The American Brittany

VOLUME LXVIV • NUMBER 6 • JUNE 2017

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

2017 EASTERN FURTURITY

March 24-25, 2017

The Kentucky Brittany Club endeavored to host the 2017 ABC Eastern Futurity, with the show held on the afternoon of Friday the 24th and the Field held on Saturday March 25th. The show was held at the Gold Star Kennel Facility in Cadiz, Ohio and the Field was run on the renowned grounds of the Mingo Sportsman's Club in Bloomingdale, Ohio. There was about a 20-minute distance between the two venues so it was easy to get to both places.

The show ran very smoothly. Gold Star Kennel had the ring set up ready to go and there was plenty of grooming space for everyone to get ready. No one expected the temperature for the day to climb to nearly 75 degrees, but it was a lovely day for a dog show.

Judge Patricia Ann Flanagan took her time and gave each of the 33 exhibitors her full attention as she watched our breed from the center of the ring. Ms. Pat has been a long time professional handler in the Sporting Dog rings, is a well-known breeder of Golden Retrievers and Flat Coat Retrievers who flies under the flag of Traeloch Kennels. Although she was initially nervous about judging our Brittans for the first time (and with such a nice respectable entry) she soon felt right at home as she set about finding the best dogs of the day. She was particular in her desire to find the dogs that physically met the written standard and exemplified the smooth, ground covering, effortless gait needed to do the job in the field. Ms. Pat made a point to make the trek back out to field trial grounds Saturday morning where she spent the day riding shotgun in the Polaris Ranger as she rode with Bill Haynes, our bird planter to learn all she could about our little dogs at work.

Friday night all enjoyed the hospitality of the Mingo Sportsman's Club as they prepared our banquet of BBQ steak and Chicken for us to enjoy. It was a full house and the meal was made complete by the presentation of the Camo Colored cake that celebrated our 2017 event. A huge thank you goes to this fine club for going above and beyond to make the participants of the ABC Eastern Futurity feel welcome during their stay in Ohio.

Thank you to Purina for once again generously sponsoring our event and to our field judges Chris Rider, Kent Patterson on the All Age Course and to Bill Monk and Justin Allen on the Gun Dog course for their time and attention to detail. Thank you to all of the Breeders and Participants for their support of this year's Eastern Region Futurity, we enjoyed hosting !!

Respectfully Submitted
Brian Hendrickson, DVM
Eastern Section Chairman

Futurity Field Gun Dog Stake

It was about 60 degrees and overcast as we gathered for the start of the 2017 eastern futurity gun dog competition on Saturday March 25. This was unseasonably warm for Ohio in late March and, as the temperature rose close to 70, it took its toll on some of the dogs' runs. Fortunately, there was cloud cover most of the day. Overall it was great weather for those of us in the saddle but not so much for the walking handlers and dogs.

Though much of the grounds of the Mingo Sportsman's Club are hills with many steep rises and cliffs, the course set up for the foot handled gun dog futurity was generally just slightly rolling and, although not an easy walk, it was comfortable for the average foot handler. The grounds were beautifully prepared with wide grassy strips, wood and brushy edges and plenty of likely places where birds could be found by dogs that hunted intelligently and reached forward and to the edges.

The judges for the stake were Justin Allen and Bill Monk. When I spoke with them about what they were looking for in their placing dogs they talked about a forward consistent pattern, style and kind handling. The first-place dog, Spring Hill's Auld Lang Syne "Happy" exhibited all of the qualities mentioned by the judges. She was always forward during her race, was handled quietly by Steve Tubach and had three stylish finds. Happy made a wide cast around the far edge as we made the turn and continued along that edge to her first find, at 15. She again took the right edge, climbing the hill for another classy move. She slowed a little as time expired but remained forward continuing to hunt and was rewarded with finds at 25 and 28.

The second-place dog, Spring Hill's Fancy Wheels "Mags", ran in the very last brace of the day. I think she first got the judges looking when she hit point ahead at the top of the hill at 7 and maintained her beautiful, intense point until her handler, John Bell, reached her and began to flush. Though John produced only feathers Mags was now on a mission and began to hunt diligently. When she hit again, stylishly at 16 she was rewarded with a bird. At 18 her bracemate put up a bird and the chase was on with Mags retrieving the bird to hand. She showed well forward as time was called.

The third placed dog, Ajax Hurricanes Bird Finding Machine "Radar" handled by his owner Rich Jarosinski demonstrated that his name is appropriate. Radar showed his maturity by honoring his bracemate's point and then stylishly holding point on all of his finds. He was always forward but at a generally moderate range and handled kindly and quietly.

Ayerie's Paladin of Auten "Pike", the fourth placing dog was away quickly and both he and his handler set a blistering pace for the entire 30 minutes. Pike was always forward and hunting and rewarded with finds at 8, 10, 17 & 22 but was a little indecisive around a couple of his birds.

THE RUNNING

Brace 1 – Stillhunter's Boilermaker "Jamie", h Steve Tubach/Hill's a Touch of Class, h Dawn Hill. Jamie showed all that he is a bird dog with 4 finds including a couple that he had to dig into the course to find. His enthusiasm for birds made him get behind at times. Lexi worked for the entire time but generally at short range and wasn't able to locate any birds for her efforts.

Brace 2 – Ajax Hurricanes Bird Finding Machine "Radar", h Rich Jarosinski/Labyrinth NMR Sunshine & Summertime@WildMtn, JH "Demi", h Helen Riggie. Radar's run is described above. Demi cruised around the course at a moderate range, working hard, but carded only a non-productive.

Brace 3 – Wild Mtn N Labyrinth Shut Up and Dance "Sophie", h Andrew Starcevic/Sigbrit's Contessa del Prado "Tessa", h Les Casselberry. Tessa was away quickly and had all watching as she flew around the course. She was glimpsed by the gallery standing well ahead and was credited for a find and chase by the judges but her handler was never close enough to fire. She made a beautiful cast along the edge at the turn and continued to run hard. As time was running out she hit point ahead but her handler wasn't able to produce a bird. Sophie hunted in front of her handler for the entire brace and executed a perfect back on Tessa's non-productive at the end. She did not locate a bird.

Brace 4 – Spring Hill's Auld Lang Syne "Happy", h Steve Tubach/Woodland's High Anticipation At Stardust "Secret", h Karen Schramm. Happy's first place run is described above. Secret ran hard and had solid finds at 14 & 18 making this an enjoyable brace to watch. She had some trouble staying forward.

Brace 5 – Wild Mtn's Dark Legend "Newt", h Brian Riggle/J & A's Birch Spring Breaking New Ground, JH, h John Short. This was a pleasant brace to watch with both dogs working easily ahead of their handlers. It appeared that both would go birdless but the action got started in the last 5 minutes as they had a divided find at 25 with Newt displaying outstanding style and then backing Toph's find at 26 which was on feathers. As it got closer to noon, the temperature rose and the sun peeked out of the clouds occasionally causing the conditions to effect some of the performances. It was hard to believe that 2 days before there was frost on the ground in the morning and temps were in the teens!

Brace 6 - It's 5 O'Clock Somewhere "Cooper", h Rebecca Walters/Boudreaux's Rebellious Little Pistol "Belle", h John Kozlowski. These two had a little trouble getting started but at 8 Belle had a non-productive which put a more spring in her stride. Cooper carded a striking find at 24 which reminded him why he was on the course and had him digging in and hunting wider and harder. Time was called with no additional bird contact.

Brace 7 – NMR labyrinth Late Nite Summer Skye "Skye", h Ed Manifold/Remchester's Taking Chances

"Chance", h Richard Edwards. Both dogs were off quickly and diving into the course. Sadly for dog and owner/handler Chance went birdless and the heat took a toll toward the end of his run. Skye was found on point at 5 by her scout and then shot forward to another point at 8 where no bird was produced. She had us all tall in our saddles until we made the turn but then the heat would claim her as well.

Brace 8 – Wild Mtn N Labyrinth Golden Prairie Dancer "Yankee", h Helen Riggle/Ayerie's Paladin of Auten "Pike", h Raymond McVeigh. Pike's performance is described above. Yankee got off to a great start and had bird contact at 8 with a big chase. Both he and his handler had difficulty keeping pace with the hard driving Pike and he was leashed early.

Brace 9 – CH Stillhunter's Red Solo Cup "Brew", h Sandy Sargent/Sid's Wingman "Geno", h Steve Lauterbach. Brew showed he was hunting with stylish finds at 8 and 22 but seemed to be bothered by the heat and worked generally at close range. Sid was completely the opposite! He was away quickly and out of sight, checking in for a brief moment and then off again to be spotted as a dot on the far line. Sid was never seen to have bird contact and was leashed early by Steve when it was obvious that he was in the wrong stake.

Brace 10 – Cimarron Trails Accolade "Kate", h Richard Johnson/Rustys Rush To Flush "Rusty", h Troy Hoverter. Rusty hunted the course diligently and came in and pointed with Kate at 10. Kate then took off and made a wide sweep around the edge to a find at 19. After flushing her bird she chased deep into the course and resisted coming forward. She pointed again at 26 with no bird produced. Rusty scored another find at about 20 as I was behind with the other dog.

This reporter had to miss this brace due to another commitment. Thanks to Niki Redick for filling in in my absence.

EASTERN FUTURITY GUN DOG WINNERS

Brace 11 – Auten’s Woodland Sage “Sage”, h Ron Auten/ Birch Spring LH Thunder Chief, JH “Tyson”, h Philip Thayer. Much like her brother Pike, who was the fourth placed dog, Sage dug into the course with determination and hit all the objectives maintaining her strong run throughout the brace. Sadly, she only scored a non- productive at 9 for all her efforts. Tyson worked the course at a close to moderate pace and was unable to locate any birds as well.

Brace 12 – Birch Spring LH Ziva Be Mine, JH “Ziva”, h Philip Thayer/Spring Hill’s Fancy Wheels “Mags”, h John Bell – Mags run is described above. Ziva worked in tandem with Mags for a while and put up a bird at 18 that was chased by both dogs. After the turn she began to slow her pace and was leashed early by her handler.

All Age Stake

Reported by Lisa Pollock & Helen Riggle

Brace 1 CH Turning Points Shenanigans (Shandi) - Claypool and Wild Mtn All Rise (Honor)-Riggle. Both dogs broke away eagerly casting forward with gusto. While Honor maintained a forward race with moderate range, Shandi looped wide, finding birds that were too far out of sight to be in actual judgement. After her shenanigans in the thick of the cat tails, she was hacked back into handle and then both dogs would be credited with individual finds on the farther edge of the pond. Both dogs finished their brace going away strong.

Brace 2: Ru-Jem’s Grand Touch Bourbon

(Touch)- Mc Gee /Bye. Touch ran alone. “Touch” broke from the far end and broke off the left hillside. When he was summoned to the front he quickly showed and cast down the right side of the hill for all to see. He worked his way back up the hill and had a find at 5. He showed great style and manners as the designated flusher worked the bird and fired. He was sent forward again and made the turn down to the pond. He hunted the feed strips well as we headed toward the black hole. As we crossed toward the pond, Touch had another stellar find. Sent on, he finished the brace at a moderate range.

Brace 3: Diamond Hill Traveling Doc (Doc)-Pollock and Wild Mtn Rough Cut (Rocky) -Newhouse. Both dogs broke strongly to the right side. Halfway up the hill Rocky showed and crossed in front of the handlers. Doc was pointed out heading for the cat tail pond before the road. As we crossed the road both dogs dropped off the right edge and were making game. Both pointed but no birds were produced. Doc cut loose and headed up the hill toward the power towers. Rocky went left around the hill. Doc came down from the second tower and headed over the hill to the front of the course. Rocky continued on course at a moderate range while Doc was out of pocket until we reached the pond. Doc was gathered as he tried to forge his own course to the west. Both dogs were turned back toward the east and ended with good stamina, but no birds.

Overfacing - Recognizing Overwhelming Stress and Impossible Challenges

Photos © 2017 Hunter's Heart Kennels

Have you ever been jostled by a black Friday crowd trying to get inside the store, where overexcited adults aren't thinking straight? Or maybe you've been so nervous about speaking in public that you couldn't focus? At one agility competition, the judge was counting down the time my dog needed to stay in position on the table, and I was eliminated for cuing my dog to move on before the count was finished. Spectators made me feel nervous and running pumped up my adrenaline so high I couldn't even count. When I was that overwhelmed, what was it like for my dog? Stress can impair focus, perceptions and skills, for both humans and canines.

What is Overfacing?

Overfacing is a related phenomenon, which occurs when human gives the dog a challenge that far surpasses his abilities. For example, if a dog doesn't understand how to perform each agility obstacle in practice, then competing without rewards on 20 pieces of unfamiliar equipment at a park he's never seen before may be an impossible challenge. As shown in the photos, overfaced dogs may look confused, uncomfortable, or shut down. Some dogs "stress up", acting so high they zoom around off leash at full speed, ignoring their handlers. Some dogs simply quit or try to leave.

While some dogs only lack a required skill, many dogs are overfaced by overwhelming stress in distracting new environments. For example, just because your dog weaves at home doesn't mean he can weave after days travelling to a high-profile competition in a new place with unfamiliar equipment. While he was comfortable weaving at home, all of a sudden, he's faced with a loud, busy, distracting new barn with hundreds of strangers, barking dogs, and strange looking weaves. He'll probably be over aroused, and maybe even overwhelmed, unable to think or perform at optimum levels, unless you've gradually increased proficiency and distractions, generalizing to numerous environments.

Recognizing Canine Stress

So how do you recognize when your dog is overfaced? Begin by noticing signs that your dog is stressed. When your dog is stressed, it's better to address the stress level before you offer complicated challenges. Common signs of stress in dogs include:

- Increased rate of breathing (more than 30 breaths/minute)
- Displacement behaviors e.g. licking unrelated to grooming, scratching when not itchy, yawning when not tired
- Avoidance, hiding, freezing, lying down to show belly
- Lifting a front paw (unrelated to pointing birds)
- Refusing rewards
- Failure to acknowledge handler
- Failure to respond to learned cues
- Decreased performance (once physical problems are ruled out)

Rapid Breathing

One of the best indicators of canine stress and discomfort in new environments is changes of breathing rate. Count the dog's chest movements for 10 seconds, then multiply by 6 to get the breaths per minute. When resting, the average takes about 24 breaths per minute. So, dogs with more than 30-40 breaths/minute are probably displaying a physiological reaction to stress (or illness).

I recently visited a service dog trainer in California training her puppy for public access, by bringing the pup on public transit. While the dog's breathing rate was 20 breaths/minute in her car, it doubled to 40 at the airport. She moved further away and allowed the dog some time to get used to the new environment. Within 10 minutes, his breathing rate returned to normal, she praised and went for a run at their favorite beach.

Acclimatization to the Environment

A surefire way to identify stress is to go to a new environment, do nothing and say nothing, and time the delay before your dog acknowledges you. The longer the delay before acknowledging you, the more distracted the dog is in that environment.

When taking your dog to a new venue, arrive as early as you can. Take time to walk around so your dog can get used to the sights, sounds, and smells. When you are calm, your dog is more likely to be calm. Do not rush. Wait to enter the building until your dog is ready. If your dog is stressed, move away from distractors as far as necessary to get comfortable. Your dog may need multiple trips to visit that environment before you can enter. Similarly, once you get inside, the dog may be comfortable with you at his side, with his crate covered, as far away from competing dogs as possible. Avoid setting up at ringside if your dog is obviously stressed, barking uncontrollably, panting or trying to leave. Adjust the difficulty until your dog can succeed. Once your dog is comfortable in the environment, warmup by asking the dog to perform an easy behavior or trick he enjoys. Then ask for one appropriate challenge. Stop when your dog succeeds in an environment that's difficult to him, and praise for overcoming a difficult challenge.

Failure to Take Treats

Whenever you're asking yourself "why isn't my dog doing what he should?", think instead how you can be more rewarding. If the dog is over aroused, but falls short of being overwhelmed, you may be able to save the performance by offering higher value food rewards. If your dog usually works for dry dog food at home, you may need roast beef to succeed in competition. Having said that, if the dog is truly overwhelmed, he may not take any food at all.

Every nosework class, we begin with a taste test before we start training. If a dog takes the food reward, we can proceed to training. But if the dog can't focus and does not take the food, we need to find a higher value reward that will motivate that dog on that day in that environment. If we can't find a suitable reward, we can try later again in the same class, when he's had a chance to get used to his environment. Some dogs need to observe multiple classes before they're comfortable, and some reactive dogs might learn better at private lessons than in distracting group classes.

Take Your Skills on the Road

In agility, rally, barn hunt, nosework, or whatever the dogsport, if you're unprepared for the environmental stress and distractions, you won't really get the chance to show off your skills. Instead of being surprised and failing in distracting competitive conditions, it's better to prepare by strategically failing more at home. Once you've taught a skill and the dog is performing it confidently, ask for that skill in every room of the house. Next, ask for it in your yard, during the quietest time of day. Don't teach anything new, and relax your expectations so you can reward small successes. Then gradually increase the difficulty. Next try training on your sidewalk or in the alley behind your house. And finally, go to a nearby park at a busy time of day to practice.

Microchallenges

You may be surprised how much you need to break down skills into microchallenges in order for the dog to succeed. For example, some agility dogs are unable to perform obstacles if crumpled pieces of paper are on the floor. Others may find it challenging to ignore a plastic bag tied to a stick, moving in the wind. Experiment to learn your dog's zone of comfort and gradually expand it as appropriate. If you're having trouble, get help from an experienced trainer who's demonstrated success with dogs similar to yours.

In summary, avoid overfacing your dog by expecting new behaviors in novel environments where the dog is demonstrating rapid breathing, refusing treats, and signs of stress. In addition to training dogsports skills, take the time to ensure your dog is comfortable in novel environments with increasing distractions. Also, when your dog isn't doing what he should, consider how you can be more rewarding. When you manage your dog's stress, you're more likely to build confidence and have fun showing off your skills.

Southern Open Brittany Shooting Dog Classic

The Southern Showdown

By Charles K. Cantrell, DVM

The third renewal of the Southern Open Brittany Shooting Dog Classic commenced on February 1, 2017 at Larron and Laura Copeland's beautiful Showtime Plantation in Bronwood, GA. Larron Copeland is an avid field trial competitor in the all age venue and we are grateful that he opens his grounds to allow us to run a quality Brittany shooting dog stake. The grounds consist of three one hour courses that include piney woods along with large fields. For a dog to look good on these grounds it must stretch out and make some distant casts while staying in connection with its handler, while at the same time seeking out wild and pre-released quail. It is becoming more difficult to find grounds that provide a true test of a dog's natural ability to find wild birds as the grounds at Showtime Plantation. Along with thanking Larron and Laura Copeland, we would also like to extend our thanks to their son Colt for marshalling and dog wagon driver Easton Oliver. They tripped to town early every morning so the participants would have hot biscuits and sausage after the first brace, a new addition to this trial that was much appreciated. A big applause to Greg Blair with Purina for organizing the shipment of Pro Plan dog food for the winners at such short notice and dealing with the lack of proficiency in planning by the field trial chairman/reporter. Purina continues to be a huge supporter of our sport and we should reciprocate by feeding their product as they are on the forefront of nutritional research. Lunches for the trial were provided by Wayne's restaurant, located in Dawson, GA, with exceptional southern cooking.

We were delighted and honored to have two very experienced judges in Rick Smith and Beth Brown, DVM. Rick Smith is a well-known dog trainer, in the past was active in field trialing brittany's, and now enjoys teaching training techniques in his seminars throughout the Country. Many of us have used training techniques developed by Rick and his father, Delmar Smith. Rick came to our trial immediately after instructing a retrieving seminar with mostly Labradors. Beth is an active competitor from South Florida with pointer all age and shooting dogs with many notable placements that include championships. She is an active member of the Associated Field Trial Clubs of Florida that holds field trials at the Cecil Webb Management Area in Punta Gorda, FL. Petie Brown, Beth's sister, joined Beth on the trip and the two of them made an awesome dinner the third night of the trial. Although from different segments of the bird dog world, the two judges got along great and were very attentive during the entire running.

The Running:

The winner of this even was Waypoint Chancey Big White Cooper, owned by Vic and Joyce Williams and handled by Kyle Merrill. Big White, and brace mate Stuart (Pollack), were released on course three in the afternoon. Big White disappeared to the front and was seen running the left edge of the first big field into the planted pines. He was then gathered and handled nicely thru the pines, across the road and to the Lindsey pond. From the Lindsey pond he handled the next two fields in fine shooting dog fashion, running the edges with rapid ground speed. His first and only find was at 20 in a thick fence row, to the front in between two fields, with the birds pinned in a thicket. He stood with a high head and tail set and had impeccable manners while Merrill flushed. His ground speed and range stayed consistent throughout the hour with a strong finish at the end blazing thru the last field and into the planted pines, like adding ice cream to your already favorite chocolate cake dessert. Stuart ran a moderate shooting dog race, with unfortunately no bird work, and was picked up at 56.

The second-place dog was Piney Run Lilly (Lorenson), owned by Martha Greenlee, ran on course one along with Runnin On Faith (Cantrell). This was the first afternoon course and on this day the temperature was hot – approaching 80 degrees. The dogs were launched and Lilly immediately took off flying like she meant business. Lilly is a mostly white, very athletic female that seemed to handle the heat just fine. When entering the first large field on course one, Lilly was seen ripping the edge on the far side shooting toward the planted pines. She was gathered and sent across the next field streaming down the fence line heading toward the woods. At 15 she was found standing on point by scout Kyle Merrill and Lorenson proceeded to flush a nice covey. She stood with nice style on her game and manners were flawless. She was found standing again at 30 but no game was produced. She continued to run a strong shooting dog race while using up more course than any other dog on course one. Faith ran a moderate shooting dog race and could not produce game.

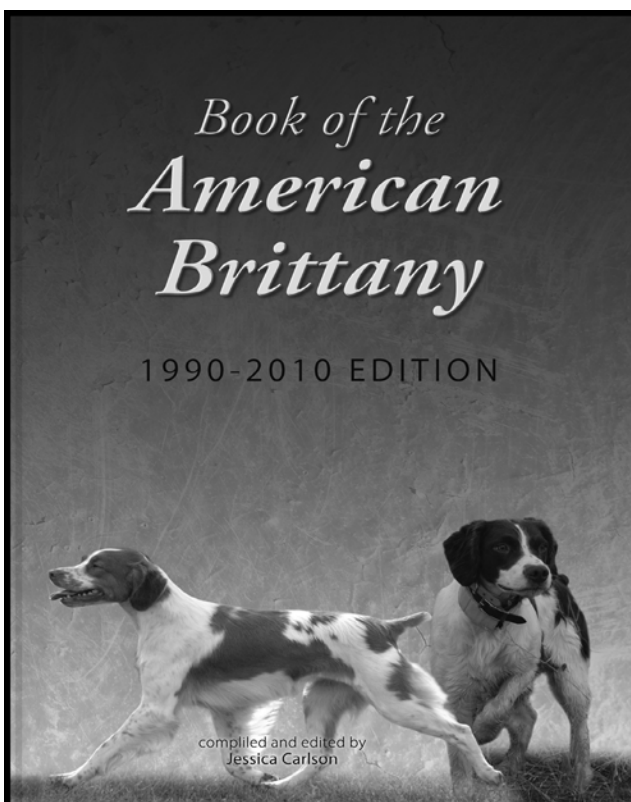

In third position was a heavily ticked orange and white female, Thomas's Dixie (Lorenson), owned by Ken Cherry and braced with Lucy (Blondin). Dixie is another athletic female that ran hard, just did not have quite the range of the first two placed dogs. She ran on course three with a fast and consistently forward pace. Her only find was at 13 by the Lindsey pond in a thicket that made flushing for Lorenson difficult. Her style on point was high and pleasing to the eye and she finished the hour with a nice cast at the end. Lucy was pleasing to watch on the ground and stayed down to finish her bid with no bird work.

The directors of the Southern Open Brittany Championship series extend their appreciation to the participants that supported this event. Every year we see some new faces that contribute to the success and enjoyment of this shooting dog classic. We hope to see you and more new faces next year; after all, where's a better place to run dogs in February than the piney woods of South Georgia.

NOW AVAILABLE

is an invaluable source of reference and enjoyment for all Brittany breeders and enthusiasts. Expanding upon the previous works by Dr. Fred Z. White, Nicky Bissell, and Rheta Cartmell, this 320-page edition focuses on dogs and Brittany events between the years 1990-2010.

Chapters include: History of the American Brittany; Field Trialing 1935-1989; Modern Field Trial Winners; ABC Classics & Championships; The Show Brittany; The Dual Brittany; ABC Futurities; Performance Events (Hunt Tests, Obedience, Agility, NSTR); Top Producers; ABC Honor Rolls (Hall of Fame, Life Members). These are followed by an index of ABC event winners from 1942-1989, and an index of all dogs mentioned in the book. The text of this book is brought to life with over 625 color and black/white photos, many of historical value, and as many as could be obtained of the modern-day dogs mentioned in the book.

2017 American Brittany Club Chukar Classic/Championship

PURINA

The 2017 American Brittany Club Chukar Classic/Championship was held February 2-3, 2017 at Camp H, California City, CA. The Classic/Championship was hosted by the California Brittany Club.

No event can be successful without our sponsors, Purina Dog Food and Garmin Tri-Tronics. Purina’s support with large bags of Pro Plan Sport was greatly appreciated by all. The Garmin GSP Collar was not received in time for the event, however, it is being sent to the winner as we write.

Many thanks to our judges for this year’s event – T.W. “Nick” Besenick from Sonoita, Arizona and Willie J Steven, Jr. from Sparks, Nevada. Both were happy to escape their cold/wintery weather for our beautiful high desert warmer temperatures, albeit, we could have done without all the wind. Both Nick and Willie were in the saddle at day break and after a long day, stopped before sun down, having to finish the next day.

Volunteers – without our volunteers, this event never could have been successful. The course was laid out with the help of Tom White. Kurt Conklin, Ed Moody, Arlette Hennessey & Steve Crabb kept the course planted with chukar. Arlette also was responsible for the brace by brace reporting below. Many thanks to Deborah Frane for the beautiful etched glassware we used as gifts, the Echavarrias for getting it safely to Camp H, and David Ford for his photographs.

We had sixteen dogs entered. The Champion dog named 2017 American Brittany Club Chukar Classic/Championship was FC STALEY’S ORANGE OUTLAW MR. COOPER (“Cooper”). “Cooper” is a male, owned by Dan Campbell and handled by Jason Staley. “Cooper” ran in the 4th brace on Thursday morning (February 2). Dan scouted “Cooper” and was present to receive the trophies and ribbons. The Runner-Up Champion was a male, NAFC/FC/AFC SPANISH CORRAL’S SUNDANCE KID (“Sonny”), owned by Joe Gower and handled by Paul Doiron. “Sonny” ran in brace 7 on Friday morning (February 3).

The third place was awarded to FC RUSTY RIDGE WHERE U BEEN (“Been”), owned by Claude and Jan Kilpatrick, handled by Paul Doiron. “Been” ran in brace 5 on Thursday. Fourth place was awarded to JANEY’S I’LL MAKE YOU FAMOUS (“Kid”), owned by Layne Peterson and handled by Jason Staley. “Kid” ran in brace 8 on Friday morning.

We began the Chukar Classic/Championship on time 7:30 am Thursday. The temperature was a chilly 32 degrees. The afternoon temperatures rose to the 50s. We had a slight overcast both days with a few minutes of sprinkles on Friday. We had plenty of chukar on course.

The Championship Running:

BRACE 1: SR’S BLEW BY TYPHOON (TY) – DOIRON and SHADY’S BLUEWATER REPETE (REPETE) – DOWN. Ty was out of pocket at 3 minutes. Repete made his own course and his handler elected to pick up at 10 minutes.

BRACE 2: DC MIKEY'S SPICE GIRL (SPICE) – DOIRON and MAGIC CARPET RIDE (MAVERICK) – HALE. Spice was picked up at 10 minutes and Maverick was lost at breakaway.

BRACE 3: FC MAXWELL'S PRICKLY PETE (PETEY) – DOIRON and DC/AFC MTB SCIPIO'S HOT SHOT OF WHIZKI (CALI) – WHITE. Both dogs had nice breakaway. Petey had a find at 26 minutes with good style on point. Cali had a non-productive at 13 minutes and went back on point at the top of the ridge with a find at 40 minutes. Cali exhibited excellent style on all her points. Both dogs shared a divided find at 38 minutes and Cali finished with a nice point at 58 minutes.

BRACE 4: FC/AFC SPANISH CORRAL'S SONNY PATCH (PATCH) – DOIRON and FC STALEY'S ORANGE OUTLAW MR. COOPER (COOPER) – STALEY. Patch had a find at 50 minutes after a powerful run. Cooper was in and out of sight after a fast breakaway and found standing with a stylish point out at the end of one of the ridges with a limb find (A limb find is when a dog has made a cast a long way on a ridge or some type of objective which pulls them to look and then is found on a bird) at 45 minutes. Cooper was relocated as the bird had run by the time handler and judge could make it up the ridge. At 54 minutes Cooper was found again pointing with nice style. Judge Besenick commented that both handler and dog worked as a team (as if in a 'waltz') and Cooper had a powerful and consistent run throughout the brace.

BRACE 5: FC RUSTY RIDGE WHERE U BEEN (BEEN) – DOIRON and HIGH LONESOME SAGE (SAGE) – HAMMETT. Been had a find at 46 minutes exhibiting excellent style – a promising young dog. Sage went on his first bird at 35 minutes, moved on flush and was picked up.

BRACE 6: BLEW ME AWAY (BUD) – DOIRON and TRELEY'S BLUEWATER WHITE CAP (CAP) – DOWN. Both dogs were off and away. Bud picked up at 18 minutes, Cap picked up at 20 minutes.

BRACE 7: NAFC/FC/AFC SPANISH CORRAL'S SUNDANCE KID (SONNY) – DOIRON and FC ALDER'S SPOHIE BROOK (SOPHIE) – STALEY. Sonny was found on point at 20 minutes. At 40 minutes both dogs had a divided find, both exhibiting excellent style. At 52 minutes Sonny had a nice find. Sonny exhibited an excellent running style with high nose and tail. Sophie had another point at 55 minutes and went out of sight and pocket soon after.

BRACE 8: JANEY'S I'LL MAKE YOU FAMOUS (KID) – STALEY and HIDEAWAY'S GHOST RIDER (RIDER) – HALE. Both dogs started off the line, Rider to the left, Kid to the right. Rider was seen to be standing soon after up a draw. Before the handler and judge could get to him, he and the chukar came out of the draw together. Kid had a find at 30 minutes and was relocated up the hill – all in order with a successful flush. Kid pointed again at 40 minutes and 42 minutes, exhibiting excellent style both times. Kid had a 2 chukar point at 52 minutes and a stop to flush at 55 minutes.

ENJOY YOUR DOG

More Action Per Acre

From the excitement of local field trial competition to the satisfaction of competing in and winning national upland game hunting events, NSTRA members really enjoy their dogs. So can you. No matter what pointing breed you own, if your dog can locate and point birds, you can be successful in NSTRA's fairly conducted field trials which reward both quality and quantity in the upland gamebird field trial competition.

With NSTRA you can:

- Earn championship points and obtain championship status
- Compete in regional field trials, NSTRA National Championship Trials, Dog of the Year and the Top Performance award competitions

NSTRA—the growing field trial association

HEART OF ILLINOIS
Jim Edgar Panther Creek SFWA
Chandlerville, IL
March 25-26, 2017

The spring horseback trial held March 25-26, 2017 at JEPC had a small entry, but a merry group in attendance. The weather was cloudy with hints of rain, but we kept the rain away for most of the trial. Brief showers occurred on Sunday, but there were no real storms in evidence.

The Amateur All Age entrants found birds, but the dogs could not handle them properly. So, the judges decided to have a call back for those who ran well but didn't have any bird contact. The call back was enjoyed by the watchers, but not the dog handlers. Although, we could say the dogs enjoyed themselves. A Flushing 101 course was offered for these seasoned handlers. Needless to say all placements were withheld.

The Open Gun Dog handlers decided they would show the amateur all age handlers how it should be done. They had much better luck with four placements being awarded.

The Open Derby was an excellent stake. The judges were well pleased with the young dogs. There seems to be lots of potential coming in the adult stakes shortly.

On Sunday the rain gear was evident as we had a few brief showers. The weather was cooler also. One of our call back failures redeemed himself with the blue ribbon in the Open All Age. Likewise the Amateur Gun Dog had bird work as well. Once again the young dogs in the Amateur Walking Derby provided us with some good adult potential.

We'd like to thank our judges and participants without whom we could not host a trial; the JEPC staff who brought us water and attended to our needs, the HIBC members who helped out with the dog wagon, planting birds, lunch, cleaning up and all the behind the scene work that makes the event possible. We hope to see many of you back in the fall.

Region 8 Amateur Brittany Championship The Dub Emde Challenge

By Tom Milam

This championship is named for Dub Emde. For years, Dub was the "Keeper of the Grounds". He mowed, filled feeders, cleaned the barn and kennels and picked up trash. Very few trials were run on these grounds, Pointers/Setters, Brittany's, Wiems, GSPs and early on Beagles, that he did assist in some manner. He drove the dog wagon for many and would occasionally catch a nap during the running of a brace requiring someone to go find him and the wagon.

A very sincere "Thank You" must be extended to Purina for its support of this trial and field trials. They furnish products and ad assistance to so many championships. Their dog food is the best on the market.

We were lucky to have enlisted, "draft", two will qualified judges, Keith Richardson and Ronnie Sale. Two gentlemen that know how to run dogs and win!

Pros Scott Johnson and Ed Tillson planted birds. "Old Steady" Rick Conner drove the dog wagon, without getting stuck. Although, many were taking bets. Trey Baer furnished and cooked hamburgers one night without charring any of the patties or burning any buns. Linda and Jan Conner fixed lunches and the Freidrichs of San Angelo brought a great Pound Cake that was quickly devoured.

Saturday morning the temperature was in the mid 30s with a north wind of 10-15 mph and a cloudy sky.

The Running:

Brace 1. SS Rig's Colorado Gun Runner – Milam & MK's My Lil Ammo (BB) – Campbell:

The brace broke from camp with both dogs vivying for the front. After a big cast to the south and rounded up, Rig's was found standing at 10 behind the brush line as the course declines to Manck's crossing. An extended flushing attempt finally was successful. Rig's maintained his composure during the flush and shot. BB was crossing Lem Roberts road as Rig's was gathered and brought to the front. Both dogs wheeled and pointed at the first mott east of Lem Roberts. Judge Sale advised that a quail had left prior to the arrival of the dogs. Both were released and continued to Girl Scout point taking the left edge to the lake. Rig's was difficult and reluctant. He worked the handler and scout. Rig's had a non-productive leaving Tent Pad point. BB had continued her forward race. She scored a find with good style at the mott before Pond 2. The brace ended with Rig's leaving Cedar point and BB south on the point.

Brace 2: High Point Spike – Baer & Tequila Scorcher (Lincoln) – Beaver:

Breakaway was from the meadow at the curve north of the Double Motts. This pair hit the ground running with big opening casts carrying them to and out of the Bear Trap. These forward casts at good speed continued around Bedspring corner, thru the Fireworks area and thru Bird Valley into Air Port point. Lincoln established point to the right on the crest of the point. Spike had continued north into the point. Beaver flushed a small covey with all in order. As the scout returned Spike to the front, Spike was in full speed ahead. As he gained the crest, Spike encountered one of the previously flushed birds. He wheeled to point but his momentum caused him to settle. This ended a good effort. Lincoln had a second find at Little Pond point. He was high on both ends. As we crossed Manck Crossing, he headed west to the far tree line and turned to the front. After a few yards, he carded his third piece of bird work again with style and intensity. This occurred at 43 and he settled into hunting mode

DUB EMDE CHALLENGE

and his range modified. The brace ended in the West Country as the course turned east.

Brace 3: Shady's Desert Knight – Milam & Ocaje (Grace) – Gowin: Breakaway was from the west ridge with the course going south. Both dogs were forward and attacking the course. They crossed the Pond Four dam well in front of their handlers. They were found pointing at the apex of the brush line east of the pond. Grace was on the south side and Knight was on the north side. This was good! They then proceeded to knock and scatter the covey to hell and back in front of everyone. THIS WASN'T SO GOOD!!! The temperature had climbed to the upper 50s under a partially clouded sky.

Brace 4: Just Call Me Lucky Ned Pepper – Campbell & Arrow's Tequila Rustler(Rusty) – Beaver: Ned suffered blown pads and was up early. Rusty was forward and had a find at the feeder before Manck Crossing. He had the quail cornered in heavy cover. Beaver flushed and fired with Rusty maintaining perfect manners. Across Lem Roberts his efforts were again rewarded with his second piece of well executed bird work. He continued a forward race and diligent hunting mode around the course. His through search of likely spots did not produce further bird work but Rusty made some nice casts with the brace ending on Cedar Point. A job well done.

Brace 5: Kinwashkly Tempo – Rankin & Rammer Jammer Jax – Baer: Breakaway was from the meadow north of the Double Motts. Both dogs broke hard to the front with gusto. They maintained their forward race around the course with little urging from their handlers. At the bottom of Bird Valley, Rankin calls point for Tempo. Jax helped in the flushing with Tempo maintain his composure through the "help" and subsequent shot by Rankin. Jax was corralled and Tempo continued to the Air Port point. Instead of making a right turn, he continued north. The scout rounded him up and gave him back to the handler east of the Air Point. Tempo hit the tree line on the left and as he rounded the first point, he wheeled and pointed. As his handler started his flushing attempt, Tempo self-released. This ended a very promising effort.

Brace 6: TLM Pete Nocona – Milam & Campbell's Razz Ma Tazz – Campbell: Breakaway was from the above mentioned point. Pete was forward at good range but was lost in the West Country. He did not have bird work before being misplaced. Razz was forward at moderate range with no bird contact early. After leaving the West Country, he scored twice on the line headed south to Pond 4. He also had another find but was not pleasing his handler and was picked up.

Sunday morning was warmer, upper 30s. There was less wind and clouds.

Brace 7: Dakota Sun – Nakamura & Firestarter's Crossed The Line(Ty) – Rankin: Breakaway was from camp at 8:30. Sunny ran through a covey a 5. Ty was not involved. After he crossed the oil well road he cast right and was not returned to judgement. He was later found on the west side of the tree line south of the oil well, buried up on point. The find of the stake.

Brace 8: Checote – Nakamura & TLM Poncho Villa – Milam: Neither of these dogs were pleasing their handlers and were up early. We gathered in the club house for placements. The winner was Champion Tequila Scorcher handled by Richard Beaver. The owner is Bernie Crain and he is in the string of pro Ed Tillson. The Runner Up was SS Rig's Colorado Gun Runner owned by Linda and Tom Milam. She lets me run him. Pressing the winners were Arrow's Tequila Rustler and MK's My Little Ammo.

The placements were well received by the handlers and spectators. Our special thanks are extended to our judges, Keith and Ronnie, for taking time out from their busy schedule to ride for us.

Region 17 Amateur All Age Brittany Championship

Once again, the beautiful Oliver Ranch in the Flint Hills of Kansas was the venue for the Region 17 Amateur All Age Brittany Championship hosted by the Southern Kansas Brittany Club. This year was a good turnout as we had 18 dogs compete for this prestigious award. The judges were not left wanting for a Champion though, as nearly every dog had bird work to their credit, and the title became well contested.

The Southern Kansas Brittany Club does great work putting on quality events at the Oliver Ranch, and this one again came off without a hitch. They are fortunate to have several active and contributing members to make their trials always enjoyable and well regarded.

Two well-seasoned judges were chosen for this renewal of the Championship. Charlie Collier and Stan Truksa enjoyed watching these dogs put on great performances.

The weather was windy and warm during this event and the first three braces set the standard for the Championship. In the first brace, Kinwashkly Tempo set the stage with Bob Rankin handling. Tempo had a nice race and placed fourth. In the second brace, Firestarter's Crossed the Line, also handled by Bob Rankin had a real nice performance which earned him

Runner-up Champion. This dog keeps knocking on the door, as he was the 2016 Runner-Up Champion, handled by Jessica Carlson. The third brace finished out all the placements with Tequila Scorcher, handled by Richard Beaver, taking third place. It should be noted that Scorcher was the 2016 Champion, handled by Jessica Carlson. Ocaje, handled by Terry Gowin, had a great race; one find and a stop to flush to be named Champion. Terry said that this was her best performance she has ever run. Although the next six braces had some nice dogs and plenty of bird work, none could match the performances of those in the first three braces.

Having such great grounds contributes greatly to having this prestigious event on their grounds. Also, thanks to all those who kept this event running smooth; Terry Gowin, Herb Rea, Matt Harris, Larry Hagedorn, Mike Lager and Steven Foster.

2017 Nebraska Brittany Championship

The 2017 running of the NEBRASKA BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP was held April 17-19, 2017 at the Branched Oak Field Trial Area near Raymond, Nebraska. The Nebraska Championship is hosted by the Nebraska Brittany Club and followed the regional club event held April 14-16.

There are some fine folks we need to mention for their contribution to the success of this Championship event. Claudia and Stan Truksa spend many hours planning this event for the Nebraska Brittany Club. Claudia is the event secretary along with dog wagon driver extraordinaire. Stan and Wesley Felt planted birds every morning and rode the event with Stan as the Marshall and Wesley as the Reporter. We thank these dedicated folks for their hard work in order to maintain a premier field event in the Brittany world.

The Branched Oak field trial ground has a large lodge used to gather for socializing and meals. The meals are prepared by the Wagner family. Thank you goes out to Karen and George and the family for their continued support of this event.

The sponsors for the Nebraska Brittany Championship are Nestle Purina and Sportdog. Nestle Purina gives both money toward the running of this event and Pro Plan products for the winners. Purina is fed to several dogs running in this event as testimony to the quality of feed used in the Pro Plan dog products. Jim Moorehouse from Sportdog provided a Sport Hunter 1825 training collar to the Runner-up Champion and the Champion received the Pro Hunter 2525 training collar. We thank these sponsors for their continued support.

The judges for this year's event were Tim Thaden from Nebraska and Pete Wilken from Kansas. These two judges were up to the task of three days of riding through cold and rainy weather to select the true all age competitors for this Championship.

Branched Oak trial grounds area provides ample space to show a true all age bird dog. The judges had several dogs to choose from with the all-age range, intensity on birds pointed, and the handling necessary to be named as the Champion and Runner-up Champion.

Thirty-four dogs went to the line for this Championship. The Champion named for the 2017 Nebraska Brittany Championship was GFC/AFC RU-JEM'S "LAST" PENNY owned by Ruth & Jerry McGee and handled by Tom Tracy. The Runner-up Champion was FC SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY owned by Charles & Mary Jill Schaefer and handled by Ed Tillson.

The third place was awarded to DC JUST CALL ME LUCKY NED PEPPER owned and handled by Frank Campbell. Fourth place was awarded to SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT owned by Rick Conner and handled by Scott Johnson.

We began the Championship on Monday with temperatures in the 50's. The grounds were in pretty good shape even though we had severe thunderstorms the prior weekend. On Tuesday, the weather at 8am brought severe thunder and lightning so starting was delayed until 9am. On Wednesday, we regained our 8am start time and finished the Championship.

The Championship:

Brace 1 JAGOUB'S BUZZ'N BAYOU- Tracy and STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA- Johnson. JAGOUB'S BUZZ'N BAYOU had two finds and finished the hour. STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA made several nice hunting casts however her last cast she picked-up a bird and was sent to the dog wagon.

Brace 2: FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE- TILSON and CASTAWAY WILSON- Tracy. Both dogs were not pleasing their handlers and were picked up before the hour.

Brace 3: JJ'S ALABASTER ANGEL (ANGIE)- Williams and TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG- Johnson. JJ'S ALABASTER ANGEL (ANGIE) began with a find at less than a minute into the brace. Her next find was not as successful as she self-released from point. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG had a mishap with a bird midway through the brace.

Brace 4: KJ'S DARLIN' DARCY- Windom and THE CRASH SCENE- Tracy. KJ'S DARLIN' DARCY was lost midway through the brace and handler asked for the tracker. THE CRASH SCENE hunted the hour with no bird contact.

Brace 5: TLM TALL TALE- Tracy and KINWASHKLY TEMPO- Tillson. TLM TALL TALE went on point and KINWASHKLY TEMPO failed to back. Then the handler flushed for TLM TALL TALE and he leaped forward to help and was picked-up.

Brace 6: SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT- Johnson and SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY- Tillson. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT found his bird early and showed an all age performance. Near the end of the hour he missed a pond and began to pace himself completing the hour. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as he was awarded fourth place. SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY had his first find near the fish camp. He had just finished a long edge run toward fish camp and we were all looking for him to show at the bottom. Scout called point near fish camp and we rode to a motionless point to flush. His second find was more of the same. He showed consistency in his range and finished the hour forward. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as he was named the Runner-Up Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship.

Brace 7: CAMPBELL'S RAZZ-MA-TAZZ- Campbell and CARPE DIEM- Johnson. CAMPBELL'S RAZZ-MA-TAZZ had a total of seven finds. He was forward and finished the hour. CARPE DIEM pointed midway through the hour, but at gun fire took too many steps to mark the bird and was sent to the dog wagon.

Brace 8: CEDAR VALLEY FLYBY- Tracy and MK'S MY LIL AMMO- Johnson. CEDAR VALLEY FLYBY had a bird early. He began to lose the front and the handler elected to pick him up before the hour. MK'S MY LIL AMMO had one good find and one not so good and was sent to the dog wagon.

Brace 9: DRIVING MISS DAISY II- Tracy and A TRACE OF BOURBON WITH DIAMONDS- Johnson. DRIVING MISS DAISY II had an early nonproductive and one successful find. She began to lose the front and the handler elected to pick her up before the hour. TRACE OF BOURBON WITH DIAMONDS was scratched from this event.

Brace 10: ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT- Tracy and JJ'S FEARLESS SAM- Gorrow. ROUSTABOUT'S FLAT OUT had three finds and a non-productive. The handler elected to pick up after his non-productive. JJ'S FEARLESS SAM was released, seen going to the corner, and after a reasonable time was considered lost.

Brace 11: CRESCENT CITY GIRL- Tilson and JUST CALL ME LUCKY NED PEPPER- Campbell. CRESCENT CITY GIRL had a real nice find and on the second point called the dog self-released and was placed in the dog wagon. JUST CALL ME LUCKY NED PEPPER was bird hunting from the beginning. All total for the brace he had six finds. He always had a forward and consistent run and finished the hour. This performance was enjoyed by the judges as he was awarded third place.

Brace 12: JJ'S DIABLO WITH RUSTY TEARS- Williams and GLADE RUN IRISH- Tracy. JJ'S DIABLO WITH RUSTY TEARS had three finds before he had trouble maintaining proper form on the fourth bird and was sent to the dog wagon. GLADE RUN IRISH had one find and then extended his hunting range to where he was considered lost after a reasonable amount of time.

Brace 13: MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO- Johnson and TEQUILA SCORCHER- Tillson. MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO had two finds early and then he put a bird up. TEQUILA SCORCHER had one find and finished the hour.

Brace 14: KINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD- Tracy and OCAJE- Gowin. KIINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD had three finds and finished the hour. OCAJE had a mishap with her first bird.

Brace 15: SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND- Johnson and GEORGIAS TEXAS TWO STEP- Tracy. SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND was scratched from this event. GEORGIAS TEXAS TWO STEP had two finds before his absence was considered too long and was ordered up.

Brace 16: KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY- Windom and RU-JEM'S "LAST" PENNY- Tracy. KJ'S IRISH WHIZKY was lost early. RU-JEM'S "LAST" PENNY ran at an all age range and continued to rim the horizon. She had four finds, the first within seven minutes and then about twenty minutes between second and third and five minutes before the hour she had her final point. At the final release, I turned around and saw a very pleased owner watching his little girl put on the finest performance this reporter has seen from her. Her performance was enjoyed by the judges and she was awarded the highest honor as Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship.

Brace 17: JJ'S LEVI THE LIONHEART- Williams and KASHMIR- Tracy. JJ'S LEVI THE LIONHEART had one find and finished the hour. KASHMIR was not pleasing his handler and was picked-up early.

Brace 18: SERENDIPITY'S TOP PRIORITY- Johnson and KOKOMO JOSIE JOE- Gorrow. SERENDIPITY'S TOP PRIORITY had problems with a bird early and was sent to the dog wagon. KOKOMO JOSIE JOE had a bird find early and then had issues with a non-productive and was picked up early. This concluded the running of the 2017 NEBRASKA BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP.

Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship

The two-day Western Brittany Shooting Dog Championship started at 8:30 AM on March 29. Weather conditions were extremely varied over the two days, changing from a cold rain with wind on Wednesday, to calm and partly sunny on Thursday. Temperatures never got above the low 50's which was perfect for running dogs. The championship is held on the Crooked River National Grasslands, managed by the US Forest Service, near Madras, Oregon. The picturesque setting on a clear day includes the snow-covered volcanoes of central Oregon as a background, with Mt. Jefferson, Mt. Hood, and the Three Sisters providing a dramatic and gorgeous background for dogs on point.

Our distinguished judges for the event were Meg Eden of Terrebone, Oregon, and Angela Schilleriff of Portland. Both are experienced, patient and kind-hearted judges with a lots of experience training, running, and watching bird dogs.

Generous support for the event came from Purina, and of course, the United States Forest Service, which for years has provided special use permits for field trials on the Grasslands.

Over the two days we ran 18 shooting dogs

-- including some of the best Brittany's in the western United States.

The Winners: Repeating as first place winner and Champion, was the bottom dog of the ninth brace, Staley's Orange Outlaw Mr. Cooper (Cooper), owned by Dan Campbell and handled by Jason Staley. Cooper was strongly forward the entire hour, and very strong to the finish. Cooper had one excellent find at 10 with exceptional manners on his bird and then a non-productive at 24.

The second-place dog and Runner Up, was the bottom dog of the second brace, Cedar Creek Hawkeye (Hank), owned and handled by Joe Waitman. Hank also ran a big race and had two finds and an exceptional long-range honor of his bracemate towards the end of his run. All of his birds were handled with style and experience. Hank showed his maturity and confidence with each bird.

Third place went to the top dog of the third brace, Janee's I'll Make Ya' Famous (Kid) owned by Layne Peterson and handled by Jason Staley. Kid had a strong forward race and two nice finds, which he handled with style and exceptional manners. Kid never slowed and stayed well to the front.

The fourth-place dog was the top dog of the second brace, MTB Zipnson Veni Vidi Vici (Vinny), owned by Haley Glick and David Roundtree and handled by Paul Doiron. Vinny had a fast and enthusiastic run with three exceptional finds, at 13, 18, and 46 and showed extreme intensity and style on each point. He had one late non-productive and a point on an expired chukar at about 21. He ran strong and fast and stayed well to the front.

FRUIT SALAD WITH LIMONCELLO

7 ounces Greek yogurt
1/3 cup good bottled lemon curd
1 tablespoon honey
1/4 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
2 cups sliced strawberries (1 pint)
1 cup raspberries (1/2 pint)
1 cup blueberries (1/2 pint)
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons limoncello liqueur
1 banana, sliced
Fresh mint springs

For the lemon yogurt topping, whisk together the yogurt, lemon curd, honey, and vanilla and set aside at room temperature.

For the fruit salad, carefully toss together the strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, sugar, and limoncello.

Allow them to stand at room temperature for about 5 minutes to let the berries macerate with the sugar and liqueur. Gently fold the banana into the mixture.

Serve bowls of fruit with a dollop of lemon yogurt on top. Top each with a sprig of fresh mint.

SUMMER BERRY ICEBOX CAKE

19 oz graham crackers
8 oz cream cheese, softened
2 (3.4 oz) packages Vanilla Instant Pudding
2-1/2 cups cold milk
12 oz Cool whip (or homemade whipped cream)
3 cups fresh strawberries, sliced
1-1/2 cups fresh blueberries
2 oz white chocolate chips

Beat cream cheese and dry pudding mixes in large bowl with mixer until blended.

Gradually beat in milk.

Gently stir in Cool Whip or homemade whipped cream, reserving 1/2 cup.

Spread a thin layer of cool whip in a 9x13 pan just to coat the bottom.

Layer 5 graham crackers across the center of the pan, then 2 more, breaking them as needed to fit around the top and bottom edges.

Spread a layer of pudding mixture over grahams and top with a layer of blueberries and sliced strawberries.

Place graham crackers on top of berries, then pudding mixture, then layer of berries again. Repeat the graham-pudding-berries layers 1 more time (3 times total) and you should reach the top of the pan.

Refrigerate for at least 4 hours or overnight until the graham crackers have softened completely.

When ready to serve, melt white chocolate chips in a bowl as directed on package and drizzle over dessert.
Serves 12-16

PINEAPPLE SOFT SERVE

4 cups frozen pineapple
1 frozen banana, halved
1/2 cup coconut milk, chilled
Fresh pineapple wedges, for garnish

Combine pineapple, banana, and coconut milk in a food processor or blender and pulse, scraping down sides with a rubber spatula, until smooth. Scoop into cups; garnish with a pineapple wedge.

Communication

Wouldn't it be great if our dogs could talk to us while we're training them? To know what they're thinking, and to have some sort of advance warning before they make a mistake would be wonderful. If they could only say, "Hey, I'm not sure what you want me to do. Can you explain it to me?" Or, "I want that bird so bad I'm going for it, even though I know I shouldn't."

Our dogs are communicating with us all the time, and it's a pretty simple language to learn. When they "talk" to each other, they do it by using movements and postures and facial expressions. And while there sometimes will be a vocal addition via a whine or growl or bark, the subtleties of body language are the mainstay of their communication. Think of it like a card game with your friends: A good poker player learns to read his opponent and figure out the little physical "tells" in order to win the hand. That's our goal with dogs: to learn all their "tells" so we can act accordingly. Trust us when we say that the dogs are reading ours all the time.

There are few pretty obvious signs a dog uses to convey his thoughts. The Big Three (ears, tail, and eyes) give us a non-stop flow of information. The tail is the most obvious. It tells us when a dog is happy (a fast wag, using everything from the tip of the tail to the whole back end of the dog); frightened or intimidated (tail tucked between his legs); intense and focuses (tail held rigidly out from the dog's body); tired (tail hanging down and minimal wagging); and tentative and uncertain (tail up partway and wagging slowly). The ears often combine with the tail position to give us additional information. Ears pricked forward and held as upright as possible (interest and intensity); ears folded back (confusion or uncertainty); ears hanging loosely and relaxed (everything's fine); and ears pulled tightly back and eyes squinted and partially closed (intimidated and/or frightened).

The eyes tell a story as well, and combine with the ears and tail. Wide open and focused on a particular spot signifies intensity and interest, while eyes looking away from us and half closed can mean the dog is either trying to ignore something or is thinking. In order to figure out which it is, we've got to look at the rest of the body language.

Eyes half closed and tail tucked between the legs is most often a sign that the dog is intimidated, or maybe overloaded with too much information. The same half-closed eyes combined with a tail that is partially up or just hanging relaxed can mean the dog is thinking and processing information. These signs are pretty obvious to most people, and the one sign that everybody recognizes is a dog trying to intimidate or planning to fight: body held rigidly, tail up and stiff, ears forward, intense eye contact, combined with a ridge of hair standing up along the back and shoulders.

Those are the big "words" in the dog's language. To really understand a dog, we need to look past those to the less obvious signs. In a training situation, how we react has to be dictated by what the dog is saying. We need to know if he is understanding the lesson being taught or if he's confused – and we need to anticipate a dog's reaction in order to either encourage him if it's the correct response, or make a correction if the wrong response is likely. The ears, tail, and eyes will give us part of this information, but we need to learn a few more words of "dog speak" to really get the whole picture.

One sign we need to watch closely for is acceptance. This can come in many forms and will vary depending on the amount of pressure a dog is feeling. A dog that accepts and submits to a cue from us will often lick his lips. This is a sign he's relaxed his jaws and mouth; just like humans, dogs tend to clench their mouths when in a tense or unsettling situation. Another sign that the dog is relaxing and submitting is a swallow, also showing that the dog has Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Is this pup solid...or ready to pounce?

stopped clenching his mouth. This is often followed by a lick of the lips but not always.

Also, it's important to watch the dog's breathing pattern. When going from an uncertain or nervous state to a calmer frame of mind, the dog will slow his breathing and sometimes give a sigh. When training or working with a dog, looking for these signs tells you whether or not the dog is accepting the situation.

One other mouth-related signal that's important to recognize but often doesn't require a response from us is a yawn. Dogs often yawn when they feel a need to resolve a conflict. In a training situation, that may mean the dog is resisting slightly or may be confused, and the yawn tells us a much. That doesn't mean we need to stop what we're doing, assuming the dog isn't showing any other signs of confusion; it simply means the dog is processing the mental conflict.

The whole body tells a story, too. We're all familiar with the classic puppy invitation to play: the "play bow," back end in the air, tail wagging a hundred miles an hour, while the front is lowered to the ground and the pup has an excited expression on his face. And the dog that got into the trash while we were out of the house will often tattle on himself by a slinking and submissive body posture, with the head down, tail-tucked, and the body slightly crouched.

Ever notice that your dog shakes his head and shoulders (like shaking-off water) when you're training? Even though there's nothing for the dog to shake off? This is the canine version of brushing off what you've just done, sort of "flipping you the paw." You give a cue, the dog responds, then shakes. If you have your dog on lead and he does this, try to stop it as he begins by giving a quick, sharp tug on the lead.

Movement of the body is especially critical in reading a pointing dog. The body language most easily recognized is birdiness in the field. When the dog initially scents a bird, his body signals that excitement by increasing the tempo of the tail wagging, the head comes up, and the dog moves more rapidly as he works out the scent. The end result upon locating the source of that scent is a dog freezing and going on point.

Once that happens, we need to read the body language and see if the dog is committed to holding that point or planning to break and chase the bird. We need to know what he's planning to do before he does it. Obviously, the feet can tell us if the dog is moving, but we need to know the dog's thoughts prior to the feet moving. How is this accomplished? By watching the shoulders and head. A dog that is standing still but thinking about moving will lower his shoulders slightly and may also lower his head. If we can predict the movement, we can be ready to make an appropriate correction if needed.

A tail that goes from rigid to slight wagging (also called "ticking") may mean the dog is thinking about moving or is uncertain, but we need to know why. Is the bird moving? Has the scent pattern changed due to wind? Is the dog going to bust the bird? Watch the shoulders and head; if they lower the dog is about to move. A dog that holds point with his body and head but ticks the tail sometimes means the scent cone has changed or the bird has moved. A ticking tail can also signify that the dog is feeling reassured, and the facial expression will tell you the difference.

Now that you know a little more about the way your dog is "talking" to you, also realize that we "talk" to them in the same manner, usually without realizing it.

Dogs are experts at reading our body language and responding to it. They watch our eyes, body, hands, feet, etc., because it's the language they're born knowing. How many times has your dog reacted to a cue a split second before you actually gave it? That says you're doing something via body language before actually giving the cue, and your dog has picked up on that signal, anticipating your cue. He reads the obvious stuff, like picking up the keys to the car means you're going somewhere; but he also reads the less obvious, like knowing if we're happy or sad or upset. Our body language tells on us. And the dogs read that when we're training them, too. It's a non-stop conversation that we don't even realize we're having.

There are a myriad of combinations of body language and signals our dogs use, and we've just touched the tip of the iceberg here. If you watch closely, you'll start to see the subtle ways your dog communicates, and you'll be a much better trainer and partner because of it.

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

The Oldest Reason

It was the last year Granddaddy went to the National Bird Dog Championship, the first and only time I went with him. He was sixty-nine, and I was twelve. He'd gone almost every year since he was twenty-five, gone as a scout, the best job in field trials, he always said. In case you don't know, a field-trial scout is something like a cavalry scout; he's the dog handler's helper in keeping up with his pointer or setter, running wide in search of quail, running before the horses that carry the human participants—handlers, scouts, judges, gallery (the spectators). By the rules, a scout can ride anywhere in search of his dog, as long as he stays behind the judges. Of course, the judges can judge only what they see. If the scout can get around a hill or in a low place, he rides in front of the judges too, if he needs to—whatever it takes to make his dog look good, look like it's hunting out in front on its own, hunting in the space they call the cone, an imaginary funnel with the handler at the bottom. Yes, a field-trial scout's a lot like a cavalry scout. He operates behind enemy lines when he rides up front; if he's seen by the judges in front, he's captured. But if he knows the territory and his dog—and Granddaddy always did—he's not seen in front, not captured.

I'd been around field trials all my life. They held one every year, just before Christmas, on the place where we lived, Mossy Swamp Plantation, down below Thomasville, Georgia, on the Florida line. That week the trucks and horse trailers would roll in past our house while I played by Grandma's bottle tree. They'd blow their horns and wave to me; I'd hear their horses stomp for balance as their trailers swayed through the mud holes, the rumble of their engines as they geared down to miss our chickens picking gravel in the road.

"Hey there, Willie, how you doin'?" they'd yell to me as they passed. Later, with Granddaddy up at the horse barn, they'd have hard candy in their pockets for me. Every day at noon they'd come to the clubhouse for the lunch Grandma and the other women of Mossy Swamp spent the morning fixing-soup and sandwiches and banana pudding. I'd sit by the fire coloring in my book while they worked in the clubhouse kitchen, listening to their laughter as they kidded one another about which of the visiting scouts had eyes for them.

If it wasn't too cold, I'd get to ride in the afternoon on top of the dog wagon with the wives of dog owners. More hard candy, chocolates wrapped in tinfoil. They'd take my picture for their scrapbooks, sometimes mail copies to Granddaddy.

My Granddaddy somehow sensed that would be his last year at the National Championship; that's why he took me along. Mr. Rawlings, who owned Mossy Swamp Plantation, would be dead before the next National Championship rolled around, and Mossy Swamp would be sold. Granddaddy would stay on and work for the new owner, training gun dogs and guiding hunting parties as always, but the new owner wouldn't care for fields trials, and the trial dogs would be sold.

I'll never forget that one trip with Granddaddy to the Ames Plantation in West Tennessee for the National Championship. We left Thomasville before daylight pulling six horses, Granddaddy and Sam Watson, Mr. Rawlings' dog handler, in the front seat of the crew cab, me and South Georgia Roamer, the pointer that was our entry, in the back seat. Granddaddy and Sam Watson took turns driving. I dozed a lot, but whenever I woke up, they were talking about their battle plan; they'd go over it again and again, what they would do at a particular place on the course depending on where Roamer was running when they reached it. Until then I had no idea so much planning went into a bird dog's race in a field trial. Or how much Sam Watson and Granddaddy and Mr. Rawlings wanted to win the National Championship with Roamer.

We got to the Ames Plantation just after dark. The kennel shed, lit by dusk-to-dawn pole lights, stood in the middle of a big graveled lot, trailers like ours parked all around. A log row of stables made of plywood and tar paper stood just beyond. Sam Watson and Granddaddy unloaded the horses and put them in stalls. Granddaddy led Roamer to his kennel run, after he'd checked to be sure no females in season were close by. Then Sam Watson put a combination lock on Roamer's kennel gate, and I got an uneasy feeling.

Granddaddy unhooked the trailer from the truck, and Sam drove off; Granddaddy and I would sleep by the kennel in the trailer; Sam would stay at the motel in Collierville.

Next morning I woke early, but Granddaddy was already up and gone.

“Gone morning, Willie, thought you was going to sleep all day,” he said when I found him feeding the horses. Other men were arriving by truck to look after their horses and dogs. Soon the familiar sounds of horses chomping and dogs barking filled the crisp dawn. It was like all the field trials I’d been to with Granddaddy, but somehow different too; there was electricity in the air. The same people I saw at Mossy Swamp each December were there, plus many others from all over the country. I walked among the trailers and trucks, looking at the license tags: Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Virginia, North Carolina, Idaho, California, Nevada—even one from Saskatchewan. They all knew Granddaddy, came up to shake his hand, inquire of his health. Then I overheard someone say he’d scouted more National Champions than anyone except his old friend Man Rand, and it made me proud.

That was Saturday. In the afternoon, Granddaddy took me to see the Ames manor house and Mr. Ames’ big brick barn with fifty horse stalls. That evening, we went to Bryan Hall for the drawing. All the field-trial people were there, packed in like sardines. Mr. Rawlings too, bragging on Roamer.

The secretary, Doctor Anderson, who managed the Ames Plantation, introduced the judges, club officers, a couple of congressmen, the dog-food people who were adding money to the purse. The drawing, once it started, went quickly; Roamer drew the last brace, to be run a week from Wednesday. That upset Granddaddy—he didn’t want to stay away from home that long—but there was no way around it. Mr. Rawlings would ride every day, and Granddaddy would have to stay and look after his mounts. I was due back in school, but Granddaddy had promised I could stay and see Roamer run.

That week and a half at the Ames Plantation was more education for me than a year of school. Granddaddy didn’t give me formal lessons, but watching him with people was a graduate course. He gave them all respect, even the ones who didn’t deserve it; he got respect in return.

Granddaddy and I roamed Roamer every day to keep him in shape, and then we’d ride a brace of the trial, sometimes the morning one, sometimes the afternoon. Mr. Rawlings rode all the braces, which seemed strange since he seldom rode at Mossy Swamp, except when one of his own dogs was down. A pretty woman I didn’t know rode beside him. I asked Sam Watson who she was; he laughed and said a cousin.

Finally, the day before Roamer’s day to run arrived. Even Granddaddy seemed nervous. For supper he took me to the Junction Inn for hamburgers. The waitress brought a plate of French fries we hadn’t ordered; on the house, she said, and good luck to Roamer.

I’d gotten used to sleeping in the trailer, but that night with my belly too full it took me what seemed forever to doze off. Then I woke suddenly with my stomach churning. I heard an engine idling just outside. Through the little window beside my cot, I saw a familiar car, then a familiar person get out on the driver’s side, walk quickly to Roamer’s kennel run, return to the car and drive away. It didn’t last thirty seconds. I started to wake Granddaddy and tell him what I’d seen, but he was sleeping soundly, and I decided not to bother him. In minutes

I was sleeping again, dreaming wildly of Granddaddy and me tearing through the wood on horseback after Roamer.

Next thing I knew Granddaddy was shaking me awake. Even groggy with sleep and in the faint light of dawn, I could see in his face something was terribly wrong.

“Did you see or hear anybody come around here after I went to sleep last night?” he asked. I told him what I’d seen.

He looked at me with a sadness I’ll never forget and said, “Don’t tell that to anybody else.”

Roamer was dead in his run, poisoned. Antifreeze, the autopsy showed. Injected in a hot dog.

Word spread around the Ames Plantation and through the field-trial world like wildfire. Every handler, scout, and owner with a dog in contention came under suspicion. Then everyone who’d ever had a falling out with Sam Watson or Mr. Rawlings, or lost at a trial at Mossy Swamp when he thought his dog should have won. That made a suspect out of just about everybody in the field-trial game.

Roamer’s death left Mr. Rawlings broken hearted. He and Granddaddy had developed Roamer from a puppy; he loved that dog more than all the others. Sam Watson was sad about it too. But granddaddy and I shared an even worse feeling.

The following spring, when I helped Granddaddy work puppies, just the two of us on a Saturday morning, I asked, “Why do you think she did it, Granddaddy?”

He was silent a long time, then he said, “For the oldest reason there is, Willie.”

“What reason is that, Granddaddy?”

“Revenge for what?”

“When you’re a little older, you’ll know. For now, be glad you don’t.”

We never talked about Roamer’s terrible death again. Our secret went with granddaddy to the grave (he died last fall).

Now everybody who know the truth about Roamer’s death is in the grave, except me. Mrs. Rawlings died last week, was buried Saturday under the live oaks in the Episcopal Church graveyard in Thomasville beside Mr. Rawlings.

Roamer is buried on Mossy Swamp Plantation, and Granddaddy is too, in the same piece of ground as his daddy and his granddaddy, who came to Mossy Swamp to clear the land for cotton, came in leg irons off a boat that docked in Savannah in 1802. I want to be buried there beside Granddaddy someday, but no time soon.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

The American Brittany Club, Inc. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club and will entitle you to the monthly magazine, The American Brittany. Associate Membership is available if person is a Full member of a Regional Club or immediate family member of a Full member. Full Membership cost is $50.00 per year and $5.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.
