Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

PVC Versus Metal Jumps

Summer is here and with sunny outdoors beckoning, agility training is at its peak. Lots of readers wonder which type of jumps to purchase, and may find the huge array of equipment daunting and confusing. When comparing jumps, increasing your knowledge of safety concerns will help you to choose the best options for you and your dog.

While many clubs provide opportunities to receive instruction on fast, independent obstacle performance on competition equipment, jumps are the most common agility obstacle and may be one of the best choices for agility fans to purchase and practice at home. With jumps, you can practice jumping well (per Susan Salo or Linda Mecklenburg), or teach dogs to send out to jumps at a distance, or common jump sequences such as pinwheels, back sides of jumps, wraps, 270's or serpentines. Any discussion of jumps would be remiss without mentioning safety. And that leads us back to the question of which type of the myriad jumps available is best for agility practice.

Metal jumps have earned a bad name when it comes to safety, some well-deserved, but some unwarranted. When an agility dog crashes into a jump, it's better for the jump to fall over than to remain firmly in place withstanding the full force of the impact. Jumps are safest when they fall down. Picture people jumping hurdles in track and field. The hurdles are designed to fall over when touched, rather than staying upright which may result in getting hung up and injuries.

Pedestal style jump

Subsequently, freestanding pedestal style jumps (shown at the left) are safer than the more traditional style with a ground bar (shown at the right). Pedestal style jumps are more likely to fall over upon impact, thereby reducing the force of the impact. Having said that, if you are jumping outside in high wind conditions, you may find it irritating when light jumps are blown over without ever being touched! You can modify pedestal style bases to make them more stable, by:

Jump with ground bar

- Filling the bases with sand, and then gluing the pieces together so it can't leak
- Putting a sandbag on top of the bases to weigh it down, or
- Staking them down.

But of course, if you increase the stability by staking jumps down, you are then making them less safe.

There are several reasons why clubs and individuals continue to use jumps with ground bars. First, they are easier to move, because one person can simply carry the 1 piece jump over her shoulder. They may allow faster jump height changes, since the ground bar keeps the standards a set distance apart, and newbie volunteers don't need to fiddle with spacing of the standards. Second, if the legs are detachable or allow you to pivot them so they lie completely flat, jumps with ground bars are easily stored in a very small space, which can be extremely important if you're limited to small space, such as a small club trailer.

Note that steel jumps are generally heavier, and less likely to fall upon impact, than lighter aluminum jumps. So they may be more difficult for volunteers to carry. Also on the down side, steel jumps rust faster than aluminum, so are frequently powdercoated, which increases the price significantly, and must be done by a powdercoater with special materials, large oven, and ventilation. And finally, folding PVC jumps with clip on jump bars are still extremely popular for classes, clubs and individuals doing demos or taking their equipment in their cars to practice at new locations. You can fold several of them quickly and throw them in a bag in the back of your car so easily that their convenience makes switching to other types of jumps unattractive in comparison.

Square metal jump cups

Another aspect of safety is the shape of the jump cups. Traditional square jump cups (shown at the left) have relatively pointy edges which may be more likely to cause injury on impact than rounder edges. In comparison, round jump cups tend to be safer. One notable exception is homemade PVC cups such as those shown at the right. While inspired by a desire for round cups, it's difficult to make this shape by yourself out of plastic, and rough or jagged edges are counterproductive. If you are going to use round cups, it is generally safer to purchase round (PVC or metal) jump cups that have been machined to produce the roundest, smoothest corner.

Jagged homemade PVC jump cup, on jump with ground bar

Sliding plastic jump cups, with no exposed cups at other heights

Given these issues, it's not surprising that concerns have been raised that dogs may injure themselves by running into extra cups that are present but not being used by the jump bar(s). With the exception of spread jumps, most jumps use 1 or 2 jump bars, leaving all the other jump cups exposed. Safer options include sliding jump cups (see left for a close-up) or jump standards more common in Europe, featuring holes in the standard where you can insert movable pins holding the jump bars. With jumps featuring the sliding cups, you'd choose whether to use 1 or 2 jump bars, and slip all unnecessary sliding cups off the top and into storage. The only cups present are the cups under the bars. While one person can easily adjust the height (with one hand on the left side and one hand on the right), some clubs are concerned about having to explain how to adjust the height when introducing this new style of equipment.

In the same vein, extra jump cups may not be risky, if you choose the right material. A new generation of soft, flexible rubber cups (shown at the right), are very safe. With a texture akin to a baby's soother, these soft, smooth cups don't scratch and simply bend along with the impact.

Soft, smooth, flexible rubber jump cups

Before you decide to switch from metal jumps and/or cups to PVC, it's important to mention that PVC is more brittle than metal, especially in cold weather. So if you're using your jumps outside in harsh winter and snow, they may break. And at the opposite extreme, some brands of plastic jumps may stretch and bow if constantly left outside in extreme sun and heat.

Regardless of your material choice, sun tends to fade and/or yellow pigments. For example, most clubs using painted metal jumps can expect to apply a fresh coat of paint as required, up to once a year. If you want to maintain vivid contrasting colors over prolonged exposure to sun, without a lot of maintenance make it a priority to look for UV resistant equipment (which is now readily available).

Additionally, you may find that factors other than safety weigh into your choices. For example, the cheapest PVC jumps are generally more affordable than the cheapest metal jumps. Busy training centres with hundreds of dogs and equipment being moved more than once a day may find that metal jump standards are the only realistic choice because it is more durable and can better withstand the day to day reality of being thrown, dragged and piled under other equipment. In this case, metal standards can be combined with flexible soft rubber jump cups, to achieve durability with softer, safer edges.

Whatever your needs, I hope this article has helped to increase your knowledge of what's available, to balance your evaluation of the equipment options and keep your summer training both fun and safe for you, your partners and friends.

GREATER MILWAUKEE Ottawa Field Trial Grounds Dousman, WI April 18-19, 2015

The Greater Milwaukee Brittany Club held its 2015 Hunt Test on 18th and 19th of April at the Ottawa Field Trial Grounds in Dousman, Wisconsin. Saturday and Sunday were both good days with temps in the 50s and 60. Conditions were good for both the dogs and the handlers, as we had a good number of dogs with qualifying scores. Thanks to the great effort of everyone involved with the event, both days ran flawlessly.

We ran a single course both days, with Joe Marcinowski and Michael Kirkman judging Seniors and Masters, and Ed Cuddeback and Tracy Harmeyer judging Juniors on Saturday. On Sunday Ed Cuddeback and Tracy Harmeyer judged the Masters and Seniors and Edward Brock and Tracy Harmeyer judged the Juniors. We had 30 dogs entered on Saturday, two braces of Masters, four braces of Seniors and nine braces of Juniors. Sunday there were 29 dogs, three braces of Masters, three braces of Seniors and nine braces of Juniors.

The gunners for the Master and Senior levels were Greg Asmus, Jim Rhoda and Randy Weber, they all did a great job.

Many thanks to the numerous people who volunteered their time to make our event run smoothly and totally enjoyable.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

Learning to Speak the Language

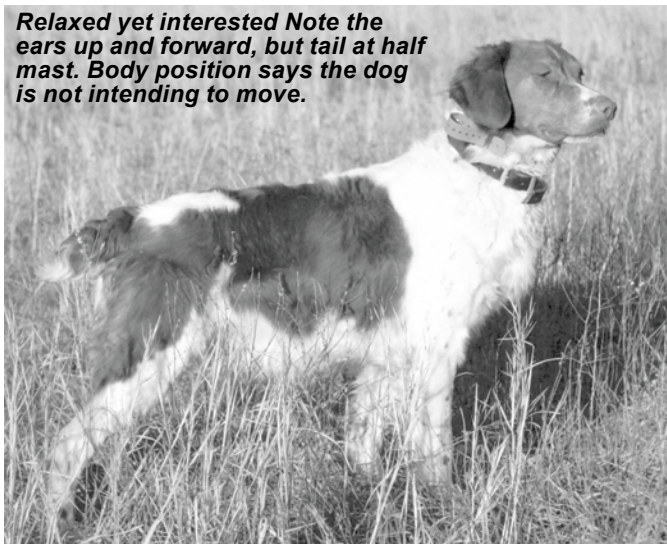

Wouldn't it be great if our dogs could talk to us while we're training them? To know what they're thinking, and to have some sort of advance warning before they make a mistake would be wonderful. If they could only say, "Hey, I'm not sure what you want me to do. Can you explain it to me?" or, "I want that bird so badly I'm going for it, even though I know I shouldn't." It sure would make training easier!

Believe us when we say it does make training easier. Our dogs are communicating with us all the time; they communicate by their body language. When they "talk" to each other, they do it by using movements and postures and facial expressions. And on occasion, there will be a vocal addition via a whine or growl or bark, but the subtleties of body language are the mainstay of their communication. We're going to throw a $10 word at you that we've used before "although we think it used to be a $5 word, but inflation being what it is...): anthropomorphism. It means attributing human thoughts and speech to animals. We use anthropomorphism a lot in our teaching and training, mostly as a way to translate what's being "said" by the dog into something that people can understand and relate to.

There are a few pretty obvious signs a dog uses to convey its thoughts. The Big Three (ears, tail, and eyes) give us a non-stop flow of information. The tail is the most obvious. It tells us when a dog is happy (a fast wag, using everything from the tip of the tail to the whole back end of the dog); frightened or intimidated (tail tucked between its legs); intense and focused (tail held rigidly out from the dog's body); tired (tail hanging down and minimal wagging); and tentative and uncertain (tail up partway and wagging slowly).

The ears often combine with the tail position to give us additional information. Ears perked forward and held as upright as possible (interest and intensity); ears folded back (confusion or uncertainty); ears hanging loosely and relaxed (everything's fine); and ears pulled tightly back and eyes squinted and partially closed (intimidated and/or frightened).

Relaxed yet interested Note the ears up and forward, but tail at half mast. Body position says the dog is not intending to move.

The eyes tell a story as well, and combine with the ears and tail. Wide open eyes, focused on a particular spot, signify intensity and interest, while eyes looking away from us and half closed can mean the dog is either trying to ignore something or is thinking. In order to figure out which it is, we've got to look at the rest of the body language. Eyes half-closed and tail tucked between the legs are most often signs that the dog is intimidated, or maybe overloaded with too much information. The same half-closed eyes combined with a tail that is partially up or just hanging relaxed can mean the dog is thinking and processing information. These signs are pretty obvious to most people. And the one sign that everybody recognized is a dog trying to intimidate or planning to fight: body held rigidly, tail up and held stiff, ears forward, intense eye contact...combined with a ridge of hair standing up along the back and shoulders.

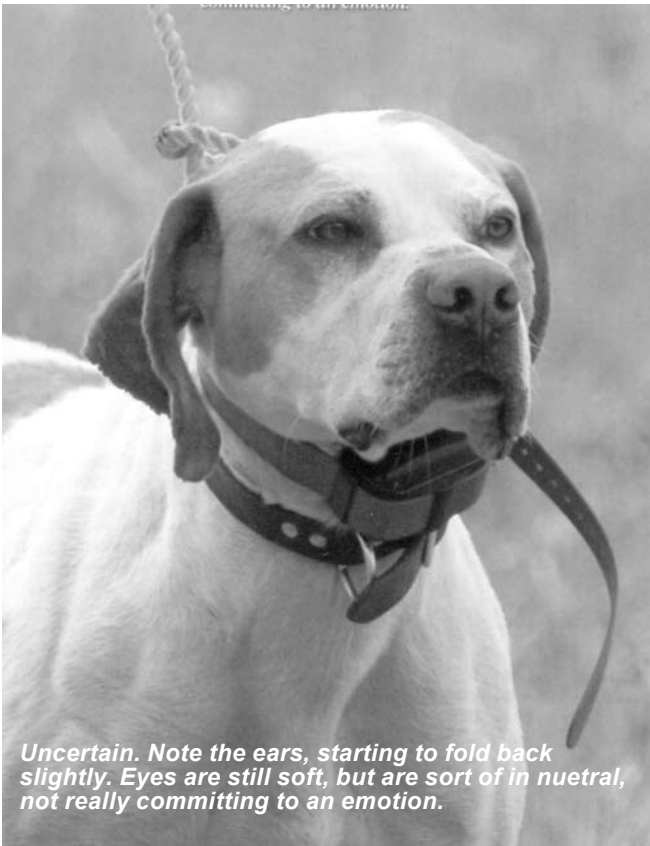

Those are the big "words" in the dog's language. To really understand a dog, we need to look past those to the less obvious signs. In a training situation, how we react has to be dictated by what a dog is saying. We need to know if they are understanding the lesson being taught or if they're confused; and we need to anticipate a dog's reaction in order to either encourage it if it's the correct response, or make a correction if the wrong response is likely. The ears, tail, and eyes will give us part of this information, but we need to learn a few more words of "dog speak" to really get the whole pictures.

One sign we need to watch closely for is acceptance. This can come in many forms and will vary depending on the amount of pressure a dog is feeling. A dog that accepts and submits to a cue from us will often lick its lips. This is a sign that the dog relaxed its jaws and mouth, since just like humans, dogs tend to clench their mouth when in a tense or unsettling situation. Another sign that the dog is relaxing and submitting is a swallow – it also shows that the dog had stopped clenching its mouth. This is often followed by a lick of the lips, but not always. Also, it's important to watch the dog's breathing pattern. When going for an uncertain or nervous state to a calmer frame of Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Uncertain. Note the ears, starting to fold back slightly. Eyes are still soft, but are sort of in neutral, not really committing to an emotion.

mind, the dog will slow its breathing, and sometimes give a sigh. When training or working with a dog, understanding these signs can tell you whether or not the dog is accepting the situation.

The whole body tells a story, too. Everyone is familiar with the classic puppy invitation to play, which is called a “play bow”: back end in the air, tail wagging, while the front is lowered to the ground and the pup has an excited expression on its face. And the dog that got into the trash while we were out of the house will often tattle on itself by a slinking a submissive body posture, with the head down, tail tucked, and the body slightly crouched.

Movement of the body is especially critical in reading a pointing dog. The body language most easily recognized is birdiness in the field. When the dog initially scents a bird, its body signals that excitement by increasing the tempo of the tail-wagging, the head comes up, and the dog moves more rapidly as it works out the scent. The end result up on locating the source of that scent is a dog freezing its movement and going on point.

Once that happens, we need to read the body language and see if the dog is committed to holding that point or is planning to break and chase the bird. We need to know what dogs are planning to do before they do it. Obviously, the feet can tell us if the dog is moving, but we need to know the dog’s thoughts prior to the feet moving. How is this accomplished? By watching the shoulders and head. A dog that is standing still but thinking about moving will lower its shoulders slightly and may also lower its head. If we can predict the movement, we can be ready to make an appropriate correction if needed. A tail that goes from rigid to slight wagging (also called “ticking”) may mean the dog is thinking about moving or is uncertain, but we need to know why. Is the bird moving? Has the scent pattern changed due to wind? Or is the dog going to bust the bird? Watch the shoulders and head: If they lower, the dog is about to move. A dog that holds point with its body and head but ticks the tail often means the scent has changed or the bird has moved. A ticking tail can also signify that the dog is feeling pressured, and the facial expression will tell you the difference.

Ever notice that you dog shakes its head and shoulders (like shaking off water) when you’re training it? Even though there’s nothing for the dog to shake off? This is the canine version of brushing off what you’ve just done... sort of “flipping you the paw.” If you have your dog on lead and it does this, try to catch it and stop it at the beginning by giving a quick, sharp tug on the lead.

Now that you know a little more about the way your dog is “talking” to you, also realize that we “talk” in the same manner, usually without realizing it. Dogs are experts at reading our body language and responding to it. They watch our eyes, body, hands, feet, etc. because it’s the language they’re born knowing. How many times has your dog reacted to a cue a split second before you actually gave it? That says you’re doing something via body language before actually giving the cue, and your dog has picked up on that signal. They read the obvious stuff – like picking up the keys to the car means you’re going somewhere – but they also read the less obvious, like knowing if we’re happy or sad or upset. Our body language tells on us, and the dogs read that when we’re training them, too. It’s a non-stop conversation we don’t even realize we’re having.

There are a myriad of combinations of body language and signals our dog’s use, and we’ve just touched the tip of the iceberg here. If you watch closely, you’ll start to see the subtle ways your dog communicates, and you’ll be a much better trainer and partner because of it.

American Brittany Club/Illinois Brittany Championship Association

ABC Illinois All Age Classics

AMATEUR ALL AGE WINNERS: Kip Lenard, Judge, Dave Capstick w/The Ace of Spade, Tim Self w/Glade Run Irish, Judge Steve Gill, Jerry McGee with Uncle Kracker, & Tommy Thomas w/TNT's Blazing Shoshoni Shake 'N Bake

The Illinois Brittany Championship Association has long had a tradition of Amateur supporters. This year was no exception as 21 dogs came to the line to compete for blue ribbon and the traditional belt buckles. We welcomed first timer Harlan Gerardy from Texas who brought the 2014 National Amateur Champion to compete. Welcoming back Joe Williams from Ohio; Stan Williamson, Jerry McGee, Tommy Thomas, Ed & Donna Janulis, and Ray Trimble from Illinois; along with our Missouri contingent of Dave Capstick, Tim Self and Ed Graves rounded out our amateur entry. Weather kept away the Harlings from New York and the Jagielski's from Northern Illinois.

As always, without the support of Purina, this championship could not happen. We thanked Terry Trzcinski personally as he dropped in to visit. We also want to recognize IDNR site superintendent Cha Hill & his staff who have done so much with the limited resources available to them. Everyone at the trial pitched in to help. Chad Holman came over during the two days of the Amateur and planted birds. With Tom Tracy's help, they used a sledge hammer to breakup ice at some of the crossings. Maurine Ritcher came down to help in the kitchen, as Mary Jo Trimble did road guard duties. Judy Graves cooked the preceding week so everyone could have a hot dish at lunch. Dave Capstick, Tim Self, Stan Williamson & Ray Trimble did Marshal duties, while Ed Graves planted birds for the Derby & Open. Joe Junge came every day just to drive the dog wagon. This was truly a team effort which made this event so successful.

The Ace of Spade, a 9 year old white & liver male repeated his amateur win from last year. His Ross Young painting was just unveiled at this past Brittany Nationals as he was recognized as the 2013 Purina Dog of the Year. Spade ran in the first brace and set the standard no other dog could match. 2nd place went to Glade Run Irish, handled by Tommy Thomas for his owner David Webb from Pennsylvania in the first brace Sunday morning. Tommy also was successful with earning a 3rd place for Uncle Kracker, Bo & Renae Ackerman's 2014 Open All Age National Champion. Finishing out the placements was Tommy Thomas with his own dog TNT's Blazing Shoshoni Shake 'N Bake. For the entire two days of running, the temperature did not get out of the 20's with lows in the single digits as we took care of dogs in the morning at sun up. Pointer men, Kip Lenard of Wentzville, MO and Steve Gill of Jefferson City, MO, are to be commended for their dedication to the sport for riding those two full days and watching our Brittany's perform in this hour stake.

Our Derby entry was smaller than we would have liked, but all of them showed promise as an hour all age dog. This was their first opportunity to run a 45 minute course and Kashmir, a youngster on Tom Tracy's string came out and Kashmir, a youngster on Tom Tracy's string came out the winner. Donna & Ed Janulis' Ace's One Eyed Jack was second handled by Chad Holman. Joe Williams earned the yellow ribbon with a nice performance by JJ's Diablo With Rusty Tears. Rounding out the placements was Gun Creek Ganster from the Holman string. Stan Williamson filled in at the last minute to help Jeff Marshall complete the judging assignments.

OAA WINNERS: Dave Capstick, Judy & Ed Graves, Tom Tracy w/The Crash Scene, Lori Rezzardi, Judge, Tommy Thomas w/Dakota Gun Runner's Buckshot, Judge Jeff Marshall, Ray Trimble, Tim Self w/Kinwashkly Fat Bastard, Mary Jo Trimble & Harlan Gerardy.

OPEN DERBY WINNERS: Judy Graves, Tom Tracy w/Kashmir, Judges Stan Williamson & Jeff Marshall, Chad Holman w/Ace's One Eyed Jack, Terry Trzcinski, Jerry McGee

Monday afternoon started the first of 13 braces to compete in the Grand Open Limited All Age stake. Paul Rosevear's The Crash Scene came out on top. Handled by Tom Tracy, Crash had multiple bird work and a super race. 2nd place was Dakota Gun Runner's Buckshot, a six year old male owned by Jim Berkowitz of Fayetteville, GA and handled by Tom Tracy. Buck ran in the very last brace as a bye. Third place went to Kinwashkly Fat Bastard and 4th place to Black Creek Deacon. Congratulations to all placed dogs and many thanks to judges Jeff Marshall of Sadorus, IL and Lori Rezzardi of Iuka, IL who braved the cold and wind out on the course for two and a half days. We could not have run our trial without them.

2015 ABC WESTERN FUTURITY

January 5-6, 2015

Reported by: Dee Hartnek

The Greater Phoenix Brittany Club hosted this year's American Brittany Club Western Futurity in sunny Arizona. Thank you to the Gr Phoenix Club members, regional chair Lyle Christiansen and regional secretary Arlette Hennessey for hosting this event. We send good wishes for Lyle who was involved in an accident shortly after the event. Thanks go to Purina for their donation of dog food and continued support of the ABC Futurity Program, and also to sponsors Garmin and Mud River.

The Western Futurity Show was held on Monday, January 5, 2015 at the Santa Cruz County Fairgrounds in beautiful Sonoita, AZ. Participants in the futurity and some folks from the field trial grounds came out to help set up in the morning and their help was most appreciated. Although several days leading up to the Western Futurity were very cold and even snowy, things warmed up nicely for both the show and field portion of the event, showing off Arizona weather at its winter best.

A catered lunch was served at noon, following by show judging at 1:00 PM. Our judge was Lucy Goodman from Tucson, AZ. Ms. Goodman was raised with sporting dogs as her mother is a long-time Pointer breeder and Lucy is working towards her AKC license to judge Brittans. She has attended local specialty shows, studied the breed standard and has even gone out to watch a field training session with several Brittans and other sporting breeds.

Sonoita and nearby Elgin have many vineyards and there are several wineries in the area. Following awards and photos, many of the group went to a local tasting room to try some local wines. Most tasting rooms are closed on Monday but Dos Cabezas Wines agreed to open up for a private wine tasting just for our group.

A catered dinner and raffle was held at the field trial grounds in the evening following the show and wine-tasting, leading into the field futurities the next day.

Thanks to all who traveled from near and far to participate in the Western Futurity.

Futurity Show Judge: Ms. Lucy Goodman

Gun Dog Futurity Reported by: Gil Hopper

The 2015 Western Gun Dog futurity was held on January 6 at Las Cienegas Conservation Area near Sonoita, Arizona. The judges were Ron Yospur and Gil Hopper, both from Arizona. The grounds were in great shape with grass on the hillside and in the wash. The weather was warm but not hot. The AMAZING PART was we had 5 different wild covey finds on course over the first 7 braces, never more than one per brace. The stake was excellent as we had 9 dogs who could have won. It was a pleasure to watch. We knew we were in for a good stake, when we saw how far people had traveled to show off their dogs. The welcome get together was nice as was the excellent lunch. Everything ran like clockwork. I especially wish to thank Ed Tillson for the use of Chile, though a horse, he is part of the trial family.

BRACE 1: NORTH UMPQUA'S CINDERELLA TRI LADY JH-LADY (BARROWS) AND COPPER'S CODE 3 COVER-RED (STOCKTON). Lady ran at moderate range exhibiting good speed and had a wild covey find 100 yards off the breakaway. She continued to hunt hard to the front for the remainder of the brace, being rewarded with an additional find. Red had two good finds with nice style while running at fair range with a good pattern and exhibiting excellent stamina.

BRACE 2: SHILOH'S THROWBACK THURSDAY JH-DAISY (FOSTER) AND REMCHESTER'S TENNESSEE MOONSHINER'S LADY-TICKLE (RUCKER). Daisy ran a moderate range, but needs pattern work. She hunted hard and was rewarded with two finds and exhibited good intensity on both. Tickle had amazing bird work for a dog so young. She had one broke find and a perfectly executed stop to flush. Additionally, she had good range and pattern.

BRACE 3: K NINE'S HIGH ROLLER-JACK (HENNESSEY) AND MILLETTE'S LIMITED EDITION-TARA (STOCKTON). Jack had one good find showing good style even after being relocated. He ran with excellent range and pattern, while never slowing down. The pair got separated with judge Yospur following Tara who ran well and had birdwork.

BRACE 4: CEDARIDGE KIP'S CAMELOT SHAY TRE' JH-DAISY (DOIRON) AND WILLOWICK COAL MINER'S DAUGHTER AT ALCHEMY-ETTA (STALEY). This was the brace of the stake. Both dogs ran at excellent range, hunted hard, with good patterns and good bird work. Etta's included a wild covey find. Daisy lost to a dog that was just a little better today.

BRACE 5: MAXWELL'S SMOKIN YOU-SMOKEY (ROGERS) AND NORTH UMPQUA'S STETSON THE SINGING COWBOY

JH-STETSON (SAUL). Smokey ran a big, but more erratic race than desired. He also had two bird contacts. Stetson unfortunately had no bird work while running at modest range with good handling and pattern.

BRACE 6: CAMELOT'S COPPERS ROLLIN' FOUR DICE JH-DICE (DOIRON) AND COPPER'S GOOD COP BAD COP-COPPER (STOCKTON). Dice ran at modest range, while handling well with a fair pattern. Dice managed one find. Copper ran at fair range, hunting and handling well, but was not rewarded with a find.

BRACE 7: WIND MTN SHADYWOOD'S TO THE POINT-KIMBER (STALEY) AND MAXWELL'S SHOW TIME-ELLIE (ROGERS). Kimber had one nice find while running at a good range, while handling and patterning well. Ellie had two covey finds but unfortunately was unable to get them pointed. She ran at good pace and range but was a little erratic.

BRACE 8: FRITZ MAXWELL GUNNER-FRITZ (HENNESSEY) AND COPLEY'S ALL FUN 'N GAMES-SOPHIE (DOIRON). Fritz had a nice run at good range and handled well with two stops to flush. Sophie ran and handled well, but needed to pattern better. She had no bird work.

FRONT ROW: Jason Staley w/ Willowick Coal Miner's Daughter At Alchemy, Paul Doiron w/ Cedaridge Kip's Camelot Shay Tre' JH, Arlette Hennessey w/ K Nine's High Roller, Karen Barrows w/ North Umpquas Cinderella Tri Lady JH STANDING: Cortnee and Emree Staley, Judge Ron Yospur, Peggy Doiron, Jeri K Conklin, Tom Temple, Judge Gil Hooper

All Age Futurity

Reported by: Steve Rutkowski & John Beauchamp

The 2015 Western All Age futurity was held on January 6 near Sonoita, Arizona at the Las Cienegas Conservation Area. At cast-off of the 2015 Western All Age Futurity the temps were in the mid-30s and by pickup of the last brace probably in the mid-70s. Skies were clear and the breeze picked up a bit for the running.

BRACE 1: RUSTY RIDGE PEPPER ANN – PEPPER (KILPATRICK) AND KINWASHKLY MVP SPEED RACER – REESE (DOIRON). Pepper made some nice casts, consistent race. One bird contact. Reese – Two bird contacts; first was well pointed on one of the side hills going out. Reese's race improved up on the ridge above the tanks.

BRACE 2: JANEES LET HER GO – LEX (STALEY) AND KINWASHKLY SMARTY MARTY – MARTY (DOIRON). Lex handled well, had a find at five minutes in the canyon. Thinking bird hunting, Lex was short and had a couple of unproductive stands. Marty – Marty carded a pair of finds with good location on the birds. Coupled with good race and handling.

BRACE 3: JANEES I'LL MAKE YA' FAMOUS – KID (STALEY) AND FINALE'S ENCORE – GRIT (DOIRON). Kid worked the full 30 min. and was never in the horse tracks. From cast off Kid was hunting the side canyons to the front. Kid's find at seven minutes was staunch and positive on location. Kid finished to the front. Grit – Lost contact and pulled the tracker.

BRACE 4: MAXWELL'S HEAVY HITTER – GABE (ROGERS) AND KINWASHKLY KING LOUIE – LOUIE (VATER). Gabe had the race of the stake, up front strong and wide. Fun to watch, willing to tackle the big canyons. A bird could have changed things. Louie – Handled easily but was short most of the brace. Point was called at 20 minutes and Louie looked good, but could not produce a bird.

BRACE 5: SPLASH'S FIRE GODDESS – PELE (TILLSON) AND WILD MTN'S STORM WARNING – STORM (RIGGLE). Pele had a forward race, worked to objectives. Handled well for Mr. Tillson. Storm – Lost early; pulled the tracker.

BRACE 6: LAMBACH'S BLEW BY YOU – BLEW (LAMBACH) AND BYE. Consistent forward race. Carded one nice find and one non-productive (a spot several dogs had the same result).

Congratulations to all those who participated in the 2015 Western Brittany futurity. This futurity wouldn't have been what it is without those people who stepped up for the love of the breed a very special and big Thank You goes out to Dee and Hank Hartnek, Robin Tomasi, Lyle Christensen and Steve Crabb for all the help they gave in putting together, taking down, rolling up the sleeves and showing support they did for this event. From finding judges to getting mats for the ring along with Terry and Norm. All for their help planting birds and to the many other people who stepped up and helped. Without the group effort and the helpers events like this just do not happen themselves.

Bless you all and again...Thank you so very much.

*Sincerely,
Arlette Hennessy*

2014 ABC NATIONAL SPECIALTY SHOW

The 2014 ABC National Specialty show was held November 28-30, 2014 in Fort Smith, Arkansas at the Kay Rodgers Park. We had a total of 42 Obedience entries, 12 rally entries, 42 Sweepstakes entries and the Breed totals were 101 class entries with 60 Best of Breed competition. We also had 7 juniors which was 300% more than the prior year.

We started the weekend with the Obedience and Rally competition with Mr. Barry Roland as the judge. He chose Jayhawker's Lucky Jack as his High Combined and High in Trial winner. Jayhawker is a familiar name in the NSS Obedience. This handler has won several years in a row. His score was 196.5. Rally followed lunch with 12 entries. We did not offer a High in Rally this year but will be doing so for 2015. We have come a long way and hope to see more competitors for 2015.

It was then onto the Match Show with Kristyn McCartney, one of our own Brittany breeder/handlers, who has gone on to professional handling, as our judge. Her choice for Best in Match was Willowick Coal Miner's Daughter at Alchemy and Best of Opposite was Willowick's First Class Family Guy. These are littermates. Talk about consistency!

The Top 20 competition followed that night. Our Top 20 Competition is evolving and we are tweaking it each year. Next year we are planning even more. The Awards were given out at the Banquet.

Our Saturday started out with Sweepstakes judging. Another one of our own judged our sweepstakes, Nancy Morabito. We had an entry of 42 and her Best in Sweepstakes choice was GCH Brigadier's Lightning Strikes Twice from the 12-15 month bitch class and the Best of Opposite in Sweepstakes was awarded to North Umpqua's Stetson the Singing Cowboy, also out of the 12-15 month class.

Veteran Sweeps winner was CH Splash's Izzabelle, JH and Best of Opposite in Veteran Sweeps was GCH Dogwood Hollow So Be It, CGC, CA.

Dual Champion sweepstakes winner was DC Copley Red River. There were no Bitch Dual Champion entries.

Sweepstakes was followed by judging of the dog classes. Our confirmation breed judge was Ms. Judy Webb. Her winners dog was Triumphant's Chances Are from the Bred By Class and Reserve Winners Dog was Ammo's Southern Boggie from the Open class.

Saturday night we had our Banquet and awarded the Top 20 Winners. The winner was GCH Sandbar's Ride the Wind. Awards of Merit were given to GCH Millette's Sweet Memories, OA, OAJ, NF, NAP, NJP and also to GCH Sunquest Star Vue's Special Edition and the People's Choice Award went to GCH. Millette's Sweet Memories, OA, OAJ, NF, NAP, NJP.

Sunday started off with the Bitch classes. Ms. Webb found the littermate of Winners Dog for Winners Bitch, Triumphant's Playmate of the year from the Open Class and her Reserve Winners Bitch was Trio's Sovereign Alleluia from the 9-12 month class.

Veteran Dog winner was GCH Ammo's Bugle Boy, JH. Veteran Bitch was CH. Splash's Izzabelle, JH. Field Trial Dog winner was DC/AFC Wayside's Blueridge Runner and Field Trial Bitch was NAFC/DC.AFC MTB Caborita De Scipio. DC dog winner was DC Sanbar's Crosscreek Repete Call and Dual Champion Bitch winner was DC/AFC MTB Scipio's Hot Shot of Whizki.

Next it was on to the Stud Dog and Brood Bitch classes that were judged by Nancy Morabito. Her choice for Stud Dog Class was GCH. Mich's Mt Ready Aim Fire and her Brood Bitch was GCH Shamrock's Rival Bolt Out of the Blue.

After lunch we had the privilege of watching our Junior Handler judging by Ms. Webb. That was a tough class to judge with any of them capable of taking home the Blue. Her choice was the winner for the past two years, Megan Rosener with GCH Shamrock's Rival Noblest Roman, JH.

Then it was on to the highlight of the competition, Best of Breed. We had 60 entries in BOB alone. Ms. Webb's choice of BOB for 2014 was GCH Dream Hi's Don't Hate the Player Hate the Game owned by Lori and Tom Rickard and shown by Kristina Rickard.

Best of Winners was Triumphant's Chances Are, owner handled by Kristyn McCartney. Best of Opposite was GCH Brigadier's Lightning Strikes Twice, handled by Rindi Gaudet. Select Dog was awarded to GCH Copley Paper Dragon and Select Bitch was GCH. Millette's Sweet Memories, OA, OAJ, NF, NAP, NJP.

Awards of Merit (in no particular order) were: CH. Rivermist Broxden Make Mynah Double, JH, GCH Sunquest Star Vue's Special Edition, CH Wildfire's Cowgirl's Don't Cry, CH Splash's Izzabelle, JH, CH Shamrock's Rival's Noblest Roman, JH, GCH Triumphant's As Good As It Gets, JH, GCH Sovereign's Chasing Legends, DC Sanbar's Crosscreek Repete Call.

Best Puppy Award went to Rivermist Broxden Upland Game, best Bred By was Triumphant's Chances Are and best Owner Handler was GCH Sunquest Star Vue's Special Edition.

Thanks to all that attended and competed this year. We are hoping for another successful 2015 show and hope you can join us this year. Remember, we are the week before Thanksgiving for 2015, as you requested. Please plan to support it. We all have a great time and new things in the making each year as it evolves into a great National Specialty Show. See you in 2015 in Fort Smith.

A SPORTSMAN'S RAMBLINGS

by Marty Garrell

Over the Memorial Day holiday we headed Down East to Fryeburg, Maine to attend one last spring field trial. For pointing dog fanciers, there's a sense of sadness about the final trial of a long season that begins in Dixie in the winter, then works its way north to Maine and the Maritimes in the late spring. Once you get into the hot weather of late Spring and broods of game birds on public lands, it's over until late summer when the circuit starts in reverse.

The season had been a disappointing one for us, with our "top dogs" making serious mistakes in key trials in South Jersey and Cape Cod, and the Central Maine trial started the same way. Our "money dog" had issues with his bracedmate, failing to honor its point then crashing to the front and stealing position. Our "old reliable" dog lost patience when forced three times in a row to relocate moving birds in order to establish a solid point. (Relocation happens a lot in wet, flooded, rainy conditions!) She took several steps and had to be picked up on her fourth point. This left only our senior "show dog" who's been competing for years to get a last field win which would qualify her as a dual champion, something seen rarely in sporting breeds. She would run the last stake of the season for us on the next day, just before we would head home. But the show champion, worked well, hunted the scrubby woods off trail, and, lo and behold, had a solid, statuesque point about two-thirds of the way around the course with perfect manners. She finished strongly, digging hard around the course, though not finding any more quail. It had been the best performance of our season, and, although there would be no ribbons, we would head home feeling especially good about the weekend.

One last try during the last hour of a day is common to outdoor sports. As anglers know, you'd best be alert fishing throughout any tide, especially when it quits, and the skipper tells you it's about time for the cry: "Lines up!" Paradoxically, the largest fish of the trip are often taken then unless the angler is asleep at the switch and misses the strike. If the night or day has been an active one and the bass or fluke or tautog have been coming over the rail steadily, it's one thing, but, if action has been slow or poor or non-existent, it's easy to get lulled into a "shrug-your-shoulders-and-go-home" attitude. The best skippers often have an ace up their sleeves, a spot they save for times when things go badly, a drop that has just enough fish to work for a little while and put smiles on the faces of their fares, although it could be easily exhausted if worked extensively. Old time East End Skippers like Artie Lach, Clark Bellows or George Porter--they always had such special spots for springtime blackfish and flounder, back when you could fish those species.

Sometimes you take a shot at a place you've never caught, and the fish are right there as if by magic. One rainy afternoon last spring I needed some panfish to take home from a freshwater lake not far from the city. The usual spots yielded nothing, but we drifted off them and into a shallow cove where we just kept casting out of boredom more than anything else. Suddenly a take on a streamer, then another; my companion and I had evidently stumbled into a huge school of black crappie, probably a pre-spawn phenomenon, in a place I normally never would have looked. The larder would now be stocked in short order!

Hunters have their equivalent "bell ringers", too. The spring turkey hunter about to leave the blind after a long morning of ineffective listening and calling or the fall bird hunter headed home and hardly paying attention to surroundings are often presented with the best opportunities of the day. That opportunity, if you take advantage, is one that sticks with you for the rest of your career. The fat lady may be in the wings, waiting, but you'd better not pack it in until she starts to sing. The best thing about an encouraging finish is that it gives one hope for the next year or the next day. Like the golfer who has a miserable round but makes par with a long putt on the 18th green or the sports team with a great final run that just falls short of playoffs, you can't wait for the next round or the next opener.

"Wait 'til Next Year" was always the enthusiastic cry of "Dem Bums", the beloved Brooklyn Dodgers. Where outdoors activities are concerned, it's sometimes simply "Wait 'til Next Season!" Or even, "Wait 'til next trip!"

Delaware Valley Champagne Memorial Gun Dog Championship

The grips of old man winter finally gave way for our 2015 Delaware Valley Champagne Memorial Championship at the English Setter Club in Medford, New Jersey. It was certainly an impressive site as you drove up towards the clubhouse to see banners of the previous eight winners gracing the roadway. All participants received a bottle of champagne with a goodie bag. This year we had 22 dogs brought to the line for our judges Mike Hester and Howard Schultz to assess.

We would like to thank all the participants, judges and Loyall for providing us a class event. Our daytime meals were provided courtesy of Ginny Snyder and Karen Conover.

This year's placements were announced Wednesday afternoon by chairman John Perry and Loyall representative Brianna Reis. The champion received a trophy saddle with dog and horse food along with engraved chalices commemorating the event and champagne to toast. Runner up received a trophy saddle bag along with dog and horse food.

Champion – Rován's Hurricane Hannah – Ronnie and Ivan Clark; Runner Up – Marjo's Cruzan Rován – Joe and Marsha Luisi; 3rd place – Woodland's Money Pit – Karen Schramm; 4th place – Marjo's Leftover – Danielle Perry.

Hannah has been perpetually in the money and this year she was rewarded as a champion. Congratulations Ronnie and Ivan!

The Winners

BRACE 3 – STONE CREEK JACK'D UP GTO (ZOOM) – JOE SIKORSKI AND ROVANS HURRICANE HANNAH (HANNAH) – RONNIE CLARK. At 10, point was called at the bridge for the renegade chukar that took flight and Hannah handled it well with nice style. A 2nd find across the road was scored for Hannah. Going out through the airport field each dog took their own side, both very forward. Hannah's 3rd find was at the middle bridge. Joe decided to pick up Zoom. Hannah finished going away and setting the bar for others to follow.

Rovan's Hurricane Hannah – Ronnie and Ivan Clark; Marjo's Cruzan Rován – Joe and Marsha Luisi; Woodland's Money Pit – Karen Schramm; Marjo's Leftover – Danielle Perry.

BRACE 8 – MARJO'S CRUZAN ROVAN (CRUZAN) – JOE LUISI AND COVEYRISE FLYBOY (JET) – BRUCE CONOVER. Point was called for Jet by the pond at 15 and relocated and fired. Jet had another find across the road and Bruce decided to move Jet on to catch the front with Cruzan. Cruzan was standing at 30 in the barking dog field and Jet backed. Joe fired with all in order. Jet had his 3rd find in the airport field with good manners. Cruzan was standing tall and tight in the airport field and Jet came in for the back. A stop to flush on the edge of the field for Cruzan, as Jet went back to the birds and he was up. Cruzan scored another find as we cut through the next field. Time was called as we left Jake's Cut.

BRACE 9 – WOODLAND'S MONEY PIT (CHLOE) – KAREN SCHRAMM AND BLAZIN TACTICAL WEAPON (TASER) – SHAN WESSELS. Both dogs started out tagging each other. Shan elected to pick up his dog going into the foundation. Point was called for Chloe at the foundation island with everything in order and nice style as the bird lifted and the shot fired. Chloe had another clean find at the school bus field and all is good. Chloe finished outside of Jake's Cut as time was called.

BRACE 11 – MARJO'S LEFTOVER (HALEY) – DANIELLE PERRY AND COVEYRISE MY GAL SAL (SAL) – BRUCE CONOVER. Sal scored first at the tree line across from the bridge. Haley is out to the front. Bruce called for a 2nd point for Sal with all in order. As we come down into the cow field, a divided find was called at thirty minutes at the cross tree line. After a discussion by the judges, Sal was picked up. Haley continued to run a forward race, but for the rest of the brace the birds eluded her.

The rest of the running

BRACE 1 – HIT'S A ROCKY ROAD (ROCKY) – JUDY KIRACOFE AND LOIS LANE (LOIS) – IVAN CLARK. At 10 across the first bridge point was called for Lois with nice intensity. There was a chukar running and Lois handled it well. Both dogs were forward. Lois was standing at 20 and this bird ended her running early. As we came out of the woods, Rocky was standing on point at 40 minutes at the foundation looking nice with everything in order. At 45 Judy called point past the island through the cut on the right as Rocky was cautiously making game. The hour was called as Rocky went through the bird field.

BRACE 2 – MR. B'S COOL RUNNING (RAGGS) – HANS BORGMAN AND MORNINGSIDE LADY CARRIGAN (BEV) – GARY GUZ. Raggs broke away forward across the bridge and Bev had her own agenda. After not seeing the dogs for a bit, they were both out of contention.

BRACE 4 – COVEYRISE STEADY EDDIE (EDDIE) – BRUCE CONOVER AND BRIGADOON'S HI-PROOF MOONSHINE (HOCH) – PAUL SNYDER. Both dogs broke away strong to the front and Hooch was gone. Eddie was standing across the bridge on the tree line, but a squirrel was sighted. His first find was scored across the road with a second find at the foundation. In the cow field Eddie was relocated and Bruce decided to move on out to the airport field and time was called.

BRACE 5 – HIT'S ALL JACK'D UP (CRUISE) – JOE SIKORSKI AND HIT'S A RED ROCK GIRL! (RUBY) – BRENT RUPNOW. First to score in this brace was Ruby. Brent called point for Ruby across the bridge at the cross tree line at 5 with everything in order and looking good. Both dogs were forward. At 25 as we turned into the cow field to find Cruise standing all jacked up on point at the tree line to score a find. Cruise was released and he stuck the edge deep into the cow field and continued to the front. Ruby was standing at 50 and was looking good. Ruby scored another find across the pond. Time was called as both dogs headed out to the airport field.

BRACE 6 – HIT'S SHOWTIME (BRANDY) – JOHN PERRY AND MORNINGSIDE BEAU FORTUNE (JACKIE) – GARY GUZ. Jackie scored first at 4, with an unsuccessful relocation Jackie was moved on. Gary called point at 10. With 2 relocations he opted to pick her up. Brandy out to the front on the edge and scored her first find with good manners at 35. Point was called at the cross tree line that became a nonproductive. Another find at 50 at the edge of the airport field was scored. As we came around to the wet field, Brandy was standing, however there was no bird produced. She was released towards Jake's Cut and time was called.

BRACE 7 – HORIZON'S A KNIGHT TO REMEMBER (TWIST) – SHAN WESSELS AND MUSTANG SALLY VIII (SALLY) – HANS BORGMAN. Ten minutes into the brace Twist was seen in the wet field going with a bird. Point was called at 12 for Sally across the pond with everything in order. Sally had her motor going today and was out of pocket for a bit after her find and Hans pulled the Garmin. It showed her going away to the front.

BRACE 10 – BEBOP HEART AND SOUL (BUDDHA) – LESLIE HUNT AND MARJO'S JOHNNIE WALKER (WALKER) – JOE LUISI. With the winds blowing, Walker broke away to the airport field hard and strong. Buddha headed the same way, but Leslie was able to get control. Joe got a hold of Walker as he was running forward to score a find with good manners. Walker was proving to have a mind of his own that day. Buddha was to the front and checked in a bit. At 43 Buddha scored a find on the corner of the airport field. Buddha had another find and Walker came in and failed to honor which ended his day. In the wet field Buddha had a nonproductive and then time was called.

The quality was not only provided in the field but we had events every night after the days competition was done. Marsha and Joe Luisi put on a very nice winner's dinner for Marjo's Johnnie Walker's win last year. We all enjoyed the hors d'oeuvres and deep fried turkey with all the fixins. With plenty of food provided through the week, a Chinese auction, a traditional blue grass band to close out the championship, with clams, conga line (which has become a tradition, led by Ronnie Clark); everyone had a grand ole time. This first year as a Championship was a big success. Special thanks to our sponsors Loyall, Nutrena, Water and Wings and Pete D'Angelis for their unwavering support in the success of our championship; they have all sponsored our event from conception. Thanks to the field trial committee, John and Joanne Perry, Ralph and Judy Kiracofe, and Marsha and Joe Luisi. If you missed this year's championship, we hope you will join us next year to celebrate our 10 year anniversary's running and kick up your heels.

ANTHRACITE Weatherly, PA May 16-17, 2015

The Anthracite Brittany Club held its Spring Field Trial at Freeland Kennel Club on May 16-17, 2015. The weather was warm and overcast both days with some showers on Saturday. We had a very nice entry of 79 dogs. As we all know, it takes a lot of work to put on an event and as usual, we had a tremendous amount of help from both members and non-members alike.

Once again, Terry Hillard fed us very well on Saturday night and Mary Ann Breining baked her wonderful pies. We also had a very nice selection of appetizers and other desserts that our people brought. Thank you for all of your contributions. Our field trial is a community event that is truly a result of everyone's effort.

Thank you for all of your support. We look forward to seeing you again in the fall.

Region 4 Amateur All Age Classic/ Championship

The Region 4 Brittany Amateur All-Age Championship was hosted this year by the Ohio Brittany Club and was held at Tri Valley field trial grounds in Dresden, Ohio March 12th- 15th along with its companion stakes. The weather was nice and pleasant compared to the ice, snow and cold temperatures the week prior, which made us question if we were going to be able to even hold the trial.

Twenty dogs and handlers came to the line from the surrounding states of Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Ohio, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Georgia, and Illinois. The Champion was "The Crash Scene" owned by Paul Rosevear and handled by Tommy Thomas. He set the bar high having multiple finds and a forward wide-running race. Crash used up the entire available course, requiring hard scouting at times and an extended search was required after time to produce the dog. The runner-up was "TNT'S Sirius Renegade Buddy Boy", also handled by Tommy Thomas, who produced four well-spaced finds and a nice forward running brace. Pressing the winners were "Maximum Overdrive" owned Troy Hoverter and "Piney Run Jake" handled by Kent Patterson.

We would like to thank Purina for their continued support with our trial and our Judges Chris Young, Jim Wallace, Lee Long, Brian Hendrickson, and Ron Harling Sr. & Jr., who spent many hours in the saddle. Much appreciation to the Amateur handlers for the great competition, comradery, and their continued support of this event; Wade Haynes, Delmar McCallister, Larry McDonald, Joe Williams, Tommy Thomas, Dan Rein, Jason McGuirk, Deanna Quinn, Lisa Pollock, Jack Alexander, Kent Patterson, Bo Ackerman, Jim Berkowitz, Ron Harling, Sr. & Ron Harling, Jr., Troy Hoverter & Bill Haynes. We would also like to acknowledge our Pros and their families, who helped set the bar high and raise the level of competition in our other stakes: Thank-you, Tom Tracy, Bob Burchett, Jim Johnson, Jim Winnen & Brian Riggle.

We appreciate the assistance of Carla Tillett for providing lunches and those who donated much of their time coordinating such a quality event: Bill Tate, Rich Pristov, Tony Geovenelli, Jack and Crystal Alexander, Bill and Beverly Haynes and Joe Williams. Thank-you all.

CAST-A-BRITT RIP II

MICHIGAN SAGINAW VALLEY

Ionia, MI

May 16-17, 2015

The MSVBC held its 2015 spring trial on May 16-17, in Ionia, MI. A few years ago, our club made a decision to open our trial to all pointing breeds. Because of this decision, we have met many new friends and have seen many other breeds run at this trial. It has been a great experience.

This year, we drew 148 dogs to run in two days, on three courses, all at the same time. It was a challenge, but we got the job done. Thank you to Kent Merryman for putting together this running order. I personally know he had a lot of fun doing it. I also need to thank all the people who helped keep this thing moving. Ron and Jeanne Telfare did an outstanding job running the Gun Dog and Juvenile stake on Saturday. Carlos Gust did the dog wagon, Mike Poehler & Rob Burchholz helped bird plant. Ken Merryman, Ron Gulembo and John Hall kept the All-Age stake going, and somehow, we managed to finish up on time on Saturday afternoon.

Sunday ran like clockwork, and again, Ron and Jeanne Telfare did an exceptional job in getting the Gun Dog and Juvenile stake run, and the All-Age finished up on time. Thanks to Dave Heavlin and Rob Buchholz for planting on the Derby.

Thank you to Will Langley for providing horses and horse transportation for both the club and individual participants. Will is a huge asset for Ionia, and we appreciated him being there.

Lunches were served both Saturday and Sunday. Thank you to Kathy Gulembo, Donna Janulis, and Judy Robin for organizing this. We were so lucky this year to have Joy Clay come out and volunteer her time. Joy is a member of a German Short Hair Pointer club. She helped us with lunches, put on our happy hour, and helped me with paperwork. What a treat, and it was so appreciated.

Thanks again to our hardworking judges. We had some big stakes and they all spent considerable time in the saddle. Most of all, I'd like to thank our participants. We surely appreciate you coming to our trial, and we hope to see you again in the fall.

Once again, the magnificent Oliver Ranch in the Flint Hills of Kansas, was the venue for the Region 17 Amateur Championship hosted by the Southern Kansas Brittany Club. This year was a good turnout as we had 15 dogs compete for this prestigious award. The judges were not left wanting for a Champion though; as nearly every dog had bird work to their credit, and the title became well contested.

The Southern Kansas Brittany Club does great work putting on quality events at the Oliver Ranch, and this one again came off without a hitch. They are fortunate to have several active and contributing members to make their trials always enjoyable and well regarded.

Two well-seasoned judges were chosen for this renewal of the Championship. Larry Meek and Robert Thompson enjoyed watching these dogs put on great performances.

The weather was perfect as we started this event and the first brace set the standard for the Championship as Steve Ralph handled FC/AFC Joker's Jackpot, who laid down a nice forward race that covered every edge of the course. His performance could not be beat as he was named Champion of this fine event. It was nice to see Steve come back down for this event as he and Jackpot took 2nd place in the 2013 running.

The second brace had another real nice performance that resulted with FC/AFC Ocaje in 4th place, handled by Terry Gowin. Although just about every brace saw very competitive dogs, it wasn't until the 6th and 7th brace that 2nd and 3rd place would be determined.

Jim Crawford handled FC/AFC J&M Jax Sugar Babe to a real nice performance in the 6th brace to be named Runner-Up Champion and Dave Lincoln did the same for Jo-Lockapex Dark Roux Gumbo to be picked up for 3rd place. Roux has been very consistent in this event, as he placed 2nd in the 2014 running and was named Champion of the 2013 running.

JOKER'S JACKPOT

2015 Mid America Brittany Championship

Reporter: Wesley Felt

The 2015 running of the Mid America Brittany Championship was held April 20-24, 2015 at the Branched Oak Field Trial Area near Raymond, Nebraska. The Mid America Brittany Championship was hosted by the Missouri Valley Brittany Club and followed the regional club event held April 17-19, 2015.

There are some fine folks we need to mention for their contribution to the success of this Championship event. First and foremost, Bill and Julie Cockrum, who are club members of the Missouri Valley Brittany Club. The Cockrum's along with club members John Savicky and Jack Higgins devote their time to make this event one of the premier Brittany Championships in the Brittany world. John and Bill also shared driving the dog wagon.

We would like to give a special thank you to Purina Dog Food our sponsor for the Mid America Brittany Championship. Purina gives both money toward the running of this event and Pro Plan products for the winners. Purina is fed to several dogs running in this event as testimony to the quality of ingredients that brands the Pro Plan dog products.

The Branch Oak Field Trial Area has a large lodge enjoyed by trial folks to gather for socializing and meals. The meals are prepared by the Wagner family. Karen, George and the kids are there for breakfast and lunch delights. If you have never attended this Championship it would be well worth the drive just for the food.

The judges for this year's event were Mark Keegan from Littleton, Colorado and Rodney Albin from Moscow Mills, Missouri. These two judges were up to the task of four days of riding to select the true all age competitors for this Championship.

Branched Oak Field Trial Area provides ample space to show a true all age bird dog. The judges had a number of good dogs to choose from with the all-age range, intensity on birds pointed, and the handling necessary to be named as the Champion and Runner-up Champion.

We had forty-seven dogs run in this Championship. The Champion named for the 2015 Mid America Brittany Championship was FC/GFC TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG. FC/GFC TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG is a five year old male owned by Tom Wonderling from Wisconsin and handled by Bob Burchett from Iowa. FC/GFC TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG ran brace nine on Tuesday morning. His sire is NFC/DC/AFC RU-JEM'S A TOUCH OF BOURBON and dam is FC LOST CREEK KATE.

The Runner-up Champion was awarded to GFC/AFC OCAJE JH. GFC/AFC OCAJE JH is a five year old female owned and handled by Terry Gowin from Kansas. GFC/AFC OCAJE JH ran brace three on Monday morning. Her sire is NFC/2XNAFC/FC/AFC JUST CALL ME ROY and dam is CH/AFC NAHELA JH. This Runner-up Champion title along with being awarded the Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship just a week before accentuates the accomplishments Terry and Grace have going as a team.

The third place was awarded to DC/AFC SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST. DC/AFC SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST is a six year old female owned by Jessica Carlson from Idaho and handled by Ed Tillson from New Mexico. DC/AFC SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST was released in brace five on Monday morning. Her sire is NFC/FC/AFC SHAMBO'S DARK SHADOW and dam is DC/AFC TEQUILA WITH A TWIST.

The fourth place was awarded to FC SNIKSOH SALLY. FC SNIKSOH SALLY is a 9 year old female owned by Philip and Louise Corlew from Illinois and handled by Bob Burchett from Iowa. FC SNIKSOH SALLY ran brace five on Monday morning. Her sire is FC/AFC SNIKSOH LITTLE RASCAL and dam is FC/AFC Sniksoh Next Gen.

The bracing format for this Championship had three braces in the morning and three braces in the afternoon. The weather for the four days was good for dogs. The calendar says spring but the temperatures were low 30's in the morning with afternoons in the low 60's. We had bird work for most of the dogs and some dogs had multiple finds.

The Championship:

BRACE 1: JAC'S OVER ACES- HOLMAN AND GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP- TRACY. JAC'S OVER ACES had three bird finds at 15, 27, and 49. At 56 a bird came out of the ditch with the dog in pursuit. GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP had a nice find at 10 and a non-productive at 13. The handler elected to pick up before the hour ended.

BRACE 2: CHANCEYS FROZEN ASSET- TRACY AND ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS- HOLMAN. CHANCEYS FROZEN ASSET was forward for the first half of the hour. At 31, point was called and bird flushed. At 40, handler declared his dog lost. ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS lost contact with the handler early, with the handler asking to use the tracker.

BRACE 3: OCAJE-GOWIN AND LET'S GIT-R-DONE NELLIE-BURCHETT. OCAJE had some nice early moves and was out of site for some time. The handler trusted she must be forward and kept going. At 33, handler found her standing. She was relocated a short distance and slammed into a point, showing her handler exactly where the bird had moved too. At 48, near gun dog dam 2, she was again found on point and all was in order. She finished going to the front to finish the hour. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as she was named the Runner-Up Champion of the Mid America Brittany Championship. LET'S GIT-R-DONE NELLIE hunted hard to the front, but finished the hour with no bird contact.

BRACE 4: CAST-A-BRITT MICRO SAMMIE-WINDOM AND ROUX-BEE- TILLSON. CAST-A-BRITT MICRO SAMMIE went on point at 15 on the west fence line near the pines. The handler had to climb the fence to locate the bird. The dog self-relocated during the fence climbing. ROUX-BEE was seen going into the bushes at 22 and came out carrying a bird.

BRACE 5: SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST-TILLSON AND SNIKSOH SALLY- BURCHETT. SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST was found standing at 16, she was given an opportunity to relocate, but no bird was to be found. She showed forty-two minutes of all age desire and hunting and at 58 slammed into a point at the west fence line. She finished the hour going to the front. SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST was enjoyed by the judges and received third place. SNIKSOH SALLY posted her first find early around 3 minutes with all in order. She moved forward and had two more finds at 35 and 55. She finished the hour strong. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as SNIKSOH SALLY was awarded fourth place.

BRACE 6: DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT- TRACY AND WIMBERLEY ROWDY BO-DANDY- JOHNSON. DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT had a nice find along the creek line near gun dog dam 2. Then had two non-productives and finished the hour. WIMBERLEY ROWDY BO-DANDY was hunting a tree line when he went into the area and came out carrying a bird.

BRACE 7: CEDAR VALLEY FLYBY- TRACY AND WOLF RIVER'S WINNING TICKET-GORROW. CEDAR VALLEY FLYBY hunted far and wide to out of sight. At mid hour handler asked to use the tracker. WOLF RIVER'S WINNING TICKET was found pointing at 36. Handler found feathers, but was sure the dog was pointing more and relocated the dog. Dog went on point and bird was put to flight. At 58, he had another bird find and finished the hour.

BRACE 8: ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT- TRACY AND HAL-J'S SMARTEYES-JOKER EZ ACE- JOHN. ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT had a nice first half of the brace. At 40, he was seen carrying a bird. HAL-J'S SMARTEYES-JOKER EZ ACE had two finds at 42 and 54. He was lost at time and in the grace period was brought to the judges.

BRACE 9: J & J'S FEARLESS SAM-GORROW AND TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG- BURCHETT. J & J'S FEARLESS SAM finished the hour with no bird. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG had not been seen forward at 16 and with good reason. The scout had been calling point, but the wind was not helping the handler hear the call. Handler and judge had to ride a long distance to the dog to a clean find. Dog was released and handler sent the dog to catch the front. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG did catch the front but hunting all the way. He was to the front hunting all the lines and at 29 minutes had a second find. Dog was released and to the front again. At 59, the dog had made it to the west fence line near the pines when he slammed on his last bird. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG finished on the south tree line to finish the hour. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG performance was enjoyed by the judges and he was awarded the highest honor as Champion of the Mid America Brittany Championship.

BRACE 10: CEDAR VALLEY SPIDER- TRACY AND GUN RUNNER'S BOOKIN' & COOKIN-GORROW. CEDAR VALLEY SPIDER was not pleasing the handler and was picked-up before the hour. GUN RUNNER'S BOOKIN' & COOKIN was seen under a bird at 10.

BRACE 11: TELTEX JAYHAWK- JOHNSON AND BLACK CREEK DEACON- HOLMAN. TELTEX JAYHAWK was not pleasing the handler and was picked-up before the hour. BLACK CREEK DEACON had a dead bird find and two non-productives. He finished the hour.

BRACE 12: BLACK CREEK BLAZE- HOLMAN AND J&M JAX SUGAR BABE- JOHNSON. BLACK CREEK BLAZE finished the hour with no birds. J&M JAX SUGAR BABE had non-productives at 7 and 27. She kept hunting hard and at 45 had a clean find. She finished the hour.

2015 Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship/GOLGD

By Jim Hammett

The two-day Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship, hosted by the Oregon Brittany Club, kicked off bright and early at 7:30 AM on April 1. The trial grounds are located at Boyce Corral on the Crooked River National Grassland, near Madras, Oregon. The terrain and vegetation are ideal for watching gundogs, particularly bigger running ones. The vegetative cover this year was exceptional as the grounds had been rested during the 2014 grazing season.

This year, we had an exceptional field of 26 entries with some of the best shooting dogs in American Brittany Club's Western Region attending.

The weather at start time for both days was quite cold, in the low 20s and partly sunny. Afternoon temperatures topped out in the low 50s, and the wind never got severe. One really could not ask for better weather for running dogs! Judges for the event were Joe Proulx of Bend, Oregon and John Henderson of Maple Valley, Washington. Both are seasoned judges with a lot of experience.

THE RUNNING

BRACE 1 DOGWOOD'S ROWDY (ROWDY) OWNED BY NAN PULLAN AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH SPICE'S WHIZ KID (KID) OWNED BY JERRY AND CAROLYN CAPE AND HANDLED BY PAUL DOIRON. Both dogs took off aggressively at the start enjoying the cold air. Kid had a nice find at 30 near the tire at mid-course, and was steady and stylish, but later went with a bird on the hill above the water trough at 45 and was picked up. Rowdy put down a nice forward run but ended the brace birdless.

BRACE 2 STALEY'S ORANGE OUTLAW MR. COOPER (COOPER) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH CEDAR CREEK HAWKEYE (HANK) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JOE WAITMAN. Hank had a nice find at 12 with a very stylish point. Cooper came in with a picture-perfect honor. Cooper had, perhaps, the best shooting dog run of the stake, always forward, easily handled, and powerful. At about 32, he had a nice find, but unfortunately took several steps forward at flush. At 54, he had a second find and stayed steady. Hank finished with one find and a good forward run.

BRACE 3 Hideaway's Owyhee Trace (Trace) owned and handled by Roger Borine was braced with Shiloh's Last Dash of Flash (Dash) owned by Pennie Peterson and handled by Paul Doiron. Both dogs took off powerfully from the line, quartering tightly into the wind. At 23, Dash had a nice find and all was in order. At 30, Dash had a second find and again held well while the bird flew right over his head. Dash slowed somewhat in the last 45 minutes. At 55, Trace had a find and all was in order. He finished the brace well up a side hill, still possessing lots of gas.

BRACE 4 JANIE'S I'LL MAKE YA' FAMOUS (KID) OWNED BY CORTNEE STALEY AND HANDLED BY JASON Staley was braced with Sanbar's Legendary Evening (Hershey) owned by Bob West and handled by Paul Doiron. Hershey ran a bit lateral at the start and got lost in the tall sage near the cliffs for a while before the first gate. Kid ran quite large the whole brace but always showed to the front. At 42, Hershey had a nice find and stood it well. At 48, Hershey had a second bird and Kid came in and pointed the same bird. After some discussion between the judges, Kid remained down and both dogs were credited with the find. Both dogs finished to the front.

BRACE 5 JANE'S LET HER GO (LEX) OWNED BY CORTNEE STALEY AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH OVER UNDER'S BODACIOUS TOO (BODIE) OWNED BY JANET FULLWOOD AND HANDLED BY WAYNE DOWN. Lex had a bird at 13 and aggressively marked the bird at flush. Bodie sort of ran off at the turn, but eventually showed up at the gate moving forward. At 28, Lex pointed near the side hill rock pile, and Bodie came in from behind and failed to honor, ending his fine run. Lex's point, however, proved to be a nonproductive. As the hour progressed, Lex settled down and had a nice run. At 38, Lex pointed again, but this proved to be a second nonproductive. During Jason's time on the ground, Lex also appeared to self-release while Jason was attempting to find the bird. At 44, Lex was seen under a bird before the water barrel and in hot pursuit, thus ending the brace.

BRACE 6 HERE WE GO AGAIN (JD) OWNED AND HANDLED BY WAYNE HALE WAS BRACED WITH QUAIL ROCK TOO TOUGH (DUKE II) OWNED BY ELLEN WEINFURTNER AND HANDLED BY PAUL DOIRON. Duke hunted very carefully in good gundog style, quartering closely and missing few objectives. At 19, Duke had an intense, stylish point and all was in order; however, he did crouch very low at the flush. At 30, JD had a nice point with Duke stylishly backing. Both dogs were very intense, but Duke again crouched very low at the flush, almost hitting the ground. At 33, JD had a find at the top of the hill past the tire. At 41, JD had a 4th find. At 43, Duke had a find in the rocks before the water barrel. It would be hard to find a more stylish point. At 46, Duke had a nonproductive after the water barrel, and JD ran right in front of him failing to honor, effectively ending his run. Duke finished with four finds, slowing somewhat at the end.

BRACE 7 MOUNTAINVIEW BOUNTY HUNTER (RANGER) OWNED BY ROBIN MITCH FOUST, ET AL AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH JALO'S SPECK TACULAR (SPECK) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JIM HOUSE. This was the last brace of the day. At 34 Ranger had a find of a quail in the flat and all was in order. Ranger continued with a relatively short gun dog race. Speck ran very well, but finished birdless.

BRACE 8 DIAMOND HILL CHANCEY ENDEAVOR (CASEY) OWNED BY LISA AND PAUL POLLOCK AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH CEDAR CREEK SURGEON (CUTTER) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JOE WAITMAN. This was the first brace for Sunday, and again the temperature was in the mid-20s to start the day. For about 30 minutes, Cutter had a picture-perfect run for a shooting dog, wide and big, but always in sight. At least one judge was notably impressed. He also had finds at 15, 24 and 25. Cutter did creep a bit before the last flush as Joe attempted to put the bird in flight. Casey ran very big and often was out of pocket for extended periods. At 42, Cutter disappeared for a while, but was found standing by the intrepid scout, White Rock. However, by the time the judges had Cutter in view, Cutter was running tight circles in the sage and not being very responsive to his handler. At 52, Joe picked up Cutter. Casey continued to run big and went birdless.

BRACE 9 P AND J'S RIM ROCK (RIM) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JIM HAMMETT WAS BRACED WITH ALDER'S SOPHIE BROOK (SOPHIE) OWNED AND HANDLED BY DAN CAMPBELL. These two gundogs hunted eagerly and carefully the entire brace. The first find was at 12 when both dogs pointed butt-to-butt on separate birds, spaced about 40 feet apart. Birds were flushed simultaneously and both dogs held, however Rim had a bit too much juice in him and moved several steps to mark the bird, some even said he took a snap at the bird as it flew by his mouth. At 18, Sophie had a nice find on the bitterbrush hillside and all was in order. Rim pointed a quail at 19, and again aggressively marked. Both dogs went on to several more finds. Sophie finished with four, Rim with five, but Rim's handler continued to struggle with Rim's short-circuiting brain at the flush of each bird.

BRACE 10 DIAMOND HILL DANGEROUS WEAPON (STU) OWNED BY LISA AND PAUL POLLOCK AND HANDLED BY JASON STALEY WAS BRACED WITH SHANE'S ZIPPITY ZOE (ZOE), OWNED AND HANDLED BY DENNIS LEIS. Stu had a non-productive at the rock pile at 8. At 15, Zoe had a quail find, looked very good on point, and all was in order. At 20, Zoe had a second bird on the hillside. Again, all was in order. After this, Zoe headed forward and rarely looked back running more like the fine all age dog she is. Stu had a second nonproductive near the powerline and finished birdless.

Brace 11 Felter's Rev'n Lobo (Rev) owned by Dan Felter and handled by Jason Staley was braced with Redline's Double E Dixie (Dixie) owned by William Leffingwell and handled by Paul Doiron. Dixie had an early bird at 6. Rev pointed at 35 in the rock pile and a bird was produced. However, Rev was very low in the rear and appeared to be sitting down. Jason assured the judge that there was some air under her. No doubt there was some, but there wasn't much. Dixie had a bird at 47 and was very low in front. This turned out to be a nonproductive.

BRACE 12 MOONSHINE NELL (NELL) OWNED AND HANDLED BY LARRY SANDUSKY WAS BRACED WITH FIRESTARTER'S COUNTRY GIRL (PAIGE) OWNED BY HAILEY GLICK, ET AL AND HANDLED BY PAUL DOIRON. Paige was plagued by sore feet the entire brace, but still managed to put down an impressive run aided by a couple applications of duct tape. At 12, Nell had a nonproductive at the corner of the fence before the turn. At 45 Paige had a nice find in the rock pile before the water barrel. At 59, Nell pointed before the powerline; however, this, too, proved to be a nonproductive.

BRACE 13 MTB ZIPSON VENI VIDI VICI (VINNY) OWNED BY JOE GOWER AND HANDLED BY PAUL DOIRON WAS BRACED WITH JALO'S ODOT (MR. O) OWNED AND HANDLED BY JIM HOUSE. At 4, Mr O had a nice early find in the flat after the breakaway. He was very stylish on his point and all was in order. At 31, Mr. O had another find by the road on the ridge to the water barrel. Again very stylish, and all was in order, with House demonstrating his spry flushing technique. At 36, Vinnie had a nonproductive on the ridge toward the water barrel. At 52, Mr. O was found pointing near the powerline. However, this point was a nonproductive and Mr. O appeared quite chagrined. At 59 approaching 60, Mr. O had a miracle bird in the rock near last chance hill. This time there really was a bird and Mr. O looked fabulous. Vinnie had a second nonproductive at 45.

WASHINGTON Ritzville, WA April 17-19, 2015

The weather for the WBC trial couldn't have been better. Sunny, warm days, a little wind here and there but all in all, what a super weekend because the week before it was cold and cloudy and WINDY.

We had a great awards evening Saturday and potluck dinner and it appeared that everyone had a good time and were so happy for the winners. Four of the First Place dogs were won by handler Jason Staley, a rather newbie in the handling world. Great guy, too.

A very special thank you to our judges and all the worker bees. It was a first time trialing for many of the WBC members and every one was doing a job that they hadn't done before but did it with grace, humor and smiles and got it done. A huge thank you to Char Benedict, Kris and Tony Thompson and all the bird planters.

I am very proud of this trial.

IDAHO
Marsing, ID
April 24-26, 2015

The Idaho Brittany Club held its spring trial on April 24-26, 2015 in the Owyhee Mountains which is true chukar country. Once again, Idaho showed us an interesting weather arrangement of rain, snow, sun, wind and hail. We opened the trial on Friday with the Open Limited Gun Dog and Amateur Walking Puppy stakes which were additional stakes this spring. On Saturday the unexpected happened with a wild mustang stallion on the Amateur Gun Dog course. He graced us with his presence for a few moments checking out what was going on in his territory, a definite first for our trial. We also had antelope on both courses which caused some mishaps with a few dogs.

We would like to thank all of our judges, club members and volunteers that were at our trial. Without them we could not have the successful trial that we have each time. Whether it is bagging the birds, liberating the courses, cooking, clean up, hauling of club trailers, or just calling dogs to the line you are all needed and greatly appreciated. We hope to see everybody again at our fall trial.

Part Four - Good and Evil

By Tom Word

The Lesson

Joe Prince farms and hunts quail. Farms March through November, hunts quail December through February. He does both in a ten-mile radius of Stony Creek, Virginia, a flat and fertile land of pines, peanuts and soybeans. He does both intensely.

Joe is a bachelor. Seventy now, he came home from World War II, bought a mule and commenced farming forty acres beside the Seaboard line that ties New York to Miami. By dint of hard work and shrewd intelligence, Joe grew his farming operations year by year to become one of Virginia's biggest producers of hogs, peanuts, wheat, corn and soybeans, meanwhile looking after his widowed mother, the dainty but strong-minded Mizz Grace.

Joe became a legend for his industry, will and ability to do any physical task, to work night and day, from ground breaking 'til the last soybean entered the bin. In the dormant months for grain farming, he became legendary as a quail hunter, pursuing Bobs six days a week, behind pointers of a line begun by Lucky, a fifty-dollar run-off who became a legend too, thanks to acquired immunity to lead poisoning (that's why they called him Lucky).

Joe, like all Princes, is a man of strong likes and dislikes. Above all he dislikes a liar, a laggard and a hard-mouthed dog. He is gregarious and enjoys the company of hunters, so long as they are safe and have no hard-mouthed dogs.

For any bird hunter, an invitation to hunt with Joe Prince is a treat, for Joe has the territory (thanks to his father's sixty years of medical practice at Stony Creek and his own generosity with his lands to neighboring deer, rabbit and squirrel hunters). Joe's brother Dave sells insurance and is not above using Joe's prowess as a Nimrod to soften up a prospective policyholder. That's how two men from Richmond, a preacher and a car dealer, were invited to hunt with Joe back in 1968, when quail were plentiful and Joe was in his prime.

These two Richmonders—we'll call them Sam and Bill—arrived by station wagon on the appointed morning, bringing with them a dainty pointer female Joe liked at once. The three men enjoyed a fine day afield. Sam and Bill drove home tired and happy, hoping for another invitation. They got it and came again with like results.

Then one fateful Saturday night, a tired Joe pushed a cart through Jones Grocery in search of something for supper.

"Hello, Joe Boy," said a neighbor. "You know two fellows from Richmond named Sam and Bill?"

"Yes," Joe said. "Why do you ask?"

"They were hunting birds on my place this afternoon, and I asked them who gave them permission. They said they were friends of yours, and you said it would be all right for them to hunt my place."

"That's not quite so," Joe said, and apologized to the neighbor.

Now of all breaches of hunting etiquette, back-hunting is the most severe (save perhaps shooting one's companion or his dog). Joe never suspected Sam and Bill of being back hunters, but the evidence was irrefutable.

When Sam called a few days later, hinting for an invitation, Joe said come New Year's Eve, and bring Bill. When they arrived, Joe was standing by his truck, dogs loaded. No breakfast was offered.

"Let's go," Joe said, and drove them to a clear-cut rank with blackberry vines.

"You two go in here," Joe said, pointing to deer paths through briars. He took the firebreak at the woods edge. Soon the dogs were pointing in the briars, and Sam and Bill were bleeding from face, neck and wrists.

"Flush 'em boys!" Joe said. As each bevy rose, it flew to the woods, crossing before Joe's path on the firebreak. When at noon they reached the end of the clear cut, Joe had a coat full of quail; Sam and Bill had not fired their guns, but were in need of plasma and new hunting trousers. For lunch, Joe drove to the Holiday Inn and ordered the biggest steak, passing the check to his hunting guests.

"Can we hunt some big woods this afternoon?" Bill asked. "Some place with a few less briars?"

"Sure," Joe said. "We'll go get your station wagon so you can leave straight for Richmond when we finish up."

The place Joe chose for the afternoon hunt looked like South Georgia—big pines, clear shooting, little underbrush. Soon they were eagerly following singles deep into the grove. Joe stationed himself on the right and gradually eased away, leaving Sam and Bill with the little pointer happily banging away.

Back at the road, Joe put a note under the windshield wiper of the station wagon and drove off to hunt elsewhere and alone.

At nine that night, Joe's phone rang. It was Bill's wife—Bill was late for the New Year's Eve party they were hosing.

"I expect you will hear from him soon. I wouldn't be worried," Joe said.

It was midnight when Sam and Bill finally found the road. In the beam of a headlight, they read Joe's note:

Gentlemen:

Since you know my territory so well now

I thought I would leave you this piece to hunt by yourselves.

Sincerely,

Joe D. Prince

Sam and Bill did not call Joe again, nor has their station wagon been seen on the back roads of Sussex County.

SUBMISSION OF AGENDA ITEMS
DEADLINE FOR AGENDA ITEMS: SEPTEMBER 15, 2015

All Agenda Items, officer and committee reports for the ABC Board Meeting to be conducted at the AA National Championships in Booneville, AR, must be submitted by September 15, 2015, to be included in the Agenda Book and put up for consideration at the meeting as per policy book stipulations. Early submission allows us to put the topics for consideration on the website and to get books to the Directors in time for meaningful input from the general membership. Action items submitted late and not in writing should not be considered as they are often not well thought out causing many problems after the fact. Reports that cannot be completed such as the Treasurer's Financial Statement and Futurity Stats, may be submitted by bringing 20 copies to the meeting, but any Action Items from any officer or director, committee chair, etc. should be submitted by the deadline.

ALL COMMITTEE CHAIRS ARE EXPECTED TO SUBMIT A REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE POLICY FOR SUBMITTING AGENDA ITEMS:

Items must be from an ABC officer or Committee Chair, or from a Board Member or Regional Club which has first voted on the item by that club's members. Items from individual members should first be discussed with one or more of that person's Regional Directors before being submitted and will be supported by fifteen (15) different actual signatures of ABC members. Since agenda items need to be presented by someone to the Board, one of the regional directors shall present the Agenda Item to the Board of Directors. (1992) (2008)

Please include a copy of the current policy in the Policy Book along with suggested wording changes.

We have always published Officer and Committee Reports in the ABC Magazine. This can be a very difficult task to accomplish since most of the reports have to be retyped if sent as a .pdf file. Please help us to reduce errors by sending your Agenda Reports in a .doc or .rtf format by email to the following:

1. ABC Agenda Chairman Hank Hartnek who will compile the Agenda Book and disk for the Magazine. HankHartnek@gmail.com
2. Mary Jo Trimble: TrimbleMaryJoRay@gmail.com (for compiling Action Item list for ABC Website before meeting) .
3. ambrimag@centurytel.net (for publication in the magazine)
4. President Dr. Robert Rankin: president@theamericanbrittanvclub.org

If you cannot send as a .doc or .rtf file, mail to Hank Hartnek at 6909 E. Camino Garcia, Sierra Vista, AZ 85650 or fax to him at 520-803-9696 but please call first.

YOUR COOPERATION IN WRITING YOUR REPORTS, MEETING DEADLINES, SENDING THEM IN .DOC OR .RTF FORMATS WILL GREATLY HELP THOSE OF US WHO MUST DEAL WITH THEM AFTER THE MEETING IS OVER AND WILL HELP US HAVE A MORE INFORMED MEMBERSHIP BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE ABC BOARD MEETING.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
