Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

2017 ABC National Specialty Show

GARMIN

The 75th American Brittany Club National Specialty was held November 15th through November 19th at Kay Rodgers Park in Fort Smith, Arkansas. We had an exciting week of events including conformation, obedience, rally, agility and barn hunt. The show kicked off on Wednesday afternoon with judge Nancy Withers putting the 18 rally entries through their paces. The Rally High Combined winner was GCH MACH3 Brookewood's Just too Hot, UD, RAE, MXF, T2B2, MJB2, Aiden. Aiden was handled to his win by owner Sue Drazek. This was a repeat win for the multi-talented Aiden! Wednesday's evening social was sponsored by Nancy Hewitt and Sue Drazek, in honor of 2016 Obedience High in Trial winner, GCHB Hope's Exceeding the Speed Limit, UD and 2016 High Combined Rally winner, GCH MACH3 Brookewood's Just Too Hot UD, RAE, MXF, T2B2, MJB2.

Havoc was handled to his win by Rachel Weider and is owned by Sue and Scott Janowski and Lisa Tailby. Best of Opposite Sex in the Puppy Match was Sigbrit's Still A Mystery. "Misty" was shown to her win by breeder/owner Bobbie Sigmund. Congratulations to the breeders, owners, and handlers of this youngsters.

In addition to sweepstakes, Thursday's event line up also included a health clinic, organized by the National Show Committee with Drs. Margaret Horstmeyer and Shelia Connelly. The purpose of the health clinic was to collect blood samples for the OFA DNA Bank. We collected over 40 samples to be used for canine health research. Thank you to Dr. Horstmeyer for her guidance and assistance with supplies, Dr. Connelly for volunteering her time to draw blood, to Rose Leale for her work organizing the clinic, and to all the participants!

Friday morning kicked off with three adorable Mini Me's strutting their stuff under the expert guidance of judge Dawn Droel. This is the second year the ABC National Specialty has included Mini Me's and it's rapidly becoming a highlight of the week! Thanks to the Livingstons and the Harrison's for sharing their youngsters with us!

Junior Showmanship followed the Mini Me's and was judged by Amy Booth. Amy took her time working the juniors to allow each a chance to shine. We are fortunate to have some truly outstanding juniors competing with Brittanys and Amy was spoiled for choice. Her final selection for Best Junior was Mary Claire Ctibor, while Reserve Best Junior went to Alyce Geary. We had 7 entries in Juniors this year, which was an increase from the past few years. Hopefully this trend will continue in 2018!

Thanks to all the exhibitors, owners, and breeders who supported this year's National Specialty. I would also like to extend my thanks to those who sponsored trophies, donated items for our auction and raffle, and contributed to the Nationals through regional fundraisers. We would also like to thank Purina for their longtime support of the American Brittany Club. Their generous trophy donations and ongoing support for our National Events are much appreciated.

Without the support of our enthusiastic and generous corporate and individual donors this event would not be possible. On to 2018!

The American Brittany Magazine is ringing in new changes for 2018

We're adding "Breeders" to our Listings - The Brittany magazine reaches approximately 2000 homes across the United States and beyond. This is the perfect opportunity for everyone to know who has available litters and what type of puppies you might have available (field/show/hunting/pet).

Breeders are invited to promote their litters just as we do for Kennel/At Stud/Trainers & Handlers ads - $60 per year for a standard ad (6 lines); $10 each additional line.

This will also be listed on the ABC website!

Look for the new heading:

"Listings: Breeders – Kennels – At Stud – Trainers & Handlers"

WESTMINSTER

On February 10th, 2018, in New York City, the Southern New England Brittany club hosted a booth at The Westminster AKC Meet the Breeds. Representing the Brittany's were Club members, Joe and Dona Campbell with their dog Teddy. There were 135 Breeds represented as well as some felines and over 15,000 people attended.

Our club held a raffle for 4 sets of bright orange collars and leashes. In addition, the club provided several hand-outs on Brittany's (history and origin) as well as grooming tips. The spectators also loved the colorful copies of the American Brittany Magazine. The First Bank of Greenwich donated car magnets as well as our club's American Brittany refrigerator magnets.

The show was scheduled to start at 10:00, but by 9:30 people were already visiting our booth. Even though the day ended at 5 there were still spectators coming around getting in the last hello to the breeds they wanted to see. Many attendees shared stories and photos of their precious Brittany's, and even few had tears as they recalled thoughts of their Brittany's who had passed away. These dogs may have been gone but the memories of their love was not forgotten. All in all, a great time was had by all and at the end everyone was tired but new friends were made—thanks to the love we share for our dogs.

Mid-South Brittany Championship

The Illinois Brittany Club hosted the Mid-South Brittany Championship as the first rung of its spring field trial program. Once again, the trial ran without a hitch this year thanks to the hard work of all our volunteers. Dave Capstick picked up the birds and then with Ray Trimble the Dog Food, Ed Graves & Don Markiewicz planted birds. Joe Junge ran the dog wagon, Mary Jo Trimble was the road guard, and Judy Graves cooked. Our judges were terrific, always on the line, and very attentive. Once again, we thank Nestle Purina for their monetary gifts as well as the dog food which powers our dogs. Without their support, championships like this one could not happen.

We weren't so lucky this year with the weather. When Terry Trzcinski stopped by from Purina, he suggested we call this the four-season's trial. You guessed it, we had rain, snow, 70 degrees and 25 degrees all within a 7-day period. Some days, the rain came after the day's running and stopped before we started each morning. This made for some sloppy footing and took its toll on both the dogs and horse power.

The trial started with our hour Mid-South Brittany Championship. Judges Stan Williamson from Livingston, MO and John Hall from Dexter, MI had 30 quality entries to look at. NFC, NAFC, GFC, GAFC Glade Run Irish continued his winning ways, taking the championship title the first brace of Thursday's running. He put forth a strong forward race hitting all of the spots birds were likely to be found. His birdwork was perfection, and he finished as strong as he started. Tom Tracy guided him to the solid win. Claiming the runner-up title was FC Jagoub's Buzz'n Bayou, also handled by Tom Tracy. Tom Jagielski & Debra Connell have had a lot of success with Skeeter having placed in several recent hour classics. Pushing the winners was JJ's Diablo with Rusty Tears, owned and handled by Joe Williams. Chad Holman rounded out the placements with High Hopes Jac's Original Spice. Four finds and a back landed him in the ABC winners circle for owners Kathy Gulembo and Cynthia Cropek. Ron and Katy Gulembo made the trip from Michigan to watch.

After the successful Mid-South Championship, the Illinois Brittany Club proceeded to run the largest trial it has had in several years. Our smallest stake was the open puppy with 16 entries!!! Saturday we started with the Amateur All Age first, so Burton Wice and Roger Fiorito could head over to the Open Gun Dog course to watch 18 dogs come to the line. With several dogs to choose from, they named Tommy Thomas's TNT's Raise'N A Ruckus as winner. Tommy is no stranger to the winners circle with Rae as he also was an ABC National Amateur Gun Dog Champion. Ron Gulembo brought our ABC National Amateur Gun Dog Champion into the 2nd place spot. Bob Burchett finished out the placements with two of Julie Nelson & Mark Claypool's charges.

Todd Parmenter from Peoria, IL and Kim Marlatt from Vila Grove, IL were our very astute Amateur All Age judges. They watched a field of 16 starters, with only two dogs finishing the half hour with a good ground application and acceptable bird work. Joe Williams took both places awarded with JJ's Alabaster Angel and her daughter, JJ's Diablo with Rusty Tears claiming second. Third and 4th places were withheld.

Our Open Puppy started late in the afternoon, Saturday and finished up on Sunday. Kent Patterson from Franklin, TN went home the winner. Ron & Cathy Gulembo were ever so vigilant in the saddle.

Sunday brought us the 26 entry Open All Age and the 24 Open Derby starters. The Open All judges John Hall and Bill Klenner came from Michigan and were not disappointed with the entry. Chad Holman claimed 1st & 2nd with High Hopes Jac's Original Spice and Shot of Whizki. Joe Williams once again stepped up with JJ's Diablo with Rusty Tears placing 3rd and Tom Tracy rounded out the winners with Jagoub's Spell Caster. Joe Williams and Kim Marlatt officiated the Open Derby. John Hall's young male, Black Creek Whizki Skip, came out on top with Chad Holman handling. Tom Tracy was close behind with Glade Run Ruger. Bob Burchett placed Stellar Fifty One, young female owned by Barry & Petra Steinmetz. Todd Parmenter rounded out with winners with his young Dogwood's Top Shelf Tequila. This was a very good derby stake and should bode well for our future adult dogs.

Monday started the Lee Holman Classic which was also sponsored by Purina. These hour stakes testing and improving our breed would just not happen without their support. We want to thank Stan Williamson for jumping in at the last minute to judge with Bill Klenner from Belleville, MI after our advertised judge came down with the flu. We had two relatively nice days of running, but the mud really put a lot of strain on horses. Dononvan Markiewicz's DC Cross Creek Argus Early Christmas came home with top honors for handler Chad Holman. Gus is also no stranger to the winners' circle on these grounds. Tom Tracy guided Jagoub's Buzz'n Bayou to 2nd; with Ed & Donna Janulis' Gun Creek Ganster taking third for Chad Holman. Kinwashkly's Fat Bastard rounded out the placements with Tom Tracy handling.

Running three stakes at once takes a lot of planning and coordinating. We want to thank all of those who helped and pitched in to plant birds, ferry handlers, dogs, and horses from course to course. Years ago, Jim Chase started putting approximate running times on the brace sheet so everyone has some idea of where they needed to be when. It was a well-coordinated effort and we want to thank all of you who came.

Region 17 Amateur All Age Brittany Championship

Once again, the beautiful Oliver Ranch in the Flint Hills of Kansas, was the venue for the Region 17 Amateur All Age Brittany Championship hosted by the Southern Kansas Brittany Club. This year was a good turnout as we had 20 dogs compete for this prestigious award.

The Southern Kansas Brittany Club does great work putting on quality events at the Oliver Ranch, and this one again came off without a hitch. They are fortunate to have several active and contributing members to make their trials always enjoyable and well regarded.

Two well-seasoned judges were chosen for this renewal of the Championship. Ken Chenoweth and Mike Griffin enjoyed watching these dogs put on great performances.

The weather was windy and very warm on Friday but was calmer and cooler on Saturday. In spite of this inconsistent weather, 3 of the 4 dogs placed that ran on Friday. A newcomer to this sport, Trey Baer, won 1st with his dog Highpoint Spike's Southern Gal. Trey mentioned the morning after placements were called, that he could not get to sleep the night before, as he was so excited to win this Championship. Another one gets bit by the Field Trial bug!! We are also very excited for him. Second Place went to DC/AFC Alar's Dirty Dancer handled by Tom Milam. Third Place went to FC/AFC Tequila Scorcher handled by Bob Rankin. Footnote: (Scorcher took 3rd Place last year in this event, handled by Richard Beaver). Fourth Place went to Arrow's Tequila Rustler handled by Tom Milam.

Having wonderful grounds contributes to having such a great Championship. Thanks to Bill and Mary Lynn Oliver for allowing us to run this prestigious event on their grounds. Also, thanks to all those who kept this event running smooth; Terry Gowin, Herb Rea, Matt Harris, Larry Hagedorn, Mike Lager, Scott Johnson and Steven Foster. And a special thanks to Purina for sponsoring this event!

Specialty Shows

TIDEWATER
Richmond, VA
January 22-28, 2018

The Tidewater Brittany Club undertook the very ambitious task of putting on 3 specialties January 27 and 28 in conjunction with the Middle Peninsula Kennel Club. We could not have joined a better show weekend or Kennel Club. The weather for this weekend historically has been mild, and this week was no exception with temperatures on Saturday approaching 70 degrees!

Rachal McKee Sager had the pleasure of passing judgement on a very promising crop of puppies. She told me that she was very pleased with the quality and soundness that she found. Her Best in Sweepstakes was a beautiful white and liver girl, Sigbrit's Still A Mystery owned and bred by Bobbie Sigmund. Best of Opposite sex went to Kristyn and Linda McCartney's handsome Triumphant Maker's Mark. Markey Mark is the product of a frozen semen breeding utilizing the last straw of semen from CH Shannon Creek Happy Pierre. GCHP Triumphant's As Good As It Gets, JH came out of retirement to play in the ring for his fans. He was awarded Best in Veteran Sweeps.

Regular classes were judged by Thomas Bradley, III. Mr. Bradley gave each dog their due and selected a striking looking liver, Triumphant's Firefly White Russian as his winners dog. Triumphant Maker's Mark was awarded reserve winners dog.

Bobbie Sigmund's lovely Sigbrit's Still A Mystery received the nod for winner's bitch and best of winners and Sigbrit's Sugar and Spice JH CA was reserve.

The specials for Best of Breed went almost all around the ring. In the ring were some of the top Brittans in the country and our veteran dog who was a number one dog in the past. When the dust settled, Mr. Bradley gave the top prize to GCHP2 Brigadier's Lightning Strikes Twice. Maggie went on to take a strong Sporting Group 2 later in the day. Laurie and Matt O'Donnell's Wranger- GCH Get A Bird Hope's Should've Been A Cowboy, JH was Best of Opposite.

Our second specialty was judged by noted terrier specialist, Richard Powell. He found Triumphant Maker's Mark for Winners and Best of Winners and Triumphant's Firefly White Russian as reserve- a flip on Saturday's judging.

Winner's Bitch was awarded to Bobbie Sigmund's Sigbrit's Still A Mystery which finished her championship for an ecstatic Bobbie! Reserve winners was awarded to Triumphant's Serendipity.

Best of Breed was again a line- up of very classy dogs. In the end the little white girl Maggie was judged to be best of all, and she again went on to another strong group 2. The veteran dog Beckett was Best of Opposite Sex. Our third specialty of the weekend was judged by Polly Smith. Polly was also the show chair for the Middle Peninsula KC and could not have been more gracious to the Brittany exhibitors. For winners dog she found new champion Shady Brooks Special Edition Sammie CGCA. Jamie Morgan's homebred youngster, Lost Oak N Labyrinth The Legend Began With Barrett for reserve.

Winner's Bitch and Best of Winners was awarded to new champion Triumphant's Serendipity owned, bred and handled by a very happy Kristyn McCartney. The reserve nod went to the 9-12 month old, Labyrinth Redwing One Night In Bangkok.

Taking the sweep of the specialties this weekend was again beautiful Maggie to the delight of her owners, Bgen Mike and Julie Lee. Maggie has had an outstanding January with a Best in Show and now 3 large specialty BOBs. BOS was awarded to Beckett from the veterans class, obviously enjoying being back in the limelight.

The Tidewater Brittany Club is planning on an even better extravaganza next year. We hope that you come to Virginia for outstanding company, great dogs, and three (or four!!!) chances for a huge specialty win. Virginia is for Lovers and we would love to have you and your dogs!

The Brittany is a compact, closely the dog of medium size, between 30 to 45 pounds, and has 17.5 to 23.5 cm (7 to 9 1/4 inches) at the shoulder. There is a large dog that can never ground in weight. He is strong, vigorous, energetic and quick of movement.

He attacks easily, his easy to carry in a car. He is alert, which can be either a fault or a virtue, as an asset. He has enough coat to protect him from the sun and not enough to catch dirt on any great extent. He can be either orange and white, or blue and white, in either case of coat pattern. He is not a heavily coated dog, but is light haired.

He works in the same manner as a pointer, but without the great range. He guards and holds his game. He retrieves both on land and in water. He is used primarily to hunt game in the United States, but he is used to hunt the duck, woodcock or quail in Europe.

He is noted for an exceptionally keen nose and a very delicate disposition. Jump of the country but dogs have been raised as well as field workers and fine hunting dogs. The Brittany is a high energy dog who is bred to hunt the duck, woodcock or quail in Europe.

He is a good family companion and is very willing to please his master. He may be described as a dog that is ready to be a dog, but he is not a dog that is ready to be a dog. He is a dog that is ready to be a dog, but he is not a dog that is ready to be a dog.

The American Brittany Club has been established in 1942 as a member of the American National Club and is the recognized and approved by the American Field Club. The club is composed of many regional or local clubs located throughout the country. Meet the National ABC's for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many dogs specialty (see the other) show also. The regional clubs hold meetings to discuss local problems, for news, training assistance, hunting tips and other matters of interest to their members.

The purpose of the American Brittany Club is to promote and encourage the highest standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring. It discourages the trend from breeding and/or groups of that dog and their dog's work to keep a "show dog".

The American Brittany Club has the National Specialty Show, National Championship and National Best of Breed Championships in the fall every year. The ABC holds a Summer Specialty Show and three regional functions (one each fall and spring). The ABC sponsors the following clubs/companies: Dual Premium, Wild Country, Chival, Golden Woodcock and Club One.

A monthly magazine is published and sent to all members of regional clubs and members at large as part of their membership dues. The magazine contains regional results, shows, and club members as well as articles on care and training of the Brittany. There are also articles of general interest. Contact a large number of clubs at all times.

Please remember that a $100.00 membership in one of the regional clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club. You may join a regional club as a member-at-large. # Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame 2018 Inductions

February 10, 2018

By: Diana Kubitz

This year's trip to the induction ceremony in Grand Junction, TN was a wonderful experience, let me share some of it with you. Mary & Jim Crawford and Gary & I were first to arrive in Collierville and had time for a great dinner and make plans for work that needed to be done in the next two days prior to the ceremonies. We like our wing to look its best and we always have new items to display. Our Chairman Rick Smith arrived late Thursday evening and joined us for our Friday planning and work. Delmar had also arrived and the ladies surprised us at the museum by inviting us to lunch! Any time spent with Delmar Smith is time well spent! Thank you, Cissy, for the lunch and thanks to the entire staff for their warm welcome and hospitality! Tonya Brotherton has been the best addition to the National Bird Dog Museum and our many thanks to her for all her work on our behalf!

Friday the BFTHF had a happy hour with munchies and a bar from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. Thanks to the Crawford's, Willo Barfield & Steve Hintzel and Rick Smith for setting up this lovely time for visiting! This was a prelude to the dinner at the "Barn" of William and Tommi Smith that we were all invited to in celebration of Kent Patterson's induction on Saturday. William judged our nationals this past year in Booneville for the second time. As I entered the barn I was greeted by Brittany friends and many of the judges that had judged for us at the ABC nationals in the past. The barn was lovely and the food was outstanding! Our thanks to William and Tommi Smith for a very memorable evening. Bird dog people are the best!

The morning induction ceremonies began with the Spaniels and Retrievers and was followed by a wonderful buffet lunch sponsored by Nestle' Purina. It was delicious as usual and very much enjoyed by all. A new Brittany family, Travis Shuler, his wife and two children made their first visit to the museum and induction ceremonies. After I made sure they had lunch, I took the kids into the "bird room" as Gary likes to call it and answered their many questions about all the different animals and especially the snakes! They enjoyed their time spent that afternoon and it gave me the chance to remember my first time attending with Bill and Rheta Cartmell. We've been back many times since then and I wanted to make sure the Shuler family would be with us for a long time too. We sometimes forget to include new people and take the time to explain what's going on at a show or trial or an important event like the HOF ceremonies. Simple gestures can mean so much and making the effort can bring in new members to our clubs and our sport. Travis and his family are coming up to Michigan for our trial in late March!

Tonya Brotherton, Executive Director, of the Bird Dog Foundation, Inc. welcomed everyone to the afternoon's proceedings. Donald Driggers, President, of the Bird Dog Foundation was ill and unable to attend. The mayor of Grand Junction and the Honorable Curtis Lane welcomed us all and warned that Tonya told him to be brief. Karl Gunzer of Nestle' Purina said a few words of welcome and all were appreciative of Purina's efforts on our sport's behalf. Attending living members of the Brittany, German Shorthaired Pointer and the Pointer/Setter Field Hall of Fame were asked to stand. Family members attending of deceased members of these groups were also recognized.

The ceremonies were changed slightly this year and Brittanys were not first. That was a good thing in many ways as it gave us a chance to hear about other breeds' accomplished people and dogs. The other change was the plaque presentation as they were the last presentations of the day.

Inductee Dave Fletcher

Long time Brittany enthusiast and reporter for the American Field, David Fletcher, was inducted into the BFTH this year after being inducted to the Pointer/Setter Field Trial Hall of Fame last year. Dave became addicted to field trials early on and participated since 1957 all over the US and Canada as a handler, judge and reporter. In this report I'll highlight what Dave did in the Brittany world. He was a member of many years in the Michigan Brittany Club and later years the Western Michigan Club. His list of accomplishments are many, among them the ABC Quail Classic judge in Richmond, KY, the Eastern Futurity, and the US Open Brittany Championship 3 times. He served as reporter of the ABC National Open Gun Dog Championship when it was walking for several years. Over 30 years ago Dave began the national Brittany Open Grouse Championship in Gladwin, MI and it runs yet today. Anyone who has attended that event has wonderful memories.

Dave married his wife Carol in 1968 and Delmar Smith gave him a Bazooka's Brandy puppy, Shiawassee Sioux, as a wedding present. Dave raised several litter using studs such as Tondee's Sandy Valley Duke and Perry's Rustic Prince and dams by Magnum's Masked Man. His best litter produced HOF Rimarda's Trademark! Trademark was out of The Real Thing bred to his Shiawassee Showtime Babe and thrilled many a field trialer throughout his years campaigned by the Holmans and owned by Jim and Janet Chase.

Dave has been a Director of the Bird Dog Foundation for 22 years and Board Secretary most of that term. He produces the brochure and plaques for the foundation each year. He teamed with Rheta Cartmell to produce the Brittany "Book of the Eighties" and printed the ABC Yearbook for 25 years. Special Note: Dave's wife Carol has been ill and could use your thoughts and prayers.

Our second inductee this year was Kent Patterson. His wife, mother and children with spouses attended the induction for this special honor. Anyone who has ever read a report that Kent has written of a trial or heard him speak knows of Kent's acumen with words and he's a tough act to follow! Kent has served in many capacities for our breed at the national, regional and local level. For 11 years he was a director of the East Central Region and served as the ABC National Field Trial dates coordinator. He currently chairs the ABC Hall of Fame Committee for dogs and is a member of the ABC Finance Committee. Kent has been the only ABC Tritronics/Garmin Shooting Dog Award Point Coordinator in its 11-year history and serves on the board of the BFTHF. In May he became only the 4th Purina Pro Plan Liaison for ABC. He is a founding member of the Music City Brittany Club and its Dixieland Championship where he has been field trial secretary for 19 years. He was also a founding member and director for the Deep South Brittany Free-for-All Championship, a two-series endurance event considered by breed stalwarts to be one of the most difficult championships to capture. His male, 5X Ch One-N-Only, won the title in back to back years 2006 & 2007. He has been on the ABC National All Age Field Trial Committee for 9 championships.

A bird hunter for over 50 years, Kent's passion is handling dogs, particularly big running all-age dogs and he is widely considered one of the most skilled amateur handlers in our breed in the country. Twice he has won the ABC National Amateur All Age Championship, in 2006 with Just Call Me Roy and in 2007 with his own dog Maxwell's White Spirit. He also took the Runner-up titles with Maxwell's Gunsmoke in 2008 and Piney Run Art in 2012. Kent has won 16 American Field Championships, from the Deep South's red clay to the Missouri Breaks of South Dakota and has judged all pointing breeds across the country.

A skilled wordsmith, Kent has written a variety of articles, both biographical and fiction, for the ABC magazine, American Field and Pointing Dog Journal. His "Patron" article honoring Jim and Janet Chase hangs in the Bird Dog Museum. He is much sought after as a reporter for trials in his "spare time!" Unselfish is a word that best describes Kent. His great sportsmanship, good cheer, and long-time commitment to the Brittany at all levels makes him most deserving of induction into the BFTHF.

Mary Crawford presented a Patron Memorial Plaque for Clem and Marilynne Little to their daughter Wendy Schmidt from Washington state. Diana Kubitz presented a Patron Memorial Plaque for Jane Hopper to Jane's husband Gil. Gil has asked that his copy of the plaque be hung in the field trial headquarters of the Ionia Field Trial Grounds. Dave Fletcher presented a Patron Memorial plaque for Ernie and Nora Facer. Rick Smith surprised Mary Crawford by presenting her with a Life Patron plaque for her dedication to our breed and her hard work as Secretary of the BFTHF!

At the conclusion of the afternoon's ceremonies, photos were taken and a reception honoring Hall of Fame Inductees was held courtesy of the American Field Publishing Co. Sponsors for the weekend were Garmin, Purina, Ainley Kennels & Fabrication, Harvester's Land Co., & Avery Outdoors. Check out the BFTHF website for more photos and to see what new things we have for sale! We hope to see some new faces in 2019 as visitors and inductees so make plans to attend next year! The walkway entry to the building with purchased bricks looks fantastic. There is still time to buy a brick. I found the one I purchased, how about you?

FIELD TRIAL GROUNDS RECOGNIZED WITH PROCLAMATION

Here is a copy of a recent Proclamation by the Governor of Connecticut concerning the seventy five years of the existence of the Flaherty Field Trial Area in East Windsor, CT, also known as "Pelton's Pasture". This goes a long way in maintaining a solid relationship with the State of CT that owns this property and insuring the continued use of these grounds for the sport of bird dogs and Field Trials. There has been a tremendous amount of work and dedication of a lot of bird dog people of all breeds over the many years to have made this happen and it bodes well for the continued existence of well maintained areas to hold quality events.

Versatile Brittanys in Action

By Carla Simon

My First Brittany, Mila By Stevie Duffek

I am new to the breed, owning my first Brittany. She is nothing short of fun! She is cute, smart, sassy, determined, and VERSATILE!

I have always owned Vizslas and when I brought home my first Brittany people were shocked. A lot of people ask what made me get a Brittany. I love my hunting dogs. I love the structure and size of a Brittany! I especially love their enthusiasm and drive.

I live in Waterford Wisconsin and am a member of the Greater Milwaukee Brittany Club. I met a fellow member at a local Agility trial while showing my Vizsla and she told me how versatile the Brittany really is and I decided to submit a membership in hopes that the ABC valued and appreciated versatile dogs. I am so happy I am not alone and there are many other Brittany owners who love this versatile breed.

I have found Brittanys to be MUCH more independent and head strong than my three Vizslas. It was definitely a shocker when my Brittany was 16 weeks old and didn't follow me around outside. I have found Brittanys to be very bold, confident, and fearless. There isn't hesitation with a Brittany like there is in Vizslas. They have traits that can be both good or bad. I personally love them and look forward to the many more years of being a Brittany owner, handler, and trainer will bring and teach me.

At 7 months old, Mila qualified for NADD/AKC national championships and was ranked #4 Brittany in the country at only 7 months old!

Next month we also are getting our feet wet in Conformation. We hope she will do just as well in the show ring as she does the field so she can one day follow in the tracks of the many other Brittanys who hold Dual championships.

SUBMISSION OF AGENDA ITEMS

DEADLINE FOR AGENDA ITEMS: SEPTEMBER 15, 2018

All Agenda Items, officer and committee reports for the ABC Board Meeting to be conducted at the AA National Championships in Booneville, AR, must be submitted by September 15, 2018, to be included in the Agenda Book and put up for consideration at the meeting as per policy book stipulations. Early submission allows us to put the topics for consideration on the website and to get books to the Directors in time for meaningful input from the general membership. Action items submitted late and not in writing should not be considered as they are often not well thought out causing many problems after the fact. Reports that cannot be completed such as the Treasurer's Financial Statement and Futurity Stats, may be submitted by bringing 20 copies to the meeting, but any Action Items from any officer or director, committee chair, etc. should be submitted by the deadline.

ALL COMMITTEE CHAIRS ARE EXPECTED TO SUBMIT A REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE POLICY FOR SUBMITTING AGENDA ITEMS:

Items must be from an ABC officer or Committee Chair, or from a Board Member or Regional Club which has first voted on the item by that club's members. Items from individual members should first be discussed with one or more of that person's Regional Directors before being submitted and will be supported by fifteen (15) different actual signatures of ABC members. Since agenda items need to be presented by someone to the Board, one of the regional directors shall present the Agenda Item to the Board of Directors.

Please include a copy of the current policy in the Policy Book along with suggested wording changes.

We have always published Officer and Committee Reports in the ABC Magazine. This can be a very difficult task to accomplish since most of the reports have to be retyped if sent as a .pdf file. Please help us to reduce errors by sending your Agenda Reports in a .doc or .rtf format by email to the following:

1. ABC Agenda Chair Jennifer Brooke Burlingame, burlboo@hotmail.com
(who will compile the Agenda Book and disc for the Magazine and Website)
2. ABC Executive Secretary Leslie Andreas, kinwashkly@gmail.com

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

Monora Part 2

James Avent had met many sports, but none could match the sporting appetites of the young giant, six-foot-six Hobart Ames. (Ironically, Ames fed those appetites with the profits of gun manufacture for the Union. The name Ames was stamped on most of the cannon that had laid the South low.

After the war, the Ames Works turned to making shovels—they still make the best.)

Hobart

Ames
shot

Scottish moors,
sea ducks
and geese

off

Massachusetts'
shore, mallards and blacks and canvasbacks from the

Swan Island Gun Club in North Carolina and along the Mississippi Flyway, and quail here in West Tennessee, his favorite game. In the off season, he fished for salmon in Canada and on the Dee in Scotland. Ames' guests were interesting too, especially the artist Edmund Osthous who sketched and then painted the bird dogs and hounds. Avent recalled the night Osthous had hurriedly drawn Ames in a 'coon hunting scene, shinnying a log across a creek, lantern in hand, a batwing of corn whiskey in his hip pocket.

Then in 1899 Ames had bought a kennel of pointers from his Boston pal Edward Dexter and hired Dexter's man Buckle. Buckle had immediately posted the Ames acreage—something unheard of in that place and time. Avent had ignored the posted signs, figuring his relationship with Ames implied permission. He was wrong. Buckle ordered him off as he and Charley Murray worked their field-trial string on a remote section of the property in November of 1902, before Ames arrival for the season's shooting.

Avent refused the next invitation from Ames to bring his hounds for a night hunt; their relationship was spoiled forever by Buckle's British notions of gameland control, alien to the frontier tradition of West Tennessee, where hunting permission for neighbors was implied. Poaching on Ames became the favorite sport of native nimrods.

A scout lifted his cap, and the shout of "Point!"

echoed. Two gunners, designated by

Ames, dismounted. Purdeys

were drawn from saddle

scabbards, and the gunners advanced nervously, one to each side of the dogs.

"Keep

walking 'til

I tell you to stop," the handler said

firmly, warily

watching, ready to drop to earth

and safety when the birds lifted.

Ten yards ahead

of the pointer the covey

roared from ragweed and flew for the woods. Four shots rang out. Not a feather fell.

Ames, watching from his horse, roared with laughter.

"Shall we go for the singles?" asked a hapless gunner.

"No, there's plenty of coveys, and those birds made a pine thicket. Mount up, boys."

The handler and scouts, thankful not to have been shot, helped the shooters back aboard their horses, and the troop was off again.

Through the morning, the scene was repeated every few minutes until 11:30 when Ames, who had so far not taken a gunning turn, called out:

"Mr. Avent, put Monora down. Mr. Buckle, get Powhatan."

Now the proud squire would show his best dogs, last year's National Champion and runner-up.

Charley Murray took Monora from her box. She licked his hand. Buckle's helper led Powhatan by the collar to the front; Ames said, "All right, let 'em go."

They left as if shot from guns, and in seconds were dots on the horizon.

To the amazement of Ames and Buckle, Monora handled without vocal command, taking her cues from the directions Avent or Charley Murray headed their horses. By 13:30, the brace had accounted for eight coveys, half found by each dog. Ames and Arthur Merriman, who had saved their turns for this brace, harvested sixteen bobs, each deliberately taking only one bird from each covey. Merriman shot only coco birds, fired twice over only one point; Ames had six cocks and two hens from eleven shots.

"That's some shootin', Colonel," Charley Murray said as he lifted Monora back into her box.

"Thank you, Charley. Monora seemed glad to see you again."

Charley grinned, "Glad to see her, too."

Buckle heard the exchange and bristled.

Ahead on a knoll under pecan trees rested white-linened luncheon tables, set with bone china, Waterford crystal, sterling flatware, and bunches of Tennessee wildflowers. Uncorked bottles of Claret breathed in anticipation. A white-coated butler and a lace-aproned maid stood by the tables, their hands folded behind them.

Avent bid Ames good day, and Charley Murray said goodbye to his fellow scouts, and they rode for Hickory Valley. Thereafter, twice each week, on Tuesdays and Fridays, Avent and Murray came to the Ames Plantation to work Monora for Ames and his shooting guests and, in the process, ready her for the National Championship, set to begin on January 23. Each time Ames insisted she be put down with Powhatan. They were nip and tuck on covey finds, but invariably Monora, with her feather-light gait and lightning speed, was the outside dog.

The National would run again this year at Rogers Springs, with Avent's Rustic Inn as headquarters. On Saturday evening the inn was packed with bird-dog fanatics from across the continent, in by train for the drawing.

When the secretary's hand went into the hat for the first draw among the twenty entries, Monora's name was on the slip. She would go Monday morning with Cowley's Pride, a white and tan setter owned by Udo M. Fleischmann and handled by Avent's rival, Charley Babcock.

Monday dawned overcast and cool. Ames and Buckle arrived at seven with Monora between them on the seat of the Pierce-Arrow (their horses, led over the evening before, stood saddled and waiting at the inn's hitching rack). Avent and Murray muttered good morning. Monora jumped to Charley's side, looked up at him in obvious devotion. Buckle stiffened. The four mounted up and began the short ride to the breakaway, Monora heeling calmly behind Charley's horse.

The three judges, Captain Thomas Bond with H. S. Bevan and J. T. Jones, both professional dog trainers, were waiting; behind them fifty spectators held their anxious horses in check. Charley Babcock and his scout waited by their horses with Pride. In seconds the fourteenth renewal of the National Championship would begin.

Buckle rode to Avent and said, "Mr. Avent, I'll be scouting Monora today."

"Like hell you will," snapped Avent.

Ames heard the outburst and turned his horse.

"What's the problem," he asked gruffly.

"Mr. Buckle says he'll scout Monora—that won't do," Avent said.

"That's the arrangement, Mr. Avent. You reserved the right to handle her when I bought her, but you didn't reserve the right to choose the scout. That's my privilege as her owner," Ames said.

There was no such right, both men knew. Sensibly, handler always chose their scouts, but Ames owned the dog, and there was no time for an argument.

"Very well," said Avent, "but it's on your head if she doesn't handle."

Buckle dismounted and reached for Monora's collar. She growled and slunk away behind Murray. Charley handed her by the collar to Buckle. Her tail went under her belly.

Avent called Charley aside.

"Just stay in the gallery, show yourself occasionally to the side," Avent said.

"Let 'em go," said Judge Bond, and the two setters sped away. Avent and Babcock riding out front, the judges and gallery in their wake. Hobart Ames towered over the rest.

Then Judge Bond noticed that Charley Murray occasionally rode to the side, away from the gallery. He halted his horse and called Avent to him.

"Mr. Avent, you're allowed only one helper. Will it be Mr. Buckle or Charley Murray? If it's to be Mr. Buckle, Charley will have to stay in the gallery or leave us."

"Send your boy home," Buckle said angrily.

"I'll do just that," said Avent, furious.

Charley Murray had heard the exchange. He turned his horse and cantered back toward the Rustic Inn. Monora, completing a cast two hundred yards to the front, looked back for direction just in time to see Charley break for the rear. She disappeared into the woods.

Once out of sight of the gallery, Charley slowed his horse to a walk. Five minutes later, Monora emerged from the woods and hunted ahead of him happily, her tail whipping like a battle flag. She would be seen no more in the 1911 National Championship.

Avent had insisted on handling Monora in hopes of repeating his double win of the National in 1901 and 1902 with Sioux, before that sweetest of his setters lost her life at age four under the wheels of a train. But Avent knew that he could not handle Monora without Charley Murray's presence.

Monora was a one-man dog, and that one man was Charley Murray, who had witnessed her whelping, handled her every day after, fed her and taught her manners, won her over, as all highstrung setters must be won by affection and patience. When she ran in competition, ostensibly under Avent's whistle, she was in fact taking her directions from Murray.

Powhatan, Buckle handling, went down with Avent's other entry, Moneche, on Thursday morning. Powhatan did well enough to earn a call back with Eugene M. the eventual winner, who would go on to be a fabled setter sire.

In 1912 Monora and Powhatan, Hobart Ames' dream dogs, were back again the National Championship, this time both handled by the universally respected pro, Willard Martin, much to Cuthbert Buckle's chagrin. When Martin came to Avent's Rustin Inn two weeks before to give his entries workouts on the National's grounds, Avent offered Martin the help of Charley Murray. Martin marveled at Monora's performances when Murray was riding, and tried to hire him to scout her in the Championship, but Avent, understandably, wouldn't allow it.

At the drawing for the 1912 Championship, Avent was bent on revenge. He got it when one of his own entries, Momony, was drawn to run with Monora. Momony was an easy dog to handle. Avent let it be known he intended to put his entry into a foot race with Monora to cause her to bolt. It seemed to be working, but then Momony, too, got away. Both Avent and Ames had the woods full of outriders, illegal scouts charged with bringing back their dogs when they strayed off the course. But when Avent finally got his dog back, the judges declared him out of judgment. So Avent and Charley Murray headed back to the inn-whereupon Monora disappeared a second time, with thirty minutes left in her three-hour heat. (When James Avent and Charley arrived at the inn, two setters were with them, Momony and Monora.)

Avent got his revenge in the last brace, winning the 1912 National Championship with his other entry, the setter Commissioner, Charley Murray scouting. Powhatan was named runner-up for the third year in a row.

Avent would win the National twice more, in 1914 with the pointer Commanche Frank, and in 1918 with the setter Joe Muncie. Ames would never win it again, and after the 1913 running, he withdrew as a contestant, to serve thereafter as judge and sponsor, making his fabled plantation its permanent home.

Avent would continue in the field-trial wars into his seventies. In his twilight years, he acquired the title "Uncle Jim," which he hated as much as he liked his earlier press moniker "Fox of Hickory Valley."

One of the judges for Monora's 1910 win of the National Championship was Judge D. G. MacDonell of Vancouver, British Columbia, a regular at the Midwinter series of trials around Memphis. He soon enticed Charley Murray to come work for him, leaving James Avent near winless for a few years, until he could develop another skilled scout and dog breaker. MacDonell died suddenly soon after hiring Charley. Finding himself unemployed, but liking the racially tolerant attitude of Canadians, Charley went in partnership with a white man named Charles Herman, trading as Delta Kennels. They enjoyed many winners for West-Coast patrons, but none so dear to Charley Murray as Monora.

Osthouse paintings of Monora and Powhatan still hang in the Ames Plantation Manor House, along with his drawing of Hobart Ames skinning a log.

Author's note: This story is historical fiction, but the essential facts are true. The exact price Hobart Ames paid for Monora is lost in obscurity, though Powhatan's price is documented in A. B. Hochwalt's The Modern Setter (1923 edition).

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
