The American Brittany

VOLUME LXX • NUMBER 12 • DECEMBER 2018

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Region 19 AAA Brittany Championship

Harms Cattle Company

Valentine, Nebraska

Kent D. Patterson

The generosity of the Harms family allowed the return of the Region 19 AAA Brittany Championship to the Harms Cattle Ranch. The amateur brittany community is starting to make this a "destination" championship attracting 34 entries last year ... the number jumped to 48 in 2018. In two short years it has become the largest brittany amateur all age championship outside of the Nationals. The spacious venue is a blend of meadows and Sandhills providing a challenging and scenic landscape by which to show a dog. The 10,000-acre property provides three 1-hour courses over 26 miles of the Harms Cattle Co. and Churchill ranch with wild birds pointed, ridden-up, or seen on most every brace.

With a venue of this magnitude, having dogs available for successive braces is a challenge. It requires someone who knows the country, courses, gates, and equipment to safely transport humans and canines. John Harms is the master of ceremonies and Tehrani Motors of Valentine Nebraska provided two crew cab Polaris UTV's that allowed flawless execution of this important task. One Polaris pulls a spacious dog wagon on a truck frame that once belonged to John Rabidou. The other crew cab unit allows owners or spectators to ride along and watch the action along with the between brace coffee and snacks. Purina continues to be an excellent partner in support of the American Brittany. Their food and merchandise are always welcome gifts to those that work hard to put competitive dogs on the ground. Sport Dog provided the Champion with a training collar. Cosequin provided gift packages to Champion and Runner-up.

This championship could not have been conducted without the significant effort of Tom Tracy Jr. His hard work in setting up the courses, planting birds, and marshalling was a herculean task that allowed amateurs from across the country to enjoy one of the most spectacular venues available to the brittany community. Steve Ralph, representing the sponsoring St. Croix Valley Brittany Club, handled all the field trial secretary work. His wife Lori made sure all meals were delicious and well attended.

Art Cohen of Glenn Rock, Pa and Steve Chang of Highlands Ranch,

CO were in saddle to look over the field of 48 dogs. Both gentlemen are intimately familiar with the sport having trained and owned notable champions over the years. They set a consistent pace by which handlers could show their dogs and were positive in their judgement of the field.

The champion was found in 6-year-old male, Piney Run Jake, owned and handled by Kent Patterson of Franklin TN, scouted by Tom Milam of Elm Mott Tx. He was released on Course 1 west of camp and immediately went to work taking the long edges along the creek toward the hills. He was pointed out at the far end as the gallery rode along the bull pasture fence. He was credited with a stop to flush at 20 and at 28 as birds were "jumpy" in the early morning chill. Jake was standing with style at 39 near a meadow gate. A sharptail was flushed and sailed east. He was watered at the culvert crossing and shot south making the entire swing to the section fence a quarter mile away where he bent east into the moderate hills and found standing high on both ends on a pheasant, all manners in order. Back out into the baler meadow he pinned another pheasant caught hiding in cover along a fence line at 49. He cruised the edges of the meadow marsh over the last quarter of the hour with a strong 12 o'clock, going away finish in the hills.

Runner-Up Champion was Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy handled by Steve Ralph, scouted by Stan Williamson for owner Barry Koepke who was in the gallery watching his charge. Gypsy is no stranger to the ribbons having won the National Championship in 2013 and the U.S. Open earlier this spring. Her hour started well and forward over the first quarter with a find at 20 in the hills. She continued her pleasing application over the second half and was standing in a mowed depression at the base of the hills with Steve pushing a pheasant out of tall cover to the south. She was powering through the hills on an extended move over a fence line to the south at time.

3rd Place: Maxwell's QuickSilver (Chick) is owned and handled by Joey Rogers, an energetic young man that has a bright future in the sport. Chick started at a moderate pace but built over the hour as Joey handled her kindly through the hills with a mannerly stop to flush at 22. She was carrying the long fence lines of cover as we moved south of camp and standing at 45 with Joey flushing a nice covey of quail. She finished with flair along the meadow lines west of camp to end a pleasing hour.

4th Place: Driving Miss Daisy, owned and handled by Burton Wice of St Louis, MO. Daisy was a pleasure to watch as she probed the country in logical fashion. She was credited with mannerly chicken find in the hills leading back toward Ballard's Marsh. She backed stylishly at 45 and continued a forward smooth application over the remainder of the hour.

The Running:

Brace 1: Chiefs Cross Plains Copper Breeze – Craig Rucker and JJ's Alabaster Angel – Joe Williams. Dogs were away west of the main ranch under broken cloud skies. Both dogs moved well over the meadow to the hills where Angel had a mannerly find. She was handful over the next half hour with Joe electing to pick up at 40. Copper was standing at 20 on a well-located group of pheasants. He moved nicely over the remainder of the hour executing a mannerly stop to flush at 52.

Brace 2: Kokomo Josie Joe – Kent Patterson and Campbell's Razz–Ma–Tazz – Frank Campbell. Josie and Razz were away at the meadow gate with Josie on point in less than 60 seconds along fence line cover. An extended flush and relocation didn't produce anything. He began to reach over the next 15 minutes to the south and seen at the far end of the marsh. Kent had no luck pulling him out by 39. Razz was moving along and through logical cover over the first half of the hour until finding a large patch of sand burs that diminished his range. Frank elected to pick him up at 30.

Brace 3: Maxwell's Quick Silver – Joey Rogers and Driving Miss Daisy – Burton Wice. See above

Brace 4: Tequila Scorch – Bob Rankin and Jagoub's Spell Caster – Tom Jagielski. Lincoln and Taboo were shoulder to shoulder as we left for the afternoon braces. Lincoln's opportunity ended early for interfering with his brace mate. Taboo had a nice find at the edge of the hills at 10 with all manners in order. As the gallery rode through the scenic hills near Alkali Lake, they rode up a bird that flew low and over her and she went with it to end her bid.

Brace 5: High Point Blazin Noon – Trey Baer and A Trace of Bourbon with Diamonds – Rick Hastings. Cooper and Trace were a handful on this day with handlers and scouts working hard to get the show lined out. By the time the party reached 44, both were on a rope.

Brace 6: Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou – Tom Jagielski and Maxwell's Prickly Pete – Joey Rogers. Skeeter had a picturesque chicken find at 15 along a fence line and was rolling through the hills with eye catching appeal. He suffered 2 non-productives over the next 30 minutes to end his bid. Pete was blistering the hills suffering a non-productive at 15. He was out of pocket for some time in the second half of the hour near the marsh but Joey pulled him out for a nice finish.

Brace 7: Piney Run Jake – Kent Patterson and High Hopes Jac's Original Spice – Ron Gulembo. Jake's hour is recounted above Spice aka "the rocket" was coming off a nice showing at the Chicken Championship. She was forward and moving well in the meadows along the creek as the party headed west. She went under the fence and headed north but was recovered near the hay stacker as the ascent in the hills begins. She went further west and came down to the truck meadow and sprinted across into the short hills. At 35, she was standing pheasants that were getting up one at a time all around her. She maintained excellent composure. Her last quarter was spent in the hills to the north with a nice finish near the big hills gate.

Brace 8: JJ's Diablo with Rusty Tears – Joe Williams and Ru-Jem's "Last" Penny – Steve Ralph. Rusty didn't look to be her normal self on this day and Joe elected to pick up at 20. Penny pinned a pheasant at 12 along a fence line in the meadow that required Steve to cross the fence and wade in knee high grass. She stood a group of chickens at 42 in the hills and was handy as we dropped back down into the valley near camp. She finished back in the moderate hills just south of camp.

Brace 9: Shot of Whizki – Kent Patterson and MK's My Little Ammo – Nick Blasi. Whizki and BB were released at the gate near Ballard's Marsh both were at moderate range early. BB was working the south fence line as the party was headed west when a pheasant lifted, and she went with it. Whizki got in a patch of sand burs that was limiting his ground race with Kent electing to pick up at 20.

Brace 10: Wichita Wild Woman – Nick Blasi and Georgia White Lightening – Travis Tangen. Niki was eye appealing over the early portions of the hour, but the heat was building, and it began to take a toll as Nick elected to pick up at 45. George was handling well for Travis through the hills and out into the meadow. As we crossed the creek and turned north, George was working a shelf of cover when a pheasant left, and he wanted a closer look.

Brace 11: Lost Creek A Shot Of Bourbon – Susan Januska and SS Rig's Colorado Run Runner – Tom Milam. It was now 93 degrees and hot as Rigs and Streak were released. Both were forward and probing the country in a pleasing manner. Streak was standing at 25 as we crossed at the windmill gate. Sue had an extended flush and relocation that didn't produce any game, but birds had been pointed in that area on earlier braces. Rigs made a swing down along the south edge of the course as we had both dogs into the big hills where the heat began to take a toll on both dogs. Tom elected to pick up at 40, Streak made the hour.

Brace 12: Arrow's Tequila Rustler – Richard Beaver and Ace's One Eyed Jack – Ed Janulis. Rusty and Jack were away from the Ballard Marsh gate with Jack heading north toward the Marsh. It would be the last we would see of him. Rusty was up front as the party rode west but at limited range with Richard electing to pick up at 20.

Brace 13: Sniksoh Evolution – Jeff Hoskins and Maggie's Blind Heat – Jack Alexander. Eve and Jewel were eye catching probing both sides of the west bound course toward the hay stacker. Eve had to be pulled out of the cover along the creek at 10, her independence continued with Jeff reaching for the rope at 15. Jewel is a young dog that has a lot of potential. On this morning, she made a few too many juvenile moves with Jack collaring her at 20.

Brace 14: Kashmir – Bob Rankin and Brendi Brook's Cowboy Up – Ray Trimble. Two brittany stalwarts, Bob and Ray released their dogs to the south with both making showy cast through the west hills. They dropped down into the scenic truck meadow where they were watered. Both were side by side as they shot into the east boundary hills. The judges came over the rise to see both in hot pursuit of a pheasant for an early end to the hour.

Brace 15: Sniksoh Spank's Hank – Jeff Hoskins and Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy – Steve Ralph. Gypsy's hour was detailed earlier. Hank is a handsome dog with an eye-catching gait. He had barely gotten up to speed before pointing at 4 with a nice pheasant find. He was handling kindly for Jeff over the entire hour with probing casts suffering non-productives at 44 and at time.

Brace 16: Molly Mae Alexander – Jack Alexander and Rammer Jammer Jax – Trey Baer. Both dogs were a joy to watch over the early portions of the hour. Molly failed to back Jax at 20 and was up. Jax was credited with 2 stop to flush as we moved toward the big hills near Hwy 83. He was standing at 55 with Trey relocating him several times with no game produced to end the hour.

Brace 17: Tejano Bob – Tom Milam and Lambach's Blew By You – Joey Rogers. Bob and Blue were busy in the hills that lead toward Ballard's Marsh. They worked hard to please their handlers with point called for Blue at 21. He was standing with class and style but Joey couldn't produce a bird as the party continued north. Bob wasn't pleasing Tom and got the rope at 40. Blue was credited with a quail and pheasant find at 32 and 35 in thick cover on the north side of the slough. He finished with Joey at the Ballard's Marsh gate.

Brace 18: Firestarter's Crossed the Line – Bob Rankin and JJ's Levi The Lion Heart. Tye and Levi had their sneakers on over the early portions of the hour with Tye scoring at 15 on a pheasant. Levi was making showy moves along the meadow fence lines as the course turns west near camp with a picturesque sharptail find at 20. He had the judge's attention over the next 20 minutes, but a pheasant got up in his face causing him to sit back to end his bid. Tye suffered a non-productive at 54 but finished nicely.

Brace 19: Just Call Me Lucky Ned Pepper – Frank Campbell and Blazin E–Z Mac – Steve Ralph. Ned was suffering from sore pads with Frank electing to reach for the rope at 20. Mac is a nice young dog that Steve has coming along. On this day, his immaturity got him the hook at 30.

Brace 20: Alleycat's Drought – Stan Williamson and Alar's Dirty Dancer – Kent Patterson. Drought and Dani were away just out of the west hills with both make a showy cast south along a marsh and bending back to their handlers. Drought made it back to Stan and crossed over the culvert with Dani deciding to dive into the marsh cover. It took some time before she came out but regained the front and was making big moves through the east hills as was Drought. As we dropped down at the windmill gate, a bird was seen in the air and Dani moving. Drought had a non-productive in the area where Dani's bird had lifted with Stan deciding to pick him up at 40.

Brace 21: MK's Magnificent Bandito – Dave Lincoln and Castaway Wilson – Tim Huglen. Chico and Wilson were lighting up course 3. Each was independent and flashy. Chico's independence grew over the hour and was lost at time. Wilson was handling well for Tim with a stop to flush at 45 where he released himself to end his bid.

Brace 22: CVK's Spartan King – Jack Alexander and Glade Run Irish – Tom Milam. Leo and Irish were away at 1:30 under bright blue skies and cool temps. Both are predominantly white dogs that were easy to see in the green meadows that lead toward the west hills. Leo kept wanting to go north with Jack doing a good job of pulling back to the course. As we reached the hills, Irish was working a side hill when a rooster lifted and he didn't hit the brakes quick enough. Leo had continued his desire to go north and it took Jack a while to get him back to the course. Once back he continued to be a handful with Jack collaring him at 50.

Brace 23: Carpe Diem – Dave Lincoln and Stan – Brett Lindback. Carpe and Stan were challenging their handlers and scouts over the early portions of the hour as we crossed the baler meadow. Stan was seen going into the hills and a bird came out over the gallery as the gallery began the ascent into the big hills. Both dogs were rolling through the hills as we headed toward Ballard's Marsh. Brett elected to pickup near the windmill gate. Carpe had a nice hour on the ground but no bird work to his credit.

Brace 24: JWB Artic Cat – Jack Alexander and Kinwashkly Tempo – Bob Rankin. Kimber and Tempo were smooth and forward over the early portions of the hour. Tempo scored at 5 with Bob flushing pheasants to the east. She had a non-productive at 10 and then went missing for a bit with Bob electing to reach for the rope at 35. Kimber was taking in some country and it began to take a toll with Jack electing to pick her up at 52.

INTRODUCTION TO THE BRITTANY - GETTING STARTED

By Martha H. Greenlee and David A. Webb

Picking A Pup & Getting Started

A Brittany pup that is eight to ten weeks old is about the right age to bring home. The possibility of developing a gun dog for hunting, field trials, the show ring or simply as a great companion are usually much better when you make the pup a part of your family. A kennel-raised pup with little human contact does not develop into a “well mannered” gun dog for which the Brittany has become so well known.

That does not mean that the pup must live in your home, but it does mean that as his new guardian, you must spend as much time as possible with pup. You will become the central figure in his life. You are replacing his mother and littermates. You will become his best buddy. You feed him; provide him with a place to sleep; you take him for walks and give him “happy times”. You are going to develop a relationship or bond with this Brittany that will last his or her lifetime.

When selecting a pup keep “in mind” that the gundog breeds including the Brittany will be going afield in pursuit of upland game birds. As the new owner of a pup, you need to consider that serious hunting and competition either in the show ring or at field trials should wait until pup has started to mature. This could vary from twelve to eighteen months. Puppies need to be puppies and have fun. When you push too hard with strict discipline too early, it can have adverse effects on the dog’s desire to hunt, run in trials and perform in the show ring.

Choose from a breeder carefully and take note of the bloodlines. When selecting a pup look to the parents and grandparents of the litter. With the hunting prospect it is important to see the dam and sire of the litter and observe their manner in the field hunting and pointing upland birds. It should be noted as to how these Brittanys perform. How do they range; would either of them be the hunting partner you would want to take to the woods and spend an afternoon gunning over them? As the new owner of a pup from these parents, you are looking for the dog to be biddable along with retrieving birds. Will they “hunt-dead” and/or will the Britts retrieve the birds to hand?

With the potential field trial prospect, it is recommended you look more closely at the parents and grandparents. Have they participated in trials? And of most importance do they have winning records? Do they have the temperament and stamina to run hour-long stakes?

Above all else when you bring pup home, promise yourself that you will spend time with pup, most every day of the week. Short 15 to 20 minute sessions – walking in the woods, using pup’s name and having him come-in when called. Remember you have a certain amount of responsibility to guide this Brittany through the early months and years of training.

There are three considerations that should be taken in account when raising a pup that you want to become a well-manner adult:

- Select a pup from a reputable breeder
- Socialization
- Crate training

Note articles will appear concerning the later two subjects in the next several issues of the magazine.

To keep pup healthy, find a good veterinarian and keep him up to date on vaccinations and preventative medications like heartworm. Talk to your vet about any problems pup is having, either physical or behavioral.

Remember puppies are forever forgiving when during their early growing stages you make it fun and make them your best buddy. Don’t over react and expect perfection. Too much training can be counter-productive. Allow your pup the freedom to enjoy many different experiences; with a certain degree of education for him to develop into a well-mannered matured adult birddog.

In addition, remember that pup thinks you are wonderful. He learns his name and easily comes to you. He has a strong desire to please. (Note he won’t always be small and eager to please). Let the pup be a pup. Have fun with him for he will be grown before you know it.

Versatile Brittanys in Action

How to Introduce Your Dog to Jumping

Jumping is the most used piece of agility equipment, and is incorporated in various dogsports, including obedience and rally. Many scent detection dogs use jumping for cross training, and it helps teach body awareness and improve balance, thereby limiting injury.

You can purchase metal or PVC jumps, or make one using materials you already have at home. For example, some of my students have trained dogs to jump using a broom handle on top of 2 crunched up empty soft drink cans. A hula hoop is a handy substitute for a tire jump.

The height of the jump is measured from the ground to the top of the jump bar (see photo). Start by placing the jump bar right on the ground. Puppies should not jump more than the height of their pasterns, since their bones are still developing.

Starting at a low jump height is crucial, because you want to set your dog up for success and minimize the chance that he'll knock the jump bar off. (If your dog jumps enthusiastically but knocks the bar, you'd have to decide whether to reward the effort even though the jump was executed poorly.)

Ideally, jumping should occur on a soft surface to cushion the impact from landing jumps. Grass or rubberized sports flooring is optimal. But you can start training jumping indoors in a 10x10 ft room.

Try covering your floor with interlocking foam mats from the hardware store (like those used in preschools).

Forward focus is important. The dog should NOT be looking at you while jumping. Begin with a reward that your dog loves. Try putting a piece of his favorite food on a "target plate" (like the top of a used yogurt container), then tapping it while you encourage saying "get it". The target gives an obvious visible cue that helps to prevent the dog from sniffing around for food. Repeat several times. Soon your dog should be looking at the target waiting for the next piece of food to appear.

The next step is to put food on the target plate while holding your dog's collar to prevent him from grabbing it. If he loses focus, tap the target plate to get his attention focused there. When you release his collar, encourage him to grab the food on the target, saying "get it".

The last step is to add a very low jump between the loaded target and your dog. Hold your dog back until he's looking at the jump, then let him go.

Consider placing the jump at the end of a hallway. That small space limits the options, making it difficult to fail by running around the side of the jump, instead of going over it. If you have a dog that runs around the jump to steal food from the target, ask a friend to assist by loading the target and preventing stealing.

If this method doesn't work for you, there are many alternatives, so don't be discouraged. For example, run beside him and jump over the jump together. Or try throwing a ball over the jump so your toy motivated dog will follow it over the jump. Once he grabs his ball, call him back to you like a recall over the jump.

Once your dog is jumping well, then it's time to name the behavior e.g. hup, jump or over. With practice, your dog should become more proficient and you can gradually raise the bar an inch or 2 at a time, while building confidence. Healthy adult dogs can work up to jumping the height of their withers.

Always keep your sessions short and quit when your dog wants more. Jumping should be fun!

ENJOY YOUR DOG

More Action Per Acre

From the excitement of local field trial competition to the satisfaction of competing in and winning national upland game hunting events, NSTRA members really enjoy their dogs. So can you. No matter what pointing breed you own, if your dog can locate and point birds, you can be successful in NSTRA's fairly conducted field trials which reward both quality and quantity in the upland gamebird field trial competition.

With NSTRA you can:

- Earn championship points and obtain championship status
- Compete in regional field trials, NSTRA National Championship Trials, Dog of the Year and the Top Performance award competitions

SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND

Flaherty Field

East Windsor, CT

October 5–7, 2018

We held our fall trial at New England's premier field trial grounds, Flaherty Field, following the New England Brittany Championship. We had a strong entry and were supported by pro trainers Ben Lorenson, Sarah Conyngham and Mike Roderka. Competitors traveled from Maine to Virginia, Pennsylvania to Rhode Island. Our club has a strong and dedicated support core. Folks who commit to three and more days of competing, judging, marshaling, bird planting, cooking and volunteering wherever needed. We are especially appreciative of the support given by Purina to this event. We offered nine stakes and brought 128 dogs to the line. The placements were well received. The judges were able to give every dog careful attention. Thank you all who were part of this successful event. We look forward to seeing you in the spring.

IDAHO
Marsing, ID
September 22–23, 2018

We held our fall trial on September 22–23 at Mile Post 9, Hwy 95 in Marsing, ID. It's been three years since the fire that took out a lot of the cover but it is making a slow but sure come back. The weather was great, wind as usual be we had crisp mornings and warm sunny afternoons. We would like to thank all of the judges for their long hours they spend in the saddle. All club members that volunteered time by helping pull trailers to and from the grounds, Tom, Bob, Ron, Steve, Larry; bagging birds, Sandy and John; meals, Ron; water trailer detail, Larry and Ron; bird planters, Steve, Larry, Greg, Brian and Jeff; CB, Lacie and Sharon. Thank you for all of your help, without it we couldn't run a successful trial. Hopefully I didn't miss listing anybody that worked during our trial. If I did, Thank You also!

We heard from our judges that there were some very nice runs early during stakes setting the bar high to be able to win the stakes and that there were several dogs to select from. Pending AKC approval, SR's Blew By Typhoon finished his FC by winning the Amateur All Age Stake. Congratulations! Til the spring Happy Trialing.

HUNT TESTS

LASALLE

Des Plaines Conservation Area
Joliet, IL
September 22–23, 2018

The LaSalle Brittany Club held their Fall Hunting Tests on Saturday, September 22 and Sunday, September 23, 2018 at Des Plaines Wildlife Conservation Area, Joliet, Illinois.

We had cool, cloudy weather on Saturday morning, starting off in the mid 60s but warming up to the 70s. Saturday's running was completed. Sunday was a bit warmer getting higher up in the 70s. We had a great turn out holding the dual test with Ft. Dearborn GSP Club.

The following dogs received qualifying scores:

September 22, 2018

Junior Hunter (10S)

J: Ted Selnas & Joe Delaney

MARSPORT TENACIOUS TEAKI, o John Marsman & Brad Williams

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

The Condition

A Novella

(For Ed Mack FARRIER and Little Eva)
Part 4

In the second trial, Bobby entered Bess in the All-Age Stake and the Dominion Championship, to be run in that order.

In the All-Age, Albert won first with his best dog, the pointer Winnipeg Jake; Bobby found the old warrior on point three times. Bobby was annoyed when Albert shoved ten percent of the purse in his pocket, the scout's usual share. It didn't make up for the fact that Albert, scouting for Bess, had overridden her on point in the brace that followed Jake's. Afterward, the other handlers kidded Albert unmercifully, accusing him of cheating his help. Albert did not see the humor. Bobby believed Albert had in fact seen Bess, but left her pointing. The small measure of good will that had crept into his feelings for his father's old friend was snuffed out for the time being.

When the Championship began, Bobby was pumped. He had seen all the competition run and was sure Bess could beat them. But it was not to be. When he led her out for her breakaway in the first brace, he was met by a chorus of laughs.

"What's so funny," he blurted.

"Your bitch is in heat, son," drawled the tallest man at the trial, and the only one with a reputation rivaling Albert's for being close to a dollar, Chesley Harris.

The bracemate, a male setter, was straining on his lead to get at her. Bobby was heartbroken. Albert simply said, "Don't worry 'bout it. You'll have other chances. She's in heat six weeks a year; them male dogs is in heat year 'round."

They stayed two more weeks at the Forget camp, the days cooler, Bobby's work more strenuous with Willie gone. "This is the time we get something done," Albert said. The chickens were matured now, harder for the dogs to handle-but not for Bess. Even Albert appreciated her now.

Then it was time to depart. They would express the dogs back to Alabama, or to their owners in the States, then drive the old Model T the 2,000 miles to Union Springs. Bobby refused to express Bess, insisting she ride with them in the car. Albert at first said no, then relented.

"Why are you driving south this year, Albert? Don't you always leave the car up here?" Bobby asked.

"'Cause I'm not coming back next year. I'm retiring," Albert replied.

Bobby didn't believe it. The old man loved the game too much, still moved quicker than most of the young pros. Something else must be behind his fool plan to drive the ten-year-old car, a 1919 model, back to Alabama.

They headed south on September 15, after turning the horses over to the wheat farmers.

They had an old "Bluebook" map as their only guide-it too was ten years old, used by Albert on his trip up with the car. They would follow the KT signs south to Kansas City. (KT stood for the King of Trails, the road between Winnipeg and Kansas City, and below that to Dallas.)

The only service the old car had received since its drive north was an occasional change of oil and glow plugs. The transmission bands were weak, and the inner tubes had been patched so many times they had patches on patches. In the first town they reached with a Ford dealer, Bobby offered to pay for an overhaul and a new set of tires, and Albert accepted. To save money, Albert insisted they sleep nights in a tent and cook their meals on a campfire. He'd bought a case of Dinty Moore stew at Gainsboro.

Near the North Dakota-South Dakota line, a blizzard hit. One moment the sky turned from blue to dark, and then they were in a whiteout. They shivered in the back seat of the car, wrapping themselves in all their clothes, blankets, and rubber sheets Albert had brought home from France after the World War. At dawn, the sky cleared and the sun blinded them; the Ford was buried in a drift. When Bobby rolled up the eisenglass curtain, Bess jumped out and took off, kicking up snow behind her. In an hour she returned, followed by a rancher in a one-horse sleigh. The sound of its bells was the sweetest noise Bobby had ever heard.

They warmed themselves at the rancher's pot-bellied stove, glowing red from the combustion of cottonwood chunks. The rancher's wife fed them bacon and buckwheat cakes, washed down with strong boiled coffee, the best breakfast Bobby could remember.

"She came to the back door and barked, wouldn't come in. I figured somebody had to be stranded on the road," the rancher said. Bess lay quietly behind the wood box with the rancher's stock dog, a grizzled old Border collie.

The next day the snow melted. "We generally get one that melts before the sticker, but even the stickers mostly get blown east in a couple of days," the rancher said. The thawed road of prairie gumbo made the going tough for the Model T. They backed up the occasional hill they encountered.

It took ten days to make Kansas City, although Albert had estimated the entire trip to Alabama at two weeks. Bobby found a stockbroker's office, went in to check the ticker tape. His investments had not gone up at all since his last reading of the newspapers in Gainsboro. In fact, some of his holdings had lost value. He began to have an uneasy feeling. He wired Hodding Rodder to sell twenty percent of each of the estate's stock positions and invest the proceeds in Treasury bills.

From Kansas City, they drove east to Evansville, Indiana, then due south through Kentucky and Tennessee. Bobby now insisted they stay in hotels, but he had to pay the room charges himself. Albert professed a willingness to sleep in the car or a tent, but he always picked the best bed. Bobby had to sneak Bess up a back stairway when a lobby sign read "No dogs allowed." The made an odd pair standing at the check-in desk, the rumped old man in knee-high boots and sweat stained felt hat, the younger man in khakis and a tennis sweater.

They made Union Springs on October 5, twenty days after their departure. Willie had the kennels spic-and-span, the horses rounded into shape from roading the trial-dog string. (It was still too warm in Alabama to turn the dogs loose to hunt.)

"We've got to pick our trials for the season," Albert said, turning to the fixtures column of the latest Field. "Let's see..." With his reading glasses on the tip of his nose, he read down the list, his eyes guided by his index finger.

"We could make the Illinois All-Age, starts October 22."

"Where?" Bobby asked.

"At Springfield, Illinois."

"My word, that's 600 miles from here."

"Relax...we'll go by train. You like to ride trains, as I recall. Get yourself a Pullman berth this time. Willie will stay here and look after the kennel."

"Well, I'm thankful for that," Bobby said with relief.

Bobby was anxious to work Bess from horseback, but Albert said no on account of the heat and the rattlesnakes. Finally, just a week before their departure for Springfield, Albert consented to working the string from horseback. The country Albert chose looked like prairie, but with tree lines on the edges of big pasture fields. This was the black-belt prairie, cattle country now that the boll weevil had spoiled it.

Bess adapted at once, but her first find nearly caused Bobby a heart attack. Her quarry proved to be a big turkey gobbler that rose from the brush with the roar of an airplane. Soon she was finding quail and handling them with the same composure she'd shown on chickens.

"Notice she always stands them exactly ten feet from where they sit, no catwalking or fussing. That's good," Albert said. The old man had become a believer in Bess, just as Bobby and Willie had in Canada.

Bobby was checking the stock-market quotes daily now. Prices were not going up as they had all summer. Bobby wired Hodding Rodder to sell the rest of the stocks in his father's estate and invest the proceeds in Treasuries.

Albert and Bobby and the six trial dogs, including Bess, were driven by Willie to Montgomery to catch the train to Illinois. The dogs in their crates were checked onto the baggage car, and Albert and Bobby got aboard their Pullman. The two men began a game of gin rummy that would occupy their waking hours on the train. The game ebbed and flowed, but when they got off at Springfield, Bobby was ahead $15.

Albert had wired ahead to a farmer friend who lived near the trial grounds. He met their train in his truck. They would board with him and ride his rented horses at the trial. He had been a friend of Bobby's father and had many stories to tell about Old Bob and Albert. He had a teenage son with a slight limp. "Worse limp until your father arranged for his surgery," Albert told Bobby. His father had come here with Albert ten years before, seen the child's deformity, arranged for its repair at a Chicago hospital by that city's most renowned orthopedist.

At the drawing that night, held at the town's drummers' hotel, Bess drew the next to last brace in a field of forty entries. All the handlers and helpers Bobby had met in Canada were there, along with a contingent of their owners. A poker game that lasted 'til dawn followed the drawing, but Albert and Bobby retired early, for Albert had a dog to run in the first brace.

Next morning at breakfast, Albert complained of indigestion, blaming it on the steak he'd eaten at the hotel before the drawing. His first brace dog bumped a covey five minutes after the breakaway, which added to his already grumpy mood. He retired to trial headquarters-a barn where the horses were stabled-while Bobby continued to ride the morning's braces and to learn the grounds and study the competition. He wanted to give Bess the chance she deserved.

The handlers were secretive with their tricks, tricks they hoped would give them a winning edge. It was not mean-spirited, at least most of the time. They simply wanted to win, to put food on the table for their families. The key to learning their tricks, Bobby discovered, was the scouts. They were generous with their knowledge and wisdom, happy to talk. Bobby never missed an opportunity to be alone with a scout; they regarded him as one of them. Thus, he gained astounding revelations of strategy, of how handler-scout teams hid the "holes" in their dogs.

"Ole Bill generally has a letdown halfway through an hour heat. That's when I got to scoop him up on my saddle and give him a little rest," a scout told Bobby about a famous frequent winner.

Bobby was enjoying the week. The weather was grand, cool enough for the dogs and horses, but not too cool for comfortable riding. Quail were plentiful enough; the wheat and corn had been harvested, leaving tree lines and ditch borders to hold the birds and make enticing objectives for the dogs. When Thursday's running came to a close, Bobby and the others had no clue of the calamitous changes that would come in the days ahead.

When Bobby reached the hotel that evening to join the poker game, he found dog owners and handlers gathered in the lobby in worried conversation. The stock market had dropped like a rock. The newspapers called it a "crash." Bobby congratulated himself on his decision to convert his father's stocks to Treasury bills. But he felt terrible sorrow for millions who had not-especially for his old customers, now someone else's customers. He wondered how they had fared, particularly those who traded on margin. And he wondered about the fate of Alex Green & Co. and his mother's family wealth.

Meanwhile, Albert was feeling worse. Bobby had handled all his entries after the opening day. He'd had to ask for help with scouting. One of the other handlers had been generous—James Avent of Tennessee. That was quite odd, for old Jim was the toughest competition of the circuit. The thought of Jim Avent allowing his own scout to help another handler seemed strange indeed. Albert suspected skullduggery, but Avent's scout had done a great job for Bobby all week.

After reading the Chicago Tribune's special edition Saturday morning, Bobby went to the telegraph office and wired Hodding Rodder for confirmation of the estate's portfolio and for news of Alex Green's fate as a brokerage. He also wired his grandfather. He didn't expect a response before Monday, but the one he got was a shock. It came from his grandfather, president of Alex Green & Co.

Hodding and Abigail had disappeared from Baltimore, presumably together. Hodding had not converted the estate's portfolio to Treasuries as instructed. In fact, the account had all been in one stock—RCA—and fully margined. The estate had been wiped out by Friday's market collapse and the resulting margin calls. Alex Green & Co.'s fate was perilous.

Right after Bobby had turned his father's estate over to Hodding to handle, his erstwhile friend had begun a scheme to get rich by borrowing collateral to make investments for his own account. It had worked for a while, until the market had become wobbly. Desperate, Hodding had made more and more audacious bets, backed by the collateral illegally borrowed from the estate.

Why had Hodding done this? A successful young lawyer, he had a bright future. The reason was Abigail. They'd begun an affair a year before Bobby's father died (that explained Abigail's refusing Bobby's standing invitations to go to New York on his business trips). The affair had intensified with Bobby's absence. Abigail had told Hodding she wanted to divorce Bobby and marry him, but she would not marry a man without wealth. Hodding had succumbed to two kinds of temptation, each sure to ruin a man, and in combination to do it quickly. Now the couple had disappeared. Hodding was a fugitive charged with embezzlement. Bobby was broke. His apprenticeship to earn his inheritance was futile, a cruel joke.

Somehow, Bobby was not troubled by his newfound poverty, nor by the loss of his wife. He did feel sorry for Abigail's parents and Hodding's as well-decent people who would bear the stigma of their children's disgrace. And Bobby worried for his old customers, and the millions of other people laid low financially by the stock market collapse. But for himself, he did not worry. He felt the invincibility of youth. He'd found his purpose in life.

And Bobby had another profound worry to deal with—Albert's health. A doctor among the dog owners had diagnosed his trouble as congestive heart failure. Albert's feet had swollen, fluid was building around his lungs. When Bobby asked the doctor for a prognosis, he'd simply shaken his head and said, "There's really nothing medicine can do for him. He'll need complete rest. Even that won't give him much time."

Albert's career as a dog handler was over, and he knew it.

When Bobby came in from the running on Saturday, he found Albert propped up in bed and wanting to talk. He told Bobby the secrets of his father's divorce and why Old Bob had not tried to see him more after his mother had taken him to live in Baltimore. He showed Bobby his own will—leaving all he had to Bobby—the bungalow outside Union Springs and his horses and truck. (He'd sold the Model T for $50 right after they'd returned to Alabama.) He told Bobby of a jar of cash buried beside the kennels (money Old Bob had given him as bonuses for field-trial wins over twenty years). He asked Bobby to look out for Willie.

ATTENTION FIELD TRIAL CHAIRMAN & SECRETARIES

1. Please use the ABC report form when filling out your field trial report. The form is available for download at <http://clubs.akc.org/brit/forms/FieldTrialReportForm.doc> (If you cannot download, ask Leslie Andreas or Mary Karbiner to mail you one to copy.)

If this form is NOT used, we have no idea if the stake was an HOUR stake or if the handler was an AMATEUR. If we don't have the correct data, then we might miss a dog's points for the Purina Award and worse yet may miss a dog getting its qualifications for the Nationals. We don't want that to happen, so we're asking for your help. Please contact your club field trial chairman and secretaries and tell them to use this form when filling out placements and getting judges signatures. The added plus is that this form can then be copied and sent to AKC, ABC, the American Field, and the Amateur Field Trial Clubs of America.

PRINT
LEGIBLY

2. You also need to include a copy of the Secretary's Reporting page to AKC so that we know which stakes you actually ran and which were canceled. We can't tell if you forgot to include the sheet for a stake or if the stake was canceled and this necessitates writing and asking. Please save us some time and let us know if stakes are canceled.

3. ABC does not need copies of Judges' Affirmation Forms or entry blanks. You do not need to type results separately, just use the correct form.

We really appreciate those many clubs who already use the ABC form.

Cranberry Hot Wings

1 can (14 ounces) jellied cranberry sauce, cubed
 2 tablespoons ground mustard
 2 tablespoons hot pepper sauce
 2 tablespoons reduced-sodium soy sauce
 2 tablespoons honey
 1 tablespoon cider vinegar
 2 teaspoons garlic powder
 1 teaspoon grated orange zest
 3 pounds chicken wings
 Blue cheese salad dressing and celery sticks

In a 5-qt. slow cooker, combine the first eight ingredients. Cover and cook on low for 45 minutes or until cranberry sauce is melted. Meanwhile, cut wings into three sections; discard wing tip sections. Place wings on a greased broiler pan. Broil 4-6 in. from the heat for 15-20 minutes or until lightly browned, turning occasionally. Transfer wings to slow cooker; toss to coat. Cover and cook on high for 2-3 hours or until tender. Serve with dressing and celery.

Tangy Cranberry Meatballs

1 lb. 93% ground beef
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 2 egg yolks
 1/2 teaspoon ground sage
 1/2 cup seasoned breadcrumbs
 Ground black pepper, to taste
 1 bag (12 oz.) fresh cranberries
 1 orange, zested and juiced
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
 1/2 cup low-sodium vegetable broth

In a large bowl combine ground beef, onion, egg yolks, sage, breadcrumbs, and pepper to taste; mix gently. Form into small meatballs and place in a slow cooker. Set aside.

For the sauce, in a large saucepan combine cranberries, orange zest, orange juice and sugar. Cook over medium-high heat 10 minutes or until cranberries burst and mixture is slightly thickened. Stir in mustard, broth, gravy mix and 1 1/2 cups water; cook and stir until heated through. Pour over meatballs in slow cooker. Cook, covered, on low 4 to 5 hours. Serve warm with toothpicks. 8 Servings

2018 ABC Brittany Prairie Chicken Classic/Championship

September 17, 2018

Ted Morton Ranch, Bassett, Nebraska

By Cindy Findley

The 2018 ABC Brittany Chicken Championship returned to the Ted Morton Ranch and other Rock Creek landowners, outside of Bassett Nebraska. This wild bird trial is genuine test of skill, talent, and endurance for canine athletes, as they course through pasture ground, hayfields, sand hills, and tall grass prairie. With temperatures starting in the high 80's and cooling throughout the week, the 54 starters and their handlers had their work cut out for them, as the wet spring and summer had curtailed the population of prairie chickens throughout the region.

Both respected judges for this event had adjudicated the event in the past and were pleased to be invited again. Howard Burbach (MO) and Cindy Findley (IA) were collegial and attentive.

Winning the championship was Rev'N Gunrunner's Tilly, handled by Tom Tracy, a diminutive liver and white Brit who attacked the course with spirited drive for her hour. Runner-up was Maxwell's Prickly Pete, also handled by Tracy. He ran a wide-ranging powerful course and was rewarded with a covey find. Further details included in the running.

In a handler's sweep, Mr. Tracy also directed the 3rd and 4th place dogs, with Ru-Jems "Last" Penny, and Castaway Wilson placing respectively.

Under the direction of dedicated Britt fanciers Claudia and Stan Truksa, the committee members Mary Karbinger, Ed Tillson, Jerry McGee, and the unstoppable Ray Trimble coordinated with Ted Morton to insure a good course despite the sloppy conditions. The John Deere dog wagon was available through the courtesy of Chris Raymond of Plains Equipment of Ainsworth. Claudia's dog wagon driving skills, hospitality, and a congenial atmosphere made for a very well-run trial. Sponsorship by Purina and Garmin was greatly appreciated. AKC Rep Tom Maneely was also on hand, and Jeanna Harmon of the Corral Bar and Restaurant was also supportive.

The Running:

Maxwell's Quicksilver (Tracy) and A Trace of Bourbon with Diamonds (S. Johnson). Dogs were away cleanly and broke into the first cattle pasture. At 11, Diamond is credited with a stop to flush. Nearly to the ranch home, Chick was called on point, and Diamond was credited with a back, however no bird was produced and following a barren relocation, both dogs are taken on. By 35 Chick's handler elected to collar the dog. At 40, Diamond had a point, and upon careful re-location a bird was produced in order. Diamond finished the hour at shooting dog range.

Firestarter's Crossed the Line (Tillson) and Roustabout's Eustace (Tracy). These two dogs were wide-ranging as we entered the 1,000-bale hayfield and had to be rounded up and moved forward by their handlers. At the western edge of the hayfield, just across the fence Eustace busted in on the game and was collared. Firestarter ran a moderate race without bird contact.

Jacoub's Buzz'N Bayou (Tracy) and Tequila Scorcher (Tillson). Early in the brace, Bayou was called on point near a sandy dune, but it was a non-productive. Scorcher was more self-contained, but upon entering the western prairie pasture was credited with a stylish covey find. Bayou continued forward, but without bird contact. Scorcher finished the hour close in.

Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy (Johnson) and Roustabout's White Knight (Tracy). Heading northeast out of camp for the afternoon, Knight headed far north and the handler had to round him up. At 8, Gypsy was called on point, but birds could not be produced. As he rode nearby, Mr. Tracy's horse flushed 2 birds. About 200 yards further on, Knight was credited with a point on 4 birds. This brace was moving quickly and into the 3rd pasture, Knight had a stop to flush behind his handler. At 38 Johnson elects to pick up his dog as Knight continued to run a very lateral course, with no further bird contact.

CoCo Mo Josie Mo (Gorrows) and Lambach's Blew By You (Tracy). Both dogs start by running way wide and both handlers have trouble gathering up them up. Both dogs were collared early.

Alar's Dirty Dancer (Tillson) and Touch of Bourbon Little Chug (Johnson). This brace became an exercise in futility for both handlers, as the dogs struggled with sand burrs, lack of forward application, and no game contact.

Arrow's Tequila Rustler (Beaver) and Driving Miss Daisy II (Tracy). To start day 2 of the running, there was a nice gallery of nearly 20 under cloudy skies and 60 degrees. These two speedsters engaged in some head racing, and eventually separated allowing Daisy to make a powerful cast along the complete edge of the first hay field. She followed the edges quite nicely and was biddable. At 48, Daisy was credited with a lovely covey flush and she stood stylishly. Rustler had not been seen for some time and had no bird contact. Daisy finished the hour with another long edge cast.

Dan's Maker's Mark (Holman) and Glade Run Irish (Tracy). Early on at 2 minutes, Holman called point on his dog in thick prairie cover but it was a non-productive. At 19, Irish was not pleasing his handler and is picked up. Mark is picked up at the 28-minute mark with no bird contact.

Piney Run Jake (Patterson) and High Hopes Jac's Original Spice (Holman). Both dogs are lateral early but appeared to get stronger as the hour progressed. Showing good range, Jake was very biddable and intelligent as he hunted. He suffered a non-productive at 20. Spice was also opening up and had a successful find in the pasture south of camp. Both dogs showed strong bottom as time expired, with Jake on a huge move, and Spice going away briskly.

JJ's Diablo with Rusty Tears (Williams) and TLM's Tall Tale (Tracy). This brace of dogs struggled with applying themselves to the course, requiring the handlers to be very involved. Rusty covered many directions, and Sam needed strong direction. He suffered a non-productive at 29. Sam was credited with a stop to flush at 48, and Rusty had no game contact.

Kinwashkly Tempo (Tillson) and Jagoub's Spell-Caster (Tracy). Both dogs broke away cleanly, but Spell-Caster disappeared for some time along the west edge of the 1,000-bale field. He showed up back in the field to the front. At 19, Tempo is called on point, but his stature was not pleasing to his handler and he was collared. About 200 yards further, Spell-Caster was on point, but it was a barren stand. He ended the hour with no bird contact.

Roustabouts Blew By (Tracy) and Remchester's Premium White Lightning (Johnson). Early on Blue was not applying himself and was collared. Lightning went on to run one of the best races thus far, with several bold casts along fence lines and to the front. He showed tremendous application, but in disappointment to all, was unable to pinpoint a bird.

Jac's Ray of Sunshine II (Holman) and JJ's Levi the Lionheart (Williams). Day three began cloudy and misty with an easterly wind and 55 degrees. These dogs were both strong, wide-ranging, and powerful in the run. In the first pasture, Levi tangled briefly with a skink and was quite odorous for the remainder of the brace but it certainly did not slow the dog down as he continued with bold casts, rounding field edges far to the front. Sunshine was nearly as powerful, taking long forward casts across the first hay field, and hunting away. Levi was credited with a stop to flush with a strong caution and with 17 seconds left in the brace Sunshine was called on point, but it was not fruitful. A strong race performance by both dogs.

Crosscreek Argus Early Christmas (Holman) and SS Rig's Colorado Gun Runner (Milam). Barely 2 minutes into this brace Gus was called on point where we had recently ridden up birds, but it was not productive and he was moved on. Runner was well to the front and into the 1,000-bale field, made a huge move forward south following the corn field edge and along to the trees. At 39, Runner was standing clearly in the field and Gus fails to back. When released, Runner takes a backward cast of over half a mile and his scout rode hard to gather him up. He finished the hour with no game contact.

Castaway Wilson (Tracy) and JR's Cool Hand Luke (Johnson). The dogs were snappy at the start and well-forward. At 25 minutes, Luke was credited with a solid back on a single bird find by Wilson. Wilson hunted the course with speed and made several appropriate casts. As we broke into the big uncut prairie field, Wilson slammed on point just past the water tank for a successful 2 bird find. He finished his hour with a strong forward move around the field edge several hundred yards away. Luke finished the hour with no bird contact.

MK's My Lil Ammo (Johnson) and Wichita Wild Woman (Tracy). At 10, Johnson called point for his charge, but it was barren. Both dogs ran a more moderate race and neither was inspiring in application. At 40, Tracy picked up his tired pup. Ammo experienced another non-productive at 46, but was taken toward camp to finish his hour.

CVK's Spartan King (Tracy) and Almaden's Under Lock and Key (Tillson). In an unfortunate turn, King points a bittern in the wetland, then left it and in the process bumped up a single chicken and failed to stop. Tillson's dog has a moderate run but has non-productives at 14 and 30, despite an admirable flushing effort by Mr. Tillson.

JJ's Fearless Sam (Gorrows) and Maxwell's Prickly Pete (Tracy). Beginning in the uncut prairie grass field, both dogs got away well and rimmed the field. At 30, Pete made a stunning cast traversing the entire line of sand hills paralleling the middle hay field. Coming down, he crossed the field and pinned a large covey in the middle, with staunch style. Sam had no game contact, and Pete finished his hour independently to the front with speed and intensity.

Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up (Trimble) and Highpoint Blazin' High Noon (Kuykendall). Day four dawned cloudy following a hard rain and wind in the night. In sloppy conditions, the dogs played a bit of "catch me if you can", before settling down to hunt. They ran moderately, but neither dog had bird contact.

Rammer Jammer Jax (Kuykendall) and RU-Jem's Last Penny (Tracy). Breaking into the 1,000-bale field, the dogs tag-teamed each other forward along the southeastern edge. Jax was gone for an extended time and the tracker was called for. Penny was snappy, forward, and took several nice edges. Following a non-productive just outside the hay field, she was called on point and as the handler dismounted, one bird flushed and as he approached several more birds took flight as Penny stood stylishly. Nice birdwork.

Rev'N Gunrunner's Tilly (Tracy) and MK's Magnificent Bandito (Johnson). As a misty fog settled in, we broke into the small middle field and the petite Tilly had a successful find near the windmill tank, standing as tall as she was able. Bandito was lost for several minutes, but finally tracked down by a scout and brought forward. Bandito continued forward and was not seen again. Tilly showed a great deal of zip and had a lovely covey find in the far corner of the uncut prairie grass field. She was self-directed yet flowed with her handler and hunted the entire hour with snap. She finished zipping over the hills in a bold finishing move.

Gun Creek Gangster (Holman) and Bella Rose (Tracy). It was apparent early that Gangster had not healed up completely from a foot injury and Mr. Holman wisely picked him up. Soon after, Bella had a breach of manners and was also picked up to end the brace.

Roustabout's All In (Tracy) and Ace's One-Eyed Jack (Holman). Al appeared to be on point at 10, but loosened up quite a bit as the handler approached and it was a non-productive. Soon after Al was picked up. Jackson continued on but as the course turned into the wind, he couldn't fight it to suit his handler and he was collared at 27.

Snikson Little Diamond (Johnson) and Kashmir (Tracy). Heading back toward camp around Adams Lake, Diamond is called on point out in the grassy flat and Kashmir came in for a back. It is taken as a non-productive despite a bird being flushed by the judge's horse about 100 yards away. Neither dog was performing well and both were up early.

Crescent City Girl (Tillson) and Kinwashkly Fat Bastard (Tracy). Day 5 brought partly cloudy skies, with a strong north wind. For the first half hour of this brace, both dogs moved forward at the urging of their handlers. By 42, Tracy had collared his dog, and Girl was running a moderate shooting dog course with moderate speed. She was credited with a find in the uncut field to finish the hour.

Chief's Cross Plains Copper Breeze (Kuykendall) and Shady Way's Joker's Hill Country Express (Tracy). These dogs seemed to be less focused in the hard, north wind, and required strong direction from their handlers. Express was a big out of pocket from time to time and ran an average race, with no bird contact. Breeze was also more moderate in application and was being brought along the west edge of the 1,000-bale field when she had a single bird find just over the electric fence.

Blackcreek Whiskey Skip (Holman) and Upland Trail Blazer (Tracy). Early, Skip had a breach of manners and was picked up. Scout continued on and was credited with one find, before his performance did not please his handler and he was picked up.

NOW AVAILABLE

The Book of the American Brittany, 1990-2010 Edition

is an invaluable source of reference and enjoyment for all Brittany breeders and enthusiasts. Expanding upon the previous works by Dr. Fred Z. White, Nicky Bissell, and Rheta Cartmell, this 320-page edition focuses on dogs and Brittany events between the years 1990-2010.

Chapters include: History of the American Brittany; Field Trialing 1935-1989; Modern Field Trial Winners; ABC Classics & Championships; The Show Brittany; The Dual Brittany; ABC Futurities; Performance Events (Hunt Tests, Obedience, Agility, NSTRA); Top Producers; ABC Honor Rolls (Hall of Fame, Life Members). These are followed by an index of ABC event winners from 1942-1989, and an index of all dogs mentioned in the book. The text of this book is brought to life with over 625 color and black/white photos, many of historical value, and as many as could be obtained of the modern-day dogs mentioned in the book.

ALL AROUND DOGS

Submitted by Lennie Gedsell (Washington Brittany Club)

In September, each year the Washington State Fairgrounds invites the Puyallup Valley Dog Fanciers, an All-Breed club, to partake in an event called "ALL AROUND DOGS". This year it seemed that maybe the participation was a bit weak so I asked the Washington Brittany Club members if they would like to setup a booth at the fair. I received a "yes" from Jodi Pollack and Bethann Harrison so we decided that we would man a booth on Saturday, Sept. 2nd from 10:am to 4:00 pm. Taking turns, we showcased several Brittans. The parents and children were wild for the Britts and for the candy bowl...lol. At 2:00 pm Sherry Palmer and Debbie Metcalf arrived with their Brittans and "game on." At 3:30 Guy Pollack arrived from work to do a demo with a couple of birds which was, from what I hear, the most attended demo that day... Guy planted a Chukar in the arena, using what was there, a lot of saw dust and it worked great. He used his newly titled Master Hunter, Sugar...the go-to Brittany. He then asked for another Brittany and we were all standing there with our Britt, outside the fence so he took another in and showed the crowd what a BACK /HONOR looks like. The Chukar at this point, woke up and began walking/running around the arena and the Brittans outside the arena went crazy...quivering, pointing and what a sight!

It's amazing to me what these kind of events do for everyone. Kids and adults...so much fun and so simple... a great way to show off our breed. We have membership applications available and our very nice brochure that we use and we had issues of the ABC Magazine on the table. We put up our club banner and then the table with the table cloth and chairs behind the table and just showcase our Brittans. We also have one of club directors who puts up many photos of our Britts in action. There are also other breeds there and people come thru there by the droves...It's a big deal here.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

The American Brittany Club, Inc. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club and will entitle you to the monthly magazine, The American Brittany. Associate Membership is available if person is a Full member of a Regional Club or immediate family member of a Full member. Full Membership cost is $50.00 per year and $5.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.
