The American Brittany

VOLUME LXX • NUMBER 9 • SEPTEMBER 2018

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

2018 ABC CENTRAL FUTURITY

THAYER, IA

April 5-6, 2018

The Central Futurity was put on by the Iowa and Minnesota Brittany Clubs April 5th & 6th at the beautiful Bird Dog Ranch in Thayer, Iowa – many thanks to Linda Thomas for all her support in getting the grounds and building ready.

There are so many people to thank that I couldn't begin to list all of them. A few that need to be acknowledged are: On the National level, Leslee Massolotte and Linda Langford for all their help with numerous questions; and as always, Purina for their sponsorship of this event. Roger Stowell and Marcy Beveridge for co-hosting this event. Ken and Jane Windom for all their work before/during/and after the event, Doug Ziegler show catalog, Kendall and Carol Brown for reporting and ring steward, Bruce Heiter and Mike Magnuson for bird planting, and everyone else who pitched in where needed. And of course, our judges for all the events: Dave Carlson, Laura Miller, Ken Windom, Chuck Burgin, and Amy Gau.

Futurity Show

The show was held Friday evening with Amy Gau giving careful consideration to all the entrants. The new building on the grounds is a beautiful place for a show. Unfortunately, the weather did not cooperate and things were a bit chilly, but everyone had a good time and the dogs didn't seem to mind one bit.

There were thirty dogs shown – seventeen males and thirteen females.

Congratulations to the following money winners and placing dogs.

Brace 1: Undercover St Clair's Goodfellow (Vinny), Scott Johnson and Dogwood's Pearl of Great Worth (Pearl), Todd Parmenter. Vinny had good range but a bit rough on his handle, especially after making contact at 11, 14, 18, and 21. Pearl did a very nice job on the ground. She had good range & pattern, handled well and had points at 11, 14, 18, 21 and 26. Pearl showed the ability to hunt independently.

Brace 2: Mtn-Aire Spartan Warrior (Leo), TJ Hidalgo and Sigbritt's Evil Side of the Road (Ren), Bobbie Sigmund. Leo had a good pattern at relatively close range. Handled well with finds at 19, 25, and 26. Ren had a big run but application was not as good as the placing dogs. She had finds at 15, 19, 21, and 26.

Brace 3: Dogwood's Hollow Eye of the Tiger (Rory), Bobbie Sigmund and Waypoint Deacon of the Hunt (Deke), Thom Christnagel. Rory ran good but lacked forward pattern. Had a find at 27. Deke ran an exceptional race with excellent range, application and handler as a total team. Had finds where no other dogs even went. Classy style on points at 4, 6 and 11.

Brace 4: Sigbritt's Promises to Keep ran in place (Keeper), Bobbie Sigmund and Royal Britts TNT Detonator (Dee), Al Van Wieren. Dog was in season. Keeper will likely make a nice hunting dog. Good application at relatively short range. Encountered birds several times and was credited points at 12 and 26.

Brace 5: Brookwood's Put Me in Coach (Gary), Steve Mitzel and Northern Star's Gunpowder & Lace (Randi), Shelly Wenberg. Gary had finds at 12, 21 and 27. Randi had no bird contact but showed great style on two backs at 12 and 21. Both dogs quartered well at relatively short range.

Brace 6: Cimarron Trails Mountain Meadow Wildflower (Daisy), Rick Neff and Sigbritt's Sugar & Spice (Ginger), Bobbie Sigmund. Daisy had nice forward application and moderate range. Finds at 11, 14, 20 and 30. Ginger also had a find after running down an edge. She continued on the course in a close personal hunting dog range.

Brace 7: Dr Jac's Anna B Rose Tessa Rae O'Dee (Tessa), Jackie Swanson and Mtn-Aire Bring It on Home (Dex), Timothy Gonzales. Neither dog ventured far from their handler. They did have a shared find at 18 in the hedgerow.

Brace 8: Sigbritt's Still a Mystery (Misty), Bobbie Sigmund and JZ Hannabelle of Hazelnut (Hannah), Steve McClure. Both dogs had bird contact at 6 under the old semi-trailer parked near the hedgerow and again at 14 along the SW finger. Range was moderate and both tended to check in with the handler quite a bit.

Brace 9: Rocco's Undercover Royalty (Royal), Cory Stokes and Dan-De Weedot (Cash), Dan Collins. Royal had a good forward run and handled very well. He had finds at 6, 8, 17, 18, 22 and 26. Showed great style on each find. Cash ran big and carded 4 stylish finds but had 2 extended absences that detracted from an otherwise excellent performance.

Brace 10: KJ's All Riled Up (Rilee) in season, Sam Thompson and Royal Britts TNT Detonator (Dee), Al Wieren. Rilee ran big but was somewhat hard to handle. Rilee pointed at 13 and had additional bird contact at 18 and 19. Dee dropped down from Brace 4. She had a good solid run with at points at 13, 18 and 19. Both dogs pushed the placed dogs and definitely show great potential.

All Age Futurity

The morning started nice and sunny even though it was only 32 degrees and the wind was out of the southeast at 9 mph. It would stay sunny all day with fairly moderate winds and would actually become a little too warm for the dogs in the afternoon. The first brace broke away at 9:40 as to not conflict with the Gun Dog Futurity stake.

Brace 1: Sigbritt's Not a Trace of Rust; Rusty – Bobbie Sigmund and Bama Jama Willy's Sassy Sadie; Sadie – Tommy Thomas. Both Rusty and Sadie started out well. As we neared the double crossing Rusty took a left on the return portion of the course and it took a little time to get him back to the front and on the proper portion of the course. Leaving the crossing Rusty veers left and Sadie takes the milo edge to the right. At 5:45 Sadie has her first bird. At 10 Rusty has a bird at the top of the finger going to the top of the hill. Sadie comes to the front and at 11 finds the bird her brace mate just worked. At 13 Sadie scores another find at the end of the second draw. At 16 just past the old farmstead on the north edge of the property Sadie finds a bird in a milo edge that parallels the road. We traverse the second crossing and Sadie makes a big swing west and points at the end of another ditch at 21. Then again at 24 she scores between the milo and timber just before re-crossing the big ditch on the return. Rusty after we turned back south went left again into the timber adjacent to the course and did not rejoin us until we reached the orchard. At 29 on the last draw before breakaway Sadie scores one more bird. Rusty has disappeared to the left and again after coming out of the orchard. Rusty started well but the second half did not look like the first. Sadie on the other hand had better application in the second half but finding that many birds possibly shortened her run.

Brace 2: Kid's Royal Casey; Casey – Bruce Heiter and CH JZ's Little Moose on the Loose; Moose – Ed Tillson.

Breakaway at 10:18. After the initial start both dogs run forward. Casey enters the Orchard far to the front and reappears from the front just as we are to leave. At 9:30 point is called for Moose both dogs are in the area. No gunshot, no visible bird, non-productive. Both dogs are running hard as they swing past the old farmstead and parallel the road along the milo strip. After crossing ditch number two both dogs swing west moving fast. Turning south Casey points a bird on the end of the draw that runs through the middle of the back field. After coming out of the Orchard on the return both dogs take the milo on the left. At 27 Casey has a second bird on the last ditch before pickup/breakaway. Moose ran well perhaps lack of a bird prevented him from taking it to the next level. Casey ran to the front was fast and had great application.

Brace 3: Wyanna; Annie – Terry Gowin and Sam Hill's One Wild Ryde; Ryder – Sam Thompson. Break away 11:00. Good start. Entering

GUN DOG WINNERS

Back Row: Judge Ken Windom and Chuck Burgin, Diane Hedstrom, Roger Stowell, Jake Parmenter

Gun Dog Futurity

J: Ken Windom & Chuck Burgin

- 1 - WAYPOINT DEACON OF THE HUNT (D), b y Waypoint Chancey

the Orchard both dogs spend considerable time checking out the ditch in the middle. Annie's scout had to encourage her to leave it while Ryder was called off and sent forward. Crossing the big ditch Ryder has been out of sight and to the front. Both dogs take the second ditch and head toward the old farm with Ryder topping the hill going north fast. After the old farm Annie takes the milo along the road and Ryder takes the left along the pond and edge heading towards crossing two. Coming up into the back-field Annie turns right or west and Ryder stays left and takes that edge downhill. At 25 Annie's handler calls point in a bulldozer pile in the Orchard. Ryder comes into investigate and both dogs move on with no bird up. At 29 on the last draw coming in to the finish Ryder points. Annie is in the vicinity and she points as well. Divided find. Annie took some handling and was perhaps short of ideal for All Age. Ryder was fast, forward with good range and application and finished strong.

Brace 4: Cross Creek Bama Jama's Number 44; Rizzo – Scott Johnson and Stellar Fifty One; Stella – Barry Steinmetz. At 9:30 Stella points in the draw after the big crossing. At 16 Rizzo has a bird in draw south of the old farm. Both of these dogs were somewhat slower than ideal and struggled with a consistent forward pattern.

Brace 5: Cross Creek Bama Jama's I Wanna Talk About Me; Jentry – Scott Johnson and Green Acres Jazzee; Jazee – Ken Seivert. Break away 1:18 These two started slow with some patterning issues. At 11 Jentry slows and acts birdy along the first big draw after the first crossing as her handler goes in Jazee comes to investigate and the bird flies with no solid point from either. Perhaps because it is warming up both of these dogs seemed to tire but also had a slower pace and were a little loopy.

Brace 6: TNT's Country Road Runner; Bo – Tommy Thomas and Wayside's Mt Orion's Moon; Moon – Scott Johnson. Both of these dogs start well with a good pace. Coming out of the big ditch crossing, the wind has changed to the north and both dogs swing left into it. Coming up to the old farmstead at 12 Moon points near a couple of small trees Bo locks up as well for a divided find. On the west past the farmstead in the milo strip at 13 Runner scores and second bird. Runner has a good handle but perhaps more lateral today than liked in an All Age stake. Moon was perhaps a little too independent and slowed down before the finish. To note it is getting warm now.

Brace 7: Detroit Rascal's Son Of A Gun; Cobo – W. Burton McCandless and JB's Full Speed Ahead; Captain – Scott Johnson. At 9 minutes Cobo points in the island of cover up the hill from the big ditch crossing. At 10 Captain pins one at the end long draw running up the hill. We cross ditch two and Captain takes the fence line west at the top and is rewarded with a bird at 19. We cross back over the big ditch and enter the orchard and at 24 Cobo points again on the ditch running up the middle. The handler is unable to produce a bird though. Captain arrives a minute later and 15 yards further points and the handler produces a bird. Cobo returns for a back on what could have been his bird. Cobo had some handling issues and was somewhat lateral. Captain lacked focus on the start and perhaps application suffered but his run and application looked better with each bird. His second half was stellar.

Brace 8: Dogwood's Top Shelf Tequila; Tippy – Todd Parmenter, Bye. At 9 on top of the hill at the end of the draw past the big ditch crossing Tippy points staunchly. This would be her only bird. It is now the warmest part of the day and I think the heat took its toll for her application and speed where good. Unfortunately, not enough to move the top four placements.

PAVING MEMORY LANE

National Bird Dog Museum
Grand Junction, TN

The Bird Dog Foundation is repaving the entrance to the museum with bricks, creating a memorial walk from the museum's parking lot to the front door. The museum is offering engraved bricks on which you can immortalize your dog, a person you feel should be honored or remembered, or even your field trial club. All bricks ordered by Brittany patrons will be placed together. The walkway will be enhanced when the project is done and you will also be contributing to the Brittany Endowment Fund.

The bricks will have up to three lines of text with up to 15 characters per line. The cost is $100.00 per brick. Of the cost, $25 pays for the brick and construction of the walk and $75 will go to the Brittany Endowment Fund.

The bricks can be ordered three different ways:

BY MAIL: The order form on our website www.brittanyfieldtrialhalloffame.com can be filled out and mailed to the museum with a check or money order to:
The Bird Dog Foundation
P.O. Box 774
Grand Junction, TN 38039

BY PHONE: To place a phone order, call the museum at (731)764-2058 and provide the necessary information and a credit card number.

INTERNET VIA PAYPAL: Log onto the museum's website at www.birddogfoundation.com, click on the Paving Memory Lane brick and enter the required information.

Pennsylvania Brittany Shooting Dog Championship and Derby Classic

Mingo Sportsman Club Grounds, Bloomingdale, Ohio

Winner: Marjo's Leftover

Reported by David Webb

The weather often is unpredictable in March in Ohio. What was also unpredictable was location of the event. As time "rolled around" for the event to take place the second week in March, it was determined that there were not enough dogs entered to hold the event at the Tri-Valley grounds near Dresden, Ohio. Both the Open Shooting Dog and Derby were canceled the last week in February. Within several days of announcing cancellation, contact was made from the Mingo Sportsman Club indicating that their grounds would be available March 26th thru the 28th, if the Pennsylvania Brittany Championship Association would want to have the event this current year of 2018.

With help from Mary Jo Trimble, Steve Ralph, Wade Haines, Lisa Pollock, and Leslie Andres and Connie Thomas (AKC) regarding the re-registration paper work necessary for change of date and location, the event was moved to the Mingo Sportsman Club grounds in Bloomington, Ohio. With regard to the actual event, it was a success. There were 27 dogs entered in the Shooting Dog stake and 15 dogs in the Derby.

With the help of the following individuals the event was a complete success: Gene Stewart – bird planter & dog wagon driver par-excellent; Bill Berger and Stan Williamson – also dog wagon drivers; Jack Alexander – bird planter & side-by-side driver; Tom Tracy – laying out the continuous course; and Bill DeLewis – cooked – breakfast and lunches.

The Pennsylvania Brittany Championship Association (PABCA) and the American Brittany Club also wishes to recognize and thank Nestle/Purina for their continued support of this ABC Classic Championship both with funding and dog food. We recognize their continued cooperation and sponsorship of this American Brittany Club event. While the monetary support helps our club, the quality of the dog food helps us keep the dogs in a competitive condition.

Chris Streitenberg from Lancaster, OH and Dan DiMambro from Leroy, MI were in the saddle to judge the field of 27 entries from professional trainers, Bob Burchett, Tom Tracy Jr., as well as, amateur handlers John and Joanne Perry, Vince Anderson, and Tommy Thomas. First day was in the 50's with sunshine; next day much cooler weather and rain. The event proceeded "smoothly" with three continuous courses, which allowed for a quick change to occur between braces.

Open Shooting Dog Championship

The winner of the Shooting Dog Championship came from brace No. 11, Marjo's Leftover, aka Haley, handled by John Perry for owner Danielle Perry of Claymont, DE. Haley is a nine-year old, orange/white female Brittany sired by Marjo's Red Rum with the damn being Elyssa's Allie Bara. Runner-Up was Magnum High Velocity, call name Gauge, who ran in the 10th brace. Gauge is an orange/white, five-year old Brittany, who was sired by High Hopes Tiger Jac; damn was High Hope's Dot's Original Spice. Gauge is owned and was handled by Vincent Anderson of Eire, PA. Giving a strong competitive run and placing 3rd was Turning Points Shenanigans, aka Shandy, an orange/white female, sired by Masked Jack of Diamonds with the damn being Copely Winecrest Grand Theft Auto. Shandy is owned by Julie Nelson and Mark Claypool from Aurora, IL and was handed by Bob Burchett. Placing 4th was Hope's Chief of Crosscreek, call name Chief, owned by Barb & Wayne Pepin and Polly & Bob West of Floyd Knobs, IN and handed by Bob Burchett. Chief ran in brace No. 2 and is an orange/white male.

Derby Classic Event

Following the Open Shooting Dog event, a Derby Classic was conducted starting on Tuesday afternoon and concluding Wednesday morning. Judges for this event were April Raber of Leroy, MI and Rich Pristov of Brookpark, OH. The judges endured rainy wet cool weather for the eight braces of the Derby. Both Bob Burchett and Tom Tracy, Jr. entered dogs along with amateurs – Stan Williamson, Tommy Thomas, and Richy Allan (total entries being 15).

The winner of the Derby Classic came from brace No. 4, Redbud Jake, owned and handled by Stan Williamson of Lewistown, MO. Jake is a white/orange male, who will be two years old July 12th of this year. Runner-up was Pine Crest's Chippen Away, aka Chip, a white/orange male owned by Tim Huglen of Rochester, MN and handled by Tom Tracy. Chip ran in the brace No. 1; he will be two on August 29th. In addition, with a competitive run and placing third was Osage Fork Slick, owned and handled by Bob Burchett. Slick is an orange/white male, who is currently 10 months old. Placing fourth was Glade Run Ruger; liver/white male owned by David Webb of Valencia, PA and handled by Tom Tracy. Ruger will be two on July 24th this year.

ABC Gun Dog Classic/Shooting Dog Championship

Union County Ranch, Thayer, Iowa

April 30-May 2, 2018

Reported by Ken Windom

The 2018 ABC Gun Dog Classic/Championship was held on the grounds of Union County Ranch, near Thayer, Iowa, and hosted by Hawkeye Brittany Club. Weather is always a factor in field trials, and the operative weather word for this stake was wind. Regardless of whether the sky was blue or there were thunderstorms, the wind seemed to blow. Much of the time there were sustained winds of 20–30 mph, mostly from the south, with gusts of 40 mph and higher. This posed challenges for handlers and dogs, making scenting conditions difficult as well as being able to communicate when the dogs were upwind of the handler. Nonetheless, quality dogs rose to the top. Judges Rodney Albin, of Moscow Mills, MO, and Dano Morf, of Clear Lake, IA, named CH Almaden's Under Lock And Key the winner. Oudi ran in Brace 9 on Tuesday morning. He put down a strong, forward race with 5 quality finds and one non-productive. He is owned by Emmy and Noah Wollenburg of DeForest, WI and handled by Ed Tillson. Second went to DC/AFC TNT's Sirius Renegade Buddy Boy, owned and handled by Tommy Thomas of Somonauk, IL. Running in Brace 11, Buddy was also consistently forward with one find, one stop-to-flush, a back and a non-productive during his hour. Third place was claimed by Starlight's Mercury Out Ryder, owned by Teresa Richmond of Hinckley, IL and handled by Bob Burchett. Ryder came from Brace 14 and scored 5 quality finds as he moved rapidly around the course. Rounding out the placements was Grade 8 Bolt, owned by Bill Oliver of Eastborough, KS and handled by Scott Johnson. Bolt had 5 finds during his hour.

The American Brittany Club wishes to thank its corporate sponsors, Nestle–Purina and Garmin, for their continued support of field trials. Events such as these would be next to impossible without the long-term help of such companies and their contributions are greatly appreciated.

Many thanks to all who helped with the many small details necessary to put on these events. Bruce Heiter and Bill Cockrum made sure there were ample birds on both courses. Val Burchett and Linda Thomas drove the dog wagon and acted as road guards, along with Roger Stowell. Ken Windom served as marshal and reporter.

Monday morning, April 30. Temperature 54, partly cloudy, windy.

Brace 1: Tom Tall Tale/Tracy and Ammo's The Show That Never Ends/Burchett. Broke away behind camp at 7:56, headed north. Tom had a find at 4 just past the first crossing, then encountered deer and was soon out-of-pocket, not to be returned to judgement. Emmy pointed at 13 in field south of the old barn, but handler was unable to produce a bird. She scored a find at 23 at the west end of the alfalfa field, with all in order. She indicated game at 28 at the motte south of the alfalfa field, but never firmly established point and handler continued on without attempting to flush. She pointed again at 27 at the end of the finger south of the Johnny House where a small covey was produced. She stopped at 32, just south of the west creek crossing, but a rabbit came out of the heavy cover and handler elected to move on. She pointed again at 43, south of the road crossing, but nothing was produced and handler picked up.

Brace 2: A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds/Hastings and Georgia Drive By/Burchett. Left from road crossing at 8:52 heading south; south wind has picked up considerably. Both dogs started out with big moves to the front, rimming the edges of the CRP field and the feed strips of sorghum. Trace pointed at 7 on the north side of the hedgerow, with Drive By backing from about 60 yards away. A bird was produced and both dogs taken on. The roles were reversed at 12, with Drive By scoring the find and Trace backing. Drive By was credited with a stop-to-flush at 19 along the old fence east of Bill's Landing, then a large covey lifted as handler fired. Meanwhile, Trace pointed further along this same fence line, with a small covey produced as well. Drive By was under a bird at 23 and was up. Trace went south along the feed strip after the rock crossing and was found on point by scout at 27. He stood mannerly as bird was flushed, then was taken on. Unfortunately, he was seen under a bird at 29 to end what was shaping up to be a very competitive run.

Brace 3: Firestarters All In/Tillson and Grade 8 Bolt/Johnson. The dogs were loosed at the keyhole at 9:40, headed north. Wind has continued to increase, with sustained winds of 25–30 mph and gusts of approximately 40 mph. Both dogs crossed the road onto the north course, but Booker seemed to have directional problems after that. Handler eventually pulled out the Garmin at 25. Meanwhile, Bolt was putting down a pleasing, mostly forward race. He scored a find at 25 and again at 28 at the fingers past the double crossing. He pointed again at 30 along the tree line south of the old barn site, with all in order. He pointed at 39 in the SW corner of the alfalfa field, but initial flushing attempt was unsuccessful, so he was asked to relocate in the heavy cover. He finally pinned the bird, and handler was able to flush while Bolt stood mannerly. He scored his fifth find at the motte south of the alfalfa field. After being released, he took the feed strip all the way around, crossing into the next field to the front. He ended his hour just north of the road crossing shortening somewhat at the end.

Brace 4: TurningPts Landslide/Burchett and Wichita Wild Woman/Tracy. Breakaway was at 10:50 from the road crossing headed south. Mack ran to the front, and indicated game at 13 near the feeder east of Bill's landing, but bumped a small covey before he fully established point and was up. Meanwhile, Nicki was ranging far and wide, being a handful to get back to the front. She arrived with her handler about the time Mack was picked up and pointed several yards further west along the same fence line. Handler flushed and fired, with all in order. She made the rock crossing, took the edge of the feed strip and was found standing at 22 at the far east end of the finger. She stood mannerly as handler flushed a bird and was taken on. She crossed over onto the north course and was credited with a find at 55 along the SW edge of the alfalfa field. She finished her hour south of the deer stand, near the west crossing. She had started out with huge moves, but the wind and rising temperatures seemed to have taken its toll as she shortened considerably during the latter portion of her hour.

Brace 5: Hehi's Slim Chipley/Burchett and Lost Creek A Shot Of Bourbon/Januschka. This was the first brace after lunch, leaving camp at 1:27 headed north. The wind had not abated from the morning's running, and the temperature continued to rise, making conditions less than ideal. Both dogs broke away strong to the front, with Slim being the wider of the two. Streak pointed at 9 along the tree line east of the double crossing, but no bird was produced despite multiple relocation attempts. Meanwhile, Slim had an unfortunate encounter with a bird at the end of the first finger and was up. Streak came up and stopped at 16 at the location of Slim's indiscretion and handler elected to move on after judge informed her of what had recently transpired there. Streak stopped at 24 along the south edge of the alfalfa field and a bird lifted. Handler fired and continued on. He scored a find at 26 at the west end of the alfalfa field, with all in order. He had another find at 30 at the motte. He scored again at 55 along a finger north of the hedgerow, finishing his hour as we approached the old horse corral. Overall, he showed good application, and had an impressive opening cast, but shortened noticeably as the hour progressed, as the strong, dry wind continued to take its toll.

Brace 6: Joker's Lucy U Got Sum Splain 2 Do/Tracy and Sanbars Legendary Evening/Burchett. Lucy had blown her pads running the weekend trial preceding the Classic, and was scratched. Hershey ran in place as a bye dog. He broke away into the wind from the old horse corral at 2:37. He pointed at 2 at the far east end of the fence line east of Bill's landing. A bird was produced and the dog taken on. From there, he seemed to have problems staying on a line until we crossed onto the north course, where he made a nice cast along the feed strip bordering the dogleg. He suffered a non-productive at 25 along the ditch in the former Red Cedar Forest, then a 2nd NP at 33 east of the double crossing and handler picked him up.

Brace 7: Romence's Texas Two Step/Burchett and Wrigley's Bodemiester/Steinmetz. The final brace of Monday left the old barn site at 3:28 headed west. Tess was seen standing at the far end of the alfalfa, but moved on as Bode ran up beside her. Shortly later, she was under a bird at 4 just over the crest of the hill from that spot. Bode continued on and roaded into the wind at the motte, before establishing a firm point at 6. A bird was produced with all in order. He pointed again at 28 on the south course along the finger to the far north of the hedgerow. Handler was unable to produce bird, and relocation attempt was unsuccessful. He stopped at 40 approximately 50 yards from the fence line east of Bill's landing, but handler did not think he had birds pinned so whistled him up until he established a firm point. A large covey was produced, with all in order, and the dog was taken on. At 43, Bode appeared to be making game, but did not establish a firm point and was whistled on by handler. A bird popped as the dog was moving forward, and judges asked handler to pick him up.

Tuesday's running was delayed until 10:00 AM due to a narrow line of thunder storms that moved through the area that morning. Two braces were run before lunch and four afterward.

Brace 8: TNT's Raise'N A Ruckus/Thomas and Sniksoh Little Diamond/Johnson. The rain cleared the air and settled the dust, plus the wind was much lighter this morning than Monday. The dogs were loosed from camp, headed north. Both dogs made big opening casts, with the younger Katy being the bigger of the two. Rae scored a find at 9 at the first finger past the double crossing. Katy pointed at 11 at second finger, looking very intense. Bird was produced with all in order. Katy scored again at 18 on the west end of the alfalfa field, with Rae backing. Both dogs pointed at 21, Rae in the feed strip south of the alfalfa field and Katy approximately 200 yards farther down along the edge of the ditch. Tommy was unable to produce a bird for Rae and had to settle for a non-productive. Meanwhile, Katy decided to have a late breakfast and was up. Rae continued on to the south course, hitting all the objectives with a solid, forward race. She scored again at 50 near the feeder east of Bill's landing, but suffered her second non-productive stand along the old fence line separating the course from the bean field as time expired.

Brace 9: Sniksoh Spanks Hank/Hoskins and Almaden's Under Lock And Key/Tillson. Breakaway was from the rock crossing heading east toward the hedgerow at 11:14. Both dogs took the right edge along the feed strip. Hank pointed at 2 along the east edge of the terrace below the hedge while Oudi took the west edge of the same terrace and continued on past the hedgerow. Jeff was unable to produce a bird for Hank and he was taken on. He hit the far east feed strip, but turned south instead of north and had to be corralled back to the front. As he was returning, he pointed along the edge of the woods at 6. A bird was produced with all in order. He scored again at 10 by the lone hedge tree north of the willows. He crossed the road but was out of pocket at the double crossing. Meanwhile, Oudi had traversed the north course and was standing at the first finger past the double crossing at 23. A bird was produced with all in order. He scored again at 25 at the second finger. At 29, Oudi pointed in the short grass west of the old barn site, but no bird was produced. Meanwhile, Hank returned, but suffered his second non-productive at the first finger at 30. Oudi scored a find at 36 at the west end of the alfalfa field and again at 41 at the motte. Scout called point at 53 along the east edge of the field north of camp. Oudi was looking straight down into a gully when handler arrived. Flushing attempt required handler to slide down into the gully, but a bird was produced and the dog stood mannerly as handler struggled to extricate himself from the steep ditch. He finished to the front on the south course, having put down a consistently pleasing, forward race.

Brace 10: St. Clair's Prince Rocco Vulcano Leo/Johnson and Hoochie Coochie Man/Tillson. First brace after lunch broke away from camp at 1:29 under overcast skies and a moderate breeze from the SSW. Both dogs were away to the front, taking the east side. Rocco went between the ditches to the double crossing. Karl came around to the west side, but was out-of-pocket at the double crossing. Rocco scored a find at 11 at the first finger. Karl was rounded up and caught the front at 14 as both dogs headed toward the old barn site. Karl pointed at 20 on the path west of the crossing to the alfalfa field, with Rocco backing. A bird was produced with all in order. Karl was later seen under a bird at 23 at the west end of the alfalfa field. Rocco came up and pointed at the same location from which the bird had flown. Handler was able to flush more birds, with all in order. Rocco suffered a non-productive at 31 in heavy cover just before the west creek crossing. Rocco hunted the cover, but his pattern was not very consistent on this day. He pointed again at 58 north of the Hedgerow. Bird left as handler dismounted, with all in order and he finished his hour to the front.

Brace 11: Copper On The Job/Maiale and TNT's Sirius Renegade Buddy Boy/Thomas. This brace left from the gate access at the horse corral. The dogs started east, along the feed strip, instead of south and had to be rounded up and put back on course. Both dogs acted as though they were making game at 2 at the opening through the fence line, then moved on. Copper took the fence line west toward Bill's landing and pointed. Mario flushed a nice covey as the dog stood mannerly through the shot. Copper pointed again at 8, with Buddy backing, at the end of the finger SW of the Hedgerow. Birds were produced and both dogs taken forward. Buddy was standing at 13 at the lone hedge tree. He moved up briefly as Copper came by, then re-established point after Copper had moved on. Tommy was unable to produce a bird, despite several relocation attempts, and the dog was taken on, catching the front north of camp. Buddy made a beautiful move along the west feed strip past the Double Crossing. Copper pointed at 41 at the top of the path on the east end of the alfalfa field. Birds were produced with all in order. Meanwhile, Buddy scored a find at the west end of the alfalfa field at 43. Copper made a nice move along the south edge of the alfalfa field, headed west. Buddy was credited with a stop-to-flush at 45 at the end of the finger south of the alfalfa field. He finished strong to the front past the road crossing. Copper made some very nice moves, but was lacked the consistency of pattern shown by the placing dogs.

Brace 12: Rico's Hi Proof Bootlegger/Schafer and Turning Points Shenanigans/Burchett. Breakaway at 3:55 from the road crossing heading south. Both dogs made good moves through the east field to the crossing, being well forward. At 6, they were found standing together at the lone hedge tree. A bird was produced and both handlers fired. Mason roaded in toward the ditch north of the hedgerow and pointed at 8, but no bird was produced. After a relocation attempt, he swung south and pointed at the redtip dogwoods at 12. Birds were produced with all in order. After being released, Mason headed back to the tree where birdwork had occurred at 6 and pointed. A bird was produced, but the dog chased and was up. Meanwhile, Shandi scored a find at the fence line east of Bill's landing. She suffered a non-productive at 25 in the SW corner of the field past the rock crossing, but scored a find between the terraces south of the hedgerow at 27. She made several nice moves along the edges as we crossed back to the north course and past the Double Crossing. She was spotted by judge on point at 47, deep in the cover of the first finger. An extensive flushing and relocation attempt succeeded in producing a bird on the far east edge of the finger. She scored again at 54. Unfortunately, she was later seen under a bird at 58, ending what had been an impressive run.

Brace 13: Hope's Chief Of Crosscreek/Burchett and Rosie The Terror/Maiale. The final brace of the day was released from the old barn site. At 5, Chief suffered an indiscretion on a bird at the west end of the alfalfa field, ending his bid early. Rosie scored a covey find at 8 along the old fence line south of the alfalfa field, with all in order. The wind had picked up substantially by the end of the day, with sustained speeds of 20-25 mph. Rosie shortened considerably going into this wind, and handler elected to pick up at 18.

Wednesday morning was overcast with a temperature of 63 degrees. The forecast is for severe thunderstorms arriving mid-morning, but radar showed them to be some distance away, so we broke away at 7:45 in an effort to beat the storms.

Brace 14: Starlight's Mercury Out Ryder/Burchett and Touch Of Bourbon Little Chug/Johnson. The dogs broke away from camp, with both making big moves forward. Ryder pointed at 12 in the short cover east of the old barn site, showing great style. A bird was produced and shot fired. Meanwhile, Carson has been out-of-pocket since before the double crossing. Ryder scored his second find at 19 at the west end of the alfalfa field, again with all in order. His third find came at the motte at 22, where a small covey was produced. Carson had not returned at 24, so Scott called for the Garmin. Ryder continued along at a rapid pace, onto the south course and around past the Horse Corral. He scored again at 49 on the covey east of Bill's Landing. At 57, he pointed at the end of the terrace west of the hedgerow. Bird was produced and shot fired with Ryder standing mannerly. He finished his hour north of the hedgerow.

Brace 15: Coco Dot/Johnson and Sovereigns Chasing Legends/Burchett. We returned to camp to break away this brace. Both dogs were standing at 9 at the end of the first finger past the double crossing, but no bird was produced. Hobey pointed at 20 at the west end of the alfalfa field, with all in order. Meanwhile, Coco made a big move around the big field west of the alfalfa field. Hobey circled back after being released, then went along the fence to the SW corner of the alfalfa field where he pointed again at 23. Birds were flushed, and he spun hard to mark their flight, then was taken on. Meanwhile, Coco was on point at the motte, where handler found a dead bird, so she was taken on. Hobey scored again at 26 on a covey along the south edge of the alfalfa field. Coco was spotted in the corner along the feed strip south of the orchard but seemed to have trouble getting to the front, so handler elected to pick up before the road crossing. Meanwhile, Hobey crossed onto the south course at 39, but bumped a bird and chased at 49 and was up.

Brace 16: Crosscreek Sanbar We Just Couldn't Say No/ Burchett. The final brace left from the crest of the ridge near the lone hedge tree at 10:05, heading toward the horse corral. Dylan pointed at 8 east of Bill's Landing, but chased at the flush.

The Fight in the Dog

February 2018 | Northwoods Sporting Journal

The gentleman who was the focus of the article below, Ted Swierczynski, is a life member of the Southern New England Brittany Club and was involved with Brittanys and the American Brittany Club for over fifty years. Ted's kennel under the name of "Hellgate" produced many Field and Amateur Field Champions over the years. His late wife Dot, his two sons and daughter were fixtures for many years at Brittany events in the Northeast. Ted founded and operated his own precision metal fabrication shop called The Brittany Company. This business is now run by his son Tad. Besides raising and training his own Brittanys, Ted was also active in organizing and running trials. He was also in demand for judging assignments. These traditions are now being carried on by his son Mitch and grandson Logan. Three generations of Brittany enthusiasts.

Bob Fleury

Practically everyone has heard that saying, "It's not the dog in the fight, but the fight in the dog." A similar saying is, "you can't tell a book by its cover." Both were very applicable this past fall while deer hunting in Maine at Northern Outdoors, (NO), The Forks, Me.

This year at NO I couldn't help but notice an elderly man in the dining hall walking very slowly with a cane. My first thought was, what is a guy like that doing up here in Northern Maine-hunting in the worst deer hunting environment in the country? What is he thinking? As I pondered this while I was hunting, this thought then occurred to me, "Good for him. I hope that I still have that burning desire to deer hunt when I get to that point." I then decided that I had to meet this man and that I was going to write an article about him. I just had to.

That stalwarts name is Ted Swierczynski, and he's 81 years young. Ted's from Connecticut and he's been hunting at Northern Outdoors for the past 16 years with his son Mitch and a friend of Ted Coppersite. Before coming to NO they hunted in Vermont, but there hunting there isn't what it was, so at the age of 65 Ted decided to take on a new deer hunting challenge, the North Maine Woods. Yikes.

Ted's hunting party always opt for the unguided hunt at Northern Outdoors-and even bigger challenge, but hey, that's just the way Ted rolls, even with a cane. This year was like every other, as they always hunt the third week. But in the second week of October, Ted was stricken with pneumonia, hospitalizing Ted for a week and then there was three weeks of rehab.

"I got so weak, Ted said. I could barely get around my yard in Connecticut, but I new I had to get healthy enough to hunt. I just couldn't miss this week."

Ted and his crew have their favorite spots where they hunt but this year Ted couldn't hunt the way that he likes to. "I just couldn't go as far as I usually do," Ted said." Typically we take a stand in the morning and if it seems like nothing is moving then we'll do some looking around to find fresh sign. I couldn't bring my climbing tree stand either." (Which means that he used it last year when he was 80 years old). "And I stay out there, all day, every day, and that's what you have to do to be successful in Maine. It has to be in your blood to hunt like this." Their system works, too. This year Ted's son, Mitch, shot a 195 pound nine-pointer, and in 2015 Ted shot a ten-pointer.

One never knows where you will find inspiration. As the sun starts to set on my hunting career, (I'm 61) I'm finding it easier to come up with excuses NOT to go hunting, especially when I'm deer hunting under tough conditions. But now that I've spoken with Ted, I can honestly say that, "if he can do it, then so can I."

So if you're ever hunting in The Forks area and you see an older looking man hunting with a cane, then don't feel pity for him, but do go over and meet him as he may need help dragging out a nice buck. Then again, he may not need your help at all.

June 16, 2018

The 2018 LaSalle Brittany Club specialty shows were held on June 16, 2018 in Grayslake, IL. These shows are part of a five-day cluster, providing Brittany's six opportunities at Best of Breed or points. Congratulations to Best of Breed winners GCHP Labyrinth N Illusion Slippery When Wet JH, owner Karen Hanson and GCH Star Frankly My Dear RN NA CGC, owner Jaqueline Ceres and to all the placing dogs, owners and breeders.

We were honored to have Mr. David Haddock of Franklin, TN and Mr. William Sahloff of Swanton, OH judge our specialty shows. We were very happy to have Ms. Evalyn Gregory of Louisville, KY judge our Sweepstakes. A special thanks to Mrs. Paula Blanco and Teri Buckman for being the show ring stewards.

So much work goes on behind the scenes to put on these quality events. All year long, committee members are watching out for interesting prize idea, collecting items for our raffle or soliciting trophy sponsorship pledges. Then, on the show weekend, even more members come out to set up, clean up, feed us and generally be of help. To all of these unsung, dedicated LaSalle members – Thank You! A special thank you goes out to Petra Steinmetz and Christine walker who once again set up an amazing raffle, Hali Jones who did a fantastic job managing our trophy selection, Billy Jones who handled the trophy sponsorship, Luan Tondola and Mike Cypser for putting together an amazing lunch, Paula Blanco for putting together our premium and catalogs Jackie Ceres and Marie Starsiak for finding advertisers and the rest of the show committee who continuously delivered on a great show.

As part of our 50th anniversary celebration, the Central Maine Brittany Club hosted a specialty show and supported entry June 23 and 24 in conjunction with the Penobscot Valley Kennel Club. Many exhibitors from all over New England and beyond traveled to Maine for the "Chickadee Classic" and four days of outdoor shows at the beautiful Cumberland Fairgrounds just outside of Portland, Maine. This year, the weather mostly cooperated. We did have some rain on Saturday but temperatures were comfortable. On Sunday, we were dry but the humidity snuck back in making for a warm day. During the specialty on Saturday, exhibitors had the option of wearing hunter orange or upland hunter clothing in celebration of the club's hunting theme for our 40th anniversary. Many exhibitors took advantage of this option and were very comfortable and prepared when the rain began.

Denyse Milligan Adams had the pleasure of serving as our sweepstakes judge this year. She reported that she thoroughly enjoyed judging our small but respectable sweepstakes entry. Best Puppy in Sweepstakes went to a lovely white and orange girl, Thomasbritt's Sans Souci, owned and bred by Karen Thomas. Best Veteran in Sweepstakes was awarded to a beautiful liver and white girl, CH Birch Spring PC Lunar Eclipse JH, owned by Phillip Thayer and Benjamin Thayer and bred by Kendall Brown.

The regular classes were judged by Col. Joe B. Purkhiser. Despite the rain that was coming down fairly steadily by this time, Col. Purkhiser took his time and gave each dog a good look. He selected a very nice looking white and orange boy, Jaci's Cowboy Brewster Fencepost Magellan, as his Winners Dog and also Best of Winners. Reserve Winners Dog went to Paradise's "Nothin' Ventured Nothin Gained".

Winners Bitch went to the puppy sweepstakes winner, Thomasbritt's Sans Souci. Reserve Winners Bitch was presented to Paradise's Endless Summer!

The rain lightened somewhat as the specials entered the ring for their turn in Best of Breed. Col. Purkhiser pulled out a lovely white and orange girl who had just moved up from the classes after finishing her Champion earlier in the Chickadee Classic. New Champion (pending AKC approval) Dogwood Hollow Sunshine from Above, owned by Karen Loring and Kathryn Durno and bred by Timothy Durno, Kathryn Durno, Geri Clements and Cheryl Mika, went on to a very impressive Sporting Group 2 later in the afternoon. This little girl was also Col. Purkhiser's best owner handled in breed and finished the day as best owner handled in show. It was very exciting watching this team do so well. Best of opposite was given to GCH Top Shelf's The Chosen One JH NA NJA NJ. Best-Bred-By-Exhibitor went to Birch Spring Dark Side of the Moon JH who also ended up as the Best-Bred-By-Exhibitor in Show.

In addition to the rosettes, our winners this weekend received lovely gifts of custom artwork designed by Maine Nature Art (Georgette Kanach). The "top tier" winners received gorgeous sterling silver trophies designed by Pyramid Studios (David Herrington and Denise Hue). Best of Breed also received a complimentary show photo, offered by Fritz Clark, Standard Image. After the show, we all enjoyed a picnic style lunch together under the tents, complete with cake, celebrating our 50th year as a club. On behalf of the Central Maine Brittany Club, I'd like to extend our thanks to all the club members and supporters who helped this weekend come together. We are already beginning preparations for next year's show and we hope to see even more folks join us in 2019!

WELCOME TO MICHIGAN and
THE IONIA STATE RECREATION AREA

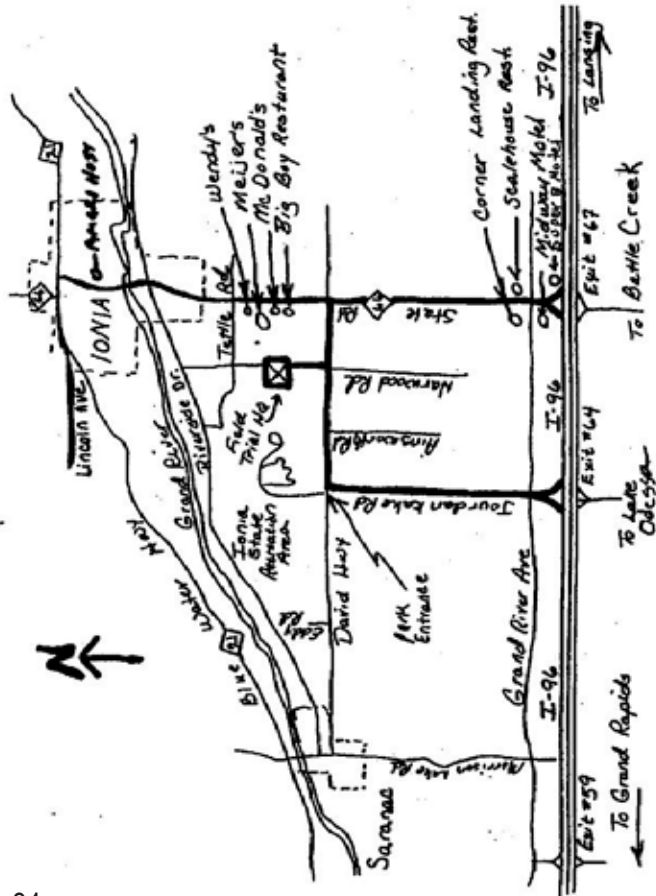

The 2015 National Open and Amateur Gun Dog Championships are being held at the Ionia State Recreation Area in Ionia, Michigan. The town of Ionia is located in the mid-west portion of the state, between Lansing and Grand Rapids. Ionia offers to its guest motel accommodations, fine restaurants, fast food eateries, grocery and department stores, feed mills, veterinary clinics and even glider rides if you might want to see the grounds from the air. The field trial grounds are located just a few miles from town.

Ionia Recreation Area is a Michigan State park that offers to its visitors a man-made lake with swimming area and also some good fishing, horseback trails, camping sites and some of the finest field trial grounds found anywhere. The work done on these fine grounds is undertaken by the Ionia Grounds Committee, the members of the Field Trial Clubs in Michigan, and the State of Michigan.

Ionia State Recreation Area covers over 4,500 acres and has multiple well groomed one-hour courses.

Each course offers a dog the chance to show off what it can do best, from covering the spacious fields to running the edges. The terrain is rolling and picturesque and all courses are suitable for walking and have water on them. The rolling terrain enables the handler to see their dog. All courses are a true test for a well-mannered gun dog.

Good luck to everyone and Welcome to Michigan!

ATTENTION FIELD TRIALERS

The Ionia Field Trial Grounds Committee requests that you pay special attention to the following items to help us maintain our quality facility and reduce the time and labor involved in clean up at the conclusion of the trial.

1. Those not purchasing a State Park Sticker UPON ARRIVAL will be ticketed. Seems we've had trouble with this in the past and they're coming down hard on those not buying park stickers right away!
2. Portable corrals and temporary fences are no longer allowed at Ionia.
3. THERE IS NO PARKING, STANDING OR STOPPING ON HARWOOD ROAD WHILE WAITING FOR THE PARKING LOT TO BE CLEARED BY THE PREVIOUS TRIAL. Please go to the Riverside parking lot and you will be notified when the headquarters lot is available. The State has warned us that they or the county sheriff will be issuing tickets for any vehicles that are parked, stopped or blocking Harwood Road.
4. Fill in all holes caused by digging dogs!! If you don't and the FT committee has to do it for you – you will be charged a fee for their services.
5. Pick up all loose paper and other trash that may blow into the parking area and surrounding fenced areas.
6. Clean any stall you may use and deposit the waste in the manure spreader. If you don't and the FT committee has to do it for you – you will be charged a fee for their services.
7. Clean up all horse manure and hay associated with your animals (this INCLUDES around your stakeouts!) and deposit it in the manure spreader. If you don't and the FT committee has to do it for you – you will be charged a fee for their services.

WHEELBARROWS, ETC. ARE KEPT IN THE BARN STOREROOM.
PLEASE RETURN THEM UPON COMPLETION OF YOUR CLEAN UP

IN ADDITION PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE FOLLOWING:

1. Please do not chain dogs or tie horses to the fence post along the East Side of the parking lot (along the side that runs along the road) – HORSES ARE NOT ALLOWED BETWEEN THE FENCE POST AND THE FENCE ALONG THE ROAD. THIS WILL BE ENFORCED.
2. Park horse trailers and campers butted against the parking lot perimeter post. Do not park parallel to them as it reduces the space available for parking.
3. Camping Fees, now known as "Overnight animal attendant" fees at a rate of $7.00/per night without electric and $12.00/per night with electric are available to "animal attendants" at the headquarters grounds (from the American Brittany club only) please pay ABC directly. (make check payable to ABC). Please note...the camping fees are now payable directly to ABC upon arrival. (See Terri DeBarr)
4. There will be another breed's event following the conclusion of ours. If you would like to remain at the grounds, please move your camp to the horseman's campground inside the park.

Finally, please remember that the Ionia Recreation Area is a multiple use area and bicycle and horseback riders have access to marked trails and roadways. Please be polite in conversation with them so as not to cause conflicts. Hunting is also allowed on all courses and we must keep in mind that we only have access to the land just as others do.

Thank you for your cooperation!!!

ABC Shooting Dog Derby Invitational

2018 Judges

Al Cropek – Conneautville, PA

“I’m honored being asked to judge the Derby Shooting Dog Invitational. I got into field trialing back in 1991 with my wife Cindy; she started in 1977 when Frida Saint John gave her a Brittany -“Remus” took her to school! We live in Conneautville, PA on 73 acres, where we train our dogs. I truly love to train dogs, developing them from puppies to becoming a National Champion. We’ve campaigned our dogs to 11 FC, 10 AFC and 3 DC titles, multiple American Field championships and 16 National Gun dog placements; 6 National Gun Dog Champions, 5 Runner-Up National Champions. In 2016 AKC named us Breeders of the Year for the Sporting Dog Group, as the breeders of 5 National Gun Dog Champions.

I’ve judged multiple weekend trials, championships, hour stakes and futurities. I believe in giving back to the sport that I love - what better way to have a front row seat, watching big running dogs with great style! Good luck to all that are attending - may God Bless everyone with safe travels and a great time.”

Marc Rittner – San Dimas, CA

Marc has owned, trained, bred and competed (field and show) with many Brittany, during the last 30 years. Some of Marc’s notable dogs include, Li'l Buddy Chip who started it all, a hard charging All-Age bitch named Krista who ran in and was posted at the American Brittany Club National All-Age event in Booneville, AR, and most notable 2x AmFld CH/ 1x RU CH/FC/AFC Shiloh's Blazin Tri'd N Tru.; Bernie’s greatest accomplishments were winning the Mid-America All-Age Championship, Prairie States Shooting Dog Championship, and RU Champion ABC Gun Dog Nationals.

Marc has judged many Brittany and other pointing breed trials throughout the West and Midwest, including the ABC Pheasant Classic twice, ABC Gun Dog Classic, and multiple Open Limited Gun Dog and All-Age stakes. Marc considers judging the ABC Shooting Dog Derby Invitational & Amateur Gun Dog Nationals to be an honor and a privilege, and looks forward returning to Ionia watch some of the best dogs in the country do what they do best.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

Training Time

Quantity or quality?

It's been a long winter. Hunting season is finished for another year, and all your gear is cleaned and tucked away for next fall. You're relaxing in your chair by the fireplace, your dog's head resting on your feet; or maybe your new puppy is chewing on your shoe. Eyes half-closed, you're remembering some of the special moments from hunts past, and there are a few flashbacks to less than stellar times, too, where mistakes cost you shots. In your mind, you're thinking about what you need to do to fix those few problem moments. Or perhaps you're looking forward to starting that new puppy so that he learns to do something beside gnaw on your socks. Training plans are formulating in your head, and the countdown to next season has already begun.

One question we hear asked a lot is: "How much time should I spend training my dog each day?" This is usually followed by: "How long will it take to train my dog?" The answer to both can be confusing and even frustrating. It depends. Depends on what?

It depends on several things. How good or experienced at training are you? How many days a week will you take time to work with your dog? Do you have the focus to know what to start with and when to quit for the day? Do you have the patience for the repetitions needed, or will you jump ahead to the next step before your dog is ready?

Sounds pretty complicated so far, doesn't it? It's really not all that difficult if you break things down into simple steps that will help you be a better trainer and help your dog learn better and faster.

We hear quite often that someone "doesn't have an hour every day to spend training," followed by a litany of culprits – work, family, kids, stuff around the house to fix. But we have some great news. It doesn't take an hour every day. Toss the time clock out the window. It's not the length of time you spend each day; it's what you accomplish during the time you do spend. If you decide you're going to train for exactly 60 minutes, you're setting your dog and yourself up for failure.

Instead, think about where your dog is in his training and what you need to do to continue that success. Is it a simple repeat of yesterday's lesson in order to solidify it further? If so, then do that one thing and quit when it's successful. It might take two minutes or 20 minutes – the length of time doesn't matter. One of Rick's favorite sayings is, "It takes as long as it takes." The goal with training each individual skill is to have the dog be successful, and the best way to do that is to set the dog up to do well and then stop when the dog is doing it right.

Now let's imagine you've set your timer for one hour, you've done the drill you wanted in the first 10 minutes, and the dog did it well both times. Your mind says you still have 50 minutes to go in your training session, so you repeat the same thing over and over... and the dog loses interest and concentration, messes up, and does it wrong. Now you've wasted all the positive repetitions and allowed your dog to fail, which in turn shakes his confidence. Always end a training session on a good note. Don't push it until the dog fails.

What about those when you're introducing a new skill and your pup just isn't catching on? The best way to fix that situation is to stop training, go back to a simple skill he already does well, finish up with that, and put him away for a bit. That ends the dog's session with success. Then think about how you're teaching the new skill. Are you being clear in what you're asking? Find a way to break it down into simpler steps to help your dog learn and understand. Don't waste time repeating something the same way for an hour with no success, hoping he can figure out what you want. Make the right thing easy and the wrong thing difficult.

Have a plan, not a timetable. Don't get caught up in thinking your dog should be doing the same thing your friend's dog was doing at the same age, or trying to fit learning a particular skill into a set amount of time. Know the steps in the training system and follow those. Move on from one step to the next only when your dog has thoroughly learned the previous step and consistently does it well.

Another of Rick's favorite sayings is, "You can't make a mistake by going too slow." Rushing things and moving on too fast leaves holes in the training that eventually need to be fixed. In the long run, that makes training take a lot longer than it would have if you'd taken more time to thoroughly ingrain a skill before moving on. Please note – that doesn't mean longer sessions. It means more short sessions to repeat, successfully, that new skill until it becomes habit.

These short sessions work really well for all the foundational work that needs to be done. This is the stuff you can do in your backyard or in the house. All those simple cues and commands are going to translate to bird work. We don't know of anyone who can't find 10 minutes a day to spend with their dog.

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Something else to remember: Every interaction with your dog is training, whether you intend it to be or not. When you two are just hanging around the house or yard, the behaviors you allow are what you're training for. That doesn't mean you should have some sort of robotic dog; but it does mean that if he runs past you in the backyard and slams into your leg and you allow it, you're training it to be allowed. The dog that shoves you aside and bolts through the open door to get outside is being trained to do it because you've allowed it. All of those tiny, split-second episodes are training opportunities. Don't miss out on the chance to make corrections and shape good behavior, because all of that translates to the field and birds.

Speaking of birds and the field, those training sessions are, of course, going to be longer. Most of us have to drive somewhere to do bird and field work, and that is going to take more time, as does the bird work itself. That's okay, because when you get where you're going, you'll still expect the same level of compliance and obedience that you had in the backyard at home. You'll spend the time to gain that even though being in the field kicks the excitement level up a few notches. Don't let go of that training just because you and your dog are thrilled about working on birds. The field is one place where many mistakes are made and training is pushed too far into failure just because it's so much fun to be out there.

For example, let's say you have a young dog that has just worked nicely on two birds. He's happy and excited, and you're just busting your buttons because it was so much fun. The first thought you have is to do it again, right? So let's go! But now, on the repetition, the dog breaks and is out of control with excitement. What went wrong? You missed a chance to quit on a good note. Doing a couple of drills really well gave the dog a chance to learn that's the way it's done. Pushing just one time beyond that gave him a chance to screw up, and he did. Now you've got to backtrack and do it with more pressure in order to finish on a positive note. The dog didn't mess up; the person training him did.

The bottom line is this: Have a plan. Know the steps in the training system, and follow them, taking your time as you do so. Use short, successful training sessions, and always stop when you're having success. Have patience, take the time to think things through before you begin, and end on a positive note even if that's only five minutes into a session. You can always come back later and do it again. Maybe that time he'll do it well in two minutes and then you're done again; or maybe it will take 15 minutes because he needs a few extra repetitions to get it right.

It's not the length of time you spend training; it's the quality of the training you do in the time you have.

Heat and Sniffing

With wildfires blowing smoke across North America to Europe, combined with record-breaking heat, sniffing presents unique challenges for those dogs facing unusual environmental conditions. Acclimatization is an important part of conditioning for scent dogs. Don't underestimate the time it takes for any animal's body to adapt to massive changes in environment, such as extreme increases in heat and elevation.

Let's have a look at the underlying physiology of sniffer dogs exposed to heat stress. In normal conditions, 12-13% of the air the dog breathes in will reach their olfactory receptors. When working odor, active sniffing increases this by 2-3%. But in high environmental temperatures, the dog's body involuntarily switches focus from sniffing for scent detection towards panting to stay cool. The heat load our dogs experience is 80% due to working skeletal muscles used in physical activity. (Vigorous exercise makes the dog much hotter than they would be resting on an uncomfortably hot day.) Dogs can either sniff or pant, but don't usually sniff and pant simultaneously. While panting to reduce their body temperature, the dog's pattern of breathing inevitably changes. Rather than the high frequency, closed mouthed sniffing we desire to enable prolonged scent detection, the dog exhales through his mouth in large, turbulent jets, which disrupt the normal flow of scented air through his nose for processing in detection work.

Gazit and Terkel's research compared the performance of bomb dogs while calm and lightly panting vs following exercise and heavily panting. Increased panting led to poorer explosives detection, and longer search times. When they compared performance in those dogs over time, they found that detection ability improved over time, beyond what could be explained by increasing fitness or motivation. The improved performance seemed to be caused by the dogs' learning to sniff more while panting more. Further, "Such adjustment, expressed by the increasing sniffing frequency, can improve a dog's work under strenuous conditions that can be taught by suitable training".

So, how long does it take for sniffer dogs to acclimatize safely? In addition to gradually building cardiovascular fitness with age-appropriate activities, you may be surprised to learn that partial acclimatization can take 10 – 20 days and full acclimatization can take up to 2 months. Attempts to rush the process in a few days are likely to fail.

In summary, during short periods of record-breaking temperatures, it's a reality that your dog's scenting capabilities will decrease relative to cooler temperatures. Keep your scent detection sessions short, give plenty of water, wet your dog down, avoid the mid-day sun from about 11am – 2pm, and don't be surprised when your dog is slower and less enthusiastic as he is challenged by the abrupt changes to his environment. As far as more strenuous physical exercise like running off leash, it may be better to temporarily decrease your dog's physical activity, until the temperature returns to normal. This is especially true for brachycephalic breeds like the pug, whose anatomy always impacts thermoregulation through panting. On the other hand, if you and your dog are preparing for upcoming scent detection work in extreme temperatures, start slowly and work up gradually to safely acclimatize to extreme heat over a few months.

Book of the American Brittany

1990-2010 EDITION

compiled and edited by
Jessica Carlson

NOW AVAILABLE

The Book of the American Brittany, 1990-2010 Edition is an invaluable source of reference and enjoyment for all Brittany breeders and enthusiasts. Expanding upon the previous works by Dr. Fred Z. White, Nicky Bissell, and Rheta Cartmell, this 320-page edition focuses on dogs and Brittany events between the years 1990-2010.

Chapters include: History of the American Brittany; Field Trialing 1935-1989; Modern Field Trial Winners; ABC Classics & Championships; The Show Brittany; The Dual Brittany; ABC Futurities; Performance Events (Hunt Tests, Obedience, Agility, NSTRA); Top Producers; ABC Honor Rolls (Hall of Fame, Life Members). These are followed by an index of ABC event winners from 1942-1989, and an index of all dogs mentioned in the book. The text of this book is brought to life with over 625 color and black/white photos, many of historical value, and as many as could be obtained of the modern-day dogs mentioned in the book.

Baked Ratatouille with Havarti Cheese

1 med eggplant, sliced 1/8 inch thick
 1 tsp kosher salt
 1 tbsp olive oil
 1/2 small onion, diced
 3 garlic cloves, crushed
 1/8 tsp cracked black pepper
 2 cups crushed tomatoes
 1/8 tsp red pepper flakes (optional)
 1 bay leaf
 1 teaspoon fresh thyme
 4 fresh basil leaves, finely chopped
 1 small red bell pepper, diced
 1 small yellow bell pepper, diced
 1 small (6 oz) zucchini, sliced 1/8 inch thick
 1 small (6 oz) yellow squash, sliced 1/8 inch thick
 3 oz light Havarti cheese, shredded

Preheat oven to 375°F.

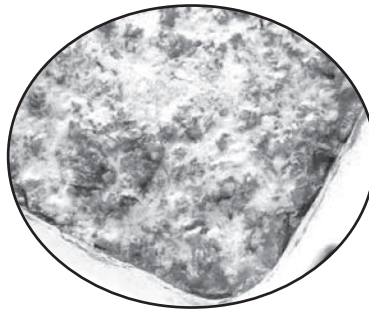

In a large non-stick skillet, add olive oil and sauté onions and garlic 2-3 minutes. Add 1 tsp salt, black pepper, tomato sauce, red pepper flakes if using, bay leaf, thyme, basil, red and yellow bell pepper; sauté another 5-8 minutes on medium-low heat.

In a large nonstick grill pan, grill the zucchini and eggplant 2 to 3 minutes on each side.

Add 1 cup of the sauce to a casserole dish. Layer the eggplant, squash and the zucchini. Pour the remaining sauce over the top and top with the cheese.

Cover with foil and bake 40 minutes.
 Serves 4.

One Pot Pasta

12 oz fusilli pasta
 1 (28-oz.) can diced tomatoes
 2 cups chicken broth
 1/2 medium-size yellow onion, sliced
 4 garlic cloves, sliced
 1 teaspoon dried oregano
 1/3 cup firmly packed fresh basil leaves
 2 teaspoons kosher salt
 1 tablespoon olive oil
 1/4 teaspoon dried crushed red pepper (optional)
 1 (6-oz.) package baby spinach
 Freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Place 1st 9 ingredients and, if desired, dried crushed red pepper in a Dutch oven in order of ingredient list.

Cover and bring to a boil over medium-high heat (about 12 - 15 min).

Reduce heat to medium-low, and cook, covered, 10 to 12 minutes or until pasta is slightly al dente, stirring at 5-minute intervals.

Remove from heat, and stir in spinach. Cover and let stand 10 minutes. Stir just before serving.

Serve with Parmesan cheese.
 Serves 6.

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

The Condition

A Novella

(For Ed Mack Farrior and Little Eva)

Part 2

In the six-day ordeal since leaving Alabama, Bobby had grown fond of Willie. Invariably cheerful and anxious to show Bobby how to handle the chores, Willie entertained in their spare time with his harmonica.

With a perfect ear, he knew every jazz-age tune Bobby requested. Meanwhile, Albert remained the gruff taskmaster, constantly predicting disaster from Bobby's inexperience. How much of Albert's doomsdaying was sincere and how much an act for his own amusement, Bobby wasn't sure.

Compared to the Forget camp, Albert's Union Springs bungalow had been a Taj Mahal. Just one room with board walls and a shed for a kitchen. It had served its builder only a year—a drought and a blizzard had sent him packing. But he had dug a well and planted a shelter break of wind-gnarled spruce and popple that lasted. He'd also built a small barn, now leaning precariously east, its wood-shingled roof swaybacked. It would house the horses the farmers had left behind. (They were Albert's horses, but by agreement, the farmers had their use nine months a year to pull their snow sleighs and buggies.)

The youngest pups were housed together in a wire-enclosed lot adjacent to the barn, the older dogs chained to their crates in the shelter break. Albert assigned to Bobby the task of "tidying up" the cabin. Dust blanketed every surface, packrat nests filled the pie safe and chest of drawers. Pots and pans and an iron skillet hung above the cook stove on wires attached to rafters. Before he finished a rough sweeping and dusting, Bobby was sneezing. He saw Albert wink at Willie, and his mood went from despair to fury.

Albert busied himself with supper, and soon the smell of roasting pork drove out Bobby's glumness. Boiled potatoes and an apple cobbler completed their first camp meal. Albert's only redeeming grace was his cooking. Bobby was asleep on his cot before the sun set.

Then Albert was shaking him awake again. It was 4:30

A.M., and it seemed he'd just put his head down. When he stumbled out of the cabin into the first light of dawn, Willie was fitting collars on two of the horses, had the other two saddled and tied to the wagon. Willie showed him how the harness fit, then they loaded dog crates into the wagon and roped them down. Bobby would drive the dog wagon while Albert and Willie, riding the other two horses, worked the dogs.

They headed west in the dim morning light, two derbies exploring before them. The prairie, knee deep in grass, seemed endless. In the distance were dots of popple here and there, which Albert and Willie called bluffs. The grass swayed in the wind like waves on the Chesapeake Bay. Mesmerized by the wagon's motion, the creak of harness, and the rhythmic clomps of the horses' feet, Bobby caught himself falling asleep.

Willie lifted his straw hat to signal a point, and he and Albert cantered to the dog. Albert walked in front, and a dozen young prairie chickens lifted and flew forty yards into a stand of popple.

The dog chased happily and was soon pointing again.

Albert motioned Bobby to bring up the wagon, then to get down and put a dog on a rope. Soon all three men were leading dogs into the breeze toward the spot where the chickens had lit. When Bobby's dog pointed, Willie showed him how to walk around with the rope in hand to flush in front, then when it chased to bring the pup up short, but not too abruptly, and carry it back to stand several minutes where it first pointed. Again the young birds flew only a little distance, and they switched pups at the wagon and got some more points.

Bobby had never seen a prairie chicken, had no idea they were so plentiful and so mesmerizing to the young dogs. As the sun climbed, so did the temperature. By ten o'clock, it was ninety degrees, and they headed back to camp.

While Bobby and Willie cleaned up around the puppy lot and in the shelter break, Albert worked on breakfast. Soon the smell of bacon drifted to the barn, where Bobby fed oats to the horses.

After breakfast, Albert lay down for a nap, and Bobby took his example. Willie climbed into the barn's loft and stretched out on a bed of fragrant hay. He dreamt of a lady friend back in Union Springs.

On the train journey, Albert had selected six canine pupils and assigned them to Bobby.

“This is your string; they’re yours to break,” Albert said.

“But I don’t know...”

“You’ll learn quick enough. Just watch me and Willie, do what we do. We’ll tell you if you’re doing something wrong.

Five of pupils were coming derbies (between a year and two years old). They belonged to a wealthy sportsman with a shooting preserve at Union Springs, sent to be trained as gun dogs and taught to retrieve. The sixth was a pointer female, older than derby age, small but muscular, with a classic liver-colored head and large liver spots on her sides. When Bobby first took her from her crate on the train, she looked at him with soulful eyes, watched his every gesture. Though he had paid little attention to the others, she fascinated him. There was something mysterious about her, a strange depth of personality, of intelligence.

Bobby would not be told her history. She had belonged to his father, who saw her in a puppy stake in Virginia and bought her on the spot for a too-high price. The seller had been a professional handler who made her remaining in his string a condition of the sale. In the year that followed, he had ruined her, and finally called Old Bob to say she would not make it as a trial dog. Old Bob instructed him to ship her to Albert, then told Albert to include her in Bobby’s training string. Albert assumed she was beyond redemption. (He knew her first trainer’s reputation for ruining young dogs.) Her name was Bess.

The first time Bobby took Bess to a bluff on check cord, she pointed the young chickens with breathtaking style. When he flushed, she stayed a stature, sustained the intensity of her point, and watched the bird fly.

At supper Bobby said, “I believe Bess is already trained. She stayed steady when I flushed for her, didn’t chase.”

“We’ll see,” Albert said skeptically.

Two weeks after their arrival at Forget, Albert hired a farm boy as dog-wagon driver, rented another rough horse, and promoted Bobby to full-time trainer. When a prospect was down, Albert rode the center and Willie and Bobby rode his flanks. Thus, they taught the dog to pattern its hunt inside an invisible cone, or V. If the dog hunted too far right, Willie rode and urged it back to the center; too far left, Bobby did the same. The smart dogs quickly learned to take direction from the horses’ course.

When it came time to submit Bess to this drill, Albert took the right flank and had Bobby ride the center. Bess moved with a liquid grace knew already to hunt the cone. But when she approached a bluff that seemed likely to hold chickens, she skirted it downwind, then slipped away behind it and disappeared. Try as they might, the three riders could not find her. In a couple hours, she’d come back to the dog wagon, seeking water.

After a half-dozen attempts at working Bess from horseback, Albert said at supper, “She’s worthless. Might as well put her down.”

“You mean kill her?” Bobby asked.

“Yes, kill her,” Albert said. “I ain’t feeding no worthless dog.”

“I’ll pay for her food,” Bobby said. Albert grunted.

After supper, Willie took Bobby aside, out of Albert’s hearing.

“Mr. Bobby, Bess is a blinker and a bolter.”

“What’s that?” Bobby asked.

“A dog that’s been punished too harsh around game will avoid pointing, expecting it’s going to get a beating if it points,” Willie explained.

“But she points them when I’m with her on foot.”

“She knows the difference—knows you’re not going to whip her if she points when you’re close by. She’s smart,” Willie said.

“What can we do to cure her?” Bobby asked.

“Probably nothin’...But if we can find out what she’s doing when she runs off, maybe we can figure something out,” Willie said.

Next morning when Albert left in his Model T to check the mail at Forget, Willie approached Bobby with an experiment.

“You ride west, into the wind. When you’ve been gone twenty minutes, I’ll turn Bess loose. You find a spot where you can see a long way and watch.”

Bobby rode west and halted his horse on the crest of a swell in the mostly flat prairie. He took his father’s binoculars from his saddlebag and, standing on the saddle, glassed the prairie to the east. The emptiness enveloped him. Just empty land to the horizon in all directions, seeming to sway as the breeze stirred the grass. He heard the whistle of the wind in his hat. He thought of the poor war veterans who’d tried to make a living here, their inevitable failure, imagined them growing more discouraged day by day, finally returning defeated to the cities...

Turning the glasses slowly across the horizon, he caught a glimpse of movement...Bess! She was chasing something, a jackrabbit. So that’s what she’d been up to! He rode silently ‘till he was fifty yards from her, then spoke sharply, “Bess, whoa!” Surprised, she stopped in her tracks. He dismounted and put her on the pommel, remounted and rode back to Willie, who was riding his way.

“She’s hunting jackrabbits. How can we break her of that?” Bobby asked.

Willie shook his head. “I’ll be!”

As they rode back to camp, Willie said, I used to work for a fellow name Mr. Ed Farrow. He had a setter named Jay R’s Boy that was a blinker...”

With that introduction, Willie told Bobby what Farrow had done to redeem Boy.

Mr. Ed Shelley took Mr. Farrow’s methods, advertised for gun-shy and bird-shy dogs to cure, made good money at it. He used pigeons, ‘cause they was cheap and easy to catch. We ain’t got no pigeons, but we got plenty prairie chickens this year.”

“Willie, let’s keep this between you and me,” Bobby said.

Willie nodded and grinned, enjoying the conspiracy.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

The American Brittany Club, Inc. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club and will entitle you to the monthly magazine, The American Brittany. Associate Membership is available if person is a Full member of a Regional Club or immediate family member of a Full member. Full Membership cost is $50.00 per year and $5.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

Please send this application with payment to: The American Brittany Club, P.O. Box 503, Orefield, PA 18069.
