The American Brittany

VOLUME LXXI • NUMBER 4 • APRIL 2019

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

2018 ABC National Championship

November 25-28, 2018

Blue Mountain fi J. Perry Mikles WDA fi Booneville, Arkansas

By Kent D. Patterson

With three well-mannered finds in the books, this was not a good time for the dog to go missing... each passing moment sparked a wave of stomach butterflies surging like an Oklahoma storm. More than once, he'd considered this a hard luck dog. Judge Leslie Rue of Kentucky came alongside. "I need to see your dog sir," extending his index finger from atop the big grey gelding, "last I had him was on that tree line to the south." He began the long walk over to the timber as the trial party stopped and waited. With each energy-sapping step across the muddy field, his hopes and dreams of winning the ABC National Championship grew dimmer and dimmer. He eased inside the wood's line and bang!!!! There stood Duke twisted into a pretzel point as he instinctively cried "POINT"! The ground shook as the gallery came over and watched the covey explode north. One by one the faithful found a seat in the clubhouse.... each analyzing the trial over and over, start to finish, with changing odds as to who won. The 1963 ABC National Champion..... Crab Orchard Duke.....37-year-old Raymond Trimble of Flourissant, MO leaped into the air. Regardless of sport, there is an unexplainable thrill that comes to an amateur when winning in open competition. The investment of time, money, and emotions in "your" dog has a lifetime impact. Ray Trimble had just become the first amateur to win the Brittany National Championship since AKC sanctioning. In 2018, at age 92, Ray was still competing in the National Championship with Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up and is believed to be the oldest amateur handler to win an American Field Championship (Illinois Amateur) at age 90. He is a member of the ABC Hall of Fame and the Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame.

From the first amateur to win the nationals to the latest, the emotions do not change. Tom Milam was seated near the clubhouse fireplace and did not leap into the air as Ss Rig's Colorado Gun Runner was named the 2018 National Champion but quivering hands covered tears as his head dropped into his lap. If you don't think this stuff matters to people, think again.

Another noteworthy occurrence in 2018...for the first time in breed history, amateurs took both Champion and Runner-up placements at the ABC National Championship. They also scouted for each other.

Rig by rig, hope upon hope, they arrived for the 2018 ABC National Championship. For the 31st year, J Perry Mikles WDA was a gracious host. Peter Kaine had the fireplace crackling and the tantalizing aroma from Judi Tipton's kitchen crew had the clubhouse warm and welcoming as stalwarts from across the country got reacquainted. The American Brittany Club National Championship brought 52 of the nation's best to Logan County, Arkansas.

The city of Booneville generously provides a military Humvee along with driver, Robert Smith, to pull the dog wagon. Robert did a great job of giving those who braved the cold days on a metal dog wagon seat a view of the action while having the next brace of dogs available. Judi Tipton and staff made sure nobody left hungry, from breakfast to the nightly dinners the variety and quality of the menu was excellent by any measure. Joe Gower was flawless as stake manager, and was once again pressed into action as the substitute calcutta auctioneer. Brett Lindback used his law enforcement skills organizing daily gallery marshals and his wife Rocky's homemade cookies had folks lined up at the dog wagon like Walmartians on a Black Friday. Mary Jo Trimble was ever vigilant as the road guard with Linda Thomas, Linda Milam, Margaret Horstmeyer and Nancy Clendenen keeping the dog wagon stocked with coffee/donuts. Operationally, the event came off without a hitch in great part thanks to a committee of volunteers under the guidance of 1st VP Tom Milam. And lastly, there isn't a better national event field trial secretary than Steve Ralph. He covers all bases, flawlessly!

We had a great party on Monday night to honor the 2017 National Champion, Glade Run Irish. David and Emma Webb had the room decorated in Irish (Notre Dame) green with gifts of etched glasses and books from David's Glade Run Press, "Brittany Tales" and "Amateurs Training with Professionals – The Brittany" by Martha Greenlee and David Webb. Judi Tipton and staff prepared a wonderful bar-b-que feast with all the trimmings. A band entertained the group as libations flowed deep into the night. A wonderful time was had by all.

We were blessed to have a panel of judges with experience and success in the field trial sport. Allen Vincent hails from Collinsville, OK with a string of competitive dogs that have qualified and run in the Ames Plantation National Championship every year since 2002. His Oakspring Big Time Warrior made a strong bid for the title in 2018. He began trialing in 1984 and training for the public in 2000 with summers spent at camp in North Dakota. He's won the Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Missouri and Mississippi Championships multiple times. Lynn Oxendine of Joplin, MO has lived the amateur field trial life. He grew up bird hunting over pointers and started trialing in 1983. Oklahoman Bill Traubel was a mentor and many of his early dogs were out of Bill's breeding. More recently, he's had dogs with Allen and made it to summer camp for nearly 20 years. He's adjudicated the Oklahoma Championship and the Quail Futurity. Owning and managing a feed store kept him busy for most of his working years but now retired, he's enjoying more time in the saddle watching bird dogs. These gentlemen set a wonderful pace that allowed handlers to show their dogs. They were attentive and consistent with each brace.

Purina, Garmin, and Christie Saddlery generously supported this championship with dog food, electronic gear and a saddle. These fine sponsors manufacture quality products known throughout the field trial community as products that assist in producing champions. I doubt there was a handler or owner at this year's championship that doesn't utilize one or all of these trusted manufacturers. Additionally, Purina and Garmin sponsor the annual "dog of the year" awards for all age and shooting dogs.

Quality grounds are essential for the credibility of a title of this caliber and few would argue the J. Perry Mickle grounds can separate the field in quick order. These are challenging grounds based on the cover and directional options a dog has at its disposal. Brian Enfield, Brad Wells, and Clyde "Red" Bailey had the facilities and grounds in good condition.

THE WINNERS

Champion – Ss Rig's Colorado Gun Runner – Tom and Linda Milam, owners; Tom Milam, handler; Kent Patterson, scout. Rig's had that "try and keep up" look in his eyes when released on course 2. He shot toward the Buzzard Roost with the scout working early in the expanse to the east. He was seen briefly in the bowling alley where he crossed to the left margin and came to Tom as we dropped off toward the first 109 crossing. He skimmed the edges of the eastern field and was coming across to the course when he froze. As the scout called point, a large group of birds lifted. When Tom got on the ground and fired, another group of 20 lifted with Rigs maintaining great composure through it all. Upon release, he shot toward the Parrish Field and swung north around the islands of cover. He finished the big move by coming out of the last ring of cover leading toward the fish hook loop. As he was crossing to meet Tom, he stopped in knee high broom sedge. Tom flushed a big, hard-flying group of birds to the east toward woods cover. He was rimming the islands of cover in the fish hook at 25 when Tom raised his hat. Rigs was standing inside a ring of sparse cover with a small group of birds well located. He finished the fish hook in style and shot out into the Parrish Field. While most dogs go to the cover along the northern timber line, not Rigs; he was having prairie flashbacks and shot out into the great expanse of broom sedge to the south. He was not seen again until he came across to Tom near the second 109 crossing where he maintained the front over the next 15 minutes being seen infrequently back to the bridge. He was going away along a mowed strip north of the bridge at time.

Runner-up Champion – Piney Run Jake – Kent D. Patterson, owner/handler; Tom Milam, scout. Coming off a year culminating in his being named the 2018 ABC Purina All Age Dog of the Year, Piney Run Jake shot away from the Petit Jean bridge glued to the river edge as the gallery moved up course 3. He flashed in the few lanes of visibility that lead to the bottleneck where he crossed the front, rimmed the large field on the right and seen along lines near the old corral. He was recovered near the big culvert where he crossed toward Course 1. Scout Tom Milam rode that direction and called point at 16 with Jake standing inside a thick line of cover. After a lengthy flushing attempt on running birds, they lifted to the west with Jake maintaining excellent style. He blasted away toward Mario's Hill as handler, judge, and gallery cantered to catch the front. He was seen on the far northern edge of the Pavilion field then crossed to the southern edge and disappeared. Both handler and scout looked thoroughly in an area known to hold birds with no sign of him but continued riding south looking in likely places toward Gas Well Hill. On top of the hill, Jake was seen coming back from the front where he promptly grabbed the western edge leading off the hill and was seen going up a service road into the woods. It took some time for the scout to dig him out and back to his handler where he resumed his performance by hitting the edge leading toward the road split. He was standing at 40 along a feed strip to the left of the course with Judge Oxendine indicating his birds had already lifted and flown across the road. Kent flushed briefly, shot, and took him on. Near the road split, he went south to the line of timber that leads east. He completed the big move by meeting his handler at the beaver dam, rimmed a large pocket to the west, then crossed over to search lines back to the river chute. He was heeled through the river chute then released toward the dog wagon. He was cruising a line of timber back toward the road split at time.

Third – MK's My Lil Ammo – Nick Blasi, owner; Scott Johnson, handler; Richard Beaver, scout. BB chose the river edge to start her hour on Course 3. Gifted with a fluid gait that can eat up country in quick fashion, she crossed over to the right margins of the course as the party entered the bottleneck. Handler and scout were working double time near the old corral to minimize a deer chase from derailing the hour. They got her turned toward Mario's Hill, where she made the showy cast near Course 1. She maintained the northern edge of the Pavilion field and was out of pocket briefly before showing on top of Gas Well Hill. She, along with her brace mate, took a woods road cut leading to an absence. Coming out first, she worked cover along the right side of the course to the road split then went south to the timber line. She crossed the beaver dam and was standing along the river at 50 with excellent style and manners. She shot south from her find, was heeled through the river chute, and was going east in cover at time.

Fourth – Tequila Scorcher – Bernie Crain, owner; Ed Tillson, handler; Jessica Carlson, scout. Lincoln was released at 1:22 just across Lick Creek and shot toward Mario's Hill. As the gallery crossed the service road, he made the flashy cast down the eastern tree line and turned in toward the S curve where he stylishly nailed a small covey at 10. He worked both sides of the course as we moved toward the Old Corral area turning north on a line of cover toward Hwy 109. Halfway down the line, he spun hard into a point. Ed flushed thoroughly with no luck and relocated him before deciding to go on. Leaves were falling like snowflakes as the 25mph wind battered the gallery entering the river bottom. Lincoln maintained the right margin of the course and was out of pocket back up Course 3 as we neared the bridge. He was gathered up and crossed the bridge at 40. He handled the early portions of Course 2 like a pro and shot down the southern edge of the bowling. At 55, he was standing on the reliable covey along the right margin of the course with excellent manners. He finished up a line of cover near the old bridge 109 crossing.

The Running

Day 1: Cold, clear sky morning, temps in high 20's as a large gallery gathered on breakaway hill.

Brace 1: JWB Artic Cat – Jack and Crystal Alexander, owners; Tom Tracy, handler and Spanish Corral's Sonny Patch – Joe Gower, owner/handler. The 2019 National Championship started with a bang...literally. A local, yellow lab was milling about among the horses and people on breakaway hill sensing something big was about to happen. When the scouts released the brittanys, the lab showed his sneakers and down the hill he went with the Brittany's looking at him like...What?? Who??? There were handlers shouting, blank guns going off, and marshals scurrying to convince him this was an invitation only event. By the time we got to the bottom of the hill things had settled down with Kimber and Patch reaching for cover toward Lick Creek. Both were in and out of pocket over the early portions of the hour with Patch searching cover near the Barking Dog house at 13. Kimber's scout was looking for her near Mario's Hill and she was recovered along the tree line as Patch rimmed the field north of the S curve. They primarily used the cover to the left of the course with Kimber being rewarded with a stylish covey find in broom sedge at 35. Patch pinned a nice group of birds at 40 as we neared the chute toward the double gates. Both dogs were standing 20 ft apart at 51 but the handlers couldn't produce any game. Time was called in the river bottom with both dogs on the back side of the woods.

Brace 2: Whisky's Little Tip – Gaylord Jowett, owner; Bob Burchett, handler and MK's Magnificent Bandito – Bill and Mary Lynn Oliver, owners; Scott Johnson, handler. We were away at 9:15 on Course 2 with clearing skies as Tip and Chico sprinted toward the Buzzard Roost. Chico made the turn and maintained the front with Tip making the deep cast east with Bob and scout worked hard to pull him through the woods into the bowling alley. At 11, Chico was standing stylishly as Scott pushed a nice group of birds toward the river. Upon release, Chico shot down the woods edge and disappeared over the small rise leading toward 109. At 14, Scott had his hat in the air with Chico standing in sparse cover looking straight down, a scene that no handler likes to see. When Scott kicked, the bird ran as did Chico to end his bid. Tip was being a handful on this day, he was finally recovered near the first Old 109 crossing and got into a little more trouble around game at 30 to end the brace.

Brace 3: High Hope's Jac's Original Spice – Kathy Gulembo and Cindy Cropek, owners and Glade Run Irish – David Webb, owner; Tom Tracy, handler. Spice and Irish were released after a nice donut and coffee break headed toward the fish hook on Course 2. Irish was standing at 6 in a feed strip at the entrance to the fish hook loop. These birds are reliable year to year and he had them pinned with excellent style and manners. At 10, Spice stopped on a ring of cover to the right of the course with Irish backing. Before Chad was able to get in front of her, a bird got up and she moved to end her hour. Upon release, Irish made the showy cast into the pocket near the gas well pad and met Tommy at the crossing. He ran in cover until we got back out into the Parrish Field where he was glued to the northern margin of the course. He came out of the far corner and down the 109 tree-line pinning a running covey near the service road intersection. He skimmed the left margin of the course back to the bridge where he was watered. The wind was picking up out of the north as he went through the bottleneck on Course 3. At 50, he was standing on a tree line known to hold a covey. Tommy flushed and relocated him several times before birds were seen. He was stopped at 55 along tall cover near Mario's Hill with no birds seen and ended his hour up the tree line across Lick Creek.

Brace 4: JT Copper Buckaroo – Jeff Minch, owner; Paul Doiron, handler and Roustabout's White Knight – Paul Rosevear, owner; Tom Tracy, handler. Buck and Lance shot down the hill as the gallery began to feel warming slivers of sunshine on their back but temps were expected to drop over the afternoon. Buck was at moderate range over the first quarter of the hour, with Paul electing to put him on the wagon near Lick Creek. Lance was seen headed toward 109 near the 3-minute mark and hadn't been seen once we got to Lick Creek with Tommy asking for the tracker.

Brace 5: Tequila Scorcher – Charles Crain, owner; Ed Tillson, handler and Crosscreek Argus' Early Christmas – Donovan Markiewicz, owner; Chad Holman, handler. Lincoln's hour was summarized earlier. Gus were released at 1:22 just across Lick Creek and shot toward Mario's Hill. He was seen sparingly as the party crossed through the S curve and dropped over the knoll toward the old corral. He worked both sides of the course over the next 15 minutes then took a line leading north as we approached the double gate chute. He was flying down a feed strip toward the chute when he spun hard then suffered a breach of manners to end his hour.

Brace 6: Starlight's Mercury Out Ryder – Teresa Richmond, owner; Bob Burchett, handler and Ru-Jem's "Last" Penny – Jerry McGee, owner; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler. Both owners were in saddle to watch their dogs as Ryder and Penny were released on the south margins of the Parrish Field. Both made opening moves out in the great expanse to the north. Penny rimmed the long island of cover on the left, showed up front, and went down into the fish hook loop. Ryder had gone farther north near the fish hook exit and was coming back to Bob when he froze. As we were riding to him, a large covey lifted west and Ryder went with them. Penny was stopped at 18 in cover along the new pond with birds seen by Judge Allen Vincent flying out the back side. She hunted the cover as we headed back toward the Parish Field where she crossed from left to right and was rewarded with a large feed strip covey. She moved smartly and smoothly toward 109 where point was called at 35. Tommy pointed out a hawk kill and took her on. She crossed the bridge at 42 with a nonproductive at 50. She continued toward Mario's Hill but suffered a second nonproductive at 58.

Posted Dogs Day 1: Tequila Scorcher – Ed Tillson.

Day 2: Brace 7: MTB Louree's V-0-2 Max – Tom White and Margaret Horstmeyer, owners; Tom White, handler and A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds – Rick and Becky Hastings, owners; Scott Johnson, handler. Everyone on the hill had an extra layer of clothing as temps had dipped into the low 20's overnight. We were away at 7:55 with Max and Trace both moving nicely over the early portions of the course. They were absent for a bit as we approached Lick Creek but regained the front at that point. Max went north to the line of cover along the service road and was found standing at 18. This covey had been pointed by several dogs both in the amateur championship and this, the open, championship. The covey had taken out every dog that had pointed them. Max became their next victim. Going forward this covey was referred to as the "undefeated covey". Trace had begun to get a bit lateral and came from behind a couple of times as we neared the old corral area where Scott elected to pick up.

Brace 8: KJ's Irish Whizky – Ken and Jane Windom, owners; Ken Windom, handler and High Lonesome Sage – Jim Hammett, owner/handler. Sage and Mickey were released at 8:40 near the old corral disappearing into the frost covered broom sedge. Sage went north to a mott and styled up at 4. Jim flushed briefly and relocated him where he promptly disappeared into the cover. Everyone was sure he was in there standing with Jim searching for some time. At some point, someone in the gallery saw him on the far north perimeter of the course going forward. Mickey had rolled around pretty nicely as we approached the river bottom where he disappeared down the course. Sage went over to the river bottom and was standing at 37 and suffered his 2nd non-productive. Ken continued on course to the bridge never having seen Mickey since the double gates. He went over the bridge in hopes that he had crossed in front of us but there was no sign of him so Ken asked for the tracker.

Brace 9: Kinwashkly Tempo – Leslie Andreas, owner; Ed Tillson, handler and Kinwashkly Fat Bastard – Bo Ackerman and Leslie Andreas, owners; Tom Tracy, handler. Leslie Andreas was riding to watch two dogs out of her kennel. With an ownership position in each, imagine her nerves watching this brace. Both dogs were released at 9:30 sprinting across the buzzard roost with Tempo extending the cast down in the far corner and Ed working to get him up to the bowling alley. Fatz had maintained the front from the start and we had both dogs up front as we crossed 109 for the first time. Each rimmed the eastern edge as we turned toward the Parrish Field, then hunted the island on the left as we turned toward the fish hook. In the fish hook loop, Tempo took the right and Fatz the left making impressive moves. Tempo was seen taking the edge up to the new pond and kept the right edge back out to the Parrish Field where he nailed a big covey in fine fashion with birds all around him. At 45, Fatz had reached the tree line along 109 and was standing stylishly. An extended relocation did not produce game with Tommy electing to pick up. At 45, Tempo was rimming the north edge of the Parrish Field and found a water puddle to cool off...he then stood up, took 4 steps and went on point, all manners in order. Tempo finished on the Course 2 side of the river.

Brace 10: Remchester's Premium White Lightning – Don McNabb, Jr. and Steve Deger, owners; Scott Johnson, handler and Tequila's Tyler On Fire – Victor Retherford, owner/handler. Hooch and Tyler were away after a nice lunch, both dogs probing the logical cover on either side of the course leading toward Lick Creek. Tyler is a nice young dog experiencing these grounds for the first time and was hunting every likely piece of cover over the early portions of the hour. Vic decided to pick him up at 17. Hooch continued to move nicely. He had a non-productive at 22 near the S curve. At 40, as we neared the chute to the double gates, Hooch displayed excellent style and manners on a covey in a feed strip. He was credited with a stop to flush at 50 along a tree line in the river bottom and finished along the cover near the bridge.

Brace 11: SR's Blew By Typhoon – Daniel Doiron, owner; Paul Doiron, handler and Sniksoh Spank's Hank – Jeff Hoskins, owner/handler. Ty and Hank are two strapping boys that can "tote the mail" as they shot toward the Buzzard Roost on course 2 at 1:40. Jeff worked to pull Hank back up to the course as we entered the bowling alley as we had both dogs ahead at that point. Ty showed exquisite style on a covey at 18 as the party near the first 109 crossing. Both dogs explored the margins of the course as we crossed 109 with Ty coming around first and Hank down in the corner. Hank was seen cruising the edge leading to an island of cover where he jumped in and suffered a breach of manners to end his bid. Ty was holding everyone's attention through the fish hook and was seen standing on the eastern margin of the Parrish Field at 42. A nice covey was moved as Ty stood proudly in a difficult cover setting. He was credited with another find at 55 to the left of the course and finished near the bridge.

Brace 12: Hehi's Slim Chipley – Matt Healey, owner; Bob Burchett, handler and Rusty Ridge Where U Been – Claude and Jan Kilpatrick, owners; Paul Doiron, handler. Slim and Been had their sneakers laced tight as we left on course 3. Both were a handful over the first quarter of the hour and seen flying through the course 3 bottleneck. Each was recovered in the Mario's Hill area and crossed Lick Creek. Slim showed nicely below the pavilion with no sign of Been. As we were crossing Gas Well Hill, Been regained the front and we had both dogs down the hill. Slim had a stylish find in a feed strip below Gas Well Hill as birds boiled out of feed strip to the right of the course. Been was standing on the end of an island of cover at 41 with a small group of birds pushed out of hiding. At 48, both dogs suffered non-productives just across the beaver dam. Been continued on around the next field and suffered his second non-productive. At time, Slim was moving along cover near the dog wagon on course 3.

Posted Dogs Day 2: Kinwashkly Tempo – Ed Tillson, SR's Blew By Typhoon – Paul Doiron, Hehi's Slim Chipley – Bob Burchett.

Day 3: Brace 13: Shot of Whizki – Pam Baird, owner; Chad Holman, handler and Rev'N Gunrunner's Tilly – Weldon Eberhart, owner; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler. Shot and Tilly sprang off the hill under clear skies, 24 degrees, and a frosty landscape. Both were hunting likely objectives over the first fifteen minutes with Tilly having a short absence up to Lick Creek. Shot went north and was cruising the cover along the service road when a covey got up and he didn't hit the brakes quick enough to remain in consideration. Tilly was recovered in the Mario's Hill area and was forward through the S curve and maintained the left margin of the course as we went through the old corral area. She continued to the east as we went through the river bottom returning to Tommy near the bridge with no bird contact during the hour.

Brace 14: Ss Rig's Colorado Gun Runner – Tom and Linda Milam, owners; Tom Milam, handler and Jagoub's Buzz'N Bayou – Tom and Debra Jagielski, owners; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler. Rig's hour was summarized earlier. Skeeter had his sneakers on and hearing aids off as Tommy worked hard over the first 25 minutes to get things lined out...it just wasn't working so he cashed it in at 26 near the Parrish Field northern entrance.

Brace 15: Sniksoh Little Diamond – Tom and Jane Wonderling, owners; Scott Johnson, handler and Almaden's Under Lock and Key – Emmy and Noah Wollenburg, owners; Ed Tillson, handler. Oudi was scratched so Kate had course 3 all to herself. Her early actions were impressive. She had to be discouraged from going back up Course 1 and came around to show nicely through the bottleneck. She was recovered near Mario's Hill and made flashy moves across Lick Creek, through the Pavilion field, and over Gas Well Hill. She began to slow at 40 with Scott electing to pick up 51.

Brace 16: Castaway Wilson – Tim Huglen, owner; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler and MTB Scipio's Hot Shot of Whizki – Tom White and Margaret Horstmeyer, owners; Tom White, handler. It was San Diego weather as we dropped off breakaway hill at 12:50. Tim Huglen was riding to watch Wilson. Wilson and Cali kept everyone's attention to Lick Creek with probing casts that kept them up front. They were gone a bit at the 20-minute mark and recovered near the S curve where Tommy sent Wilson along the edge of the big field to the north. Cali was watered at 30 and sent north as both were beginning to feel the effect of warmer temps. Tom elected to pick Cali up at 42 near the double gates. Wilson had gone to the river's edge and was rewarded with a mannerly covey find. Upon release, he went down the river edge and turned back to the course where he had a find at 47 near the tree line gap. He finished nicely back up the river bottom north of the bridge.

Brace 17: JR's Cool Hand Luke – Matt Harris and Harlene Hoyt Johnson, owners; Scott Johnson, handler and Hope's Chief of Crosscreek – Wayne Pepin, Bob and Polly West, owners; Bob Burchett, handler. Barbara and Wayne Pepin were in the gallery watching Chief, as well as Matt Harris for Luke. Both dogs shot away

east of the Petit Jean bridge with a bit of push and pull to the buzzard roost crossing where Luke was seen headed down in the far corner near the river. It would be the last we saw of him with Scott asking for the tracker at 22. Chief's effort on this day was not up to his usual standard with Bob electing to cash it in at 20.

Brace 18: Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy – Barry Koepke and Karen Fujikawa, owners; Scott Johnson, handler and CVK's Spartan King – Jack Alexander, owner; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler. Gypsy and Leo were released along the south margins of the Parrish Field where both made a wide swing north showing nicely as we approached the fish hook loop. Gypsy went down into the loop ahead of us as Leo was seen going into eastern cover. Tommy continued riding and singing with Leo popping out in front of us down in the loop...an impressive move. Gypsy did all the right things through the loop and we had both dogs to the front as we re-emerged in the Parrish Field. Leo was standing to the right of the course at 28 but no birds were produced. He suffered his second non-productive at 32 along Old 109. Gypsy continued her probing casts back to the bridge where she was watered and seen going up course 3. She had been gone for some time as we approached Mario's Hill with Scott reaching for the tracker.

Posted Dogs Day 3: Ss Rig's Colorado Gun Runner – Tom Milam and Castaway Wilson – Tom Tracy, Jr.

Day 4: Brace 19: Firestarter's Crossed The Line – Vicki Rankin and Andi Christensen, owners; Ed Tillson, handler and ANJ's Ohio Hellion – Mike Poehler, owner; Bob Burchett, handler. Ty and Hank were first up on the last day of the National Championship. The weather had moderated overnight with dawn temperatures in the high 30's expected to reach the mid 60's by afternoon. Hank was coming off a great prior week where he captured the National Amateur title with his owner, Mike Poehler. He was flying around early but went missing as we approached the barking dog house at 12. Bob rode to the service road crossing at Mario's Hill and requested the tracker from the marshal. Ty had been maintaining contact with Ed throughout the first half of the hour at a moderate pace and went to the river edge as we passed the double gates. Jessica called point at 42 with Ty standing in a feed strip. When Ed stepped in, the ground exploded with Ty somehow maintaining his composure. He cast away toward the bridge and wasn't seen for some time with Ed asking for the tracker near the bridge.

Brace 20: Touch of Bourbon Little Chug – Tom and Jane Wonderling, owners; Scott Johnson, handler and Driving Miss Daisy – Burton Wice, owner; Tom Tracy, Jr., handler. Carson and Daisy were away at 9:00 am on Course 2 making smart and flashy moves over the buzzard roost and down the bowling alley. They were standing near each other just over a rise near the first 109 crossing with birds flushed and both handlers firing. Daisy the gallery buzzing as she was making bigger and bigger moves through the mid-portions of the course. She was standing at 26 with a nice, well located covey near the south end of the Parrish Field. Carson was standing a mere 30 yards away with separate birds. Both shot into the fish hook loop, where Carson suffered a non-productive on an island of cover at 47. Daisy was lighting up both sides of the fish hook loop with cast after showy cast. She was standing in the trail as we came out into the Parrish Field and Tommy walked a big loop around her when a big group of birds lifted. She followed them a bit too far to remain in consideration. Carson maintained a moderate pace back toward the bridge with an absence across the second 109 crossing. He finished near the bridge.

Brace 21: MK's My Lil Ammo – Nick Blasi, owner; Scott Johnson, handler and Piney Run Jake – Kent Patterson, owner/handler. Jake and BB's hour was summarized earlier.

Brace 22: Crescent City Girl – Barry and Petra Steinmetz, owners; Ed Tillson, handler and Blew Me Away – Norm and Terry Ahl, owners; Paul Doiron, handler. Nola and Bud started the afternoon session under clear skies and temps in the 50's. They were up to the task over the rolling hills toward Lick Creek with Bud standing at 8 under a big oak tree surrounded by cover. Nola came barreling over the hill and didn't get stopped in time to get her ticket to the wagon. Bud was statuesque in the afternoon sun as Paul pushed birds south. After his find, Bud went into hunting mode with Paul electing to pick up at 24.

Brace 23: Maxwell's Prickly Pete – Bo Ackerman, owner and SKF Miss Cheap Bourbon Whiskey – Steven and Kelly Foster and Herb Rea, owners; Scott Johnson, handler. Pete and KD were away from the service road crossing at Mario's Hill. Pete was coming off a successful fall campaign having won the Pheasant Championship and Runner-up in the Chicken Championship. KD placed in the National Derby events the prior year and was a great example of how that stake and format highlights talented youngsters that can return to Booneville and compete in the Nationals. Pete streaked away toward the S curve and disappeared. Tommy rode all the way to the river bottom without ever seeing him again. When he took the tracker he was standing within 100 yards from where we broke him away. KD showed nicely to the bridge and on to Course 2 with Scott working at times to get her out of cover. As we neared the Parrish field, he decided she likely wasn't moving anything in the judge's book and elected to pick up.

Brace 24: Alar's Dirty Dancer – Jessica Carlson, owner; Ed Tillson, handler and Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up – Ray and Mary Jo Trimble, owners; Ray Trimble, handler. Dani and Tuff were the final two participants released on the south end of the Parrish Field. Both excitedly skirted away leading the field trial party into the loop. They were a pleasure to watch skimming the edges that lead toward the new pond where Dani was stopped in a briar patch at 15. Ed finally got a group of running birds in the air. Tuff was flashy along the northern edges of the Parrish Field, as was Dani. Both dogs got in the woods as we turned toward the bridge at 30. It took some time for Dani to come out while Tuff made the impressive big loop around the early portions of Course 2 meeting Ray near the bridge. We crossed the bridge at 35 and moved up Course 3 with each being independent along the lines that lead west. Tuff flashed up the tree line near Mario's Hill while point was called for Dani to the left of the course at 55. She handled it beautifully. Both dogs finished nicely across Lick Creek as everyone took the Pavilion short cut back to the clubhouse.

2018 ABC All-Age Derby Invitational

November 23, 2018

Blue Mountain fi J. Perry Mikles WDA, Booneville, Arkansas

by Mike Peohler

This years judges were Dr. Robert Rankin and Jack Alexander, both long time Brittany owners and competitors. We greatly appreciate their time and efforts to attentively evaluate the performances of those who accepted the invitation to compete in the 3rd renewal of this event. Our weather was the first rain we had during our time in Booneville and the day remained overcast and cool for the most part – great for the dogs

We'd like to thank Purina for their continued support of Field Trials and providing a supreme feed to fuel our dogs as they compete, and for Purina's continual research into all things related to dog health, performance and nutrition – we truly appreciate your corporate sponsorship of the American Brittany Club.

Thank you to all the owners and handlers for coming to showcase your fine young dogs in this year's ABC All-Age Derby Invitational – you have much to look forward to as your dogs grow and mature. Thanks to Terry Gowin for keeping the point standings for all eligible dogs up to date; it's a monumental task keeping track of results from across the country!

Given the Tannerite Festival near headquarters the day before, in the area called Cannon Hollow, it's a miracle that most dogs ran well and without any noticeable effect. There were numerous loud explosions during Thanksgiving evening; several severe enough to shake the walls inside the clubhouse scaring humans and animals alike.

This year's winner and runner-up came from Brace 6, which ran on course 3 and was characterized by constant action from both dogs; exhibiting great speed, style and application slightly superior to the rest of the field. Both of these dogs should have long and distinguished careers ahead of them!

Our Winner was Sniksoh Willy's Warrior Princess handled by Bob Burchett and owned by Mitch Sims. Zena was fast and forward from start to finish and not afraid to dive into the cover and pop-out the other side to the front. She made big, forward moves through the Pavilion Field, down Gas Well Hill and through the Plateau Field heading towards the narrow section before the Beaver Pond. In those tighter sections along the woods is where she had her only bird contact. Afterwards, Zena dove into the thick cover and took it forward the hard way around the backside of the Beaver Pond appearing two fields after the levee crossing to the front and finished the hour as strong as she started.

Our Runner-up was My Lil' Touch of Diamonds handled by Matt Kitchen and owned by Nick Blasi. Bling was fast and forward with just a touch of hesitancy in choosing what move to make next; once she chose, she was off like a rocket to get there! Bling also made some big, forward moves through the Pavilion Field, down Gas Well Hill and through the Plateau Field heading towards the narrow section before the Beaver Pond. She also had her first find in the narrow fields with really nice style. Bling added a second find on a small covey after the levee crossing along the woods deep along the left edge and finished her hour running strong and forward.

Pushing the winners with an Honorable Mention was Whizki On Diamonds handled and owned by Corey Stokes. Tracy came from Brace 4 on course 1 in the first brace of the afternoon. Tracy worked the cover efficiently, exhibiting a flowing pattern with speed and intelligent use of the wind. Tracy had a beautiful find, deep in the corner three fields before the narrow section that parallels 109 leading towards the double gates. The dog held point for a long time waiting for Corey to get there and produce the pointed covey. Tracy ran well throughout the hour making it almost back to the double gate field after running North along the river at the bridge crossing towards course 2.

The running:

Brace 1 – WW's Miss Wendy Peffercorn (Wendy) – Burton Wice and Sniksoh Worthy Expense (Spence) – Bob Burchett. Both dogs

broke away strong with Spence settling into a forward hunting pattern through the opening fields and across the Lick Creek crossings. As we cross the road heading North, Spence had a covey find far up the field edge, almost waiting for Bob to flush while Burton took out the tracker to reclaim Wendy from the great unknown. Spence busted cover and continued to make nice moves until just before the Double Gates where he had his second find. Spence's pattern improved as he continued to grow throughout his hour.

Brace 2 – MK's My Lil' Classic (Nova) – Matt Kitchen and Sniksoh Diamond Jack (Jack) – Bob Burchett. Both dogs broke away strong on the left where Nova got hung up some running through the water at the first two crossing and regains the front after coming the hard way through the woods. Jack stayed forward and dug in along the Old 109 roadbed and crossing the front to swing the right woods edge heading to the Parish field then had a stylish, broke find at the entrance to the back loop. Nova had a strong attraction to the timber and disappeared in the later portion of the back loop, reappearing to the front along the broken pavement section of Old 109 without a handler staying mostly forward on her own; both dogs pattern shortened and slowed some as time expired.

Brace 3 – Osage Fork Slick (Slick) – Bob Burchett and TJ's Brightest Jewel (Jewel) – Ed Tillson. Both dogs broke away strong, with Jewel taking a couple fields to get lined out while Slick stayed mostly forward; both dogs being out of pocket at times through the Pavilion field section. Slick made a nice move in the large Plateau Field after Gas Well Hill with Jewel working the opposite edge nicely, though headstrong at times. Around the Beaver Pond sections, both dogs kept trying to dig into the woods and as time expired, both dogs were still, hunting hard without any luck finding birds.

Brace 4 – Cross Creek Sovereign Pop—a–Top (Jackson) – Bob Burchett and Whizki On Diamonds (Tracy) – Corey Stokes. Jackson got to work right away working the cover and tree islands with Tracy's Honorable Mention run being covered previously. Jackson continued working independently and using the wind through the fields past the formerly Barking Dog House. With Jackson becoming shorter and somewhat erratic, Bob elected call it a day prior to the Double Gate section.

Brace 5 – Sniksoh Slippery Slope (Slick) – Bob Burchett and MTB Calpatch Scipio Sole' (Sole') – Paul Doiron. Upon break away, Slick H started his mad foray of bulling through the thick cover at every opportunity, while Sole' took a more cautious approach not appreciating the carpet of trip briars before her – nasty stuff for animal and human alike! Sole' quickly figured out to avoid them and was rewarded with a really nice find along the right woods edge where a covey hangs out on a slight bump–out into the field. When Slick H wasn't digging into the cover, he flew around the edges with an impressive pattern. Both dogs shared a find along the rivers edge about 100 yards prior to the Old 109 Bridge, Slick H had another find in a vine tangle off the right edge prior to the back loop section and another on a covey towards the end of the Parish field in the corner along the broken pavement section of Old 109. Sole' made some really nice moves through the second portion of the Parish field and had a beautiful find along the Old 109 road bed; both dogs ended the hour with a find at time.

Brace 6 – Sniksoh Willy's Warrior Princess (Zena) – Bob Burchett and My Lil' Touch of Diamonds (Bling) – Matt Kitchen. Winner and Runner–up performances were detailed earlier.

TEXAS CLUBS DONATE TO HELP MILITARY DOGS

Texas Coastal and Alamo Brittany Clubs recently donated to Eli's Fund at Texas A&M University, a fund that helps pay veterinarian expenses for dogs belonging to active military personnel and veteran service dogs.

When Lance Cpl. Colton Rusk was killed in active duty only three months after his deployment to Afghanistan, his military dog, Eli, refused to work without him. The two had spent countless days and nights together on patrols, identifying improvised explosive devices and ensuring the safety of their unit. Because Eli wouldn't leave Rusk's cot at the military base, he was released to retire with Rusk's family in Orange Grove, Texas. At the time, Eli was only the second dog in United States history to be granted this honor.

Colton & Eli

Veterinarian Dr. Mike Moore knew Rusk's family through his work on behalf of wounded warriors and their families. To honor Rusk's story, he made a non-endowed gift at the Texas A&M Foundation to support retired veterans and their service animals.

In 2014, that gift became something more. Eli's Fund, named after Rusk and Eli, was established shortly after Moore heard about another military service veteran and dog duo, Sgt. William Cole and his black Labrador Retriever, Hank. After serving his country in both Iraq and Afghanistan, Cole returned with a traumatic brain injury and post-traumatic stress disorder. Traditional therapy and medications failed to bring him peace, so Cole adopted veteran service dog Hank. The two became fast friends. When Hank was given a 50 percent chance of survival after being hit by a car, Cole knew he needed to do everything in his power to save him. Hank was brought to the Texas A&M Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital where highly trained veterinarians worked to address Hank's injuries, which included broken shoulder blades, fractured ribs, broken bones in his spine and a leaking lung.

To help raise money for Hank's rising veterinary bills, Cole set up a GoFundMe website, which quickly received thousands of dollars in donations. The entirety of Hank's medical bills – totaling around $11,000 – was covered, and he generously gave the remainder to support Moore's original Eli's Fund. Today, thanks to gifts made by Moore and Cole, Eli's Fund is a source of financial support that anyone can contribute to. It helps active duty service men and women, medically retired veterans' service animals, and retired military animals with medical bills at the Texas A&M VMTH.

Versatile Brittanys in Action

By Carla Simon

When Sniffer Dog Disciplines

Whether you're searching for birds or bed bugs, Brittanys excel at scenting. With their keen desire to hunt, they can be trained to find just about any target odor. But there are so many possibilities for sniffer dogs, new handlers often find the multitude of options a bit daunting. In this article, I'll summarize some of the fun types of activities you can explore with your sniffer dog.

HUNTING

For generations, Brittanys have been bred as gundogs that point birds. Hunting tests and field trials are offered by AKC and CKC, and American Brittany magazine showcases the highlights. Also check out NAVHDA.org, where young dogs are tested in nose, search, tracking, pointing, water, desire and cooperation, and experienced teams demonstrate their skills in water and field, before and after the shot.

You may also consider activities related to hunting, including tracking wounded game, or searching for antlers.

SCENTING FOR FUN AND ENRICHING EXERCISE

Most scent detection students want to have fun with their dogs, try something new, and enjoy mental and physical exercise together. Dogs of any age can safely enjoy scent detection, done with little space and equipment, around the home, or any other location. Most dogs enjoy sniffing, even when they retire from more youthful pursuits such as agility. You can get started today, with the materials you have on hand. For example, toss some food on the grass in your front yard and allow your dog to find his dinner. Or take a course and learn how to train your dog to find his ball, handler scented glove or whatever odor you fancy.

SCENT DETECTION COMPETITION

The American Kennel Club, CKC and many other host organizations offer scent detection competitions. Dogs search for target odors that are usually comprised of essential oils, such as birch, anise, clove and/or wintergreen. Events may include searches in varying environments, such as rows of containers, inside spaces, outdoor spaces, buried hides and vehicle searches. Try checking out your local clubs to find upcoming events and ask if you can volunteer to help in a job such as timing (where the judge will explain what to do and you don't need any specific scent detection experience. Sometimes spectators are allowed to watch the teams, but make sure you ask in advance to avoid disappointment. If the teams are searching a small, indoor room, such as a bathroom, there may be insufficient space to allow spectators.

HANDLER DISCRIMINATION

Competitive obedience, and some nosework organizations such as UKC, test the dog's ability to find an article with the handler's scent on it, such as a cotton glove. Most humans are amazed at how their dog can find a handler scented dumbbell hidden in their home, where the handler's scent is virtually everywhere in the living space. But dogs only need 3 footsteps to tell which direction of travel. Dogs routinely distinguish the freshest scent to pick it out from surrounding older scents.

BARN HUNT

Dogs search for live rodents contained in containers amongst hay bales. Never fear: the rules require humane treatment of the rodents, who are not harmed during the competition (shown in the tube in the photo below).

SEARCH AND RESCUE

Sniffer dogs can help save lives and give closure to families with missing loved ones, by finding either living humans or human remains.

Dogs and handlers must be available at a moment's notice. Teams must be fit enough to support their canine partners during long searches of large areas. Once basic training is completed, teams can specialize in searching disaster sites, bodies of water for human remains, or searching for historic human remains such as burial sites. This can be very rewarding for the dedicated dogs and handlers.

PROFESSIONAL DETECTION

Professional sniffer dogs can work at searching for a multitude of scents. Examples include insects, wildlife, medical detection (infectious agents, cancer, diabetes, mold), narcotics, explosives and firearms, truffles. Dogs need a high drive to search and strongly desire working long hours and large distances to earn food and toy rewards. Even once trained and certified, sniffer dogs require maintenance training to keep up a high degree of proficiency, and if the dog performs many searches without finding anything at work, planting scent for the dog to find at the end of the day can help keep motivation and focus high.

TRACKING AND TRAILING

Tracking dogs can compete in events where a stranger walks a track of a certain distance, through varying terrain (from fields to cityscapes in urban tracking), dropping gloves along the way. Mantrailing tests the dog's ability to distinguish a person's scent after hours or days, and over varying real-life conditions including busy, contaminated environs. I hope that helps demystify some of the most common types of scent detection in the world today. Whether your dog enjoys finding food around your home or detecting bed bugs in condos, scenting is a safe, fun way to harness your dog's natural drives in rewarding work or sports that you can enjoy together. In upcoming articles, watch for tips on how to train your Brittany for scent sports.

Dr. Carla Simon has bred Brittannys for Hunter's Heart Reg'd since 1999 (based in Calgary, Canada). From bed bugs to human scent, from narcotics to Scent Work, Carla's motivational training has helped hundreds of scent dogs to reach their potential. Her Brittannys have achieved numerous Top 5 national rankings in agility, conformation and obedience. Follow their blog at <http://nosework.huntersheart.com>.

RESEARCH PROGRESS REPORT SUMMARY

Grant 02287: Enhanced Testing for the Diagnosis of Bartonellosis in Dogs

Principal Investigator: Edward Breitschwerdt, DVM
Research Institution: North Carolina State University
Grant Amount: $103,013.00
Start Date: 8/1/2016 End Date: 12/31/2018
Progress Report: FINAL
Report Due: 12/31/2018 Report Received: 1/31/2019

(The content of this report is not confidential and may be used in communications with your organization.)

Original Project Description:

Bartonellosis, a zoonotic bacterial disease of worldwide distribution, is caused by approximately 10 different Bartonella species. Bartonella are transmitted to canines and humans by ticks, fleas, lice, mites, and sand flies. Dr. Breitschwerdt's laboratory demonstrated the first evidence for Bartonella infections in dogs in 1993. Bartonella species have been associated with an expanding spectrum of important disease manifestations including anemia, endocarditis, hepatitis, lymphadenitis, myocarditis, thrombocytopenia and vascular tumor-like lesions. Infections can be life-threatening. Due to a lack of sensitive and reliable diagnostic assays, definitive diagnosis of bartonellosis in dogs remains a significant problem. Because these bacteria invade cells and infect tissues throughout the body, this chronic intracellular infection is difficult to cure with currently used antibiotic regimens. This study will develop improved serodiagnostic tests for bartonellosis in dogs. These assays can also be used for world-wide sero-epidemiological prevalence studies, and to establish early and accurate diagnosis. Dr. Breitschwerdt's research group has described concurrent infection in dogs, their owners and veterinary workers; this allows for a One Health approach to this important emerging infectious disease.

Report to Grant Sponsor from Investigator:

This AKC-CHF funded research has resulted in substantial refinement of our Bartonella serodiagnostic testing knowledge of healthy dogs (pets, working dogs and potential blood donors) and sick dogs being evaluated for a differential diagnosis of Bartonellosis. Based upon testing and comparing results using eight different Bartonella species or strains, we were able to identify two species that when used in combination should increase serodiagnostic sensitivity compared to the three strains that we have used diagnostically for the past decade. As these are not the two species currently in use diagnostically, our historical testing most likely underestimated the prevalence of Bartonella antibodies in seroepidemiological studies published by our research group and more importantly failed to report positive Bartonella spp. serological results that could be used to guide therapy in a sick dog. In both our research and diagnostic laboratory testing, we have always adhered to the adage: The kindest form of therapy is an accurate diagnosis. This study also allowed us to begin to assess the utility of another serodiagnostic technique called Western immunoblotting for assessment of a dog's exposure to a Bartonella spp. WB interpretation can be challenging and this study has allowed us to compare IFA and WB sensitivities and to define minimal criteria for reporting a "positive" WB. Our efforts to date have identified individual and potential combinations of small Bartonella proteins (peptides) that appear to have diagnostic utility as an inhouse rapid assay that could be used by veterinarians to rapidly determine if a dog has been exposed to a Bartonella spp. We are currently purifying individual proteins and assessing other peptide combinations in an effort to define an assay with optimal sensitivity and specificity. This brief paragraph does not do justice to the numerous hours of research effort that was made possible because of the research funding support from the American Kennel Club Canine Health Foundation or the dogs and their owners who will ultimate benefit from these findings, as we improve serodiagnosis of bartonellosis.

GREATER SAINT LOUIS

Grovespring, MO

January 31–February 6, 2019

Our "spring" field trial was scheduled to start with the Open All–Age on Tuesday January 29, 2019 at Sportsmen's Association Field Trial Grounds in Grovespring, Missouri. These private grounds are groomed and maintained solely for field trials. However, the southernmost edge of the Polar Vortex reached Grovespring and for the safety dogs, horses, and humans, the start of the Open All–Age was delayed until Thursday, January 31. Not a problem getting the late start because the dogs unfortunately helped speed things along. By Sunday afternoon, global warming reappeared and temperatures approached 70 degrees. That's "spring" field trialing in Southern Missouri.

In addition to the regulars on the horseback field trial circuit, we were fortunate to have several people attend their first horseback field trial. Chelsey Tramel and Gina Nelsen, both from the Greater Saint Louis Brittany Club, loved the mix of horses and dogs. After several hours in the saddle, they were ready to tackle "Horse Killer Hill". To top off her weekend, Chelsey and her dog "Annie" placed in the open puppy. We got her hooked. John Ziegler and Clint LaFary are used to competing in UKC events and drove down from East Central Illinois to see what our horseback field trials are like. Both men were used to the horses and really loved working their dogs from horseback. It was great to see the regular attendees provide horses and guidance for the new participants (including babysitting for Chelsey's 12-week-old baby). In addition to enjoying the competition, the newbies were very impressed with the camaraderie of all of the participants.

Many people and Sponsors helped make this event possible. Dave Capstick, Joe Williams, Stan Williamson, Tommy Tracy, Jr., Bob Travis, Mitch Sims, and Gailen Cooper helped drive the dog wagon and/or plant birds on the continuous 3-hour course. Burton Wice and Valerie Burchett prepared lunches and dinners for participants and guests. Sharon Wice prepared hard boiled eggs for morning coffee breaks at the dog wagon between braces. Purina donated small pouches of Pro Plan Sport dog food for the entrants as well as large bags for the winners of the 1-hour Open Gun Dog and Open All-Age stakes. In addition to all of the attendees, these folks helped make this year's spring horseback field trial a huge success.

TEXAS COASTAL Boyd Ranch Wortham, TX January 14-16, 2019

What a wild 10 days! Three clubs with back to back field trials but we survived! Our spring trial was held on grounds close to Mexia, TX, with the Ft. Worth club first, ours second, and Alamo third. But spring is a misnomer! The weather was cold and windy – not ideal weather for riding horses and running dogs. But at least we weren't frozen up like last year.

We finished running 73 dogs in three days with pros Ben Kuykendall, David Downing and Tim Hidalgo from Oklahoma attending. Leslie Andreas from Canada came, ran some of her Brittanys and we visited all week. Frank Campbell from Oklahoma did a great job with his dogs winning the Open All Age with Ned Pepper! Amateurs Chris and Sabrina Corliss from Colorado returned this year with their Vizslas. Thanks goes to our long time local amateur friends from other breeds who always make our trial a success.

All placements were well-received and we sincerely thank our judges E.J. & Kim Hall, Charlie Collier, Ben Kuykendall, Steve Hintzel and Chris Corliss. Club members Craig Johnson placed his Roxie 2nd in the Amateur Gun Dog with Robert Power's Abby placing 4th. Jax won the Open Derby for Willo Barfield and the Crawford's.

We are grateful for and thank helpers at our trial. Willo Barfield cooked breakfast each morning and helped with other meals and Sandy Schrank drove over and also helped out for two days. Our club member Shawn MacLeod, with a young dog from Leslie, has jumped right into trialing and worked planting birds, saddling/unsaddling horses, taking dogs to the line and anything else needed to run the trial.

The social time with meals in our loafing shed were enjoyable and friendly. Homemade soups were enjoyed and Kim Hall's cakes were gone in short order. We missed Bret and Roxie Lindback; Roxie was recovering from knee surgery.

A huge "Thank You" to all who attended and we hope to see you again in November.

Dub Emde Challenge

A huge shout out to the Northern Oklahoma Brittany Club for hosting this event and all their hard work made it a success. Though entries were down from last year the enthusiasm of the competitors and spectators was high. Cold mornings and cool afternoons, light breezes and overcast skies were predominate conditions but the threatening rain stayed away. Early January rains had left the grounds super saturated in places, so the dog wagon stayed on the road and the dogs, horses, and riders muddied up pretty quick.

Purina blessed this event with their Pro

Plan dog food and it is the choice food of the majority of these canine athletes. Year after year Purina remains the staunchest supporter of the field trial performance events and for that we thank them immensely for their continued support.

Judges Everett Brannan and Jan Kilpatrick were studious in their evaluation of each dog's performance and arrived at the following results.

Running of the Recognized:

Named Champion, Top Dog Brace 4 GFC/DC/AFC Tequila Scorcher, "Lincoln" who was handled by Richard Beaver. Lincoln was in fine form running a consistently forward race with an eye pleasing smooth effortless gait. His bird work was impressive with covey finds at 21 and 28. His find at 28 was particularly impressive as he was found on point by the scout behind the mott line that surrounds the big circular meadow that signals a sharp change of course. When we arrived, Lincoln was pointing intensely into a briar infested tree line. Beaver scratched his head and decided there was no clear way into these briars so he just charged in but the briars won and he hit the ground. About this same time the sound of beating wings called our attention to the end of the mott where approximately 20 running quail finally took to flight. Beaver regained his footing and untangled himself sufficiently to pull his gun and fire a round. Lincoln remained intense and mannerly throughout this episode. Lincoln continued to run forward, checking out all likely objectives and was rewarded with a single at 49 which he handled without incident. Lincoln finished the hour in true all age form and for his efforts was awarded the well-deserved Champion title.

Runner-Up Champion, Top Dog Brace 3 FC/AFC MK's My Lil Ammo "BB" handled by Nick Blasi. BB was putting it down and was sighted traveling fast and forward at the times of 6, 18 and 32 before settling into an extended yet viewable race. First bird contact came at 35 with BB standing tall and mannerly through the flush and fire. At 49 BB pinned a covey and again was stylish and mannerly. She finished her hour with the same snappy forward application she started with and was awarded the Runner Up Champion title.

Third Bottom Dog Brace 5, FC A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds, "Trace" handled by Rick Hastings. Trace ran a mostly forward race at a moderate range and had finds at 30, 50 and 54 where he exhibited classic style and manners to earn him third place.

Faking It

By Rick Smith & Sharon Potter

Yes, there is such a thing as a false point. There isn't a bird there and likely never was one. If that's true, why on earth would a dog stop and point?

The more you hunt with your dog, the better you get at noticing little details about his pointing style. Your dog sends signals by the body language he exhibits when on point. There are several different kinds of pointing behaviors, from a true point on a live bird, to just standing game, to a true false point. The kinds we're going to focus on in this column are the types related to and including false pointing.

A false point happens when the dog exhibits pointing behavior and there's no bird to point. That doesn't mean pointing old scent or a bird that was just there and ran. To break it down even further, there are multiple ways a dog can point and not be on a bird. Not all of these are false points, however. In order to help you differentiate a false point from the other types, let's go through what is not a false point.

Pointing feathers, old scent, or ground scent when there is no longer a bird there is not false pointing. This behavior is not at all uncommon in a younger, less-experienced dog. The cure for this is more time in the field and more live birds. As the dog's ability matures, he learns to differentiate between a bird that was there and one that still is, and he won't bother with old scent once he learns the difference. Remember, in the beginning we're just trying to build as much excitement and prey drive as we can, so don't correct an experienced dog for pointing old scent. Just go on past him without saying anything or encourage him to come along, and the dog will figure it out and go with you.

How are you supposed to know your dog is pointing old scent? There's a difference in the body language and posture of the dog. Please keep in mind that we're talking about mature dogs, not puppies. Puppies can look pretty good pointing a feather or a butterfly at first. Once they've seen a few birds, you'll be able to tell the difference in their pointing style between old scent, butterflies, and live birds. An experienced dog won't show the same degree of intensity in his posture when false pointing. The tail may not be as high, and his head may be lower and looking right at the object or even rooting around in the grass.

P o i n t i n g off-game such as rabbits, mice turtles, snakes, gophers, and the like is also not false pointing. This is pretty common when there aren't many birds and the dog's been running for a while without finding one. A dog pointing off-game or trash game shows a different style than on game-birds. Again, learning to read your dog's body language will help you to figure out the difference.

When a dog is pointing off-game, he's more likely to go for a visual and lower his head to look for it. The best way to handle this is to go on past the dog, and he'll often come with you. If he wants to chase trash game, use it as an opportunity to work on steady to flush. When the non-game animal leaves, just think about stopping the chase and making the dog stand steady. That's a skill the dog needs anyway, and unless he makes a habit of going after specific off-game animals, there's no reason to make a big issue out of it. However, if your dog decides that deer or rabbits or any other non-gamebird is going to be his new favorite thing, you'll need to break the dog of it.

When a dog points a bird then loses scent, he will look around, perhaps flag his tail, and be less tight. A true false point means the dog will stay staunch and steady, with very little difference between false pointing and the real thing. Differentiating a false point from the real McCoy can be something as subtle as the dog following you with an eye as you walk past; but if you learn to pay attention, you'll learn the signs and can tell which is which.

If you're in pheasant country and your dog is Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners worldwide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

on point with no bird, you can bet you've got a running bird out ahead somewhere. This can happen anywhere on any kind of gamebird, but pheasants are the most likely culprit. A running bird is something dogs only learn to handle after doing it several times - and in our book, hunting six days a year is not going to cut it. Two dozen days a year, over a couple of seasons, is more likely to give a dog the on-the-job training he needs to learn about running birds. If you don't live where you can let a dog run on wild birds, go to a pheasant preserve to train. Any experience is better than none at all, and even just walking your dog through fields at a preserve to find leftover birds is good training.

Wild birds that've been hunted before will often flush when they hear you coming, leaving the dog with nothing to point but old scent. A dog pointing old scent will usually exhibit a staunch point, then loosen up, look around a bit, and move his tail.

So, what is a false point? When a dog points and there is absolutely nothing there to point, it's a false point. The dog's style will be almost identical to the look he has when pointing a bird, with the head held high and tail up and rigid; but his body is usually not as tight or tense as when on a true point.

Why on earth would a dog point at nothing? One of the more common reasons happens in a training situation. If you continually plant birds in the same spot, the dog learns to point the location out of habit rather than by the scent. The solution is easy: Don't plant birds in the same place.

Also, use a dry field, meaning a field that has no birds in it. Then you can correct a dog, telling him to go with you and move on. Don't be tempted to use an e-collar for this, because that means you're telling the dog to move. If the dog has to figure it out on his own, the lesson will stick. If you tell him to move on, it takes the responsibility off of the dog, which is the opposite of what we want. Just walk on past and keep going until the dog breaks loose and comes with you. It won't take more than a few seconds before he moves on and goes with you again. When you do this, be sure to completely ignore the dog. Say nothing.

There are three things a dog can do: He can keep standing there; he can break off and go with you; or on the odd chance that there is a bird, he can run over it and flush it. If he does flush a bird, don't get upset or angry. Take advantage of the opportunity to work on stop to flush. Even if you push him into a bird and he flushes it, it's not the end of the world. It's still better than false pointing and won't happen often if you work in what you are sure is a dry field with no birds.

A dog will often knock into and flush birds on purpose when the handler is out of sight, then lock up on point quickly before you arrive. He does this because he knows he won't get corrected for being on point - it's sort of a way of diverting your attention from the fact that he just busted a bird or two. The fix for this type of false point is to catch him in the act and make a correction.

A dog that earns petting and praise every time he points will learn to stop and point to gain attention and praise. The best reward for a point should be a bird. Try to leave the praise and fussing out of it so you don't create this problem. Dogs will repeat behavior that gets them what they want.

Finally, false pointing can be a form of defiance. Remember when you were a little kid and didn't want to go to bed, instead begging for "just five more minutes"? You were having fun doing something and wanted to keep doing it rather than heading off to bed. Same thing with false pointing - the dog is enjoying being picked up. He figures that when he points, you don't correct him; and he uses that this to prevent you from putting a lead on him to go home. These false points often happen when the dog knows you're on the way back to the vehicle, making correcting the problem easy - slip a lead on the dog well before you get to the end of your walk back to the vehicle, and before the dog realizes the day is ending.

Our hunting seasons seem to end way too soon, so stretching each day to take full advantage of enjoying being in the field with a good dog works both ways. The dogs enjoy it, too, and it's hard to blame them for not wanting to go home. We have a hard time faulting a dog that doesn't want to quit hunting. That's not a bad problem to have.

Westminster Meet the Breed

Scheduled to start at 10:00am, by 9:30 people were already visiting our booth! Even though the day officially ended at 5pm, there were still many spectators coming around getting in the last hello to the breeds they wanted to see. Many attendees shared stories and photos of their precious Brittans and even a few recalled loving memories of their Brittans who had long passed away. These dogs may have been gone, but the memories of their love was not forgotten. Everyone had a great time and the Rikki and Teddy were ready for a well-deserved nap!

Submitted by Dona Campbell

The Westminster Meet the breed was held on February 9th 2019 in New York City and The Southern New England Brittany club hosted a booth to show off our beautiful Brittans. Representing the Brittans were club members, Joe and Dona Campbell with their dogs, Rikki and Teddy. There were 130 Breeds represented, as well as, some felines and over 12,000 people in attendance.

Our club held a raffle with the first prize a basket of goodies (generously donated by Natural Pet Outlet in Fairfield, CT); a second and third prize was a dog toy. In addition, the club provided several hand-outs on Brittans (history and origin) as well as grooming tips. The spectators also loved the colorful copies of the American Brittany Magazine and Brittany magnets handed out.

THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Trial and Show to be run Spring of 2021

PURSE: 2/3 to Owner of Winner, 1/3 to Breeder of Winner

ABC Futurity Rules can be found on the ABC Website and in the ABC Policy Book

CONDITIONS AND RULES FOR FUTURITY ELIGIBILITY

- The 2021 American Brittany Futurity shall be open to every Brittany bitch and her progeny whelped during the calendar year of January 1 - December 31, 2019, who is owned or leased by a member of The American Brittany Club, and whose litters have been Futurity nominated with The American Brittany Club. Sires do not necessarily have to be owned/leased by an American Brittany Club member. All dams nominated and all sires bred to must be registered with AKC, CKC, or FDSB.
- The nominating breeder needs to be a current full member in Good Standing of the ABC when the litter is nominated and the closing dates of the of the Sectional Futurities in which puppies from their nominated litter compete. They must sign the Litter Nomination form, and any breeder purse checks will be paid to this designated nominated breeder. If their membership has lapsed at the time of the Sectional Futurity, the purse will revert back to the ABC Futurity Administrative Fees.
- Nominations of dams must be made within 60 days after a bitch has whelped, and a Nomination Fee of $40.00 ("First Forfeit") must be paid at this time. This payment will entitle each puppy of the nominated litter to be entered in the ABC Futurities (Field and/or Show) after the puppy has been properly registered with AKC or FDSB. Nomination Fees are set by the ABC Board of Directors.
- Late litter nominations will be accepted with the following current fee schedule: In addition to the Nomination Fee of $40.00, late fees are $60.00 for 61-90 days, and $100.00 for 91-180 days. Nominations after 180 days will be accepted at the discretion and decision of the ABC Futurity Committee. The postmark will determine the fee for late nominations. The ABC Board of Directors may impose additional late fees from time to time.
- A Final Forfeit Fee, to be eligible to compete in the Sectional Futurities (Western/Central/Eastern), is due by October 1, 2020, and is submitted by the owner of the eligible puppy. Futurity Entry Fees will also be paid prior to 2021 Sectional Futurity events by the owner of the eligible puppy for each Sectional Futurity event in which the eligible puppy is entered. Final Forfeit Fees as well as Sectional Futurity Entry Fees are set by the ABC Board of Directors and subject to change.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
