VOLUME LXVIII • NUMBER 6 • JUNE 2016

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

K9 ABC GAMES – NEW NOSEWORK ADVENTURES

By Carla Simon

I recently had the pleasure to attend the K9 ABC Games nosework event in Alberta, Canada with my Brittanys. What a blast!

Founded in Washington state, K9 ABC Games nosework keeps the emphasis on games. While legs and titles are earned, there are no placements or rankings, so many handlers felt less anxious than other nosework venues. Every team has the opportunity to succeed and the relaxed atmosphere allows teams to test their skills, while enjoying realistic search situations.

It's thrilling to see the sport of canine nosework growing. For those readers who are unfamiliar, Nosework is an exciting new sport that uses similar techniques to those employed to teach dogs to detect narcotics or explosives. It's a race to find a legal substance that's hidden by the judge. Once the dog finds each hidden odor, he must show the handler where it is, within a few inches, so the handler can call "alert" within the allotted time. Brittanys have such strong natural scenting ability, they tend to enjoy nosework, which offers both mental and physical exercise. Mixed breed and rescue dogs are all welcome to play.

There are several different organizations offering nosework of various flavors across North America. K9 ABC Games is unique. It affords each team the chance to perform a series of continuous searches, exploring containers, vehicles, interior and exterior hides, in any order. There is no separation between rooms or events, and time continues to run while handlers are encouraged to reward their dog's successes throughout, using food or toys. Boxes may be outside. Vehicles can include anything with wheels, from plastic kids play cars or wheeled trolleys to transport trucks inside buildings. Teams never know what to expect and each search presents an exciting new puzzle to solve.

The games I attended were judged by K9 ABC Games Founder and CNWI nosework instructor, Alecia Elvstad. With years of experience and an evident passion for teaching, her sense of humor showed in her hides. For example, one search featured odor hidden in a vending machine where the can of soda usually appears. While one hide was inside a backpack, another was behind a baseboard. Every hide was unpredictable and spectators were fascinated watching the performances of the dog handler teams.

WWW.THEAMERICANBRITTANYCLUB.ORG

At the least complicated, Single Odor level, only one odor was hidden, in four different places, encompassing Containers, Vehicles, Interior, and Exterior, in any order. Each team had 6 minutes to find them all. If an inexperienced teams succeeded in finding the hidden odor in the container, but couldn't find the others, they still received credit for the container portion. Upon conclusion, Ms. Elvstad offered informal comments, noticed what teams did well and made suggestions on how they could improve. Many teams were pleasantly surprised at their improvement over the course of the weekend. All were more confident and proficient at the conclusion.

Unlike some other organizations, dogs didn't need to pass an odor recognition test first in order to participate fully. In fact, in K9 ABC Games you can choose the level which you enter: either start at the bottom and work your way up comfortably as you gain experience, or start at the highest level if you're ready for the ultimate challenge.

At the highest, Triple Odor level, Ms. Elvstad hid anywhere between 7 and 10 hides, and she did not tell handlers how many were present. She arranged the searches at a dog boarding facility so that all 10 minutes could be safely conducted off leash. The retail section featured enticing displays of dog training rewards. My Brittany completed his Triple Odor title by correctly finding one hidden scent on a fuzzy bird toy, then carrying that scented toy around proudly until he found and indicated the hides in the remaining rooms.

We thoroughly enjoyed playing K9 ABC Games and look forward to participating again when it's available near us. If you enjoy nosework, you too may find K9 ABC Games a welcome new adventure.

In Memory of

LON MENEER of Canaan, Maine passed away suddenly on April 13, 2016 at the age of 68. He was a consummate sportsman who loved hunting, fishing, horses and bird dogs. Born and raised in the Ohio area, he enlisted in the US Navy as a young man. He became a medical corpsman and was attached to the Marines during the Vietnam War. He served in medi vac helicopters, flying the wounded out from the battle at Khe Sanh. Most of his working life was spent as a national sales representative for several large adhesive companies. In the late seventies and early eighties Lon spent several years as a full time professional Brittany trainer operating in the east central region. Although mainly involved with Brittanys, he also had German Shorthairs, Pointers, Setters and Labradors. After retiring from the work force he settled in Maine and became a Registered Maine Guide and also had a select amount of clients who he kept supplied with trained bird dogs of various breeds. His untimely passing was a surprise to all who knew him. His friendship and quick wit will be missed.

Have you visited the American Brittany Club website lately?

This website is designed to help you find all things related to the American Brittany!

You will find Regional Club listings, News, Membership, History, Information about the Brittany, Calendar of Events, Event Premiums, National Event info, Award winners, Hall of Fame, Past Magazines, Items for Sale, and much more.

We hope you enjoy your visit to the American Brittany Club website!

The American Brittany Club was established in 1942 as a member of the American Quarter Club and is the recognized kennel registry for the breed in the field. The club is composed of every regional or local club except from coast states that is a member of the American Quarter Club in the Spring and Fall seasons. Many other specialty clubs (and breeders) show their regional club membership in their local publications, but they, in turn, are not members of the American Quarter Club.

The purpose of the American Brittany Club is to provide information and friendship among the members and owners of a Brittany and to encourage the highest standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring. To discourage the breed from becoming light-bred dogs and to encourage the breed to keep a "true dog".

The American Brittany Club does not have a breed standard. It is a breed of the American Quarter Club and is the recognized kennel registry for the breed in the field. The club is composed of every regional or local club except from coast states that is a member of the American Quarter Club in the Spring and Fall seasons. Many other specialty clubs (and breeders) show their regional club membership in their local publications, but they, in turn, are not members of the American Quarter Club.

A monthly magazine is published and sent to all members of regional clubs and members-at-large as part of their membership dues. The magazine contains news, club news, and also provides an excellent service to owners and breeders of the breed. There are also articles of general interest. 2016 ABC Illinois Classics

ABC/Illinois Brittany Championship Assoc. 2016 Running

As many of you know, the weather in Southern Illinois in January can be anything from 0 to 60 degrees. While we didn't quite make 0, we came close to 60 the last day and in the teens in between. The Amateurs braved rain on Saturday (but mild temperatures) and cold winds on Sunday. Many thanks to Ed Janulis and Jeff Marshall for sitting in the Saddle those two blustery days. The Ace of Spade, a new Grand Field Champion and 2-time winner of the Purina Dog of the Year award won it again! Not only did he shine in the Amateur Championship but went on to win the Open Championship as well. To say he has mastered these grounds is a big understatement. Dave Capstick handled him perfectly while Tim Self (co-owner) did scouting duties. In each event, Spade had multiple finds, handled flawlessly and always stayed to the front. This scribe overheard one of our Open judges, Jarrett Bell, tell Dave that his brace was the most fun to watch with brace ment Skeeter claiming the runner up champion spot. Gailen Cooper took a break from his Purina duties with the hounds to join Jarrett to officiate over both the Derby Classic and Open All Age. Many thanks to both these gentlemen for sitting in the saddle those cold three days.

Our Derby Classic showed well for the future of the Brittany breed. This 45-minute stake produced winner & runner up for Tom Tracey out of the same litter (Paul Rosevear's Roustabout breeding), with new comer John McPeak winning 3rd in his first continuous course competition. Thommy Thomas rounded out the winner's circle with Dex.

Once again, we were graced with the presence of Terry Trzcinski representing Nestle Purina. Without their financial support as well as providing quality dog food, we would not be able to put on this event. In addition to Purina, we want to recognize Cha Hill and his IDNR staff of two hardworking men for their continued cooperation in maintaining these grounds as a class field trial area for all pointing breeds.

We are blessed to have a dedicated corps of volunteers for this championship. Maurine Richter came to head the gallery, Joe Jung came to drive the dog wagon. Donna Janulis, Mary Jo Trimble & Judy Graves all provided a hot dish for the lunches each day. Chad Holman planted birds for the Amateur while Dave Capstick, Tim Self & Ed Graves planted for the Derby & Open. Dave & Ray Trimble marshalled throughout the 5 days of running and Mary Jo was the ever present road guard.

As a side note, we remembered Jim & Janet Chase as we christened our new club house building procured with funds from their estate. In addition to the 14 x 40 building, we now have 3 additional parking lanes and a permanent toilet facility. This would not have happened without their dedication to the sport.

2016 ABC WESTERN FUTURITY

Host Club: Oregon Brittany Club

March 30, 31-April 1, 2016

Madras, Oregon

By Jim Hammett

The 2016 Western Futurity was hosted by the Oregon Brittany Club. The Futurity Show kicked off the action and was held on March 30, 2016 at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds with Sherry Rilea presiding as judge. A futurity dinner was enjoyed by participants and workers alike. Thanks go to Purina and Mud River for their continued support of the futurity events.

The Futurity Field stakes were held on the Crooked River National Grasslands, near Madras Oregon on March 31 and April 1st. The weather was perfect for the event with cool mornings and sunny days. There are few trial venues more scenic than the National Grasslands. The snow covered volcanic peaks of Mount Jefferson, Mount Washington and Mount Hood served as very scenic backdrops for an exciting event.

Great support for the event came from Purina, The US Forest Service, which manages the National Grasslands, and the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife which provides strong support for field trialing sporting dogs.

The futurity was held in conjunction with the regular spring trial of the Oregon Brittany Club and the Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship. In the course of the week, more than 200 dogs were run in one of the best attended trials in recent memory. The food was excellent with great lunches and dinners provided each day on the grounds by the club. Each evening was a great time of meeting new people and discussing dogs, braces, and pedigrees.

2016 Western Gun Dog Futurity

The Gun Dog stake was a bit more competitive with 23 dogs entered and 21 started. Most dogs had finds and the judges reported considerable difficulty in arriving at four placements.

The first place dog was the top dog of the 10th brace, Cayuse (Young Chief), owned and handled by Chet Hadley. Cayuse had a very strong, mostly forward run, making large and wide casts. The judges reported he hit objectives that no other dog attempted. He showed off his easy extended stride which made his race efficient and graceful. He pointed and held one bird at about the 25-minute mark for what seemed like ages, as the find was well off the centerline of the course. His style was extraordinary -- tail was vertical and vibrating, head high, and no one could question his intensity. Cayuse ran strongly through the entire 30 minutes, despite running during the hottest part of the day.

The second place dog was the top dog of the 6th brace, Janee's I'll Set the Limit (Favor), owned by Cortnee Staley, and handled by Jason Staley. Favor has been placing in open gun dog stakes and showed his experience, endurance and style with a very strong forward race. He had two good finds and showed great style and intensity on each. Favor was one of the fastest dogs of the day, covering lots of ground in very short order.

The third place dog was the bottom dog of the third brace, Copley's Caliah's Up a Crick (Cricket), owned by Mary Brown and Rashelle Sytsma, and handled by Paul Doiron. Cricket had four finds and a strong, consistent forward run. Each find was pointed with great style.

The fourth place dog was the bottom dog of the first brace, Caliah Sanbar's Floating River, (Cali), owned by Mary Brown and Rashelle Sytsma, and handled by Paul Doiron. Cali had one find and a very strong finish.

2016 ABC CENTRAL FUTURITY

By Cathy Gire

The Skyline Brittany Club was the host of the Central Futurity. The show was at the Kit Carson County Fairgrounds, in Burlington Colorado on March 13, 2016. The Skyline Brittany Club was blessed with good weather for March. Especially, considering that as I am writing this, a few weeks later, we are in the middle of a blizzard.

The show started off with Bryar Ridnowr singing a beautiful rendition of the National Anthem. She is a freshman at Burlington High School. The judge was Joan Luna Liebes. There were 27 entries, with 14 male and 13 females. The following day, she and her husband went to the field trial. The Stewards were Jerry and Kathy Hogan

I want to thank all the Skyline members behind the scene who made this a wonderful weekend. A special thank you to Maurya Ord and Alice Janssen who were in charge of hospitality. They hosted a wonderful Taco Bar that was enjoyed by many. Ginny Daily helped with many things throughout the day. Also, we want to thank Gary Robbins and John Walch for help setting up the show site. They were very helpful. Dawn Craig, Tim Gonzales, Anne Zadrzil, Jim Masolotte and Jim Austin for helped on the set up and clean down of the show site. Another thank you to Leslee Masolotte, the section manager and Kristi Anglen who guided me through this experience.

Thank you to Purina for their financial sponsorship and the food prizes. Without their support, these events would not be possible

Futurity Field By Jeff Hoskins

On March 13th the Skyline Brittany Club of Colorado hosted the 2016 Central Futurity at the South Republican Wildlife Area north of Burlington Colorado. These are great grounds along the South Republican River (creek by many standards) located close to the CO, KS, & NE borders. The terrain is basically large cottonwood and brush timber pasture with water available at most points along the course. The All Age course is truly that, open but with objectives that allow an All Age dog to be shown. The Gun Dog course is timbered terrain that is typical habitat for hunting Bobwhite Quail in this region. Wild game is abundant, ducks, geese, turkey, mule and white tail deer, pheasants, quail, bobcat, and coyotes were observed during our four days at the field trial. Equally important, were the trout and sunfish the kids caught from the ponds. This is truly a wonderful place to hold a field trial. We were blessed with wonderful sunny weather with temps ranging from high 40's to low 70's.

The judges were Tim Hidalgo and John Moreland for the All Age Futurity. Joan Heimbach and Gary Fromme judged the Gun Dog Futurity. They were all attentive, conscientious, and worked hard to give each dog the opportunity to show itself as a future contender. As always at the Field Trials, our sincere gratitude to our judges for their contribution to our sport. Leslee Masolotte was section manager and Cathy Gire was the section secretary of our futurity field and show events. Denise Collins also handled much of the field secretary duties. Jim Austin, Dan Collins, Allan Davis, Barry Koepke, and Liz & Dave Klein handled everything from the bird planting, dog wagon, to the food for the field event. A big thanks to our hard working Skyline membership!

As always our field trials would not exist without the support of our sponsors Purina, Garmin, Mud River, and Dogs Unlimited-THANK YOU! Please support these companies and buy their fine products!

GUN DOG Futurity

BRACE 1 K NINES BLACKTREE IRISH MISCHIEF-MICK (HENNESSEY) KELLY'S KRAZY KOBY-KOBY (PORTER) Mick hunted the course, but appeared to not be used to the heavier cover. There was no bird contact observed. Koby's bid was a fast, furious and a strong demonstration of hunting and bird finding ability. There was impressive rapport between dog and handler. Koby adjusted range to the tighter and more open parts of the course. This powerful performance with four finds, three well pointed, set the standard.

BRACE 2 HIDAWAY'S SHORT SKIRT-FLIRT (MASOLOTTE) GUGIN'S PRIME CUT JH-BRISKET (GUGIN) Action packed brace. Flirt has a very attractive gait and had a strong ground effort. Mostly forward, but running all over the place with one find. However, this performance left her handler hoarse. Brisket and his handler were a fun team to watch. Brisket is flashy looking and runs with his head and tail high. Hard running along with a good nose produced multiple finds and points.

BRACE 3 K NINES FIST FULLA DOLLARS-CASH (Crabb) SNIKSOH TOOTSIE ROLLS-TOOTSIE (HOSKINS) Cash is a larger dog who takes a long, powerful, fast stride. He hunted hard around the course and worked the cover well and pointed his bird nicely. Tootsie did not please her handler and was up at the midpoint.

BRACE 4 CHRISTIAN'S PHILLIE-PHILLIE (YAMAIMOTO) PEPPER'S LITTLE SURE SHOT ANNIE-ANNIE(HEDSTROM) Phillie hunted hard, quartering, and vacuuming the course. She was rewarded with four broke finds but showed some of the remnants from the breaking process. It appeared that this dog has a lot of field experience for her short years. This was not Annie's day and was up early.

BRACE 5 CH. A WEE TRACE O'WELLER-TRACE (ROBBINS) JR'S COOL HAND LUKE-LUKE (HARRIS) Both dogs hit the ground running hard. Trace worked the course well for his handler and carded a good stylish find. Luke was fun to watch, as he is classy both on the ground and on point. Luke pointed intensely with a high tail and had three finds. Luke had a brief absence but definitely pushed the placing dogs. He will be heard from in the future.

BRACE 6 WINDTUCK'S FAR FROM OVER-JACK (MASOLOTTE) BANTAM'S STRUTZ JH-STRUTZ (HEDSTROM) Jack had a nice ground covering gait as he hunted, but his casts were immature and he went birdless. Strutz hunted hard for his handler and hustled around the course. Very classy dog to watch in the field and carded two bird contacts.

BRACE 7 K NINE SENDERO SURGENT-SENDERO (HENNESSEY) KINWASHKLY AMIGO STAN BY ME-STANLEY (WILLIAMSON) Sendero moved out and hunted, but his pattern broke down, and went birdless. Stanley hunted well for his handler. Stanley applied himself to the course but went birdless.

BRACE 8 COPLEY-SHELTTANY ECHO OF ANGELS-ZOIE (RODRIGUEZ) OVER UNDER'S BANTAM'S BAYWATCH-LACY(GUST) Zoie ran very wide but unfortunately was absent much of the time and no birdwork was observed. Lacy was fun to watch as she is very snappy. Her inexperience showed and she went birdless.

ALL AGE FUTURITY

Brace 1 FIRESTARTER'S COLBY JACK-COLBY (CHRISTENSEN) AND BUCK O ROUX-BUCK (LINCOLN) Both dogs were fast on the ground, hunted hard and were nicely gaited. Colby hustled but did not show the range needed for this stake. Colby at 17 and Buck at 17 & 20 had bird contacts. Buck ran at good range and hunted intelligently, but a bird contact at 20 flushed and took him backwards on the course which detracted. A couple of breaks would have put this dog in there.

Brace 2 SHADY WAY'S JOKER'S HILL COUNTRY EXPRESS-STAN (JOHN) AND KINWASHKLY SINGLE WHITE FEMALE-FRANCIS (ANDREAS) Stan's race was massive and very forward most of the time. The big casts and long absences made it difficult to maintain the front. No bird contact was observed and the handler pulled the tracker at time.

Francis (Named after beloved Kansas field trialer Francis Clausen) put down a nice consistent forward All Age race with the big moves one looks for in this type of stake. She showed speed and intelligent ground application. Francis was rewarded with a find at 25. She winded the bird from a distance and pointed stylishly.

Brace 3 JAKES MAXIMUS-MAX (JOHN) ROUXFUS-ROUXFUS (LINCOLN) Max's speed, ground application and range were eye catching. He made some very big and smart moves, which earned him a call back for a bird which he pointed nicely. Rouxfus has good ground speed and hunted well but did not make the all age types moves and went without birds.

Brace 4 JOKER'S LUCY YOU GOT SUM SPLAIN'N 2 DO-LUCY (JOHN) FIRESTARTER'S WRITTEN IN THE STARS-SAGE (MACKKEY) Lucy started out well, made some nice moves, but was lost at 15 and the tracker was pulled shortly thereafter. Sage moved nicely, but ran the course at restricted range and had one bird contact.

Brace 5 SNIKSOH THERAPIST-LUCY (HOSKINS) GYPSY'S PRAIRIE ROSE-ROSE (JOHN) Lucy ran a forward, wide, intelligent race with a bird contact at 15. Lucy did not have the big move needed. Rose was not having a good day and her handler elected to pick up early.

Brace 6 CH FIRESTARTER'S CHASING THE SUNSET-RAE (CHRISTENSEN) PRAIRIE WIND REDSTONE-RUBY (JOHN) Rae was smart, wide, and fast. This pretty dog had lots of show and lots of go. This pleasing performance earned Rae a call back opportunity, during which she pointed nicely. Ruby was very consistent, forward, good range and application to the objectives on the course. This application rewarded her with two of the nicer finds of the stake, during which she pointed very well.

IOWA Union County Ranch Thayer, IA April 1-5, 2016

Spring. Many people claim this is their favorite season, marking the transition between the cold, bleak conditions of winter and the warm, lush, green summer. It is a season dedicated to lovers and glorified by poets. The problem is, the transition from cold winter to warm summer is neither linear nor smooth. Spring weather, especially in the Midwest, is extremely variable and very hard to predict. While many days are, indeed, warm and sunny, there are also many other days when the opposite is true. Rain, snow, cold, wind, hail (all 4-letters words) are possible, as are even more severe weather conditions such as tornadoes and even blizzards, and field trailers must be prepared for any and all weather conditions on a given weekend. The operative word for this particular weekend was wind. Lots of it, and from just about every conceivable direction. On Friday, it came from the north and brought cold temperatures and periods of rain and snow. Ice formed in water tubs Saturday morning, but there was no let-up from the wind. A shift in direction did occur Sunday, bringing in warmer air from the south, but the transition from cold to very warm was something of a jolt to many people and dogs. The wind blew so hard, it upset the portable sanitary facilities at the grounds. Fortunately, no one was inside when this occurred. Monday saw another shift in direction, back to being more northerly. Yet another shift back to southerly winds occurred Tuesday, with one gust that blew away the lunch tent, along with the food being prepared inside it. Warm, cold, sunny, and wet, but always windy. Just another spring trial in the Midwest.

Speaking of transitions, many changes have been made to the grounds at Union County Ranch since last fall's trials, and rearranging of the courses was necessitated as a result. Both all age and juvenile stakes were run on the north course while the open and amateur gun dog were run on the south side, utilizing new crossings to access the western portion of the property. We want to thank landowners Linda and Tommy Thomas for all the improvements that are being made to enhance this venue for running bird dog field trials. Your efforts are greatly appreciated by all who come here to run.

Despite the blustery conditions, several dogs turned in notable performances. Kinwashkly Tempo, a 5-year old male handled by Ed Tillson, won the 25-dog Open All Age stake with a strong, forward race. Tempo is co-owned by Joyce Miley and Leslie Andreas. Amateur All Age went to Remchester's Premium White Lightning, handled by Kevin Stonehouse for owner Don McNabb, Jr. Hooch, as he is called, is a big running dog that has not yet reached 2 years old. He has a very bright future ahead of him. Julie Nelson-Claypool handled her young dog Turning Pts Shenanigans to first place in Open Puppy and Jake's Maximus, owned by Pedro Rodriguez and handled by Jim John, won the large (24 starters) Open Derby. Tommy Thomas' dog TNT's Sirius Renegade Buddy Boy bested the field of 30 starters in Open Gun Dog, and placed second in Amateur Gun Dog after the judges elected to withhold first place. Following the weekend trial, GCH/DC Wild Mtn's Midnight Rendezvous garnered the blue ribbon in the one-hour Ed Powell Memorial Grand Open Limited Gun Dog Classic, which was also recognized this year as the Iowa Brittany Shooting Dog Championship. Josey, as she is called, is owned by Marcy Beveridge and handled by Roger Stowell. Details are given below on the running of this stake. Josey also won the $100 Dual Dog Award for having the highest combined score for placements in the field and the concurrent Specialty show held Friday night. Three dogs met the qualifications of this award by having both field and show placements.

Many thanks to all the club members who came and helped out with the trial, from helping set up, keeping birds fed and watered, planting birds, driving dog wagons, filling water tanks, and all the other tasks necessary to putting on a field trial. Most of all, thanks to all the participants for running your dogs. We hope to see you all again next fall.

Ed Powell Memorial Grand Open Limited Gun Dog Classic/Iowa Brittany Shooting Dog Championship

The ninth annual running of the Ed Powell Memorial Gun Dog Classic, and the inaugural running of the Iowa Brittany Shooting Dog Championship, commenced on a bright, sunny morning with temperatures in the high 40s and a north wind at around 10 mph (significantly less than had been the case for the past 3 days). Twenty dogs came to the line over the next day and a half to compete in this event. Adjudicating were well-known and respected judges Howard Burbach of Pleasant Hill, Missouri and Mike Martin of Bella Vista, Arkansas. Both men gave their undivided attention to the dogs. At the end, they named GCH/DC Wild Mtn's Midnight Rendezvous JH (call name Josey) as their champion. Josey ran in the final brace, under the whistle of handler Roger Stowell. A description of her performance is given below.

Bird work was plentiful, with each dog being involved in some form of game contact. Several dogs had multiple finds, so being mannerly around birds was a critical element of a successful performance. The winner carded 2 coveys, 2 singles, and a woodcock, plus pointed a hawk kill from the bottom of a deep ravine. Her race showed extreme intelligence, seeking out all possible objectives and always making sure to attack them from the down-wind side. She ran edges to their ends, and required only light handling during her hour. Runner-up went to CH Shiloh's Premiere Lady Dual Oaks. Zoie ran in the 2nd brace and carded 4 finds and one back, with a generally forward race. Third place was awarded to DC/NGDC/GFC Hopes Chief Of Crosscreek. Running in the 4th brace, Chief had 2 finds, a back, and a non-productive coupled with a run that, while at times was wide and far-reaching, lacked the consistency of the top two dogs. Fourth place was claimed by GFC/FC Touch Of Bourbon Little Chug. Carson ran in the first brace and tallied 6 finds. He exhibited a pleasing race with good range and application, but a slight infraction on one of his finds kept him from a higher placement.

The Iowa Brittany Club is indeed indebted to many people and businesses in the production of this event. Landowners Linda and Tommy Thomas have made tremendous improvements to the grounds, removing trees, opening crossings to allow access to virtually all parts of the Ranch, and working with club members to manage the property such that trials of this caliber can be run here. Even more improvements are planned over the next several years. Donations of merchandise and gift certificates from Boyt Harness Company and Gun Dog Supply are greatly appreciated. This is also a Garmin Shooting Dog Award Points Trial, and we thank them for sponsoring that award.

Many individuals were involved with the planning and execution stages. In addition to the normal work of the field trial committee, Bob Burchett allowed the use of his truck as a dog wagon. Linda Thomas, assisted by Jill Schaefer and Hal Revoir, transported the dogs and, along with help from Ed Tillson, braved the large gravel trucks to act as road guards. Marcy Beveridge took care of lunch on Monday (but Mother Nature took care of lunch Tuesday when a strong gust of wind blew away the food tent, along with much of its contents). Chuck and Jill Schaefer provided coffee and treats for the morning and afternoon breaks.

The Running:

Monday morning, April 4. Bright, sunny morning, 8:00 AM, 48 degrees. North wind about 10 mph.

BRACE 1: REMCHESTER'S PREMIUM WHITE LIGHTNING (HOOCH)/STONEHOUSE AND FC TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG (CARSON)/BURCHETT: Dogs were released north of camp and headed north. Carson pointed at 11 at end of first finger past double crossing. Hooch failed to back and was up. Handler produced a bird and the dog was taken on. He carded his second find at 14 at the end of the second finger, with all in order. His third find was at 17, just west of the old barn. The bird was flushed and Carson moved a short distance in the direction of the flight, but stopped after a few steps. He made a very nice move across the alfalfa field and into the northwest CRP field, then pointed at 26 in the motte south of the alfalfa field. Birds were produced with all in order. He continued to put down a strong, forward race as we crossed the road onto the south course. He scored his 5th find at 49 along the south edge of the hedgerow and his 6th find at 52 by the finger feeder southwest of the hedge. He continued to make good moves through the remainder of that field and across Shiflett's Crossing to the west side and finished his hour in the bean field.

BRACE 2: KJ'S MASKED MAN (RANGER)/WINDOM AND CH SHILOH'S PREMIER LADY DUAL OAKS (ZOIE): The dogs were loosed from the southwest corner of the bean field. They headed north, turned east past the pond and rock crossing, and up the hill. Ranger pointed at 10 with Zoie backing. Birds were seen under a cedar tree. Ranger broke with the shot, ending his bid, while Zoie stood solid throughout the ensuing activity. She had a find at 20 at the finger feeder southwest of the hedgerow. After crossing to the north course, she scored additional finds at 24 along the first finger past the double crossing, again at 28 at the second finger, and at 40 along a draw southwest of the alfalfa field. She handled all pieces of bird contact with excellent manners, showing great style each time. Her run was at good distance and generally forward, although she did not hold her lines quite as consistently as the winner.

BRACE 3: TNT'S RAISE 'N A RUCKUS (RAE)/THOMAS AND GRADE 8 BOLT (BOLT)/JOHNSON: THE FINAL BRACE OF THE MORNING BROKE AWAY FROM THE GATE ON THE NORTHWEST CRP FIELD, HEADED SOUTHEAST. Both dogs acted as though they were making game at 1, but were sent on by handlers. Rae pointed at 4 in the motte but no bird produced. Bolt disappeared in the dogleg by the road crossing at 20 and was not returned to judgement. Rae continued on to the south course and had finds at 27 in the hedgerow, 29 east of Karbiner's crossing, and 31 south of Shiflett's crossing, but endured another nonproductive at 38 and handler elected to pick up.

BRACE 4: COCO DOT (COCO)/JOHNSON AND HOPE'S CHIEF OF CROSSCREEK (CHIEF)/BURCHETT: The afternoon braces left from behind camp at 1:30, headed north, under sunny skies and temps in the low 50s. Coco angled easterly, toward the fence line on the south side of the orchard where scout found her on point at 5. Chief came in for a back. Scott produced a bird with all in order and dogs were cast away, again to the north, but Coco was not responding well to handler and he elected to pick up at 13. Chief pointed at 17 west of the old barn, but no bird was produced. He later scored at 51 on a bird in the hedgerow and again at 54 in the draw just east of Karbiner's Crossing. His race was rather inconsistent, showing some excellent moves at times but appeared flat at others. He finished his hour on the south end of the bean field.

BRACE 5: RICO'S HI PROOF BOOTLEGGERS (MASON)/SCHAEFER AND RICOCHET GUNSMOKES MR. DILLON (DILLON)/THOMAS: The dogs broke away from the southwest corner of bean field, past the pond in the old horse corral, then over the rock crossings and up the hill. Mason went on point at 9 in the open field. Chuck made a concerted flushing attempt, with no success, and asked Mason to relocate. As he did, a bird lifted and Mason failed to stop in time, ending his hour early. Dillon went on, showing some nice moves around the edges of several fields, but suffered an unfortunate encounter with a quail at 40 in the finger southeast of the old barn site.

BRACE 6: WRIGLEY'S BODEMEISTER (BODE)/STEINMETZ AND ST. CLAIRE'S PRINCE ROCCO VOLCANO LEO (ROCCO)/JOHNSON: The dogs were released from the old barn site, headed west. Both dogs were well to the front as we crossed the alfalfa field and they were seen rimming the edges of the CRP field that surrounds it. Rocco pointed at 11 near the west crossing south of the deer stand. Initial flushing attempt was unsuccessful and he was asked to relocate. He pointed again on the opposite of the wire fence. Handler crossed the fence and flushed a single quail, but Rocco showed too much exuberance at the flight, ending his bid. Bode pointed at 17 at the end of the ditch NE of camp, but no bird was produced. He pointed again at 30 along the south side of the hedge and birds were flushed, with all in order. Within seconds of being released, he pointed again along a terrace southwest of the hedge. A single quail was produced, again with all in order. After making the rock crossing, he went on point at 37 in a wooded area. One judge observed a woodcock leave as he approached and instructed handler to fire. He scored another find at 54 along the ditch east of Karbiner's Crossing. A bird was produced with all in order. He pointed yet again at 57 by the old finger feeder southwest of the hedge row. Handler attempted to flush in very heavy cover. Birds were eventually seen by the judges and handler was instructed to fire as the hour expired.

Tuesday Morning: High clouds, breezy from the south-southeast, 36 degrees.

BRACE 7: TNT'S BLAZING SHOSHONI SHAKE N' BAKE (BUBBA)/THOMAS AND BLAZIN' SHADOWS BAMA JAMA (JAMMIE)/STOWELL: Breakaway was from behind camp. Bubba pointed at 11 at end of 2nd finger past the double crossing. A bird was flushed with all in order. He pointed again at 21 in south alfalfa field, but no bird was produced. Meanwhile, Jammie pointed in the motte but only a rabbit was seen leaving the area. Bubba suffered a second non-productive in the motte south of the Deer Stand and handler elected to pick up. Bubba had been putting down a serious run up until that point and had clearly looked to be in contention. Jammie pointed at 48 along the ditch west of Karbiner's Crossing, but lost a lot of style during the flushing attempt. She was relocated and a bird produced, but picked up at 53.

BRACE 8: TURNING PTS LANDSLIDE (MACK)/JOHNSON AND TJ'S LIBERTY BELL (BELL)/HEITER: Release point was at the southwest corner of the bean field. Both dogs pointed at 10 in dogwood thicket north of hedge and were credited with a divided find, with all in order. Bell pointed at 14 near Karbiner's Crossing, but Mack failed to honor and was up. Bell stood very mannerly throughout as a bird was flushed and shot fired. She pointed at 19 along terrace south of hedgerow, again with all in order. She was making very nice moves along the edges, taking her lines well and hitting objectives. Unfortunately, she had an encounter with a wild pheasant at 29, ending her day early.

BRACE 9: WILD MTN HEAD EM UP-MOVE EM OUT (ROWDY)/STOWELL AND WILD MOUNTAIN MASTERPIECE (MONET)/JOHNSON: We left from camp, headed north. Monet pointed at 10 at first finger past the double crossing, with Rowdy backing. Bird produced with all in order. Monet pointed again at 13 at head of second finger, again with Rowdy backing. Handler reported birds running in ditch, but they were not seen by judges and no shot was fired. Dogs were taken on. Rowdy pointed at 17 along ditch east of old barn, but pursued the flying bird and was relegated to the rope. Monet scored at 26 at the motte in the NW CRP field. Two birds were produced with all in order. Monet's race was not suiting her handler, so was picked up at 38 as we went past camp.

BRACE 10: GCH/DC WILD MTN'S MIDNIGHT RENDEZVOUS JH (JOSEY)/STOWELL AND KID'S LITTLE ANN (ANNIE)/HEITER: Broke away on south course heading southeast. Annie was in season and due to be bred the following day, so handler elected to pick up soon after she was released. Josey pointed at 5 along the willows and a woodcock was produced, with all in order. Wind has picked up from SSE. Josey pointed at 8 along north side of hedge. Bird produced on opposite side of hedgerow, shot fired and dog taken on. Josey took downwind line, then pointed again at 12 near the end of the draw west of Karbiner's Crossing. A single quail was flushed and the dog taken on. She made a nice move along the bottom edge of the next field, rimming the line until she came to the rock crossing. Her next find was at 21 along the fence row separating the bean fields on the far west side of the course. A small covey was produced and dog stood mannerly throughout. Another covey was located at 31 in the briar patch at the end of the big draw north of the hedgerow, again with all in order. She pointed again at 37 in the bottom of a deep ditch west of the hedgerow, requiring handler to negotiate rugged terrain and thick vegetation in his flushing attempt and losing his glasses in the process (they were later found by a member of the gallery). The judges located the remains of a hawk kill and instructed handler to retrieve the dog and move on. Josey stood very mannerly throughout all the commotion. She then finished the hour as she began it, running edges, using the wind to her advantage, and seeking out every possible objective with great intelligence.

Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship

The two-day Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship started at 8 AM on March 30. Weather conditions were excellent for running dogs - cold mornings and sunny afternoons with a breeze. The championship is held on the Crooked River National Grasslands, managed by the US Forest Service, near Madras, Oregon. The picturesque setting on a clear day includes the snow covered volcanoes of central Oregon as a background, and for both days, Mt. Jefferson, Mt. Hood, and the Three Sisters provided a dramatic and gorgeous background for dogs on point. Both temperatures and winds would change dramatically through both days starting at about 30 degrees and hitting the upper 60's by mid-afternoon.

Judges for the event were June McConnell of Meridian Idaho, and Angela Schillereff of Portland Oregon. Both are experienced judges with a lot of experience watching bird dogs.

Generous support for the event came from Purina, and of course, the United States Forest Service, which for years has provided special use permits for field trials on the Grasslands.

Over the two days we ran 26 gundogs - including some of the very best Brittans in the western United States.

The Winners

The first place dog, and Champion, was the top dog in the first brace, FC Staley's Orange Outlaw Mr. Cooper (Cooper), owned by Dan Campbell and handled by Jason Staley. Cooper was strongly forward the entire hour, running wide and strong clear to the finish. Cooper had two excellent finds, one at 10 and one at 45, and exceptional manners on his birds.

The second place dog, and Runner Up, was the bottom dog of the second brace, FC/AFC Cedar Creek Hawkeye (Hank), owned and handled by Joe Waitman. Hank also ran a big race and had three exceptional finds. All of his birds were handled with style and experience. Hank showed his maturity and confidence with each bird.

Third place went to the top dog of the tenth brace, Hideaway's Owyhee Trace (Trace) owned and handled by Roger Borine. Trace had a strong forward race and two nice finds, which he handled with style. Trace never slowed and had several long wide casts that were impressive.

The fourth place dog was the bottom dog of the second brace, KWK Windswept Guinevere of Camelot (Ginny), owned by Jeri Conklin and handled by Paul Doiron. Ginny had a fast and enthusiastic run with three exceptional finds, at 13, 21, and 39 and showed extreme intensity and style on each point. She ran strong and fast and stayed to the front.

WASHINGTON

BLM Goose Butte Management Unit Ritzville, WA April 15-17, 2016

Our trial was held in Ritzville Washington, the event took place on two courses and encompassed 3 days April 15th, 16th and 17th. It's the last of a three club consecutive-field trial series, combined they provide a wonderful opportunity for dogs and their handlers to test their skills. We had 85 entries and four of the classes awarded a major to the winners. The weather for the Washington Brittany Club trial was wonderful, sunny skies with a light breeze, pleasant for dogs, horses and humans. The birds were healthy, mature and flew well when prompted. The Judges were amazing, they put in long hours in the saddle and still managed to have a smile on their faces. The meals were exceptional, lasagna, pulled pork sandwiches, breakfast burritos and many other delicious items. The event was a success thanks to the support of the Idaho, Oregon and all three Washington State Brittany Club's members in attendance, the judges and fellow competitors from all over.

Stopping On Scent

Scent is one of the truly fascinating things about dogs. Their whole world revolves around their noses. If there were some way we could put ourselves in a dog's body long enough to discover what it's like to receive so much information from one little sniff, what an incredible experience that would be! The very best tracking dogs have the capability to track human scent human scent from something as miniscule as skin cells flowing through a car's ventilation as it speeds down the highway. The power of the canine nose is beyond amazing.

What's really amazing, however, is that knowing what we do about a dog's scenting ability, many people still don't trust it to find birds. Humans project their limits onto their dogs and want them to get in close enough to the bird that they could find it without the dog, rather than trusting the dog to use its wondrous nose and stop on scent. Kind of defeats the purpose of having a dog, doesn't it?

A good bird dog should stop on scent, and that means first scent – not waiting until it gets stronger. The closer the dog gets to the bird, the likelier it is the bird will flush, and that costs us the shot in most cases. Bumping or spooking a bird and making it run is not conducive to shooting opportunities. Anything a dog does that costs us a shot, the dog should not have done.

There are a lot of variables that can change the way a dog finds and uses scent. Hot, dry conditions make scenting tougher; cool and damp are better. Strong, gusty winds can play havoc with scent, and adding hilly terrain can make it even more difficult due to the wind shifts. A light, steady breeze makes conditions better. These are just a few of the factors that affect the way a dog locates birds by scent.

We want the dog to be totally immobile, because any movement runs the risk of telling the bird where the predator is. That stiff tail and high head aren't just for good looks and style; they have a purpose. The tail held rigidly is less likely to give away the dog's location to the bird, and the high head picks up scent if the bird should move or the wind shifts. Stopping on scent means complete and total immobility. No head movements, no whining or barking, no flagging the tail.

What if a dog loses scent while on point? It happens often. The wind may shift and cause the scent to change direction, but many times if the dog remains in place, the wind will come back around again and the dog will pick it back up. If the bird hasn't moved but the dog relocates because it lost scent, that bird is more likely to flush.

What about a bird that moves or runs? A dog will act differently if the bird is on the move. You'll see the dog's head and/or eyes follow the bird as it moves, and then it's your call as to when to the dog should relocate. This is where knowing your dog's body language is invaluable. In either case, a dog will often start slowly flagging its tail when it loses scent.

There is one important exception to stopping on scent, however, and that is honoring or backing. Scent is not required for a dog to honor another dog's point. This is visual alone, although it is not uncommon for the backing dog to pick up scent after it has stopped. When a dog sees another dog on point, it must stop immediately as soon as it sees the other dog. The dog holding point has the location of bird scent, the backing dog does Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Stopping with a paw in the air, frozen on scent. Just the act of placing the foot back on the ground could cause a premature flush.

Kind of defeats the purpose of having a dog, doesn't it?

A good bird dog should stop on scent, and that means first scent – not waiting until it gets stronger. The closer the dog gets to the bird, the likelier it is the bird will flush, and that costs us the shot in most cases. Bumping or spooking a bird and making it run is not conducive to

Creeping in... gotta see that bird...

Oops! Got too close, and it flushed! I guess I should have stopped on scent.

not, and so the backing dog has to follow the lead of the pointing dog wo it won't risk spooking and bumping the bird.

To train a dog to stop at initial scent means that, first and foremost, the dog has to understand birds and bird smells. This means introducing the dog to plenty of birds and building prey-chase drive. Sure the visual of a bird running or flying is great for getting a dog excited, but the dog also learns to use its nose to find more of these fun, feathered, flying things. And that's what we're after. We want an excited dog that really wants to find birds, and since dogs glean information from their noses, that's how they learn to locate prey.

We like to give our young puppies plenty of birds to play with, teaching them about bird scent and how much fun birds are. Turning a litter of pups loose with a live quail or two can really build their desire and give them an exciting introduction to bird scent.

How do we teach our dogs to stop on scent? By first teaching them to stand still without any bird scent present. This is learned by training for "whoa" with the whoa-post and the training table. If a dog can't stand still without distractions, expecting it to stand when there are birds around is not likely to happen.

Checkcording a dog into birds is a great way to teach stopping on scent. You've got control of the dog and can give it the best possible chance to get into the scent cone. Always checkcord a dog into a bird from the downwind side, working back and forth across the wind. This gives the dog maximum chance to gain scent. Remember: A dog as to inhale to take in scent, so zigzagging across the wind gives the dog multiple chances to inhale within the scent cone. Also remember that scent rises and spreads as it dissipates, so try to keep the dog's head up.

Many young and inexperienced dogs won't want to use their noses – they want to go in and see the bird. Don't allow it, or you'll create a hard habit to break. If you've already introduced them to birds, checkcording into scent will be more successful. Also, don't talk to them. Let them work out the sent on their own. Talking is just an additional distraction they don't need. Let them focus on the birds.

This young setter has been checkcorded in and stopped on scent. The owner is supporting her while a helper goes in to flush the bird.

Watch your dog carefully for signs that it has scent. A dog that gets birdy will act more excited. The tail may wag rapidly, the ears may perk up, and the dog will want to go toward the source of that wonderful smell. As you're checkcording your dog, watch closely for these signs so you can gently stop the dog when it acts birdy. When you stop the dog, your goal should be to do it without distracting it from the scent and the bird. Be sure you remember where you planted the bird, and pay attention to the wind direction so you can work it across the downwind side. Your goal is to stop the dog when it begins to act birdy. Do not allow the dog to creep in closer, and don't be tempted to guide the dog in closer. Remember, the dog is the one with the nose: don't teach your dog to go in any closer than it needs to in order to catch scent.

Dogs that try to point too close or on sight end up flushing most of their birds prematurely, and that costs us shots. It's got to be a partnership, with each doing their job. The dog's job is to point and hold the birds; our job is to shoot.

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

A Note and a Derby

It happened in the northwest corner of North Dakota. A land of vast acres of prairie pothole country, some rolling, some tabletop flat. CRP, wheat and barley, canola and sunflowers, alfalfa and prairie grass. Home to sharptails and huns, a few pheasant, a million ducks. Home to blessed few people, a few cows, here and there an old oil well, its horsehead nodding or still. In the valley north of Divide Ridge, strip-mine tailings remind of the old days when the lignite moved to railheads in winter over the ice, pulled in sleds by four-horse teams. A place where summer brings long hundred-degree-plus days, baseball-size hail, and near perpetual drought. Where winters last from November to April, with minus-fifty-degree weeks and sudden deadly whiteouts. But July through October, that country is paradise to a man with a bird dog.

In early September that year, the dog men came to Columbus for a field trial. They parked their horse trailers at the Koppelsloen homestead, long abandoned but with a hand-dug well from 1902 that still held water for horses and dogs. They slept in town at Ken's Motel, took their meals at Ken's Kitchen, drank nights at the Outback West Bar, and danced at the Legion Hall-the only establishments not boarded up, save for the Post Office.

On the trial's opening morning, Bert Correll found an extra pointer on his string and a piece of paper stuffed in his trailer's door latch.

Bert assumed the pointer had slipped off some other handler's chain and been snapped to his by a Good Samaritan. With a dog to run in the first brace, Bert arrived late-as usual-so he stuffed the paper in his pocket unread. When his dog stretched out in the cone, he pulled out the paper and read the message scrawled on it. The rest of the hour he rode in rage. When the judges yelled, "Pick 'em up," the owner of Bert's dog gave him hell.

"What were you doing, Bert-trying to lose him? Are you drunk?"

Bert mumbled an apology. When the second brace cast off, he drifted to the back of the gallery to ride alone. He remembered not a thing about the lash hour-his rage had erased the memory. Soon he'd be back at his trailer, find the note's author, take his revenge. His rage consumed him.

As he rode the second hour, old memories flooded. He was back at the Ames Plantation, twenty years before, with one dog to run, the setter Blue Ridge Roy. The man who had just chastised him was there, Roy's proud owner. Roy had a real shot at winning the National Championship.

Roy ran his best race ever, scored eight finds, was called back for a second series. Thirty minutes into the callback, Roy folded-literally; collapsed and died. Heart failure, a vet in the gallery speculated. The callback bracemate got the title of National Champion. Bert got a long tearful drive home to North Carolina with old Roy's cold carcass on the seat beside him, wrapped in the canvas coat his wife had bought him for the National.

The gallery galloped-a handler's hat was up. The sharptail was flushed, the shot fired, the derby stroked, watered, and restarted. Bert continued his ride alone at the back. He'd seen these two derbies before, knew they were not contenders. He relived a score of field-trial battles with the handler of old Roy's bracemate, remembered tricks pulled on him-and his own tricks. Though rage had erased his short-term memory, he could recall every detail of those long-ago braces, the country, the dogs and their routes, their finds. The one constant a dirty old Stetson, with fingers holes in the crown, always worn by his opponent, the writer of the note that enraged him.

Soon the second brace was ordered up and the third released. An hour more and he'd be back at headquarters. He watched this brace intently until they eliminated themselves with bumps and chases. Then the dogs were in harness. The gallery riders chatted and laughed, enjoying the ride back to headquarters in the warming morning.

Suddenly a thunderhead appeared at the northwest horizon and swept toward them. Lightning snake-tongued from the mountain-sized cloud; thunder boomed like distant cannon. The cloud bore in on a high-altitude gale, while just the hint of a breeze caressed Bert and his gelding, which moved easily in its running walk. Ahead, other gallery horses pranced, spooked by the impending storm.

When a mile off, the thunderhead split, as if by the hand of God, leaving a narrow band of clear sky above them. Just beyond, rain fell in sheets from the coal-black clouds; then twin rainbows appeared, their ends anchored in the prairie like giant croquet wickets of brilliant neon. In minutes, the storm clouds rejoined at the eastern horizon, the lightning faded to flickers, the thunder's voice weakened and was silent. The air was damp and cool, tinged with the scent of ozone, reminder of the deadly lightning that had spared them.

As the riders topped a swell, the Koppelsloen homestead came into view—the ragged shelter break, the leaning red barn built in 1910, the abandoned steep-roofed house with four gables, rising suns painted in each, declaring the faith of sturdy Norwegians. Bert made up his mind as he gazed at those symbols of hope.

As others unsaddled their morning mounts, Bert rode about looking for Hill Goins. He spotted the old handler's battered truck a quarter-mile off, parked in the shade of a lonely cottonwood. As he approached, he saw no sign of its owner. Hill Goins lay stretched on the seat, sound asleep. His battered Stetson covered his eyes; flies buzzed about his hairy ears. Bert dismounted and spoke softly,

“Hill, wake up.”

Abruptly, Hill rose up fully awake. Apprehension filled his rheumy blue eyes, set wide beneath bushy eyebrows and above gaunt stubbled jowls. His bald head was starkly white, in clown-like contrast to his sun-weathered face.

“Got a light?” Bill said in a quiet voice that Hill mistook for malice.

Hill pulled on his grimy Stetson, reaching with trembling fingers into his shirt pocket to remove a butane lighter from behind a crumpled pack of unfiltered camels.

Bert flicked it, then held its inch-tall flame to the note. Together the old handlers watched it burn to ash in the dust of the section road, then blow away to nothing.

“Let's drive to the Outback and get us a beer and a burger. You can tell me about my new derby,” Bert said.

The fear left Hill's eyes, and the corners of his mouth came up in a grin.

“I'm buying,” Hill said.

The note had read:

Dear Bert,

I've got to tell you this.

Remember our callback at the National when I won it with The Corcician?

You had your suspicions, but old Roy's owner wouldn't pay for an autopsy. Well, you were right, and it's haunted me for twenty years.

The Corcician's owner, Doctor Sutphin, gave me the shot, said it was a light sedative. Said if my scout could catch your Roy out of sight and inject him, it would slow him down just enough so he couldn't win. But it killed him. An allergic reaction, Doc though.

Doc got out of field trials right after that. He's dead now. My scout's dad too. And I've got lung cancer.

The extra derby on your string is the best prospect I've had in thirty years, and I want you to have him.

I can't ask you to forgive me. But now you know what happened, and I've got it off my chest.

Good Luck,
Hill Goins

Author's note: This story is dedicated to the Koppelsloens and other families who graciously allow the North Dakota Field Trial Club to run on their lands, and to the board and officers of that club. Its plot and characters are fictional, but the place and the storm and the rainbows, which occurred during the trial's September 2000 running, are not.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
