DISCOVER A BREAKTHROUGH INNOVATION FOR DOGS 7 AND OLDER

THE INSIGHT

around age 7, a dog's glucose metabolism in the brain begins to change, which can affect memory, learning, awareness or decision-making.

PURINA DISCOVERED

enhanced botanical oils can be used as an additional energy source for the brain in dogs age 7+.

THE RESULTS

when added to the daily diet of dogs seven and older:

PROMOTED

- Memory • Attention
- Trainability

DIFFERENCES YOU MAY SEE IN YOUR DOG:

- Interaction with you
- Interest in playing
- Ability to adapt and cope with change

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Thrill of the Hunt and Lessons Learned

By Robert H. Robinson, PhD
Director, Washington Brittany Club

And there at the top of a slight bluff, were our friends from the Washington Brittany Club cheering Rudy's performance at our first Hunt Test. These were the colleagues that encouraged and mentored us, provided instructions as to the course, advised us on how to approach the event, and loaned us equipment. However, the story to understanding the mind of a Brittany and the path to successful club camaraderie started six years earlier.

When I retired I knew that I wanted a dog for a companion. The general requirements were that the new puppy be of moderate size, attractive, little maintenance, non-sedentary, alert, and trainable. We assembled a list of about six breeds and settled on a Brittany. Fortunately, there was a litter advertised in the paper. We made a couple of visits to the breeder and settled on the last available pup, Rudy, that for possibly coincidental reasons was by far the largest and sleeping alone. I suspect that the breeders Guy and Jodi Pollack were quite reticent about this proposed relationship, but we assured them that we had a large fenced yard and had previously owned terriers. Among the papers the Pollacks provided was a membership application to the Washington Brittany Club.

*Rudy's first Hunt Test

We joined the WBC, but pursued my adolescent passion for obedience and dabbled in agility and nose-work. Obedience training has changed dramatically the past thirty years. It took a bit to adjust from the Kohler method with which I was acquainted to the more contemporary "positive approach". Whereas treats are discouraged with Kohler, under the positive approach they are encouraged, and often used extensively. Some trainers prefer hot-dogs and canned cheese. Indeed high-valued treats/cookies can have a stunning impact on the dog's response. Treats are also used in agility, nose-work, and fly-ball training, but not in their respective competitive events.

Rudy has done well in obedience, but those accomplishments are not particularly important to this story. This past year my friends from the WBC encouraged me to enter Rudy in our fun-day event Quailorama. It was then that I finally understood and appreciated the DNA breed into a Brittany. Rudy's consuming joy in the field to locate and point Chukers was an impressive display of bred talent and athleticism. Following the fun-day, we were encouraged to enter the Club's 2015 Fall Hunt Tests. If it were not for the mentorship of my friends in the Club, I am afraid the event would have been an incredible and unforgivable display of my ignorance. However, my Club friends insisted on orange clothing, loaned us a "cap pistol", suggested a vest with a back pocket for the downed birds (convinced that we would be bringing no bird back I left the vest behind). We then walked over to the bluff that looks out onto the "test grounds", and they explained to me the process of generally, within reasonable bounds, letting Rudy do his thing and to be sure to fire the gun when the indications were that he is on point and there is a bird. Sure enough within a short period Rudy discovered a bird, pointed it briefly, but when I arrived held it down under foot. I remembered to shoot the pistol, but in the excitement in the air rather than the ground. As there was no vest pocket for the very much live bird, I returned to the bluff with the live bird in one hand, the pistol in the other and Rudy heeling off lead. Our friends at the top were thrilled with our, especially Rudy's, performance. The second outing the next day was much a repeat, but the special help came from the judge, who when he caught me running toward Rudy asked that I not run, because should I fall it would not do him any good. Later the same judge suggested that I let him run, as Rudy would demonstrate his ability. Sure enough! He was not having much luck in the test field but he had earlier in the run detected something just outside the field. He returned to that area and began pointing. He had to be at least 50 yards away, and while approaching him I said -- "stay", "stay" as he knew from obedience that the command meant to freeze when in a standing position. And we repeated the previous day's walk back to the starting point. At one time, when Rudy was scooping up another bird, my brace mate told me to shoot my gun. She is an exceedingly kind and knowledgeable young lady who is a professional trainer in Ellensburg.

I suspect this story isn't significantly different from those of other beginners, and my reasons for telling it is that I think there are a couple of important lessons:

First, if a Brittany club is to grow, it must reach out to new people in a very personal and direct manner. Generally speaking, the experience of WBC is that the initial contact person for potential members is a current member, particularly breeders. Regardless, the leadership of the club has the responsibility to reach out to the new members to ascertain their particular interests and get them involved in the events and hopefully some of the many event chores.

Second, there appears to be nothing in obedience for which a dog might be trained that will mitigate that dogs interest and ability to hunt. Surely, the sample size (one dog in two hunt tests is inadequate) but Rudy, while in the field, demonstrated no interest in treats. Periodically he would look back to check-in, a trait developed with the obedience "go-out" command. When it happened, part of the fun was to apply several of the advanced obedience commands: The left and right hand and arm commands to direct the dog over the bar jump or the barrier jump were readily understood by Rudy to mean work to the left or to the right. These hand signals were supplemented with a whistle command – one short blast for left, and two short blasts for right. The stay command with the dog standing seemed to extend the length of time Rudy would remain on point. Despite the one-off experience, I think it important to understand that obedience training, particularly the basics required by the AKC Canine Good Citizen program, can be a very positive symbiotic contribution to the performance of the field dog.

ATTENTION FIELD TRIAL CHAIRMAN & SECRETARIES

1. Please use the ABC report form when filling out your field trial report. The form is available for download at <http://clubs.akc.org/brit/forms/FieldTrialReportForm.doc> (If you cannot download, ask Mary Jo to mail you one to copy.)

If this form is NOT used, we have no idea if the stake was an HOUR stake or if the handler was an AMATEUR. If we don't have the correct data, then we might miss a dogs points for the Purina Award and worse yet may miss a dog getting its qualifications for the Nationals. We don't want that to happen, so we're asking for your help. Please contact your club field trial chairman and secretaries and tell them to use this form when filling out placements and getting judges signatures. The added plus is that this form can then be copied and sent to AKC, ABC, the American Field, and the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America.

2. You also need to include a copy of the Secretary's Reporting page to AKC so that we know which stakes you actually ran and which were canceled. We can't tell if you forgot to include the sheet for a stake or if the stake was canceled and this necessitates writing and asking. Please save us some time and let us know if stakes are canceled.

3. ABC does not need copies of Judges' Affirmation Forms or entry blanks. You do not need to type results separately, just use the correct form.

We really appreciate those many clubs who already use the ABC form.

Mary Jo Trimble, Executive Secretary
Steve Ralph, Purina Points & Webmaster
Mary Karbiner, Statistician

A SPORTSMAN'S RAMBLINGS

by Marty Garrell

In our brave new world of electronic awareness no one hides. Thanks to I-phones, GPS devices, and roving earth satellites, the old adage, “Wherever you go, there you are!” has never been more true.

The situation has its consequences in the outdoors. To be sure, responders perform life-saving rescues that would have been next to impossible decades ago, especially in the mountains or on the water. Unfortunately locations one wishes to keep secret no longer remain secret for long. Not so many years ago, a skipper who marked distant wrecks offshore kept the coordinates written down in a little black book and was sure those targets would continue to produce. The best captains knew how to steal away from a fleet of competitors in the darkness or fog and take a circuitous route, often over the horizon, to get on a choice piece of bottom and fish it in private. Sailing out of Orient, Rich Jensen, on a night bass trip years ago, would sometimes extinguish all deck lights and quietly move away from the fleet drifting the Race. The customer who tried to steal a peek inside the cabin to see the GPS coordinates on the skipper’s screen would not only be subject to reprimand; he or she might be banned from the boat from then on. Now, of course, all one has to do is sneak a cell phone with GPS from a pocket and click a couple of times to record the hallowed coordinates.

The same holds for hunters. When we hunted in our teens, we learned a special drill, being driven over back roads with all sorts of crazy turns and detours, before stopping at some strange location and marching off into unfamiliar territory that only our mentors or guides knew. Sometimes this felt like a Godfather film in which you were sitting between the Corliones in the back seat. We never were blindfolded, however. To get back to the car after the hunt, you employed a compass and so-called “woods skills.” It was understood that those areas “belonged” to the host who brought you there and that, even if you eventually figured out where you were, you would never return without him or her. If you wanted to look at that cover for dog training after the hunting season was over, you might ask the host with the understanding that only you and your kin, but never other outdoor companions, would have permission to do so. In today’s world the guide who takes “sports” onto select farms or into select covers knows the risk is high that those spots will no longer be well-kept secrets. The old guide dreads the morning he or she pulls off the highway and finds a couple of cars parked along the side road leading to the sacred spot.

One problem for all of us in the outdoors, especially with an increasing population and decreasing availability of lands and waters, is the lack of ethics. Competition breeds selfishness, so it seems. On the water any skipper with sense knows enough to quit fishing when guests or fares have had their share of fish. Pounding a bottom piece until all the fish are either gone or spooked is tantamount to stripping a forest. It takes a while for the “growth” to return, and it’s often not the best kind of shrubbery, either. The recent rape of parts of Georges Banks and the Grand Banks killed one of the world’s greatest fisheries, one that had produced for half a millennium. Cod stocks have been replaced by dogfish and skates.

Even where the sport doesn’t involve outright removal of species, the groups that come in after areas are pounded often dine on “slim pickings”. Cover dog trials have now become one of the most popular pointing dog competitions, but lots and lots of groups are getting into the act, holding one trial after another, sending dogs through the same area to find and point wild birds, usually grouse and woodcock. (In this exercise, the dogs point and hold birds until handlers come up, find the dogs, flush the birds, fire blank pistols, and take the dogs off to find more birds. No birds are harmed, and everybody gets a lot of exercise, walking tens of miles in the woods.) But recently, certain clubs have grabbed so many days for so many trials that there is literally no time between them. Last year our group of Brittans got squeezed into a time slot behind a group of pointers and setters that pounded the area for a full five days without letup. The result was predictable: schizophrenic grouse and bird work that was at best “dodgy”. We felt like we were fishing downstream for trout right behind a bait fisher who’s trying to catch enough for a “feed”.

Acting ethically and learning to share seem to be things of the past. Sad!

ANTHRACITE

Macungie, PA

September 12, 2015

The Anthracite Brittany Club Specialty was held in conjunction with the Lehigh Valley Kennel Club Show on Saturday, September 12, 2015. We thank LVKC for allowing us the use of the facilities for our specialty. The shows were part of the Blue Mountain Cluster held from Thursday to Sunday at Macungie Memorial Park in Macungie, PA. The weather was threatening all morning, and we had some light rain during the show. Our judge, Nathaniel Horn, had a total of 14 entries to sort through. We have five male entries in the regular classes, enough to make it a 3-point major. Winners Dog was Triumphant's Citation from the 6-9 month class (DOB 12/25/2014), bred by Krystin McCartney and Linda McCartney Roy. Reserve was taken by Ammo's Denver Brier Patch from the open class (DOB 6/9/2012), bred by Sandra Leavens. Best of Breed was awarded to GCH Triumphant's As Good As it Gets (DOB 11/20/2010), bred by Linda McCartney Roy, Lori Blocker and Nancy Cunliff. Best of Opposite was GCH Get a Bird all in One Miracle, bred by Matt and Laurie O'Donnell. Best of Winners was taken by Mt. View's Starr Sapphire, bred by Mary Ann Breining, Pat Ortelli and Domenic Serago. This major win finished her championship. Mr. Horn awarded Select Dog to GCH Mt View's Shamus Mc Laine MHA, bred by Mary Anne Breining and Patricia Ortelli.

I would like to offer a big thank you to all who helped and all who entered, especially to Terri Hilliard for the trophies and Bobbi Dunkling for her skill as show secretary.

Charles Strunk,

MORNING SHOW

Hudson Valley Solo Specialties were held Saturday, October 10, 2015 up at a wonderful facility, in Amsterdam, New York, called Working Dog's NY. We had exhibitors from ME, CT

MA, NY, NJ and FL. With the generosity and hard work of HVBC club members, we had amazing hospitality and a successful raffle table, along with the HVBC store, which was run and organized with the incredible creativity of Lindsey Putnam. Our trophies throughout the day were beautifully selected and put together by Patricia Ellis and Karen Lovell.

We started out with Sweepstakes, with judge Mr. Kenan Young, who had a great line up of puppies to select from. For Best Puppy Sweepstakes, he selected Triumphant's I'm A Believer, handled by owner Linda McCartney-Roy, and best of Opposite Sex in Sweepstakes went to Trio-Hope Cinderella Story handled by owner Douglas Tighe. His Best in Veteran Sweepstakes went to Pixella Thomas Britt, AX, AXJ handled by owner Karen Thomas. In the Breed judging, our judge Mrs. Gale Young made sure she gave her attention to each and every exhibitor and their dogs. She selected our BISS dog, Triumphant's I'm A Believer Winners Dog, handled by owner Linda McCartney. Reserve Winners Dog was Top Shelf's The Chosen One, JH, NA, NAJ handled by owner Wendy Archinal. Her Winners Bitch, owned by Joyce Golden and handled by Robin Pouty, was Swift's River' Golden Opportunity and Reserve Winners Bitch was Top Shelf's Point Taken, owned by John Swider and handled by Douglas Tighe. For her Best of Breed competition Mrs. Young had several outstanding dogs and bitches to choose from in the specials class as well as the non-regular classes. She selected GCH Millette's Sweet Memories Best of Breed, owned by Wendy Archinal and handled by Douglas Tighe; Wift River's Golden Opportunity for Best of Winners handled by Robin Prouty ad GCH Tonan-Magicbrit In The leather as Best of Opposite Sex, handled by his owner Sandy Malloy, who was also our Best Owner-Handler. Select Dog went to GCH Triumphant's As Good As It Gets, JH, handled by owner Linda McCartney-Roy. An Award of Merit was earned by GCH Maple Brook' Great Balls Of Fire, JH, handled by owner Peggy Auglar.

Once again, we want to thank all of you that participated not only with your entries but with generous donations, hard work, and most of all your total support that made this specialty another huge success

Tony & Nancy Morabito

Afternoon Show

After everyone was able to enjoy the Hospitality that was available, and get their dogs ready again, the next Specialty started with Breed judge Mr. Paul Campanella who had the same beautiful group of dogs that were entered in the morning show. The judging started out with our same Winners Dog from the morning, Triumphant's I'm a Believer, handled by owner Linda McCartney-Roy. Reserve Winners Dog was Top Shelf's The Chosen One JH, NA, NAJ handled by owner Wendy Archinal. His Winners Bitch, handled by owner Sarah Camire, was Paradise's High Flyin Seniorita and Reserve Winners Bitch was Triumphant's Silver Lining, Owned by handler Kristyn McCartney. The Best of Breed competition was the same outstanding line up, in which Mr. Campanella selected GCH Triumphant's As Good As It Gets, JH, handled by his owner, Linda McCartney-Roy. GCH Millette's Sweet Memories was his Best Opposite winner, owned by Wendy Archinal and handled by Douglas Tighe. Triumphant's I'm A Believer was Best of Winners, owned by Linda McCartney-Roy. GCH Tonan-Magicbrit In The Leather was Select Dog, handled by his owner Sandy Malloy and was also his choice for the Best Owner Handler. An Award of Merit was earned by CH Maple Brook' Great Balls Of Fire, JH handled by owner Peggy Agular.

We know what made these events so successful was all the support from all of you... Thank you.

PHEASANT WHITE CHILI

48 oz. jar of Great Northern White Beans
1-1 ½ lbs. of pheasant (or any other bird)
1 16 oz. jar of salsa (I use hot, but can use anything)
1 green pepper
1 large onion
2 jalapenos
2 8oz. cans of chicken broth (you can do one can and one can of water)
8 oz. shredded cheese
2 packets of McCormick's White Chili mix
1-2 tablespoons cumin

Cook bird of choice and shred the meat. Cut up onion and peppers and saute. Then just add everything together in a crock pot and you can change ingredients to your liking . . . add something different or more of something (sometimes I use another bag of cheese, take something out (jalapenos for example). Serve with tortilla chips... makes a great dip or just eat as chili.

BUTTERNUT SQUASH SOUP

Submitted by Don Bristol
Member of SNEBC

½ cup chopped onion
Bacon fat
Salt and pepper
Chopped garlic clove
1 butternut squash, peeled and cubed
1 apple, peeled, cored, and chopped
3 cups of chicken stock
1 cup milk
½ tsp nutmeg

Sauté onion, salt and pepper in bacon fat until soft. Add garlic and cook until fragrant. Add butternut squash and apple. Cook until caramelized. Add the chicken stock and cook until squash is tender. Let cool slightly then put small batches in blender to puree and return to pot. Add milk and nutmeg; heat through without boiling and serve. Makes 6 cups

Happy
and

2015 ABC Michigan Championship

ABC MICHIGAN BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP (March 30 – April 3rd)

The Michigan Brittany Championship is one of the oldest championships held in the Central / East Central corridor and provides plenty of history with it. Last year it had to be cancelled due to dangerous weather. However this year the weather cooperated for the most part (just minor rain) and the competition went on without a problem.

We ran four venues; Open All Age, Open Derby, Open Shooting Dog and the Amateur Walking Shooting Dog. The All Age, and two Shooting Dogs were hour stakes and the Derby was 45 minutes.

No championship exists without “behind the scenes” people making sure all details are attended to. At the lead, was Kathy Gulembo, Chairperson, whose keen attention to detail and follow up kept this trial operating flawlessly. Flanked by Donna Janulis, Secretary, a position she regularly holds with other championships, the paperwork also flowed well. Other workers included Ron Gulembo, Tom Robin and Wade Haines rising early to plant birds for the All Age and Derby, with Ron Auten and Chuck Langstaff planting the Shooting Dog courses. Lunch was provided daily by Kathy Byrne, Judy Marinelli, Judy Robin, Donna Janulis, Kathy Gulembo and others. Championship dinner was provided by the Michigan Championship Membership, Hap Harrison and Dick Lipsky, which was a classic Italian cuisine delight. Wrangler duties were tended to by Will and Kathy Langley.

To make a good championship occur we need entries; I'd like to thank the professional handlers, Bob Burchett, Chad Holman and Jimmy Johnson with bringing their fine string of contestants to provide us with great competition. Other not so pro but tough competitors included Jerry McGee, Ray Trimble and Wade Haines in the All Age stake.

Finally, sincere thanks are extended to the Purina organization for their strong support of this Championship.

There was an excellent group of judges in all of the stakes, with experience being the dominant trait. We appreciate the long days in the saddle given by them and the keen attention directed on every dog. These included: Open all Age – John Schoonover and William Darr; Open Shooting Dog Championship – Jerry McGee and Lee Wagoner; Amateur Walking Shooting Dog Championship – Robert Buchholz and Charles Schaeffer; Open Derby – Wade Haines and Ray Trimble

ABC MICHIGAN BRITTANY OPEN ALL AGE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Running

The All Age was won by Ru-Jem's Last Penny handled by Jerry McGee. Second place was awarded to Roustabout's Flat Out also handled by Jerry McGee. Third place went to Black Creek Blaze handled by Chad Holman and the fourth place finish was given to Jacks Over Aces also handled by Chad Holman. More about their performances below.

JACKS OVER ACES (HOLMAN) AND TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG (BURCHETT) THE FIRST BRACE broke away at the top of the hill with both dogs taking off down the stone fence disappearing over the ridge. The dogs continued towards Hires field in a forward manner. In the island area Dan went on point – Chad flushed successfully and the dog was sent forward. As Bob traveled through the break towards the old barn Little Chug was seen standing along a tree line on the right side. Unfortunately as Bob road towards Little Chug he chose to show Bob the Quail before he arrived ending his day. Dan continued forward through the old barn and orchard area showing an all age pattern. As he headed towards the championship course he established point on the north tree line. Again Chad flushed with all in order. Dan continued through the Boy Scout Bridge, cardiac hill, the derby course and the gun dog course at a strong and forward pattern finishing the hour with no further bird contact.

SECOND BRACE CAPTAIN FINN (BURCHETT) AND CROSSCREEK ANGUS EARLY CHRISTMAS (HOLMAN) started from the oak tree and proceeded accordingly. Initially both dogs had nice casts but were not able to handle game they encountered and both were retired and we headed for the club house.

THIRD BRACE, STONY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA (BURCHETT) AND HAP'S SPICE RUM BECKHAM (JOHNSON) broke away from the clubhouse but failed to handle birds early on and the brace was ended in a short time.

FOURTH BRACE, SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND (BURCHETT) AND RYNE (JOHNSON) breaking away from the club house Ryne had trouble with a bird near the old barn and was retired. Little Diamond continued to hunt the hour but with no contact with game.

FIFTH BRACE broke away from the oak tree as the wind started to pick up a little. ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT (MCGEE) AND KJS IRISH WHISKEY (BURCHETT). Both dogs broke away with the wind extending themselves beyond the orchard and woods and appearing on the derby course. KJs was sighted first and Bob continued to handle him to the front. Roustabout was located standing on point along a tree line. Jerry successfully flushed the bird and all in order and the dog was sent on. Both dogs continued past the boy scout bridge shortening a little. Roustabout made a nice cast showing to the front in the all age course where he established point on a bird and handled it appropriately. Both dogs finished the hour strong.

The SIXTH BRACE departed from the club house with RU-JEM'S LAST PENNY (MCGEE) AND KJ'S DARLIN DARCY (BURCHETT). Both dogs showed their experience extending themselves throughout the early all age fields past the old barn where Penny had her first find with all in order. She continued to run the course at a good pace and distance with the judges noticing her performance. Upon entering the derby course Penny had a nice find at the far end of one of the extending lines and Jerry flushed with all in order. She completed the hour at a good pace and distance for all to see. Darcy had a mis-encounter with a quail and her run ended early.

The SEVENTH BRACE was my favorite in regards to run; BLACK CREEK DEACON (HOLMAN) AND WILD MTN HEAD EM UP-MOVE EM OUT (BURCHETT) broke away from the oak tree. From the moment of break away and for sixty minutes Deacon put on a "run" show. He extended in the open fields, showed during the turns and hunted extremely intelligently exhibiting the speed, distance, intelligence and desire we all crave in an all age dog. How he failed to locate a bird is beyond me. Wild Mtn ran well in the beginning and was retired early as the hour progressed.

The second day of the championship emerged with a slight threat of rain and many people were trying to figure out what to wear and what to carry on their saddle. The rain never materialized. Breaking away from the club house was ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS (HOLMAN) AND CRESCENT CITY GIRL (BURCHETT). Both dogs broke away strong with Ace running the all age course like the seasoned veteran he is. City Girl also had a strong start showing her fast gait. Ace established point in Hires field and Chad successfully flushed. In the old orchard City Girl established point with Ace backing. Unfortunately City Girl's manners were not what they should have been and Ace was taken on. Ace continued to have two more impressive finds in the derby course and continued to show his ability. In the orchard, as time was expiring he slowed and hunted more ending up on point at 58 minutes. Ace decided he had given enough birds to Chad and took this one for himself and was retired just before the buzzer.

THE NINTH BRACE, BLACK CREEK BLAZE (HOLMAN) AND GR'S BOOKIN & COOKIN (TRIMBLE). Breakaway from the oak tree yielded big casts from both dogs. However, Race became interested in deer and the tracker had to be pulled. Blaze completed his casts forward showing nicely in the gun dog area and through the creek crossing. On the derby course, Blaze had a nice find and a classy stop to flush with all in order. He ran a strong forward race through cardiac hill, the boy scout bridge, the high country prior to the all age course. On the all age course he had two more bird contacts one being another stop to flush and another being a good find. He finished the hour strong with the judges and gallery taking notice.

THE TENTH BRACE, SHAMROCK'S SIRIUS II (HAINES) AND WHIZKI'S STING (HOLMAN) beginning from the clubhouse after a short coffee break. Both dogs began at a moderate pace extending past the stone fence and up through the pond area. Holly encountered game in Hires field, and, unfortunately was overly zealous in this contact and was leashed. Wade continued to handle Two through the remainder of the hour but did not have any bird work.

THE ELEVENTH BRACE, TIP (JOHNSON) AND SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY (BURCHETT) departed from the oak tree with the wind at their back. This was a good beginning for both dogs. On the derby course, at 18 minutes, Willy established point along a tree line; however Tip failed to honor the situation and his day was ended. Willy handled the find and was sent on. He had subsequent finds at the Boy Scout Bridge and in the old barn area. He completed the hour at a modest range and gait.

The TWELFTH BRACE, featured LET'S GET-R-DONE NELLIE (BURCHETT) AND NEALY (JOHNSON) left from the clubhouse traversing the all age course. Both dogs ran the hour well, actively looking for game, but none was encountered.

The final brace, SNIKSOH SALLY (BURCHETT) broke from the oak tree and never looked back; like Deacon, she ran far to the front with excellent range, application and ease of handling, like Deacon, birds were elusive during her time and none were encountered. A successful bird encounter surely would have sent the judges rearranging their notes in their judge's books.

ABC MICHIGAN BRITTANY OPEN SHOOTING DOG CHAMPIONSHIP

The Running

The winner of this year's competition was Hap's Spice Rum Beckham handled well by Jimmy Johnson. Beckham is no stranger to Michigan grounds and he ran them with the experience and maturity needed to best an impressive field of dogs competing. Second place went to Suemac's Sky King handled by his co-owner Roger McPherson. Again, a continuing competitor Sky hunted hard and was rewarded with multiple finds during the hour. Third place went to Hy Steppin Libby's Liebling handled by her owner Chris Sennott. She ran a consistent race with multiple finds showing style on all the encounters. Chad Holman took fourth place with a dog named Crosscreek Angus Early Christmas. Under Chad's handling Gus had two nice finds and finished the hour strong.

Breaking away under sunny skies were CROSSCREEK ANGUS EARLY CHRISTMAS (HOLMAN) AND AUTEN'S RANGER RUDY R.L.J (AUTEN) hunting the terrain well. During this hour Ranger had six finds handling them with a lot of encouragement from his handler. Gus had a find in Hires field and again in the orchard and handled them with less encouragement and finished the hour strong.

THE SECOND BRACE WAS BLACK CREEK GUSTO (HOLMAN) AND HAP'S SPICE RUM BECKHAM (JOHNSON) breaking from the oak tree. Beckham had four nicely spaced finds, at 18, 36, 42 and 52 minutes and handled all of them with style and grace. His run, between each find, was forward and mature – this caught the eyes of the judges and notes were placed in their books accordingly. Gusto located a bird by the old barn area but was unable to maintain his discipline and his day ended early.

THE THIRD BRACE began from the clubhouse SUEMAC'S SKY KING (MCPHERSON) AND RYNE (JOHNSON). Both dogs released with enthusiasm and started the hour with promise. Sky had finds at 12 minutes at the old barn, 15 minutes in the orchard and at 30 minutes on the derby course. The last one was a nice divided find with Ryne. Sky had a final find at 40 minutes just entering the gun dog course and finished strong yielding him the red ribbon. Ryne ran a steady race and besides his divided find only had a non-productive earlier in the brace.

THE FOURTH BRACE WAS RIP (JOHNSON) AND RYLEES ROLLING THUNDER OF COOS (MCPHERSON). Unfortunately, Thunder fell out of sight never to return to judgment. Rip ran a moderate race but did not have any bird contact.

THE FIFTH BRACE FEATURING ANJ'S AMAZING GRACE (POEHLER) AND TIP (JOHNSON) headed away from the barn. Maizy ran a very well executed race showing why she is a National Champion but on this day was not rewarded with any game. Rip had finds at 16 in the orchard and 43 on the derby course, both handled well, but Jimmy had some challenges keeping Rip focused in the right direction especially when we exited the all age course towards the Boy Scout Bridge.

THE NEXT BRACE, #6 headed away from the oak tree with NEALY (JOHNSON) AND BARK RIVER QUEEN OF DIAMONDS (STANTON). Daisy had one find at 30 minutes just after the Boy Scout Bridge after a lengthy absence and finished the hour at a moderate pace. Nealy ran consistently through the gun dog and derby course with her establishing point along a cross tree line and Jimmy flushed with all in order. Taken forward she continued to hunt hard and consistent and finished in that manner.

THE FINAL BRACE BY STEPPIN LIBBY'S LIEBLING (SENNOTT) RAN AS A BYE DOG. She was found standing in the orchard tree line. Chris successfully flushed and shot with all in order. Libby continued to hunt at a moderate pace and at the 49 minute mark, in the gun dog course, she was seen establishing point. Again the bird was flushed and all manners were observed. She finished the hour without any other contact.

ABC MICHIGAN BRITTANY AMATEUR WALKING SHOOTING DOG CHAMPIONSHIP

The Amateur Walking Shooting Dog

Championship ran on course three. It kicked off at 8:30 am. Temps were in low 20's. John Marinelli worked the dog wagon. Theda Langstaff monitored the parking area. Chuck Langstaff and Ron Auten shared bird planting duties. High swirling winds made bird work difficult to come by. Thanks to our Judges Rob Buchholz and Chuck Schaefer.

The winner Suemac's Sky King (Mc Pherson) came from brace 3 and was braced with Magnum High Velocity (Anderson). They broke away from the old gundog parking lot. Sky showed high energy running a classic forward shooting dog pattern. He worked all tree lines from beginning to end. As we approached the goose pond Roger sent his scout to the wooded hill-side south of the goose pond. Sky was found standing with excellent style. The bird was flushed with Sky remaining high and tight. Roger dispatched scout again as we climbed the hill to the high ground on course 3. The scout searched the heavy cover for several minutes. Roger continued on course. His scout rode forward to catch Roger's attention as the high winds prevented hearing him call point. Roger had a long uphill walk but was rewarded with Sky's second and final bird. Once again Sky displayed excellent style and manners. Magnum worked at moderate range with no bird contact for the hour.

Runner up DC/AFC Auten's Ranger Rudy RJLJ (Auten) broke away from Eddy Rd. He was braced with Iceman's Smooth Ride (Janulis). Both dogs broke away fast and forward. They ran the first tree line to the east. When we approached the first north-south tree line scouts were sent to the right and left. Point was called by Ron's scout and both dogs were found standing. When handlers arrived it was reported both dogs stopped facing each other as though they were backing – then they moved on. Lexi was seen roading in on point. Ron caught a glimmer of Ranger's red collar buried in the briars ahead of Lexi. Point was called for Ranger. Ranger's bird was flushed with style maintained throughout. Lexi was credited with a back. At the next tree line with both dogs moving forward Lexi went down the tree line and came in with a bird and was picked up. Ranger proceeded through the hour running hard with no further bird contact.

BRACE 1 - HI POINTS SUMMER TIME (CROPEK) AND ICEMAN'S WILD ONE (JANULIS) - Summer ran a nice race she had two finds and two backs. She made it to course 3 but was lost in the heavy cover at the end. Logan running strong to the front garnishing two finds with Summer backing both. On his find, Logan had a breach in manners and was retired early.

BRACE 2 - AUTEN'S RANGER RUDY RJLJ (AUTEN) AND ICEMAN'S SMOOTH RIDE (JANULIS) – described above.

BRACE 3 - SUEMAC'S SKY KING (MCPHERSON) AND MAGNUM HIGH VELOCITY (ANDERSON) described above

BRACE 4 - ANJ'S AMAZING GRACE (POEHLER) AND RYLEE'S ROLLING THUNDER OF COOS (GORMAN). We have seen both of these dogs on many occasions and both are super bird finders. However, on this day they were birdless. Both dogs ran with energy, displayed excellent, mature application. They worked the entire hour hitting all the right spots with no birds produced.

BRACE 5 - BARK RIVER QUEEN OF DIAMONDS (STANTON) AND HY STEPPIN LIBBY'S LIEBLING (SENNOTT) Point was called for Daisy at about the 50 minute mark but no birds were produced. Both dogs hunted the course in a very mature fashion but hard work was not rewarded with birds.

The Winds continued to increase with the last braces having good hunting races but going birdless.

ABC MICHIGAN OPEN DERBY CLASSIC

The Open Derby Classic was won by Gun Creek Gangster handled expertly by Chad Holman. He ran a far reaching race demonstrating his maturity and natural instincts as he outlined the course. His only challenge was his multiple encounters with birds maintaining his manners during these. He did show great pointing style on all his bird contacts.

Second place was awarded to Jac's Ray of Sunshine also handled expertly by Chad Holman. Ray also was enjoyable to watch as he rimmed many of the larger all age fields and handled his birds with good style and maturity.

Taking the yellow ribbon was Anchor's Up Newt handled by Kathryn Lipski. He also exhibited elements of future all age potential as observed by the most experienced judges I know.

Fourth place was awarded to Ajax Dark Side handled by John Marinelli. I have watched this young female progress in her juvenile career and she gets better every time she is placed in a completion.

HUNT TESTS

LASALLE

Des Plaines Wildlife Conservation Area Joliet, IL

September 26-27, 2015

The LaSalle Brittany Club held their fall hunting tests on Saturday, September 26 and Sunday, September 27, 2015 at Des Plaines Wildlife Conservation Area, Joliet, Illinois.

The ground cover at Des Plaines represented what a dog and hunter will encounter this upcoming fall hunting season. We had partly cloudy skies on Saturday with temps starting off in the 60s and warming up to the upper 70s in the afternoon. Sunday was similar to Saturday, but both days went well.

GREATER MILWAUKEE
Ottawa Field Trial Grounds
Dousman, WI
October 10-11, 2015

The Greater Milwaukee Brittany Club held a 2015 Hunt Test on October 10-11 at the Ottawa Field Trial Grounds in Dousman, Wisconsin. Saturday and Sunday were both good days with temps in the 60s and 70s. Conditions were good. Saturday started out cool with lots of dew on the ground and ended up warm, dry, and breezy. Sunday was much the same but a little warmer. We had a good number of dogs with qualifying scores on both days. Thanks to the great effort of everyone involved with the event, both days ran flawlessly.

We ran a single course both days, with Ed Cuddeback and Michael Kirkman judging on Saturday, and Ed Cuddeback and Joel Peterson judging on Sunday. We had 21 dogs entered on Saturday, three braces of Masters, two braces of Seniors and six braces of Juniors. Sunday there were 25 dogs, four braces of Masters, three braces of Seniors and seven braces of Juniors.

The gunners for the Master and Senior levels were Jim Rhoda and Jeff Teuteberg. They did a great job.

Many thanks to the numerous people who volunteered their time to make our event run smoothly and totally enjoyable.

SIGBRIT'S RATTLE MY CAGE

SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND

East Windsor, CT

October 9-11, 2015

Our fall trial was held over the Columbus Day weekend, October 9-11 at Flaherty Field, East Windsor, CT. We had glorious weather. The event was preceded by four days running of the New England Brittany Championship. We were well supported by pros Ben Lorensen, Kyle Merrill and Mike Roderka, as well as many amateur handlers. We had very few entries in the scheduled juvenile stakes, however, that was not the case with the adult stakes. The kitchen staff kept us well fed, and the Saturday night pulled pork dinner was terrific. There are too many people to name and there is always the danger of leaving out someone, but without the support of club and non-club members, the success of this event would not be possible. Thank you judges, handlers, bird planters, marshals, wrangler, Robin Shadle, cooks, dogs, etc. Hope to see everyone in the spring.

FORT WORTH Wortham, TX October 16-18, 2015

The Fort Worth Brittany Club held their fall trial October 16-18, 2015. The trial was held at the Boyd Ranch near Wortham, Texas. A big thank you goes out to our five very fine Lone Star judges who spent the weekend in the saddle Charlie Collier, Dickie Sorrell, Dale Barker, Ben Kuykendall and Wesley Felt.

On Friday we finished the Open All Age, Open Gun Dog and the Open Puppy. The Open All Age was awarded to Tonk Valley Runaway Red handled by Vic Carrington and owned by Don White. The winner of the Open Gun Dog was Highpoint Southern Spike owned by Ben and Carolyn Kuykendall and was handled by Ben.

The Open Puppy was won by Twin Creeks Trigger Time and handled by his owner and new member of the Fort Worth Brittany Club, Heath Turner. Heath has some nice young dogs as he also handled his German Shorthair Pointer, Twin Creeks Dancing Dakota, to be the Derby winner. Great Job, Heath, and welcome to our club.

The Amateur Gun Dog was won by a German Shorthair Pointer, Free Flight Firefly, handled by his owner Bill Rhodes. We did not have entries in the Amateur All Age to hold an event. All right Amateurs; let's see if we can bring some dogs to the January, 2016, spring trial.

Our trials are opened to all breeds of pointing dogs in all but the Open All Age stake. We appreciate all the pointing breed owners and handlers who participate in our trials. We would not be able to continue holding trials without their support.

This trial, we also held an Amateur Walking Puppy and Amateur Walking Derby in hopes of bringing new folks into our sport and also give Amateurs another opportunity to show their juveniles additional time at a field trial. We had six entries in the AWP and nine entries in the AWD. The winner of the Amateur Walking Puppy was a Vizsla, Fortius 1988 Nights A Blazin, owned by Sean and Jaclyn Anderson and handled by Sean. The winner of the Amateur Walking Derby was an Irish Setter, Setter Downs Johnny Be Good, owned and handled by Bill Rhodes.

This trial we tried to bring the hunting folks to our trial and maybe the word did not get out as well as we wanted as we had two entries. The winner was Boss, owned and handled by Molly Ward.

You could not carry out a field trial without the volunteers that came to help. Thank you to Carolyn, Ron, Heath, Bobbie, Trey and Mary for your hard work and goodies to share at the lunches.

We hope to see y'all at our spring trial in January of 2016. Our trial will be the last of three trials at the Wortham Field Trial Grounds. January 15-17, 2016 will be the Alamo Brittany Club. The Texas Coastal will be January 18-19, 2016 and then Forth Worth January 22-24, 2016. This will be three club events in ten days. Mark it on your calendar and we will see y'all in January.

IDAHO Dry Creek Area Murtaugh, ID September 26-27, 2015

Well, this summer the worst happened- fire. On August 10th, thunderstorms went through and sparked a fire in the Owyhee mountains. Overnight winds fueled the blaze and it grew consuming Mile post 9 and more than 280,000 acres across Idaho and eastern Oregon in the Soda Fire. We have lost our beautiful grounds for the next several years. So now the club has to relocate its trial in what was a very painstaking task. With only a month to find a new site for our trial and after looking at several locations, we finally located BLM grounds at Murtaugh, ID but we wouldn't find out till September 22nd if they would officially allow us to use the grounds.

The 22nd arrived and BLM gave us the ok to hold our trial on the grounds in just four days. Game on – now we have to get the equipment to the new grounds which are now a 2 ½ hour drive east from Boise. With several trips from club members during the week we managed to get all the equipment to the new location. Saturday morning arrived to a sunny warm weekend to run our trial.

The new grounds did present several hiccups but we managed to work through them and managed to pull off a good trial. We would like to thank all that helped pull off this trial, Judges Henderson, House, White, Staley, Borine, Ball, Sandusky, Waitman, Campbell and Hammett, club members, participants, family members and even neighboring states Brittany club members. Layne Peterson from UT drove the dog wagon to the start of the Gun Dog course, due to a fence line and a hidden tumbleweed filled dry creek bed hindering a closer breakaway. Kaitlin Hasler from Oregon helped getting people and dogs to the breakaway points. Ron Dunagan drove to Twin Falls to get fly swatters, fly spray and masks for horses and fly strips. Yes, the flies were a problem along with the rodents in the camping area.

Once again, thanks to all who attended our trial, with the extra hours of drive time to our trial we appreciate all of you attending our trial. Hope to see all in the spring with a possible new location again.

Southern San Joaquin Spanish Ranch New Cuyama, CA October 17-21, 2015

"No philosophers so thoroughly comprehend us as dogs and horses." ~Herman Melville, Redburn. His First Voyage, 1849. Stolen words, but fitting in their descriptive motive of those who spent a part of their limited October days at the historic Spanish Ranch in New Cuyama, CA at the invitation of gracious ranch owners Dan and Pam Doiron.

The Southern San Joaquin Valley Brittany club facilitated four days of field trials that were initially threatened by southern and central California's first glimpse of the promised El Nino` of 2015 and 2016. Major highways were closed with mudslides and flash floods on days preceding the trial as judges and participants were traveling to the remote ranch. Complaints were at a minimum as we quietly wring our hands over drought and the changes it could bring to the historic ranch. We all ate well as experienced field trial cook Ray Solander prepared meals, his services were appreciated by volunteers whose chores were eased a bit.

The trial began Oct. 17th and concluded as planned on Oct. 20th. Four thirty minute stakes were completed over the weekend on a single course that runs through a valley of giant ancient oaks, spotted patches of juniper and ample growth of seeded shrub and sage varieties that hold a healthy population of California Valley Quail. A number of volunteers helped with planting birds, the dog wagon that paralleled the course and allowed participants a non-equine view of the trial was piloted by A.J. Doiron, and the judges were recognized for great attention and they are listed in the results; to all, we offer our thanks.

At the conclusion of the thirty minute stakes a one-hour open all-age stake was run for the third consecutive year, an event that proudly carries the ranch name; The Spanish Ranch Classic. This year's winner was NAFC FC AFC 2xAmFIdCH Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid owned and handled by Joe Gower. The runner up was FC AmFIdCH K Nine's on the Loose owned by Linda McDonald and Arlette Hennessy and handled by Paul Doiron. These dogs were chosen under the experienced watch of Judges Larry and June McConnell who graciously made the two day trip from Idaho, their attentiveness and professionalism were respected by all and their placements well received.

It is difficult to leave the ranch and its reminder of a different time. One that clearly had its own challenges and hardships, but the isolation reflected a simplicity that will one day be lost forever. A final thanks to the Doiron families for their hosting and hard work, likewise all the judges, meticulous field trial secretary Myra-Dawn Ellis, volunteers and participants alike; it takes a collective effort to make memories like this.

The Book of the American Brittany, 1990-2010 Edition is an invaluable source of reference and enjoyment for all Brittany breeders and enthusiasts. Expanding upon the previous works by Dr. Fred Z. White, Nicky Bissell, and Rheta Cartmell, this 320-page edition focuses on dogs and Brittany events between the years 1990-2010.

Chapters include: History of the American Brittany; Field Trialing 1935-1989; Modern Field Trial Winners; ABC Classics & Championships; The Show Brittany; The Dual Brittany; ABC Futurities; Performance Events (Hunt Tests, Obedience, Agility, NSTRA); Top Producers; ABC Honor Rolls (Hall of Fame, Life Members). These are followed by an index of ABC event winners from 1942-1989, and an index of all dogs mentioned in the book. The text of this book is brought to life with over 625 color and black/white photos, many of historical value, and as many as could be obtained of the modern-day dogs mentioned in the book.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

THE AGGRESSIVE DOG

We've been hearing about dogs with aggression issues everywhere lately. It seems like every time we turn on the TV or open a newspaper, there's another story of a dog or pack of dogs attacking and sometimes killing a human being or another dog. Cities are drafting ordinances restricting ownership of dog breeds known to be more aggressive, and insurance companies are dropping coverage if you own certain breeds.

Good thing we all have sporting dogs, right? They don't fall under the stereotypical heading of a "mean" or even "vicious" dog. However, while we may be safe from Brittanys and pointers and German Shorthairs causing our homeowner's insurance to drop our coverage, never say never when it comes to dogs and animal behavior. Aggression can and does show up in any breed. The important thing is recognizing it and dealing with it.

Remember: All dogs bite. Even that sweet dog that your family loves and that is so even-tempered can bite when provoked. What we're doing in this column is drawing the line between a normal dog that could bite under extreme circumstances, such as when confronting a home invader, and the aggressive dog that wants to attack constantly.

Behavior problems like this can be genetic, man-made, or a combination of both. The cause doesn't matter. What matters is that we stop it immediately and don't allow it to surface again. A dog with the genetic potential for aggression can have that enhanced by improper handling, make the problem even worse. A good breeder will cull any dogs that have aggression issues, whether they are dominance or fear-based.

A dog that is dominant and aggressive is usually an Alpha-type dog and often the pack leader, and is constantly pushing for a fight. A fear-aggressive dog is way down the pack pecking order and is often food-aggressive, meaning it growls and bites when approached during feeding time. Fear-aggressive dogs will usually not start a fight – rather, they bite, growl, or snap when they feel trapped or threatened. They also don't make eye contact and often strike from behind or the side. A dominant dog will use eye contact to intimidate and will stand its ground and make a frontal approach. Keep in mind that these are generalizations and that any dog can act aggressively in any fashion.

A bird dog has absolutely no reason to be aggressive. Obviously, this means toward people, but it also means behaving appropriately around other dogs. It's not uncommon for two Alpha-type dogs to be so competitive in the field that they spend more time trying to fight than hunt. This is counterproductive and not to be tolerated.

The best time to stop this behavior – whether it's dominance, food, fear, or whatever else may trigger aggressive behavior – is when the dog is a puppy. It shows up in the dynamics of the litter and how they play, feed, and pack up. However, don't confuse normal play with aggression; normal play has its share of roughhousing and play bites. What we watch for is the one puppy that is constantly growling and snapping at the others, bullying and jumping on them, both during play and mealtimes.

Many bitches will deal with this, and they do so by picking the puppy up by the loose skin on the back of the neck or sometimes by the head. We've never seen a puppy that did not submit and give up to this treatment. If the bitch doesn't deal with it, we will step in and take charge. Using no emotion or anger and not saying a word, we'll pick the puppy up by the scruff of the neck, take it out of the litter, and continue holding it quietly by the scruff until it settles down. Only when it is calm and relaxed will we allow it to return to the litter. If we show pounds and has adult teeth.

This dog is learning to stay steady and mark the flight of the bird. It is not allowed to move until told, which means in an honoring situation the probability of a fight just got lower since the dog is taking direction from the pack leader: the handler.

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

anger, our emotion feeds the anger in the dog, be it a puppy or an adult, and makes things worse instead of better. Even our hands need to be relaxed and calm while we're doing this.

With a half-grown puppy or an adult dog, this same action can be done by taking the skin on both sides of the neck with both hands, keeping the dog's back to you so its mouth and accompanying teeth are facing away from you. Do not be tempted to use a soft voice or petting to calm the dog, as that is a reward for bad behavior and only reinforces it.

Puppies that growl and nip may look cute, but if the problem isn't stopped right then and there, it won't be so cute when the dog weighs 60

These two dogs are learning to honor in a controlled training situation. While competition between two dogs is not uncommon, teaching under controlled circumstances is a safe bet to prevent competitiveness from escalating into aggression.

What about the adult or adolescent dog that is behaving badly? There are some situations that require professional intervention. Always put safety first. And remember, sometimes the best answer is to have the dog euthanized. Before we resort to such drastic measures, however, let's examine the reasons a bird dog may be acting aggressively and try to solve them.

First of all, it takes two to fight. That can be you or another dog. Anger starts fights, but calmness can finish them. Even if another dog attacks your dog, they can stop it by turning away. In dog language that translates to instant surrender, and it's a rare dog who will continue to fight with a dog that has turned away.

In the field, some dogs get very competitive about their territory and the birds. This can come in the form of refusing to back or honor another dog, instead trying to bust ahead and take the bird. This is also not uncommon in a retrieving situation where two dogs are trying to pick up the same bird. This competitiveness can also be viewed as jealousy.

Regardless of the reason, it is not tolerated and not allowed. Training makes the biggest difference, as a dog that has been correctly trained to honor on sight or retrieve on command will not risk displeasing the pack leader (that's you!). Even if your dog is sitting on your lap and growls at another dog that approaches, this is jealous behavior and not acceptable. Your dog is saying, by growling at the other dog, that it "owns" you. If you think about it, that translates into marking behavior and claiming territory. We're pretty sure you wouldn't let your dog mark you by lifting its leg, and the same goes for possessiveness of you when another dog is around.

Speaking of marking behavior, a male dog that spends a large part of its time in the field lifting its leg and laying claim to every fencepost, brushpile, and tree that it finds is showing dominance behavior over you as well as over any other dogs it may be hunting with. While this is not aggression, it is still an issue that needs fixing, and you need to be the pack leader and tell the dog to move along, it doesn't own anything in the field – not you, the trees, the birds, nothing. Likewise, two dominant male dogs hunting together and both marking everything in sight is a setup for a potential fight. Disallow the leg-lifting and you may well head off the fight; plus if they are marking, they aren't working to find birds. Additionally, neutering can be a benefit, as hormones encourage territorial behavior in both males and females.

If you're a good pack leader, you can usually head off aggression problems. As we mentioned above, the dog owns nothing. You are the leader and you control the resources. This includes the ground you hunt on, the birds you shoot, and who sits where in the truck. It also means at home that you own the feed dish and the food that goes in it, the bed the dog sleeps in, and the toys it plays with.

As mentioned earlier, a bird dog has no reason to be aggressive. If we have a dog that has issues in this area, we will deal with it by controlling the dog using the command lead on the neck and the figure-eight around the muzzle. We'll put the lead on the dog and walk it past other dogs, giving a sharp upward tug when the dog shows signs of aggression. These signs can be growling, showing teeth, hair standing up on the back, walking stiff-legged, and staring at the other dog. The dog needs to understand that aggressive behavior will earn a correction with the lead.

We will use as much effort as needed to refocus the dog's attention on us. This may also include bumping them on the shoulder with our knee as we walk. We want their attention on us. Our end goal is to have the dog walk calmly past another dog and not even glance in that direction. We are in charge, and we don't allow fighting. Again, all of this is done with no voice, no anger, and no emotion. Don't be afraid to seek professional help if you need it.

There are some dogs that just don't get along, and if left together, they will fight, often to the death. If you have a situation like this, keeping the dogs separated or keeping only one of them is the answer. Usually one dog is the instigator, and if you know who it is, you can work with that. If that dog picks fights with many different dogs, the best answer may well be euthanasia. Whatever you do, please be safe, and put the welfare of yourself, your friends, and your family first. No dog, no matter how good, is worth the loss of life or potential disfiguring of a loved one.

If the dog is genetically sound and the training is done right, all that energy can be focused into the field, working and finding birds.

None Held Back and Other Bird Dog Stories

Part Five - Whiteout

By Tom Word

Mose Skinner announced his retirement at the drawing for the National Bird Dog Championship. He figured it would give him an easy chance to sell his horses, get his string of dogs in the hands of the other handlers. But he'd never have done it if he'd realized what a fuss they'd make over him. Men and women he didn't know kept riding up to him, wishing him well, making over him like he was a national treasure, not just a worn-out old dog trainer. The other handlers just shook his hand, looked him in the eye, said, "Good luck, Mose."

His good luck was all behind him, he figured. He'd had some, if not a whole lot. He'd survived twenty-five years on the circuit training an handling "for the public," not working for one rich man, but working for himself, taking dogs from many customers.

Of course success mostly hinged on the dogs you lucked onto—no handler could stay near the top without a great dog or two in his string, so difficult to find and train and keep healthy. But over the years he'd had a few, and he'd enjoyed his life on the road with dogs and horses, riding horseback over beautiful country from Saskatchewan to North Florida, Oklahoma to Tennessee, nine months a year.

His home base had always been Holly Springs, Mississippi, where he was born and raised a farmer's son. In summers he'd trained near Mott, North Dakota, going there the first of July with whatever string of dogs he could muster, staying up north 'til September, then following the trial circuit south week by week.

Here in mid-February at Tennessee's Ames Plantation was what they all worked for, the National Championship. For a hundred years it had been so, back to the days when handlers traveled by rail, renting their horses from local farmers. He'd won the national only once, but that marked him one of the chosen, for many fine handlers never managed to win it. He'd had a single dog eligible this year, but he knew it could not win—not enough bottom for the final hour. But he would run it for the sake of the loyal customer who owned the dog.

By the end of the second day, he'd sold his six horses, to be delivered at the end of the trial. He'd gotten his asking prices. He'd always been known for good horses and for taking care of them. He wouldn't ride a horse to exhaustion—if his mount tire badly during a heat, he'd pick up his dog unless he could swap for a fresh one. As the trial wore on, he scolded himself for not asking more for the horses.

His one dog ran the last day and wilted after two hours, as he knew it would. When he told the judges he was picking up, they all three rode up to him and shook his hand. Then the gallery gave him a round of applause, and a lump came to his throat.

The only failure in his plan was with his horse trailer—too much rust, too many miles to attract a buyer. So he pulled it to a dealer at Colliersville and left it for sale on consignment.

The dealer wasn't hopeful, but he gave authority to reduce the price every week until it sold, or until it would bring more for scrap.

He stood for the last time on the lawn of the Ames manor house and heard the winner announced. Then as the pictures were snapped, he slipped out of the crowd and started his trek north in the old diesel dually with three hundred thousand miles on the odometer.

He figured four easy days driving would do it. He crossed the Ohio at Paducah, bound for St. Louis. Beside him on the seat rode Yap, the gray-muzzle mongrel feist squirrel dog that had been his companion for a dozen years. She mostly slept now, on the seat against his hip or in the foot well beneath the heater hose, but when he stopped at a rest stop, she still made her ritual sniff checks for quarry, chipmunks that set her barking like a puppy.

Every hundred miles he stopped to add a quart of oil and for Yap and him to relieve themselves. He hated to drive on the interstates, though without the trailer it wasn't so bad. Each night he found a modest motel that didn't forbid pets, a small town café for supper (he refused to eat at fast food restaurants). By seven each night, he and Yap were snoozing before the motel television. It seemed odd not to have dogs and horses to tend to.

By eight each morning, they were on the road again, heading north for their final destination, Mott. He'd made this run so many times in summer, but in February it seemed a different world. Gray mounds of snow lay against snow fences like floundered whales, somber reminders of the blizzards that could descend in minutes, blown uninterrupted across thousands of miles of frozen flat prairie. The weather channel advised of severe cold, but no snow, thank goodness. They rolled west across Missouri to Kansas City, then north to Omaha, Sioux Falls, Fargo, west to Bismarck and beyond on I-94. As the bleak miles rolled by, he found himself in reverie, the scenes of his life playing out in sequence in his mind's eye as the passing landscapes reminded him of long past events, people, dogs.

He'd had the plan for a decade. It had come to him at a picnic, the one he put on every summer for the ranchers who let him train his dogs on their grasslands. The conversation as always turned to winter storms in the Dakotas, the howling Alberta Clippers they endured while he enjoyed the southern piney woods. They told tales of poor souls caught out in the elements when a vehicle failed or a rancher becoming disoriented just a few feet from his truck while checking the welfare of his stock.

Death by freezing wasn't painful they said. You just got cold, then sleepy, and that was it. And on that warm August afternoon he'd promised himself that when his life no longer seemed worthwhile, he'd head for this country and wait for a whiteout.

Well, that time had come. Sooner than he'd bargained for. At Christmas his only daughter had come home to Holly Springs. (His wife, the girl's mother had been gone for many years, unwilling to endure the months of loneliness Mose's work imposed.) Thinking he looked poorly, his daughter coaxed him to the doctor—first time in twenty years—then to Memphis General for tests. What they'd found was fatal, sooner or later, though the time line was vague and uncertain.

He'd told no one of the illness, didn't intend to. But the doctors had said he should retire, for his safety and the safety of others. By the time his daughter departed for New York after Christmas, he'd decided on his schedule for retirement and his "Project Whiteout."

He'd always loved the prairie country. But now he found that what he loved was prairie in summer; the winter prairie was something else. Bleak, grim, uninviting, cold.

He made Mott at three p.m. on the fourth day and headed for Al Ehrlich's barber shop. A pleasing, familiar aroma of perfumed talcum, neat's-foot oil, hot wood stove and horse sweat engulfed him. (Al tinkered with leather work as a sideline to his barbering.) Al's ranch outside town had been his summer training headquarters. He and his helpers quartered there in the homestead shack built by Al's grandfather in 1910. Al and his sister Corie lived in a double-wide at the other end of a shelter break. The shelter break had been home to Mose's dogs in training, barrels shaded under the trees their sleeping quarters.

Al, surprised but glad to see him, called Corie at the ranch so she'd fix enough supper. Mose asked for and got a haircut—perhaps the only $3 one left in America. A clipper cut, close on the sides, worth about the price, Mose thought as he checked his appearance in the shop's smoky mirror. By long custom, he offered a tip, and Al refused it.

Al closed at four, and Mose followed him to the ranch in the gathering dusk. The winter look of the place seemed solid grayness: the double-wide, the sky, the pole barn and sheet-metal fenced feed lot protecting the stock against constant wind, the reaching prairie beyond. Only the small whitewashed shack, his summer home, and the green Norway spruce of the shelter break relieved the grayness.

Corie greeted him with a smile and a firm handshake, her merry eyes younger than her years. She was a retired school teacher, long a widow, a homemaker for herself and her brother who had never married. All the years Mose had known them, they'd lived here, keeping a few head of cattle, making do on Corie's pension, Al's meager barbershop and leather-work earning, sometimes a meager profit on the livestock. He'd paid them $100 a summer to live in the shack and train his dogs on their land; they'd never raised the rent. Every Saturday night he treated Al and Corie to drinks and a saloon supper in town, the highlight of their and his social life. On Sundays, he and Al often fished the Missouri.

Corie had a porkroast in the over—his and Al's favorite meat—with turnip greens, sweet potatoes, pinto beans, home-made chutney and apple sauce; for dessert there was pumpkin pie with ice cream. After the meal was finished, Mose announced:

"I've retired from the dog business. Ran Sport's Orion in the National last week, sold the horses on the stop. There's just Yap and me now." At the sound of her name, the mongrel stirred briefly in her sleep by the propane gas heater.

Corie said: "Glad you came to see us, Mose, but you didn't pick the best time of year. We're sure to have another blizzard or two before spring gets here."

"I don't care—I always wanted to see a whiteout firsthand; I've heard so many lies about 'em over the years."

Al said: "A whiteout's worse than any lie you can make up about it. That's why we've got ropes strung between the back door and the cow shed. You let go that rope in a whiteout, you'll be lost, freeze to death ten feet from the house."

Mose helped Corie dry the dishes, and soon the three old friends were seated before the television watching the news. Mose wouldn't have to wait long. A genuine blizzard was heading their way, according to the TV weatherman.

Mose let Yap go outside; in seconds she was scratching furiously at the storm door, and he let her in again. Then he said good night, with more compliments on Corie's supper, and went to his bedroom. In bed he read an old American Field for a few minutes, then turned off the light. Outside the wind moaned about the eaves of the doublewide. His feet were like ice despite ample blankets and a big down comforter. His mind raced through scenes of the bleak winter prairie; a sleepless night seemed certain....

Then came the scuff of slippers, and his bedroom door opened. Through it walked a gowned form, back lit for an instant by the glow from the dusk-to-dawn pole light outside the doublewide's front window. The room was dark again. Yap jumped stiffly to the floor and got under the bed. He felt the covers move, the touch of arm skin. Then soft lips on his own, and the urgent hug of Corie's ample arms. The prospect of walking into a whiteout suddenly lost its appeal as his being flooded with the almost forgotten joy of shared humanity.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

American Brittany Club Membership Application

THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB, INC. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club and will entitle you to the monthly magazine, The American Brittany. Associate Membership is available if person is a Full member of a Regional Club or immediate family member of a Full member. Full Membership cost is $30.00 per year and $3.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.
