VOLUME LXVII • NUMBER 6 • JUNE 2015

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Striker's Return to Obedience

By Helen Marie Capps, from the Northern California Brittany Club. Photo by Debra Dove Masterson

March 19th of this year CH Dogwood Hollow Strike the Gold, CDX, RAE, SH, VD, BN, GN, CGC (Striker) and I returned to the obedience ring to finish the CDX title that we started in Reno in July. In Reno, the first time out for him in Open, he qualified two days out of three with a second and a first place ribbon. Also on that same weekend he finished his RAE in three days with placements in both rings each day.

Striker is 5 years old and was bred by Geri and Gary Clements and Cheryl Mika.

Back to this year. I was pretty pleased with Striker and he was pleased with himself, as you can see in the photo. He didn't place with his 185.5 but he did earn his third leg and the CDX that we were after. Striker, typical Brittany, fell in love with the judge. On the broad jump after he landed he trotted down the ring to say "hi" to her before turning and fronting to finish the exercise. Cute didn't get him extra points, but you can't say he didn't try in true Brittany style.

It is slow going since his trainer/handler (me) is still plugging along after two falls in two years which resulted in broken bones both times, thus his training has been pretty minimal. We don't do a running fast but he will change pace when I 'play act' my run and most times he earns the points for our fast.

With those two titles, his CH and his SH Striker also earned enough points for the American Brittany Club's Versatility Dog title.

I am so very happy with my little Tennessee import to California. He also takes good care of me having passed the difficult Public Access test in September last year and is now my certified Service Dog.

In Memory of Fred A. Brooks, Jr. June 20, 1931 - March 21, 2015

Born in Sherman, Texas, Fred achieved a Master of Science Degree in Chemistry and began over a 50-year career in the oil industry with Humble Oil. He and his wife, Betty, settled in Houston where they built their lives and many friendships. Fred was well-respected in his field and served as the long-time Chairman of the American Petroleum Institute Committee on Oil

Well Cementing. His career took him and Betty to various parts of the world. Later in life they went to their weekend farm where they enjoyed memorable gatherings with family and friends, fishing, hunting, gardening and bird watching.

Fred and Betty were also extremely active in the Texas Coastal Brittany Club for well over 30 years. Both Fred and Betty served as officers and board members for many years, attended club functions and were generous with their monetary support. Fred loved working with his Brittanys and enjoyed hunting tests where he ran his Brittanys and judged occasionally. He enjoyed shooting skeet and spending time with his hunting friends at his deer lease in the hill country.

Fred passed peacefully on March 21, 2015 surrounded by his family in Houston, TX. Betty, Fred's wife of 58 years, passed before him after a lengthy illness.

Goodbye, my friend. We will miss you.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

The Pouting Dog

Sulking, showing resentment or displeasure, unsociable withdrawal, gloomy, sad...pouting. While we usually think that behavior is for a teenager who's just been grounded for missing curfew, it's not an attitude most people would attribute to their dog.

However, it's something we've been seeing more of, both at seminars and in new dogs in for training. What does pouting look like? Displayed by a teenager it's easy to spot. For example, when asked to take out the trash for the umpteenth time, the teen does it...in slow motion, head down, shoulders slumped, and with an expression that clearly indicates they're responding but only under protest and they would rather be doing something else. Pouting displayed by a dog doesn't look much different. It can look like any one or combination of the following: turning a back to you and not wanting to face you; ear drooping; head hanging low; tail dropping and tucked between their legs; whimpering or whining; a sad, pitiful look in their eyes and not wanting to maintain eye contact; not wanting to do anything if they can't do it their way.

Why do dogs pout? It can be a genetic thing, an inherited trait from a sire or dam, but more likely it's learned behavior. Dogs repeat what works, and if pouting and sulking they didn't want to do, they will use that behavior over and over because it works. A pouting dog is responding to your demands under protest. It can be a form of dominance behavior in a dog with a dominant personality. It knows it will probably have to do what you asked, but it's sending a clear message that it isn't pleased with the situation. Give the Boss the sad eyes and act pathetic, and the Boss may just back off from the current demand. The more times it works, the harder the habit is to break. A pouting dog that gets its way has been able to control the situation and make its own decision. That puts the dog higher up the leadership scale than it should be, and the only way to fix it is not to allow it to occur in the first place.

Here's the key component: Ask yourself if you've ever seen a dog pout when it was getting to do whatever it wanted to do (and this holds true for teenagers, too). They don't pout then – there's no reason to. When they get their way, they're happy. They don't display sulky, sullen behavior when they're getting to do whatever they want with no restrictions or rules. Pouting is a reaction to control.

We usually see pouting and sullen behavior at seminars because often the dog is being asked to step out of its comfort zone. It has never been in that position before, having managed to manipulate the owner into giving in. It usually manifests on the chain gang first, with a dog that has never had to stay put for Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

This dog is sulking because it has to stand still. Note the eyes and ears and overall body language.

very long. First they get frustrated and may bark, dig, chew, jump around, etc. Then they start to give in and resign themselves to the fact that they can't go anywhere, but they do it with a pouting attitude. That changes when the owner approaches, because the dog is certain the owner will rescue it from being tied. Some of the dogs learn very quickly to be calm and still, which in turn gets them off the chain. Others may turn their backs and sulk, or any of the other behaviors that signify a pout.

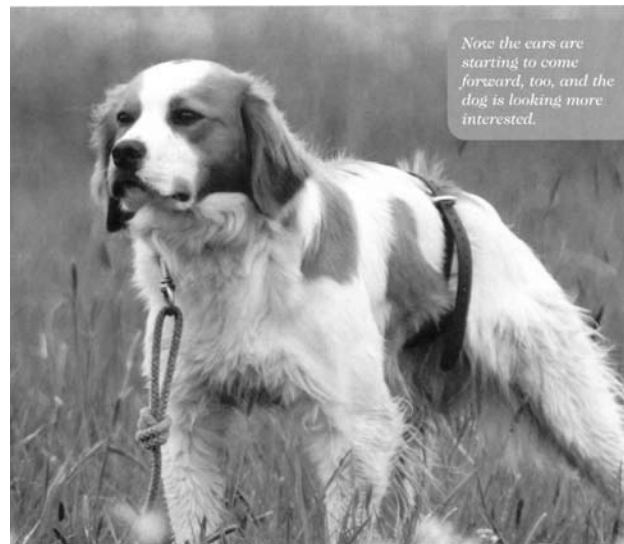

The next phase of training where the pout shows up is on the lead. A lot of dogs are used to being held in place by the leash via tension, and they've been allowed to pull because the owner didn't know how not to have them pull. When the Command Lead goes on and the dog is put in the position of having to actually pay attention and watch the handler and walk with a loop of slack in the lead, they will pout. Some will even fight it, since they're used to pulling on the lead to go where they want to go while dragging the person along. They'll stop and refuse to move, jump on you, try to push into you... and when all of that fails, they sulk and pout.

From there, we go to teaching a dog to stand still, or "whoa," and the pout shows up there as well. Usually the dog tries to negotiate: Okay, I stood still for a bit, now it's my turn to make a decision and I want to move. We can't allow the dog to make those decisions on their own, or they'll take advantage and push harder to have their way.

How do we deal with sullen, pouting dogs? We completely ignore those behaviors and go on with whatever we're working on. If we acknowledge them at all, the dog "wins." Even negative attention is still attention, and any sort of acknowledgement is feeding the dog's behavior. Instead, we go on with whatever we're doing as if the sulking isn't happening. Most dogs catch on pretty quickly, and we can watch their expression and attitude change in a matter of minutes from sulky and sullen to resigned, and then to interested and happy. Usually, that's a canine response to good leadership.

At a seminar, the dog has no relationship with the teacher and therefore no history of misbehavior. If the teacher doesn't buy into the misbehavior, it is quickly eliminated. The tricky part is working the owner back into the equation, since the dog has already established how it behaves for that individual. The owner has to change his own behavior before he can successfully change the dog's actions, since the two already have a history together.

When working with a pouting, sullen dog, don't try to fix the pout around birds. Skip the bird work altogether until the sulky behavior is gone. Adding birds changes the dog's focus from you to the birds, and the dog is likely to make errors that need to be corrected – and corrections are likely to cause a pouting episode, as well as forming a negative association with birds. Don't be in a rush, and take one step at a time. Come back to birds when you have a happy, compliant dog with a good attitude.

Pouting doesn't develop any good traits, in dogs or in people. It has no positive function at all. We're sure you've been around people that sulk when they can't have things their way, whether it's a friend, relative, or coworker. They're not fun to be around, are they? Think about how far in life whiny, sulky people get. There aren't too many of them at the top, mostly because they spend more time arguing and complaining than they do working. Somewhere along the way, they failed to learn to adapt and change.

Parents, teachers, coaches...there are people who shape our lives. Dogs are no different, and shaping their behavior is the owner/trainer's job. We become that teacher/coach/drill instructor. No dog can reach 100 percent of its potential if it's spending time sulking and pouting

Originally appeared in The Pointing Dog Journal

Now he's thinking, "Hmmm... maybe this isn't so bad." The handler has done nothing except ask the dog to stand still and hasn't acknowledged the pout. Note the eyes and how they've softened, while the ears are still not convinced.

Here's a different dog, after having been stopped to the flush. No pouting here. Check the expression and ears. This dog is interested and happy.

Layered Tortellini Pesto Chicken Salad

- 1 package (9 oz) refrigerated cheese-filled tortellini
- 1 cup frozen sweet peas (from 1-lb bag)
- 5 cups torn romaine lettuce
- 1 1/2 cups julienne (matchstick-cut) carrots
- 2 cups chopped or strips grilled chicken
- 1 medium red bell pepper, cut into strips
- 1/2 cup reduced-fat mayonnaise or salad dressing
- 1/2 cup basil pesto
- 1/4 cup buttermilk
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley or basil leaves

Cook tortellini as directed on package, adding peas during last 4 minutes of cook time. Drain; rinse immediately with cold water. Pat with paper towels to remove moisture. In 3- or 4-quart clear bowl, layer the lettuce, the carrots, chicken, peas, the tortellini, and bell pepper. In small bowl, mix mayonnaise, pesto and buttermilk. Spread over peppers; sprinkle with parsley. Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours until chilled or overnight. Stir just before serving.

Makes 8 servings (1 1/2 cups each)

Loaded Baked Potato Salad

- 2 pounds russet potatoes (about 6 medium potatoes), peeled and cut into bite sized chunks
- 1/2 cup mayo
- 3/4 cup sour cream
- 8 slices crispy cooked bacon, crumbled (reserve some for garnish)
- 1 cup shredded cheddar cheese, divided (reserve some for garnish)
- 3 green onions, sliced (reserve some for garnish)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper

1. Cover the potato chunks with water and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Reduce heat to medium and simmer until the potatoes are fork-tender, about 10-15 minutes.

2. Drain the potatoes and allow them to cool completely.
3. In a large bowl, combine mayo, sour cream, salt and black pepper.
4. Toss the potatoes with 1/2 of the bacon, 1/2 of the cheese, and 1/2 of the green onions, reserving the other half for garnish.
5. Pour the dressing over the potatoes and stir to combine.
6. Cover and refrigerate overnight for best results, or for several hours before serving.
7. Garnish the potato salad with remaining bacon, cheese, and green onions immediately before serving. Enjoy!

PURINA WEIGHT CIRCLES AT WORK!

When ABC Purina Pro Club members submit their weight circles, the Purina Parent Club Partnership Program donates money to the Canine Health Foundation's Donor Advised Fund (DAF). The Health and Genetics Committee then selects research grants that they feel would be most beneficial to issues affecting our breed even if the research is not Brittany specific. ABC's DAF has donated about $3000 each year thanks to our diligent Pro Club members and Purina.

Following are summaries of the research grants:

2013: Mapping of Genetic Risk Factors for Canine Hip Dysplasia(#1828)

2014: Epilepsy Initiative

RESEARCH PROGRESS REPORT SUMMARY

Grant 01828: Mapping of Genetic Risk Factors for Canine Hip Dysplasia

Principal Investigator: Dr. Antti Iivanainen, DVM, PhD

Research Institution: University of Helsinki and the Folkhälsan Institute of Genetics

Grant Amount: $79,488.00

Start Date: 1/1/2014 End Date: 12/31/2015

Progress Report: End-Year 1

Report Due: 12/31/2014 Report Received: 12/30/2014

Recommended for Approval: Approved

(Content of this report is not confidential. A grant sponsor's CHF Health Liaison may request the confidential scientific report submitted by the investigator by contacting the CHF office. The below Report to Grant Sponsors from Investigator can be used in communications with your club members.)

Original Project Description:

Canine hip dysplasia (HD) is common a developmental disorder of the hip joint affecting many breeds and severely suppressing the quality of life. As the disease has several genetic risk elements and is additionally influenced by environmental factors like feed and exercise, it is of paramount importance that the genetic association studies are conducted using adequately sized cohorts of genotyped diseased and healthy animals. This proposal involves two research groups (Finland and France) engaged in the genetics of HD in German Shepherd, Golden retriever and Labrador retriever breeds. HD is a polygenic disease and requires large enough sample sizes (>300-400 dogs) so that contributing genetic loci can reliably discovered. This proposal aims to genotype 288 dogs in German Shepherds increasing the total number of studied dogs in this breed over 400. By doing this, we expect to increase the power of the association studies so that all major genetic risk factors can be uncovered with a high statistical significance. The loci identified in German Shepherds will be followed up in the other breeds. The identification of genetic risk elements allows developing genetic tests that can be used in breeding programs to control the disease incidence as well as further studies regarding the possible role diet and exercise in the HD development.

Epilepsy Initiative Update

The seizure-related syndromes collectively known as epilepsy represent one of the most common neurological disorders in dogs, and as such are a significant concern to the AKC Canine Health Foundation and our donors. In response to donor concern, CHF is launching a major, two phase research effort to better classify disease, understand the underlying mechanisms that predispose dogs to epilepsy, and finally, to introduce new drugs into the canine epilepsy treatment pipeline. To ensure success, the Epilepsy Research Initiative requires the formation of collaborative pre-clinical/clinical research groups who will work together to define the molecular basis of epilepsy and develop disease modification or prevention strategies. It is expected that formation of collaborative pre-clinical/clinical research teams will accelerate the discovery phase and thus the translation of research from laboratory bench to patient. Successful applications were required to demonstrate both a strong understanding of the clinical syndromes themselves and a rigorous preclinical research base.

Two Epilepsy Grants Approved:

2131: Neurostimulation: A Groundbreaking New Treatment for Canine Epilepsy

Principal Investigator: Dr. Sam Nicholas Long, PhD

Institution: The University of Melbourne

Total Grant Amount: Phase I $116,000

Epilepsy is a debilitating condition that affects a large number of dogs, resulting in premature death and distress for their owners. For many dogs the underlying cause is unknown. In people, advances in some types of imaging have identified subtle abnormalities, including abnormal development and shrinkage of particular regions in the brain of some people with epilepsy that can be surgically removed to improve the control of seizures. This project will apply the same advanced techniques to the brains of dogs with epilepsy to determine whether those same abnormalities exist in dogs. In those dogs in which no abnormalities can be found, this project will investigate a new form of treatment, known as neurostimulation which has been shown to reduce the frequency of seizures dramatically in human clinical trials. This involves surgically implanting a new, highly sophisticated device called the Brain Radio that can provide controlled electrical stimulation to parts of the brain while simultaneously recording the brain's activity. This device is one of the very first that could potentially provide successful therapy only when needed to treat imminent seizures and if it proves successful in dogs it will enter clinical trials in people with epilepsy.

2133: Canine Epilepsy: Genetic Variants, Biomarkers, and New Therapies

Principal Investigator: Dr. Ned E. Patterson, DVM PhD

Institution: University of Minnesota

Total Grant Amount: Phase I $104,781.00

Epilepsy is a significant seizure disorder affecting all dog breeds. It is the most common chronic nervous system disorder in dogs, with a prevalence of 0.5% - 5.7%, resulting in approximately 2 million affected dogs in the USA. We have assembled a trans-disciplinary team to attempt to improve the fate of dogs that have epilepsy with a special emphasis on dogs with drug-resistant epilepsy. Dog with drug-resistant epilepsy have frequent seizures even when on 2 or more anti-epileptic drugs. The team includes Veterinarians, Canine Geneticists, Pharmacologists, Human Neurologists, Basic Scientists and Biomedical Engineers from the University of Minnesota College of Veterinary Medicine, College of Pharmacy, Institute for Engineering in Medicine, and Departments of Neurology and Surgery, and Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN. Under the guidance of Dr. Ned Patterson, the collaborative group proposes to evaluate traditional DNA genetic markers, blood biomarkers called microRNAs (miRNAs), and potential new drugs for the emergency treatment of seizures in dogs. In phase 1 of Dr. Patterson's study he and his team will 1. Identify genetic markers associated with epilepsy in Australian shepherds and Vizslas, and identify markers associated with epileptic dogs that are unresponsive to anti-epileptic drug therapy in order to develop genetic screening tests in phase 2; 2. Document microRNA levels in the blood of dogs with epilepsy in order to develop potential blood markers that vary between epileptic and nonepileptic dogs, and dogs with drug-resistant epilepsy; and 3. Perform initial testing of two new potential drugs for the emergency treatment of canine epilepsy.

That's Not My Job

This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have.

March 14, 2015

The Northern New England Brittany Club held the annual Designated Specialty Show in conjunction with the New England Sporting Dog Association on March 14, 2015, at Eastern States Exposition, Springfield, Massachusetts. An entry of 34 dogs competed for honors.

Mrs. Kathy Lorentzen gave Best in Puppy Sweepstakes to Magicbrit-Tonan Hope Power of Persuasion and Opposite to Magicbrit-Tonan Hope Lighting Thief.

Ms. Beverly R. Anderson took on the task of finding the best and called on GCH Triumphant's As Good As It Gets JH with Linda McCartney-Roy to represent our breed in the Sporting Group finale. "Beckett" took Group I and Best in Show defeating 555 dogs! Congratulations to club member Linda and team "Beckett!"

Wendy Archinal had reason to be proud of GCH Millette's Sweet Memories with the red and white rosette.

Best of Winners and Winners Bitch was Triumphant's Hot Topic, owned by Linda McCartney-Roy; Select Dog was CH Triumphant Millstone Come To My World, owned by Linda Taylor Knight; Select Bitch was CH Tonan-Rocklan Who's Kiddin Who, owner Terry Hilliard; Winners Dog was Paradise's "Nothin' Ventured Nothin' Gained", owner Darlene Hughes; Reserve Winners Dog was Top Shelf's The Chosen, owner Wendy Archinal; Reserve Winners Bitch was Sippewissett's As Good As It Gets Aoife, owned by Jean Schwarts; Gun Dog was GCH Maple Brook's Great Balls of Fire JH, owner Peggy Augiar.

Thank you to all the exhibitors who supported this show with fine representations of our breed and proving that the Brittany is the ultimate sporting dog!

2104 ABC Quail Classic Championship

October 13-19, 2014

Front: Chad Holman with Deacon, Valerie Burchett with Willy, Dave Capstick with Ace Back: Judge Kevin Stonehouse, Bob Burchett, Judge Harold Burbach, Tim Self.

The American Brittany Club Quail Classic was held October 13-19, 2014. Hosted by the Greater St. Louis Brittany Club and run over the beautiful grounds of the Sportsmen's Association near Grovespring, MO. Much work and care has been taken on these grounds to assure good quail habitat and population through all of the three one-hour courses. Sponsoring this championship were Purina and Garmin/Tri-Tronics. We would like to thank them for their continued support of field trials.

Fifty-nine dogs were drawn and came to the line to perform for our judges, Howard Burbach of Pleasant Hill, MO and Kevin Stonehouse of Clay Center, KS. We thank them for their attentions.

The Champion and Runner Up came from the 14th brace. Black Creek Deacon, owned by Ron Harling, Jr. of Churchville, NY and handled by Chad Holman of Whittington, IL was named Champion. Deacon appeared in the 14th brace and carded one find and a back during his hour, capped by a fine finish well to the front. Runner Up was Sniksoh Windtuck Willy, owned by Chuck and Jill Schaefer of Indianapolis, IN, handled by Bob Burchett of Grovespring, MO. Willie also toured the course well to the front and carded two finds, displaying high style on both. Willie was braced with the Champion, and this was an exciting brace. Pushing the winners were Ru-Jem's "Last"

Penny, owned and handled by Jerry McGee of Steward, IL and The Ace Of Spade, owned and handled by Dave Capstick of Jonesburg, MO.

Thank you to club members Dave Capstick, Al Gorrow, Tim Self and Ray Trimble for all of their efforts in putting on this large, prestigious event. Also thank you to Yvonne Burbach for the winner's photographs as well as many others throughout the week.

Leading the Way Another Brittany First

The American Brittany Club is pleased to announce the first Brittany to achieve both Grand Conformation Champion and Grand Field Champion titles - GFC, GCH, DC, AFC TNT's Raise 'N A Ruckus "Rae". She is owned by Tommy and Linda Thomas of Somonauk, IL.

"Rae" is a 6 year old, white and orange female out of the Thomas' DC Havapal's Renegade Billy Boy x Bourbon's Lucky Penny MH and bred by Doug Sieckmeyer.

"Rae" is trained and handled in the field & show by Tommy Thomas. Her awards include: Best of Breed winner, multiple year LaSalle BC Dog of the year winner as Gun Dog and Dual Dog, placed 3rd at the 2012 National Amateur Gun Dog Championship, 3rd place dog in the 2013 Magnum's Masked Man Award with 1598 points, won the 2013 International Shooting Dog Championship finishing her DC. She is also an American Field Champion and Runner-up American Field Champion.

"Rae" has been active in both conformation and performance events from the time she was 6 months old. She had her own ideas as to how a young dog was to perform in both the ring and field. Let's just say that the judges didn't agree with her. "Rae" was always in the ribbons just not the "Blue" ribbons. At 2+ years old, "Rae" was broke by Dominic Preite of Franklinville, NJ. After 8 weeks with Dominic, she came home ready to go to work with Tom. They spent the spring fine tuning their relationship. At three years, she qualified for the Gun Dog Nationals, where she placed 3rd in the 2012 National Amateur Gun Dog Championship. In her spare time when Tommy and "Rae" weren't training in the field, she was entered in conformation shows where she finished her "CH" in under a month. She went on to finish her "GCH". With her conformation titles completed Tommy and "Rae" have focused their energies in the field. As a 4 year old, she finished her DC by winning the 2013 International Shooting Dog Championship.

In the spring of 2014, "Rae" whelped a healthy litter of 10 puppies, six of which are in competition homes and doing very well for their owners.

Linda says that "Rae" has a terrific temperament with a sweet, but strong personality. "She has an opinion on most everything. She looks you right in the face and talks to you as if you can understand every bark/word. To emphasize her point of view she'll even stomp her front feet. She's definitely a once in a lifetime dog and we are so thankful that she's a member of our family."

Linda and Tommy believe in the "Dual" dog concept, form follows function. "Rae" is a unique blend of both strong show and field lines that has allowed her to enjoy success in both arenas. Her smooth easy gait in the ring and the field is something to behold. Coupled with snappy style, bird finding ability and an unwavering love for her handler, Rae will continue to exceed all of our expectations no matter the venue.

ABC congratulates Tommy and Linda Thomas and "Rae" on such a memorable achievement.

A SPORTSMAN'S RAMBLINGS

by Marty Garrell

When the computer era began we were doing graduate studies and found the old mainframes to be wonderful for performing calculations that we could not do by brute force. Xerography was a godsend, replacing carbon copies and the mimeograph. When the personal computer era began we finally felt liberated from a world of correction fluid, retyped copies and red pencils. Then came the communications revolution with emails, voicemails and websites, and we're not so sure the joy hasn't turned to "oy"!

There's a new world out there, a world of endless loops, telephone menus that obscure access to real human voices most of the time, and email messages that vanish forever when you don't quite have the right address, reverse a couple of characters or put a dot in the wrong place. I don't know which is more frustrating--the "server not found" message on the PC or the telephone voice from Nepal that finally replies when you pound the zero button on your phone five times in rapid succession. (Note: If you need locally specialized information, even the most helpful soul on the other side of the earth won't be much help!) Some businesses, particularly media outlets, shut down voice mail when the front desk closes down, but never make that clear when you place an evening call. Round and round you go, trying in vain to get a message onto an extension, pounding the keys out of frustration, finally hanging up before you are tempted to throw the phone against a wall.

We can understand the need for caller-ID when you are choked by telemarketers, despite signing up for "do-not-call". We can sympathize with folks who stop answering calls unless they hear a friendly voice leaving a voice mail message, but some friends seem to have become absolutely "phono-phobic". Their recorded voices are either those of unintelligible five-year-olds or voices that tell you to "Puh-leeze Leeve A Message" with the diction of Doctor Frankenstein's fabled monster. You wonder if you shouldn't reply with Lily Tomlin's famous line, "Is this the party to whom I am speaking?"

Only last week we tried rather desperately to make contact with a friend who'd asked us to drive up to Cape Cod to judge a field trial but never made subsequent contact. We left voice mail messages on four occasions over as many days, but began to doubt that her number was correct. The voice of the lurching monster gave no assurance that we indeed were talking to her. The thought dawned that she might be an "email person", but we had no email address for her. One last solution presented itself: snail mail. I dug out a 30-year old postcard of the Shelter Island ferry and sent off a frantic message. Sure enough, a premium list arrived three days later (Our names were indeed on the judging list.) on our upstate email. The lesson: personal post cards come so infrequently nowadays that they seem to merit more attention than phone calls!

Emails sent to the proper addresses aren't always the answer either. At Adelphi where I work I receive upwards of 300 emails a week and it's awfully tempting on occasion to click the mouse on the top of the new list, then on the bottom, and delete huge chunks of daily blather and spam. (Even with spam filters, crazy offers in Cyrillic still make it through.) Worthy messages often become the victims of drastic deletions, particularly when the email address is one that we do not instantly recognize. To complicate matters, our upstate email comes in over a phone line, so downloading is rather like getting blood transfusions through your little finger. The download also seizes up whenever some well meaning friend sends along a megabyte sized file; last summer we were down for weeks when we accidentally tried to download what must have been half of a family album.

In the end, there is nothing like real human contact. North Fork skippers like Richie Jensen, Dave Brennan or Mike Boccio have been friends for many years, and we appreciate it when either they or their wives pick up the phone if we have questions or call for fishing reports. Bob Ceglowski has a good website for his Mattituck boat with photos that are usually updated regularly enough to be relevant. One of the best webmasters is Desi O'Sullivan whose boat sails out of Wading River. Not only does he provide lots of photos, he also enters his detailed fishing logs.

One way or another, "we're all connected" eventually. The trick is finding out just what the best way is to make a particular connection with someone. If things get really bad we just may have to reinvent messenger services and calling cards! Back to Edith Wharton!

Southern Open Brittany Amateur All Age Championship By Kent D. Patterson

It is highly unlikely each parent of the 60's and 70's buying school supplies for their elementary grade child realized they were supporting field trials...yet with every pack of Eagle pencils sold, more ground was being purchased in south Georgia. Near the "Bird Dog Capital of the World", where a setter graces the Waynesboro water tower, Henry Berol, heir to the Eagle Pencil Company put together 8100 acres of Burke county Georgia real estate. He named it after his daughters Diane and Elaine. DiLane Plantation was designed for showcasing class field trial dogs and throughout the 60's and mid 70's the field trial community enjoyed the sandy hills covered in pines. Near the main house is a unique graveyard containing many of the family's cherished animals. There are 122 bird dogs, 4 horses, 2 cocker spaniels, 2 mules, and one cat. Mr. Berol was originally buried with all of the above in 1976 but the family subsequently reinterred his body to New York.

In 1992, the property was purchased by the Federal Government and leased to the state of Georgia for management by the Department of Natural Resources. With field trial history on their side, Lamar and Nell Mobley championed the cause to re-establish the Burke county tradition. His trademark red derby hat is on the sign at the barn known as Lamar Mobley Stables and the property has been managed over the years with quail propagation in mind.

The Georgia Brittany Club has hosted this Region 3 Amateur Championship for the last four years, along with its companion stake, the Southern Brittany Open Championship. The two stakes have become a drawing card for all age Brittany enthusiasts across the south and others looking for warmer January weather. Lawton and Lynn Huggins of Walterboro, SC were in saddle to look over the field of contestants and did a great job of setting a proper pace while helping the handlers show their dogs in the best light.

Champion – Piney Run Hank. If there is an all age dog that owns a set of grounds, you could put that tag on Piney Run Hank when talking about DiLane. Owned and handled by Rob Donahue of Woodbury, TN., the 8 year old has won five championships on these grounds over his career, so to say he likes the place is quite an understatement. He set the standard from the 1st day of the trial with a forward, far-flung, five find effort. His composure and style around game was impeccable. He finished, with power, to the front on a wild covey.

Runner-Up Champion – One Off Mojito Mike. Owned by Patti Allen Hunt of Weston, VT and handled by Kent D. Patterson of Franklin, TN, Mike returned to these grounds as the reigning champion having bested all challengers in last year's championship. He didn't disappoint again this year. He started by backing his bracemate at 10, and maintained the front where he was found standing by the scout at 22 having great composure over a lengthy flush. He had a big covey find at 35 to the west of the course and was out of pocket until 45 where he disappeared down the hill. He was found standing at 48 with the scout reporting a wild covey had flushed so the handler fired and took him on. He was far to front at time.

3rd - Georgia Texas Two Step – Travis Tangen. Georgia was slow in starting but got going to make a big swing at 20 and found standing near the water trough on running birds in a plum thicket. She backed with manners at 40 as the course turned west. At 57, she had a find in the treeline at the bottom of the hill, rimmed the cover near camp, finishing nicely in the winter wheat fields.

4th - Peter Gunn – Jim Carter. Pete is a veteran of these grounds and is rarely "outbirded". He had an early point waved off and went on to have finds at 28 and 32 with all in order. He combed the property in a forward and deliberate manner, finishing at moderate range in the wheat fields.

2015 American Brittany Club Southern Open Brittany Classics

The 2015 ABC Southern Open Brittany Classics began on Thursday, January 22nd at the DiLane Plantation in Waynesboro, GA. They were held in conjunction with the Georgia Brittany Club spring trial. The series began with the Open All Age Classic, followed by the Amateur All Age Classic. The Gun Dog Classic was held at the beautiful Showtime Plantation in Bronwood, GA. In addition to all our judges and participants, we'd like to thank Purina Representative Pat Lamantia and Purina for their generous support of this trial. South Georgia is the place to be in January! The weather was just warm enough for the competitors, and not too hot for the dogs. We only saw one day of rain, but that did not hamper the performances of any of the dogs.

Judges for the Open All Age Classic were Mark Johnson of Winnebago, IL and Lisa Pollock of Medford, NJ. Twenty entries came to the line and at the conclusion Piney Run Rex, owned by Art and Judy Cohen and handled by Ben Lorensen claimed the blue. Runner-Up honors went to Glade Run Irish, owned by Dave Webb and handled by Tom Tracy. Piney Run Hank, owned by Rob Donahue and also handled by Lorensen was placed third. Tom Tracy handled Tom and Debbie Jagielski's Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou to fourth place honors.

Conditions on the first day were picture perfect! Temperatures never got out of the 50s and a slight breeze picked up in the afternoon. Piney Run Rex ran in the first brace. Both dogs were off and running well, seen briefly from time to time. At 10, point was called for Rex on the left edge before the power line. He stood high and tight as a big covey flushed. After he broke away, Rex wasn't seen again until 22 when point was called on the left edge after the culvert. All was in order and Rex was sent on to catch the front. Rex decided to find his own way to the front. He headed wide left and wasn't seen again until he crossed the path in front of his brace mate at 30. He was found buried on point on the right side shortly after. His style and intensity growing with each find. Rex wasn't finished hunting yet. He made more bold casts off the right edge and scored his final find at 42. He finished the hour with ease, driving hard to the front.

Glade Run Irish ran on the second day, when conditions were way less than perfect. The rain did not seem to bother Irish as he broke and went right to work. Seen crossing the main path from time to time, Irish was always forward. He was gathered at 20 when deer were spotted heading to the north. As he was sent on, he quickly forgot about the fur and re-established his hunt for feather. At 30, point was called for Irish on the right edge after the water tub. Only 2 birds lifted as the rest ran for heavier cover. Irish showed perfect manners throughout. As he was sent on, Irish followed the right side, disappearing over the hill. He was found standing at 40 on the right edge. This covey lifted well in the soggy conditions, as Irish remained motionless. Irish finished the hour driving strongly to the front.

Piney Run Hank also ran on the second day. Despite the miserable conditions, Hank scored 5 well spaced finds with good style and manners. Jagoub's Buzz N'Bayou ran at the end of day 1. Skeeter had a big powerful all age race with one find at 15. The judges were impressed with the quality of this stake. Many great performances were seen in very diverse conditions.

The Southern Open Brittany "Shooting Dog Showdown" Classic By Jay Hallaron

January 2015 ended with fabulous field trial weather in South Georgia! This proved the converse to the previous year when January ended with a cold, icy blast of northern winter weather. That weather hampering the start of the inaugural running of the Southern Shooting Dog Showdown. The weather for this year's event was mostly clear throughout the running with slightly above normal temperatures for this time of year. Temperatures ranged for the high 20s in the morning and warming to the mid-50s later in the afternoons. No fog, no rain, cool temperatures, and lots of sun made virtually ideal conditions for the dogs to show their best. Afternoons tended to be somewhat breezy.

The second running of the Southern Open Brittany's Southern Showdown was held at Showtime Plantation just outside Bronwood, Georgia. The immediate area in and around nearby Leesburg and Albany, Georgia is well known for holding some the finest and best known field trials in the Southeast. The Showtime grounds offered competitors ample space to show the open edge running capabilities of their charges, as well as the skills necessary to successfully work the tricky piney woods of South Georgia. Big fields and several small fields lined with native vegetation and pine trees, interspersed with typical South Georgia piney woods, offered up challenges that brought the best out of the best of the Brittans that ran this year.

Big rains preceded the arrival of entrants leaving water on parts of the courses and the fields heavy. It took strong dogs and stronger horses to handle the varying terrain throughout the two and a half days of running. We are glad to report that all animals, competitors and guests ended the running safely!

The Southern Open Brittany Club will take this opportunity to thank Showtime Plantation for allowing the second running of the Southern Showdown to be on their wonderful grounds. Owner Larron Copeland, though unable to attend due to other commitments, left us in the good hands of his plantation staff! From providing dog wagon services, to crossing guards and escorts for the judges to the guest house...they did it all and did it all with smiles on their faces! Thank you Larron Copeland and Staff!

Judging the event was John Henderson and Kevin Remmers. John made a long trek from Maple Valley, Washington. He has been a long-time Brittany owner and field trial campaigner, as well as a member of the American Brittany Board of Directors.

Kevin hails from Roanoke, Illinois and is well-known in the Brittany world as an owner and field trial campaigner. We appreciate the time devoted to not only judging the event, but the time and effort it took to make the trip! Their judging decisions were well received when placements were announced.

We also extend our thanks to all the Southern Showdown entrants that stepped up to support this growing event. Started nearly from scratch, but with some cash in the bank, this "new" event is fast becoming a "must see and must run in field trial". Clearly, we were able to watch some of the best "seasoned" performers, as well as a new crop of youngsters, that made it to the SHOWDOWN!

Thirty dogs were entered and twenty-nine ran. The event was on three consecutive courses. Six braces ran each of the first two days with Saturday finishing with the final three braces. Mr. Steve Standley presents a wonderfully and accurate description of the three courses in The Field, February 7, 2015, which is presented in the write-up of the Lee County Trials. All courses were run on native quail and covey finds were numerous each day.

The Running

BRACE 1: THE TOP DOG WAS SCRATCHED AND FC EMMA TAYSHON "EMMA" (CARTER) ran as the only bye dog in the stake. Emma broke away quickly and before you could blink she was standing under the trees no more than several hundred yards from the breakaway! Handler stepped from his horse and birds rose as he began the flush. All was good at the shot. Emma was moved on and had a nice, moderate race for the remainder of the hour with no more bird contact. She finished cleanly.

BRACE 2: NGDC NAGDC FC AFC PETER GUNN "PETE" (CARTER) AND FC AFC DIAMOND HILL DEUCES GONE WILD "COOTER" (POLLOCK) broke away on the rather difficult course 2. The course is heavily wooded and has several tight turns. Pete attacked the course like the older pro that he is. Cooter broke away hard and to the left. No more was seen of Cooter and the tracker was in hand. Pete took a measured plan of attack to the course throughout the hour. At 6 Pete was seen standing solid on a stop to flush. Another stop to flush opportunity at 30 presented itself and Pete showed the savvy needed. He continued on his way and was found standing at 56. Handler flushed and a nice sized covey rose. All was clean. Pete finished the hour cleanly.

BRACE 3: FC PINEY RUN HANK "HANK" (LORENSON) AND FC AFC PRIME TIME TEBOW "TEBOW" (CANTRELL) flew off the breakaway. Hank never seemed to be able to gather his thoughts and the handler ended his hour prematurely. Tebow, known as a bird finding machine in his native Florida, attacked the course with skill showing good ground speed and drive throughout the hour. Although going to the "right" places he ended his tour without bird contact.

BRACE 4: PINEY RUN JAKE "JAKE" (LORENSON) AND GUNN'S-A-BLAZ'N "ANNIE" (CARTER) took the line and broke cleanly away. Annie ran a solid, moderate gun dog race and took several nice edges. She worked the cover smartly but ended her hour birdless. Jake took a bigger race to the edges and was aggressively active in his search for birds. He was rewarded with a nice find at 3, again at 29 and a final find at 55. He showed great maturity and style on each presentation. Jake finished the hour without any additional birdwork

BRACE 5: PINEY RUN LILY "LILY" (LORENSON) AND PERFECT BY NATURE "NATE" (TRACY) each worked the cover presented but rewards were difficult to find. Nate's effort was not pleasing to the handler and he was sent to the dog wagon at 20. Lily was seen on point at 59 and no birds were produced. She finished with no birdwork.

BRACE 6: RAINBOW'S CHIK'N MCNUCKET "NUGGET" (MERRILL) AND LOST CREEK A SHOT OF BOURBON "STREAK" (TRACY) were brought up and left the line at a rapid pace. Both dogs handled the course well. Nugget was seen standing at 45 and Streak heading that way failed to honor ending his tour. Nugget's handler was unable to produce birds and he finished the hour with no birdwork.

BRACE 7: FC FINN MACCUHAL "MAC" (LORENSON) AND FC AUGUSTUS OF TIGER "GUS" (TRACY) flew off the breakaway and began the search in earnest. Moving into the large plowed field both could be seen taking the edge to the right and working the perimeter. Mac was found standing at 13. Birds flushed and all was good. Mac was moved on and was seen standing again at 16. After working the cover he was relocated. No birds were produced. Gus after working hard was on point at 28. Birds were produced and everything remained in order. Gus was released and covered the ground well. At 32 he was standing. Again, birds were shown and Gus was moved on. No further birdwork was had by either dog.

BRACE 8: NOTHIN' BUT TROUBLE "TROUBLE" (CARTER) AND DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT "BUCK" (TRACY) were released on Course 2 and they worked throughout at a moderate range. Working the heavy cover and thick woods Trouble was successful at 35 with birds produced. Buck and Trouble ran nearby to each other and a divided find was scored at 40. Each stood for the shots and all ended well for both. The pair was moved on as their race began to moderate further. Trouble was again seen standing at 54 and the handler moved birds. She stood well and tight and was moved on. Buck though hunting hard through the difficult course was not rewarded with further birdwork as Trouble finished her trip.

BRACE 9: PINEY RUN REX "REX" (LORENSON) AND RUNNIN ON FAITH "FAITH" (CANTRELL) put on a nice show for everyone throughout their time on the ground. At 32 Rex was on point tight and high and Faith backing. Handler was able to produced birds and Rex handled it cleanly. Both were moved on. Rex later punched the card for a non-productive. Faith hit the course after the back and was seen pointing at 39 and again at 51. Each find showed birds and she handled each cleaning. Both dogs ran a solid but moderate race throughout the hour.

BRACE 10: KINWASHKLY MIDNIGHT RAMBLER "JACK" (MERRILL) AND THOMAS'S DIXIE "DIXIE" (CANTRELL) from the beginning put on a nice show on the ground! Jack was fast and showed very good range throughout the hour but came up empty-handed regarding birds. Dixie flowed around the course with an eye-pleasing run. She carded a stop-to-flush at 1 and continued the remainder of the hour without producing birds.

BRACE 11: "GABE" (LORENSON) AND BEBOP HEART AND SOUL "BUDDHA" (HUNT) were dealt a still afternoon in the woods and high cover. Bird scenting conditions remained tough throughout the hour. Budha worked some thick cover along a tight edge as he caught scent. He was seen going on point at 9 in some of the thickest, nastiest brush and downed limbs seen on the course. After several relocations the handler decided it was time to move on. A non-productive was recorded after much effort to produce birds. Gabe continued to run the course taking the few edges were offered and working the thick cover. He was seen taking a dirt path at the end of a mature pine planting and found in deep 44. The handler tried to produce birds and relocation was requested. At 47 a single was produced and Gabe handled it well. Each dog finished their hour without further birdwork.

BRACE 12: PURSUIT'S SWHIZZLECHIK "PENNY" (HALLARON) AND GCH DC AFC DIAMOND HILL DANGEROUS MAN "TRACE" (POLLOCK) were released and each made the first right turn. Penny was seen and gone. The scout was able to bring her back to the course and she continued on. At 15 each went on point a short distance from the gallery as they worked tall cover just off the path. The divided find was allowed to relocate when no birds could be produced. After a good effort a non-productive was declared and each was moved on. Penny took several far edges along the fields and had to be brought back to course by the scout. Trace continued on working the woods and went on to record clean finds at 25 and again at 59. Penny was working the cover in mature trees and pushed a covey ending her day at 52. Trace finished his work in good order.

BRACE 13: PALMETTO POINTE'S AUTUMN'S BLAZING STAR "AUTIE" (LORENSON) AND DIAMOND HILL SHE'S GONE "CLEO" (POLLOCK) were off and ran the first half in good fashion but at a moderate range. Autie was on point at 26 and managed it well. He was moved on. Cleo scored a stop-to-flush at 44. Autie managed the same a short while later. Cleo found birds and 49 and looked good doing it. Each ended their hour without further birdwork.

BRACE 14: GFC FC AFC ONE OFF MOJITO MIKE "MIKE" (MERRILL) AND CEDAR VALLEY SPIDER "SPIDER" hit the woods and were gone. Spider was found standing in deep cover at 14. Birds got up and all was well. Spider failed to please the handler and was picked up soon after. Mike scored a find at 15, stood the shot and was moved on. Mike ran a moderate race which fit the cover. He finished his time without additional birdwork.

BRACE 15: FC AFC TWIST'N TEQUILA'S SHADOW "LILA" (CARTER) AND "WILSON" (TRACY). Lila and Wilson failed to please each of their handlers and were relieved of their duties at 23.

By: Diana Kubitz

Ever notice how much closer attention you pay to the weather when you have an upcoming trial? Three weeks before the trial it said 60 degree weather, but we didn't have that. We had a little sunshine, a little rain, a little snow and a lot of wind; spring in Michigan!

Our field trail chairman Carlos Gust did a great job putting on this trial and we need to thank all the people, club members and friends, who helped. We were a little short on horse power for the weekend and Ron Gulembo and Al Cropek helped out with bird planting on the Amt. All Age and Open Derby. We really appreciated it guys! It proves what I've always said, when good people come together and help each other, good things happen.

Our caterer Amy Gregory did a fantastic job with the food and we thank our wrangler/judge Will Langley for his efforts on our behalf. Amy's chicken dinner on Saturday was one to brag on and we celebrated the Cropek's new Dual Champion with a cake and non-alcohol champagne! How awesome that their two time National Gun Dog Championship winner is now a dual? Good job Amy Rodrigues Booth handling Joe to that show championship!

Congratulations to Burt and Chelly McCandless; their Georgia Drive By was WD and BOW at our specialty show on Friday and his placement in the Open Gun Dog made him our Dual Award Winner!

And the winners are:

IOWA

Union County Bird Dog Ranch

Thayer, IA

April 3-7, 2015

The spring horseback field trial of the Iowa Brittany Club was contested over a 5-day period, April 3-7, 2015 at the Union County Bird Dog Ranch at Thayer, Iowa. A total of 158 starters, including dogs from a large portion of the United States and Canada, competed in seven stakes under the watchful eyes of judges Kendall Brown, Jeff Wallace, Chuck Schaefer, Stan Truksa, Bruce Heiter, Tommy Thomas, Tom Tracy, Kevin Stonehouse, and Larry Loftin. We want to thank each of these gentlemen for their time in the saddle and careful attention to the dogs. FC Crescent City Girl won the 36-dog Open All Age stake. Nola, as she is called, is owned by Barry and Petra Steinmetz and handled by Bob Burchett. Amateur All Age honors went to Gun Runner's Gotta Lotta Mo, owned by Kevin Stonehouse and handled by Jon St. Clair in his inaugural attempt at running an all age dog. Good job, Jon! Open Puppy was won by Runabout Scout, owned and handled by Bruce Heiter. Markar's Double Down, handled by Jim John for owner Mary Karbiner, took the blue in Open Derby. Over on the north course, Tom Wonderling's FC Sniksoh Little Diamond won the Open Gun Dog with Bob Burchett on the whistle. Jon St. Clair also took top honors in Amateur Gun Dog with his dog FC St. Clair's Prince Rocco Volcano Leo. The Ed Powell Memorial Grand Open Limited Gun Dog Stake ran Monday and Tuesday. Details of this stake are given below.

For the past several years, the Iowa Brittany Club has held a concurrent independent Specialty Show on Friday and offers a $100 Dual Dog Award to the dog that accumulates the highest combined point total in the field and show. This springs winner is GCH/DC/GFC/AFC TNT's Raise'N A Ruckus, owned by Tommy and Linda Thomas. Rae, a Champion of Record, took the Field Trial Bitch class and was third in the Ed Powell Memorial Grand Open Limited Gun Dog.

Thanks to all the members and friends of the Iowa Brittany Club for helping out with all the necessary tasks such as feeding, watering, and planting birds, driving the dog wagons, arranging for meal delivery, filling water tubs, etc. We also want to thank all the participants for supporting these events. Hope to see you all back here again.

Grand Open Limited Gun Dog
Reported by Kevin Stonehouse

The eighth consecutive running of the Ed Powell Memorial was held at Union County Bird Dog Ranch on April 6-7, 2015. Twenty-three dogs came to the line to compete in this one-hour stake. Judges were well-known Midwestern bird-dog men Larry Loftin, of Grinnell, IA, and Kevin Stonehouse, of Clay Center, KS. Amateur handlers Lisa Pollock, from Medford, NJ, and Tommy Thomas, from Somonauk, IL, joined professionals Bob Burchett of Conway, MO, Tom Tracy of Burchard, NE, and Tom Hagan of St. Charles, MN for this event; we want to thank all these individuals for their support. The Iowa Brittany Club wishes to acknowledge the "ground support staff" of Roger Stowell, Marcy Beveridge, Charlie Pearson, Mickey and Judy Condron, and Chuck Schaefer for help with planting birds, arranging for meals, driving the dog wagon, acting as road-crossing guards, and the many other small but important tasks necessary to putting on a quality event.

The weather was generally good for running dogs, save for dense fog the morning of the second day. Heavy rain from predicted thunderstorms the afternoon of the second day did not materialize.

Winner: Hope's Chief Of Crosscreek, handled by Bob Burchett, started off strong and to the front and maintained this pace throughout the entire hour, always to the front and in the pocket between 10 and 2 with an effortless gait and easy handle. Carding stylish finds at 5 and 38 and finishing with plenty left in the tank.

Runner Up: Rico's Hi Proof Bootlegger, handled by Bob Burchett, started off strong and with a purpose of finding birds and that he certainly did. Mason slowed a bit for 10-15 minutes thru the middle but then found his second gear. Stylish finds at 5, 11, 23, 26, and 42 with non-productive at 45 and 49 with only feathers produced and a final find to the front at 53. Strong finish to the front as time was called.

Third Place: TNT's Raise'N A Rukus, handled by Tommy Thomas, started her hour fast and forward and like the Runner Up she was on a mission of finding birds with a Stop to Flush at 10, stylish finds at 17, 22, 27, 30, 33, 57, and 59.....the finds at 17 and 27 were the result of picture perfect casts for which she was rewarded.

Fourth Place: Lost Creek A Shot of Bourbon, handled by Tommy Tracy Jr., started at a moderate pace and built as the hour progressed, requiring some scouting. Streak had stylish finds at 8, 29, 42, and 50. Streak finished the hour on a big cast that

He finished at medium range.

BRACE 2: DIAMOND HILL WORK HARD PLAY HARDER/POLLOCK AND TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG/BURCHETT: Both dogs were loose with a purpose, both dogs were found standing on separate birds at 2, Carson having additional finds at 4 and 8. Gin had a second find at 12 with nice style but a couple of steps were taken to mark at the flush and shot. Carson failed to back and was leashed. Gin was seen under a bird at 25 and the next brace was called for.

BRACE 3: CASTAWAY WILSON/HAGAN AND SNIKSOH SALLY/BURCHETT: Turned loose heading North out of camp Sally had a non-productive at 6. She was found standing at 12; Wilson failed to back, bird flushed on its own and Sally took a big hop and was leashed, ending this brace's bid.

BRACE 4: WRIGLEYS BODEMEISTER/BURCHETT AND GLADE RUN NUTMEG/TRACY: Both dogs were away with gusto and making some nice moves to the front. At 7 both dogs were seen under a bird and by 11:00 judges were calling for the 5th brace.

BRACE 5: PERFECT BY NATURE/TRACY AND SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND/BURCHETT: Breaking away at exactly 11 am these two were gone to the front with purpose, making nice casts to the front, Nate scored first at 7 with style. At 18 both dogs were seen under a bird and we headed for camp and a good lunch.

BRACE 6: CEDAR VALLEY SPIDER/TRACY AND RICOCHET GUNSMOKES MR DILLON/BURCHETT: Spider and Dillon were let go at 1 pm and both were at moderate range. At 28 Dillon suffered a non-productive while Spider had a separate bird at 29. Spider had additional finds at 32, 40, 45, and 50. Spider seemed to be on a different path than Tommy and required some scouting. Dillon had a stylish find at 50 and another at 55 with all in order. Making a nice cast up the cedar tree line a single bird flushed wild, Dillon failed to remain and was leashed.

BRACE 7: STARLIGHT'S CLOUDED TITAN/BURCHETT AND TNT'S RAISE'N A RUKUS/THOMAS: Rae's performance reported above. Titan began with speed and focus and had a nice stylish find at 10 followed with a nice stop to flush at 22. At 48 Titan was not pleasing the handler and was put on a leash.

BRACE 8: STREAK/TRACY AND WILD MTN'S MIDNIGHT RENDEZVOUS/BURCHETT: Streak's performance listed above. Josey suffered a non-productive at 5, was turned lose and found standing at 10, relocated while Bob was attempting to flush and was leashed.

BRACE 9: BLAZIN SHADOW'S BAMA JAMA/BURCHETT AND DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT/TRACY: Jammie had a nice back at 40 and then seen under

BRACE 10: HOPE'S CHIEF OF CROSSCREEK/BURCHETT AND AUGUSTUS OF TIGER/TRACY: Chief's performance listed above. Gus had a nice find at 5 with all in order, at 10 he had a foot race with some deer and at 18 handler elected to pick him up.

BRACE 11: RENEGADE'S MASKED AVENGER/BURCHETT AS A BYE: Stark was seen under a bird at 10 to end his hour bid.

BRACE 12: WILD MTN HEAD EM UP-MOVE EM OUT/BURCHETT AS A BYE: Rowdy started with speed and determination, making nice forward casts. He was rewarded with a stylish find at 18 with all in order. Rowdy continued to stay in the pocket from 10 to 2, making some very nice moves, handling well and covering a lot of ground. At 54 he bumped a bird and was put on the leash.

BRACE 13: GET R DONE NELLIE/BURCHETT AS A BYE: Nellie was in season and turned loose in the last brace of the stake. She ran with speed and purpose as she went from objective to objective, suffered a non-productive at 17 and for the remainder of the hour showed speed and desire but unfortunately had no further bird contact. She finished the hour as strong as she started and had plenty left in the tank.

2015 Nebraska Brittany Championship

April 13-16, 2015 – Raymond, Nebraska

reported by Jessica Carlson

Those who have never visited Nebraska may not envision lush green pastures nestled in rolling hills, treelines and brushy edges enshrining native wildlife from feather to fur, or looking out at a picturesque lakeside. But this is the scene at the Branched Oak Field Trial Area, approximately 880 acres of prime upland habitat situated on the north end of Branched Oak Lake, a scenic half-hour drive from the state's capitol of Lincoln. It's a fine place to enjoy a ride and watch bird dogs in action, especially when the weather cooperates; and for that I have to thank Claudia Truksa for delivering (even against her resistance to making any promises in regards to Nebraska weather) on my request for no rain, sleet, snow, or high winds, thank you very much!

Stan & Claudia Truska, Wes Felt, John Savicky and others teamed up to host the Nebraska Brittany Championship for another year. Everyone knows how much stress and work goes into putting on a high caliber event such as this, and every bit of it is appreciated by all of those in attendance! The Nebraska club puts on a quality event that draws pros and amateurs alike, making for a truly brag-worthy Championship.

Our sincere thanks also goes to Purina and SportDog for sponsoring this event, as we all know how important their products are to developing our champions and helping them achieve their highest potential.

Nebraska natives Stan Truksa and Tim Thaden were our judges for this renewal of the Nebraska Brittany Championship. Both men are intimately familiar with the Branched Oak grounds and what a championship performance here requires. They had their work cut out for them with many dogs stepping up to put in worthy performances for their hour. In the end they found Ocaje, owned and handled by Terry Gowin, for the Championship title. Ocaje, better known as Grace, is no stranger to the winner's circle and was here to successfully defend her win of this championship in 2014. Grace's power, style, range, and bird finding ability made her a popular choice to garner two more feathers in her cap; this win was not only another American Field Championship, but also completed her AKC Grand Field Champion title. Her performance and those of the other placing dogs and contenders are expanded upon below:

BRACE 1. STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA – BURCHETT & THE CRASH SCENE – TRACY: we were in for a short ride as both dogs were involved in an incident unseen by the judges or gallery at 7 minutes, and were leashed by their handlers.

BRACE 2. KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY – BURCHETT & CEDAR VALLEY FLY BY – TRACY: though they were off to a promising start, at 16 minutes Fly By was under a bird and Whizky was out of contact with his handler.

BRACE 3. BBD'S CHA-CHING – MYERS & TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG –

BURCHETT: our first full hour brace began well, leaving from the fish camp and Little Chug (known as Carson) was off at speed. Scout called point for him just before we reached the pond crossing, and we rode back to the long treeline dividing the back half of the All Age course to find Carson looking like a carved statue on point. A bird was flushed just in front of him, with Carson spinning in place. We caught the front at 10 and Carson made a nice move around the right edge of the All Age breakaway field before crossing the wooden bridge. Burchett had his hat in the air at 30, and we arrived to find Carson standing with style and Reno having passed him and stolen point, to be collared by Myers. Carson marked the flight of this bird and continued forward, his range more conservative for the remainder of his hour. He carded a small covey find at 56 and finished his hour forward at the rocky crossing.

BRACE 4. CRESCENT CITY GIRL – BURCHETT & RU-JEM'S LAST PENNY – MCGEE: after some visiting off the breakaway, these two girls took off with Penny remaining fairly consistent through her hour but not connecting with game. Nola had a find requiring relocation in a large deep ditch, and handled it well. She had a second find 56 minutes into her hour and pointed again at 58, but no birds were found there.

BRACE 5. FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE – TILLSON & BLACK CREEK DEACON – HOLMAN: Deacon was slow to gain momentum but headed off to the left as we came onto the gun dog course at 50, and did not return to judgement. Ty scored his first find at 20 minutes, pointing with style at the corner of the hedgerow atop the first hill on the all age course, and never moving a muscle through the flush and shot. After the rocky crossing Ty headed right along the treeline, where the scout found him standing in what seemed like an unlikely spot. Tillson arrived and ventured into the thick brush, hearing but never seeing two hen pheasants as they lifted in different directions; an exciting find and what would be the only ideal pheasant find of the stake. Charging forward, Ty went out of sight to a long treeline where the scout again called point at 28, Ty again displaying admirable style and manners on his game. He had a non-productive near the fish camp at 38, and a brief slow spot as we neared camp, but then finished well and forward, working into the cover as we neared the boat ramp.

BRACE 6. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT – JOHNSON & SNIKSOH SALLY – BURCHETT: Sally took a few minutes to get warmed up, but after getting her motors running she was lost to judgement at about 40. Knight's enthusiasm took him all over the course, and earned him stylish finds at 30 and 50. He finished his hour with the same enthusiasm, heading towards the wooden bridge.

BRACE 7. TELTEX JAYHAWK – JOHNSON & CAPTAIN FINN – BURCHETT: Jay was not pleasing his handler today and was up at 22. Finn had a promising first half, with nice finds at 15 and 24, but at 55 pointed a third time and could not contain his excitement when the bird flushed up and over his head, and he gave chase.

BRACE 8. SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY – BURCHETT & TEQUILA SCORCHER – TILLSON: Willy started well and maintained consistently good, forward range throughout his hour. As we headed toward the concrete bridge he was found standing at the treeline, and we flushed a rooster pheasant from the other side as we rode toward him. Not having seen that bird, Burchett gave a cursory flushing attempt at the downed cedar in front of Willy before firing his pistol. Both dogs were together on the left near the creek as we came up out of the creek crossing onto the all age breakaway course, and Willy pointed with his bracemate coming to join him. A single was flushed but Scorcher was picked up for failure to honor. Willy pointed again at the long treeline on the back side of the all age course, but a bird could not be found where he originally pointed and relocation took him halfway down to the end of the treeline where he finally met with success. Willy continued well with some attractive moves, and finished his hour with a final mannerly find.

BRACE 9. DAKOTA GUN RUNNER'S BUCKSHOT – TRACY & HAL-J'S SMARTEYES-JOKER'S EZ ACE – JOHN: Buckshot never quite fired today, had a divided find as we approached the concrete bridge at 32 but Tommy elected to pick up at that point. Ace continued on, having another find at 40, but then suffered two non-productives to end his day.

BRACE 10. JAC'S OVER ACES – HOLMAN & REDROCK'S SEISMIC SNIKSOH – LINCOLN: Holman's charge, known as Dan, started well but lost his momentum and was up at about 45. Mickie had a terrific first half, with judge Truksa spotting her on point 200 yards to the front at the bottom end of the long treeline, and Mickie maintained excellent style and manners throughout. She pointed another time or two but moved on, and slowed in her last 15 minutes.

BRACE 11. UNCLE KRACKER – TRACY & MCCHESEY'S I GOT MY MOJO WORKING – JOHN: Both dogs started well, with Kracker taking the edges but having a hard time following through all the way back to the front. A more forward cast was rewarded with a find in the brush above the fish camp at 49. Mojo made some nice moves, staying forward at good range for most of his time down. He had a find in the grass above the first pond on the gun dog course at 15, and another at 28 in a bunch of deadfall just past the all age keyhole, and maintained his consistency in application through the end of his hour.

BRACE 12. SHADOW'S TEQUILA TRYST – TILLSON & BLACK CREEK BLAZE – HOLMAN:

Blaze had his own ideas about where the course should go today, and was out of judgement at about 30. Tristyn made some promising moves but in the end was not performing to her handler's expectations and was up at 45.

BRACE 13. BRENDI BROOKS COWBOY UP – TRACY & SPARKY'S PRAIRIE WIND GYPSY – JOHN:

These two had a divided find at the top of the first hill on the all age course at 6. Gypsy had another very nice find in the brush above the fish camp at 28, but when she was released she ran over a stray bird out in the grass and didn't get stopped in time. Cowboy was inconsistent in his application today and retired by his handler at 35.

BRACE 14. PRIMETIME OUTLAW JOHNNY – REA & ROUX-BEE – TILLSON:

Cash was not seen for very long after the breakaway, and failed to return. Roux-Bee had a bird flush from the cut grass near the all age keyhole crossing at 8, and gave chase.

BRACE 15. GLADE RUN IRISH – TRACY & JO-LOCKAPEX DARK ROUX GUMBO – LINCOLN:

Irish made a nice cast around the first field in the Gun Dog course, resulting in a find in the double thickets at 4. Both dogs were seen on point at a hilltop thicket at 8, with Roux standing tall. Released, Roux ran down the brush line towards the fish camp and pointed well forward; Lincoln shot when we arrived but the judge had not seen birds lift. Irish pointed above the ditch treeline at 15, and pinned the bird buried in cover below upon relocation. At 24, Roux backed Irish pointing a dead bird under a single small cedar above the first gun dog pond. As we approached the concrete bridge, Irish stopped on the path and had birds flushed from a large bush there. He was often pressed for range by his handler while Roux showed more natural independence, but slowed the last 10 minutes or so. Roux had a final find at 46 on the all age course, with Irish backing as he came through the area. The hour expired as we neared the fish camp.

BRACE 16. ODYSSEY'S ACE OF HEARTS – HOLMAN & TNT'S BLAZING SHOSHONI SHAKE N BAKE – THOMAS:

Both dogs had separate finds and chases at the hedgerow on top of the first hill on the all age course, at 5 and 6 minutes.

BRACE 17. JAGOUB'S BUZZ'N BAYOU – TRACY & POWDER RIVER'S TRI UR LUCK – JOHN:

Released above the rocky crossing on the all age course, Lotto headed straight forward for the brush above the fish camp and carded a find at 1 minute. He showed good early speed but later suffered two non-productives. Skeeter was powerful in his first half and had an excellent limb find to the far left as we came onto the gun dog course, but became more lateral in his second half and had increasing difficulty maintaining the front.

Gus wasn't quite up to the game today and Holman elected to pick him up after the concrete bridge at 7. Buddy had a nice find on the treeline by the road before the concrete bride, but chased at his next opportunity to end his day at 15.

BRACE 19. CARPE DIEM – LINCOLN & JOKER'S JACKPOT – JOHN:

Carp made some nice moves, and had a good find in the treeline at the back end of the gun dog course at time. Jack had one of the most forward and powerful ground performances of the stake, often out of sight but nearly always seen well to the front and on course. Unfortunately his only bird work was at 4 where judge Truksa saw a dog standing far forward, outside of the brush line near the keyhole on the all age course. The dog relocated as we rode to see which it was, and pointed again in the brush. When John went in to flush, the bird came up from where Jack had originally been standing. Another more defined piece of bird work would likely have changed some placements in this stake.

BRACE 20. GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP – TRACY & MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO – JOHNSON:

Georgia took some time to get lined out, but after a find called by the scout at 30 above the fish camp, she displayed good range and forward momentum in her second half. Chico made some nice moves and had a good find in the grass at 7, but later had a non-productive at 24, and became erratic in his application.

BRACE 21. OCAJE – GOWIN & ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT – MCGEE:

This was the most exciting brace to watch, with two fast and powerful white dogs making haste about the course. Grace tallied four finds, each handled with style and excellent manners. The first was at 8 minutes, when McGee called point for his dog, only to find that he was backing Grace from just above, she standing down in the bottom of the ditch at the back end of the gun dog course.

Both dogs stood with high style throughout the flush and shot. Grace had a second find at a crossing near the green gates, then was found standing in the treeline to our right as we finished up the regular gun dog course. Hank garnered a stylish find of his own to the left of the keyhole on the all age course, and while that was going on Grace pointed a fourth time at the hedgerow on the hill to the front. Grace had one last stand at 50 in the long treeline on the back end of the all age course, where Hank arrived and pointed in the same area, having been separated from his handler. Gowin took a non-productive and moved on, and Hank's scout got him back on course as well. Grace maintained a strong forward ground performance throughout her hour, finishing well to the front as she had started. Hank had some great work on the ground but was caught up behind a couple of times; no doubt much will be heard from this promising youngster in the future.

BRACE 22. CHANCEY'S FROZEN ASSET – TRACY & J&M JAX SUGAR BABE – JOHNSON:

Maggie was a handful from the start, breaking away into the hills on the right and returning from that side a few minutes later. After the rocky crossing she stayed with Tommy for a bit but then ventured out to the left and would not be gathered, so he opted to put her on a rope. Sugar showed some promising moves but was not consistent in her application. She had a find at the side of one of the rock crossings on the gun dog course, then disappeared before time and did not return within the grace period.

BRACE 23. WIMBERLEY ROWDY BO DANDY – JOHNSON & KINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD – TRACY:

Rowdy lived up to his name today, and while he showed good early speed he was not pleasing his handler and was up at about 45. Fatz was powerful and forward for most of his hour. His single find was well ahead of us as we came to the rock crossing on the All Age course and he was standing in the brush above the fish camp. He continued with good range and application, finishing his hour at the wooden bridge.

BRACE 24. WHIZKI'S STING – HOLMAN:

Hollie took a minute to get going but when

she did, she was a woman on a mission, charging around the course and occasionally checking in with her handler before venturing out again. She hadn't had birds and wasn't moving any placements by the time we reached the concrete bridge, so we called it a day and returned to camp to await the placements.

None Held Back and Other Bird Dog Stories

By Tom Word

Part Four Good and Evil

The Cure

Middle Carolina has always had them. Some with famous names: Armstrong, Bevan, English, Walker; some known only to their few grateful customers. From High Point south to Southern Pines, from the tobacco farms to the sand-hill pinewoods, bird-dog men have flourished.

Why? Well, tobacco farming is hard work, but it leaves a man time when the crop is laid by to fool with a pup and to bird hunt. The small farms with their hedgerows and fallow fields make a home for quail (at least until recently). And then there is the distance, and the train. It's exactly an overnight Pullman ride from New York City to High Point. In the old days a banker could close a deal on a snowy afternoon on Wall Street, celebrate it shooting Carolina quail next morning, get a night's sleep in the Pullman in between. Rich Yankees discovered the Carolina dog men, hired them to board and train their dogs, line up hunting permission or look after a lease. The shrewd Tarheels seized the commercial opportunity; even the hard Yankee banker can be generous after he shoots a limit of bobwhites over a pair of stonebroke pointers, especially when the dog man's wife cooks him a supper of pork tenderloin, snaps simmered two days in bacon drippings, sweet potatoes, cornbread and pecan pie.

This little story, maybe true, maybe apocryphal, but often told in North Carolina, concerns two such Tarheel dog men and a northern customer.

At dusk they drove in from the training grounds, a dozen tired pointers snoozing in the truck behind them, two horses asleep on their feet in the trailer. The men were as tired as the animals they fought the urge to doze, brought on by the heater's smelly warmth and the monotonous roar of the old truck's engine. The apprentice decided conversation was advisable to keep his boss, the driver, awake.

"Sal's come in season...."

"Oh, hell. That means we've got to breed her to Bill...."

Those were the orders of George Forsythe, owner of Sal and Bill, both field-trial winners of note, both out of Forsythe's New England kennel stock without an outcross in three generations (of course, the names of dogs and man have been changed).

The handler and his apprentice had discussed the mating a dozen times. It was one of the few things they agreed on; it was a mistake. Sal and Bill were winners, true; but like all dogs, they had weaknesses, in this case a shared one, a weakness that had plagued certain pointers since the day of John Proctor: a lack of intensity on point. The handler had devised tricks to compensate—a whack of his flushing whip on his trouser leg, a kick at a bush while flushing—sometimes these would tighten ‘em up temporarily.

Mating a pair of “relaxers,” as the handler called dogs with the weakness, was asking for trouble. But Forsythe owned the dogs and paid the bills and so called the shots.

“No if Sal got bred to Ole Frank, that would sure tighten up them pups,” blurted the apprentice, as if he had read the older man’s mind.

Frank belonged to another customer. He was blessed with a world of intensity on point. The handler had suggested a cross of Sal with Frank to Forsythe, but Forsythe had said no, he believed in line breeding. Truth was, he had a bad case of kennel blindness, a malady as common as distemper, and just as incurable.

The headlights lit the kennel runs, and the handler pulled the truck close to off-load the dogs. The temperature had been dropping since noon. Before sunup it would fall to fifteen above.

Alf, the kennel man, reeking as always of beer as he came out from beside the glowing woodstove in the tack room, had steaming pans of food waiting for the dogs, wrestled now from their warm beds in the truck boxes. They gulped down the food, lapped a little water from their soon-to-be frozen buckets, lifted a leg or squatted, depending on their sex, and crawled quickly into their tin-topped, hay-filled dog houses.

With the horses curried and fed, the handler and his apprentice trudged to the farmhouse, happy in the knowledge that a warm supper waited. Soon they, too, were fed and fast asleep. In the night, one of them awoke. The full moon’s glow through the window lit his room like daylight. He pulled on trousers, shirt, overall coat. At the kitchen door, he pulled on rubber barn boots. The ground crunched beneath his feet as he walked to the kennel. There would be no running dogs tomorrow—couldn’t risk slipped pads on the frozen earth with the big trials in Georgia coming right after Christmas, just weeks away....

Two years and two months later:

The well-wishers crowded around George Forsythe, who stood by the roaring fire in the clubhouse. Handshakes and congratulations came thick and fast. Two of Forsythe’s derbies, littermates, had just placed first and second.

“Yes, I had a hunch Sal and Bill would nick,” Forsythe said to a well-wisher.

The handler and his apprentice heard it from their stations by the coffee urn across the room. They looked at one another and shared sly grins. In the handler’s pocket were the checks for the derby placements and another of Forsythe’s for a bonus, all three to be shared with the apprentice, who had scouted. Their coffee finished, the lean Tarheels walked out to saddle fresh mounts for the opening brace of the all-age stake.

“Don’t ever let ‘em tell you there’s no cure for kennel blindness,” one said to the other.

Stress-Free Travel for Sporting Dogs

Traveling on the road to a multiday event is not restful for dogs, no matter how well-adapted they may be to life on the truck. Here are travel trips to help your dog stay injury-free, healthy and ready to perform at a high level of athleticism.

1. Practice Traveling. The more accustomed a dog is to traveling, the better. Early in the training season, familiarize young dogs with the travel routine. Puppies should get used to going on short rides in your travel vehicle and to being around other dogs and new places. Practice feeding them in the box on the truck or on a tie-out chain. Identify dogs that don't travel well so you can well so you can devise strategies to help them cope. A positive approach helps minimize stress, especially for dogs that don't eat, drink or sleep well on the road.

2. Conduct a Tailgate Exam. A tailgate exam involves putting a dog on the tailgate of your truck to examine him or her from head to toe after a day afield. This helps to identify potential injuries before they become problems. Start at the head and neck, turning the dog's head from side to side to look for muscle or disk problems. Check for back pain by running your hands along the dog's spine. Lift the front legs and flex them back and rotate them out to check range of motion in the shoulders. Look for cuts, bumps and scars, particularly on the elbows and hocks. Check the eyes and nose for seeds, grass or other field debris. Closely examine the feet, looking at the paws, pads, nail bed, and webbing for tears, cuts or signs of pain and swelling.

3. Feed one time a day. Performance dogs that are healthy, and not a breed at risk for bloat, should be fed once a day a minimum of 10 to 12 hours before exercise. Eating creates an insulin spike that inhibits a dog's ability to use fat, the most important energy fuel. Insulin also increases the uptake of glucose, or sugar, from the blood into the muscles, which could cause fatigue from low blood sugar. Feeding shortly before exercise increases blood flow to the gut and thus decreases the amount of blood available to the working muscles. At multiple-day events, dogs should be fed as soon as possible after exercise, allowing adequate time for cooling down, so they have the maximum time to digest the meal before the next day.

4. Keep Dogs Hydrated. Healthy hydration is essential for hardworking dogs. Dehydration can occur rapidly. Dogs that exercise 30 to 60 minutes in temperatures that are 70 to 80 degrees can experience mild to moderate dehydration, depending on the activity and the intensity. To help maintain hydration, dogs should be given small amounts of water every 15 to 20 minutes during events lasting longer than 60 minutes. Water helps to cool the special cooling mechanism in the back of a dog's throat, which counters the current exchange and helps cool blood going to the brain. Saliva and foam impair the cooling system. At the end of an event, make sure a dog has access to water, but be sure to wait until panting slows down before allowing a dog to drink a large volume of water

5. Choose a Quiet Place for Rest. It's important to choose a quiet place free of distractions to kennel a dog for the night. If your dogs sleep in dog boxes in your truck, you should park in an area away from other vehicles that is free from distractions. Make sure your dogs have soft, dry bedding so they can rest comfortably.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
