VOLUME LXVI • NUMBER 6 • JUNE 2014

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

False Pointing

There are few sights more thrilling than a bird dog locked up rock solid on point, tail up, head held high, body aquiver as it drinks in the heady scent of a gamebird. It's even more exciting for the dog to do than it is for us to watch.

The more you hunt your dog, the more adept you become at noticing little details about its pointing style, and you can learn a lot about what your dog is doing by observing the body language it exhibits when on point. There are several different kinds of pointing behaviors, but the kind we're going to focus on in this column is the type related to and including false pointing.

A false point occurs when the dog points but there's no bird. This can be due to a number of reasons but not all of them indicate a false point. So, in order to help you distinguish between a false point and something else, let's go through what it not a false point.

Pointing feathers, old scent, or ground scent when there isn't a bird – not at all uncommon in a younger, less-experienced dog – is not false pointing. The cure for this is more time in the field and more live birds. As the dog's ability matures, it will learn to differentiate between a bird that was there and one that still is – and they don't bother with old scent once they learn the difference. Remember: In the beginning, we're just trying to build as much excitement and prey drive as we can, so don't correct an inexperienced dog for pointing old scent. Just go on past it, and the dog will figure it out and come with you. There's no need to say anything or encourage the dog to come along with you, just walk on by.

How do we tell whether the dog is pointing old scent? There will be a difference in the dog's body language and posture – and keep in mind that we're talking about mature dogs, not puppies. Puppies can look pretty darned good pointing a feather or a butterfly at first, but once they've seen a few birds, you'll see the difference in their pointing style between old scent, butterflies, feathers, and so on. A mature dog will not show the same degree of intensity in its posture: The tail may not be as high and may wag a bit, and the head may be lower and looking right at the object or even rooting around in the grass.

Pointing off-game – rabbits, mice, turtles, snakes, gophers, and the like – is also not false pointing. This happens often when there aren't many birds and the dog has gone awhile without finding one. A dog pointing off-game, or trash game, also shows a different style than on gamebirds and is more likely to go for a visual and lower its head. The best way to handle this is to go on past the dog; they'll often come with you. If they want to chase or fight with off-game, that needs to be dealt with by breaking them, as we discussed in our last column on e-collar use. If you're in pheasant country and your dog is on point with no bird, you can bet you've got a bird running out ahead somewhere. This can happen anywhere on any kind of gamebird, but pheasants are the most likely culprit. A running bird is something dogs only learn to handle with a good deal of experience. Regardless of age, all dogs need to gain enough experience to know when a bird has scampered out of the area – and in our book, hunting six days a year is not going to do the job. Two dozen days a year, over a couple of seasons, is more likely to give them the on-the-job training they need to learn about running birds. If you don't live where you can let a dog run on wild birds, go to a pheasant preserve to train. Any experience is better than none at all, and even just walking your dog through fields at a preserve to find leftovers is good experience.

Wild birds that have been hunted before will often flush when they hear you coming, leaving the dog with nothing to point but old scent. A dog pointing old scent will usually exhibit a staunch point, then loosen up, look around a bit, and move its tail. This means the dog has lost the scent, and it tells us that we've likely got a running bird.

So what is as false point? When a dog points and there is absolutely nothing there to point, it's a false point. The dog's style will be almost identical to the look it has when pointing a bird: the head held high, tail up and rigid, and body taut. Why on earth would a dog point at nothing? There are several reasons for this, one of the more common occurring in a training situation: if you continually plant birds in the same spot, the dog learns to point the location rather than the scent. The solution is easy: Plant birds in differing locations.

Also, use a dry field, meaning a field that has no birds in it. Then you can correct a dog using a checkcord, telling them to go with you and move on. Don't be tempted to use an e-collar for this – if you don't have a checkcord on the dog, just walk on past and keep going until the dog breaks loose; it won't take more than a few seconds before the dog moves on and goes with you again. When you do this, be sure to ignore the dog; say nothing and don't acknowledge it. Acknowledging the dog rewards the behavior, even if it's negative attention.

There are three things a dog can do in this situation: They can keep standing there; they can break off and go with you; or, on the odd chance that there is a bird, they can run over and flush it. If they do flush a bird, don't get upset or angry, take advantage of the opportunity to work on stop to flush. Even if you push them into a bird and they flush it, it's not the end of the world it's still better than false pointing, and it won't happen often if you work in what you are sure is a dry field with no birds.

False pointing can also be a form of defiance. They figure that when they point, you don't correct them; they use it to prevent you from putting a lead on to go home or from making a correction. It's not much different from a dog that refuses to move on a lead because it doesn't want to go where you want it to.

To take this one step further, a dog will often knock into birds on purpose when the handler is out of sight then lock up on point quickly before you arrive. They do this because they know they don't get corrected for being on point – it's a way of diverting your attention from the fact that they just busted a bird or two. The fix for this is to catch them in the act and make a correction. It's still a bit of defiance, just daring you to catch them in the act.

A dog that earns petting and praise every time it points will learn to stop and point to gain attention and praise. The best reward for a point should be a bird. Try to leave the praise and fussing out of it so you don't create this problem; dogs will repeat behavior that gets them what they want.

When a dog points a bird then loses scent, it will look around, perhaps flag its tail, and be less tight. A true false point means the dog will stay staunch and steady, with very little difference between false pointing and the real thing, usually something as subtle as the dog following you with an eye as you walk past. But if you pay attention, you'll learn the signs and will be able to tell which is which.

Another very common reason for false pointing is the dog not wanting to be picked up to go home. These dogs only false point when they know they're at the end of their hunt for the day. The dog is enjoying being out hunting and is trying to prolong its time in the field by delaying its being picked up, again because they know they won't get corrected for pointing. These false points often happen when the dog knows you're on the way back to your vehicle, making correcting the problem easy. Just slip a lead on the dog well before you get to the end of your walk back to the vehicle and before the dog realizes the day is ending.

Our hunting seasons seem to end way too soon, and stretching each day for maximum enjoyment in the field works both ways. The dogs enjoy it too, and it's hard to blame them for noting wanting to go home. We have a hard time faulting a dog that doesn't want to quit hunting – that's not a bad problem to have, as we usually don't want to quit either and can't blame them for trying to make it last just a little longer.

Brittany Highlights By Carla Simon

NEW MACH BRITTANY

Congratulations to Erica Behnke and MACH Tressel MXS MJG XF T2B3 (ILP102198) on completing his agility MACH on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2014.

Tressel lives with seven other Brittany's (and one Border Collie who points sheep and birds) near Cincinnati, OH. Tressel was Erica's first foster dog, a rescue through the National Brittany Rescue and Adoption Network. Previous owners had labelled him "aggressive, destructive and unmanageable". When Erica adopted him he was an energetic, but soft tempered, 11 month old and she began his agility training to boost his confidence.

In a few years, Tressel surpassed all expectations when he was ranked as the #10 Brittany in agility for 2013.

Unfortunately that fall he injured his shoulder running in the field with the other dogs, and was sidelined for nearly five months. At that point, it was questionable if he'd compete again, but after a lot of physical therapy we achieved our two most unimaginable dreams - going to the 2014 AKC Agility Nationals and earning his MACH.

Congratulations Erica and Tressel, on achieving this milestone, to which many aspire but are not able to realize! May the road rise to meet you.

The Delaney Rating System compares performances of dogs in AKC all breed obedience competition. This system was originally devised by Mr. Kent Delaney, a highly respected obedience and breed judge. The philosophy of the Delaney Rating System is that placing dog/handler teams in each class are the best performers and comparisons of teams should only include these participants. Therefore this system only ranks dogs that place first through fourth in Open and Utility classes. Novice class dogs are not included in this system but are ranked separately (see below).

How Front & Finish Rankings are Tabulated

The Front & Finish® Rating System ranks dogs and handlers competing in AKC all breed obedience competition. Teams that earn qualifying scores of 170 or more points are included. Points are awarded based on the dog's score according to a point schedule that accounts for variances in scores awarded by different judges. SPRING CLEANING... ATTICS, CLOSETS OR GARAGES

The Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame is looking for very early historical items that depict the development of the Brittany. We have acquired a hand written letter from 1949 by Lucien H. Ufford. He was one of the very early breeders of the Brittany under the kennel name of Loufel. Items of this nature should not be discarded as we now have a place to display them to be shared with all dog enthusiasts.

We are looking for: The oldest trophy - dated, with a Brittany on top... Let us know if you have one. Also, the old original paper manuscript of the Fred White book "The Brittany In America". We know that some one has one. Are you willing to donate this to the Brittany Museum in Grand Junction, Tenn.?

Look around, there is a lot of "stuff" just sitting in some ones possession that needs to be enjoyed by all dog persons. Our history needs to be preserved and shared with others and we now have such a place. Contact a Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame Officer or Director to see if what you have is museum worthy.

Rand Constalie - He passed away on Sunday April 27, 2014 at age 94.

Rand joined Badger Brittany Club in May 1958 and remained a member until 2000. He joined shortly after Badger was formed. During that period, he served as its president, first vice president, field trial secretary and field trial chairman. He represented Badger at the 1959 national meeting. This was before directors were elected.

He was an avid promoter of the Brittany in Wisconsin. He promoted the breed in the field and in the show but never let those events interfere with his annual trek to the Wisconsin grouse woods and tag alders to run his dogs on grouse and woodcock with good friends.

Over the years, Rand, a freelance writer, wrote numerous articles for the ABC magazine and other publications. He also wrote a few books, including, A Breed Apart (1987).

Rand was part of the leadership that started the Wisconsin Association of Field Trial Clubs. He was part of the effort by Wisconsin Field Trial Clubs to urge the State Abandoned AFB-Bong and make a portion of it into a State class I dog training and field trial grounds.

Rand was also involved in the purchase of 40 acres adjacent to the Buena Vista Prairie Management Area that the Southern Wisconsin Pointing Dog Club acquired in the early 1960's. Working with John Evans and Central States FTC, permission was granted by the WDNR to hold trials on the Buena Vista Prairie Chicken Management Area on the Prairie Chicken.

Rand was an avid grouse and woodcock hunter. Nothing gave him more pleasure than walking in the grouse woods with the bell ringing as one of his Brits was working the cover ahead of him. In the late 1970's, he was part of a group that decided to start the Chippewa Valley Pointing Dog Association to run cover dog trials in the Eau Claire County forest near Augusta. The group was comprised of Badger Brittany members and others who owned other pointing breeds who enjoyed running their dogs in the grouse woods. They held cover dog trials at Augusta.

Rand with the support of Badger BC in 1962 started the process to establish The ABC Prairie Chicken Classic which first ran in 1964 on Buena Vista. He attended everyone held in WI until the last in 2000.

Rand worked to get the Grouse Classic re-established as the Grouse and Woodcock Classic. He wrote "Conditions have changed a great deal since the Grouse Classic was dropped. At that time I had places to train and develop all-age dogs. Those places are gone now and I have been forced to go to the Grouse Woods. I am sure many other Owners in the Northern tier of States has had the same experience. Re-establishing the Grouse Classic will provide them a place to compete."

"Let's do It"

"The 1986 Classic with the new format was held in MN with MN BC & Badger BC members hosting and participating.

BACON-WRAPPED SCALLOPS

12 slices of bacon, cut in half lengthwise
 24 medium-sized scallops
 10 Tbsp butter
 6 cloves garlic, pressed
 Dash of cayenne pepper (optional)
 Salt
 Pepper
 Toothpicks

Directions

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Grease a 9 x 13 baking dish. If you want to make clean up easier, line the baking dish with foil (shiny side down) and grease the foil. Cut the bacon slices in half lengthwise so you have 24 pieces. Pre-fry the bacon just until it gets some color and it's still limp and soft (it needs to be flexible enough to wrap around the scallops). Melt the butter in a small bowl. Add garlic, salt, pepper and cayenne pepper (if using) and stir well. Set half of this butter / garlic mixture aside for later. Dip each scallop in melted butter / garlic sauce. Wrap a strip of bacon around each scallop; secure with toothpick (all the way through the scallop). Arrange the wrapped scallops on the greased baking dish. Bake on the middle rack for around 15 minutes (or until the scallops are done and the bacon is crisp). Place scallops in large bowl and pour remaining butter / garlic sauce from earlier over the scallops and toss gently to coat.

A SPORTSMAN'S RAMBLINGS

by Marty Garrell

Getting tossed from a horse can be serious business. Sometimes it's all about bad riding skills or not paying attention. Sometimes it's about the horse seeing dragons in the field in the form of rocks or farm implements or getting stung by horseflies. Sometimes it's a rider's error. Nevertheless, when it happens, provided the bruises are superficial and the only damage is to the rider's pride, he or she is best off "getting right back on that horse". Our equestrian friends tell us that horses always take the measure of riders and take advantage of those who are fearful, so climbing back up makes sense for the horse. But it also means a lot for the psyche and confidence of the rider.

He same goes for swimming and boating. A nasty case of 'mal de mer' has set back many a fledgling angler including this writer. No matter how confident we get after many trips on big water under moderate sea conditions, no matter how well a dose of scopolamine works for us, there's always a storm out there big enough to send us the rail repeatedly. Yet we're better off when we persist and continue to fish. Lifeguards always used to counsel novice swimmers who'd swallowed a mouthful of sea water and panicked to get back in the water again before leaving the scene.

Early in my angling career I had a hard time coming to grips with big fish that "got away", especially if a dumb decision or haste on my part led to the dropped fish. Under this heading come poorly tied knots or equipment problems. Long ago in the Keys I used to fiddle with the bails on my saltwater spinning reels to make them function better. In those days, the rollers on the bails were stationary, usually hard chrome steel (before tungsten carbide was common). To get a harder roller that wouldn't develop line-grooves so quickly, I replaced the steel with agate, which worked well until a huge 40-pound bull dolphin (mahi) came out of nowhere, ate my bucktail at boatside, then bolted for the horizon at top speed. The agate couldn't dissipate the heat quickly enough and the monofilament line cut through, then shredded. Two hundred yards out, with no line strength left, the fish and I parted ways.

The skipper caught me sulking amidships and sternly told me with a half day of fishing left to get another rig in the water. I set up a light conventional 12-pound rod for surface drifting and let a surface bait work its way leeward and down. Still depressed after an hour, I was startled by a tug, then nothing. On a hunch, I threw the reel into free spool and watched the line suddenly pick up speed. After ten seconds, I re-engaged the gears and let the line come taut as the ocean exploded 70 yards out. I'd just hooked my first sailfish, a nice 6-1/2 footer that turned into a mount for my father's office. After all, he'd paid for my Florida trip in the first place.

Last weekend in a pointing dog trial in Connecticut, our star Brittany, Annie, seemed well on her way to winning a stake with 30-odd gun dog contenders. She was running beautifully and had four perfectly executed quail finds with but one minute of time remaining. This was no ordinary stake for her; it would qualify her to run in the national gun dog championship in central Michigan late this month. At that point we were all set to make motel reservations---until Annie blew through a small covey of bobwhite in the open field and kept running! In a horrible funk, we nevertheless realized that the dog was about to be called to the line for another stake. Could we (and she) get through it? Sure enough, except for some spots where she slowed to catch her breath, Annie ran strongly, worked a couple of birds with near-flawless manners, and finished with a third-place ribbon as consolation for the day.

Unfortunately, you don't always get a do-over. On a cod trip off Captree decades ago, I stuck a really large cod late one afternoon. After turning the fish off the bottom and feeling her weight, I knew instinctively I had the pool winter. There was nothing over 15-pounds on board, and this soaker had to be 40 or better! The skipper came down from the wheelhouse to watch as I slowly lifted the big cod up from the depths (all the while calculating how much of the pool I'd give the mates). Suddenly for no good reason, the (sharp!) hook pulled out, the line went slack, and the skipper turned away. I don't think I spoke three words to Janet until we got back to Mattituck.

I suppose one can "wait 'til next time", but sometimes it just plain hurts!

AKC EXPANDS THERAPY DOG TITLING PROGRAM

New York, NY - In an effort to honor the thousands of therapy dog teams that make a difference in the lives of others daily, the American Kennel Club® (AKC®) has added four new titles to the popular AKC Therapy Dog™ program.

In addition to the AKC Therapy Dog (ThD) title (awarded after 50 visits), the AKC now offers:

AKC Therapy Dog Novice (ThDN) - Awarded after 10 visits . AKC Therapy Dog Advanced (ThDA) - Awarded after 100 visits . AKC Therapy Dog Excellent (ThDX) - Awarded after 200 visits . AKC Distinguished Therapy Dog (ThDD) - Awarded after 400 visits

"The AKC heard from many dog owners whose dogs had already earned the ThD title and who wanted additional formal recognition of their ongoing commitment to volunteering to help others. We're pleased to expand the AKC Therapy Dog program as a result of these requests," said Doug Ljungren, Vice President of AKC Sports and Events. "We've also added a way to acknowledge beginning therapy dogs, hoping that this will encourage even more dogs and owners to participate in therapy dog work."

Dogs who are registered and approved by recognized therapy dog organizations may apply to earn the AKC Therapy Dog titles, which will be listed on the dog's AKC title record. Any dog, including mixed breeds, can earn AKC Therapy Dog titles as long as the dog is AKC-registered, listed with AKC Canine Partners or enrolled in the Purebred Alternative Listing (PAL) program. AKC does not train or certify therapy dogs.

Applications for the new titles will be accepted beginning June 1st, with titles awarded beginning July 1st.

To apply for a title or learn more about the AKC Therapy Dog program, visit <http://www.akc.org/dogowner/therapy/index.cfm>.

The American Kennel Club, founded in 1884, is a not-for-profit organization which maintains the largest registry of purebred dogs in the world and oversees the sport of purebred dogs in the United States. The AKC is dedicated to upholding the integrity of its registry, promoting the sport of purebred dogs and breeding for type and function. Along with its more than 5,000 licensed and member clubs and its affiliated organizations, the AKC advocates for the purebred dog as a family companion, advances canine health and well-being, works to protect the rights of all dog owners and promotes responsible dog ownership. More than 22,000 competitions for AKC-registered purebred dogs are held under AKC rules and regulations each year including conformation, agility, obedience, rally, tracking, herding, lure coursing, coonhound events, hunt tests, field and earthdog tests. Affiliate AKC organizations include the AKC Humane Fund, AKC Canine Health Foundation, AKC Reunite and the AKC Museum of the Dog. For more information, visit www.akc.org.

Field Trials

EAST COAST

NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND John Flaherty Field Trial Area E. Windsor, CT April 18-10, 2014

The NNEBC early spring trial held in Flaherty Field Trial grounds in East Windsor CT was a success due to the hard work of many individuals. Chairman Ray Gorman along with Secretary Rita Poland kept things running smoothly. The club also wants to recognize Deb and Mike Blondin for all their help, doing everything from hosting a dinner to bird planting and judging. Johnny Poland's humor was in rare form and kept things light hearted. Johnny ran his dogs to some ribbons in between handling the grill. NNEBC would be remiss to not recognize the efforts of SNEBC member's Henry Wierzbicki along with Fran and Bill Gorman for helping to pull things together. We also want to thank Bob Fleury. Bob coordinated all the necessary paperwork for Northern to run this trial on the back end of the Brittany Challenge Week. We thank you folks from CT. We also want to thank all our judges who put many miles in the saddles starting Friday through Sunday. Sincerely thank you for your efforts. We had a very nice turnout. Folks from all over stayed to run dogs at our weekend trial after the Futurity event. People from Michigan, Virginia, Ohio, Florida, Georgia, New Jersey, Nebraska, and Maine ran dogs under NNEBC. The weather was nice both days with sunny skies and spring temps. Again thank you to all who ran dogs and pitched in to make this event a success over the Easter weekend.

ABC International Classic

The American Brittany Club International Brittany Classics moved back to Ohio this year. The series of ABC Regional Classics were held in conjunction with the PA Shooting Dog Classic, and the Buckeye, Ohio and Kentucky Brittany club trials in late March. The cluster of events began at the Tri Valley field trial grounds in Dresden, OH and finished up at the Mingo Sportsman club in Bloomingdale, OH. All of this year's stakes were run as Grand Champion limited stakes.

In a year that saw numerous cancellations, postponements, and delays due to the weather, we consider ourselves very fortunate to have completed all stakes with great entries. We saw every type of weather imaginable; the good, the bad, and the ugly!

There are many people to thank for their efforts to put this trial on. At the top of the list is our sponsor. Purina has always been there with their generous donation of dog food for our winners. We'd like to thank the Ohio Brittany Club for allowing us to run our Amateur All Age Championship as part of their trial in Dresden. Members of the PA Brittany Championship Association and Kentucky Brittany Club were on hand to help with the running of the trial at Mingo. The Mingo Sportsman Club offered an excellent venue to run dogs. We'd like to thank Bill Monk and the members at Mingo who worked so hard and made us feel welcome. Plans are already in the works for next year's events.

Judges this year's for the Amateur All Age Championship were Wade Haines and Tony Giovanale. Fifteen dogs went to the line for these 2 respected judges. We'd like to thank them for looking at our dogs in some brutally cold and windy conditions.

This year's Amateur Champion was Chancey's Frozen Asset, owned by Jack and Crystal Alexander, and handled by Jack. Maggie put on a strong performance that was hard to beat. Missing shortly after breakaway, she was found standing to the front after her absence. She finished the hour strong. Runner up was Maximum Overdrive II, owned and handled by Troy Hoverter. Max had 2 well spaced finds and showed well at the finish. Third place honors went to Diamond Hill Deuces Gone Wild, owned by Paul and Lisa Pollock, handled by Lisa. Forth place went to Marjo's Leftover, owned by Danielle Perry and handled by John Perry.

After the Ohio Brittany Club weekend trial, we moved to the Mingo Sportsman Club to complete the series. Monday morning was bitter cold, but the temperatures warmed up quickly. Judges for the ABC International Shooting Dog Classic were Cliff Mesnard and Ted Goodyear. Twenty-eight contenders went to the line. This year's Champion was Dakota Gun Runner's Buckshot. Buck is owned by Jim Berkowitz of Georgia and handled by Tom Tracy Jr. Runner up was Touch of Bourbon Little Chug. Coming off his win in last weeks PA Shooting Dog Championship, Carson is off to a great start for owner Tom Wonderling and handler Bob Burchett. Third place went to Chesterfield's Molly, owned by Bo Ackerman and handled by Tom Tracy Jr. Diamond Hill She's Gone, owned by Paul and Lisa Pollock and handled by Lisa rounded out the field in forth place. On a side note, I believe that "Carson's" win in the PA Classic and Runner up in the International Classic finished him as the first Brittany Grand Field Champion. Congratulations to the

I'd like to thank Helen Riggle enduring the not so pleasant weather conditions to give us a full report of this stake.

BRACE 1: RICO'S HI PROOF BOOTLEGGER, "MASON"- BURCHETT & DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT, "BUCK"- TRACY: This was the brace to be in attendance for. Both dogs took off the line like rocket ships on the highest octane fuel. At 7 minutes, Mason was seemingly out of pocket as he swung high and to the left of the of the course as he hunted the first available wood line with glee. He was rounded up and pointed forward, catching the front at 15, maintaining a fast forward race the rest of his time on the ground. At 18 Mason had his first bird which he pointed and held with high style, taking a small step to mark the bird. A second find at 33 resulted in a small hop and he came unglued on the third at 47 when he succumbed to temptation and chased the bird up at the shot. Meanwhile Buck was putting on a show. His fast forward race kept the judges attention with his big run and zest for the fun. He had his first bird at 7, and a second at 33, finishing his hour as strong, if not stronger then when he started.

BRACE 2: TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG, "CARSON"- BURCHETT & WHISKEY'S LITTLE TIP, "TIP"-JOHNSON: Carson and Tip kept the judges attention from the get go. With a fast paced run, both dogs took the front early and set the pace at a good clip. This was a fun brace to witness, however, Tip gave the limelight to Carson by getting gone on deer at 10, returning to the front and judgment at 35, but he was birdless for the entire hour. Carson held a forward race, had his first bird at 35 taking small step at the flush. His second bird at 46 was held with perfect manners and he finished his hour going strong and away to the front.

BRACE 3: RICOCHET GUNSMOKES MR. DILLON, "DILLON"-BURCHETT & SHADY'S WOLF RIVER, "CHICK"- JOHNSON- Both dogs hunted hard off the line. Dillon would have a find at 43 but was picked up at 47 for a failure to back his bracemate. Chick went straight to work which resulted in a non productive at 18, a find at 43 and again at 47. She would end her brace early at 51 with a bump to flush.

BRACE 4: HIGH HOPES DARK NITE, "JOE"-JOHNSON & AGUSTUS OF TIGER, "GUS" - TRACY: Joe and Gus showed the judges that run was and could be fun. Unfortunately for Gus his bog forward race would be just that, a race and he would go birdless for his entire hour. Joey on the other hand, had a nice find at 18 that resulted in a hawk kill, another find at 51 that proved to be a pair of dead birds who had succumbed to the cold and weather and was picked up at 58 by his handler who knew he would not be in the money on this day.

BRACE 5: WILD MTN'S MIDNIGHT RENDEZVOUS "JOSEY"-BURCHETT & JAZZ'S SWEETEST LITTLE SECRET "KARO"- JOHNSON: Both dogs had a good start, hitting the trail in pure hunting mode. Josey's range was shorter then Karo's but both dogs went straight to work. At 36 Josey was picked up for a bump to flush and Karo would continue on the course alone. At 18 she had a nice find that resulted in a self release to relocate the bird which knocked the rest of her nice ground game performance out of contention.

BRACE 6: LOST CREEK CAST A SHADOW, "COOPER"-BURCHETT & TLM TALL TALE, "SAM"- TRACY: Not much to say about these two. Copper was picked up at 18 and Sam was picked up at 7 for lack of manners on their birds. It was a short brace.

BRACE 7: SNIKSOH SALLY, "SALLY"-BURCHETT & DIAMOND HILL DEUCE'S GONE WILD, "COOTER"-POLLOCK: These two dogs took off the starting line on a mission. Cooter would take an early lead, getting out of pocket by taking a wide swing to the South, covering ground and hunting hard. He was seen at 12 coming up the first wood line by the judges and this reporter, charging hard to the front . He maintained his hard charge for 44 minutes when the handler elected to pick him for his non participation in the teamwork department. Sally on the other hand hunted nicely, covering ground, staying forward and showing how seasoned she was at the game. She had her first bird at 20, a dead find at 28, and at 44 took the reins and scooped a bird to bring to her handler for a lovely retrieve.

BRACE 8: CHESTERFIELD'S MOLLY "MOLLY"-TRACY & LEGACY'S TIME BANDIT "BANDIT"-JOHNSON: A hard launch off the break away took these two out and running in short order. Molly kept her forward race although she would give her handler a pretty good stretch on that handle with one piece of solid birdwork at 41 minutes to show for her efforts. She hunted hard and kept everyone perched high in the saddle to watch her performance. Bandit, too kept a nice forward race with his first point called at 8 minutes in a hawk kill. At 33 his point and subsequent relocation resulted in a Non Productive, and the handler elected to pick him up.

BRACE 9: HARPER'S WINDY CITY HARLEY QUINN "HARLEY"-BURCHETT & DIAMOND HILL SHE'S GONE "CLEO"-POLLOCK: Cleo would give the judges a very pretty performance on the ground, maintaining a forward ground game showing not only her bid ability but also her high style on her one find at 9 minutes. With lots of go juice left at the end of her hour, she kept a nice consistent pace all the way around the course. Harley on the other hand kept pace with Cleo, showing a pretty forward race, lots of power for the hour but he would ultimately go birdless.

BRACE 10: BLAZIN SHADOWS BAMA JAMA "JAMMIE"-BURCHETT & ROUSTABOUT'S NES QUICK "NESTLE"-TRACY: Not a brace that merited much notation. Both dogs had the best of intentions at the break away, taking off with purpose, however Jammie was not up to her usual snappy performance and was picked up at 20 minutes. Nestle too would fail to give us much to watch until the bird at 20 that was too much to resist.

BRACE 11: STARLIGHT'S BILLION TIMES BRIGHTER, "BILLIE"-BURCHETT & LOST CREEK STREAK, "STREAK"-TRACY: Another quick brace. Billie had a failure to launch, with a dead bird find at 9, and was picked up at 15. Streak took off the line hard but ripped a small covey at 10 and was ordered up.

BRACE 12: TNT'S BLAZIN SHOSHONI SHAKE N' BAKE, "BUBBA"-THOMAS & HI HOPE'S BIG GAMBLE, "RILEY"-JOHNSON: Bubba and Riley took off the start with gusto. Riley gained steam taking the front early and keeping it. He had a find at 8, again at 20, & a third at 41 with a hard mark to flight on this last one. He scorched the course and showed everyone what a championship ground game can look like. Bubba had a bird at 8, handling it well with his style and manner in order. He was picked up at 42 when he ran out of gas.

BRACE 13: WRIGLEY'S BODEMEISTER, "BODE"-BURCHETT & CORREDOR DORADO, "DEXTER"-TRACY: After a powerful launch from the break away, these two dogs settled in to hunt. Bode charged hard, slamming point at 8 on aw feather pile. He was released where he took his head again but at 20 was picked up for jumping in and putting the bird in the air. Dexter sailed the course, staying well to the front . As we reached the big pond, he had slipped out of handle and needed to be scouted up. Upon his return it was evident that his ears had fallen off and the handler elected to pick the boy up and try again another day.

BRACE 14: WILD MTN HEAD EM UP-MOVE EM OUT, "ROWDY"-BURCHETT & WILD MTN'S ALL THAT, "TUCKER"- RIGGLE: These two Liver boys went head to head from the get go. A couple of Screamin Demons, swapping the front between them in a head race which didn't last but 28 minutes when neither of them remembered their bird manners.

The Open All Age Classic followed under the jurisdiction of Jim Wallace and Chris Youngs. These two men gave their complete attention to the 22 entries, once again, under some very unpleasant weather conditions. Snow flurries on the second morning turned to a white out in the middle of the first brace. After a 3 hour wait, the sun came out and by day's end you would never have known it snowed! Welcome to Ohio in March!

This year's Champion was Uncle Kracker, owned by Bo Ackerman and handled by Tom Tracy, Jr. Tracy also handled the Runner up, Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou, owned by Tom and Debra Jagielski. Third place went to Kinwashkly Fat Bastard, owned by Bo Ackerman and Leslie Andreas and handled by Tracy. Bob Burchett handled forth place finisher Crescent City Girl for owners Barry ad Petra Steinmetz.

We'd once again like to thank all that made these events possible and hope to see everyone back next year!

CENTRAL

HEART OF ILLINOIS Jim Edgar Panther Creek SFWA Chandlerville, IL March 21-23, 2014

After lots of ice and snow all winter, we were pleased to hold our spring horseback field trial at Jim Edgar Panther Creek SFWA. We had great weather; cool for the dogs with a variety of temps for the people. We had a brisk north wind on Sunday and everyone appreciated heading south. Everyone agreed that it was great to get outside even if people, dogs and horses weren't exactly in shape.

We would like to thank the JEPC staff for keepin the water tanks full; our animals really appreciated the drinks! The dog wagon drivers, Jim DeMay and Brad Bucklin, kept things moving as they dropped off and picked up the dogs. Their diligence kept things running smoothly. Bird planters are a very important part of a field trial. Dean Haley, Dellis Doerr and Ken Heath did a super job. They seemed to know where the dogs would run to find those elusive quail. Bird work was plentiful. Many thanks go to our judges, who spent time in the saddle watching dogs and handlers to determine the best dogs in the stake. We would also like to thank all the participants who entered our trial. We appreciate all who were in attendance. Thanks to pro handlers, Bob Burchett and Chad Holman for their participation. Bob Appleman and Nevetta Salmons would like to thank everyone who helped at the trial. Our club members volunteered their time, equipment, and expertise to help build a successful trial. Thank you!

We will be holding our walking trial October 4-5, 2014 at Moraine View State Park followed by our fall horseback trial October 25-26, 2014 at JEPC SFWA. Put us on your calendar for this fall.

Double winners at our trial: Tom Jagielski had a good weekend with Splash's Fire Goddess (Pele) who won the OP and the AWP.

Julie Nelson placed fourth and third in the OP and AWP with Wild Mountain Masterpiece. Dogwoods Poppy owned by Todd Parmenter placed third and fourth in the Op and AWP. He also placed Dogwood Bo Derek twice fourth in the AWD and OD. Brad Bucklin was sure proud of Buck's Henri Neo with the third place in the OP and fourth in the AWD. Donna and Ed Janulis reported (pending AKC approval) a new FC. Odyssey's Ace of Hears placed second in the OAA and won the AAA. Always a tough competitor Sweetwater Murph's A Gambler, owned by Larry & Sue Bated, placed fourth in the OGD and third in the AGD. Mike Poehler and ANJ's Amazing Grace placed fourth in the AGD and second in the OGD.

LASALLE
Middle Forks FWA
Danville, IL
March 28-30, 2014

Lasalle's Spring field trial was held March 28-30 and hosted the Central futurity the day before so we had a very good entry. A big Thank You to all the people that stepped up every day to help on every little thing. Linda Thomas was up every morning getting coffee and breakfast items laid out and stayed to help with lunches. I don't think she has washed that many dishes in a long time! Thanks to Paul, Billie and Petra for lunches every day and Petra and Linda for putting together that last minute Saturday night dinner. It turned out great!

We were able to take advantage of all the amenities that have been added to the building at Middle Fork since the last time we were there. John Hott has done an amazing job grooming this area for trials, we are very lucky to have a person like him running an ILDNR location. Please take time to thank him if you can. The grounds were in terrific condition and provided many objectives for all the dogs.

Jay Walsh now knows how to drive a Gator better than anyone after many hours driving the dog wagon. Thanks to everyone that drove dog wagons, bird planted and line marshalled for us. Thanks to everyone that hauled ATVs and other equipment we needed, all at their own expense. This was a new experience for us with over and back courses. Very enlightening on how many people it takes to pull this off.

Great job everyone! (P.S., thanks Trenton for cleaning up my area and the parking lot!)

SPECIAL THANKS TO ALL THE JUDGES THAT WERE OUT THERE RAIN OR SHINE TO HELP US!

In the middle of this, we also hosted the Central Futurity even though none of us had dogs entered. Jennifer Robbins jumped in, took control and did an amazing job for the first time of running any event ever WOW!

LOTS of compliments on both events! I think everyone had a good time. Please, if anyone has feedback on holding this event at Middle Fork, please contact Harold Heather or myself with your ideas and suggestions.

AND the winners!

Region 17 Amateur All Age
Brittany Championship

Oliver Ranch
Eureka, Kansas
March 21, 2014

The magnificent Oliver Ranch in the Flint Hills of Kansas never seems to disappoint as an ideal Championship venue; perhaps its hills, valleys, open fields and scattering of trees give every opportunity for a dog to show his best. We were again fortunate to have the Region 17 Amateur Championship hosted by the Southern Kansas Brittany Club on these grounds. Last March was the club's first shot at it again (since the mid 1990s), when a winter storm halted the running in the middle of the stake and made conditions miserable. None of that was to be seen this year, but unfortunately several other factors made for a disappointing turnout this year, with only eight dogs to vie for the win. The judges were not left wanting for a Champion though; nearly every dog but had bird work to their credit, and the title became well contested.

The Southern Kansas Brittany Club does great work putting on quality events at the Oliver Ranch, and this one again came off without a hitch. They are fortunate to have several active and contributing members to make their trials always enjoyable and well regarded. Exclusive Pet Food and Williams Ace Hardware have been sponsoring this club's Championship stakes for several years, and their contributions are very much appreciated!

Two well-seasoned judges were chosen for this renewal of the Championship. Stan Truksa of Nebraska is well known to the Brittany world as a fellow competitor, hunter and judge; Mike Martin of Arkansas has also judged Championships for our dogs as well as many other pointing breeds, and he keeps us entertained all the while!

It would be a short day of running, but the conditions were ideal for the dogs, cool and Clear throughout the day. The second brace of the stake would be the one to set the standard for the Championship, as the 2009 ABC National Champion Primetime Outlaw Johnny (Cash), handled by owner Herb Rea, and the 2009 US Open Brittany Champion Jo-Lockapex Dark Roux Gumbo (Rue), handled by owner Dave Lincoln were away in a flash and wasted no time attacking the course. Taking full advantage of the open spaces, both dogs showed excellent range and speed from the start. Cash was out of pocket for several minutes as we crossed through a lower gate into the Bowl, but he returned in plenty of time as Rue was working impressively to the front. Cash scored first as he was found standing in statuesque style near a feeder at 17. Rock solid through the flush and shot, Cash was then released and no sooner had he caught the front than he encountered his bracemate Rue on point, and without assistance Cash honored his bracemate with excellent manners. Rue stood with head and tail high as Dave flushed his well-located birds, and both dogs were taken on to head up the hill and out of the Bowl. The dogs were well-matched in range and application for the next several minutes heading towards the hay meadow. Nearing the watershed, Cash made a big cast to the low ground as Rue stayed higher and claimed the front for his own. Rue was running on a string for Dave, staying forward while maintaining his range and speed through the hillsides, up over the next hill and back down into the west side of the Bowl. Meanwhile Cash worked down into the creek bottom and out of sight. The wait for him to appear paid off as he carded a small covey find before leaving the area. He met back up with front group as they re-entered the Bowl. Rue headed to the first tree line and disappeared for several minutes, but showed again perfectly at about 55, coming up a fence line near the north end of the Bowl just as Dave was getting ready to go look for him. Cash had cut back in range after catching the front, but at 58, he claimed a third find in the trees below the base of the Bowl. His style and manners were equal to his first find, 40 minutes earlier. The hour expired with the dogs heading up out of the Bowl onto the prairie hilltop. It was clear this would be the brace to beat, and the judges had a lot to talk about afterwards.

Third place was claimed by four-year-old MK's Magnificent Bandito, handled by Dave Lincoln for owners Bill and Mary Lynn Oliver. While Chico's range couldn't match that of the dogs placed above him, he was consistent and generally forward in his application and carded a find with good style in a batch of trees heading towards the hay meadow. He pointed again just before time in the west side of the Bow, but Dave couldn't produce a bird for him there.

Placed fourth by the judges was Dave Lincoln's own Bony Bud, coming from the first brace. Bud scored the first find of the stake, being found standing with high style under a big tree surrounded by small cedars at 13. He pointed a second time on the hillside below the high gate before we exited the Bowl, seeming unsure of himself but unwilling to move on. Dave attempted a flush but could not locate a bird here. Though Bud was often erratic in his application, he made some impressive casts during his hour and maintained his ground speed throughout.

2014 NEBRASKA
 BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP

Reporter: Wesley Felt

The 2014 running of the NEBRASKA BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP was held April 14-16, 2014 at the Branched Oak Field Trial Area near Raymond, Nebraska. The Nebraska Championship is hosted by the Nebraska Brittany Club and followed the regional club event held April 11-13, 2014.

There are some fine folks we need to mention for their contribution to the success of this Championship event. First and foremost, Claudia and Stan Truska, who are club members of the Nebraska Brittany Club. The Truska's devote their time to make this event one of the premier Brittany Championships in the Brittany world. Not only do they spend the year planning this event, but Claudia is the dog wagon driver extraordinaire and this year Stan added judicial duties along with being the bird planter.

The Branched Oak field trial grounds have a large lodge used to gather for socializing and meals. The meals are prepared by the Wagner family. Karen and George along with their daughter Kari prepare the lunches daily. If you have never attended this trial, it would be well worth the drive just for the food.

The sponsors for the Nebraska Brittany Championship are Purina and Sporting Dog. Purina gives both money toward the running of this event and Pro Plan products for the winners. Purina is fed to several dogs running in this event as testimony to the quality of feed used in the Pro Plan dog products. Jim Moorehouse from Sport Dog provided training collars to our winners. A Sport Hunter 1825 training collar to the Runner-up Champion and the Champion received the Pro Hunter 2525 training collar. We thank these sponsors for their continued support.

The judges for this year's event were Jim

Back Row: Judge Jim Douglas, Joyce Lincoln, Judge Stan Truksa, and reporter Wesley Felt

Douglas of Columbus, Nebraska and Stan Truksa from Firth, Nebraska. These two judges were up to the task of three days of riding through all kinds of weather to select the true all age competitors for this Championship.

Branched Oak Trial Grounds Area provides ample space to show a true all age bird dog. The judges had several dogs to choose from with the all-age range, intensity on birds pointed, and the handling necessary to be named as the Champion and Runner-up Champion.

The entry list for this event numbered thirty-five dogs. The Champion named for the 2014 Nebraska Brittany Championship was OCAJE. OCAJE is a five-year-old female owned by Terry Gowin from Kansas. OCAJE was handled by Scott Johnson from Kansas. OCAJE ran brace fifteen on Wednesday morning. The Runner-up Champion was SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT also handled by Scott Johnson. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT is an eight-year-old male and owned by Rick and Janice Connor of Texas. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT ran in brace six on Monday afternoon. Third place was awarded to JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO owned and handled by David Lincoln of Colorado. JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO was released in brace seven on Tuesday morning. FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE was Fourth place and handled by Ed Tillson of New Mexico. FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE ran brace two on Monday and is owned by Andrea Christensen of Colorado.

We began the Championship one hour late because of the icy bridges we travel during this hour stake. The calendar says spring but the temperature was 28 degrees with a slight snow cover left behind from Sunday night. The temperature and strong winds did not seem to hurt bird finding on Monday as nine of the twelve dogs had bird contact.

The second day we began with a new daily low for the area near Raymond, which was 23 degrees. On Tuesday, birds were sparse throughout the day with only three of the twelve dogs having bird contact. The strong wind shifted from the north around to the south during the day, which changed the scenting condition.

Wednesday was the warmest day of the three days. The first brace for the day broke away with temperatures at 45 degrees. We still had strong winds from the west, which helped to locate birds. Wednesday the bird contacts were back up to five dogs for the eleven dogs that ran.

The Championship:

BRACE 1: WHIZKI'S STING- HOLMAN AND SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY- BURCHETT. WHIZKI'S STING worked hard for 56 minutes to find his first bird. The bird was buried in the bushes near the creek and with bird flight, a shot was fired, and he was taken on to finish the hour going to the front. SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY had his first find early in the hour and at 30 was picked up for breach of manners on his second find.

BRACE 2: FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE- TILLSON AND MCCHESENEY'S I GOT MY MOJO WORKING- JOHN. FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE pointed a bird at four minutes with all in good order. He hunted hard to the front and at 47 point was called, no birds found. He finished the hour strong. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as he was awarded fourth place. MCCHESENEY'S I GOT MY MOJO WORKING had a bird at 12 and 30 with all in order. MCCHESENEY'S I GOT MY MOJO WORKING was hunting to front when he went on point at 43. The handler was not pleased with the bird work and elected to pick him up.

BRACE 3: WAYSIDE'S BLUERIDGE RUNNER- JOHNSON AND JAC'S OVER ACES- HOLMAN. WAYSIDE'S BLUERIDGE RUNNER pointed at fifteen. Handler could not locate bird and released for relocation which ended in a breach of manners. JAC'S OVER ACES was not pleasing the handler and was picked-up before the hour ended.

BRACE 4: SNIKSOH SALLY-BURCHETT AND REDROCK'S SIEMIC SNIKSOH-LINCOLN. SNIKSOH SALLY pointed at eight and found the bird too tempting and was sent to the dog wagon for her breach of manners. REDROCK'S SIEMIC SNIKSOH had a good find at seven. He lost contact with his handler and the handler called for the tracker at 46.

BRACE 5: BLACK CREEK DEACON- HOLMAN AND JOKER'S JACKPOT- JOHN. Both BLACK CREEK DEACON and JOKER'S JACKPOT hunted far and wide but went the hour without bird contact.

BRACE 6: TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG- BURCHETT AND SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT- JOHNSON. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG had a back at 47. He was sent on but decided he would investigate where the bird flew and was sent to the dog wagon. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT had birds at 15 and 47 with intensity and good manners. He pointed at 58 minutes with only feathers to be found and finished the hour going forward. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as he was named the Runner-Up Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship.

BRACE 7: JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO- LINCOLN AND SHADOW ATTACK-TILLSON. JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX

GUMBO went on point at the ten minute mark. Handler had to relocate to pin the bird down and the flight and shot went well. JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO showed fifty more minutes of all age desire and hunting and finished the hour. JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO performance was enjoyed by the judges and received third place. SHADOW ATTACK pointed at four minutes and handler was unable to produce a bird. Handler elected to pick-up before the hour ended.

BRACE 8: BLACK CREEK BLAZE-HOLMAN AND KJ'S DARLIN DARCY-BURCHETT. BLACK CREEK BLAZE pointed at 18 with the handler locating a weak bird, toss and fired. BLACK CREEK BLAZE completed the hour. KJ'S DARLIN DARCY ran the hour with all-age moves but without bird contact.

BRACE 9: BLUERIDGE HUNTER GONNA FLY- JOHNSON AND TNT'S BLAZING SHOSHONI SHAKE N BAKE- THOMAS. BLUERIDGE HUNTER GONNA FLY had a stop to flush at 35 and at 47 went on point with the handler taking him on after a thorough search with no bird. He finished the hour going strong to the front. TNT'S BLAZING SHOSHONI SHAKE N BAKE hunted wide and far and finished the hour without bird contact.

BRACE 10: ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS-HOLMAN AND TEQUILA SCORCHER-TILLSON. ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS was hunting the right places and was getting stronger when the handler lost contact and at 51 the tracker came out. TEQUILA SCORCHER had some good moves early in the hour, but slowed and handler elected to pick-up before the hour.

BRACE 11: SHADY WAY'S RED TAIL HAWK- JOHN AND CAPTAIN FINN-BURCHETT. SHADY WAY'S RED TAIL HAWK started going left as the handler had to go right to get around the dam. SHADY WAY'S RED TAIL HAWK and handler did not get together on the other side of the dam and the tracker was turned on at midpoint of the hour. CAPTAIN FINN'S nonproductives at 33 and 52 cut his day short as the handler elected to pick up at 52.

BRACE 12: STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA- BURCHETT AND ROUX-BEE-TILLSON. STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA charged forward from the breakaway. At 19, handler requested the tracker to end his hour. ROUX-BEE was picked up before the hour ended.

BRACE 13: HAL-J'S SMARTEYE'S JOKER'S EZ ACE- JOHN AND HI POINT BET'N HE'LL ROCK- HOLMAN. HAL-J'S SMARTEYE'S JOKER'S EZ ACE was forward at 8 when he went on point. Handler fired and we went on to show what an all age is to do. Unfortunately at 41 he was seen under a bird and was sent to the dog wagon. HI POINT BET'N HE'LL ROCK went on point at 43 and when the birds were flushed it was too tempting and he found his way to the dog wagon.

BRACE 14: WIMBERLEY ROWDY BO-DANDY- JOHNSON AND KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY- BURCHETT. WIMBERLEY ROWDY BO-DANDY was searching wide and far and at 38 lost contact with the handler and the tracker was turned on. KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY had a good run at it until 28 when he and the handler lost contact and called for the tracker.

BRACE 15: OCAJE- JOHNSON AND SANDY PINE CHASE THE WIND- HOLMAN. OCAJE had birds at 6, 13, and 38 with style and manners. OCAJE's application was true all age. Her performance was enjoyed by the judges and she was awarded the highest honor as Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship. SANDY PINE CHASE THE WIND pointed twice in the hour, the first was along the perimeter fence line of the trial grounds. Looked like a likely place for a pheasant. Handler could not find the bird and was sent on. At 41, point called with no birds located.

BRACE 16: TNT'S SIRIUS RENEGADE BUDDY BOY- THOMAS AND POWDER RIVER'S TRI UR LUCK- JOHN. TNT'S SIRIUS RENEGADE BUDDY BOY had a point at 44 with all in good manners and finished the hour. POWDER RIVER'S TRI UR LUCK had a non-productive at 47 and handler elected to pick him up.

BRACE 17: CARPE DIEM- LINCOLN AND KINWASHKLY DIRTY NED PEPPER-JOHNSON. CARPE DIEM ran the hour with purpose and hunted hard but completed the hour with no bird contact. KINWASHKLY DIRTY NED PEPPER was forward early always getting wider and at 28 the handler lost contact and turned on the tracker.

BRACE 18: CRESCENT CITY GIRL-BURCHETT AND BYE. CRESCENT CITY GIRL was doing a good job and at 26 pointed and before handler could get to the area, she took out the bird to end the Nebraska Brittany Championship.

WASHINGTON
BLM Goose Butte MGMT Unit
Ritzville, WA
April 18-20, 2014

This was WBC's largest Spring Field Trial ever with 112 entries. When the entries kept arriving, the FT Secretary contacted AKC to add a third day to our trial. Thank you AKC for approving our three-day trial! We were able to accommodate all of our entries without oversteering dogs, horses, handlers, and bird planters!

Aside from the placements, one of the main highlights of the trial was the outstanding meals provided by WBC members. Marilynn Little served her homemade spaghetti sauce and angel hair Friday night. Pam Battin served homemade sausage & egg breakfast sandwiches both Saturday & Sunday mornings. John & Char Benedict spent all day Saturday cooking John's Famous Vegetable Beef Soup and Char making her great homemade coleslaw. To top it all off, Tammy Robertson, WBC member, made her well-loved blueberry cobblers for dessert Friday and Saturday nights and orange rolls Sunday morning. We all probably gained weight, just have to get out there and run more dogs!

Another special highlight of this trial was having Jan and Claude Kilpatrick travel from Hico, TX to visit and trial with all of their old NW friends. Really great to see you both!

Many thanks to the OBC, IBC and WBC club members for all their efforts helping with this large field trial. See you in the fall. Happy Trialing 'til then!

Clem Little
 FT Chairman

TEXAS COASTAL

Houston, TX

March 14, 2014

Our spring specialty show was again held with the Houston Combined Specialty Association shows at the Houston Farm & Ranch Club in Houston, Texas. The weather was spring-like, breeze and the arena was in great shape. We sincerely thank our judge and our Brittany friends and supporters for attending this show. Although our entry was small, it was a quality entry.

Mr. Brian Meyer from Cherry Valley, IL did an excellent job of judging his 11 entrants. We are thankful that he was able to judge in place of Mrs. Chris Walkowicz. Although she couldn't attend, she was kind enough to offer for Best of Breed a copy of the book she authored, "Dog Show Judging".

Mr. Meyer selected Sanbar's Wings of Thor as his Winners Dog and best of Winners, owned by our president James Barrett. He also selected Gourley's Madrigal Bells as his Winners Bitch and Best of Opposite Sex, owned by Wm. Wesselse and D. and C. Gourley.

Best of Breed was awarded to CH Hickory Hill's Gunpowder N Lead, bred and owned by Anne and Marla Parchman. He is now a Grand Champion!

Thank you to all who attended our show especially our ring steward Sherry Wallis and her assistant Barbara Stelle.

AND, we cannot forget our generous trophy donors James Barrett, Steve Hintzel, Fred Brooks, Robert Power and Jim and Mary Crawford. Thank you for supporting our show. Hope to see you in July at the Houston World Series of Dog Shows!

WESTERN MICHIGAN

Ionia, Michigan

March 28, 2014

The Winter of 2013/2014 was a challenge for most of the country. It resulted in WMBC having to cancel the spring trial due to conditions. Since we had no field trial, we could have no dual dog award winner for 2014. We were fortunate that the rain left us prior to the show which made things easier for our club to set-up the show and easier for exhibitors getting their dogs and equipment into the show site.

Our judge this year was Donna Ernst, a Golden Retriever and Smooth Fox Terrier breeder from Ohio. While we had a small entry due to the conflict with the Central Futurity Show, we had some quality dogs for Donna to preside over. Donna was extremely welcoming to handler and dogs alike and that is always appreciated at a show, especially a specialty.

Best of Breed went to GCH Premier's The Chosen One of Dream Hi owned by Charles & Deborah Walters & Kristina Rikar. Jake's movement won the day along with Charlie's expert handling. Best of Winners went to our winner of the 9-12 Month Puppy Bitch class, Wild Mountain Masterpiece, owned and handled by Julie Nelson of Illinois. Best of Opposite was awarded to CH Hurricane Little Feat owned and handled by Kelly Woerfel of Michigan.

We served a chicken dinner prior to the show with a full complement of desserts, highlighted by a cake celebrating Renegade Kennel's three 2013 New Champions! We also celebrated the club's award winners for 2013 prior to the start of judging, handing out the three New Champion plaques, a New Field Champion plaque and a 2013 Dual Dog Award! Congratulations to Dawn Dye and Andrew Whitcomb on their new champion, Becky and Ken Harris on their new champion and Ashlee Whitcomb and Diana Kubitz on theirs. Hearty congratulations to Burt and Chelly Mccandless for their new field champion and Dual Award winner!

Thank you is never a big enough word to express the gratitude to those club members for helping with the show and for the loyal exhibitors who supported our show. Our specialty has been held for many, many years in conjunction with our trial and we have people attend that never miss our show. We appreciate you very much for your years of support!

Mark your calendars for October 20th, 2014 for the combined specialties of WMBC and MBC on that same date; it's your opportunity for two majors in one day! Don't miss out on this and the chance to go to the National Gun Dog Championship that starts the next day. Lots of events, lots of fun and great people!

Northern New England Brittany Club was proud to contribute an evening of dual concept competition to the New England Brittany Challenge by hosting their first Independent Specialty Show on Thursday, April 17, 2014, in East Windsor, Connecticut, at the Clarion Hotel, Eastern Futurity prospects combined with the best dogs of the northeast made for a show of exceptional quality and competition. Mrs. Lynn Thomas began the judging with Puppy Sweepstakes and decided on Kinship's Triumphant Pursuit, owned by Kim Hatton, as Best in Sweepstakes and decided on Kinship's Triumphant Pursuit, owned by Kim Hatton, as Best in Sweepstakes, and Mt. View's Snow White as Best of Opposite. The Veteran, CH Brookewood's Hopes and Dreams, owned by Tiffany and Tom Bass, was ably handled by a junior to Best in Veteran Sweepstakes.

Mrs. Judy Harrington stepped up to the task of finding the ideal Brittany of the night. Her choices went from north to south with Top Shelf's Has to be Magic, owned by Sharon Buehler of New York taking the four point major as Winners Dog from the 9-12 Month class, and Reserve going to Ammo's Southern Boogie owned by Sandra Leavens hailing from Georgia.

The trend continued with Horizon's Finding Neverland, owned by Jason Scholten of Maine, named Winners Bitch and Best of Winners, and Sigbrit's She's A Lady JH, owned by Bobbie Sigmund of North Carolina, chosen for the major Reserve.

A stunning field of specials filled the ring for the Breed competition. Ultimately the judge decided on GCH Millette's Sweet Memories, owned by Wendy Archinal, as Best of Breed. Best of Opposite was GCH/DC/AFC Diamond Hill Dangerous Man, owned by Lisa Pollock. Select Dog was GCHJ/DC Triumphant's Absolut' on Ice, Linda McCartney-Roy. Select Bitch was GCH Triumphant Absolute Liberty of Kinship, Kim Hatton. Awards of Merit were presented to CH Black diamond Suncliffe Rumor Has It, CH Labyrinth N Illusion Kiss my Benelli, Horizon's Straight on til Morning, and CH Mt Views Finnegan the Hooligan. Best Puppy was awarded to Top Shelf's Has to be Magic.

The success of this show can be attributed to the core of NNEBC members. Linda McCartney-Roy was the driving force that started it all, and then she took on the jobs of mailing lists, premium development, trophy fundraising, silent auction, making all the fabulous dog beds, chief ring steward, and countless other tasks. The show could not go on without the organizational genius of Peggy Aguiar who did spreadsheets, ribbons, entry confirmations, judging programs, catalogs, tags, toys, prize prep and made sure every detail was accounted for and every contingency was covered. Thank you to Patty Godbout, club secretary, and to Priscilla Thibodeau, who ran a great raffle table, managed the hospitality table, and baked all the sweets as well. A special thanks to Rita Poland, club treasurer, who donated the beautiful quilt she made for the silent auction; to Linda Holcomb who shared her vintage pieces; to all the benefactors who sponsored our trophies; Purina Pro Plan; and to the members of SNEBC for their cooperation in this venture. It was an honor to work with these selfless and devoted people who gave so much time and effort to produce this wonderful event. It certainly set the bar for the future

Part Three Generation to Generation

Tillis Tile: A Parable
Part One

Herb Price had seen it coming for a decade, relentless as a glacier. But when it finally happened, it was still a shock. Not so much that it happened, but the way it happened—sneaky and sudden, like when a cottonmouth falls off a cypress limb into your johnboat.

What Herb had seen coming were Sam Tillis' children—his son Sam, Jr. (known to every one in Columbus, Georgia, as Sammy) and his daughters, Mae and Mavis—Coming to take control of Sam's company, Tillis Tile.

Sam had gone to work for the little company after finishing Georgia Tech on the GI Bill, then bought it from the owner's widow with borrowed money, saved it from collapse, built it into a fine business. Herb had been a foreman in the plant; Sam had seen his real talent and moved him to Tillis Farm, twenty miles west on the Alabama side of the Chattahoochee. He'd been in charge there twenty years now. Tillis Farm was a key to the success of the Tillis Tile business; nothing cemented customer loyalty like quail hunting.

In appearance, Tillis Farm was a modest place. The hunting guests lodged in an old clapboard farm house. Among the live oaks stood weathered stables for Tennessee Walkers, kennels for the bird dogs, machinery sheds, and two bungalows, homes of the Price and Morris families.

Hattie and Big Man Morris and their son, Little Man, teamed with Herb Price and his wife Ellen to make Tillis Farm the most admired shooting place in southeast Alabama. Hattie and Ellen handled the inside hospitality for shooting guests; Herb, Big Man and Little Man looked after the hunting and the farming that supported it. At 5'3" Big Man's name at first seemed sarcastic, until you realized he was as strong as any mule on the farm. In contrast, Little Man stood 6'3" with his father's strength and his mother's sunny disposition. Both were good hands with a horse, a dog and all things mechanical.

They farmed for the benefit of quail, dove and turkey, following practices of a man named Stoddard, who worked for rich Yankee Landowners early in the century. The hunting was managed with all the care and ritual of a British shooting estate, but less formality. Courtesy and safety were the guiding rules, grand fun the result. Only one mounted party of three or four hunters shot quail on any day, only two guns down for any point. The hunting days were divided equally among Sam, Sammy and Sam's two sons-in-law, who also worked at Tillis Tile. Each used his shooting days with customers and suppliers.

Quail hunting provides a reliable test of manners and integrity. Shooting a bird on the other man's side of the invisible line, swinging a gun toward a horse holder, taking one over the limit—all speak volumes about the shooter.

Herb Price saw all the tests and passed the scores to Sam Tillis.

Sammy and the sons-in-law took Herb Price for granted, talked freely around him. That's how Herb learned of the burning desire of the younger generation to take control of Tillis Tile; this he never mentioned to Sam, but he figured Sam knew it anyhow.

The younger generation struck on that last day of the quail season in 1993. The hunters had been Sam, Sammy and Billy Edge, a man Herb Price liked less than any of the regular guests at Tillis Farm. A college classmate of Sammy's at Auburn, Billy had gone on to Harvard Law School, then jointed the Columbus law firm of Sam's lifelong friend and lawyer, now semiretired. Billy Edge was now the family's principal lawyer. Herb's dislike of Billy had begun on Thanksgiving Day of Sammy and Billy's junior year at Auburn, when Billy had shot a low flying bird and put three number eight shot in the left ear of Ike, Herb's favorite pointer of that era. Herb had marked Billy down as too aggressive, too selfish—in short as a prick. His opinion hadn't changed in the fifteen years since.

Today the hunting had been slow, as is often the case in late February when the deep south spring is around the corner. After the hunt, all were gathered in the gun room for a presupper bourbon when Billy made his pitch for the younger generation.

"Mr. Sam, the Internal Revenue Service has finally ruled that when a controlling stockholder gives some of his stock to each of three children and leaves himself with less than 50%, the three gifts carry a minority interest discount. So you can give a little more voting stock to Sammy and Mae and Mavis, discounted say 40%. Then your 49% stake gets the same discount when you pass on...I figure it would save the family about $10 million in estate taxes...and of course nothin' changes except on paper."

Sam looked contemplatively at Billy Edge and then at Sammy, who held his breath.

"All Right. Draw up the papers. I'm also steppin' down as CEO. Sammy, you'll go from Executive V.P. to President. I'll stay on the board a while—if you and your sisters will let me—but I won't get in your way.

"By the way, Billy, what's this new IRS rulin' called?"

"It's Revenue Ruling 93-12, sir—I'll fax you a copy."

That lawyer sounds like a car salesman just closin' a sale to a lottery winner, Herb Price thought.

Spring came quickly to south Alabama. Sam came daily to Tillis Farm to fish the millpond, often bringing a grandchild. Meanwhile, Herb, Big Man and Little Man worked day and night with drip torch, tractor and fire-brake disk, burning the pinewoods understory with help from neighbors who gave their labor in exchange for deer-hunting permission. As Sam fly cast a popping bug among the cypress knees and a grandchild stared at the bobber on a cane pole, the smoke wafted across the millpond like mist.

The coveys disbursed into mating pairs, and at sunset their bobwhite calls drifted across Tillis Farm as Sam eased the skiff into the boathouse with a livewell of bream. At the cleaning station on the dock, the grandchild scaled while Sam cleaned the catch, throwing the heads and innards to the turtles treading water beneath the surface. Soon Hattie Morris had the bream swarthed in cornmeal and sizzling in the skillet. With sweet onions, coleslaw and cornpone cakes on the side, Sam, Herb and the grandchild ate fish by hand 'til the platter held only skeletons.

"How things goin' at the company?" Herb asked Sam one evening, trying to sound casual.

"Oh, they're all right I think. New brooms bein' readied, lots of meeting's behind closed doors. By the way, Herb, here's something for you to put in a safe place."

With that Sam handed Herb an envelope. On it in Sam's handwriting was written:

For Mr. Herbert Price. Important. To be opened on death of Sam Tillis.

As spring progressed, Sam introduced the grandchildren to late night frog gigging and coon hunts with Little Man and his champion hound Rufus. By day he worked beside Ellen Price and Hattie Morris in the big vegetable garden and tended the rose garden that had been his wife's delight until her death two years before. Every morning as he drove the farm lane, the smell of honeysuckle greeted him, and his spirits lifted. The farm was a sea of green, dusted with blossoms of every hew.

Among Sam's favorite inhabitants at Tillis Farm had always been the owls; now he introduced them to the grandchildren. Just before full darkness overcame dusk, Sam and a grandchild took stations in a grove of towering longleaf pines and listened for mating calls.

"Watch there now, you'll see one." A gray streak swooped silently to skim the ground, then rose to light in the dense crown of a pine where a mate perched in waiting. After full dark Sam turned on his flashlight, and the eyes of the owls glowed in the treetops, to the glee of the grandchild and Sam.

"Don't they eat your quail, Daddy Sam?"

"A few maybe, but they do more good than harm—they get the mice and snakes.

Early in the mornings, Sam walked the January-whelped bird-dog puppies, introducing them to the smells and sights of Tillis Farm, bugs, butterflies, frogs, terrapins, garter snakes.

Meanwhile, Herb Price, Big Man and Little Man planted plots of quail and dove food—McCurdy pea, Egyptian wheat, corn, chufa, sunflowers. When in May they harvested coastal Bermuda grass hay for the horses and mules, Sam drove the tractor that pulled the hay wagon; the smell of the hay brought Sam memories of his teen years on his father's farm.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

The difference between a good dog and a gun dog isn't all DNA.

My dog has been pointing since she was 8 weeks. I like to think the rest of her abilities I installed myself. With a little help from my Delta Upland™ from Garmin with Tri-Tronics® technology, of course. Delta Upland lets me train with momentary and continuous stim, tone and pulse and adds a powerful upland beeper that tells me where my dog is and if she's on point, all controllable with the handheld. And with an integrated BarkLimiter™, I can even take credit for a calmer quieter kennel at home.
