it becomes a larger split.

Go over the dog's body and check the coat and skin to make sure there isn't anything that needs attention. A tiny, hidden burr in a longer-haired dog can mat and cause bigger problems down the road. Double-check the ears to be sure there isn't any infection going on, especially if your dog has been in water.

A thorough, post-season vet check isn't a bad idea. That gives you a chance to head off anything little before it gets worse. Keep up with the tick and flea preventative, too, and be sure the deworming is kept current as well. All of this is stuff we do during hunting season, and it's important to maintain it during the off-season. This is just a little extra attention given at the end of the year.

Food is another area to watch. Chances are, you increased the amount of food your dog ate during the hunting season in order to maintain a good weight. A working dog burns a lot of calories, and it's not uncommon to almost double the feed for a hard-working dog hunting several days a week. Now, during the off-season, you'll need to cut back on all those calories according to the amount of exercise your dog gets. It's much easier to maintain a healthy weight range throughout the year as opposed to trying to take several pounds off of a dog before hunting season. Yo-yo dieting isn't any better for our dogs than it is for us.

Some people change dog foods between seasons, feeding a lower fat and protein feed during the off-season. Our preference is to stick to the high-quality feed we use and adjust the amount fed, using less during the dog's downtime. It's better for the dog's system to not have to keep adapting to different foods.

Don't let your dog go from athlete to marshmallow during the off-season, either. While it is good to let the body recover and regenerate, there's a point at which recovery is done and crosses over into fat and lazy. While keeping a dog at peak physical condition 12 months out of the year isn't practical, neither is a wild swing between fit and unfit. There's a balance to be kept, and as our dogs age, it gets more difficult to bring them back up into peak condition if they're allowed to let down completely during the off-season. That cycle is hard on both the mind and the body.

It's not unlike people. While it was easy to stay fit when we were kids, age tends to make maintaining that condition more difficult and even harder to come back to after a layoff. So, during the off-season, make sure your dog gets some sort of exercise every day. It may be chasing a Frisbee in the yard, or going for a long walk or run, or even brushing up on some basic hunting skills that came apart during the season. It's especially a great time to learn a new skill, which may not be hunting related at all – just something fun. Mixing it up will keep your dog's interest and make it more fun for you as well. Just keep them active mentally and physically so they don't fall completely out of condition.

A bird dog is designed to run and hunt. They thrive on the exercise and the work. In the wild, dogs didn't have hunting seasons; they had "hunt every day or go hungry" season, which lasted a lifetime. So dogs aren't programmed to stop and start. We have to use what they are programmed for, and that's being a member of a pack. Since we're the pack leader, we control the resources (food) and the hunt.

This makes the mental part of the off-season easier because the dog is looking to us for leadership and direction. Don't give up or lose your leadership just because hunting season is over. Maintain the boundaries you've set with your dog, whether it's in the house or in the kennel. Keep that good relationship and strong bond you've worked so hard to develop, and use the off-season to make it even stronger.

“Dedicated to Field Trialing the Brittany in the Best Traditions of the Sport”

by Dr. David Kenney

Eventually interest in the Invitational Derby lagged, probably because a “runoff” for the Regional Futurity winners had been initiated under other sponsorship, and the stake was discontinued in 1993. Those who had been doing the work of identifying the dogs that were eligible for invitation had grown weary with the task. A Derby Classic with 45-minute heats was continued.

The principal purpose of high quality pointing dog field trials is to give identification to the best of each breed. For that to occur it is necessary for there to be a number each year of continuing championship programs. Only then will it become apparent that “the cream has come to the top.” With that in mind it is appropriate to study the first thirty year history of the Illinois Association to determine if in fact certain breeding lines have established themselves as superior.

With the complete record before him it is apparent to this writer that several “families” of competitors have over and over reached the winners’ circle. It is understood that the IBCA drew its entries from the central section of the nation rather than its eastern and western portions. Dogs mentioned below are from that section. No doubt there were others in the nation that distance kept away.

Let’s begin with The Real Thing (Ban Dee ex Princess De Sandra), mentioned above as the winner of the Association’s first Invitational Derby in 1976. Those of us who were active in trialing 35 years ago recall how very good “Coke” was. In 1978 he was runner-up in the IBCA Open Championship that had an entry of 48. He was beaten only by Jacolet’s Wandering Star. Coke’s greatest claim to fame, perhaps, was that he sired Rimarda’s Trademark, out of Shiawassee Showtime Babe. Trademark won the IBCA Amateur Championship in 1987, 1988 and 1992, and the Open Championship in 1990.

In the first year that “TM” won the Amateur Championship his son Rimarda’s Gambler, out of Windagail’s Desert Dust, won the Invitational Derby. A national open all age champion, Gambler was runner-up in the IBCA Open Championship in 1991 and won that stake two years later when he was also runner-up in the Amateur Championship.

Gambler’s son, national open all age champion Gambler’s Ace in the Hole (Rocky), out of Jamie Lynn of Auten, was runner-up in the Amateur Championship in 1997 and won that stake the following year. Windagail’s Trade N Hour won the Derby in 1996. Windagail’s Last Trade won the Open Championship in 1999. Rocky’s son Gambler’s Good Deal, out of Smoky Roan, won the IBCA Derby Classic in 2001. And along the way there was Rimarda’s Accolade, out of Markee Mist, runner-up in the IBCA Amateur Championship in 1990, and Minnehaha’s Trademark Kid, out of national open all age champion Minnehaha’s Tammy. Kid was a winner in the IBCA Derby Classic in the same year; both Accolade and Kid were sired by TM.

Another one of TM’s get, out of Franklin County Star, Rimarda’s Mad Max, won the IBCA Open Championship in 2001. Dogs placed first and second in the Invitational Derby in 1991 were Rimarda’s Marksman and Rimarda’s Rhapsody. Runner-up in the Invitational Derby in 1992 was Magic Tradewind of Paddock, sired by TM. The County Lawyer, mentioned below, was out of Rimarda’s Franchise. Buddy Jac, winner of the IBCA open stake in 2000, was sired by Rimarda’s Rebel Jac. J W’s Diz Is It, a winner in the Derby Classic in 2000, was sired by Rocky. All of this is an amazing record of success in IBCA programs, beginning with The Real Thing in 1976.

Let’s consider the persistent record of success in this program of one of the great stars of the Brittany world, national amateur champion Gun Runner’s Far Out (Gringo De Britt ex Big Prairie’s Katie Blue), and his progeny. Far was placed third in the IBCA Invitational Derby in 1977. In 1980 he won the IBCA Amateur Championship. In 1982 he won the IBCA Open Championship and was runner-up in the Amateur Championship. Far sired Far Out Scarlett Angelina and Better by Far, both winners in the Invitational Derby in 1982.

In 1985 Far’s daughter Far Out Freckles, out of Gun Runner’s Scarlet Angelina, won the IBCA Amateur Championship. Freckles was the dam of Slide Rule, winner of the IBCA Open Championship in 1988, and Hazzard County Jed, runner-up in the Amateur Championship in 1991. In 1987 Kentucky Tug, out of Freckles by Kentucky White Lightning, was runner-up in the IBCA Amateur Championship. Gun Runner’s Far Out also sired Aux Arc’s Mark out of national amateur champion Scott’s Gingerbread Lady. Mark was runner-up to Slide Rule in 1989 and runner-up again to Trademark the following year, each time in the IBCA Open Championship. Mark was the sire of Border War’s K C, which was second in the Derby Classic in 1995. Far sired Jake’s Sonofa Gunrunner, runner-up in the IBCA Amateur Championship in 1992.

In 2001 national open all-age champion Farther Out Ace, by Farther Out ex Trademark’s Lucky Lady, was runner-up in the IBCA Open Championship. Ace was second in the Derby in 1997 and runner-up in the Open Championship in 1999. In 2003 Ace was the winner of that stake. Later that year he won the National Open Championship. In 2004 he won both the IBCA Open and Amateur Championships, defeating 44 dogs in two stakes in five days. Again a remarkable example of quality breeding on.

Another such example in programs of the IBCA began with national open champion Franklin County Bandit (Allair's Evereddy ex Deacon's Sister Dixie), winner of the IBCA Invitational Derby in 1985. Frankie sired The County Lawyer out of Rimarda's Franchise. Lawyer won the IBCA Amateur Championship in 1983 and the Open Championship in 1984. He in turn sired Ajax out of Kentucky White Diamond. Ajax was second in the IBCA Derby Classic in 1994. He won the Open Championship in 1998 and again in 2002. He sired the winner of the 1999 Derby, How Bout That. Frankie's grandson Buddy's Trucker Express was third in the Derby in 1996. He won the Amateur Championship in 2000 and 2002 and was runner-up in that stake in 2001.

Out of the same mating that produced Ajax came The Time Machine, which was runner-up to Ajax in the IBCA Open Championship and runner-up in the Amateur Championship, both in 2002. The Time Machine was runner-up in the Open Championship to Farther Out Ace in 2003 and 2004.

Farther Out Ace was not the only dog to win both open stakes of the IBCA program in the same year. National amateur champion Hi Spirit Buck did it in 1981. Earlier Buck had won the Amateur Championship in 1978. He sired Sir High Spirit Sampson, which won the Amateur Championship in 1990. His owner-handler Mike Hayes and Sampson had developed together into a winning combination. It had been gratifying to see both become winners from a basic beginning. Working together made Sampson a better dog and Mike a better man. Watching that occur was rewarding to all who knew them. Competition, given the right kind of breeding in both a dog and its human companion, can work wonders. That is one of the gratifying results of the field trial endeavor. May it long continue.

None Held Back and Other Bird Dog Stories

By Tom Word

Part Two The National Championship Second Chance

“How old is he now?”

“Ten—but he looks like a three-year-old, don’t he?”

The big liver-headed pointer emerged from his box and studied us from the back of his run, his tail wagging slowly in greeting. Even in this humble setting—Oscar Barnard’s sand-run kennels beside the railroad tracks at Stony Creek, Virginia—the old dog had a regal air.

Oscar was retired from the field-trial circuit, this pointer and two brook bitches his only remaining dogs in residence. Virginia Creeper climbed undisturbed on the rusty wire of twenty adjoining runs that in earlier years had held some of the continent’s best field-trial dogs.

On this hot day in August, I had stopped by on a whim. Oscar had been breaking gun dogs for me for years, and I had followed his field-trial career in the American Field. Though I wasn’t a trial man myself, I enjoyed hearing Oscar’s tales of the field-trial wars. And I’d always admired his trial dogs, with their high tails and easy strides, their willingness to stand like statues as Oscar flushed their birds (my gun dogs always chased).

“You getting much stud business with him?” I asked.

“Nest to none,” Oscar said with disgust. “It’s a shame too—he throws great pups, but his pedigree’s got no winners close up, so he’s not fashionable.”

It was noon, so I asked Oscar to let me buy him lunch. We drove to a country store where the African-American proprietress served gourmet soul food. With heaping plates of fried chicken, black-eyed peas and sliced tomatoes, we bellied up to a rough plank table under a pecan tree. As we sipped sweet tea from mason jars and munched our drumsticks, mosquitoes from nearby Jones Hole Swamp buzzed lazily round our ears.

“Tell me about Buck, Oscar” (I’d heard the story of the pointer in bits and pieces, but never the whole tale from Oscar).

Oscar took a swig of sweet tea, wiped his mouth on the sleeve of his Dickies Khaki shirt, and belched.

“Fetch me a piece of Miss Mona’s sweet potato pie, and I will,” he said.

I stumbled back with two slices of the heavenly pie and a full pitcher of sweet tea. Oscar cut the nose off his slice, shoveled it in, chewed twice and swallowed, and began the story of Buck—registered name Champion Second Chance.

“I’d just got to my summer camp up at Regent the first of July. Had my scout Jimmy Jennings, two high school boys, forty dogs to break. Mostly your kind of meat dogs, no big circuit quality dogs. We was cleaning out the shack when this little fellow walks in, knapsack on his back, pointer on a check cord. I knew where he’d been from the way his eyes darted. About twenty-five I guessed, five-six and a hundred thirty pounds, dark hair that didn’t go with his blue eyes. His hands showed some hard work lately, the only thing good I saw about him.

“You Mr. Oscar Barnard?” he asked. His accent surprised me—Boston, or Maine, somewhere up north (turned out to be Pennsylvania).

“Yes, I am. What Can I do for you?”

“Heard you might have work for me.”

“I had all the help I’d planned to hire, but something about that dog he was leading, and my curiosity—which has always got me in trouble—kept me from sending him away.

“Board and $20 a week’s all I can offer, but we eat pretty good,” I say.

“I’ll take it,” he says.

“He shed his backpack, put his pointer on a chain in the shelter break, joining in to clean out the shack.

“You got a name? I asked.

“Yes sir, Billy Blevins.” I knew from that he had been in the army or worked down south. Otherwise, northern boys don’t say ‘sir.’ Billy Blevins was a made-up name.

“In a week I knew who’d he’d worked for. A handler from Ohio who’d dropped out of sight. We’d shared a summer camp once, so I knew his methods. Billy used his tricks. When I told Billy who’d taught him, he grinned—then the grin faded back into his poker face.

“We had a good crop of sharp tails and pheasants that year, but like I said, I didn’t have any first-class prospects.

“Billy and me got along—he was willing to work, learned fast, understood animals (that’s what it takes). He didn’t talk about his past, and I didn’t ask.

“I picked a dozen and turned ‘em over to Billy. He studied ‘em, then played to their strengths, helped ‘em overcome their shortcomings. With the soft ones, he put off obedience work ‘til he got ‘em happy flushing young pheasants. Then he yard broke ‘em before he turned ‘em loose again.

“He work save his dog Buck to work last every day. Out of curiosity at first, I rode with him. The dog had talent, but he had some holes too—wanted to hook his casts. Me and Jimmy Jennings showed Billy how to cure it.

“Billy had Buck obedience trained when he came to camp, but he hadn’t tried to get him steady. Didn’t surprise me, ‘cause his teacher wasn’t one to push breaking a derby. About the middle of August, I said to Billy, ‘Buck is trying to tell you he’s ready to be broke.’

“You think so...?” Billy smiled again; that was just the second time I’d seen his teeth.

“Next day I held the check cord and Billy flushed Buck’s birds. We had him broke before sunset. He ain’t chased a bird since.

“I wasn’t going to no trials up north that year, but Buck was too good a dog not to give him a chance. We picked the North Dakota All-Age and the Iron Nation Trial. With just one entry, it made no business sense. I put up the entry fees for half the winnings.

“Now, Billy had never been to a field trial, so I gave him a crash course on tactics. 'Course, I was going to scout.

"The Saturday before the North Dakota, I took Billy into the Wal-Mart, bought him an outfit—jeans, fancy cowboy shirt, boots, belt with a big fake-silver buckle and 'Billy' stamped in the leather, a white straw Stetson. Then we lit out for Minot.

"Buck won first in the Derby, first in the All-Age. Billy shunned the picture takin', so I posed Buck for the winners' picture for the Field. At the Iron Nation, Buck got first in the All-Age again. The rumors started he was an over-age derby, a red shirt. But he wasn't. His pedigree wasn't right, but he was whelped when his papers said he was, March of '85.

"Well, Billy comes back here to Stony Creek with me after the Iron Nation. And we've got us a derby qualified for the National Championship.

"Meanwhile, Billy's like a cat in a room full of rocking chairs. He'd managed to avoid the cameras, but with Buck's write-ups in the Field, the two of them is gettin' famous.

"I tried to get Billy to run Buck in trials around here, but he wouldn't. First of December I said to Billy, 'Buck is eligible for the National Championship. Fifteen thousand dollar purse. Only one derby has won it, but Buck is broke enough, can go three hours, will handle for you. You owe it to Buck.'

"At first Billy says no, but I could tell he was thinking it over. Once a week we'd work Buck from horseback down in eastern North Carolina on one of them new-ground farms. Buck would take a mile-long ditch bank, carry it to the end—or 'til he found birds. Sometimes it took us five minutes to ride to his point. Most times his covey would be in front, same distance from his nose—a few dogs are like that. If his birds had run off, he'd relocate like a race horse. You'd be sure he was going to run 'em up, but he never did.

"On Christmas day, Billy said. 'O.K., let's enter him in the National.'

"I called my old friend Marshall Johnson over in Mississippi. He said come on over. January 2 we set out for Centerville, Buck on the truck seat between us, four horses in the trailer.

"Buck took to the Mississippi country, ran the cotton-field edges like them Carolina ditch banks.

"You ought to run that dog in the Free-For-All,' Marshall said. But Billy wouldn't. We just kept working Buck for the National's three-hour grind with hour and a half workouts, road him another two. Buck loved it, ate like a horse, never got sore.

"As the drawing got close, Billy got more nervous. He'd started at Christmas, but he couldn't grow much face hair. He wouldn't go to the drawing.

"Opening Monday came, then Tuesday, Wednesday...the trial wore on slow, as the National does with just two braces run a day. Buck drew to run late the second week. But Billy wouldn't set foot on the Ames Plantation to learn the courses. That made me mad.

"By the time for Buck to run, half a dozen dogs had clean races, four or five finds. When Buck's brace was finally called, Billy rode up with his collar turned up, his head down.

"Buck's not going to know you,' I teased, but Billy didn't think I was funny.

"Well, you know the rest. Buck shot the lights out—ten finds, near perfect race, spectacular finish. When the judges said, 'Pick him up, everybody knew Buck had won it. Billy got off his horse and hugged Buck, lifted him up for me to carry in on the pommel of my saddle—that's the tradition. Then Billy saw the T.V. camera, and he went white, lit out for the stables.

"So Billy wasn't at the steps of the Ames manor house when they named Buck National Champion. Didn't collect the check or the saddle. My last sight of Billy was his back, bent over the neck of his tired old horse, flat out in a gallop for the Ames stables.

"I brought Buck back here after the National and retired him to stud. No use to try to run him, cause he wouldn't handle for nobody but Billy. (He'll bird hunt for me on foot—I make a little off him that way, taking rich men bird hunting, letting 'em have their picture made so they can brag.)"

"What was Billy Blevins running from?" I asked, as Oscar finished off his second slice of sweet potato pie.

"You're my lawyer, right, and what I tell you is secret, right, attorney-client privilege?"

"Right." I said.

"Billy told me the night before Buck ran in the National. He was in the Federal witness-protection program, had testified for the government in a big Mafia trial in Pittsburg. He'd had to serve some time in a minimum security Federal place in South Dakota. The warden was a field trialer. When Arnie Beck showed up in his prison—Arnie was the Ohio pro trainer I figured Billy had worked for—the warden had it made. Free dog training, thanks to Arnie. Billy got to know Arnie in the prison, asked to work for him. When Billy got his freedom, Arnie sent him to look for me."

"Where did Buck come from?" I asked.

"Arnie had had a chip to call in from one of his old customers, a guy who bred real good field-trial dogs. Arnie called in the chip, had the guy send Billy a pup...the pup that turned out to be Buck. But the customer wouldn't send the true pedigree—registered the pup out of litter of meat-dog pointers his neighbor raised. That's why Buck gets so few lady visitors, in spite of winning the National."

"Do you ever hear from Billy?" I asked.

"Just once," said Oscar. "Sent me a letter with a Swiss bank account number for me to wire him the National purse money and his share of stud fees from Buck. But somehow I don't think Billy is hurtin' for money these days..."

I paid for our lunch--$6.50 tip included—and we drove the gravel roads back to Stony Creek. Ole Buck the pointer was asleep in his shady run, unbothered by the barn flies that buzzed about his silky brown ears. Even in sleep the old boy looked a royal.

"I'll be back in the fall with a bitch to breed," I said to Oscar as I drove out of town, resuming the dull drive down I-95 to Raleigh on law business.

Early submission allows us to put the topics for consideration on the website and to get books to the Directors in time for meaningful input from the general membership. Action items submitted late and not in writing should not be considered as they are often not well thought out causing many problems after the fact. Reports that cannot be completed such as the Treasurer's Financial Statement and Futurity Stats, may be submitted by bringing 20 copies to the meeting, but any Action Items from any officer or director, committee chair, etc. should be submitted by the deadline

PLEASE NOTE POLICY FOR SUBMITTING AGENDA ITEMS:

A Stranger's Gift

It seems that my whole life has been about being in the right place for animals that have needed help. A cat covered with inch deep abscesses walks up to me in the woods of a remote area. A horse dying of starvation, I find, while somewhere I wasn't supposed to be. A dog chased for weeks, terrified of people, lays down on the edge of my yard, lets me near and follows me back to my home and into my gate. Then, I come upon my Brittany.

Though I grew up with a Labrador and an English Pointer, I'm a German and Australian Shepherd owner and a hyper, vocal, nonstop Brittany, was not on my wish list! Do not get me wrong, I love all breeds, but with a busy life, active kids and a house full of animals, it wasn't what I thought I needed.

A short drive on a lovely fall afternoon, who would think this could leave me with tears and flashbacks but also give some incredible insight and the gift of a special relationship.

A large dark lump was in the road as we came to a bad corner. It's strange how your mind cannot place something, in an unusual setting. In a few seconds, I realized it was a car on its side, a horrific accident with blood trailing out of the car. Inside, an older woman was hanging upside down, badly injured with a dazed Brittany below her. We tore open the windshield, turned off the car and I lifted the trembling dog carefully out. She had blood on her, but after checking her over, I found she was not cut. She was shaking terribly so I wrapped her and held her in my lap on an embankment 10 feet away. The woman kept whispering two words over and over as we removed the dog and tried telling her help was coming. I later found the dog's name on her collar and realized it was what the woman kept repeating. We did tell her that her dog was all right.

The police and medics curtained off the car and worked to get her out. Fifteen minutes later the dog had calmed down in my arms and was alert when suddenly she started to whine and cry loudly while desperately pulling towards her owner, Seconds later the medics yelled and frantically started trying to resuscitate the woman who had just died. Her dog knew before the humans did. I just held that little Brittany and cried for both of them.

The police let me take her home since I'm a vet technician and would get her help if she needed it. After she calmed down at the house, she did the strangest thing. Till this day it gives me the chills. She went and sat in a room by herself, lifted her head and let out the most heartbreaking howl that I have ever heard. Just one agonized howl, put her head down and never again in the five years I had her did I ever again hear her howl! How can some people believe animals don't feel grief? It was a precious lesson for me.

For six months, that sweet little red and white dog never left my side, even sitting outside the shower curtain, waiting for me. She eventually fit in with and seemed to love having kids, dogs, cats etc. for company. Lots of long hikes, three fenced acres and lots of love. She seemed happy and I had the most wonderful dog, one I would never have had but for a tragic event and the fact that I seem to be given these opportunities to enjoy these animals that need me.

I thank this stranger, who spent her time raising, and I found out, doing lots of therapy work with this dog, for giving me the time I had with her wonderful girl! I am terrible sad that she lost her life in doing so but am grateful that I was there to be the one who was given this Brittany.

Obedience/Agility/Rally

Brittany Highlights By Carla Simon

HOW TO MAKE AN INEXPENSIVE PVC JUMP

What equipment do Obedience, Agility and Rally Obedience have in common? They all test jumping skills. Luckily, jumps are one of the easiest obstacles to make. In this article I'll show you how to easily create a safe and economical PVC jump.

Supplies

You'll need the following:

- 14 ft of PVC pipe - white schedule 40 1 inch, available from your local hardware store in 10 ft lengths
 - 2 upright standards of 36 inches each
 - 1 4 foot jump bar
 - 8 legs of 6 inches each
- Tape measure
- Pencil
- Ratcheting PVC pipe cutter (see photo) or alternate e.g. miter saw
- Safety glasses
- At least 2 jump cups or Jump cup Strips (available from www.HuntersHeart.com or www.clipandgoagility.com). If 1 or 2 dogs are using the equipment, you can use only one jump cup and slide it up and down the upright to the desired height. If many dogs of different heights use the equipment, it's easiest to purchase a pair of jump cup strips, which already include cups for each height, all clearly marked
- 2 5-way 1 inch PVC connectors
- Sandpaper or file

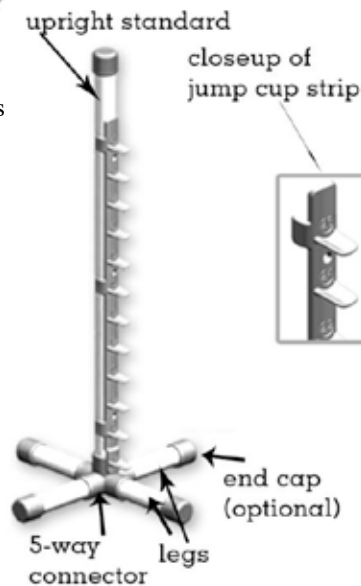

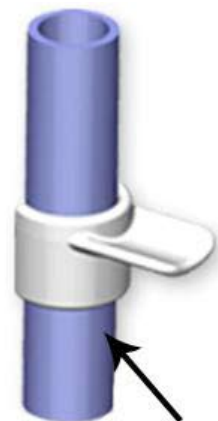

Optional:

- 10 1-inch PVC end caps
- Blue vinyl tape (or other dark color)
- PVC cement
- Playground sand
- U-shaped stakes

PVC PIPE CUTTER

You could also make your own jump cups. Start with a clip T or slide T and cut off the top half of the circular portion. Having said that, these are difficult to find, it's a time consuming process if you want several heights, and doesn't save significantly more than purchasing a jump cup.

Instructions

1. Measure the lengths of PVC you need to cut and mark the spot with a pencil. (Rub off the pencil when your jumps are finished.)
2. Cut your largest pieces first e.g. the 2 upright standards (each is 3 ft tall). Wearing your safety glasses, open the jaws of the PVC cutter and place the PVC pipe inside the jaws. Align the pencil mark with the cutter, carefully ensuring that the PVC pipe rests squarely in the cutter's lower jaw. (You don't want to cut at an angle.) Squeeze the handle of the PVC cutter to start the cut through the PVC pipe. You will need to pump the handle numerous times to cut all the way through.
3. Cut your 4 foot jump bar and 8 of the 6 inch legs using the same process.
4. Now that cutting is complete, sand the outer edges of all your cut pieces using sandpaper to remove any sharp corners/
5. Attach legs to sides of 5-way connectors. Connect standards to top of 5-way connectors.
6. Snap jump cup (strips) onto upright standards.
7. Assemble the jump with 2 uprights supporting jump bar. Once the jump bar is resting in its jump cup, you can measure desired heights and mark them on standard and/or adjust the cups.
8. Note that jump height is measured from the top of the bar to the ground. So jump height must include the 1 inch bar!
9. If you're using the jumps outdoors in windy conditions, you may want to stake them down using u shaped stakes or place sand bags on legs. Alternately, fill legs with sand and glue them together into 5-way connectors and end caps using PVC cement.

10. To improve visibility and safety, you may tape the jump bar using contrasting vinyl tape so that half is colored and half is white.

Now that your jump is completed, you're ready to practice obedience, agility or rally skills, either around your home or on the road. Enjoy!

Paw Paw Setting An Example

On May 4-5, 2013 we held the seventeenth renewal of the Illinois Brittany Club's walking trial (AKA) Paw Paw trial. This trial was originated by Jim & Janet Chase.

In 1987, the Chase's and several field trailers in northern Illinois, got together and established the Prairie State Brittany Championship. I know the original roster included The Chase's, Tom & Gretchen Burroughs, Rob & Carol Richer, Brad Woodruff.

For many years, Prairie State barely made ends meets, losing money every year. Jim brainstormed and came up with the idea of the Illinois Brittany Club hosting a walking trial on the dog training grounds at Paw Paw Illinois. His plan was to ask all the judges to volunteer their time at no charge. This way the only costs the club would incur would be for birds, recording fees to AKC, ABC, FTCl, an ad in the American Field and food. The club furnished the meats and others were encouraged to bring a dish to share. Each year during the Saturday running, Dennis Sullivan cooks turkeys in his home made charcoal oven, and this year we devoured nearly 70 lbs of turkey.

The first year was a great success; we ran nearly 100 dogs offering the following stakes: open gun dog, amateur gun dog, open & amateur puppy, open & amateur derby. Now you have to realize that the Two Paws grounds are only two hundred acres with a wooded creek in the middle, so we can run two stakes at the same time. I know you're thinking how can that be done, believe it or not it gets done with little conflict. We have dog wagon that shuttles participants and their dogs to back course. Since that first trial we have also offered a limited ODG hour stake on Friday.

After a few years Prairie State was solvent and the Chase's realized that there were several other Brittany Championships that where in financial trouble. So it was decided to share the profits from the walking trial with additional championships each year. Janet, being an accountant figured out a fair and equitable way to divide up the profits. The championship associations that currently benefit from this walking trial are: Prairie State, Michigan, Illinois, and Mid-South. Over the years from this trial, nearly $36,000 has been distributed to the championships. While the majority of the money comes from entries, we also have an auction with items donated from Purina, trialers, and others.

This is a great way to make money for your club and also bring in new members. With a walking trial you do not intimidate new people with all the big horse trailer and trucks. New people feel more comfortable, and say, "my dog and I can do this." There are also a lot of experience trialers in attendance willing to coach new participants and make it fun.

Our trial is the most laid back one you will ever go to. We set up a tent for lunch overlooking the bird field for the amateur gun dog. Everyone can watch the action. The spectator can cheer when the dog does good and boo if they don't, and it is all done in good spirit. I think the handlers really try harder because everyone is watching.

We all need to find ways to bring in new members and support this sport and this is one way! The committee wants to thank all that came and supported us this year and hope to see you next year. Congratulation to all the winners – this year and past years.

Hunt Tests

CENTRAL MAINE Kennebunk, ME April 27-28, 2013

Central Maine Brittany Club's Spring 2013 Hunt Test was held in Kennebunk, Maine at the 1300 acre Kennebunk Maine Wildlife Management Area on April 27-28, 2013. Sunny and cool throughout the weekend the temperatures held in the mid 50s to low 60s range and was near perfect for dogs and handlers. Each day the testing began at 8 a.m. and went into the early afternoon. President Short's horse trailer served as Hunt Test central for judges and committee members.

With just three entries less than 2012's test, each day was full with dogs running on two courses. A good number of dogs qualified on both days. In addition to Brittany dogs, other pointing breeds participating were the Wire Haired Pointing Griffons, English Setters, French Brittany, Vizsla, and a German Shorthair Pointer. Handlers traveled from New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Maine to test their dogs. Several finished their AKC Junior Hunter titles and two Wire Hair Pointing Griffons finished the coveted AKC title of "Master Hunter." Only one dog qualified for the Senior Hunter title. A few others received qualifying scores for the new JH advanced title.

The overall operations of the hunt test ran very smoothly with many members and friends of CMBC pitching in and helping wherever needed. Without exception, the food and hospitality are always an important aspect of club events. A special shout out to Peter Sipperly for manning the grill both days, to Ken Gordon for his afterhours marinated bacon jalapeno wrapped chukar/quail appetizers, and to Jim Turner for his cheese stuffed pepper venison burgers. Desserts were plentiful and included Maine whoopee pies and a variety of homemade cookies and breads.

There were several new to AKC Hunt Tests who participated. A few received qualifying scores the first time out. Handlers whose dogs did not qualify still enjoyed the experience along with helpful feedback provided by their judges. Many plan to continue training for future hunt tests with their dogs. The bird planters stayed very busy both days salting the Junior Hunter course with plenty of Bobwhite Quail. Scenting conditions were good and most of the birds were strong flyers. This year the Junior Hunter bird field was located in a more visible area for spectators to enjoy a literal bird's eye view of each brace. Chukar Partridge and quail were both used on the senior and Master courses. For several years, CMBC has been furthering a positive relationship with the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife and work closely with officials within the department. On

Senior Hunter Course Breakaway

Saturday morning before actual testing began a Maine State Biologist gave a brief presentation on various species and flora to be mindful of on the plains.

Later on in the day, Sgt. Tim Spahr of the Maine Warden Service stopped by with the film crew of the reality show "North Woods Law". This show, a result of a 'partnership' between Maine's Warden Service and Animal Planet is a popular documentary series about game wardens and their role around the state. I was interviewed by them and given the opportunity to talk about the club and also explain the difference between a hunt test and a field trial. From a distance, the crew was able to film a bit of footage of a dog testing at the junior level. This will be broadcast in a future North Woods Law episode sometime in 2014.

Anyone who has put on a dog related event knows there is a lot of work that goes on before, during, and afterwards. It would be impossible to name each individual person who contributed to the success of this hunt test. Surely, someone would be left out. Much value is placed on the willingness to come along and help out where a need is noted. Thank you to the entire hunt test committee, each judge and gunner, those who entered, bird planters, members and friends who helped out as needed. Congratulations to each qualifier and those who finished at their respective levels. We hope you will continue testing through each level of AKC Hunt Tests with your dog and we will be here cheering you on as you reach your goals!

The GIBC held our annual Spring Hunt test on April 27 and 28. The weather was absolutely gorgeous on Saturday with plenty of sun and temperatures in the 60s. It was equally bad on Sunday with constant rain and drizzle. Entries were down quite a bit from previous years, but everyone was able to relax and have a good time. We would like to thank all four of our judges for their donation of time and expertise, as well as all of the club members that were there to make sure that dogs were to the line, birds were planted and birds were harvested. We would also like to thank "the wives" who took care of the kitchen and made sure that there was plenty of food for breakfast and lunch. They also put on a fantastic spread for dinner on Saturday that was enjoyed by all of the judges, club members and guests.

The "Event Secretary's Report" will be modified to reflect this change. The new service fee applies to events held after July 1, 2013.

THE Book Review
By Bob Fleury
GUIDELINES TO FIELD TRIAL PROCEDURES AND JUDICIAL PRACTICES

This is a 58 page booklet that is produced and sold by the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America. Initially this was produced in 1948 and was endorsed by the American Field. An updated and revised edition was undertaken and produced in 1988. The method used in producing this informational booklet is rather unique. In both the original and the revised edition, a committee was formed using nationally recognized and respected field trial judges, dog handlers and trial officials from each era. A series of questions about field trial procedures and judging practices were presented to these committees and from their responses a consensus of opinion was developed for each situation. This is not a book of set rules but a set of guidelines that explains how the majority of the most knowledgeable people involved in field trials would view any of the situations described in this booklet. Any person having interest in field trials should have a copy of this booklet and become very familiar with it's content. This booklet can be obtained through the AFTCA. Taking horses to a new place can be stressful for both horse and rider. Some horses travel to new places with no problems while others can become much more nervous in new places. There are some steps that you can take to help make riding in a new place a pleasant experience for you and your horse.

The first step is to know your horse well at home. Before you take your horse to a new place, spend time with that horse at home getting to know it. You will learn what types of things bother them (ie. Sounds, sights, etc) and you will also have an idea of how to help calm him down. Typically horses will become more sensitive when they arrive in a new place. For example, if you usually have to kick your horse to make him start walking when you get to a new place you may only have to cluck or use your voice. Be sure to only give the horse the smallest cue that is necessary. This will help avoid accidentally making your horse overreact to your cues.

One of the biggest complaints that I hear from people is that their horse does not act the same when they go somewhere new as they do at home. This is true for most horses; they will act different in a new place. Horses are prey animals and because of that they want to be very aware of their surroundings. They will become relaxed in their home atmosphere because they have a routine and it becomes a safe place. When they arrive in a new place, most horses assume that a mountain lion is waiting around the next bend.

To help your horse lose this mentality, you want to ride in as many new and different places as possible and make all of those good experiences. Riding with an older more experienced horse is the best way to introduce your horse to new places. A more experienced horse can teach your horse good habits from the start and to stay relaxed. Typically horses will feed off of each other's energy, so if you ride with a relaxed experienced horse your horse will be more likely to stay relaxed. On that same note, when you are riding in a new place with new and different horses, be very aware of your surroundings. If you see a horse that is acting up or a rider that cannot control their horse, be sure to avoid it. Horses will react very quickly to another horse's negative behavior.

Often when horses arrive in a new place they will have excess energy because they are excited by all of the new sights, sounds and smells. One way to help "knock the edge off" is to lunge the horse. Lunging is a great way to help horses get out some of their excess energy which allows them to focus when it is time to ride. You can purchase a lunge line from most tack stores. A horse does have to be taught to lunge correctly and this is something that you will want to have practiced at home before attempting it in a new place. Once the horse is schooled in how to lunge it can be very helpful in reducing their energy level and getting them into a more relaxed frame of mind.

There are also products on the market that can help to calm a horse and lower their stress level. Calming supplements can be very useful to help horses have a good experience in a new place. Many come in paste form and are given anywhere from 2-4 hours prior to riding time. These are designed to help focus your horses mind and typically work very well. There are many different products on the market. Have a conversation with your veterinarian about what product would work best for your horse.

If you are having trouble with your horse, never hesitate to seek the advice of a professional. Fixing problems before they become bad habits is essential. Take time to give your horse pleasant experiences away from home and teach him good habits from the start and you will end up with a horse that is easy to take and ride in new places.

Member of the MO Brittany Club

4 oz bacon, cut into 1/4" dice
1 small onion, peeled and cut into 1/4" dice
(1 cup)
2 ribs of celery, strings removed, cut into
1/4" dice, (3/4 cup)
8 sprigs of thyme
Salt and freshly ground pepper
3 cups homemade or low sodium canned chicken stock, skimmed of fat
3 ears yellow corn, kernels removed (about 2 cups)
5 oz small fingerling potatoes, cut into 1/2 rendered, about 4 minutes. Remove bacon with slotted spoon, transfer to paper towel and set aside. Discard all but 2 tablespoons of bacon fat. Add onions, celery, thyme and salt and pepper to taste to stockpot. Cook over medium-low heat until translucent, about 8 minutes. Add stock; bring to boil.

Reduce heat to medium; simmer 15 minutes.
Add corn, potatoes, and chile. Cook until potatoes are tender, 8-10 minutes. Remove and discard thyme. Add half and half and simmer until soup is hot. Adjust seasoning with salt and pepper. Garnish with the reserved crisp bacon pieces.

2013 ABC Western Futurity

Thank you to our sponsors Purina and Tritronics for your generous support of the American Brittany Club Futurity. The 2013 ABC Western Futurity kicked their event off with the Futurity Show held in Homedale, Idaho and judged by Mr. Rick Gwsender. Mr. Gwsender recently moved to Idaho, and is an AKC Judge licensed for Brittany's. Idaho Brittany Club was honored with widespread judging support as Lisa and Paul Pollock of New Jersey, Dennis Leis of Oregon and John Henderson of Washington supported the field events with their time and expertise, while Mr. Rick Gshwender of Idaho judged the show. We were blessed with a large turnout for the show as well as a strong crossover of dual quality dogs. Thirty-five dogs were entered in the show, 12 in the All-Age stake and 30 in the Gun Dog stake. Thirty-one out of 35 of the dogs who competed in the show also participated in the field futurity. This Futurity also drew a wide range of participants geographically, with 11 states represented!

The Dual Award was very close, and after the points were totaled, it went to CH Copley's Red River for his 2nd in the Gun Dog and 2nd Money Male in the Show. Close on his heels was MTB's Veni Vidi Vici who placed 2nd in the All-Age and was 3rd Money Male in the show. Zip's Count Me In and FC/AFC Spanish Corral's Sonny Patch also placed in the Futurity Show and Field.

The Western Futurity concluded the 2013 ABC Futurity season. The Futurity is a breeder's stake and looks to showcase the future of our sport. The 2011 Western Futurity All Age Winner NAFC/FC/AFC Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid sired the top three winners in the All Age and the 3rd Money Male in the Show. 1998 Central Futurity All Age Winner and ABC HOF Member FC Poki-Dot is the Grand Dam of the 1st and 2nd place Winners in the All Age. 2007 Western Futurity Best of opposite and Money Winner in the Central and Eastern CH Copley's Millennium Martini is the Dam of the Best in Futurity, 2nd Money Male, 3rd Money Female, 2nd in the Gun Dog and Dual Award Winner, and the 2004 Western Futurity Best of Opposite Winner CH Castle's Tangerine Dream is the Grandsire of the Best of Opposite and 2nd Money Female. Looking at the pedigrees of this year's winners it is nice to look back to see the past futurity winners and we can only wait and see how this generation impacts our sport.

The Futurity show marked the 50th anniversary of the ABC Show Futurity, and Judge Rick Gshwender had a healthy entry of 35 Brittany's. The weather cooperated and we were able to hold the show outside with the dogs enjoying a large ring. Thank you to Mitch Foust for providing the ring equipment and to Sharon Millspaugh for Ring Stewarding. Judge Gshwender awarded Best in Futurity to CH Libertie-Copley More Mimosa? owned by Emily Fuzette of Kentucky and co-owned by Robin Tomasi, Barbara Dayton and Karen Hanson. Best of Opposite went to CH Gerstdale's Laid-Back Jake, JH, owned by Donald and Annette Pfister of California, 2nd Money Male to CH Copley's Red River, owned by Mary Brown and Rashelle Sytma of California, 2nd Money Female to Gerstdale's Take The Money N'Run JH, owned by Debbie Inferrera of California, 3rd Money Male to MTB's Veni Vidi Vici owned by Tom White & Margaret Horstmeyer of Idaho, and 3rd Money Female to CH Brooke Of Millennium Diamonds, owned by Rebecca Grommon of Wyoming, and co-owned by Robin Tomasi.

The field section of the ABC Western Futurity kicked off Tuesday, May 30 at Milepost 9, near Marsing, Idaho, following a good-sized weekend field trial, the show segment on Monday afternoon and the Futurity dinner that evening. Very windy weather on Monday foretold a weather change, as high desert cold came our way.

2013 ABC Western Futurity Gun Dog Stake

The Gun Futurity section fared slightly better than the All Age in terms of weather, as the wind abated by the time the first gun dog brace started. Five braces were completed the first day. Wednesday morning's 26 degrees was at least somewhat warmer and while still cold, the winds tapered off to the sort good bird dogs love. And find birds they did! Lots of good bird work and nice running conditions gave the judges a lot to watch and ponder, with an exceptionally strong field producing several dogs who might have won on any other day. The judges were delighted with the field, but forced to make some hard calls.

BRACE 1: SUNQUEST'S LITTLE COLORADO (LC)/MARY BROWN & WHISPER RIDGE 'N BATTLE PT'S SPY GAME (TANNER)/SUE RICHARDS.

The first brace of the Gun Dog broke away at 2:30 pm into a light breeze on a cool afternoon. The dogs were followed by a large horseback gallery and an equally large walking gallery. Both dogs are handling well for their handlers at a close range. At 10, Tanner had a find and point. At 12, LC had a stylish find on the water tank flats. Both dogs finished out their time close to their handlers.

BRACE 2: COPLEY'S CHUKAR KILLER (TATE)/DARIN LARVIK & CEDAR CREEK HAWKEYE (HANK)/JOE WAITMAN.

Both dogs broke away at 3:00 into an increasing afternoon wind. At 3:05, Tate had a point and self flush, he continued to hunt high up the draw.

Hank has set his own agenda far to the right of the course; Joe is working hard to get him back on course. At 3:06, Tate had a non-productive; he was sent on. He worked high to the top of the ridge. At 3:14, both dogs found birds just past the water tank. At 3:16, Hank established a stylish point; Tate approached the same bird and also had a very stylish point. Both dogs continued their enthusiastic run working both sides of the course. At 3:29, Hank had a silhouetted find at the top of the left draw, his manners were excellent as Joe flushed the bird and time was called.

BRACE 3: WHISPERIDGE BUCKSHOT BODIE (BODIE)/ALEXANDER HOUGHTLING & WIND MTN LOVE ME TENDER (ELVIS)/MITCH FOUST.

At 3:36 both dogs are away and attacking the draw with great enthusiasm. The brace is being followed by a large walking and horseback gallery including Patti Van De Coevering whose dog had just won the All Age Futurity. At 3:41, 3:42, and 3:43 Elvis had very stylish finds. At 3:44, Bodie's hard hunting was rewarded with a silhouetted find midway up the ridge. At 3:46, Elvis had another find as he approached the water tank. Both dogs enjoyed a swim and refreshment at the water tank, which revitalized them and increased their range. Both dogs completed their time hunting enthusiastically for their handlers.

BRACE 4: COPLEYS RED RIVER (RIVER)/PAUL DOIRON & WIND MTN WALKING DREAM (PATSY)/JASON STALEY.

At 4:12, the dogs are on their way as the afternoon temperature is starting to rise. Patsy has a rock steady point on the right side of the course at 4:14. Both dogs worked the rim rock high on the left side of the course with tremendous enthusiasm, but were not rewarded for their effort. At 4:19, both dogs are at the water tank. At 4:26, River had a rock solid find at 11 o'clock, which took Paul an extended amount of time to get to. River was steady to the wing and shot, he was watered and sent on. River continues to hunt in a stylish quartering gundog range. Scouts are trying to locate Patsy. At 4:38, Patsy had a non-productive at the top of the ridge. Both dogs finished out their time without further bird work.

BRACE 5: SAGELAND'S BLAZE'N LITTLE WHIZ (WHIZ)/SCOTT ROBERTSON & JALO'S CHARLES WOODRUFF (CHARLIE)/ERIN KIRKWOOD.

Whiz and Charlie are away at 4:45 and are hunting hard up the draw. At 4:48 Charlie is found by scout eagle eye Jim House standing in heavy sage mid way up the left ridge. The bird flushed down the hill, Charlie marked the bird and a shot was fired. Whiz worked hard along the left ridge without success. At 4:55, both dogs hit the water tank. At 4:58, Whiz slammed to a stylish point; Charlie ignored Whiz and pointed the bird also. The bird was put to flight and the brace mates shared in the chase. Charlie retrieved the bird promptly to hand. Charlie worked hard across the flats and up the left ridge. Whiz went over the top of the ridge. At 4:58, Charlie had a find just below the breakaway with everything in order. Whiz has not been seen for an extended period, as it is the last brace of the day everyone is attempting to locate him. Whiz was finally located and day one came to an end.

BRACE 6: HIDEAWAY RED'S GRACE UNDER FIRE (GRACIE)/JASON STALEY & POWDER RIVER'S RED DIAMOND (RUBY)/CHERYL KRAJCAR.

The first brace of Day 2 began at 8:58 with a brisk 28 degrees and slight wind. At 9:02, Ruby was picked up by her handler. At the same time Gracie had stuck a bird just as she crossed the road, her style was high and tight. At 9:04, she broke away from her last bird and bumped a second chukar; a slight chase ensued but she was easily called off by Jason. At 9:09 as Gracie approached the water tank she pointed a bird, flushed it and retrieved it. After Jason broke the ice off the water tank Gracie was watered. The refreshing dip invigorated her and she expanded her range, quartering nicely across the flats. At 9:16, Gracie pointed a chukar on the right edge of the flats. The bird was flushed, Jason fired and she moved on. Gracie had brought her range in a little but was hunting with good speed working towards the draw. At 9:27, Gracie slammed to a stop on the right side of the draw; Jason flushed the bird and fired. Gracie stood through the whole procedure. At 9:28, Gracie was working along the top of the left ridge as time was called.

BRACE 7: MEADOWVIEW'S BOUNTY HUNTER (RANGER)/MITCH FOUST & JALO'S MUSTACHE MAN (MANNEY)/JIM HOUSE.

At 9:34, Ranger and Manney broke away in opposite directions, working both sides of the draw. Both dogs were working the draw hard. At 9:41, Manney spun to a stop at the right side of the draw 75 yards in front of Jim. Jim flushed the bird Manney stood tall and watched it exit. Ranger has worked high on the ridge to the left. Manney was hunting the right side of the course as we approached the water tank. At 9:47, Manney had another stylish point that was held through the flush and shot. At 9:49, both dogs were in the water tank. Both dogs left the water tank and started working the flats. At 9:52, Manney had a stylish point, but didn't feel it was necessary for Jim to have to walk all the way there to flush it. Both dogs were still working the flats enthusiastically at a nice gundog range. At 9:54, Manney had another find that didn't require Jim's assistance. Both dogs worked hard the rest of their time with no more birds produced.

BRACE 8: WIND MTNS HONKY TONK GIRL (LORRIE)/CONNIE STROM & RUBYRIDGE'S MILLION DOLLAR BABE (RUBY)/PAUL DOIRON.

Both dogs are away at 10:09 with Lorrie taking the right side of the draw and Ruby working the left. Ruby has worked to the top of the left ridge and is working through the rim rock; Lorrie is hunting below her. At 10:20, Ruby had a very stylish find, Paul flushed the bird and Ruby went to find it. As we approached the water tank Ruby had opened up her range, Lorrie was hunting nicely in front of Connie. At 10:24, both ladies went for a refreshing ice crusted swim. At 10:28, Judge Dennis Leis had a stop to flush; his manners were questionable but he continued. At 10:30 both dogs were being harassed by the course's chukar reducing ravens, who apparently didn't appreciate the competition. At 10:34, Lorrie had a non-productive. Both dogs finished hunting the draw to the starting line and time was called.

BRACE 9: POWER RIVER'S 4U2NV (ENVY)/DAVID DOWNING & RJ'S CUT TO THE CHASE (CUTTER)/PIERRE URRUTIA.

At 10:50, Cutter and Envy were off. Cutter took to the top of the right ridge and Envy was working the bottom. At 10:59, Envy was not performing to David's expectations and was picked up. Cutter was hunting a nice quartering but close race across the flats as he approached the water tank. After a refreshing dip in the water tank Cutter opened up a little. At 11:08, Cutter slammed to stylish point; unfortunately, it was a hawk/raven kill. Cutter finished out his time in a pleasing but short quartering pace.

BRACE 10: HIDEAWAY'S BLAZIN FAST FANNIE (FANNIE)/ROGER BORINE & GERSTDALE'S LAID-BACK JAKE (JAKE)/DON PFISTER.

At 11:22, Fannie was off and hunting the right side of the draw, Jake was gone left and hadn't been seen for a while. At 11:26, Fannie had a very quick bird contact. At 11:28, Fannie was on point in the short sage, her style was good and Roger flushed the bird and fired. At 11:31, Jake was back and working high on the left rim rock with Fannie. Both dogs worked the area hard without success. At 11:38 both dogs were in the water tank, Roger was helping out and enjoying a late morning spritz. After the swim, both dogs were quartering across the flats at a short to medium gun dog range. Both dogs continued until time at the same pace.

BRACE 11: POWDER RIVER'S DEAR ABBY (ABBY)/CHERYL KRAJCAR & SHANE'S BLAZING ROUGH RIDER (BUCKEY)/PAUL DOIRON

At 12:00, Buckey was off and working the left side of the ridge and Abby was trying to figure out what this was all about. As we cross the road, Buckey was working hard up the left ridge. At 12:08, Buckey was on point midway up the left ridge. Paul had a 150-yard climb to get to him. The bird was flushed, Paul fired and Buckey stylishly watched the chukar exit. At 12:09, Abby was picked up by Cheryl. Buckey was working high on the left ridge, working through the rocks. At 12:12 Buckeye is on point, Paul had only a 75 yard climb to get to him before he had to try and convince the chukar to fly. Finally, he was successful; Buckey stood tall and watched the bird leave. Buckey worked down the ridge for a refreshing dip in the water tank. He was now hunting the flats in front of Paul. The swim seems to have shortened Buckey's run; he was quartering nicely and responding well to Paul but at a very short range. At 2:29, Buckey had a find on the left side of the final draw. As before, his style was very nice. Time was called.

BRACE 12: SHADYWOOD GUNS N ROSES (ROSIE)/CHRIS TEWES & GERSTDALE'S TAKE THE MONEY N'RUN (PIPER)/PIERRE URRUTIA.

At 12:36, Rosie and Piper broke away with great enthusiasm. Both dogs worked the draw hard with no birds to be found. At 12:43, Rosie had a stylish point along the ridge just below the rocks. The ravens assisted in flushing the bird and Rosie continued on. At 12:51, Piper had a refreshing dip in the water tank; Chris was trying to convince Rosie without success. Piper was hunting a nice close quartering race across the flats. Rosie was working the same area in a larger pattern. At 1:03, Piper is found standing with a chukar standing five feet in front of her. Pierre flushed the bird and fired. Rosie and Piper continued their time hunting close to their handlers.

BRACE 13: HIDEAWAY'S OWYHEE TRACE (TRACE)/ROGER BORINE & KNINES REDROCK SNIPER (JENNI)/PAUL DOIRON.

Lucky brace 13 was away at 13:13 hours. At 1:18, Jenni is found standing at the top of the ridge, Paul had to walk 200 yards to get close to the dog, meanwhile Trace stole point and flushed the bird. Jenni is still standing. Trace had made a huge cast to the top of the left ridge; Roger was trying to get him back. At 1:25, Jenni was in the water tank and off again. At 1:27, Jenni had a covey find, her manners were exceptional. Both dogs are working across the flats. At 1:30, Trace had a find on the right side of the flat, Jenni backed from 50 feet away. Both dogs stood tall and watched the bird be flushed. At 1:35, Trace bumped a bird and chased it; Jenni honored the chase. At 1:38, both dogs were on point on opposite sides of the flat. Roger flushed his bird and watered his dog. Paul had an extended attempt at finding the bird without success. After several relocations, Jenni stuck the bird and Paul flushed it, Jenni stood tall and watched the bird leave the county. Both dogs are off in opposite directions. At 1:41, Roger's scout called point 400 yards to the rear. Roger scrambled to get there; the bird was flushed. Trace stood tall through the flush and shot, time was called.

BRACE 14: POWDER RIVER'S WHIZ BANG BOOM (SHOCKER)/CHERYL KRAJCAR & WARBONNET LITTLE IDA (IDA)/JIM O'CONNOR.

At 1:52, Shocker and Ida took off to opposite sides of the valley. At 1:53, Shocker had a bird on the flats to the right of the draw. The bird was off on his own, Cheryl fired and Shocker headed forward. Ida was hunting kindly but close in front of Jim. Shocker had headed to the top of the draw and was out of sight over the hill. Cheryl and the scout were finally able to get Shocker back on track. At 2:10, both dogs had momentary contact with a bird, Ida was called off and Shocker continued a short chase. At 2:11, both dogs took a refreshing dip in the water tank. The water break had helped Ida and she opened up her race, quartering at a nice range in front of Jim. At 2:14, Ida had a very stylish point, the bird was flushed by Jim and all was in order. At 2:18, Shocker had a retrieve from the tall grass. As we went across the flats, Ida shortened back up and Shocker moved out. Both dogs finished out their time without further bird work.

BRACE 15: CLASSICAL CELTIC KYLA (KYLA)/PAUL DOIRON & WARBONNET CHINOOK WYND (BREEZ)/TODD BREITENFELDT.

At 2:30, the last brace of the event was off and the dogs seemed to know it was getting close to the end. They were both hunting fast and hard. Breez had taken the left and was quartering in front of Todd. Kyla had worked along the right side of the draw. At 2:33 and 2:40, Breez had bird contact. At 2:46, Breez was crossing in front of everyone in pursuit of a bird. Kyla had worked below the rocks on the left and hunted the area diligently without reward. At 2:47, both dogs visited the water tank. Kyla is hunting at a very nice pace and range, handling well for Paul. At 2:56, Kyla had a very stylish point on the right edge of the flats, Paul flushed the bird and all was in order. At 2:58, Breez returned with a hawk/raven kill. Both dogs continued their time hunting stylishly in front of their handlers.

2013 ABC Western All Age Futurity

The All Age Futurity began with bright sunshine, at 20 degrees and cold winds. At 20 degrees before adjusting for wind chill, the handlers, scouts and judges were well bundled up and a facemask or two showed up on course as well! Few will argue that the All Age course on these grounds is one of the most challenging in the west with steep terrain and lots of volcanic rock to keep the horse footing interesting. Scouts certainly have their challenges and the course is known for being tough on horses. We saw some warming as the day progressed, but the six All Age braces were finished in cold, windy conditions.

BRACE 1: MTB ZIPNSON VERI VIDI VICI (VINNY)/TOM WHITE & POWDER RIVER'S UNGOVERNED (FREEDOM)/DAVID DOWNING.

Both dogs head out fast at breakaway. Vinny crosses the creek and immediately heads high and left on the ridge. Tom turns right and continues to head down the course following the wall and calling for Vinny. Freedom hunts the flat after the creek crossing at the breakaway and moves on down the middle of the course hunting at moderate range. Vinny remains high as he travels the ridge before being spotted far ahead of the saddle crossing and past the turn. Tom manages to get him through the turn before Vinny heads out high again on top of chukar ridge. Freedom hunts up the draw at the turn before hunting the side of chukar ridge. This brace would finish with no bird contact but Vinny exhibiting a very exciting true all age race.

BRACE 2: JALO'S SPECK TACULAR (SPECK)/JIM HOUSE & LEONA VALLEY'S ANNIE GET YOUR GUN (ANNIE)/PAUL DOIRON.

Annie races to the front coming across the flat and skirts the bottom of the wall heading forward. Speck, a little slow to get moving, heads out across the middle of the course. There is bird contact for Annie before hitting the saddle and Paul jumps off his horse briefly to fire his blank pistol. Both dogs continue on down course. Annie hits the hill to the left just before the turn and works up in the draw before coming across to work chukar ridge with Speck. Both dogs work hard but no additional birds are produced before time is called.

BRACE 3: ZIP'S COUNT ME IN (TALLY)/PATTI VAN DE COUVERING & HIDEAWAY'S WHITE SMOKE (SMOKE)/ROGER BORINE.

Tally chooses to take off at an extremely fast speed down the far left edge at the breakaway rather than cross the creek. Patti and the scout ride hard to make sure she turns before hitting the highway as she is still moving fast and towards the road before turning across the creek at the far end. After the breakaway, Smoke works fast across the flat and continues at a good range down the middle of the course before crossing the saddle well in advance of his handler. As Roger and the gallery cross the saddle on the lookout for Smoke, the judge spots Tally who has not been seen since her cast at breakaway. Patti is notified that Tally has shown to the front and moves forward fast to handle her dog through the turn and on to chukar ridge. During the excitement of finding Tally, Smoke has a stop to flush in the creek bottom at the turn before heading high on the left hill. Roger turns Smoke and he hits the top edge of chukar ridge. Tally hunts the side of chukar ridge and heads towards the rocks on the right side of the course after coming off of chukar ridge. She is rewarded for her efforts as she finds and points a bird. Patti flushes, Tally chases exuberantly, and time is called.

BRACE 4: POWDER RIVER'S TOP GUN (MAVERICK)/DAVID DOWNING & JALO'S ODOT (MR. O)/JIM HOUSE.

Both dogs head down the path and across the creek at breakaway. They work the lower rocks on the right before hunting down the middle of the wall. Maverick is spotted on the rocky outcropping to the right just before the turn as Mr. O hits the turn. Point is called for Maverick but Maverick then continues to move and the handler stays on his horse with no shots fired. After water, both dogs work chukar ridge hard. Birds are put in the air off the side of chukar ridge with both dogs near and still moving. No further birds are seen before time is called.

BRACE 5: SAWTOOTH SAM LIL COOPER (COOPER)/TYLER STIENS & SPANISH CORAL'S SONNY PATCH (PATCH)/JOE GOWER.

At breakaway, Patch makes a nice cast to the lower rock before heading to the wall. Both dogs cover the middle of the course well with Patch pushing the farthest of the two. After the turn, Patch points a bird nicely in the draw. Joe flushes the bird and Patch remains standing mannerly with a quick whoa reminder from Joe. Patch and Cooper continue to hunt the side of chukar ridge. Cooper gets birdy, stopping and relocating, as he works his way up the hillside. As Tyler approaches, a covey of wild quail is flushed. Cooper and Patch continue to work forward until time is called.

BRACE 6: ZIP'S MOONDANCE KID (SKEETER)/LARRY SANDUSKY & STALEYS DIRTY LITTLE SECRET (PAIGE) JASON STALEY.

Skeeter takes off far left before the creek crossing at breakaway and proves a handful to turn. Larry comments that this is the wrong way litter as this is the same cast that littermate Tally took at the breakaway in Brace 3. Once Skeeter crosses the creek and heads out across the flat she makes a nice move about mid-height on the wall showing tremendous ground speed. Paige proceeds down the middle of the course and works some to the rocky ridge on the right at moderate range. Just before the turn, Paige's handler elects to pick her up while Skeeter continues on to the water barrel at the turn. Skeeter finishes out the brace hunting chukar ridge and beyond.

ANTHRACITE

Freeland, PA

May 18-19, 2013

The Anthracite Brittany Club held its Spring Field Trial on May 18-19, 2013 at the Freeland Kennel Club in Weatherly, PA. The weather both days was overcast with periods of rain that ranged from a fine mist to steady, soaking spring rain. The temperatures were in the middle 60s – perfect weather for the dogs if not their handlers.

We had a wonderful entry of 89 dogs with 84 dogs actually going to the line. Everybody, club members and non-club members alike, pitched in to keep the event running smoothly. Saturday night we had a pot luck dinner in the clubhouse where we all finally got warm and dry and set for the next day's running.

Thank you to everyone who came and supported our trial and we hope to see you again in the fall.

NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND Franklin Hills Flood Control Area Hill, NH

May 18-19, 2013

The Northern New England Brittany Club again held our annual trial on May 18th and 19th at the Franklin Falls Flood Control Area in Old Hill Village near Franklin, NH. We appreciate the Army Corp of Engineering allowing us access and permits to use this bottom land property. The grounds have some great New England cover and the base area is just lovely with the brook running by the camp area. We had a small trial this year, yet enough dogs to provide stiff competition and worthy placements. First NNEBC would like to thank our Judges, who gave their time and energy over the weekend to watch the charges coming to the line. Audra Jaconetti, Dr. Leslie Hunt, Michele Sala, Mike Ernest, Mike Blondin, John Poland, Ray Gorman, and Jane Bjork: we sincerely appreciate your efforts. We had great weather over the weekend with temps on the warm side Saturday. We saw some great races out of several dogs and the youngsters showed great promise in their field trial careers. Lenny Sinclair out of New Brunswick had his little gal Sadie (BF) take the Blue in the Amateur Puppy Stake with a great race and a pointed Woodcock find to make it all worthwhile coming down to visit. Steve Penta's Scout (BM) took the Amateur Derby on the same day, again with a wild bird find. Steve's other young Britt Meadow (BF) took the Open Puppy Stake on Sunday.

Sunday a bit later Jane Bjork's Effie (BF) took the Blue in the open Derby with a nice race in the big fields of the north course. In the Open Gun Dog Mr. P's D Evil Dog of Coos (BM) handled by John Poland took the Blue with a stylish four finds off in the North Course large lot, making John dismount his steed a few times under the hot afternoon sun. Jim Black took the Amateur Walking Hunting Dog honors with his Brittany Abby (BF) late in the day also. Liz (ESF) from Ed Marquis (AWHD) won the Sunday afternoon non-broke stake. We had a fairly new gent to the sport show up from Vermont with his Brittany claiming both a 3rd in the Open Gun Dog and a 1st in the Amateur Gun Dog on Sunday. Jeff Leggio's Brittany Josey (BF) showed his lineage and hard driving skills in the New England cover to its best. Bill Gorman's Brittany Mac (BM) had a stylish race with great bird work to round out the trial winning the Open Limited Stake. NNEBC also wants to put a special thank you out to Pat and Dan Godbout, who came up both days to help keep the grill warmed up with great burgers and breakfast sandwiches. The club also thanks our bird planters; several put in many miles planting quail over the two courses we used. James Rollins ran his dog and quietly assumed the detail both days. Guy Pagella and Kerri Gelenian also pitched in after running their dogs. Road Guards and Line Marshalls Deb Blondin and Joan-David Hayes along with secretary Rita Poland made the event run like clockwork. We hope to see you all again next year down in the valley of the Pemigewasset River. Arthur Hembrough

ST. CROIX VALLEY
Crow Hassan Park Reserve
Rogers, MN
May 11-16, 2013

May 11-16 at Crow Hassan Park Reserve near Rogers, MN was the place to be for our Spring Trial. We had seven stakes from Saturday through Tuesday adding an Amateur All-Age Stake on Saturday and running the Open Limited Gun Dog Stake on Tuesday. Our weather went from 55 degrees with 30 mph sustained winds on Saturday to 95 degrees and windy on Tuesday. Luckily there was some rainy windy weather in between. We had 130 starters come to the line over the four days. Forty-Eight starters in Open Gun Dog was the largest stake the Club has ever held.

There are many people to thank who contributed much to make our Trial a success. Club Member's Steve Ralph (Chairman), Bred Lindback, John Lindback, Katy Gill, Sue Januschka, Denise Koslowski, kept birds planted, the dog wagon moving and marshaled the gallery. Tanya Carlson, Bob Lovell and John Chejne provided some great meals throughout the Trial. All of their efforts were over the top. We want to thank the pros who brought many entries: Bob Burchett, Greg Dixon, Matt Eder, Tommy Hagan and Wes Lodes. They brought good dogs, hardy competition and great company to our event.

A big thank you goes out to our Judges: Jim Brigham, Bill Cockrum, Cindy Findley, Bruce Heiter, Bruce Muller, Susan Mueller, Becky Voss and Dan Voss. Through tough weather conditions, they worked some long hours in the saddle and posted worthy placements. The SCVBC would also like to thank NutriSource Dog Food for supporting our Trial with advertising along with food for the winners.

I will conclude with a thank you to the amateur handlers that entered your dogs and came to our Trial. The SCVBC appreciates your support for our spring trial and our sport. We hope that you had a good time and we look forward to seeing you again.

REGION 17 AMATEUR
BRITTANY ALL AGE CHAMPIONSHIP
By Mike Boydston

Jo-Lockapex Dark Roux Gumbo, a hard driving true all age male, has captured the 2013 Region 17 Amateur Brittany All Age Championship. "Roux" was handled by his owner, the affable Dave Lincoln, from Bennett, CO. Joker's Jackpot, a veteran champion in his own right, garnered the runner-up spot for his owner Steve Ralph of Forest Lake, MN. As a post-script, "Jack" had won the 2012 renewal of this event at the Union County Ranch outside Thayer, IA. It should be noted that "Roux" has also assembled a glittering record himself, including the big one, the US Open Brittany Championship, held in Ardmore, OK. Twenty-two entries gathered at Mary Lynn and Bill Oliver's beautiful flint hill ranch, outside Eureka, Kansas for the running, which commenced March 21, 2013.

One of the story lines had to be the weather, which included a late winter snowstorm, which halted the running for three days, and virtually paralyzed all of southeast Kansas. However, the "true believer", the major circuit all-age Brittany handlers, stayed until the last brace on Wednesday to compete for the title.

Another side bar was the tremendous popularity of this event. In addition to the 22 starters drawn for the running, one of our loyal patrons had to scratch three entries because of the weather forecast, which would have required a 400+-mile trip to participate. To draw 25-30 entries is a tribute to the Southern Kansas Brittany Club, which remains one of the outstanding groups of field-trailers in the nation. Larry Hagedorn, Terry Gowin, Herb Rea, Bill Oliver, Mike Lager and a host of other club members were on hand at various times to make sure this championship was first class in every way.

Local support for the program is outstanding. PMI Exclusive Dog Food and Williams Ace Hardware, Andover, KS were the sponsors for the 2013 Region 17 AAA. In addition to their financial support, they provided dog food and exclusive hats. These two companies support this championship along with the nationally known Kansas Open Championship, which runs in the fall on these same grounds, and draws a national entry. Without this kind of support, given the dynamics of the sport as it is currently structured, field trialing would be in a precarious situation. On behalf of the club and participants, we salute and thank you! And by the way, if you're not feeding Exclusive, you should be!

The popular team of Pam Baird and Al Gorrow came out from Broughton, IL to judge and their efforts were appreciated. Al has been training Brittany's for over 40 years and Pam has scouted for him since they made the migration from central Florida. The weather delay while regrettable is one of the normal hazards of spring field trials. Pam and Al never wavered in their desire to find a worthy champion. As the trial wore on, they never complained and their attention was as keen as when they started. In fact, the eventual winner came out of the next to last brace. In all, judges, horses, dogs and handlers were a credit to the sport.

Highlights

The Champion was drawn in the 10th brace. He ran a huge, forward, smart race. At 55 minutes Roux was gone until he was found standing, in front of birds. He was intense and stylish. At this level of competition, under these two judges, only a championship performance would suffice, and the dog gave them one!

The runner-up, Jack, was also impressive. He was fast and wide and chose his objectives intelligently. He looked good on his birds and finished well to the front. One non-productive may have been the difference between the two dogs, although given their records, it would have taken a very keen eye to place them.

A dual champion female earned third place. Alar's Tango Bar, running in the developing storm, ran high and wide. After returning from lengthy absences from the front, she hit birds with her brace mate. Displaying courage under great temptation, birds were flushed and she was rock solid.

Shady's Red Tail Hawk rounded out the placements. Running on the first day, this dog was running through the flint hills at extreme range, just enough to keep everyone up in the saddle. He scored halfway through the hour with a well-located quail find. His second half was as good as the first, staying forward at all-age range. The event ended on Wednesday.

The 17

This renewal marks 20 years of excellence and trying to making this Championship the best it can be. The Region 17 Amateur All Age Brittany Championship began in early 1995. At the time, Brittany field trials were in their "golden years". Brittany competition was intense, and out of the central prairies, competitors were looking for opportunities to win major championships. At that time the movers and shakers in the breed had successfully managed to convince the American Field Publishing Company licensed a number of "Brittany" championships. Most of those championships were open but the Amateurs had very few opportunities. The venerable Illinois Championships was one of the popular stops on the winter circuit and several Kansas competitors came out to Rend Lake, in the middle of January, to run their dogs. These were great events, well managed, and entries were abundant.

With that backdrop in place, a group of Midwest field trialers began building a model of an amateur Championship, to be run on wild birds, early in the year. When the Region 17 was conceived, there was not much concern about meeting the requirements of AKC. This Amateur Championship would be a "stand-alone" event, with no additional stakes required, licensed only by the American Field. Times were different then, and many field-trialers competing on the Brittany circuit were anxious to compete! However, because the American Brittany Club had a well-organized and nationally recognized program to name their national champion, one of the other parts of the model was to make sure this new event would be run before the spring regional trials started. Finally, the final element of the model included the fact that the Kansas hunting season, one of the longest running upland bird seasons in the nation, didn't close until February 1. And back in those days, most field trialers also bird-hunted their dogs so it was not practical to try to have a Championship until after the season closed.

Original members of the Region 17 Championship included Evert Davis, Rosco Staton, Bill Burton and Mike Boydston. First, we contacted Bill Oliver to see if we could get permission to run on the Oliver Ranch. Rosco reached out to Ray Byram of KASCO to see if we could obtain sponsorship funds. After speaking with Linda Hunt, the Championship was born.

The Early days on the Oliver Ranch

The inaugural running of the Region 17 was in early February 1995. The association bought the front page of the American Field and continued to do so until the financial realities began to impact the whole field trial environment. The inaugural running, featuring 24 dogs was won by Hill's Just Judd handled by Francis Classen. Mogan Playboy was named runner up under Mike Boydston's whistle.

The Region 17 quickly became one of the premier Championships for Brittany's, drawing entries and competitors from all around the nation.

After a few years, scheduling began to cause problems. A new open championship down in Alabama started to erode entries. Most of the professional dog trainers wanted to begin early in the year and a lot of amateurs had their dogs on the circuit. Situations changed and finally Evert and Mike Hamman agreed to fold the Region 17 into the Neosho Valley Brittany club. With Evert's long relationship with Ed Kimball in place, the 17 moved to a fall date using the club's ABC schedule/dates. This adjustment met with immediate favor and entries returned to previous levels. That also resulted in another subtle change. By having the stake licensed by both American Field and AKC, Neosho Valley ended up providing four opportunities for handlers to qualify their dogs for the American Brittany Club amateur. The move to Yates Center was successful and the 17 continued to attract quality entries.

The Kimball Ranchera

Like many small field trial clubs, declining membership in the Neosho Valley Brittany club began to take a toll. Many members aged and quit. Trialers raising kids ended up with other priorities. Landowners changed and some of land around the ranch was no longer available. The remaining club members did the best they could but it became harder and harder to put on a quality event. Evert Davis passed and his long association with Ed Kimball seemed to fade. Then an unlikely development occurred that breathed life back into the championship. Bernie Crain volunteered to fill the expired term of president of the Missouri Brittany club. As a long-time field trialer, with a love of the Flint Hills, the Missouri club tried to resurrect the Region 17. Mike Boydston made contact with Richard Kimball who was now running the ranch for his family. The competition and the fellowship. After the running of the 2011 renewal Mike canvassed the participants and determined, almost unanimously, that an American Field amateur championship should be awarded if the quality of the performance was justified. The new secretary of the AFTCA, Piper Huffman, gave us to the guidance to accomplish that remaining detail, and the Region 17 was back in business!

Unfortunately another challenge appeared from an unlikely source. After a sudden and unexpected dispute arose over the date/location of the Missouri trial, including the championship, Missouri was not allowed to schedule their trial on the Kimball ranch. Luckily, some quick thinking prevailed when it was determined that Iowa was part of Region 17. In the meantime, the Union County Ranch, outside Thayer, IA was available. Missouri quickly moved to lock in the grounds and the 2012 running was a huge success, drawing 24 dogs with a waiting list!

Mid-American Championship Branched Oak Field Trial Area Raymond, NE April 23-25, 2013

The Mid-America Brittany Championship was held on the grounds of Branched Oak Recreation Area over the 3-day period of April 23-25. The Mo-Valley Brittany Club hosted the Championship and their members worked hard to put on a class event. Bird work was plentiful, dogs were on the line when they needed to be, and all other details that go into putting on a trial of this magnitude were done quickly and efficiently. Judges for this champion were two well-known dog men, Ken Chenoweth of Fair Grove, Missouri and Mike Martin of Bella Vista, Arkansas. Both men were very observant and made note of each dog's overall performance. They were looking for true all age races by dogs that stayed to the front, were able to point their game from some distance, and that exhibited great style on point. After evaluating 34 dogs, they selected Ocaje, better known as Grace, as the champion. Handled by her owner, Terry Gowin this three year old white and orange female put down a brilliant race and scored three well-spaced finds with great style. She accomplished all this while running under perhaps the worst weather conditions of the trial, especially the 30-40 mph winds blowing from the NNW. Runner-up was awarded to Wimberly JimDandy, a 10-year-old liver and white male, owned by Ginger and John Gay and handled by Scott Johnson. Dandy ran on the third day and made a very impressive initial cast, hugging the edges of the course and running a very intelligent race as he stayed downwind of likely objectives. He had six finds during his hour. Third place was awarded to Sniksoh Sally, a white and orange female coming eight. Sally, owned by Phil and Louise Corlew and handled by Bob Burchett, also put down a strong forward race, although her range was not quite extreme as the Champion and Runner-Up. Fourth place went to Shady Way's Red Tail Hawk, owned by Bret Lindback and handled by Jim John. Beau opened his hour with a huge cast but was unable to maintain the same race for the remainder of his hour. He carded two finds during his allotted time.

The Mo-Valley Brittany Club wishes to thank Purina for their continuing support of this championship event. Without such help these trials would not be possible to run.

It seems that weather frequently has an effect on field trials, and this one was no exception. The event was originally scheduled to begin on April 22, but running was delayed one day because of heavy rain and lightning storms on that Monday. A cold front pushed through behind the storms and the following day was overcast and cold. Air temperature was 31 degrees and wind chill was 16 degrees because of a strong wind from the NW of 25-30 mph.

BRACE 1: POWDER RIVER'S TRI UR LUCK "LOTTO" (KRAJCAR) – ROCKLAN'S WHIZZLE STOP "WHIZ" (BURCHETT). The first brace broke away from the clubhouse heading east. Lotto pointed at six in the corner of the tree line north of the rock crossing. Whiz failed to back and was up. No bird was produced for Lotto so he was taken on. He pointed again at 24 on top of the hill south of the fish camp. Again, no bird was produced. He was taken on, but had an extended absence before returning to handler at about 45. Handler picked up at 50 past the wooden bridge.

BRACE 2: POWDER RIVER NOBODY BUT ME "BLAKE" (DOWNING) – OCAJE "GRACE" (GOWIN). This brace was loosed at the wooden bridge on the east course. Both dogs were seen early, then disappeared. Grace was found on point at 10 north of the fish camp at the east end of the course. A Bird was produced with all in order. She made a big cast around the east end of the course, then came back along the draw on the north side of the course where she scored a second find at 14, pointing quite a distance from where the bird was flushed. Meanwhile, Blake was not to be found and the handler called for the tracking device at 24. Grace continued westward, running the limits of the course and hunting likely objectives. She stopped at 29 along the draw east of the concrete bridge. The handler found what appeared to be a dead bird and tossed it to the judges. The judges declared it to be alive, however, and instructed the handler to fire. Grace stood through all this with great style and manners. She continued around the west course, exhibiting a strong forward race with impressive ground speed and stamina. She finished to the front at the fish camp on the west course.

BRACE 3: SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT "KNIGHT" (JOHNSON) – MR. MAGIC II "MAC" (JOHN). This brace left fish camp heading west. Knight scored finds at 6, 26, and 35, the last of these with Mac backing. Unfortunately, the bird on the third find flew over Mac's head and he went with it, ending his bid early. Knight continued on, stopping at 42 but the handler found a cold, dead bird among the deadfall where the dog was pointing. He had another find at 55 along the ditch east of the concrete bridge. He finished after crossing the concrete bridge. His bird work was good but his race on this day was not as consistent as the placing dogs.

The first brace after lunch broke away at 12:30 from the clubhouse. The temperature had risen a couple of degrees to 33 with the wind chill at 20 degrees as a stiff wind was still blowing from the NW.

BRACE 4: CAROLINA SEA BISCUIT "BISCUIT" (JOHNSON) – TJ'S PRAIRIE BLIZZARD "BLIZZARD" (TILLSON). Biscuit went into the flat by the lake near fish camp and would not come out, so Scott elected to pick up at 12. Blizzard continued around the course at good range and was seen at the rock crossing past the frog pond, then suffered an extended absence before coming up from behind while handler was approaching the wooden bridge. He was gathered up and taken across the wooden bridge to the east course where he had finds at 50, 56, and 59, with all in order.

BRACE 5: DEM BONES "BONES" (LINCOLN) – SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY "WILLY" (BURCHETT). The dogs were loosed from the double gate on the north side of the east course, heading west. Bones struck out for the southeast corner and took some time to corral and get lined out. Willy continued westward and stopped at six, but no bird was produced. He was sent on and crossed the concrete bridge, at which time Bones and his handler caught the front at 20. Willy stopped again at 25, but disappeared in heavy cover on the relocation attempt. The handler continued on and found the dog to the front. Both dogs finished to the front without bird contact.

BRACE 6: ALAR'S TANGO BAR "TANGO" (TILLSON) – KINWASHKLY ML BENJAMIN PATRICK "BEN" (JOHNSON). The last brace of the day left from east of the wooden bridge about 3:05 PM, headed east. Ed called point for Tango at nine along the ditch north of fish camp on east end of the east course. A bird was produced with Tango turning to mark the flight of the bird. Both dogs were found standing at 30 in the ditch east of the concrete bridge. One bird was produced and both handlers fired. Scott called point for Ben at 50 along the edge of the big draw on the south side of the west course. No bird was produced and relocation attempt was unsuccessful. Both dogs finished the hour at the fish camp on the west course. Both dogs were generally forward, with Ben being the wider of the two.

Day two started sunny and cold, with an air temperatures of 25 degrees. The wind was not as strong as the previous day, but picked up as the morning progressed.

BRACE 7: KD'S SLIP AND SLIDE "SPLASH" (TILLSON) – SNIKSOH SALLY "SALLY" (BURCHETT). The dogs were released at the clubhouse. Splash knocked birds at nine just past the rock crossing and was up. Sally scored a find at 14 along west end of the big draw on the south end of the course. She made a series of good casts around the west course and onto the east course, then pointed again at 49 in the plum thicket north of the fish camp on the east course. Birds were seen running in the plum thicket and the judge instructed the handler to fire. Judge pointed out Sally standing at 54 in the bid draw on the north edge of the course. Single bird was produced with all in order. Sally finished strong to the front. She had a very consistent race and covered the course well, but did not exhibit quite the same "punch" in her run as the Champion and Runner-Up.

BRACE 8: KINWASHKLY DIRTY NED PEPPER "NED" (JOHNSON) – JOKER'S JACKPOT "JACK" (JOHN). This brace was loosed from the double gate on the north side of the east course. Both dogs made big casts to the southeast. Jim was able to pull Jack back on course, but Ned had problems getting lined out. Activity associated with getting Ned rounded up caused Jack to cast back. Both dogs were eventually corralled and taken on to the front. Scout called point for Jack in the plum thicket east of the central motte on the west course. The judge reported a running covey, with one bird flushed and another that ran in front of the dog. Jack stood through all that commotion. Jack pointed again at 32 at the central motte. One bird was produced, the dog took steps after the bird flushed. Ned disappeared somewhere on the east course before concrete bridge and was not seen at all on west course. Scott pulled the tracking device at 35. At 46, Jack pointed in the same plum thicket where he had his first find. A single bird was flushed with all in order. He pointed again at 51 near the frog pond A bird was produced. The dog took steps after the flush. He finished his hour south of camp. Jack made several big moves during his run, but his race on this day lacked the consistency the judges were looking for.

BRACE 9: WOLF RIVER'S WINNING TICKET "CASH" (GORROW) – STARLIGHT'S BLAZING SIRIUS "SY" (THOMAS). Break away was east of the wooden bridge heading on to the east course. Sy pointed at six along terrace east of the rock crossing, but chased at the flush ending his hour early. Cash had a find at 12 in the plum thicket north of the fish camp with all in order. He was not exhibiting a championship race, however, so the handler picked up at 40 as we passed by the clubhouse.

BRACE 10: WIMBERLY ROWDY BO DANDY "ROWDY" (JOHNSON) – JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO "RUE" (LINCOLN). First brace after lunch left from clubhouse at 12:30 under sunny skies, a temperature of about 50 degrees and a moderate breeze. Rowdy was seen under a bird by handler at 12 near the central motte and was up. Rue scored a find at 14 on the west end of the big draw on the south side of the course. A bird was produced with all in order. He suffered a non-productive at 55 along a ditch at the east end of the east course.

BRACE 11: SPANKY'S LITTLE PILL BANDIT "BANDIT" (HANCOCK) – TEQUILA SCORCHER "LINCOLN" (TILLSON). This pair was released from the double gate on the east course. Bandit was found standing in the big draw west of the rock crossing on the west course at 23. A bird was buried and Bill took a full seven minutes to find the bird. All the while, the dog refused to budge. The handler finally got him to relocate, but only by a few steps. Lincoln had a non-productive, then bumped a bird and chased while Bill was attempting to flush for Bandit. Bandit's race was not consistent as compared to the placing dogs.

BRACE 12: HAL-JS SMARTEYES-JOKER EZ ACE "ACE" (JOHN) – WAYSIDE'S BLUERIDGE RUNNER "BLUE" (JOHNSON). Break away was east of the bridge. Both dogs away. Ace was seen crossing the field past the first rock crossing and heading up over the ridge to the north. Camp down the big draw to the eastern-most pond and pointed below the pond dam. Blue came up along the same line but veered east before getting to the standing dog. A bird produced for Ace with all in order. Both dogs have been making some good moves. Blue made a big move up the hill south of the rock crossing on the west course, crossed over to the west and pointed at 45 in a thicket southwest of the central motte. A bird was produced with all in order. Both dogs had several flat spots; several times only about 30 yards in front of the handler – not punching forward the way the judges wanted to see in an All Age Championship.

Thursday, day three. A bright, sunny morning, about 33 degrees with only a light breeze.

BRACE 13: WIMBERLY JIMDANDY "DANDY" (JOHNSON) – BRISCO'S MR. STUB "STUB" (GORROW). Both dogs made big opening casts. Dandy was found standing at 10 east of the central motte with Stub about 30 yards east of Dandy. A bird was flushed for Dandy. He relaxed and took a couple of steps after the shot was fired. Dandy pointed again at 15 in a big draw north of the pines. Stub stopped then turned and left before being called back by the handler and re-establishing a back. A bird was produced with all in order. Both dogs were collared out. Dandy went forward, but Stub moved up a few more feet and pointed another bird. The handler flushed and fired with all in order. Dandy pointed at 26 in the thickets northeast of the central motte and Stub pointed about 50 yards further east. Birds produced for both dogs with all in order. Dandy turned south at the frog pond, following the normal all age course, and pointed at 35 as he was being called to make the turn back to the north. Dandy pointed at 45 along a line of trees west of the rock crossing on the east course. He turned to mark the flight of the bird then relaxed at the flush and took a few steps before being collared out. Dandy scored again at 55 at the thicket north of the fish camp with Stub backing. Al called point for Stub at 58 in the corner by the fish camp. A bird was produced and shots were fired with all in order. Time was called while he was flushing so the handler collared out the dog and released him, then gathered him up again. Dandy's race in the last 15-20 minutes was not up to the same standard he set in the first part of his run. Stub's race was considerably shorter.

BRACE 14: SHADY WAY RED TAIL HAWK "BEAU" (JOHN) – GUN RUNNER'S BOOKIN' AND COOKIN' "RACE" (HANCOCK). Break away was from the double gates on the north side of the east course. After crossing the first two ponds, both dogs went south along the draw and made huge casts around the bottoms, coming forward past the rock crossing. Race stopped momentarily at 13 along the tree line east of the concrete bridge but moved on. Both dogs crossed the concrete bridge onto the west course and headed south, their race having shortened somewhat. Beau pointed at 24 in the plum thicket south of the rock crossing but the initial flushing attempt was unsuccessful. Meanwhile, Race scored a find at the motte with all in order. Beau relocated and pinned the bird at 27. The bird was flushed, shot fired, and dog taken on. Beau stopped at 32 in the open field. Jim found a dead bird so took the dog on. Both dogs stopped at 40 northwest of the fish camp. Race gave chase and was up. Meanwhile, Jim produced a bird for Beau with all in order and he was sent ahead. He disappeared somewhere past the frog pond and was absent at time, but was rounded up by the handler and scout within the allotted time period.

BRACE 15: BLUERIDGE HUNTER GONNA FLY "HUNTER" (JOHNSON) – BRITTMONT THE HAWK "HOGAN" (GORROW). A short delay ensued before this brace was loosed due to a judge's horse coming up lame. The dogs broke away about 10:40 east of the wooden bridge. Hunter cast off in the wrong direction and required some time to get him pointed in the right direction. Hogan disappeared over the ride to the north but returned down the draw to the pond north of the fish camp. He went on point at nine below the pond dam. Hunter appeared ahead of his handler and went past Hogan then circled around, but gave no indication he had seen the other dog. He then went on point himself a few yards south of Hogan. Al flushed a bird for Hogan as Scott rode up. Scott flushed a bird for Hunter and took him on. Hunter couldn't seem to get lined out after his find and Scott elected to pick up at 15. Hogan pushed a bird at 17 ending his bid early.

BRACE 16: BRUSHBUSTER'S LAKOTA JILL "JILL" (JOHN) – CRESCENT CITY GIRL "NOLA" (BURCHETT). The judges elected to run one more brace because they were at the far east end of the course rather than deadhead back to camp. Brace 16 was brought out and loosed at the double gates at 11:30. Both traversed the east course and crossed over to the west course. Jill pushed out a bird at the top of the hill past the motte at 24. Nola was having trouble finding the front and was picked up at that point.

BRACE 17: CAST-A-BRITT MICRO SAMMIE "SAMMIE" (BURCHETT) – SPARKY'S PRAIRIE WIND GYPSY "GYPSY" (JOHN). The decision was made to run the final brace while everyone was on the course. The dogs left from the fish camp on the west course headed west. Sammie found on point by scout at four along big draw on the south end of the course. She was taken forward and disappeared in cover north of the frog pond. The handler pointed her out along the lake on the east course at 25, but she disappeared again and was not returned to judgment. Jill was last spotted by the lake near the wooden bridge, but also disappeared afterwards and the handler called for the tracking device at 30.

WEST COAST

WHID ISLE Goose Butte BLM Ritzville, WA April 13-14, 2013

The Whid Isle Brittany Club held their Spring Field Trial on April 13th and 14th at the Goose Butte BLM Area near Ritzville, Washington. We had a nice slate of over eighty starters with participants from Washington, Idaho, Oregon, and California. Temperatures were relatively comfortable for this time of the year although it was fairly windy with occasional rain/hail/snow. All in all, typical weather for this time of year in eastern Washington!

With that said, the dogs had considerable bird work (some good, some not so good) and there were some excellent performances in each of the stakes. The judges had a number of worthy dogs to choose from for placements and the placements were well received. Special recognition goes to amateur Joe Waitman whose dogs Cedar Creek Surgeon won the Open All Age and Cedar Creek Zeb took third in the Open Gun Dog. It's great to see the amateur handlers continuing to give the pros a run for the placements week in and week out!

We want to thank all of our judges for their attentiveness and time in the saddle. We also want to thank pros Paul & Peggy Doiron, Wayne Down, and Jason Staley for bringing their strings to Ritzville, Washington and for supporting our field trial. Without the support of our professional trainers, the entry at our trials would be significantly smaller and it would be difficult for our clubs to remain financially solvent. Finally, we would like to recognize all of the hard work of our WIBC members as well as from everyone else who pitched in with bird planting, water transport, food preparation, etc. As usual, it was a very busy weekend but we were able to get everything accomplished in a timely manner and by all accounts everyone had a good time competing and socializing.

We look forward to seeing everyone in the Fall!

INLAND EMPIRE

Goose Butte BLM

Ritzville, WA

April 16-17, 2013

The Inland Empire Brittany Club held their field trial this Spring at the Goose Butte BLM Area near Ritzville, Washington on Tuesday, April 16, and Wednesday, April 17. The IEBC field trial followed the Whid Isle B.C. field trial which took place the previous weekend and was followed by the Washington B.C. field trial on the next weekend. All of the field trials were held at the same location making it convenient for the competitors to set up once rather than relocating for each event. We have been grouping these field trials in this manner for the past four to five years and it has resulted in larger entries for all three events and the opportunity for everyone to compete in 12 adult stakes (most of which are majors) and six juvenile stakes over a nine day period.

We had a nice slate of over eighty-five entries for the field trial with participants from Washington, Idaho, Oregon, and California. The conditions were warmer than normal for eastern Washington at this time of year and it seemed to negatively impact the scenting conditions at various times. It didn't seem to bother Patty Van De Coevering's dogs as her young male, Zip's Wind Dancer, won the Amateur Gun Dog and took 4th in the Open Gun Dog while her female, Zip's Count Me In, won the Open Derby. Larry Sandusky's dogs also did well with Rubyridge's Million Dollar Babe winning the Open Gun Dog while Rubyridge's Megadot and Blacksmith's Daughter garnered placements in the Amateur Gun Dog.

We want to thank all of our judges for their attentiveness and time in the saddle. They did a great job and their placements were well received. Additionally, we want to thank pros Paul & Peggy Doiron, Wayne Down, and Jason Staley for bringing their strings to Ritzville, Washington and supporting our field trial with their entries. We would also like to thank everyone who pitched in to help with bird planting, water transport, food preparation, etc. Your assistance is really appreciated in helping make this trial run smoothly as we have a small number of active members and don't have a sufficient number of people (or the necessary horsepower) to get everything done. Finally, I would like to recognize the hard work of the While Isle B.C. members and Washington B.C. members who have banded together to put on the Inland Empire B.C. field trial over the past few years. This dedicated group has gone above and beyond to help make the IEBC field trial a continued success.

We look forward to seeing everyone in the Fall!

WASHINGTON

BLM Goose Butte Management Unit Ritzville, WA April 20-21, 2013

The WBC Spring field trial was run smoothly thanks to the help from the field trialers from Oregon, Idaho, California and Washington. I won't try to thank everyone personally by name as I don't wish to miss anyone, but once again, thank you or making this field trial a success.

Probably, the highlight of the event, aside from the winning placements, was the excellent dinner that was prepared by Pam Battin, WBC Secretary, and the other ladies assisting her following placements and Happy Hour Saturday evening. The wonderful prime sirloin tip roast, prepared on the Club's new camp stove in large cast iron Dutch ovens, was absolutely excellent!

Another highlight of the trial was on Sunday when the first place winner of the large Open Gun Dog stake was announced as being Wind Mtn Walking Dream, owned by Al & Joan Panas and handled by Jason Staley. For those of you who do not know Jason, he is our newest northwest pro trainer. Congratulations Jason, Patsy and her owners.

Once again, a sincere thank you to all those who participated in working planting birds, filling water tubs, bagging birds, cooking lunch and all those things required to complete a successful field trial, couldn't have done it without all those helping hands. Our sincere thanks to all the attendees.

IDAHO

Mile Post 9 Hwy 95

Marsing, ID

April 27-28, 2013

The Idaho Brittany Club held its spring field trial on April 27-28, 2013 at Mile Post 9, Hwy 95 in Marsing, Idaho. The weekend weather was warm, sunny and the usual winds. We had a large turnout this spring due to we were the host club for the 2013 Western Futurity to follow our trial. I have a large Thank You list. Without the volunteers we couldn't have had a successful trial. Whether it was liberating birds on the courses, bagging birds, cooking lunch, cooking dinner or filling up water tanks your help was greatly appreciated. So bear with me as I list these people. Thank you goes out to Frank Bright, Steve Ball, Jason Staley, Vic Retherford, Connie Strom, Larry Sandusky, Joe Gower, Dan Campbell, Brent Stranger, David Kirk, Jim Hammett, Dennis Leis, Larry McConnell, Ron Dunagan, Robin Tomasi, John Fellon, Shiela Krug, Jan Hamner, Amy Heleniak, Carol Maves, Tom White, Mitch Foust and Sharon Millsbaugh. I hope I didn't miss any of the volunteers. I'd also like to thank our judges Paul and Lisa Pollock who traveled all the way from NJ, John Henderson, Roger Borine, June McConnell, Jack Cafferty, Joe Waitman, Pattie VanDeCoevering, Jim Hammett, Frank Bright and Steve Ball. Our judges spent long hours in the saddle, some over the course of two days to complete the stake. Comments from the judges were that they saw some great dogs and bird work from these dogs. Here are a few figures of interest. We used over 7000 gallons of water, 4+ tons of hay, and 350 chukar for our events. We had new people at our trial and I hope we will see them in the future at our events. Congratulations to all the winners and placements.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB, INC. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club. Full Membership cost is $30.00 per year and $3.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.
