Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame

Nominations begin March 1 and close July 1

On behalf of the Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame (BFTHF), we are asking you to participate in the BFTHF nomination process. The BFTHF is part of the Bird Dog Foundation, Grand Junction, TN.

Purpose

The purpose of the BFTHF is to recognize and honor Brittanys and Brittany owners that have made significant contributions to the Sport of Field Trialing. To date, 75 Brittanys and 47 Brittany enthusiasts have been inducted and pictures of these dogs and people are displayed in the Hall of Fame.

“To be enshrined in a Hall of Fame is the greatest achievement in field trial sports”

Nominations

You are a member of the nominating committee and your support is needed. We want you to nominate those you believe are Outstanding Brittanys and Distinguished Brittany people.

Outstanding dogs are recognized by their entire competitive career, field trial performance record (championship wins) and production record. They must be deceased at least one year prior to opening of nominations March 1. These are the same dogs you would like to find in the pedigree of that good pup you just bought !

Distinguished people have rendered exemplary service to the sport of field trialing both locally and nationally for a long period of time. These contributions may be as a judge, a breeder, a field trial official, a reporter, a patron or any combination thereof. The sport is better because of these people who are givers, not takers or self promoters.

Nominations Process

Visit the Election Procedure page on our website at www.brittanyfieldtrialhalloffame.com to review the Election Criteria and Guidelines. A nominator should prepare a bio with facts that outline a dog or person's worthiness to be a member of the BFTHF. The nomination and a photo should be sent by email to JandMBrittanys1@juno.com or by regular mail to Mary Crawford, Corresponding Secretary, 11902 Mile Dr., Houston, TX 77065. Support letters should be sent to mail@BrittanyFieldTrialHallOfFame.com by anyone wishing to add support for a nominee.

Election and Induction

After the nomination period has closed, the BFTHF Election Committee will vote using the bios submitted for each nominee. Normally, no more than two worthy dogs and persons will be elected in any calendar year. Induction ceremonies are held in early February of the following year.

Send emails for assistance to Mary Crawford, Corresponding Secretary, 281-469-2234, JandMBrittanys1@juno.com

The American Brittany

VOLUME LXVIV • NUMBER 1 • JANUARY 2017

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

National Amateur Gun Dog Championship

The 2016 National Amateur Gun Dog Championship had an entry of 29 dogs then there were two scratches for 27 dogs competed.

The judges for this year's National Amateur Championship were Howard Burbach from Missouri and Tommy Thomas from Illinois. One of our judges was unable make it. A big thank you to Tommy for stepping up and accepting the Judge's role. Both Howard and Tommy have been in pointing breeds for many years with an array of knowledge in training, judging and breeding.

Thank you to our sponsors Purina and Garmin/Tri-tronics. Purina fuels many of the competitors and provides financial support for the event along with a complimentary bag of dog food for each entry. The winners received Pro-Plan dog food, an electronic training collar and a silver belt buckle hand tooled and crafted from Montana Silversmith Company. There were trophies, plaques and a saddle bag (hand crafted by Kevin Parish, The Saddle Guy) awarded to the placing dogs.

Thanks to the Field Trial Chairman, John Perry and his wife Joanne for serving as the Field Trial Secretary and reporter. Members of the Field Trial Committee were Cindy Cropek, Richard Lipski, Bill Gorman, Mike Poehler and John Kipp. John Kipp also served as the Stakes Manager and organized the marshals, Deb Smeltz and Diana Kubitz getting up early to ensure the donuts and coffee made it on to the dog wagon. Thank you to Joe Sikorski for Marshalling. Thank you to all who volunteered for marshalling, Chuck Langstaff for the dog wagon, Jim Johnson, Deb Smeltz and Diana Kubitz for handling the Calcutta and auction, the bird planters and the many others who volunteered. The grounds looked beautiful, we appreciate the grounds committee for a job well done. Will and Kathy Langley of Bottom Creek Farm in Attica, MI. provided horses for all to enjoy the event. Thank you to Julie Romence for taking pictures and to Danielle Perry who continued to post pictures and information on each day's running via Facebook for everyone to follow the event, with a new member of her family, Riley Noelle, by her side.

Saturday night was the welcome dinner catered by Alibi Bar and Grill followed by the Calcutta. Breakfasts and lunches were catered by Eileen Gust. Great big thank you to Eileen; the meals were fantastic! Next year there will be two winner's dinners. Ron Gulembo had open heart surgery and was doing great! Our thoughts and prayers are with Ron, Kathy and their family.

Thank you again to our sponsors, the competitors, the gallery that was shared by horses and personal assist devices, and to everyone who volunteered; we greatly appreciate all that you did to make the event successful and fun.

2016 ABC Chicken Classic/Championship

Bassett, Nebraska
September 19, 2016

By Mary Karbiner

Linda Milam, Judge Mike Martin, Dr. Joe Williams, owner with Winner JJ's Levi The Lionheart; Joey Rogers, Tom Milam with Georgia's Texas Two Step, Stan Truksa, Tom Tracy with Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou, Judge Don Kimble, Owner Ray Trimble with Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up. Tim Huglen

The 53rd running of the American Brittany Club prestigious Prairie Chicken Classic commenced September 19, 2016. The venue of Rock County landowners consisting of Butch Fischer, Curtis Luther, Wade Dearmont and Ted Morton again allowed this event to be run across their ranches. We are greatly in their debt for their generosity.

From a field of 39 entries JJ's Levi The Lionheart emerged the winner. Levi ran in the 17th brace handled by his owner Dr. Joe Williams of Hillard, Ohio. Levi is an early 2013 model white and orange well-built male. He was sired by Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid X Sandbank Rose. Levi's race was fluid, forward and pleasing to watch with rock solid bird work. Runner-up was Georgia's Texas Two Step handled by Tom Tracy of Nebraska for owners Travis and Clayton Tangen of Georgia. Georgi is an eight-year-old female and no stranger to the hour stakes. She was sired by Dakota Alleycat X JB's Georgian Amber Blaze.

Third place was awarded to Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou owned by Tom and Debbie Jagielski of Illinois and handled by Tom Tracy. Skeeter is an eight-year-old male who is out of R&J's Buzz Cut X Jagoub's Jambalaya. Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up also Tracy handled for new owners Ray and Mary Jo Trimble of Illinois.

Nestle-Purina has long been a supporter of the performance dog since the early 90's. They provide dog food for the winners and monetary support to aid in running a quality event. Garmin-Tritronics has also been a sponsor of bird dog events. They manufacture tracking devices and behavior control units for training purposes. We thank these longtime sponsors for their support.

Judges for this event were Don Kimble of Kansas and the replacement judge was Mike Martin of Arkansas. These men have judged many breeds on many venues and were attentive to their task.

The sand hills are a unique area to the Midwest with rolling hills and tall grass meadows that prairie chickens thrive in. This is the only Brittany All-Age stake with native birds. The prairie chicken cannot be caged and released to supplement the population for an event. The first ABC Prairie Chicken Classic Was held at Buena Vista Grasslands Area near Plover, Wisconsin in 1964. In 1975 it began to rotate between there and Nebraska. The last event in Wisconsin was held in 2000. The sand hills have been its' home since that time.

The committee would like to thank everyone who participated and helped with the work. New comers this year were Dr. Joe Williams of Hillard, Ohio and Kevin and Joey Rogers of Vail, Arizona. As "newbie's" gate opening and closing is the initiation. Joey did a fine job as did the others who helped. Our committee consisted of Stan and Claudia Truksa at the helm doing pretrial details and set-up along with Jerry McGee and Ed Tillson. Ray Trimble transported the coffee and donuts every morning that were provided by Jeanna Harmon of the Corral Bar in nearby Bassett. On Tuesday evening participants were treated to a steak dinner by the club at the Corral Bar. On Wednesday, the local VFW has a steak feed at the Legion Club which was well attended by field trailers. The town of Bassett, Nebraska greatly appreciates the influx of people in to this small community that has a big heart. Join us next fall and view the unique area of the sand hills of Nebraska.

2016 Membership Survey

This past fall, 2nd Vice President Sandy Malloy sent a survey to the membership of ABC to obtain feedback on subjects related to membership and retention.

Delivering an electronic survey to the full membership proved to be a challenge, because many members did not have an email address in the database, or the email address was no longer valid. In the end, a total of 1515 electronic surveys were delivered and copies sent to each Regional Secretary. Despite the difficulty in delivering the survey, the response was surprisingly strong, with a total of 768 surveys completed and analyzed.

RESULTS

The demographic data accurately reflected the size and distribution of members across the country by region, giving us confidence that the survey results were a true representation of the ABC membership. The survey revealed that our youth and young adult population is quite small, suggesting a need to market ourselves better to youth, families, and adults under 45.

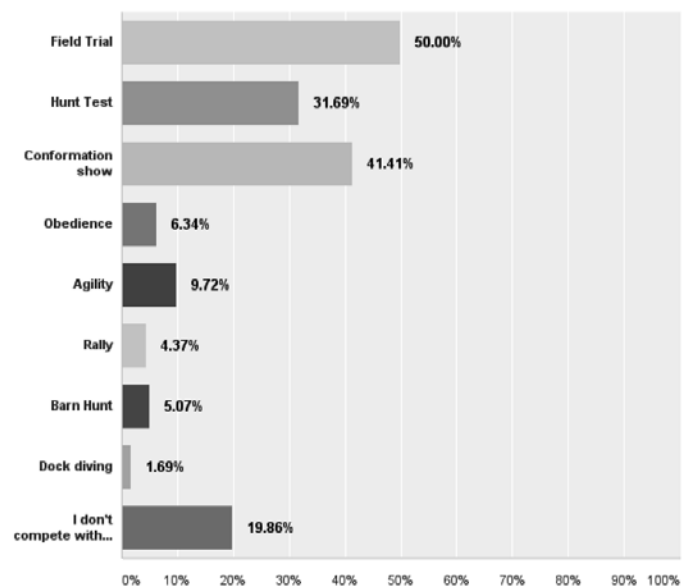

ABC members reported that they actively competed in field trials, conformation and hunt tests, with other members competing in agility, obedience, barn hunt and other venues. Many members added comments to their responses for that question to add NSTRA, NAVHDA, flyball and hunting with their Brittanys. Approximately 20% of our existing members did not compete in any events over the last 12 months.

The survey found that most ABC members initially joined to support the breed, meet other Brittany owners, and belong to a Regional Club. Members renewing continued to express “To Support the Breed” as their #1 priority, with #2 being “Remain in a Regional Club” and #3 “To Receive the ABC Magazine.”

Most members approved of the concept of a Breeders Directory on the website, with 83.44% expressing support. Members also demonstrated a willingness to support other technology, with 87% already

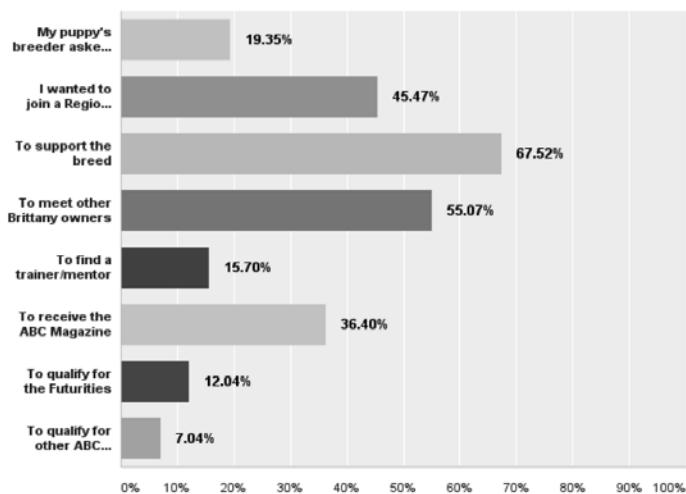

Q6 Over the last 12 months did you enter dog(s) in any of the following events/competitions? (Choose all that apply)

The survey comments provided many constructive suggestions for positive change and membership growth. The most common comment was that ABC and Regional Clubs should be “more inclusive” to reach out to and engage members who participate in events other than Field Trials or Conformation, or who do not participate in events at all. This comment was also made by members who hunt with their Brittanys but do not compete.

A subsequent survey sent to individuals whose memberships had expired over the previous 15 months yielded similar results. Individuals who did not renew their memberships participated in fewer competitive events, suggesting that we did not retain members who are not actively competing with their Brittanys. Alternatively, it is possible that we failed to engage new members and/or help them become involved in competitive events. Finally, the survey indicated that many members were not aware that their membership was due to expire, and this contributed to their failure to renew.

I would like to thank all members who took the time to respond to the survey and provide valuable comments. The survey results have given ABC constructive feedback from its members about the issues that matter to them. In response, the Membership Promotion Committee is seeking additional members who would be interested in helping evaluate survey results and proposing positive changes for membership growth and retention. If you are interested in contributing, please contact me at smalloy4@nycap.rr.com.

renewing their membership online or willing to do so in the future; as well as 89% who use the ABC website “Sometimes” or “Often,” and 59% who already subscribe to the ABC Facebook page.

The survey results of the magazine readership show 30% of members “Always” read the magazine thoroughly, with 24% reporting that they “Often” read the entire magazine.

Finally, the survey showed that our members tend to be active in their Regional Clubs, with 83% reporting that they participate in Regional Club activities, yet 55% of members wished that their Regional Clubs were larger, and 86% reported that their Regional Clubs would benefit by attracting more members.

Q13 If you receive the ABC Magazine, do you read it?

Whizki's Sting

ILLINOIS Pickneyville, IL October 27-30, 2016

The fall gathering of the Illinois Brittany Club at the Captain Unit of Pyramid State Park is always a happy event as old friends return and new ones are made. We welcomed Ken Luzader who drove from Evansville, IN just to visit his old friends. Once again, the small crew at the park worked hard over the summer with Jim Lawless and Ed Graves to get the grounds ready for our fall event. More clearing has been done and paths mowed which was much appreciated by all participants. The weather was a bit on the warm side and took its toll on the afternoon braces.

Two new field champions were made this weekend: Kevin Stonehouse's Hooch and Ed & Judy Graves' Holly both won stakes which finished their field championship. We also welcomed our first Vislas to the trial. Christopher McGarvey came away with a Derby win and a Gun Dog 3rd.

The Jim Holman Classic (our GOLAA) started the trial with a full slate of 24 dogs. Kevin Stonehouse carded with the win with a solid performance and two well-placed finds. Tom Tracy garnered 2nd & 3rd with Fatz & Buck performing well. Joe Williams earned 4th keeping Taz away from the deer this year and carding two finds as well. Once again, Nestle Purina sponsored this event, providing both financial assistance and dog food to the winners and participants. Every year their support becomes more critical to the success of our trial.

Many thanks to all who helped things go smoothly. Ed Graves was out every morning planting birds. Ray Trimble, Dave Capstick, and Judy Graves (filing in for the dog wagon duties) kept things going on the course, while Maurine Richter and Mary Jo Trimble had food waiting for all when coming in. Judges came from far and near. Without them, there would be no event. We want to personally thank all ten of them for giving up their time to be here: Sean Morgan, Lori Rezzardi, Pam Baird, Al Gorrow, Ed & Donna Janulis, Stan Williamson, Jay Walsh, John Burkhart, and Dave Capstick.

Kansas Brittany All Age Championship

By Mary Karbiner

The running of the Kansas Championship commenced on Tuesday, October 18, 2016 on the beautiful grounds of the Bill and Marylynn Oliver Ranch southwest of Eureka, Kansas.

Picture the old tall grass prairie with buffalo roaming over the hills and down the draws. Cover was tall and dense due to the longevity of the rains this summer. It wasn't buffalo that were pushing through the cover but 36 Brittans going to the line for a grueling hour stake. The judges were Gary Cowell of Lancaster, MO and Howard Burbach of Pleasant Hill, Mo. They are seasoned judges with a keen eye to watch the dogs. They were attentive and positive in their judging decisions, knowing what the conditions demanded of the dogs. They were a pleasure to ride with.

The winner was Ru-Jem's "Last" Penny owned by Jerry McGee of Illinois and handled by Tom Tracy of Nebraska. Penny is a lite-weight but she plowed through the cover with ease, showing in the right places, always forward on the course. She is a six-year-old female out of Trademark's ATM X Red Bud Zipper. Runner-up was Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy handled by Jim John of Kansas and owned by Barry Koepke & Karen Fujikawa of Colorado. Gypsy also was strong in her forward application. She is a seven-year-old female out of Jim De Bob's Sparks A Dan D X Two Rivers Skyhawk.

Third place was awarded to Hal-J's Smarteyes-Joker's EZ Ace handled by Jim John and owned by Hal Revoir of Minnesota. Ace is no stranger to the hour stakes and shows well going across the terrain.

Fourth place went to JJ's Levi The Lionheart owned and handled by Dr. Joe Williams of Hilliard, Ohio. He punched the cover showing good forward application. Levi is out of Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid X Sandbank Rose. He is an early 2013 model male.

These events take team work, Larry Hagedorn and his crew consisting of Terry Gowin, Matt Harris, Herb Rea, Scott Johnson, Mike Lager and Francis Clasen took care of the necessary duties. The weather went from hot and windy to cool and typical of an October day in Kansas. We also would like to thank the ladies who made the side dishes for the steak feed on Saturday night, no one went away hungry.

Again, the club and participants are grateful for the grounds and facility that Bill and Marylynn make available for our bird dog events. It is always a joy to ride across this ranch.

THE RUNNING

Castaway Wilson, Tracy and Tequila Scorcher, Tillson. Cover is very heavy in most places so you don't take your eye off the dogs. Wilson hunted the cover and at 27 in the ditch line he knocked a bird and was leashed. Lincoln searched the country for game but was not rewarded with any birds.

Crescent City Girl, Tillson and CVK's Spartan King, Tracy. Nola had a hard time maintaining the front in this cover. She was leashed at 20. Leo had a non productive at 7. At 17 in the canyon he pointed near a stand of pines, relocated, handler said the birds flew. He was fired over and taken on. At 29 he was working the brambles near a feeder, around the mott came a small covey followed by the dog to end his time on the ground.

Ru-Jem's "Last" Penny, Tracy and Firestarter's Crossed The Line, Tillson. We came off the plateau and into the "bowl". Ty was running the fence line. Judge saw the dog point at 16. Extensive flushing and relocation couldn't produce any game. At 23 Penny pointed in tall grass, extensive flushing and a relocation produced a small covey which she pointed very stylishly. At 35 Ty pointed beneath a cluster of bois d'arc trees. Handler did extensive flushing but nothing was produced and Ty was leashed. Penny continued on course through the red gate and across the plateau, past the "Custer Battlefield" sign. At 53 she pointed in the bottom of a small canyon near some hedge trees. Birds were flushed with all in order. She ended her hour with a long cast to the front.

Kinwashkly Fat Bastard, Tracy and Ezechial of Hunters Pride, Johnson. Both dogs started at moderate range. At 23 Zeke had a non productive near an old dead tree. Fatz dug into the cover. At 43 he had a non productive along the creek in the big draw up from the water shed lake. Zeke shortened in the middle and went into hunting mode and was up near the end of the hour. Fatz pointed near the base of some pines at 55', flushing produced nothing. He was relocated and knocked a small covey and was leashed.

Dakota Gunrunner's Buckshot, Tracy and Wimberley Rowdy Bo-Dandy, Johnson. Buck tried to maneuver the cover but it was hard for him to maintain the front. He was up at 25. Rowdy was lateral in the cover. At 16 he stood in a creek bottom when the handler approached he observed that Rowdy failed to maintain a horizontal posture and was leashed.

MK's Magnificent Bandito, Johnson Roustabout's Far Out, Tracy. At 16 Hank had undefined bird work. At 23 he had a stop to flush with Chico coming in to back. Hank dug into the long draw that headed toward the cabin. He was out of pocket and not returned to judgment. Beyond the red gate, along the same draw Chico was lateral. In the windmill canyon he was absent and out of judgment at the end of the hour.

Kashmir, Tracy and Red Rocks Seismic Sniksoh, Lincoln. Both dogs were fast off the breakaway. Kashmir settled into moderate range for the hour. Mickie remained a distant vision showing at the second gate and was off again. She was out of pocket and the tracker was called for at 45. Kashmir had no bird work during his hour.

Carpe Diem, Lincoln and TLM Tall Tail, Tracy. Carp was wide off the breakaway then showing at the appropriate time. Sam had two non productives at 27 and 48. At 35 handler indicated point, said bird left before the judge could get there, moved the dog up, flushed and shot. Judge stated undefined bird work. Carp had been out of pocket and the tracker was pulled at 35.

SS Rig's Colorado Gunrunner, Tracy and JJ's Diablo With Rusty Tears, Williams. Fresh off the breakaway Rigs pointed at 1.5 minutes. Rusty was in high gear passing Rigs failing to back and was leashed. A small covey was flushed with all in order. At 12 Rigs had a stop to flush near a bois d'arc tree when the handler flushed the rest of the covey lifted. At 49, as we approach the rim, Rigs had a stop to flush in the tall grass. He finished the hour as he started laterally and at moderate range.

Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou, Tracy and Shady's Desert Knight, Johnson. After lunch the skies were sunny and low 70's with a light breeze. We left the gate, both dogs were forward. Skeeter had a hard time maintaining the front and was leashed at 25. Knight hit the cover but suffered two non productives at 29 and 34 to end this brace.

Cedar Valley Spider, Tracy and JJ's Tasmanian Devil, Williams. We broke from the high gate, down the wall into the bowl. Taz and Spider worked the edge of the wall going forward. Taz had a breach of manners on quail at 4 and was leashed. Spider pointed at 12 near the base of a small deadfall, relocated but nothing could be produced. He continued at moderate range and was up at 55.

Georgia's Texas Two Step, Tracy and JJ's Alabaster Angel "Angie", Williams. Angie pointed on our left across the long draw at 5 but no game was produced. At 30 Georgi encountered birds under the bois d'arc grove just before the red gate. Her bird work was all in order. At 29 Angie pointed in the bottom, nothing was produced and she was leashed. Georgi continued on at moderate range. She had a find at 52 in the bottom of the windmill canyon with good manners. The hour ended across the next draw with Georgi well to the front.

Maxwell's Show Time, John and Glade Run Irish, Tracy. Time for most of the hour was forward at moderate range without any bird contact. Irish was lateral at moderate range. He had a non productive at 57 to end his hour.

Smarteyes-Joker's EZ Ace, John and Uncle Kracker, Tracy. Both dogs started strong. At 22 Ace had a covey find in the draw above the water shed lake. He stood with intensity through flush and shot. Kracker got wider and wider until the string broke and the tracker was pulled at 30. At 34 Ace had a non productive. We came across the bottom of the bowl and at 54 point was called for Ace as he stood in tall cover. He was relocated and worked the area and finally pinned a single out of the cover to end his hour.

Dakota Sun, Carrington and JJ's Levi The Lionheart, Williams. Both dogs worked the cover, Levi had a non productive at 16. At 32 he pointed a pair for quail standing high and tight. Levi continued to punch the cover going forward. Sunny was having a hard time with the cover and was up at 45. Just before we go thru the gate Levi pointed birds near a feeder, standing staunchly through flush and shot. His hour ended well forward going up the hill toward camp.

Checo, Carrington and Kanza Sun, Lager. Both of these dogs were off in a flourish. They hit the cover with ease. We would see them from time to time. At 31 Coco had a find in the ditch before the high gate with all in order. We saw Slim and then he was gone again. The tracker was called for at the high gate. Coco continued to sickle through the cover. At our loop toward the big draw, north of the water shed, she disappeared and was not returned to judgment.

Kinwashkly Tempo, Tillson and Sniksoh Sweetness, John. Both dogs broke away forward into the cover. Taylor left the country early and the tracker was pulled at 15. Tempo crossed the creek in the big draw and pointed in a deadfall/pine tangle at 36. This was a barren stand. He continued his search but was not rewarded in the hour.

Driving Miss Daisy II, Tracy and Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy, John. We left the plateau southwest of the red gate after a coffee break. Both dogs were forward in the cover. We went down into the windmill canyon where at 14 Daisy pointed near a large bois d'arc tree. Nothing was produced and the handler collared her forward, releasing her and headed to his horse, Daisy ran about 20 feet and swapped ends standing like a statue. Handler approached and flushed a large covey of young birds (their peeping and wing noise made the gallery ooh!) while Daisy stood rock solid throughout all. Meanwhile down the draw Gypsy had a very stylish find at 15. She stood at the top edge overlooking the creek below. The birds were flushed from under the overhang while she stood staunchly through flush and shot. At 36 just off the horse track, Daisy pointed, a single flushed as the handler approached the dog, she went forward and another bird was up to end her time on the ground. Gypsy came across the front and pointed in a gully, handler flushed, then relocated her. She worked to her right but nothing was pointed. Handler sent her on and started to mount when a single popped under the reporter's horse. Gypsy honored with fine manners. She was sent forward finishing to the front thru the gate in the bottom. We returned to

WEST COAST

SOUTHERN SAN JOAQUIN

Camp H

California City, CA

October 22-23, 2016

The Southern San Joaquin Valley Brittany Club held their trial this fall for the first time in the wide open spaces of the Mojave Desert at California City. The hilly rock formations, sage and greasewood provided cover for the birds, and proved a bit of a challenge for the handlers to try and flush birds for the broke dogs. The weather was unseasonably pleasant for this time of year. We had sunshine, cloudy skies and rain off and on, presenting some very nice dog weather for the running of our trial.

Saturday night was a catered Mexican dinner that everyone seemed to enjoy while catching up with friends they hadn't seen in a while.

The trial was open to all breeds except for the GOLAA stake, and we had a good turnout. The hour stake presented some challenge's for the all age dogs with lots of hills and rock outcropping to check out, and the bird work was sometimes a little hard to come by in this big country.

The handlers were very helpful in getting dogs to the line on time to keep things running smoothly. We had a little extra help getting puppies to the line as we had a large puppy stake this fall. The bird planters did a great job of planting on all the courses.

It takes a lot of volunteers to get the job done, and we had so many people who offered their time and energy to help out. We'd like to thank all those who came out and helped to put on a successful trial.

CHEESY BACON PULL-APART BREAD

1 LARGE LOAF OF FRENCH, ITALIAN OR SOURDOUGH BREAD
½ CUP MELTED BUTTER
2 CLOVES GARLIC, MINCED
8 STRIPS COOKED BACON, CHOPPED
4 GREEN ONIONS, CHOPPED
3 CUPS SHREDDED GOUDA CHEESE
ADDITIONAL CHOPPED GREEN ONIONS, FOR GARNISH, IF DESIRED

PREHEAT THE OVEN TO 400°F.
USE A SERRATED KNIFE TO CUT A CROSS-HATCH PATTERN INTO THE BREAD. SLICE 1/2-INCH GRID LINES INTO THE BREAD BY SLICING IT LENGTHWISE THEN WIDTHWISE WITHOUT CUTTING ALL THE WAY THROUGH THE BOTTOM CRUST. YOU WANT THE BREAD TO STAY TOGETHER. COMBINE THE MELTED BUTTER AND GARLIC. GENTLY SEPARATE THE BREAD WITH YOUR FINGERS AND DRIZZLE THE MELTED GARLIC BUTTER MIXTURE IN BETWEEN THE CUTS. MAKE SURE THE ENTIRE LOAF GETS DRIZZLED WITH THE BUTTER MIXTURE. PLACE THE LOAF OF BREAD ON A PIECE OF ALUMINUM FOIL THAT HAS BEEN SPRAYED WITH NON-STICK COOKING SPRAY. WRAP THE BREAD HALF WAY UP. COVER THE TOP WITH A SEPARATE PIECE OF UNGREASED

FOIL. PLACE ON A LARGE BAKING SHEET AND PUT IN THE OVEN. BAKE FOR 10 MINUTES. REMOVE THE BREAD FROM THE OVEN AND TAKE OFF THE TOP PIECE OF FOIL. GENTLY PRY APART THE BREAD AND STUFF THE BACON INTO THE CREVICES. NEXT, STUFF THE SHREDDED CHEESE INTO THE CREVICES, MAKING SURE ALL OF THE BREAD IS EVENLY STUFFED WITH BACON AND CHEESE. THERE IS A LOT OF CHEESE, BUT KEEP STUFFING! IT WILL ALL FIT. SPRINKLE THE GREEN ONIONS OVER THE TOP, PUSHING THEM GENTLY INTO THE BREAD. PLACE THE BREAD BACK IN THE OVEN, UNCOVERED, AND BAKE FOR 15-20 MINUTES OR UNTIL THE CHEESE IS MELTED. REMOVE FROM THE OVEN AND SPRINKLE WITH ADDITIONAL GREEN ONIONS, IF DESIRED. REMOVE THE BOTTOM PIECE OF FOIL AND SERVE WARM.

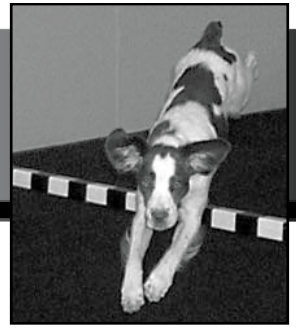

HUNTERS STEW

2 POUNDS BEEF STEW MEAT, CUT INTO 1-1/2-INCH CUBES (CAN ALSO USE VENISON OR ELK)
1 TABLESPOON ALL-PURPOSE FLOUR
3 TABLESPOONS CANOLA OIL
2 GARLIC CLOVES, MINCED
3 LARGE ONIONS, QUARTERED
1 CUP BEEF BROTH

2 TABLESPOONS SEASONED SALT
1 TEASPOON CHILI POWDER
1 TEASPOON DRIED OREGANO
1 TEASPOON DRIED ROSEMARY, CRUSHED
2 CANS (14-1/2 OUNCES EACH) ITALIAN STEWED TOMATOES
1 CAN (6 OUNCES) TOMATO PASTE
1/2 CUP MINCED FRESH PARSLEY
3 MEDIUM CARROTS, CUT INTO 1-INCH PIECES
8 OUNCES MOSTACCIOLI OR PENNE PASTA, COOKED AND DRAINED
1/3 CUP SHREDDED PARMESAN CHEESE
TOSS MEAT WITH FLOUR; BROWN ON ALL SIDES IN OIL IN 5-QT. DUTCH OVEN. ADD GARLIC AND ONIONS; SAUTE UNTIL TENDER. STIR IN THE BROTH, SEASONED SALT, CHILI POWDER, OREGANO AND ROSEMARY. COVER AND SIMMER FOR 1-1/2 HOURS. ADD TOMATOES, TOMATO PASTE, PARSLEY AND CARROTS. COVER AND SIMMER FOR 1 HOUR OR UNTIL MEAT AND CARROTS ARE TENDER. STIR IN MACARONI; HEAT THROUGH. SPRINKLE WITH CHEESE. MAKES 8-10 SERVINGS

Abominable Loser vs. Well-Mannered Winner

By Carla Simon

Some people have a knack for winning well and never becoming an abominable loser. I've had the pleasure of competing against people who are classy in how they accept their results, whatever they are. Over time, whether winning or losing, I've learned from watching.

No matter the dogsport, you just can't control everything that happens at a canine competition. You train, prepare and strategize, but the results are influenced by whatever chance throws at you on any given day. Sometimes you are unprepared for the challenges that occur, making mistakes and failing as a result. Sometimes you surpass your own expectations in the face of intense challenges, and achieve a personal best.

Losing can be painful, given that it's accompanied by emotions such as disappointment, anger, frustration, confusion or surprise.

Nobody wins every competition. Sometimes you have a crummy day, lose focus, have a health emergency at the worst time. Judges and volunteers make mistakes too. There is no perfect dog, or person. The life cycle of competition generally entails training an unknown puppy, gelling with that unique dog, gaining experience and mastery, then growing old when health is declining and you just aren't as fast as you used to be. That's life. We'd rather be growing younger, but we grow older anyway. Complaining about the judging or gossiping about rivals will do little to change the reality.

I vividly recall when a conformation judge noted that one professional handler never burned her bridges. Even when she lost, she was gracious, never rude, maintaining her relationships with judges, colleagues, newbies and her dogs. That constituted an advantage in the future, whether that was her intention or not. She's still a class act, now on her way to becoming a judge herself.

Contrast her attitude with a famous agility handler, who left the ring in a huff when his dog made a mistake at a large, televised international competition. Many viewers recognized his enviable skills and his phenomenal canine, but his crude reaction to that loss can never be erased from cyberspace or public perceptions. If he had continued, excelled in the remainder of the course, then smiled and waved as he left, he could have become a legend. Staying to observe the conclusion and congratulating the winners would have been good for a few karma points too.

Considerate winners are delighted to win, and don't need to put anyone down to make themselves feel better. They enjoy the moment, with the realization that the next competition might be another story. When congratulated, they smile and are happy to accept. When people compliment aspects of their performance, they simply say "thank you", without any self-deprecating remarks about their shortcomings: without arrogance or entitlement.

Opponents that I appreciate don't wish that everyone else fails. They don't focus on how much they want the ribbon or prize either. They focus on the job they have to do: obstacle by obstacle, step by step, trusting their training and their canine partner, and going with the flow based on what actually happens in that competition.

Sometimes all factors meld into a perfect performance. What a thrill! Sometimes performance is ugly and clumsy and still results in a win. At best, bloopers merit a chuckle. Returning the focus to your bond with your dog is one sure-fire approach to keeping wins and losses in the proper perspective.

As 2017 approaches, I wish you the best in all of your competitions in the year to come. May your wins be many, and well deserved. May you lose as well as your dog, and approach the next event with no loss of enthusiasm.

The Release Cue

Training is something that happens all the time, whether we realize it or plan it or not. It doesn't automatically start when we say, "Okay, let's go train," and end when we put the dog away (or let him back up on the couch) after a session.

Every contact with a dog is training it to respond in a certain way to whatever we're doing, and it happens most often via our body language. Each and every one of those small, daily interactions is a chance to shape behavior, develop good habits, and teach the dog. It doesn't matter if your dog lives in the house, outside, or a combination of both. There are a multitude of things that happen in those places with your dog every single day, that can be shaped and molded into consistent responses and be made very useful in the field as well. The one we're going to focus on right now is the release cue or command.

What is a release cue? It's a signal that tells the dog it is free to go. Pretty simple, right? It certainly should be simple; but it often gets far too complicated. We're firm believers in keeping things consistent and as easy as possible, and that means using one command for the same behavior instead of two or three or more.

To break that down, let's think about the times we tell our dogs they are free to go, and what the dogs hear. For the sake of simplicity, we'll use what we most often hear, although there are several others used. Dog coming out of a crate or kennel: "Okay." Dog being turned loose to hunt: "Hunt 'em up!" Dog coming back into the house after being outside: We usually hear nothing that tells the dog it is free to go. Interspersed with these, we hear a lot of, "C'mon!" and, "Let's go!" in addition to the initial words, as more of an encouragement.

The more we talk, the more dogs tune us out. And as we've mentioned in past columns, most of the stuff we say to our dogs verbally is more for our benefit than for theirs. So, in the interest of simplifying things and helping our dogs focus on what really counts, the first thing we're going to suggest is to eliminate the additional words given after the first release command.

No more, "C'mon," or, "Let's go," or anything else. It's not needed and doesn't do anything except cause confusion.

The next thing we're going to do is suggest you pick just one word to use as a release cue. Why? Again – simplicity. Make it easy for the dog. Now we know there are some of you scratching your heads and, saying, "But I use 'okay' around the house and, 'hunt 'em up' when we're hunting or training because I want the dog to know the difference between just loose at home and hunting or working on birds." Trust us when we say that your dog know when you're hunting versus just hanging around at home. You don't need two different words to differentiate between turning loose at home and hunting. Stick to one and it will make things a whole lot less complicated. A release command or cue just means the dog is free to go. It makes no difference if it's free to go out into the yard or into the field to hunt. The cue is the same.

What word should you use, and how to you train a good release command? Choosing a release command isn't hard. Pick one word – one that is easy to say and remember – and make it a word you don't use much in normal conversation. For example, while "okay" can work, we also say, "Okay" a lot in talking, and end up inadvertently telling our dog it's free to go when we didn't intend to. One that works well is a long, drawn out "alright" ("Aaahhhrright," with the "L" missing). It really doesn't matter what word you want to use, as long as you say it consistently and it's not something you use in conversation that will accidentally release your dog. You can say, "Linoleum" if you want. It doesn't matter, since the dog doesn't know the meaning in English – it simply recognizes the sound as meaning, "Go!" Just keep it short and simple. (In the old days, the word “charge” was often used as a command to lie down.)

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

When doing field training, we like to add a whistle cue as a remote release cue. The whistle carries far better than the voice, and it is also far less emotional. One short tweet of the whistle means, “Go.” This is useful in situations where your dog is on point, you’re a good distance away, and the dog needs to relocate on a bird that may have run. It’s useful anytime a dog is stopped a distance away from you and you need it to release it from that spot. If you want, you can also use a whistle when releasing a dog from your side as well. We like to place a trained dog on “whoa,” take the lead off, and let it stand while we walk a few feet away and then release on the whistle. This helps solidify the concept of being released from somewhere other than your side and helps with more distant, remote release later on.

How do we teach the release cue? First, the dog must be close by your side. You can start this with puppies, too. Take the lead off and lightly hold the collar, not so much that you’re pulling or putting any pressure on it, but just enough to be able to prevent your dog from leaving on its own. Say your release word as you let go of the collar, and walk away. Puppies are likely to follow you, as will some adult dogs when learning this. Say nothing and just keep moving away from the dog. They will eventually venture out away from you. Being in some sort of interesting area with tall grass or cover can help, since most dogs want to take off and explore. It doesn’t take many repetitions for the dog to figure out the cue means, “Go!” It’s important to remember that if you have called your dog to come to you, it must stay put again until you give the release command again. Don’t let it self-release.

You can also do this around the house. When you go to the door to let the dog out, or open the crate or kennel door, use your release word. However, we’d like to add a caveat to this: When you open a kennel or crate door, or vehicle door, don’t step back and just give the release cue. Have the dog wait with the door open and then come out of the crate or kennel or vehicle on your command, whether on a lead or verbal if the dog is trained to it, and have it stand next to you first. This will help the dog in a couple of ways: First, it won’t learn to bolt out of a crate or kennel or vehicle as soon as the door is opened; and second, it reminds the dog that you’re the one in charge.

Something else to keep in mind as you train this step: Dogs are experts at reading body language. They know what you’re going to do before you actually do it, as a rule, because your body language tells them. One good example that fits in here very nicely is using the whistle as the release cue. Once the dog has learned the cue, it starts watching for you to reach for the whistle and anticipates the release. Make sure you teach the dog to wait for the sound rather than the action. You may have to make the dog stand while you reach for your lanyard and whistle, then touch it and drop it a few times, and then bring the whistle to your mouth and drop it without blowing it. Make the dog wait for your actual command.

Having a solid release cue is great. And keeping it simple by using one consistent word for all situations make it easier for both you and your dog. That’s always the goal: Make learning simple. Plus, it adds to your dog’s training, which in turn enhances your time in the field.

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

Return to Delilah Part 2

Robert's six dogs were drawn to run two on Tuesday, one on Wednesday, two on Thursday, and one Friday. His first, a pointer named Thunderclap (a triple great grandson of Lightning Bolt), did a good job with three finds, a deep, forward race, and a strong finish. Twice Tom found him pointing. Robert thought this put Thunderclap on top, and so he rode every brace after that one, for he couldn't stand not to watch the challengers.

(He also had the old handler's suspicion that riding close behind the judges would somehow keep them attentive to the mistakes of the competition.) Lucy rode every day, though not all the braces, and Tom rode as a marshal whenever he was not scouting for Robert. The boy was a delight to be with, gregarious and fun loving, always looking for an opportunity to do a favor. When a lady rider's horse became unruly he traded mounts with her, and by the end of the brace, her mount had been calmed. He sat a horse with easy balance and complete confidence; his hands on the reins sent clear messages. Lucy too rode expertly-Robert remembered that as a girl she'd ridden show jumpers. Horsemanship was a family tradition, for her father had been a trainer of walking horses in Tennessee, where she'd grown up on his farm. She'd met her husband at the Walking Horse Celebration.

After the last brace had run on Thursday, Tom and Robert rode toward the barn, leading the judges' and reporter's horses so they could ride on the dog wagon.

"Mr. Robert, could you use a helper this summer on the prairie? I'd sure like to go. No pay necessary, just let me bring a couple of pups; I've always wanted to go up there, but Dad was against it."

This was the first time Tom had mentioned his father.

"I'd be glad to have you, Tom. Sure it would be all right with Miss Lucy?"

"Absolutely-we've already talked about it. Matter of fact, she suggested I ask you before I talked to any other handlers. Of course, I planned to do that anyhow."

Thursday was the traditional night for a dance in the Mossy Swamp clubhouse, a wing on the main horse barn.

Cocktails and a buffet supper of turkey and dressing and a half-dozen vegetables preceded the dance, with music by a Texas swing band.

Lucy asked Tom to dance the opening number. Through the evening, she danced with all the men present. At 9:00, Tom's girlfriend arrived from Birmingham where she attended Birmingham Southern. (Tom was on Christmas break from his Ivy League college.) She was a knockout, a trim vivacious brunette whose personality seemed to Robert a lot like Lucy's. When he mentioned this to Lucy, she blushed. When the bandleader announced the closing number, Lucy sought out Robert for the last dance. During it, he remembered a tune they had danced to at the same dance twenty years before, and he hummed a line of it in Lucy's ear. She looked up him, and smiling, whispered, "Mind reader."

When the dance broke up at 1:30, Robert realized he was exhausted. Concerned that he might not wake up at the usual hour, he set the alarm clock on the bedside table. It rang almost as soon as his head hit the pillow, or so it seemed. In his waking stupor, he recalled dreaming that someone had entered his room in the night. Then he remembered he'd had that dream every night of the week. When he trudged up the stairs after his shower, Lucy and Tom were serving breakfast to the other handlers, already seated at the long table.

"This is Mossy Swamp's traditional 'thank-you-come-back-next-year' breakfast," Lucy announced as she walked around the table topping off the coffee mugs. She placed her left hand on Robert's shoulder as she reached with her right to fill his mug. Her touch was electric.

When the last brace was released at four on Friday, Robert still believed his pointer Thunderclap had the edge. Tom and Lucy thought so too, though they'd said nothing. The three of them rode together in silent suspense. To their relief, neither of the dogs in the brace challenged the leaders. When the hour ended, Tom and Robert took the reins of the officials' horses and led them toward the barn, as they had at the end of the last four days. Back at the clubhouse, the judges went into conference, and the handlers loaded their dogs and horses. Finally, the secretary's whistle sounded at the door of the clubhouse, and handlers and spectators, who'd been milling about the parking area, filed in to hear the results.

Lucy took the floor and thanked one by one those who had worked to make the trial a success, judges, reporter, wranglers, marshals, cooks. She thanked the handlers and dog owners for patronizing the trial.

Finally, she took the judges' note from a back pocket of her jeans and announced: "This year's runner-up in the Old South Championship is Begone, Buz Douglas handler. And this year's champion is Thunderclap, Robert Graves, handler!"

Suddenly Robert was numb; the applause seemed unreal. Tom, grinning wildly, grasped Robert in a bear hug. Then Lucy hugged them both. One by one all in the room came to him and his scout and offered congratulations and handshakes.

The purse checks were handed to Buz and Robert as cameras flashed. Then the dogs were called for, and Tom went for Thunderclap. More applause greeted the winning dogs as they were led in and placed on a table for the traditional photographs, with scouts and handlers, judges and club directors gathered behind. The room quickly cleared, and rigs began to roll out, bound for the next trial on the circuit.

Only Robert, Lucy, Tom and Thunderclap remained in the clubhouse. Then Tom led Thunderclap out, and he jumped into his crate on the back seat of Robert's dually. Robert watched through the glass of the clubhouse door. He felt the brush of Lucy's lips on his ear-then Tom was running back, and quickly they stepped apart.

"Thanks, Tom, for all your help. Keep in touch now. We'll leave for North Dakota July 1, but I'll be talking to you before then," he heard himself say as he started the engine.

In a daze he drove out between Mossy Swamp's long row of live oaks and on toward Union Springs.

Thirty miles up the road, he pulled into a truck stop. When he flipped open the door covering the fuel-filler pipe, an envelope dropped to the ground. With trembling fingers, he tore the flap and removed the note in Lucy's neat hand. The envelope also contained a small Ziploc bag holding two locks of brown hair, near the same shade, one dappled with a few strands of white.

Dear Robert,

Through all the years, I've believed Tom was your son. This is his hair and yours. I came into your room and took yours on Sunday night. DNA test has confirmed my belief.

I told you I loved you that night twenty years ago, our only night alone together. I've told myself the same thing every night since. I have no idea how you may feel about me now, or what the future holds for us. I only dare to hope we might have happiness together. I would not have written to invite you to the Championship had I not heard of your divorce.

I love you, Robert.

Lucy

When he entered the truck stop to pay for his fuel, a rack of country music cassettes stood by the cash register. Reading down the titles, a huge grin came over his face.

"See something you like, Hon?" the pert pigtailed girl behind the cash register asked.

"Yes, ma'am, I sure do," Robert answered, placing the cassette before her, along with the cash to cover the fuel.

He ran to the dually, cranked the engine, and doubled back toward Mossy Swamp Plantation; with his left hand, he squeezed the cellophane wrapping from the cassette and popped it into the slot in the radio. Thunderbolt howled in reaction to the booming voice of Patsy Cline: "Crazy...I'm crazy...."

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

The American Brittany Club, Inc. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.
