Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

Range, Style, and Being a Softie A trio of topics

Range

As it relates to hunting range is best defined as a dog working the terrain and cover to its best advantage. In the Flint Hills of Kansas that may mean running draws; in the grouse woods of the north country, it is likely to mean clearcuts; and in Oregon it means working hilltops. Each of these requires a different range, and a good dog learns to adapt to the birds and the cover, expanding or restricting its range accordingly.

So what is a good range for a dog? Depends on what you need. An All-Age pointer had better head for the horizon when he's turned loose, but for the average foot hunter, it's not the right dog. Genetics play a huge role in range, and too often we see people buying a pup out of big-running field trial stock and ending up with a dog they can't even find most of the time. Choose a pup based on your needs, and if famous names are important to you, be sure they are famous for doing what you intend to do.

We consistently see hunters wanting their pointing dogs within gun range at all times. No offense, but most of the time, dogs are kept in gun range because the owner doesn't trust the dog to stay with him. Many use an e-collar to keep the dog close. That can create a whole new set of issues if it's overdone. A fully trained dog can have its range shortened by judicious use of the collar.

You can push a close-working dog out a bit and alter their natural range. Run the dog off horseback or with a four wheeler. If you push too hard, a naturally close-working dog will learn to run out to the front, but they aren't hunting anymore...just running. Pick the right dog for your type of hunting and let it work at its natural range – everybody will be happier. And we'll also bet you find more birds that way.

Style

What is style and why do we care? Style refers to a classy dog, with a high head and tail, a gracefully efficient way of moving, and an attitude of confidence and intensity. All these traits are added to strong drive and energy; a stylish dog is a classy dog that burns through the country hunting for birds and looks good doing it.

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

When bird dog folks get together, there aren't too many things that can cause a heated debate – except style. Competition folks and hunting folks look at things a bit differently. Field trialers can't win without style, so it's at the forefront of what they look for; a hunter wants birds in the bag, so style's way down the list. Who's right? They both are.

Let's break style apart and see what we really need. Number one is a dog with a good gait. This means an easy way of running, effortlessly covering the ground with a body built to go all day. Most everybody should be able to agree on that one; why would we not want a dog with the conformation and angulation to do the best job it can?

How about that high head? There is a good reason to have a head up, nose testing the wind: Bird scent isn't on the ground unless the bird is right under the dog's nose. A dog that carries a high head will catch scent more easily, since scent rises and spreads. This means more birds can be pointed before they can run or flush wild. The dog that carries its head down in the grass is not likely to find birds as efficiently as the high-headed dog will.

That leaves us with the tail. And here's where the debate usually gets a bit hot. Both sides will agree that the tail shows birdiness and intensity. The debate lies in how that tail is carried. Competition hunters want a dog with a straight tail, carried as close as possible to a 12 o'clock position. This is a big change from days of old, when a level tail was the standard. In more modest times, it was considered rude for a dog to expose its nether regions while on point, since the hunter who walked up from behind would be forced to endure that sight. A high tail would have been frowned upon by the gentleman hunter.

Which one is right? Neither. Outside of signaling birdiness or intensity, the tail has nothing to do with how good a dog is; after all, the dog doesn't point with its tail. A high tail looks pretty, and that's about it. It's pretty much an American thing, too, given that so many Continental breeds have cropped tails.

Competition folks will argue that a straight tail helps a dog run better and is found on a dog with better structure to run. That, sad to say, is total hogwash. A dog with a flatter pelvic slope is built for more endurance, and the tail will come out higher on the topline – but anything above the base of the tail is just for looks. Numerous veterinarians, many of whom also trial their dogs, have told us that the tail carriage has nothing to do with the dog's gait or how good a dog is at finding birds. It's strictly aesthetic, looks pretty, and we like it.

Genetics puts the style into the dog, and the training either enhances it or ruins it. Confidence increases the style, while overdone corrections and poor handling take it away. Either way, a dog can only be as classy as its genes. Everything else is up to us.

Style is important in one other respect: It makes the birds taste better, because while we're eating them, we recall that pretty picture of our dog on point, head high, body aquiver, and tail at 12 o'clock.

Soft Handlers

There are tough dogs, soft dogs, and everything in between, and we've given you plenty of lectures over the years on not being a rough handler. What about the handler who is too soft?

Remember, the number one thing we have to be when working with our dogs is the Alpha, the pack leader. A soft handler can't – or won't – assume that position in the pack, so they're easy to spot. The soft handler is the one who lets his dog bump into him, lean on him, pull on the lead, cut him off, and so on, without correction. A good handler knows when to ramp up the correction, get the point across, and slide right back to normal without losing his temper.

The soft handler doesn't make corrections because either they don't know what to do or they're afraid their dog won't "love" them. But keep in mind that most dogs cannot be loved into doing something they don't want to do. WE have yet to see a dog stop chasing a bird because their owner loved them into stopping. Being the pack leader takes firmness, clear signals, and confidence. The soft handler usually shows none of the above, and the dogs know it. If the handler takes the Alpha spot, their dog will reward them with more respect and love than ever. Plus, it makes for a better working relationship all the way around.

When a dog keeps making the same mistake over and over again, you're either not being clear or you're being too soft with your cue. It's far better to make one very clear correction than to nag and pick at the dog. A good example of this is the dog that leans on your leg all the time. If you play the game of pushing and shoving the dog away, it's just that: a game. And dogs love to play games.

Make your point clearly by making the correction uncomfortable for the dog. Bump it hard enough that it doesn't want to repeat the behavior, keeping in mind that the more it's gotten away with leaning, the sharper the correction will likely be and the more repetitions you'll need to change the behavior. Also keep in mind that we're not asking you to get angry or lose your temper, since those are counterproductive, too. Just calmly make a correction and go on as if it never happened.

The same goes with training cues. If the dog isn't responding, make sure your cue is "loud" enough that the dog reacts. We're not talking verbal commands: we're talking about stuff like a tug on the checkcord. A cue is not a request, it is a demand; so make it count, make it clear what you expect, and then go on. A good handler gives clear signals, has the dog's attention and respect, and will have more "love" from their dog.

Now grab your shotgun, vest, and some shells, take that good-ranging, stylish dog to the woods, be a good handler, and enjoy your day in the field.

Obedience/Agility/Rally

By Lisa Shubitz

Brittany Agility Trial at the 2014 Summer Specialty

This trial was held at an indoor soccer field in Oklahoma City in air conditioning on Friday, June 27th, 2014, with two independent trials running at the same time. First of all, kudos to Ragan Kimbro and others who put in much hard work in securing the excellent site and coordinating the event long before any of us stepped into the building for a fun day of agility. And thanks to trial committee members Amanda McGavin, Lisa Brower, Jim Bryson, and Lisa Shubitz. The trial day started at 6:30 in the morning with unloading equipment from the trailer. Nearly everyone was present by 7:30 and most pitched in to build the ring and set courses, including our enthusiastic and friendly judge, Sally Sheridan. Eighteen handlers and 26 dogs entered at all levels of competition, from Novice A (Yay to our up and coming newcomers to the sport!) to Masters, which included several of the top ranked Brittany's in the country. For me, it was a blast to see all these dogs as I live in a state where, for years, I have had the only Brittany running agility. The courses were challenging but fun, showcasing the speed and fun-loving attitudes of our Brittany's, but also their ability to respond to their handlers and perform tough weave entrances at speed and manage technical lines.

Running started at 9AM and continued steadily throughout the day with multiple course changes and some down time between classes, enough for people to chat, play with their dogs, and partake of the beautiful cake with this year's Summer Specialty logo on it. There was lots of clapping and cheering for all the dogs, and even the ones that made up their own courses ran with great enthusiasm and had a wonderful time. Judge Sally said she enjoyed judging these dogs very much. One-year-old Scott Taylor, a future Brittany guy and the son of one our Novice class exhibitors, helped gate steward for novice and watched his mom and her dog finish their Novice titles. He was a real trooper all day! By the end of this fun-filled day, all were tired, dogs and people, but nearly everyone pitched in to clear the equipment off the field and load it back into the trailer as our agility ring quickly converted back into a soccer field at 5:30 pm. We gathered for a group photo of dogs and handlers to commemorate our fun. In a final gathering of agility people, most stayed for pizza and "talked shop" – training, trialing, and how to make this event happen again!

Many dogs and handlers walked away winners from this trial, with awesome toys or Brittany Agility tote bags for High in Class at each level. From the Masters and Excellent classes, High in Trial for Trial 1 went to Terry Santelli and Trump (CH Credit Kaze's Capital Gains AXJ AX), and High in Trial for Trial 2 was won by Lisa Shubitz and Sprite (MACH2 PACH Cimmaron Sunrise Windsprite).

Congratulations to all!

FEATURING BREEZE, RESCUE TO 3 TIME AGILITY CHAMPION

By Carla Simon

MACH3 Breeze came a long way from being rescued in Coal Valley, Illinois, to three MACHs and competing at the national level.

Breeze came to Marcia Whitmore in 1998 as a 9-12 month old pup who had been left in a crate and ignored after her mother had been rebred. Evidently, Breeze wasn't sold by the backyard breeder and finally, animal control of Muscatine, Iowa took Breeze, her mother and puppies away from the owner.

When Marcia brought Breeze home it appeared she had never been outside! After lots of patient training and love she blossomed and began her career as an agility champion. MACH3 Breeze competed in the 2007, 2008 and 2009 AKC Agility Nationals. She was also invited to the AKC Agility Invitational 3 times. Breeze is now nearly 16 years old and very fragile...but Marcia says "her determination and love shines through her eyes every day that we have...and each day is precious".

SPRING CLEANING... ATTICS, CLOSETS OR GARAGES

The Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame is looking for very early historical items that depict the development of the Brittany. We have acquired a hand written letter from 1949 by Lucien H. Ufford. He was one of the very early breeders of the Brittany under the kennel name of Loufel. Items of this nature should not be discarded as we now have a place to display them to be shared with all dog enthusiasts.

We are looking for: The oldest trophy - dated, with a Brittany on top... Let us know if you have one. Also, the old original paper manuscript of the Fred White book "The Brittany In America". We know that some one has one. Are you willing to donate this to the Brittany Museum in Grand Junction, Tenn.?

Look around, there is a lot of "stuff" just sitting in some ones possession that needs to be enjoyed by all dog persons. Our history needs to be preserved and shared with others and we now have such a place. Contact a Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame Officer or Director to see if what you have is museum worthy.

DELEGATE REPORT

JUNE 8-9, 2014 DELEGATE MEETING

Field Trial and Hunting Test Committee:

Carmine Battaglia, Board Member, came to the meeting to speak on the Junior Showmanship survey which included 1,350 Juniors. He advised we needed to pay attention to the people that bring the Junior to the event--50% are not parents – breeders, handlers, friends, etc. This subject will be discussed at greater length at the General Caucus.

A report was given on the AKC Disaster Trailers, $600,000 has been contributed in the last 6 months. Five trailers have been delivered and they hope to have 12 more trailers delivered by September. The actual cost for a fully equipped trailer is $22,000 with $19,500 for each coming from donations and AKC Reunite pays the balance. A club can donate $2,500 towards a trailer and have a club decal on the side of the trailer and can designate the area in which it is to be used. The project is very successful. Having seen a fully equipped trailer, it is a great project.

Steve Gladstone, Board Liaison advised that the Board is basically focusing on financial aspects of AKC.

Doug Ljungren reported the statistics for this year to date. The winter had a great effect on trials with many events being cancelled.

Pointing Breeds	-14%
Retrievers	-5%
Spaniels	-7%
Beagles	-6%

He reported the vote on the Retriever QA2 will be tomorrow which allows the average person to reach an intermediate level of achievement and stay active in the sport.

We discussed a By-Laws Change switching Field Trials from Rules to Regulations. The problem with Rules is that it has to go before the Delegate Body to be voted on and the time it takes. The Irish Setter club worked on a walking gun dog championship and planned it for the spring of 2013. Because of the time involved taking it to the Delegate Body, read at two meetings and voted on at the third, the Irish Setters could not run in 2013. A discussion was held with the majority of the committee in favor. It was recommended that this go to the By-Laws Committee for their discussion at the next meeting.

Colleen McDaniel discussed the survey. The breed clubs could print it in the magazine and Doug Ljungren felt AKC could send it out. Colleen was asked about the purpose of the survey and she advised it was to assist clubs in thinking how to promote their events. Discussed a cover letter.

Breed flyer was discussed in putting it in with litter registrations for the breeder to hand to new owners. Doug Ljungren will report about it at the next meeting. Also discussed Carolyn McAteers prototype.

Judy brought up the use of ATV's and horses in walking trials. The field trials are having problems as there are no guidelines or recommendations for handling these situations. Doug Ljungren advised that if a person has a designated flusher, the minute the DF's foot touches the ground, the handler is to be quiet and does not take back over until the birdwork is complete and the dog is released to go on. With ATV's, the club can designate that no ATV is allowed by putting it on their premium. When handling from an ATV, it must be stopped and turned off until bird work is completed and the dog released. If grounds do not allow ATV's, it must be stated on premium. If a club has a dog wagon, they can state in the premium that no ATV's are to be used in gallery except a handicapped handler on a multiple course. Also, if a walking trial and the club will or will not allow horseback scouting, they are to state it in the premium. Anyone that has a disability request must present the AKC allowance letter to the field trial Chairman or Secretary at the beginning of the trial or send a copy in with their entry. These letters specify guidelines and judges of the stake must be advised. Since there are so many different handicaps, it is difficult to address each one but Doug Ljungren is going to try to come up with some general guidelines. This topic will be on the September agenda.

Dog Show Rules:

Disaster Trailers discussed with 127 clubs participating.

A discussion was held on the loss of time in show applications due to staff problems, i.e. one person handling obedience, one person handling agility and another the dog show. Some of the staff do not realize they all go together for one show which is costing them a lot of time. Gina DiNardo of AKC will look into this problem.

Juniors – Reserve Winners. A discussion was held as to how to pick. If it worked like dog show classes, many times the 2nd place has left and the time involved waiting around. It was felt that the best way to handle this was to do just like Best In Show and Reserve BIS, pick from the group the Reserve Best Junior and then award the Best Junior.

Dog reinstatement – If a dog is to be reinstated, it must have permanent identification of a microchip. There needs to be an efficient way to advise field reps, superintendents and clubs of a dog's aggressive action. Also needed will be a copy of a rabies certificate. This will be going before the AKC Board.

Discussed commercial filming at shows by TV stations, etc.

Owner-Handler series – at independent and national specialties, it will be the show chairman's choice as to have the class or not and is not considered a special event or special attraction. If the club elects to have an owner handler series, then there is no limit to special attractions.

General Caucus:

Carmine Battaglia again spoke on the Junior Showmanship survey. He advised that Junior Showmanship began in 1929.

A discussion was held as to delegate qualifications.

Legislative Caucus:

It was recommended that clubs donate to the AKC Legislative Fund and individuals to the AKC PAC to help support good candidates. You or your club can request funds to support a good candidate.

It is very important that when you travel, you have your vaccination records including rabies with you as your animals can be confiscated. If you use a handler, make sure they have a copy of your dogs shot records and especially rabies.

General Delegate Meeting:

A presentation was given on "Social Media – How to get started, how to support the Sport of Purebred Dogs and how to enjoy it."

The vote on the proposed amendment to Article VI, Section 5. of the Charter and Bylaws of the American Kennel Club, which would remove restrictions on Delegate eligibility for certain classes of persons previously excluded from serving as Delegates. It makes judges who charge in excess of expenses, professional handlers or trainers, persons who engage in the manufacture of or retail sale of dog food or dog supplies, publishers or others who publish or promote show dogs/kennels through solicitation or acceptance of advertisements in commercial dog publications and dog show superintendents, all eligible to become and remain Delegates. This vote failed.

The vote on the proposed amendment to Chapter 14, New Section – Rules for Retriever Trials which would create a new title that can be earned in Retriever Field Trials. The QA2 title (Qualified All-Age 2) is meant to acknowledge an intermediate level of achievement in order to encourage participants to remain active in the sport and their club. This vote passed.

Respectfully submitted,
Judith H. Tighe, AKC Delegate

HUNTS

My memory of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island hunts is limited. I believe that on both occasions in which I participated involved hunting as well as field trials, the latter in which we did not participate. A few memories are recorded below.

New Brunswick, Canada

I do not recall the date. I believe the hunt was in the neighborhood of Gunningsville, NB.

Bob and Natalie Skenk and Rumba were in the hunting party on one occasion when Alan and others participated. Rumba was at that time stocky to say the least, but she hunted hard and well during the entire day. On this occasion along the edge of typical Woodcock cover, Rumba pointed, the woodcock flushed, Bob shot. As we waited in line. Rumba went into the heavy cover and after a good time and much calling from Bob, Rumba failed to appear. Among "helpful" comments and questions from the waiting hunters, Bob was asked whether he thought he really shot the Timberdoodle or was he fooled by the usual Timberdoodle trick of fluttering to the top of the trees and instantly diving for cover, in complete parody of being shot. Alan suggested and Bob insisted we continue while he (Bob) unloaded his equipment and proceeded to crawl into the very heavy cover in search of Rumba.

When Bob caught up to us much later, he regaled us with his and Rumba's experience. When Bob found Rumba she was quietly sitting, pointing at the dead Woodcock hung up high in the tree – persistence personified!!!

Timberdoodles can on occasion make fools of even experienced upland game hunters. We were in a line of about six hunters in tall trees when a Woodcock flushed at one end of the line and successfully "dipsy-doodled" the entire length of the line, escaping the fusillade unharmed. It was awe inspiring but also demeaning to the collective hunters' prowess!!

Prince Edward Island, Canada

A hunt for Hungarian Partridge which thrived in the wheat stubble fields and potato patches of PEI took place in 1949 or 1950. We hunted only a few times with Alan who was a participant in a field trial. There is now a causeway from the mainland to PEI. There previously existed only a ferry with a slim schedule which resulted in long waits even overnight if you missed it.

On I believe the only occasion that we hunted with Alan, we converged on a group of hunters with pointers or possibly

German short hairs. Their presence had been made known to us by a profusion of yelling at the groups' far ranging dogs. We stopped for a short visit. One of their members mentioned they had not realized that we were beating on a converging course. I think it was Alan who merely answered "... We heard you." A second member of their group, possibly feeling at least slight shame for their cacophony, mentioned the difficulty in bagging game with far ranging dogs in a manner inviting agreement from our group. Alan, in his usual quiet way, merely replied that our dogs are trained to work close. At that point, I was standing somewhat apart from the group with my gun opened but ready when sure enough the runt of a covey we had just flushed whirred up which I dropped. That punctuated the termination of our meeting, after which the two groups went their separate ways.

During that particular day, we flushed a covey which we plainly saw settle some distance ahead of us in a harvested potato patch. Very little evidence of the potato crop remained, leaving mostly bare earth. Amazingly, at least to me, we covered the patch back and forth twice without our excellent Brittany's responding. Only on the third "pass" did our dogs freeze on point and flushed the covey. When the shooting stopped and dead birds retrieved, our dog Fou pointed "wounded bird" at a spot with little vegetation. My face was no more than one to two feet from a still undetected bird before I was able to discern it, and then only because it fluttered. Camouflage supreme.

What I do vividly recall occurred when we stopped at a small general store – a member of our group from the South, sighting a large wooden barrel at the end of the counter, kiddingly said to the proprietor he had not expected to see a cracker barrel this far north. The proprietor in a mildly indignant tone told him "it isn't a cracker barrel, it's an oyster barrel. You're in the town of Malpeque whence comes famed Malpeque oysters". We spent the next hour or so enjoying a delicious feast of oyster and beer.

We packed the hunt's crop of "Huns" in newspaper and dry ice, the latter obtained from the local dairy, to be and was enjoyed upon our return home.

Finale

We suffered indescribable shock and dismay when my father received a telegram announcing Alan's demise resulting from an accident aboard ship bound for the continent, more than likely France. But memories survive.

A SPORTSMAN'S RAMBLINGS

by Marty Garrell

Janet came out of the field last Sunday with our latest Brittany in training, Sarah, who had fragments of vines all over her head and stick-tights distributed throughout her feathers and under her belly. A friend, who is active in showing and field-trialing dogs, laughed and remarked, "Looks like she's been hunting!" Indeed, Sarah had been doing exactly that, driving into heavy cover in the woods while staying in touch with Jan, who had been directing her from the fields to one side.

Sarah loves to hunt for and point birds, as do our other Brits, and we, in turn love to watch them perform. There is simply something exciting about a dog doing what it likes to do, a dog with "a job", whether it's field trials, retriever trials, tracking, herding, hauling, agility, obedience, or even the grim task of search and rescue. In fact, we spoke at length at last weekend's trial with a trainer of search and rescue dogs and swapped a lot of good ideas.

All dog activities seem to have at least one thing in common: they require canine fitness. The dogs who participate must have stamina and drive, and muscles through the chest and legs, in contrast to the many "couch potato" canines that we notice in veterinary offices. Such dogs could benefit, not merely from carefully rationed portions, but also from regular exercise. Their owners would benefit as well and probably find their vet bills reduced.

There are so many ways to keep dogs fit! When we were training for local races on the East End, we always rigged a lead around our shoulders or off our waists and coupled another lead with a carabiner or swivel-clip. The dogs could run alongside. Of course, mid-sized or large dogs merely have to trot or walk to keep up with a runner, but, when you're jogging five to ten miles, it's still good for the dog. Although a bicycle rider with the same rig can exercise the dog even better, cycle riding can be hazardous if you encounter animals of any sort before dismounting; after going over the handlebars a couple of times when squirrels or rabbits crossed ahead of us, we had some reservations. Also, if you're going to exercise the dog on pavement or surfaces that abrade the dog's pads, it's wise to buy a set of lace-on or strap-on boots with heavy rubber soles.

If you're simply taking a long walk or a mountain hike, roading harnesses work very well for building dog muscles. A harness allows the dog to lean into the leash and pull, fine for small and mid-sized dogs. Siberians or large working dogs like Saint Bernhards pull loaded carts instead of handlers struggling to dig in their heels. Harnesses coupled to flexi-leads work pretty well for us, and we can work a couple of 35-pound Brittanys in tandem that way. Over the past couple of years, we even hiked the Adirondack high peaks with trekking poles in one hand and harnessed dogs in the other. The Brits were allowed to pull during climbs on good trails, but had to stay at heel for steep descents. The longer hikes were great cardiovascular training for all of us.

It seems that most folks with retrievers know right away that they can work dogs by merely exercising a throwing arm, especially if there's a pond or an embayment handy. In some cases you'd need rotator cuff surgery before the dog tired of fetching a dummy, sock duck, or tennis ball. Yet practically all dogs can benefit from swimming as exercise, even those that have to be carried out beyond their depth so that they can repeatedly swim to shore. I recall one long open water swim off Cutchogue when I was working toward a triathlon and found, to my amazement, that a nice Brittany was paddling alongside. It seemed like that dog never got enough of the water and always enjoyed joining any swimmers who happened by.

Owners of mixed breeds as well as owners of pure breeds can enjoy activities. We've seen hunting breeds pull sleds, toy dogs do agility exercises, and dogs of all sizes and breeds serve well as therapy dogs in hospitals and senior homes. To be sure, there's a certain reluctance to try an activity in which your dog looks like Uncle Julius (By Jiminy, I'm the only Swede in McNamara's band!), but what fun that can be! After all, dogs don't consider themselves to be working dogs, sporting dogs, show dogs, or any breed in particular. From all the evidence we've seen, they think of themselves as just "dogs".

So we owe it to our pets to get off the couch and spend some quality time training and exercising them. There's a great world of canine activities waiting out there.

TRANSITION ~ FROM AFGHANISTAN TO THE FIELDS OF MONTANA

By: Lt. Logan Bradley

Unable to sleep on an early evening flight from Nashville to Billings MT, partially due to excitement, but mostly the screaming child behind me, I took some time to reflect on how I came to be where I was.

Nearly 36 months ago, my then girlfriend found a breeder of American Brittany's in western Kentucky, not far from where I was living. A transplant from the Low Country of South Carolina, I found myself stationed at Fort Campbell, KY, following my graduation from the United States Military Academy, with a fledgling interest in bird hunting. While at West Point, a passion for all things shotgun had been fostered during my tenure on the Cadet Skeet & Trap Team, and I had known for several years that I wanted to get a bird dog and start hunting. By the time I had become aware of Harold, there was already a deposit down on a German Shorthair Pointer of my own, but my girlfriend thought it wouldn't hurt to meet him. She couldn't have been more right.

Once I had spoken to Harold on the phone and arranged a meeting, I drove to his dog breeding and training facility and was greeted with near smothering appreciation. As a Lieutenant in the United States Army I had become comfortable with expressions of gratitude from strangers, but the owner of one of Harold's Brittany's was about to set the bar higher than it had ever been.

Over the course of the next several months, Harold spent many hours working with and teaching me about both hunting and dog work. Under his guidance I was able to learn the behaviors and limits of my German Shorthair, Smoke, and prepare us both for my inaugural upland bird season as a dog owner.

That first season, behind a dog of my own, solidified what I thought to be true; there isn't a better way to hunt than with a dog. Many days spent with Harold in the field, hunting over Smoke and a dozen Brittany's, I began to realize that this was as much a joy for the teacher as it was the student. Over the course of the 2011 Upland bird season, in Western Kentucky, I had become the dog breeder's vehicle for troop appreciation.

A deployment to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, in late summer 2012, meant that the next season would be one that both my dog and I would miss, but Harold was insistent that it not slow progress for either of us. I was kept informed of Harold's hunting trips, dog training and tips through regular emails, and I did my best to give him semi-regular updates from the war zone. In May of 2013 I returned to Fort Campbell, where I was greeted by a slough of my friends, and my hunting and dog training mentor. Shortly thereafter, planning for the upcoming upland bird season began to take priority for me, and I was asked to join Harold and ten Brittany's in eastern Montana for the opening weekend of pheasant season, October 12, 2013.

Fast forward six days, and I am on another flight, en-route to back to Nashville, reflecting on my experiences in MT. The morning after my late night (early morning) arrival in the small Montana town, I met Harold and what seemed to be fifteen of his closest friends and Brittany owners. I was immediately swooned about, and recognized as the subject of many of Harold's emails, as he passed forward my Afghan deployment progress and updates to an email group in the hundreds, all of which were somehow tied to Harold by his dogs. We ate breakfast, in what seemed to be the only cafe in the small town of 1,200; paid our bills and moved off to the hotel to get ready to hunt.

Operating on a limited budget, and analyzing the cost to fly a 70 pound dog, I had thought about leaving my dog, Smoke, behind; but Harold would have none of that. So once we arrived at the hotel, Harold opened a door in his dog box, and unleashed my hunting companion and best friend, that he carried from Kentucky. Smoke seemed to have been certain I had left him for another deployment. Smoke and I bonded briefly before we were both ushered in a truck, and we headed toward the fields.

Along for the ride, with more than a dozen seasoned hunters and sportsmen, a century's worth of hunting knowledge was dropped in my lap between breakfast and when the shells fell into the chambers of my over-under in that first field. Everything from ensuring I kept Smoke away from porcupines to listening for the cackle of the rooster as it flies, I was doing my best to take it all in, amid my excitement and anticipation.

Once everyone had gotten ready we stepped off into a field, and with views that made me feel like I was reading from a Field & Stream magazine, I could not believe I was actually participating in the hunt. I was even more shocked when the group pushed me to the front to investigate the first point of the 2013 season.

As the e-collars wailed, the dogs quivered with excitement, I walked to the point where Smoke and one of Harold's Brittany's were pointing, and with a kick in the brush I flushed my first wild pheasant rooster. Three minutes later I carried the weight of that bird in triumph, and proudly let his tail feathers show from the back of my vest. I had dropped him in just one shot, my first wild rooster shot ever. The pride was not just in my shot, however, more so I had finally been able to do what I had spent years preparing to do; no more than ten minutes into our day, my dog and I had pointed, flushed and shot our first wild pheasant together, and it was all because of Harold.

That first day was the only one where we hunted in such a large group, and over the next six days I hunted with nearly everyone who was there to participate; limiting out every day. Each of Harold's hunting companions were just as friendly, appreciative and gracious as he was; which even at 25, I recognize as a sign of the man's character.

Nearly three months removed from my own personal manifest destiny, I have a better understanding of the bonds bird hunting can make, and the lessons that can be taught in the field. I have a greater appreciation for how a dog works, the smooth shot of a quality shotgun, and the taste of a wild bird. But all told, as I gear up to head to New Mexico later this month, to hunt elk with Harold, I have a greater appreciation for my friend and mentor who chose to share his passion and dogs with me. -Logan

On May 21, 2013, Lt. Logan and his men returned from Afghanistan. Logan had invited me to the home coming ceremony at Ft. Campbell, KY. Picture this, the troops fly in from Germany, disembark the plane and march into the hanger building. Waiting for them are their families and friends. Wives, husbands, parents, children and close friends all waiting with much anticipation in that hanger. The energy in that hanger was palpable. What an honor to be included in that distinguished group of people. -Harold.

CENTRAL MAINE
Fryeburg, ME
May 24-25, 2014

The Central Maine Brittany Club fall trial was held at the Brownfield grounds May 24-25, 2014. We would like to especially thank Purina for their sponsorship of the trial. The weather was a mix of rain and sun. A total of 17 different handlers put dogs on the line over the two days.

On the days of the trial, we had excellent bird planters with Sam Jackson, Julie Harris, and Gary Anderson making sure birds were placed throughout the courses. Birds were well grown and flew well even in spite of the rain. Frank Pride served as marshall and made sure courses were clear of blowdowns before the trial started. As usual, Donna Pride kept the central operations running smoothly, making sure that paperwork was in order and dogs were on the line on time on Saturday and on Sunday. Food was available for breakfast and lunch with new club members Paul and Laurie Stuckey operating the grill. Special thanks go to those who sat in judicial saddles, Michele Sala, Audra Jaconetti, Martin Garrell and Janet Garrell for the regulation stakes. Paige Davis and Sam Jackson handled the judging of amateur walking hunting dog stakes both days.

After the running on Saturday the Donna Pride Amateur Puppy trophy was awarded to Paige Davis, the Dwight "Pete" Jordan amateur derby award to Robin Maule, and the Founder's trophy to Mike Blondin. A wonderful barbequed chicken dinner cooked by Paul and Laurie Stuckey was enjoyed by handlers and guests. Placements are:

Southern Open Brittany
Open All Age Championship

The Southern Open Brittany Open All Age was run at Di-Lane Plantation in Waynesboro, GA (Bird Dog Capitol of the World) in some of the coldest and most unpleasant weather the state has experienced in many years. Thanks to all of the handlers and especially to judges Lori Rezzardi and James Doherty for braving the elements. Thanks also to Tippe Fountain for keeping everyone well fed with her delicious meals.

Twenty-six starters came to the line and gave the judges plenty to consider. In the end, it was Piney Run Hank who was declared the top dog. Hank is owned by Rob Donahue and was expertly handled by Ben Lorenson. Coming in 2nd was Georgia's Texas Two Step owned by Travis and Clayton Tangen and beautifully handled by Tommy Tracy, Jr. Following in 3rd was Blockade Runner. Rusty is owned by Sebastian Ventura and was handled by Ben Lorenson. In 4th was Bo Ackerman's Uncle Kracker.

spring walking field trial at Four Brooks Wildlife Management Area near Milaca, MN.

Saturday turned out to be a rainy, windy day and the wet, soggy birds proved to be a challenge for even the most broke dogs!

There are many people to recognize for this successful event: Thank you to the judges: Becky and Dan Voss, Carl Olson, and Mike Rodeghiero. To the bird planters: Denise Koslowski, Steve Ralph, Bret Lindback, and Dave Carlson.

As usual, Dave Carlson did a fantastic job with the meals and kept everyone's bellies full. A special thanks to Dave for picking up the birds because of course, without birds, there would be no field trial!!!

Of special note, the trip from Quebec, Canada paid off for one participant as he finished his dog's AFC title this weekend.

On Sunday morning the seventh annual youth event was held with professional dog trainer Tommy Hagan and club members Bret Lindback and John Chejne helping out. All participants received ribbons and whistles.

The Southern Open Brittany Grand Open Limited Gun Dog Classic Report

Reported by Jay L Hallaron

The inaugural Southern Open Brittany Grand Open Limited Gun Dog (SOB GOLGD) Classic was originally scheduled to begin Thursday, January 30, 2014 at beautiful Burnt Branch Plantation near Ochlocknee, Georgia. However, a strong winter storm moved through the South bringing snow, ice and rain to nearly all of Georgia on Wednesday, January 29, 2014.

Travel was precarious as the storm moved in preventing entrants and judges from being able to get to the site of the running on the scheduled start date. With the grounds available and the running scheduled to last no more than two full days, the decision was made by the SOB Board of Directors to delay the start one day and begin Friday, January 30, 2014. This allowed for everyone to arrive safely.

The SOB Board of Directors extends its thanks to the replacement judges, Don Price of Jacksonville, FL and Jim Womack of Clermont, FL. Both judges are long-time field trailers and have spent many hours in the saddle judging weekend field trials and championships too many to count in the pointer/setter world. Their cooperation on short notice to make the trip to South Georgia is very much appreciated!

A thank you must also go to each and every one of the entrants to this inaugural event! Without their support the SOB GOLGD Classic could not have been a success.

Finally, we would be in remiss if we did not extend a huge thank our sponsors, Purina and TriTronics, for their generous support, to Mr. Eddie Sholar for allowing the event to run on Burnt Branch Plantation and to the plantation staff for driving the dog wagon and marshaling!

Burnt Branch Plantation is classic South Georgia piney woods on gently rolling hills. Course 1 was interspersed with cultivated fields bordered by the piney woods through which the braces had to navigate. Courses 2 and 3 were all within the confines of piney woods. All courses were run on native and pre-released quail and covey finds were the norm for the 2 days of running. Twenty-five dogs were entered for the running and there were no scratches.

Friday morning was greeted by a light mist and fog. The first brace was to begin at 8 a.m. but was delayed until the fog lifted enough to start. The first brace was called to the line at 9 a.m. with a light fog covering the piney woods of Burnt Branch Plantation. The temperatures were hovering in the low 40s at breakaway.

The Running

BRACE 1: NATE (TRACY) AND FC/AFC ONE OFF MOJITO MIKE (MERRILL) tore from the line both close together until parting at the disked field. Mike bore left and Nate bore right meeting in the piney woods. Nate was found standing (16) and all was in order and sent on. Mike was standing (19) and Nate followed into the find. Nate decided backing was not his forte today and was picked up. Mike was sent on after the flush and shot. Mike worked the woods covering large areas and finally was found on point (59) in a small creek bottom as the gallery rode by. Mike's find was clean and he was released and picked up as time expired.

BRACE 2: PINEY RUN HANK (LORENSON) AND CORREDOR DORADO (TRACY) broke away fast and headed down the slope to begin their work. Dexter was out-of-pocket and the tracker was pulled. Hank had a moderate race that fit the general terrain well. He had his bird finding nose on today and had four finds during his hour. Hank's first find was a nice sized covey (21) and he handled it as an experienced dog should, followed by another covey find (47) on which he looked strong and tight. As the morning fog lifted scenting conditions must have improved because Hank was on the move with another clean find (55), followed by another nice covey (59). Hank finished clean, was released and picked up at time.

BRACE 3: FC/AFC PRIME TIME TEBOW (CANTRELL) AND FC AUGUSTUS OF TIGER (TRACY) each took to the woods and began their search for feather! Tebow and Gus tended towards a moderate run not willing to let one out of sight of the other for very long for much of the hour. They were found standing and awarded a divided find (11) and both handled the situation nicely. Each was sent on after the flush and shot. Gus was next seen standing (15) with the handler shooting as the judge rode up. No birds were seen. Tebow continued on and had a stop to flush (32). Gus was seen standing in a small copse (25) and all was well with the bird work and he was sent on. Gus found scent (28) but no birds could be produced. Tebow found his mojo and was seen standing (35). Handler flushed and shot and Tebow was sent on. Gus was working the cover and found his last covey (39). All was well and he was sent on. Tebow had his final find (50). Both dogs finished as they started with a strong, yet moderate runs to conclude the hour.

BRACE 4: FC FINN MCCUHAL (LORENSEN) AND NGDC/NAGDC/FC/AFC PETER GUNN (CARTER). Back on Course one for the afternoon, Mac and Peter broke strongly from the line. Mac worked hard throughout the hour but the stillness of the afternoon and rising temperatures left him wondering where the birds were. Mac finished the hour without bird work. Pete was found standing (24) and all was in order. He was released and found standing (30) but no birds could be produced. Pete was sent along and found standing (36) near the campground area. After several extensive relocations with no birds produced, Pete ended his run.

BRACE 5: ZACK'S BULLET IN THE BORO BETSY (FOUNTAIN) AND RAINBOW'S CHIK'N MCNUGGET (MERRILL) broke from Course 2 and began their search. Nugget had a covey find (5) but had a bobble and was up. Betsy ran a nice race and finished her run without bird work.

BRACE 6: PHOENIX'S LI'L LUCY (TRAFTON) AND CAMO COOPER (MERRILL) started on Course 3 as though their tails were on fire! Lucy ran quickly into the piney woods and was lost (13). Camo began his run nicely but decided at the entrance to call it a day and ran to the campground and was out.

BRACE 7: DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCK (TRACY) AND FC/AFC EMMA TAYSHON (CARTER) were released on Course 3 due to the early pickup prior. Buck had an early find but failed to please his handler and was picked up early. Emma continued on her way, and despite some minor directional issues, had two high quality finds with each handled nicely. She finished her hour strongly and going away.

BRACE 8: FC PURSUIT'S FLASHY CHICK (TRAFTON) AND KINWASHKLY Mid-night Rambler made their debut for the day early Saturday morning after a short fog delay on Course 1. Both broke cleanly, racing to see who might make to the field first. Bonnie broke two the left in the cultivated field and was seen standing on the edge (5) of the woods as Jack continued forward. No birds were produced for Bonnie and she was sent on. She never made it to the woods and the tracker was out. Jack continued through the woods and was eventually picked up by the handler.

BRACE 9: DR. BLOCK'S REACHER (TRAFTON) AND FC BLOCKADE RUNNER (LORENSEN) were released on Course 2 and both took a quick look and left in a hurry. Reacher was seen throughout much of the hour making his way with a moderate run, more lateral than forward. He was lost in the slough bottom (55) and the tracker was out again. Rusty ran a very strong ground race throughout the hour. His first find (41) was handled nicely and he was sent on. He was again found standing (45) and a long ride around the slough was made to get to him. He stood solidly as he waited for the handler to arrive, flush and shoot. All was in order. Rusty finished his hour on a strong note.

BRACE 10: PURSUIT'S SWHIZ-ZLECHIK (TRAFTON) AND CHESTER-FIELD'S MOLLY (TRACY) were released and both had directional issues from the start. Penny ran short through a tough stretch of a wet bottom and did not impress the handler. She was relieved of her efforts at the gate. Molly remained behind in the matchup and was summarily picked up by her handler.

BRACE 11: SAM (TRACY) AND BREE'S BENSON OF SUEMAC (MERRILL) failed to impress both handlers and were rewarded with a short afternoon of work.

BRACE 12: CEDAR VALLEY SPIDER (TRACY) AND PINEY RUN MAX (LORENSEN) were looking good with moderate ground races. Spider had a find (22) and it was cleanly handled. Spider followed the impressive performance with another good looking point, but a miscue caused an early pickup. Max motored throughout the first half hour and was found standing (31). Not pleasing the handler after the find he was allowed to spend the remainder of his day in the dog wagon.

BRACE 13: FC/AFC TWIST'N TEQUILA'S SHADOW (CARTER) was a bye dog and ran a strong race early which gradually faded into a moderate to short race. Lila working more closely was turning into a solid bird finding machine with a nice covey (5), followed by another covey (55) and finally a last find near the end of her hour.

2014 American Brittany Club Chukar Classic

By Amy Heleniak

From L to R: Wayne Hale w/ Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid, Joe Gower, Judge Doug Favor, Tom White w/ Spanish Corral's Sonny Patch, Judge John Cushing, David Kirk w/ Red Sky Riley, Paul and Peggy Doiron w/ MB's Make Mine a Double

The 2014 Chukar Classic was hosted by the Idaho Brittany club and held on Wednesday and Thursday, April 23rd and 24th. Two one-hour courses were carved out of the sprawling grounds at Mile Post 9 in the BLM Owyhee Resource area, one heading out directly from camp and sweeping the top edge of the normal IBC gun dog course before turning left and continuing to skirt the base of the buttes, through the pond, and ending near a fence line and road coming off of Mile Post 7. The return course would follow the same path but in reverse. This area is home to some rugged terrain characterized by lava-cropped buttes that reach around 4500 feet in elevation and open rolling sage lands below - a true opportunity for good all-age dogs to demonstrate their strength and stamina. Wet weather threatened continually but in the end never became a factor as participants and judges were blessed with only a mild sprinkling during lunch on the second day. The wind was another story. It was constantly present, though sometimes stronger than others, and proved to be difficult for many of the dogs to push through and show their normal outstanding performances.

Our most generous sponsors for this event were Purina and Garmin/Tritronics. Many of the dogs who participated are great fans of Pro Plan Performance and their owners feed it to "awaken the greatness within"! Purina's sponsorship allowed this event to be the successful one that it was. Purina is able to support us only because we in turn support them through the purchase of their Pro Plan Performance food that helps our dogs perform to a higher degree. A Tri-Tronics Pro 500 collar was graciously provided to the Chukar Classic winner by Garmin. Several of the participants were found with the help of their Garmin collars- an invaluable piece of equipment for use in our trial dogs in this big country.

A special thanks must go to our judges, Doug Favor from Pocatello, Idaho and John Cushing from Rexburg, Idaho. Along with the marshal, Steve Ball, they remained punctual, professional and pleasant for the entire trial. Their focused attention on every dog that ran was very much appreciated! A huge thank you also to Tom White and Margaret Horstmeyer, the chairman and secretary, whose efforts resulted in a smoothly run and very enjoyable 2014 Chukar Classic. Idaho Brittany club members and visitors were out early salting the course and planting each brace. Jim Reed was our patient dog wagon and horse trailer driver. Participants were also treated to a very special catalog for the 2014 Chukar Classic created with lots of research and effort by Robin Tomasi. The catalog provided a very enjoyable read and a wonderful walk-through history of the Classic. June McConnell also offered lots of history back at camp, sharing great old photos and stories of days gone by. It was a treat to hear stories of several long-time IBC members and their dogs of the past. Thank you June!

The running:

BRACE 1: MB'S MAKE MINE A DOUBLE ("MAC"/ PAUL DOIRON) & HIDEAWAY RED'S GRACE UNDER FIRE ("GRACE"/JASON STALEY). Both dogs broke away forward and fast. Gracie had an unfortunate encounter with a chukar on the horse tracks just as the dogs hit the flat after breakaway and was picked up. She had the privilege (or curse) of having to watch from Jason's saddle as Mac finished out the hour. Mac was a little hard to get a handle on after breakaway but after being turned on to course hit his first of five finds at 9 minutes at the base of the hill. He continued on sweeping the flats before hitting the left edge and working the base of the hill before the turn where he swung low and right and stayed at moderate range. After making the turn, Mac was rewarded for staying in the valleys with four nice additional finds. Mac had a nice performance although his ability to show his run was somewhat hampered by the amount of time spent standing birds. We didn't know it at the time but bird finding would be at a premium for much of this trial so Mac's finds were definitely a standout.

BRACE 2: MVP REDLINE HIGH OCTANE ("TIGER"/ DOIRON) & STALEY'S ORANGE OUTLAW MR COOPER ("COOPER"/ STALEY). Tiger and Cooper headed out at a decent clip and hit the base of the hill. Tiger pushed the edges a little more than Cooper. When Tiger had not been seen since soon after hitting the hills, the tracker was pulled out at about 32. In the meantime Cooper had a stylish find at 20 on a knob before the turn. The scout called point for Cooper again at 30 and all was again in order. He proceeded to finish out at moderate range but did not hit the objectives on the hills as well as some of the other competitors.

BRACE 3: MTB CABO RITA DE SCIPIO ("RITA"/TOM WHITE) & SPANISH CORRAL'S SONNY PATCH ("PATCH"/ JOE GOWER). Both dogs broke away fast and strong. Immediately off the breakaway on this course the judges, scouts and gallery are all essentially blind as to which direction the dogs have headed until they crest the first small hill to hit "the flats" and can see the rolling gun dog hill to the front, the flats to the right and the rocky all-age course to the left. Rita took advantage of this and disappeared soon after breakaway never to be seen again until she returned to camp. Patch continued on fast and forward with a mannerly stop to flush early on the gun dog course. Before the turn Patch had a find with everything in order aside from a clothing malfunction on Gower's part. But even Gower's attention getting antics couldn't take away from Patch who kept momentum and had another stylish find on the knob right after the turn. Patch ran a consistent strong race for the duration and hit the hills a little higher than we had seen in previous braces.

BRACE 4: MTB SCIPIO'S HOT SHOT OF WHIZKI ("CALI"/ WHITE) & SPANISH CORRAL'S SUNDANCE KID ("SONNY"/ GOWER). Both dogs broke away strong across the valley and hit the hill to the front with Sonny staying high after the turn. After not being seen for a while Sonny was spotted moving forward high on the hills. He carded a non-productive on the ledge right above the pond. Sonny and Gower didn't waste any time moving on. Both dogs continued working nicely forward with Cali staying wide and in the valley to the front and Sonny hanging high on the hill. Sonny came off of the hill briefly to run across the flats with Cali right after the turn before heading up again. He continued high and at a pleasing speed - disappearing often, only to always show himself forward in the right spots. Meanwhile, Cali was having a hard time down on the flats near where antelope were spotted. White headed down but was having a hard time getting a handle on Cali. She finally gave him the slip and, while Tom was pulling out the tracker to find her, Cali did show up to the front right at time. Sonny's impressive efforts finally paid off with a point called by his scout at 55 minutes. Sonny was pushing the end of the course and he was tucked in up in the rocks on the hill just as the course turns into the normal IBC all age course. He remained very stylish, intense and mannerly on his bird. Gower sent him on for the final couple of minutes and he again disappeared fast to the front but after a brief confusion with Cali reappearing, Sonny was able to show himself at time.

BRACE 5: MEGASMOKE GRAND FINALE ("AL"/ DOIRON) & MAXWELL'S ONCORE ("MICK"/KEVIN ROGERS). The wind was picking up for this first brace after lunch. Mick started out strong, working the forward butte well but would shorten before the turn and never really hit his stride again. Al proved to be very sporadic during his hour and a bit difficult for Doiron to handle. There would be no birds for either dog.

BRACE 6: K NINE'S ON THE LOOSE ("LUCY"/ DOIRON) & MAXWELL'S QUICK SILVER ("CHICK"/ROGERS). Both dogs headed out quickly at the breakaway and began working nicely at the base of the hill before being turned. Despite some quick snappy runs up on the hills there would also be no birds for either dog on this brace. The running of the chukar championship would conclude for the day.

DAY TWO: BRACE 7: HVK'S HIGH FLYING KYTE ("KYTE"/ DOIRON) & HIDEAWAY'S WHITE SMOKE ("SMOKE"/ ROGER BORINE). This brace wasted no time in getting going. Both dogs made nice casts and worked the hill forward as we headed to the turn. Point was called for Kyte on the ledge above the pond after the turn. As Doiron was attempting to locate the bird, Smoke came down from the hill and entered the scene well ahead of his handler. Despite Smoke's failure to acknowledge Kyte, Kyte held tight for her handler. Once Smoke exited Doiron chose to relocate Kyte. After a lengthy relocation, Doiron finally spotted the bird and called Kyte back around. Unfortunately she bumped the bird before stopping and was picked up. Smoke was also picked up for his indiscretion.

BRACE 8: MIKEY'S SPICE GIRL ("SPICE"/ DOIRON) & BANDIT'S CINDERELLA MAN ("JAKE" /VIC RETHERFORD). Spice and Jake headed out across the flat toward the base of the hill. Both seemed to be having a little bit of trouble gaining any elevation initially but Jake soon headed higher with Spice remaining along the base of the hill. Spice moved higher and was rewarded with her scout calling point for a nice find high on the hills before the turn. The chukar was challenging to find so she was relocated and handled the relocation and subsequent flush successfully. After her point Spice shortened considerably and Doiron opted to pick her up. Once he hit his stride, Jake had a nice run - staying at consistent height on the hill and reaching out at a good range. He finished out strong on the hills to the right. Point was called for Jake at the end of the brace near where Sonny had found his bird yesterday but no bird was ever produced despite repeated attempts by Jake to find it.

BRACE 9: SHADY'S BLUEWATER REPETE ("PETE"/WAYNE DOWN) & MOONSHINE NELL ("NELL"/LARRY SANDUSKY). Unfortunately for Pete he encountered an early bird on the flat right after breakaway, easily costing Down the fastest $135 he has ever lost. Nell didn't seem to be herself and had a hard time moving consistently forward into the strong winds. After the turn she had a point with all in order on the flats down near the road. After her find Nell continued to remain "sticky" and never really opened up again before Sandusky opted to ride her in to the trailer so the next brace can depart.

BRACE 10 : BLUEWATER MYEVER DOWN-N-DIRTY ("TREY"/ DOWN) & RED SKY RILEY ("RILEY"/DAVID KIRK). After a quick breakaway and turn, Trey opted to run the base of the hill and forward along the flats. Riley found the hill and hung on it with his first find high on the ridge before the pond with all in order. To save on horsepower, the judge elected to send Riley down the fence line rather than let him continue at the high level. Riley wasted no time moving forward after dropping down and crossing through the pond area. He was spotted going over the forward ridge just before the turn but could not be found when handler and judge hit the bowl to the right just before the turn. Kirk stopped and called for Riley as his scout made his way across the hill high. In a miraculous spot, the scout called point for Riley on the lower knob immediately behind where Kirk had stopped to try to gather Riley before the turn. Riley had softened some, perhaps due to the length of time he must have been standing. Two birds were produced and Riley swapped ends to watch the birds fly. After being sent on and making the turn, Riley quickly moved forward to catch up to Trey who had point called but had been picked up for indiscretions. Prior to being picked up Trey had run a moderate race and stayed lower in the valleys and flats. Riley had his third find about midway up the hill to the right as he was moving down toward the all-age course. On this find, Riley looked prettier standing but again lost some style as the handler moved to flush. This was unfortunate as the rest of his race was powerful.

BRACE 11 : MEGASMOKE MOON CHIP ("CHIP"/WHITE) & TRAMPS FRECKLED FANCY ("TRAMP"/ROGERS). After a nice breakaway, both dogs moved forward quickly. Showing some initial enthusiasm, Tramp made a nice cast along the rimrock before shortening up and having a harder time keeping forward. Although not visible to judges and gallery, Tramp appeared to get herself in trouble at about the half way spot after the turn. Handler had difficult time getting her to move on and the judge rode over to investigate. She was picked up before time and ridden in to camp by scout. After the turn, Chip made some nice casts along the flats but they did not prove to be productive as no birds were found before time was called.

BRACE 12: MTB CAN AM FORMULA FUN ("FRANI"/ WHITE) & HERE WE GO AGAIN ("JD" /WAYNE HALE). Frani and JD made respectable casts through the valley at breakaway towards the hill. Frani went through the fence and was working up the hill to the right threatening departure before being turned by White. She showed tremendous speed as she moves right to left in front of the gallery. JD stayed lower but continued pushing forward and Frani showed herself nicely working along the hills. JD had a find on low knoll coming across the valley with all in order. Point was called for Frani right at the turn under June's rock but no bird was able to be produced. Both dogs shortened somewhat by the end of the hour but ended in the rocks on the far edge of the course before time was called and the 2014 Chukar Championship was concluded.

2014 ABC Central Futurity

March 27-28, 2014

The LaSalle Brittany Club was host to this year's American Brittany Club Central Futurity. Hot coffee, a warm lunch and a wood burning stove were welcomed.

The Show was held on Friday, March 28, 2014 at the Dog Training Club of Champaign Urbana (DTCCU). We couldn't have asked for a nicer facility and were warmly welcomed by members of their club. Participants were allowed in the building to groom dogs as early as 1:00 PM. A light pizza supper was provided.

The Judge for the Show was Charlene Rutar and Elaine Kuipers was the ring steward. There were to be 22 entries in the show but only 20 actually participated. The same two that were absent in the gun dog stake were absent from the show ring. The show started around 6:00 PM.

Two litter mates vied for Best in Futurity with the honor going to the male CH Rivermist Broxden Make Mynah Double: by GCH Dual Lanes Cam JH x GCH Ataboy's Dazzle Me Daphne JH, B: Allyson Godfroid, Amy Booth, Robin Tomasi, O: Allyson Godfroid & Amy Booth.

Best of Opposite went to CH Rivermist Broxden Best I Feather Seen: by GCH Dual Lanes Cam JH x GCH Ataboy's Dazzle Me Daphne JH, B: Allyson Godfroid, Amy Booth, Robin Tomasi, O: Allyson Godfroid & Amy Booth.

THANK YOU to Purina for their financial sponsorship and the food prizes for those who placed. And for making everyone that participated feel like a "winner" when presented with a bag of dog food.

Thank you to all the judges, reporters and photographers.

Thank you to John Hott for assisting us with the facility at Middle Fork and to the Dog Training Club of Champaign Urbana for the use of their wonderful facility.

Thank you to all LaSalle Club Members behind the scenes (planting birds, driving dog carts, scouting dogs, donating food, shopping, cooking and cleaning up), who helped make the weekend a positive experience for everyone.

Thank you to Harold Heather, our Section manager and to those who answered all of my questions and guided me through this experience; I have learned a lot. I think it was a good event!

Respectfully submitted,

Gun Dog Futurity

The LaSalle Brittany Club was host to this year's American Brittany Club Central Futurity. The Field portion took place at Middlefork Wildlife and Conservation Area in Oakwood, Illinois near Danville on Thursday, March 27, 2014. The grounds appeared very challenging and that was compounded by the adverse weather conditions Hot coffee, a warm lunch and a wood burning stove were welcomed.

The Gun-Dog Stake was run on the North course. Judges were Kevin Remmers & Chuck Schaefer. The reporter did not show up so the judges did double duty. Bitches in season required a reorder of the brace list but that happened prior to the event. There were a total of 16 entries in the stake but only 14 actually started. One of those withdrew before the Futurity started due to a leg injury caused by ice. The other was just a no show.

2 dogs scratched prior to the running of the Braces.

BRACE 1: SUNRISE WHISKEY GUZZLER (GUZZ) HANDLED BY BOB BURCHETT & COUNTRY ROAD'S TRAILBLAZER (JESSE) handled by Tommy Thomas broke away at 10:05 from the parking lot after a 2 hour rain delay but the rain and wind continues throughout the day affecting some dogs more than others. Both dogs hit the objectives hard with Guzz wider than Jesse, staying forward and handling nicely. Guzz had his first find at 6 minutes above the bottoms with good derby manners. He scored again at 16 minutes at the horse crossing. Guzz had a third find at 20 minutes near the river on the East side of the course, again with great style and manners. The conditions seemed to get the better of Jesse and at time Guzz made one more, nice forward cast searching for objectives, setting the bar high for the stake.

BRACE 2: CH RIVERMIST BROXDEN MAKE MYNAH DOUBLE (DANIEL) handled by Allyson Godfroid and Dr. Jac's It Must Have Been The Roses (Taters) handled by Rachelle Boettcher. Dogs broke away from the dip behind the Site Superintendents house at 10:40. Taters was making nice casts but wanted to hunt into the wind and had difficulty regaining the front. Daniel was more forward and had a nice find at 10 minutes right after the unmown native grass field, with good style and derby manners. Daniel scored again at 21 minutes right before the climb up the horse trail at same time Taters made a nice move along the river but got hung up in the heavy grasses. Both dogs finished to the front but seemed affected by the weather conditions.

BRACE 3: AMMO-SIGBRIT NITRO'S TRIPLE THREAT JH (TRIP) handled by Bobbie Sigmund and CH Rivermist Broxden Best I Feather Seen (Macy) handled by Allyson Godfroid. Dogs broke away at 11:15 from the lot. Both dogs had a find at 7 minutes on the West side of the course along the trees, with trip displaying great style and manners. Both dogs sent on with Trip wider as they finished the top course. As we headed down the horse trail point was called for Trip in the Timber with single produced and an eager leap off the cliff in front of the gallery. Both dogs finished forward at time with Trip wider.

BRACE 4: CH LABYRINTH N ILLUSION SLIPPERY WHEN WET (SLICK) HANDLED BY KAREN HANSON AND DR. JAC'S RUBY TUESDAY (RUBY) handled by Rachelle Boettcher. Breaking away at 11:50, both dogs forward with Slick wider in search of game. Slick scored his first find at 10 minutes just after the unmown native grass field with good derby manners. Scoring again at 25 minutes, just after we got up on top of the upper course. At time both dogs were forward with Slick wider.

BRACE 5: AMMO'S SOUTHERN BOOGIE (BOOGIE) HANDLED BY GARY LEAVENS AND ALDER'S DEVIL'S ADVOCATE (LUKE) handled by Dan Riedl. Breaking away after lunch at 1:45 p.m. from the parking lot both dogs moved forward with Luke scoring at 10 minutes on the west side of the upper course. Both dogs stayed forward but seemed affected by the head wind. Both dogs finished forward at time.

BRACE 6: ALDER'S SOPHIE BROOK (SOPHIE) HANDLED BY DAN CAMPBELL AND DR. JAC'S RUMOR HAS IT (COCO) handled by Bobbie Sigmund. Breaking away on the lower course heading back to the parking lot at 2:20 p.m. with Sophie quickly taking the lead and rimming the timber ridge above the unmown field. Coco seemed a little unsure of herself being handled for the first time by this handler. Both dogs stayed forward with Sophie wider. Sophie scored her first find at 24 minutes with the scout calling point along the south timber edge of the upper course with good derby manners. She scored her second find at 28 minutes under a pine with great style and good derby manners. Both dogs finished forward.

BRACE 7: ROXANNE'S HIGH BELL (ROXIE) HANDLED BY ROD OSBORNE AND RED LACE LA BELL JH (LACY) handled by LeRoy Long. Breaking away at the parking lot at 3:15 p.m. both dogs moved forward on the upper course. Both dogs got gamey at 4 minutes with an all age Futurity dog joining in the festivities, producing a bird. Roxie scored again at 5 minutes with good derby manners. Both days moved forward with Roxie a little wider and scoring again at 20 and 25 minutes finishing forward at time searching for game.

All Age Futurity

The 2014 running of the All Age stake of the American Brittany Club's Central Futurity was held March 27, 2014 at Middle Fork State Wildlife Area near Collison, Illinois. These grounds have been the site for many regional and championship field trials over the years. Area manager John Hott was on hand to serve as course marshal for this event. Judges were long-time dog people Al Van Wieren and Bill Padavano. Both these gentlemen gave their full attention to all the dogs during the course of running this stake.

The American Brittany Club wants to express its great appreciation to our sponsor, Purina. Both financial and product support from our sponsors are vital to the continued success of the Futurity program, which allows us the opportunity to showcase the next generation of great dogs. Without such support, putting on these events would be next to impossible.

Springtime in Illinois comes with variable weather, and this week was no different. Strong winds from the south the preceding day brought rain overnight and temperatures in the mid- to high-30s. Radar indicated that the worst of the rain would end by mid-morning, so the running was delayed until 10:00AM. The rest of the day was overcast, with a south wind of 15-25 mph, gusting to at least 40 mph. The course was laid out as an over-and-back. Dogs going over broke away into the teeth of the wind, which did seem to affect some dogs' pattern and range, and resulted in lapses in communication between many dogs and their handlers.

The judges selected Diamond Hill Dangerous Weapon, an orange and roan male, as the winner of the 2014 Central Futurity All Age stake. Stuart, handled by co-owner Lisa Pollock, ran in the fourth brace and put down a solid all age performance. He showed his independence at times, but kept on course and carded two finds. Second place went to Wild Mtn's Shake Ya Grove Thing, an orange and white female handled by Helen Riggle. Casey Belle ran in the second brace and exhibited a good forward race with one find at 27. Her littermate, Triumphant's Country Girl Shake It 4 Me, liver and white female handled by Bobbie Sigmund, garnered third with a mature all age race in the first brace. Fourth place went to Stoney Hill's Princess Fiona, white and orange female handled by Bob Burchett, running in the fourth brace. Fiona made some very large casts early and carded one find, but was absent for much of the second half of her brace, returning just as time was called.

BRACE 1: SIX RIDE DANGEROUS TWISTER -MAX (POLLOCK) AND TRIUMPHANT'S COUNTRY GIRL SHAKE IT 4 ME - JINGER (SIGMUND). Both dogs broke away into the wind. Max went into hunting mode almost immediately. Although he searched the near cover well, he never quite stretched out and remained relatively close for most of the half hour. Jinger took a short time to figure out the course, then lined out nicely, making some big moves on the edges. Her pattern, while a bit erratic at times, was generally forward, and she finished with a strong move along the edge of the final field.

BRACE 2: SUNRISE LOUIE - LOUIE (JOHNSON) - WILD MTN'S SHAKE YA GROVE THING - CASEY BELLE (RIGGLE). The dogs were loosed at the far end heading back and made nice casts along the edges of the first field. Louie's pattern tended to be more lateral at times while Casey Belle was more forward. Louie did not make bird contact during his bid. Helen called point for Casey Belle at 27 along a tree line perpendicular to course just before final field. The dog held point nicely for a while, then flushed the bird as her handler fired.

BRACE 3: SUNRISE'S DR. WHIZZLE STOP - DOC (BURCHETT) AND PRAIRIE RUNNER - RUNNER (HEITER). Runner ran, but unfortunately not in the right direction and Bruce pulled the Garmin at about 10. Doc was generally forward, albeit at a somewhat shorter range than the judges were looking for. Although he hunted in likely places, he was not rewarded with a bird today.

BRACE 4: STONEY HILLS PRINCESS FIONA - FIONA (BURCHETT) AND DIAMOND HILL DANGEROUS WEAPON - STUART (POLLOCK). Stuart ran a good all age race, showing quite a bit of independence at times. He had a find at 19 along the edge of the long chute. A second bird flushed as handler fired and flew down range approximately 100 yards. Stuart located and pointed this bird at 21. He continued on and showed well the remainder of the brace. Fiona was making very nice moves along the edges of the course during the first half of the brace. She carded a find along a long lateral line at 14. Afterward, she took off over the hill and was gone from sight until the end of the brace, when she showed in the final field at time.

BRACE 5: CAPTAIN FINN - FINN (BURCHETT) AND JNJ FEARLESS SAM - SAM (THOMAS). Resumed running after lunch, at about 1:30. Both dogs broke away to the west and disappeared over the hill. Finn eventually showed to the front at 15. Sam did not return and Tommy called for the Garmin at 18. Finn made several good moves and finished far to the front, but also suffered some absences during his heat. He did not have bird contact.

BRACE 6: KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY - MICKEY (BURCHETT) AND AUTEN'S SUPERNOVA OF GROUSEHAVEN - MYA (AUTEN). Both dogs were away to the front on breakaway. Mickey took the left edge to the next field while Mya took the right edge. Mickey was seen going away into the tall CRP at about 5, then disappeared until 20 when he came up alongside the judges. He finished well to the front without bird contact. Mya was handier and dug in hunting. Her range today was not what the judges were looking for. She also had no bird contact.

BRACE 7: KJ'S DARLIN DARCY (BURCHETT). Darcy ran as a bye dog. She broke away heading west, and kept on going, then came back around only to make a beeline for the Gun Dog course. Handler called for the Garmin at 9, ending the 2014 Central Futurity.

Hunt Test

GREATER MILWAUKEE Ottawa Field Trial Grounds Eagle, WI May 24-25, 2014

The Greater Milwaukee Brittany Club ran its 2014 Hunt Test on May 24-25, 2014 at the Ottawa Field Trial Grounds in Eagle, Wisconsin. We had a beautiful sunny day in the 70s, with a light breeze.

The judges on Saturday were Edward Cuddeback & Diane Calandra. The judges on Sunday were Tim May and Tracy Harmeyer. Both days were a full day of judging, starting at 8:00 a.m. All judges were out in the field nonstop, with only an occasional water break or to grab a bite to eat on the fly.

We ran a single course both days. On Saturday there were 32 pointing dogs entered, eight braces of Masters, two braces of Seniors and eight braces of Juniors. On Sunday we had 33 pointing dogs entered, eight braces of Masters, three braces of Seniors and eight braces of Juniors.

The gunners for the Master and Senior levels were Randy Weber, Ken Merk, and Greg Asmus. A special thanks to these guys, they made every shot count, these guys were right on with their excellent marksmanship, thanks for the great job!

Many thanks to the numerous people who volunteered their time and camaraderie to make our event run smoothly and totally enjoyable.

PENNSYLVANIA New Castle Kennel Club New Castle, PA May 24, 2014

We had a chilly start to the day but once the sun came out it was beautiful. We had a small but quality entry for the sweeps and show and started the day with coffee and pastries. Due to the recent rain, ring conditions were less than favorable. Everyone will be happy to know that we have requested a ring change for next year and hope to be inside under a pavilion. Please keep our specialty in mind for next Memorial Day!

CALIFORNIA Pomona, CA Sunday, May 25, 2014

The California Brittany Club's annual specialty show was held on Sunday, May 25 in conjunction with the Mission Circuit at the Los Angeles County Fairplex. It was typical Southern California May-gray weather...foggy and gray in the morning with a lot of sunshine in the afternoon.

However, thanks to our trophies, that Joy Ory, and Linda McDonald, trophy co- chairs decorated with sunshine, a bit of sunshine was brought indoors. This was the year for practicality, custom show leads from Haute Dauge and from our ABC's Nancy Clendenon were presented to the big winners. The exhibitors enjoyed the traditional and delicious ringside hospitality that Leah Schirokoff generously brings. (Thank you Leah!)

Our Sweep's judge, Henry Nave, enjoyed all puppies and veterans. In puppy sweeps, he selected Copley's All Fun 'N Games, owned by Joy, Tim and Michella Ory, for Best Of Sweeps and to Finale's Encore, owned by Linda McDonald, for Best of Opposite Sex. Both puppies have multiple field placements already. He awarded Ch. Swift River's Destiny's Child JH owned by Sharon and Bill Kalionzes Best Veteran in Sweepstakes, and GCH Gaitway-Sanbar's Silver Spoon, owned by Leah Schirokoff, Veteran Sweepstakes Best of Opposite. He was kind and patient as he went over all of the youngsters and oldsters.

Our regular classes were judged by Lou Guerrero. He enjoyed our breed and found some wonderful brittanys. When he pointed to Hope's Exceeding The Speed Limit, owned by Nancy Hewitt and Douglas Tight, for winner's dog and to Shiloh's I'm A Tough Cookie, owned by Emily Fisk and Kyle Hodges, for winner's bitch, he finished two new bench champions and raised the roof! It was so exciting! After a great deal of consideration, he pointed to GCH Premiers All About Avatar owned by John and Nancy Reardon for Best of Breed, to GCH Britt's Ramblin The Perfect Cut owned by Jenelle and Nance Larson and Karen Schoppa for Best of Opposite Sex. DC Copley's Red River and CH Powder River's Catching The Heart Of The Team JH For Select Dog and Select Bitch. Hope's Exceeding the Speed Limit also received the Award of Merit.

Our day was wrapped up by a potluck luncheon and general membership meeting. Nancy Reardon, our hospitality chair, remained on cloud nine due to her back-to-back specialty BOB wins and spared no effort to barbeque yummy tri tip. She can bake like no tomorrow and provided the club with a homemade cake to celebrate our members' new show champions this year. A raffle was put together by Nancy Hensley, with her rescue crew, and Leslie Chudnoff, aided by Dena Miller. The raffle proceeds were shared with American Brittany Rescue. Thank you to all who came and to all who lend a helping hand to make it a successful event!

In Memory of Great Men

RAY and I lost a dear friend June 27 and the field trial world lost one of our oldest stalwarts of the Brittany breed. David Templeton Kenney had just turned 92 years of age. He was reporter supreme, judge, competitor, author of political and historical books and ramblings of field trial stories, an ABC Life Member, Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame Member, Illinois Conservation Outdoor Recreation Hall of Fame Member, FTCI Awards, and former longtime officer of the Illinois Brittany Club and co-founder of the Illinois Brittany Championship.

He was professor emeritus of political science at Southern Illinois University, was a noted historian, author, and conservationist. He started a number of projects and programs that still benefit outdoor recreation enthusiasts.

Those who knew David Kenney professionally said, "He was a scholar.....a great teacher." "An honest and a dedicated public servant." "A true gentleman and 'model of nobility' "

David and his wife, Wanda, assisted many college students over the years and did so without recognition. He also delivered Meals on Wheels when it first started and continued the deliveries for many years.

David took me under his wing when I moved back from Arizona to Illinois and immediately put me to work in Illinois field trials. I spent many a night at their home in Springfield and had wonderful adventures on Northern Pike fishing trips to Canada.

We spent every New Year's Eve bringing in the New Year at Bob and Audrey Dudenbostel's home, neither of whom are now gone, and looked forward to our visits each time we went to St. Louis to Ray's son's at Christmas and holidays. He expected them!

David was like a part of our family. He was a very unique individual. He so enjoyed seeing his articles re-published in the Brittany Magazine and hoping that new people would learn and appreciate the life he had so loved. He continued to write letters until just recently when his health began to fail.

David is survived by nieces and nephews and many friends in Carbondale, Ill., who bestowed many local honors on him throughout the years. Maurine Richter, secretary of the Illinois Cub, was David's executive secretary during his years in Springfield and will also miss him terribly.

God blessed us all by giving us David to guide us and set a sterling example of what a true sportsman, conservationist, friend and field trialer should be.

Funeral services were held July 12 at First Presbyterian Church in Carbondale, visitation preceding the funeral, with graveside burial with military rites following.

Bill E. Young
1939 - 2014

Bill E. Young passed away on May 31, 2014, after a lifelong battle with Alpha-1 Antitrypsin Deficiency. He was a radio and television legend who charged headlong into every project with an energy and passion that was unmatched. Bill's radio career spanned almost three decades and his production company was one of the leading radio and television services in the nation. His commercials air somewhere in the world every 22 seconds and his legendary voice was heard nationwide. He created music videos for George Strait, Clay Walker, Clint Black and too many others in the entertainment industry to mention.

Bill was a longtime member of Texas Coastal and field trialed during the 80's to the mid 90's until his health precluded his participation. He used the kennel name DeLamont for most of his dogs: Buck DeLamont, Beauregard DeLamont, Ce Cher Femme DeLamont, Sir Brandy K, L&M Ramblin' Rose (a Perry's Rustic Prince daughter).

He and his wife Sharon were active in the club, supporting the club field trials and opening their home to summer socials. After his years of trialing, he continued breeding occasionally focusing on keeping Rimarda's Trademark prominent in his pedigrees. During leisure time, Bill and Sharon loved to quail hunt on the family's South Texas ranch where Bill ran and trained his Brittanys.

Bill will be hunting now with the Brittanys he so loved who passed before him. Our sincere condolences to Sharon and the rest of his family.

2014 ABC Prairie State Brittany Championship

By: Ed Janulis and Jerry McGee

This was the 27th running of the Prairie State Championships. Many thanks to Purina who graciously sponsors these championship venues. Without their support it would be hard to put this all together. Another sponsor is the Illinois Brittany Club who puts on a spring AKC Walking Field Trial. This was initiated by Jim and Janet Chase. They volunteered to put on a weekend walking trial in Paw Paw Illinois. They were able to secure support personnel for judging, bird planting and other activities strictly on a volunteer basis. As a result we were able to make adequate funds from this event that was divided among three championships with Prairie State being awarded a third of the proceeds. This tradition is carried on mainly with the organizational efforts of Jerry McGee and Donna Janulis with a casts of many others as a support group.

Open All Age Championship

Thanks are extended to the judges Stan Williamson, Longview, IL and Larry Meeks, Independence, MO for their time spent in the saddle and attentiveness to the dogs. Also, like many trials the background help needs to be given a debt of gratitude for their tireless work , including dog wagon drivers, bird planters, course marshals, and the cooks who tended the kitchen and the barbeque grills supplying the hungry participants with quality food.

The winner of this completion was Black Creek Deacon (Dea), handled by Chad Holman and owned by Ron Harling, Jr. Runner-up was Cedar Valley Fly By (Buzz) handled by Tom Tracey and owned by Jerry Lindsey. These dogs ran together in the thirteenth brace. Third place was awarded to TNT's Blazing Shoshoni Shake N Bake (Bubba) owned and handled by Tommy Thomas and fourth place was Kinwashkly Fat Bastard (Fatz), again handled by Tom Tracey and owned by Bo and Renae Ackerman.

The Running

BRACE 1 – BREAK AWAY WAS THE FIRST COURSE ALONG THE GRAVEL CREEK BED. MOJO (JOHN) AND FATZ (TRACY). The weather was cool and clear, a great day for a championship. Both dogs broke well to the front and through the next two fields, intermittently spotted to the front. Crossing the creek bed Mojo was spotted to the left on point. However by the time John was able to get to the location his eagerness got the best of him and his day ended early.

Fatz continued to run well showing when he needed to – he pointed on the last tree line before the second creek crossing and the bird was successfully flushed. He continued to run well for the first half of the hour. During the second half he was more lateral and his paced settled in. He finished to the front with a good cast.

BRACE 2 – BREAKAWAY AT THE BOTTOM OF THE HILL TO LITTLE VINEY VALLEY CARSON (BURCHETT) AND BUBBA (THOMAS). Both dogs broke away well up the hill and ran the high country at good speed and range staying to the front and showing strategically. While crossing by the double barns Bubba established point along an inside fence line. Tommy flushed a wild covey of birds with all in order. Meanwhile Carson was putting on a nice show of finding birds with three finds, one in Sycamore Valley, one past the double barns on a tree line and one on the third course near the asphalt road. He finished nicely hunting hard. Bubba finished on the third course showing maturity and independence.

BRACE 3 – BREAKAWAY HEADED TO THE SOUTH COURSE BEHIND THE HEADQUARTERS SPADE (CAPSTICK) AND LUCKY (JOHN). Both dogs ran at a moderate pace and range not always pleasing their handlers. At 44 minutes Spade established point on a tree line and Lucky came in for a nice back. Unfortunately there was no game to be found and dogs were sent on and no further bird contact was encountered.

BRACE 4 – FOLLOWING A GOOD LUNCH PREPARED BY MICHELE WEAVER, WE STARTED OUT ONCE AGAIN ALONG THE GRAVEL CREEK BED STILL ENJOYING A CLEAR COOL AFTERNOON. FIONA (BURCHETT) AND KRACKER (TRACY) took off to the front with handlers following behind. While Kracker ran a solid ground race he was not rewarded with any birds. Fiona, while starting well could not keep the rhythm and the handler elected to end her day.

BRACE 5 – BREAKAWAY AT LITTLE VINEY BANDIT (TRACY) AND ACE (JOHN) began the hour with a good release. Ace only showed very briefly during the early goings and finally disappeared for good at 40 minutes. Bandit ran with enthusiasm but at 15 minutes his enthusiasm got the best of him as he was seen chasing a frightened quail.

BRACE 6 – DARCY (BURCHETT) AND ANGIE (WILLIAMS). Breakaway on course 3 Angie ran a good race and at 55 minutes was seen pointing along a tree line. No birds were located and her hour finished in that manner. Darcy also ran well exhibiting a youthful snappy gate. She continued this throughout the hour but the birds eluded her on this day.

DAY 2 – BRACE 7 – COURSE 1 BREAKAWAY, ACE (HOLMAN) AND SKEETER (TRACY) both these dogs are owned by LaSalle Brittany Club Members and as they broke away stories of how this championship, Prairie State, was formed began to be told. Originally designed to serve as a Northern Illinois Championship in its early days it was run at Green River Conservation area near Princeton, IL. When Green River became unavailable it moved to Black Gold near Macomb, IL. Later it moved more south residing at the “Hunt Club” near Percy, IL and finally to its present home at the Sportsman Club in Grove Springs, MO. While not a “Northern” Illinois competition any more we need to thank some of those early pioneers, Bill Schreiber, Brad Woodbury, John Nickence, Rob Richter, and Jim and Janet Chase for their vision for this Championship. Also thanks need to go out to Jerry McGee, Warren Montgomery, Donna Janulis, Tom Thomas who hold executive positions in this championship but do much more and some of the supporting people especially Tim Self and Dave Capstick who also participated tirelessly in all the tasks needed to support this event. Back to the running. These LaSalle dogs lived up to their heritage both putting on a ground race show from start to, well almost finish. Ace ran hard and to the far front consistently but coming off horse killer hill he ducked out of sight not to return to judgment before the end of the hour. Skeeter also exhibited a solid ground race but ended the hour with no birds to his credit.

BRACE 8 – BREAK AWAY AT THE BOTTOM OF THE HILL IN LITTLE VINEY – BUDDY (THOMAS) AND OZZIE (HOLMAN) got started on a good note. Both dogs ran the high country well with Ozzie taking the lead in range and application. In the first valley field Ozzie could be seen standing along the far fence line as Buddy was bearing in on him. Unfortunately, Buddy’s manners were a little lacking and he was collared. Ozzie withstood the challenge and Chad flushed a covey of two quail while Ozzie maintained his style. He continued to put on a good show in Sycamore Valley. This is the biggest open field at this complex and Ozzie used this to his advantage rimming the edges and showing far far to the front. As we headed to the double barns turning into the wind and in more cover, Ozzie shortened slightly exhibiting his hunting skills. Travelling past the double barns Ozzie again extended himself through the prairie grass and was found standing along the fence line near the blue house. All was in order with a successful flush and he ventured on. Again, Ozzie picked up the momentum running hard and with good range through the bull pasture. He was discovered on point adjacent to a wooded area. Birds were flushed with Ozzie maintaining his style. He finished the hour well, never seeming to fade and, just the opposite ending strong or stronger than at any time during his race.

BRACE 9 – HEADING ON THE THIRD COURSE ANTICIPATING ANOTHER GOOD LUNCH IT WAS

HAWK (JOHN) AND LANCE (TRACY). Hawk started with a far reaching casts but that cast continued to expand until Hawk was nowhere to be found. Lance settled in to a moderate race and at 50 minutes was seen standing on a fence line near the cemetery. All was in order with the bird flush and he finished the hour with no further encounters.

BRACE 10 – JOKER (JOHN) AND BLAZE (HOLMAN) – This was the first brace after lunch. This has a long rather narrow break away and most dogs reach well to the front at this point and these dogs did the same. Not seen until the first creek crossing both dogs continued this path. However beyond this point the dogs both disappeared and the trackers were requested by the handlers and the brace ended.

BRACE 11 – MICKEY (BURCHETT) AND TAZ (WILLIAMS). Break away was at Little Viney loop. Taz ran a moderate race throughout the hour but had no encounters with any birds. Mickey was out of pocket early and Bob pursued him with the tracker.

BRACE 12 – GYPSY (JOHN) AND NOLA (BURCHETT) Break away was at the bull pasture and both dogs started well balancing range and independence with more cover than on some of the other courses. Coming off the double barn area hill to Sycamore Valley, Nola established point along the wood's edge. Bob flushed a single with all in order. He continued to hunt through the fields near the cemetery and finished with no further quail sightings. Gypsy started to build momentum as we headed back towards the double barns and had one of the most stylish finds of the competition pointing along a tree line. Jimmy flushed a single quail and fired. However shortly after that this National Champion picked up momentum that Jim was unable to control and she went out of judgment.

BRACE 13 – DEA (HOLMAN) AND BUZZ (TRACY) While not as sunny as the first two days and with a slightly biting breeze on your face it was still a good morning to run dogs. And both the dogs and the handlers came to show their stuff. Break away along the gravel creek bed both dogs had their running shoes on and started well. This continued through the double gates with the dogs showing well to the front when they needed to and at the same time handling well. Just across the gates Dea went on point on the right side. Chad successfully flushed a bird and all was well. Almost at the same time Tommy called point on the right side of the field on a fence line. Again a bird was located and the race was on. Dea continued to run aggressively through Lone Island Valley and up Horse Killer hill. Travelling over the high country and down to Little Viney Valley, Dea went on point along a fence line with Buzz backing nicely. Both finished the hour strong and the judges knew they had some decisions to make.

BRACE 14 – IRISH (TRACEY) AND HOLLY (HOLMAN) Broke away at the end of Little Viney. Both dogs showed well in the beginning with good casts in this field through Sycamore Bottom. Holly started to excel in both race and application and we found her standing along the fence row just shy of the bull pasture. Chad flushed the bird while Holly remained staunch. She continued to run the third course well exhibiting good ground speed, excellent application and range. Irish ran a medium race and completed the hour with no bird contact.

BRACE 15 - CRASH (TRACEY) AND FINN (BURCHETT) Breakaway was at the bottom of the hill on the third course. Neither dog could get comfortable running the third course behind the clubhouse area so both handlers proceeded to collar these dogs prior to the end of the hour.

BRACE 16 – WILLY (BURCHETT) AND CHAVEY (HOLMAN). Broke these dogs away on the first course. At the double gate crossing along a fence road Willy was seen pointing. Attempts to locate a bird were not successful and he was sent on. Willy finished the hour at medium range and with no other bird contact. Chavey was not pleasing Chad Holman and was leashed at 30 minutes.

BRACE 17 – MIKE (TRACEY) AND DAN (HOLMAN) Break away was at the bottom of Little Viney. From the beginning, Mike's agenda and directional system was not matching Tom Tracey and after a period of time Tom elected to retire Mike for the day. Dan started out with some nice casts along the open fields but as he turned into the wind and hunted more cover he shortened considerably. He finished the day in this manner with no bird contact.

BRACE 18 – CHUG (MCGEE) AND AUGUST (TRACEY) As hard as Chug tried, and considering all the accomplishments this dog made to the Brittany world, he just did not have it this day. While stories were being told of him, reminiscing about his many accomplishments Chug proceeded to run a medium race. Jerry picked him up before the hour and we all saluted Chug knowing this was his final competition. August ran a medium race through the bull pasture but was not rewarded with a bird.

BRACE 19 RACE (TRIMBLE) This was a bye dog. Race was let loose heading behind the clubhouse area on the third course. He is a big running dog with long strides and has good ground speed. However, after riding most of the hilly area of the course with no sightings of Race, Ray elected to pull out the tracker and the brace, and the competition had been completed.

The Bill Schreiber Derby Classic

A special thanks to the judges of this completion, Ed Janulis and Tommy Thomas. They commented before announcing placements of the quality of the dogs in this was impressive and the winner and runner up were challenging decisions.

The winner was KJ's Irish Whisky (Mickey) handled by Bob Burchett. He broke away at the double gates heading into the big open fields of Davis's Bottom. He was not at all intimidated by these and attacked them well hunting to the extremes and sensing the wind correctly in his quest to locate birds.

Second place was awarded to KJ's Darlin Darcy (Fiona) handled by Bob Burchett. This dog ran in the fourth brace and hunted well both into the wind and in high cover and extending far along the field edges of course three and turning onto course one. She has a snappy gate and attacks fields with a keen sense of independence and intelligence.

Both the winner and runner-up are littermates and owned by Ken and Jane Windom. Looking forward to seeing these two dogs in the future.

Open Shooting Dog Championship

Prairie State held the inaugural running of the "Chase Memorial" shooting dog championship, and the 27th year for this stake. And while the stake was delayed for three days because of sleet & ice, a good time was had by all. We re-kindled old friendship, played cards, and drank a lot!

We want to thank our judges Stan Noble & Ken Chenoweth for their patience and judging!

The winner was Augustus of Tiger (Gus) owned by Bo Ackerman and handled by Tommy Tracy. Gus ran in the sixth brace, he had a consistence forward race with a find in the island field & continued up horse killer hill with a strong finish

Runner up was Sniksoh Sally (Sally) owned by Philip and Louise Corlew and handled by Bob Burchett. Sally ran in the twelfth brace her race with moderate range, having a find at the blue house fence line.

None Held Back and Other Bird Dog Stories

By Tom Word

Part Three Generation to Generation

She has heard the ritual announcement countless times. First from her father’s saddle, the heel of her sneakers just touching his knees. Then from her pony in the gallery, watching her father handle. Next the handler was her husband. For fifteen seasons she scouted for him, in Saskatchewan in August, then south week by week on the circuit: North Dakota, Illinois, Kansas, Oklahoma, Kentucky; home to Georgia for Christmas, then out to the surrounding deep-south plantations for the winter quail trials, and finally over to Tennessee for the National in February.

Today she rides as handler, not scout. As she touches spur to flank and nods for the release of the pointer in her charge, she thinks only of her battle plan for the coming hour of combat. She will pilot the pointer over miles of crop and pine land in his search for bobwhite quail. Her only controls will be her singing voice (a moving beacon for the dog), her whistle (sharp blasts to send him forward, long trills to turn him), and her horse (a moving directional sign board). Her guidance will be far from precise, for the pointer will mostly pick his own way, his instincts and experience drawing him to the likely haunts of quail. She will give him the general directions, let him know where he must turn to stay to the front within the invisible cone. Occasionally she will guide him to an inviting edge where open field meets forest. Already she plans what she must do two miles ahead. Her mind holds a map of the course, and in her mind’s eye she sees every element of cover and terrain: every grove, gully brier patch, fence line, creek bottom, ridge top.

Her pointer is five years old, in his prime, the son of a champion sire and a champion dam, born in her kitchen on January 2. Touched by her every day of his life, trained by her and her husband, first to move always to the front, then to come in on request, then to stop (stop absolutely still). The pointer was born knowing to freeze on the first scent of game bird, and to freeze when it sees another dog pointing. These traits have come to him through his genes, from his mother and father and the generations of champions behind them in unbroken line to Fishel’s Frank and Alford’s John, the fountainheads.

She and her husband together have taught the pointer his ultimate lesson—to hold his point when the game birds flush and the blank shell explodes. Then and only then was the pointer ready for work like today’s—to run in an open all-age stake against fifty other pointers and setters, two by two for an hour, with the three judged best to share a modest purse and bits of silver for the mantels of proud owners.

She has factored into her battle plan the strengths and weaknesses of her pointer, and the habits of the other handler, notorious for riding far to the front, unsure of his own charge and looking for a chance to misguide her’s. She will not ride ahead to vie with him; her pointer will not be distracted, his hearing is good, and he knows her voice and whistle from any other. Still a brace with this handler is a special challenge. Her husband often complained about him, but her husband had also said it could be an advantage, that judges understood and made allowances, that the other handler might be blamed for your dog’s own mistake.

She thinks of the faults of her pointer, especially of his inevitable bolt if he does not find game in his first twenty minutes. There is little she can do to counter this fault, except pray; but some luck has already come her way, for the course she’s drawn is birdy in the first half. She knows from all the years she had ridden here the general locations of half a dozen coveys. Though you can’t stick an all-age dog in a particular acre in the first fifteen minutes of its race, when exuberance rules, the second fifteen will offer good opportunities for her pointer to find birds....

Ten minutes after the breakaway, she can hear the handler far ahead, bellowing, obviously out of touch with his dog. She has pointed out her dog to the judges twice; each time he has been sweeping far to the front; a good start, but she knows the first fifteen minutes don’t count for much, the last fifteen will count the most, the middle thirty next.

And then she hears from far ahead...“Point...Point.” She touches heel to flank, and her horse gathers in a smooth canter, homing on the voice ahead. Then she sees the other handler, cap raised, and before him in the broomsedge under tall scattered pines, his dog on point.

She swings wide left and passes him, scanning the ground in all directions. And there forty yards in front of his dog stands her pointer, majestic, tail straight up, chin raised like a Boston lady about to sip tea. Instinctively she lifts her hat, a new Aussie style one, Christmas gift from her husband. Then she yells, “Point.”

Which dog has the covey? Or is it two coveys? She studies her dog, and she knows: he has birds dead ahead; what the other dog has pointed is not her concern.

She swings from the saddle, pulls her shotgun from its scabbard, breaks it, and shoves in a blank. Her judge arrives, and she walks quickly in front of her pointer. The covey, bunched tight, lifts in a roar, and she fires. Her pointer moves not a muscle, nor does he relax until she rubs his shoulder in praise. Her daughter is beside her now, gripping the pointer's collar, giving him water, handing her the reins of her horse. She swings back in the saddle. Meanwhile, the other handler has asked his dog to relocate; he gives up, an unproductive.

She signals her daughter-scout to release the pointer and commands "heel," guiding her pointer back to the center of the course where she hits the whistle, and he shoots ahead on a sweeping cast along a field edge. The visibility is wonderful here; she had hoped to have this piece of country to herself, a showcase for the pointer's strength—his willingness to carry an edge to the end. She lifts her arm to point him out, and hears her judge say quietly, "I've got him."

Suddenly she realizes she is handling alone—the other handler has picked up his dog, for what reason she does not know or care. She feels exhilaration—a good find in the book, thirty minutes to go, no interference to worry about. But there is no time to dwell on her good fortune, for her pointer, a quarter mile ahead now, is topping a ridge, and she cannot see what direction he will take beyond. Again she touches heel to flank, and her horse gathers, knowing from long experience where he is to gallop; he has been watching the pointer just as she has.

She reaches the ridge top and scans the country ahead, a large rectangular cotton field surrounded by tall pines. Far ahead on the left edge is her pointer, flying. She lifts her arm to signal to the judges (she has the full attention of them both now). They reach the ridge top together, their horses blowing and lathered, just in time to see her pointer reach the end of the cotton field and turn right across the front, a moving white dot on the edge.

"Pretty...Pretty...", she hears one judge whisper to the other, thinking they are out of her hearing.

She feels her heart pumping, an adrenalin rush. Now there is danger. Beyond the cotton field lie rolling acres of tall pines with heavy broomsedge beneath. The area is called "The Trap," as it often proves to be, for dogs often disappear on this final third of the course. At an easy canter she rides through the cotton field, the remnant stalks like thin soldiers at attention. Her pointer is unseen, ahead in the pines—or so she hopes.

At the end of the cotton field, she signals to her scout to ride the left flank, and her daughter drifts off, riding just behind the judges and three hundred yards to the left. She prays for a sighting of the pointer, but the big open woods are empty. Then a blur of movement far to the front—deer! Will the pointer chase them...? Not likely; she and her husband have spent many hours deer proofing the pointer; she prays he doesn't forget those lessons.

She looks at her watch. Her pointer has been out of view for thirteen minutes. He must show within twenty or be counted out of judgment. She stops and calls, and the judges and reporter ride up beside her, silent but smiling, hoping as she does that the pointer will show in time.

And then from far to the left comes a faint "Point...Point..." The voice is female, her daughter, her scout.

Again her horse opens in a sprint for the distant voice. His long strides eat the distance, and there ahead she sees her daughter, cap raised. Quietly, so only she will hear, her daughter says, "Three quail lifted just as I got here." Her heart sinks. She must make a decision: She can tell the judges that her scout has seen birds fly and not attempt to flush (the point will then be a non-event in the judges' books), or she can attempt to flush and risk an unproductive. Instantly she decides to flush; the dog's manner tells her he believes more birds are on the ground, its late in the heat, and she figures she will need at least two clean finds for a chance to be in the money.

She walks far in front of the statuesque dog and comes back toward him, watching his eyes; he turns his head ever so slightly to the left. Quickly she walks to him, strokes his back, taps his shoulder for a relocation. The pointer moves swift and sure ten steps to the left and freezes again. She walks in front of him and two quail lift.

"There go birds," the gallery shouts in unison. She fires the blank, the dog motionless, tight.

"Six minutes left," the senior judge says without being asked.

She swings back in the saddle; "Heel, Sam, heel;" just ahead lies another cotton field, long and narrow, bordered by a creek on the left, pinewoods on the right. In her battle plan, she has envisioned this opportunity. She guides her pointer to the left edge. Then she taps the whistle every so lightly. As the pointer takes the edge, she hits the whistle three times more, and the pointer grows smaller in the eyes of judges, reporter, and gallery. The party rides slowly, all eyes on her pointer as he floats before them.

"Pick him up," says the judge.

There has never before been a full-time female professional handler on the major circuit—but many able female scouts: wives, daughters, sisters of male pros. When her husband died three months ago in a freak riding accident, she had no idea of continuing with his string of twelve all-age dogs and four derbies. But the six owners—one a woman—all encouraged her to carry on, and so did her daughter, seventeen and, like her, reared around bird dog and the field-trial game. This is her first stake as a handler. She has approached it with doubt and fear, but those are behind her now.

She touches her horse's flank once more, and it lopes after the pointer, now far away at the end of the cotton field. "Sam...Heah Sam...Whoa Sam." Her daughter overtakes her. The pointer, Sam, comes toward them, tail wagging, aware that his heat is over. The two women dismount, each with a plastic water jug in hand. They pour water for Sam to lap, then roll him on his back for a cooling bath. Her daughter fits the roading harness, hands her the check cord, and they ride together back to the field-trial party, dismounted now and enjoying soft drinks from the cooler on the dog truck. Other handlers and scouts remove two dogs from compartments on the truck and prepare to release them for the next heat.

Sam's owner is waiting, a huge grin on his face. He takes Sam from the harness, hugs him, puts him in an empty compartment on the truck. Then he embraces handler and scout. "That was fine...Mighty fine... He'd be proud of you."

She calls her daughter aside, "Come with me." The two ride out of sight, dismount, embrace, and share a long cry.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
