The American Brittany

VOLUME LXXI • NUMBER 1 • JANUARY 2019

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

The 2018 National Open Gun Dog Championship ran with a total of 35 dogs entered. There were several updates to the running order due to 4 scratches and 2 bitches in season. The running was concluded on Thursday; the weather was great for running dogs and the coveys were plentiful.

Our judges this year were Harold Heather from Illinois and Al Van Wieren from Indiana. Both of these gentlemen have decades of judicial experience along with breeding and competing with their dogs in the field and show rings. Thank you for your attentiveness to all of the dogs and handlers and your time in the saddle to select a Champion!

Purina® and Garmin™, deserve a heartfelt thank you for their continued support of this Championship as well as countless other events in Field Trialing across the United States. Purina fuels many of the competitors, providing financial support for the event and complimentary bags of dog food for each entry. The winners received Pro-Plan dog food, a Garmin training collar and a saddle, hand-tooled and crafted by Kevin Parish, The Saddle Guy. There were trophies, plaques and saddle bags (by Kevin Parish) awarded to the placing dogs.

Thank you to the Field Trial Chairman, Bob Burchett, and Terri DeBarr/ Mike Poehler for serving as the Field Trial Secretary. The reporter was Joanne Perry. Members of the Field Trial Committee were Valerie Burchett, Jim Carter, John Perry, Brian Hendrickson, Tommy Thomas and Chuck Langstaff. Thank you to Deb Smeltz and Diana Kubitz for making sure the donuts and coffee were on the dog wagon, taking care of the Calcutta, dinners and the auction. Thanks to Scott Johnson, for stepping in as our auctioneer! Additional thanks go to Chuck Langstaff for driving the dog wagon, our bird planter, Richard Lipski, and the countless others who volunteered their time, effort, knowledge and support.

We'd also like to thank the Ionia grounds committee for grooming the grounds for the dogs and handlers. Thanks to our Wrangler, Will Langley of Bottom Creek Farm in Attica, MI. for providing the horses. Thank you to Julie Romence for taking pictures. Thank you to all who made a donation to the trophy fund and items to the auction. Thanks to Eileen Gust for doing a great job preparing and cooking tasty meals for everyone.

On Monday, there was a ride-around for all to become familiar with the courses and later that night was the welcome dinner, followed by the Calcutta. Purina catered Tuesday's dinner for the Magnum's Masked Man Award; thanks to Bob Burchett for presenting the award and trophy. Congratulations to Vince and Denise Anderson with Magnum High Velocity (Gauge) winning the Magnum's Masked Man Award! Wednesday night was the winner's dinner for Gauge, last year's National Champion. We all enjoyed scrumptious pulled pork, chicken and brisket with all the fixings. Thank you! Thursday was the Garmin/Tri-Tronics Award Dinner. The award was presented to Almaden's Under Lock and Key (Oudi). Congratulations to Emmy Wollenburg and Ed Tillson!

The winners:

The Champion came from brace 10: 10b – Hopes Chief of Crosscreek (Chief) – Bob Burchett. Chief scored with finds at 3 and 9 with Dixie backing both times. Chief made a huge cast rimming Hires Field. Chief backed Dixie at the last tree line as we exited the area. Dixie worked at moderate range. At 29, Chief had another find while Dixie backed. This was an extended flushing attempt; the bird was flushed, all in order and we moved on. At 52 point was called in the Derby Field for Chief's 4th find. At 55, Dixie scored on the opposite side of the field. Chief's run was forward, consistent and flowing and his finds stylish and he finished strong.

Our runner-up and 3rd place dogs came from Brace 8: 8a) 3rd Place – Hoochie Coochie Man (Karl) – Ed Tillson and 8b) Runner-up Champion – Turningpts Landslide (Mack) – Bob Burchett. Karl scored first along the tree line and was tight with intensity. At 13 Karl made game with another staunch find. Karl moved nicely on the tree lines. Mack was up front by the big oak on point. Bob dismounted and a shot was fired as the covey lifted. Ed called point at the bottom of the tree line for another find. Mack came forward as Karl was taking his edges. At 20 Mack had a stop to flush crossing the two track. At 25 Karl scored again. Mack scored again at 34 and at 38 with Karl backing. At 42 Karl pointed. As birds lifted over his head, he watched only with his eyes. At 45 Mack scored on the island with a relocation. At 50 Mack was standing with Karl backing. Both handled it well and moved on. Point was signaled for Karl at 52 and it was an unproductive. Both dogs were to the front. Karl came into another backing situation at 56. Mack finished running strong with Karl on the tree line.

INTRODUCTION TO THE BRITTANY - CRATE TRAINING

By Martha H. Greenlee and David A. Webb

Crate training is the simple process of introducing a puppy to a crate and is one of the most important steps in teaching a puppy to become a well-mannered adult. Besides a leash and collar, a crate is one of the most important pieces of equipment to have when you bring your new Brittany puppy home. This is where he will sleep at night and stay during the day for short periods of time when he can't be supervised. It can also be used in the car when he travels with you.

If you haven't used a crate before, your initial reaction may be to think that confining pup in a crate is cruel. But it is important to consider that the Brittanys' ancestors were cave dwelling animals. If you watch your pup, he instinctively finds a protected spot when he lies down to take a nap because dogs are den animals by nature. A crate simulates a den and offers security, privacy, and protection.

Over the next couple of weeks your job will be to get the pup accustomed to the crate. Like everything in dog training, it must be introduced to him in stages.

- First, let him investigate the crate by leave the door open, so he can go in or out.
- Put a treat or toy in there and let him find it.
- Keep the crate in a busy area during the day and leave him in it for short periods.
- At night, move the crate into the bedroom so he can sleep near you.

If he cries when you crate him, ignore him. Eventually he will stop. If you feel sorry for him and let him out, you are rewarding him for crying and he will only cry more. Always wait until he is quiet before letting him out.

Crate training is also useful for housebreaking. A pup instinctively doesn't want to soil his den so he learns to "hold it." Young puppies may not be able to "make it" through the night and may need to be let out, but you will be surprised at how easy house breaking is when you use a crate.

As your pup grows, if he starts to get into everything or seems uncontrollable, the crate will help you maintain control. However, never use the crate for punishment. Remember, the crate is where he feels safe. As he gets more comfortable with the crate, begin to say "Kennel" every time you put him in. Eventually you will say, "Kennel" and he will go into his crate no matter where he is in the room. This works really well if you have a toy or treat waiting for him. Leave the door open, and he may surprise you by going into the crate when he wants to take a nap.

There are many different styles and sizes of crates. Crate styles include the plastic airline type and others that are all wire. The plastic airline crate offers more security and is the most popular. If you chose a wire crate, put a blanket over the crate to keep out the light during the day. The size of the crate depends on the size of the dog. The crate should be large enough to allow a dog to lie down, to stand up (shoulder clearance) and to turn around. If the crate is too large, it loses its housebreaking effectiveness because the pup can defecate in it. Full-grown Brittanys generally require an intermediate size crate. This crate is about 22" wide by 32" deep by 23" high. Many people buy a crate to fit the adult dog and then block off the back half with a piece of plywood while the pup is still small.

While there are few stages in a dog's life as enjoyable as puppy hood, consider that most bad habits are learned in the first year. Preventing a bad behavior from starting is easier than trying to correct it later on. Brittanys are an energetic breed, and you may find he's creating havoc in the house while you are absent or can't supervise him. Crating him will help control his activity. Be vigilant so you can stop bad behaviors as soon as they start.

Crate training is key to raising a pup that will become a well-mannered adult. If you encounter any problems with crate training, talk to your veterinarian. Have fun with your pup and good luck.

Spice Up Your Sniffing

Looking for an enriching new way to exercise your puppy's mind? Spice up your sniffing by hiding food, toys, or scent in a fresh new environment. Try hiding scent:

- Amidst powdery snow in your yard (on days where the snow is good for making snowmen, scenting conditions are excellent, but avoid very cold temperatures that freeze odor in place)
- Build drive by holding your dog back while he watches you toss his favorite toy into a set of empty boxes left over from the holidays
- Inside Kongs, hidden under a blanket
- In snuffle mats (like a deep fleece rug, available on amazon)
- In an interactive food puzzle like Nina Ottosson or Outward Hound (choose the appropriate level of difficulty for your dog's experience)
- Inside a set of lawn/leaf bags from the hardware store, which your dog can climb inside
- Fill a kiddie pool with safe balls or empty plastic bottles and hide the food at the bottom
- Create a maze by arranging some ex-pens, crates or ring barriers to impede access to a toy so your dog has to work at getting to it. Will he go over, under, or around?

Use what you have on hand, or get creative inspiration at your local dollar store. The possibilities are only limited by your imagination. No matter your dog's level of experience, scent detection is a fun game you can enjoy together wherever your holidays take you.

Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame

Nominations begin March 1
and close July 1

On behalf of the Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame (BFTHF), we are asking you to participate in the BFTHF nomination process. The BFTHF is part of the Bird Dog Foundation, Grand Junction, TN.

Purpose

The purpose of the BFTHF is to recognize and honor Brittanys and Brittany owners that have made significant contributions to the Sport of Field Trialing. To date, 77 Brittanys and 48 Brittany enthusiasts have been inducted and pictures of these dogs and people are displayed in the Hall of Fame.

Nominations

You are a member of the nominating committee and your support is needed. We want you to nominate those you believe are Outstanding Brittanys and Distinguished Brittany people.

Outstanding dogs are recognized by their entire competitive career, field trial performance record (championship wins) and production record. They must be deceased at least one year prior to opening of nominations March 1. These are the same dogs you would like to find in the pedigree of that good pup you just bought!

Distinguished people have rendered exemplary service to the sport of field trialing both locally and nationally for a long period of time. These contributions may be as a judge, a breeder, a field trial official, a reporter, a patron or any combination thereof. The sport is better because of these people who are givers, not takers or self-promoters.

Nominations Process

Visit the Election Procedure page on our website at www.brittanyfieldtrialhalloffame.com to review the Election Criteria and Guidelines. A nominator should prepare a bio with facts that outline a dog or person's worthiness to be a member of the BFTHF. The nomination and a photo should be sent by email to jmbritts@gmail.com or by regular mail to Mary Crawford, Corresponding Secretary, 11902 Mile Dr., Houston, TX 77065. Support letters should be sent to mail@BrittanyFieldTrialHallOfFame.com by anyone wishing to add support for a nominee.

Election and Induction

After the nomination period has closed, the BFTHF Election Committee will vote using the bios submitted for each nominee. Normally, no more than two worthy dogs and persons will be elected in any calendar year. Induction ceremonies are held in early February of the following year.

Send emails for assistance to Mary Crawford, Corresponding Secretary

ILLINOIS

Pyramid State Rec Area

Willisville, IL

November 1–4, 2018

Mother Nature is seldom kind to the Illinois Brittany Club. This year's fall running was no exception. Twenty dogs came to the line for the hour Jim Holman Classic. Day one, rain all day. Day two, beautiful for the four remaining braces from which all four placements were announced. We thank Jeff Marshall and Jim Lawless for sitting in the saddle in such inclement conditions. They always had a smile on their faces and seemed to enjoy looking at our Brittneys. This was the last field trial before closing for the ABC National Championship and we were pleased that Jack Alexander and his daughter Crystal along with Burton Wice will now be going to Booneville early to compete in the Amateur All Age.

Saturday we were able to run three stakes on the same course, so shuffling people and horses around was not necessary. That left the Open All Age to run on Sunday. Lightning, thunder & torrential rain kept us from running and everyone went home early. We thank Dennis Sneed & Mike Hutchcraft for driving over Sunday for naught. They provided much needed judging man power on Saturday looking at our 13 Amateurs. We also want to thank Ed & Donna Janulis, Stan Williamson, & Tom Jagielski for sitting in the saddle. Not only did they help with the judges' panels, they also ran their own dogs on Saturday as well, which made for a busy day for them. Our thanks go out to professionals Jamie Fountain, Tom Tracy and Chad Holman, as well as all of the amateurs who participated: Joe Williams, Jack Alexander, Ray Trimble, Stan Williamson, Ed & Donna Janulis, Tom Jagielski, Paul Kuipers, Stevie Duffek, and Burton Wice. Stevie & Jamie were our newcomers and we welcomed them with open arms.

Several participants complimented Cha Hill and his limited crew for keeping the grounds in such good shape. Jim Lawless, Ed Graves, and Cha's crew spent countless days this summer mowing. Even the crop farmers cooperated and were picking beans by flood lights the night before we began.

Donna Janulis was the dog wagon driver in training. Dave Capstick, laid up with a new knee, was Donna's instructor. He also picked up the birds and loaded them each morning for Ed Graves to plant. We welcomed Denny Sullivan who was across the road judging the Visla's. His help was much appreciated by Ed in planting the birds off Chad Holman's buggy. Maurine Ritcher drove from Jacksonville to handle the kitchen duties and heat our main courses prepared by Judy Graves. As usual, Mary Jo Trimble was the safety officer road guard and helped shop for all of the special treats we enjoyed.

Of course, we could not conduct this trial without the help and financial support of Nestle-Purina. Their dog food is a staple in our world and most all competitors feed their product.

Respectfully Submitted,
Judy Graves, Field Trial Secretary

This year, the Kansas Brittany Open All Age Championship winner is DC/AFC Tequila Scorcher, handled by Ed Tillson. 2nd place was followed by Sniksoh Little Diamond, handled by Scott Johnson. 3rd place went to FC/AFC Firestarter's Crossed The Line, handled by Ed Tillson. 4th place went to FC A Trace of Bourbon with Diamonds, handled by Scott Johnson.

Thanks to our judges; Gailen Cooper and Tim Hidalgo. These two had to trudge through mud to find the winning dogs, as we had the 4 previous days raining consistently.

We want to acknowledge our sponsor Nestle-Purina. We thank them for their support and donation of dog food for the winners and money to promote the event.

The rest of our trial went as smooth,

WEST COAST

CALIFORNIA Clay Mine Rd California City, CA October 27-28, 2018

California forgot to turn its weather over to our normal fall temperatures this year, so we ran in the high 80s! Great judges, great dogs, great food and friends made for a great weekend. We saw some really nice dogs compete this weekend with a nice variety of placements. Thank you to our judges who spent some long hours in the saddle, and our most grateful handful of volunteers who came to help with the trial, we couldn't have done it without you – Ed Moody, Kurt & Jeri Conklin, Linda McDonald, Sheri Harder, Paul & Peggy Doiron. Our small field trial village worked very hard to pull off this trial and our participants kept our trial flowing nicely with dogs at the start line on time. THANK YOU to everyone who came to judge, work and play in our desert. A huge thank you to Mike Eisen who set up our courses! We even worked in a General Membership meeting and gained three new members!

2018 American Brittany Club Board of Directors Annual Meeting

The 2018 annual Board of Directors meeting took place at the Meeting place, Booneville, Arkansas November 18, 2018 with president Ed Janulis calling meeting to order at 8:15 a.m.

Board of Directors: East Coast-Darlene Dow, Leslie Jane Hunt, and Bob Fleury; East Central-Helen Riggle, Brian Hendrickson (absent), and Ron Gulembo; Central-Bernie Crain, Steve Ralph, Joe Droel (seated for the first time); West Coast-Bob West, Mary Brown, and Robin Tomasi.

Motion 1 Steve Ralph made the first motion, seconded by Ed Tillson, which was to accept minutes for 2017 as read. All accepted.

Jeri Conklin, 2nd Vice President did a report on membership. Our 2018 retention is minus 5 percent as compared to the 2017 retention of minus 12 percent. There was a less than 100 person difference between regional club memberships for 2017 and 2018. Currently monthly transactions are up. Jeri suggested a reach out to regional clubs as well as ask for more articles written by young members to encourage participation.

3rd vice president Emmy Wollenberg gave a report on the National Specialty show. While entries were down slightly, a lot of new people came to our national specialty for first time. The banquet and fund raising were also up. This will be Emmy's last year at this task. The BOD thanked her for her time and hard work at putting on some very successful events.

4th Vice president Bob Burchett gave a report on the 2108 Gun dog nationals which was an outstanding event with good sportsmanship shown by all. In spite of this, entries were down, especially in the Amateur stake. There was an average of 8 coveys produced per hour. The Invitational Derby was a class event despite small entries. Bob recommends discontinuing the event if the gun dog moves to Booneville. The caterer's meals were outstanding. A town hall meeting at the clubhouse showed most were not happy about moving the championships to Booneville and were disappointed in BOD's lack of response to their desire to keep the Championships in Ionia. Bob's predictions are a continued decline in entries. Robin Tomasi asked about plans for future. Ed Tillson complimented Bob on a well run event in 2018, and reported that Doug Lundgren is approving on behalf of AKC, ABC Walking Gun Dog Championships in the future. We will need approval from Blue Mt. management in order to add on 10 extra days for Booneville for next year's National Gun Dog Championships. The move will be made in 2019 to Booneville grounds. Darlene Dow asks for clarification on qualifications now that stakes are on same grounds. It was stated that you are eligible to run in whichever stake(s) you qualify for. Bob Burchett has volunteered to continue to run the horseback National Gun Dog Championships wherever it ends up. New chairperson and committee will be needed for the ABC National Gun Dog Walking Championship event. The 2019 dates are secured for Ionia.

Recording Secretary Jennifer Brooke Burlingame expressed some of her concerns with the mailing of sharp "aggressive" pins in mail. She has continued to mail out club brochures, medallions, and compiled the agenda book for this year's meeting. Steve Ralph asked how to improve getting reports from committees, and suggested forms to ask questions to add to agenda.

Keith Wolnewitz gave the Treasurer's report after thanking Judy Graves and committee for all their help in bringing books up to date. The account with the First Bank of Illinois is now closed. All financials are up to date to end of October. Keith reported that certified public audits are not done on organizations of smaller size, such as our club. There is verification for all assets sitting in club accounts. Keith W. also recommended no change in the fiscal year. In the future, will use Quick Books and all records will go digital. Bernie Crain asked about quarterly reports for the BOD's consideration. Ed Tillson thanks Keith for all his hard work and future contributions to the club.

Motion 2 made by Bernie Crain, seconded by Mary Karbinger, to do away with a second signature on club checks. Any check exceeding $5000 needs approval of president or executive secretary. All votes yes, motion carried.

Motion 3 made by Robin Tomasi, seconded by Bob West, to revoke last year's decision to change from calendar to fiscal year. All votes yes, motion carried.

The ballots for the new board of directors were counted by 5 club members, with the successful candidates being Darlene Dow (East Coast), Jack Alexander (East Central), Bernie Crain (Central), Mary Karbinger (Midwest), Jim Hammett (West Coast).

Tom Milam's report was read by Steve Ralph.

Motion 4 made by Steve Ralph and seconded by Ed Tillson, line to be removed from our requirements for Championships, re: DNA "Any dog born on or after January 1, 2018 must have an AKC DNA to start in National Championship stakes." 10 yes votes (Hunt, Fleury, Ralph, Droel, Crain, Christiansen, Tillson, Karbinger, Brown, West.) 4 no votes (Dow, Gulembo, Riggle, Tomasi) Motion carried.

Jane Bjork has asked to be replaced as ABC delegate to AKC. Terry Hilliard has agreed to take on the position if the BOD.

Motion 5 moved by Mary Karbinger and seconded by Ron Gulembo to accept Terry Hilliard as the American Kennel Club delegate to replace Jane Bjork. All votes yes, motion carried.

David Webb, Gazette reporter, has contributed four quarterly columns to the American Kennel Club's Official publication the Gazette and will continue to contribute in 2019.

AKC liaison Mary Jo Trimble said 2018 was a slow year due to mid term elections. Now that it is over, we must watch states. There have been a few bills, like the hot car bill, pen raised chicken eggs banned by PETA/greyhound racing banned in Florida passed. PETA in California is still turning dogs loose at dog shows, and other despicable events. We must remain vigilant.

Ray Trimble reported that the last AKC Pointing Dog Advisory Committee was in April of 2005. The American Kennel Club was designated as a not required committee. Ray advises for the BOD to drop this committee.

Motion 6 made by Steve Ralph and seconded by Joe Droel, to drop the AKC Pointing Dog Advisory Committee. All votes yes, motion carried.

Central director report-Steve Ralph discussed some problems with a rescue group.

Motion 7 made by Steve Ralph, seconded by Bernie Crain, is to remove NBRAN listing on all ABC communications. (Page 146 in policy book) 9 Yes votes (Hunt, Fleury, Gulembo, Ralph, Droel, Crain, Christiansen, Tillson, Karbinger) 5 no votes (Dow, Riggle, Brown, Tomasi, West) Motion carried.

Steve Ralph Derby Invitational- getting rid of shooting dog derby invitational to be replaced by a straight derby invitational. This proposal should go back to committee for further discussion. The All Age Derby Invitational has been well received and attended. People have gone to Invitational and come back to the Nationals as hoped.

Dog of the Year Awards Helen Riggle. With the pilot program in 2016, there were 2 full years to catch up all the recipients of various awards. These were presented in conjunction at the ABC specialty banquet. The banquet was well attended, with 15 awards presented. The budget has been kept low. Helen asked for ABC financial support for future awards. It has been put in 2019 budget. Joe wants it to be brought out earlier in the year and reports in the ABC magazine by Jan. or Feb. perhaps moving it to the summer specialty. There will be further discussion on additional awards for adult field trial winners.

Dual Dog Award-Nancy Clenenden- nothing changed in the past year.

East Central directors report (Helen Riggle) - on Brittany breed separation to be discussed later.

Facebook Report- Robin (Tomasi). Karen Hansen live streamed much of the National specialty show on Facebook. Amanda McGavin wants YouTube exposure expanded. The job of being moderator has been easy. There is potential in the future for educational and entertaining webinars.

Futurity Committee Leslee Jane Masolette There have been issues with bitches in season, with apparent conflicting wording in the policy book. When to declare bitch in season is in question. Nominations have remained the same, but final forfeits are down. Pro Plan dog food and Purina banner must be in all publication photos. There is a desire that in the future all show money winners can have a group picture the way the field dogs have always been presented.

Field Trial Dates will be as printed by Steve Ralph on the ABC website and in the back section of the ABC magazine.

Judy Graves-Financial committees report... (Attachment for publication) Report for the Calendar year.

Motion 8 Made by Steve Ralph, seconded by Bernie Crain, to accept Judy Graves' reappointment to the financial committee. All votes yes, motion carried.

Judy also thanked Keith Wolnewitz for all his hard work. There have been a few Pay Pal glitches. The report on this matter is confidential, and not to be seen outside of BOD and officers. Steve recommends that the policy book not be mailed to club secretary because of wasted money.

Motion 9 made by Darlene Dow, seconded by Ron Gulembo, to donate $500 to AKC health foundation in 2019. All votes yes, motion carried.

Mary Jo is to be reimbursed for her time and effort in training new executive secretary.

Motion 10 made by Mary Karbiner and seconded by Bob Fleury, for ABC to pay a stipend of $750 to Mary Jo Trimble, for her time and effort in training her replacement. All votes yes, motion carried.

Motion 11 moved by Steve Ralph and seconded by Leslie Jane Hunt, to accept the budget as read. 12 yes votes (Hunt, Fleury, Gulembo, Riggle, Ralph, Droel, Crain, Christiansen, Tillson, Karbiner, Brown, West.) 2 no votes (Dow, Tomasi)

Robin asked for the stipend to be removed for Executive Secretary staying for the full two weeks of the National secretary.

Steve and Tom Milam have been asked to better define the duties of the executive secretary and hospitality chairman at the Nationals. The Stake manager has the responsibility to remain on the grounds at all times.

Kent Patterson- Hall of Fame committee has offered up three dogs for consideration for election to the Hall of Fame: Bourbon XIII, Blaze Dakota Trucker, RuJem's A Touch of Bourbon.

Legal advisor Sharon Wice reports that there are no immediate problems, but she is there to ask if the need arises.

Mary K. (Fund raising) The auction raised $2550 in 2017.

Magazine committee Bob Fleury reported that the AKC new titles and wins page has expanded greatly with all the performance titles we have now and is taking up too much room. Discussion followed about solutions to this problem.

National trial report- Steve Ralph- as written

Nominating Committee -Steve Ralph BOD moved into an executive session for replacing Tom Milam as 1st Vice President.

National Gun dog grounds (Ed Tillson)- There was further discussion on the moving of championship and how it would be held.

Motion 12 made by Bob West and seconded by Andi Christensen was to make the 2019 National Amateur Gun Dog Championship (and all subsequent runnings) a horseback handled stake. 11 yes votes (Hunt, Fleury, Dow, Riggle, Ralph, Droel, Crain, Christensen, Tillson, Brown, Tomasi, West) 3 no votes (Dow, Gulembo, Karbiner).

There was also discussion on keeping the Gun Dog Nationals in Ionia for this year. There was talk of tabling discussion on the Gun Dog Nationals until there is approval from various agencies.

Motion 13 was made by Leslie Jane Hunt, seconded by Bob West, that the 2019 ABC National Gun Dog Championship be held in Michigan this year, if there has not been confirmation from officials from the American Kennel Club, Ionia grounds, and State of Arkansas as to the approvals needed for the move to Booneville by January 1st, 2019. All votes yes, motion carried.

Mary Karbiner challenged Helen Riggle to participate as a non-member. Pennsylvania BC has a family membership which is how she is a member of ABC. ABC does or does not recognize those family memberships as a full member of the parent club.

Fund raising through agility, by parent club lending name to others to hold agility trials. Non field performance events-(Cindy Miller) discussed how fund raising works through agility clubs borrowing parent club's name by others to hold agility trials.

Revenue for recording fees does not come from non-performance events but is a new way to fund raise money for National specialty show.

Ron Gulembo Policy Book Committee-There may be some simple house keeping changes made to the policy book in the future but no major overhaul is expected. Chairmen of committees need to learn what is expected of them.

Motion 14 made by Ron Gulembo, seconded by Steve Ralph, is to approve Action Number 1#. All votes yes, motion carried.

Mary Karbiner (Stats) – Mary related that the statistics are hand counted for accuracy.

Mary Jo Sportsman's Alliance -NAIA Sportsman's Alliance represents us against animal rights groups, and support should continue for their cause.

Helen Riggle- Epagneul Breton and American Brittany separation. The parent club has been approached to work on new/separate breed status for the Epagneul Breton (aka French Brittany.) Gerald Giordano and Bill Kelly talked on breed differences and structure. In order for the American Kennel club to accept them as a separate breed, the ABC parent club must approve any such split. To facilitate this split, dogs are to be taken out of our stud book voluntarily by owners, probably over a 6-month period, and entered into a Foundation stock registry. The new breed would be judged by the F.C.I. 1995 standard. In present standards, structure, color and heights are all different. Joe Droel asked the question of what position the parent club in France takes. Bill Kelley is a member of the French parent club. The club in France has not taken a position. It must go through the ABC in order for the AKC to take action. The United Kennel Club is a dead end to France and is not recognized by other registries around the world. The Canadian Kennel Club and Australian Kennel Clubs are also being petitioned to change and perhaps are waiting to see what will happen with AKC recognition. When the American Kennel Club is given the go ahead, others may follow.

Motion 15 moved by Leslie Jane Hunt, seconded by Ron Gulembo, to table discussion on the breed separation of the Brittany breed into Epagneul Breton and Brittany breed until there is more information. 9 yes votes, 5 no votes. Motion carried.

Joe Droel was appointed to be chairman on separation of breed and to seek further information on the ramifications.

Motion 16 Moved by Bernie Crain, 2nd by Robin Tomasi, for president Ed Janulis to sign contract for 2 years with Arkansas Fish and Wildlife, for future National events. All votes yes, motion carried.

BOD went into an Executive Session to vote on 3 dogs presented by the Hall of Fame committee, Bourbon XIII, Blaze Dakota Trucker, RuJem's A Touch of Bourbon. After a secret vote, no dogs or persons were elected to the Hall of Fame for the year 2018.

Newly appointed officers are: 1st VP Kent Patterson to replace Tom Milam for running National All Age; 3rd VP National specialty chairperson, Dawn Droel; 4th VP Bob Burchett has agreed to stay on to run the National Gun Dog Championship stakes; Elected Secretary Brooke Burlington will stay on in her position; Executive Secretary- Jan Kilpatrick has agreed to take on the job, with Mary Jo Trimble willing to help train through the transition period. Jacquie Campbell also willing to take on the position... Jan Kilpatrick elected with Jacquie helping for a possible replacement at a later date; Purina liaison will be Joe Gower; Garmin award coordinator will be Bret Lindback.

Motion 17 Moved by Darlene Dow 2nd by Ed Tillson to adjourn meeting. All votes yes, motion carried.

2019 ABC National Championships Schedule

I have been in discussion with Kent Patterson, 1st Vice President and Bob Burchett, 4th Vice President, and we have finalized the movement of the Gun Dog Championship to Booneville for the 2019 calendar year and the running of the Gun Dog Walking Championships at Ionia, Michigan in October 2019.

We (Bob, Kent and Ed J) are 100% committed to having all these events executed with the details needed to insure a "class event" for all the competitions.

We will insure areas of Hospitality and Fund Raising will be given the effort and execution needed to be successful.

Below is the running order of the stakes at Booneville. Since the board voted for the move of the gun dog to Booneville with no knowledge of the time available at the Blue Mountain grounds and the only time available is following the Open All Age competition it will follow the OAA competition. In the coming year we can review and discuss running order options but for 2019 they need to be as stated below.

Bob, please put these dates in the magazine for the "Fall" trial dates.

Estimated time Period listed below – this will change based on number of entries.

2019 ABC National Walking Gun Dog Championships @ Ionia, MI

Tue. Oct 22 - Fri. Oct 25	ABC National Open Walking Gun Dog Championship
Sat. Oct 26 - Tue. Oct 29	ABC National Amateur Walking Gun Dog Championship

2019 ABC National Championships @ Booneville, AR

Sun. Nov. 24	ABC BOD meeting
Mon. Nov. 25 - Thu. Nov. 28	ABC National Amateur Championship
Fri. Nov. 29 - Tues. Dec. 3	ABC National Championship
Wed. Dec. 4	ABC Derby Invitational
Thurs. Dec. 5 - Mon. Dec. 9	ABC National Gun Dog Championship
Tues. Dec. 10 - Fri. Dec. 13	ABC National Amateur Gun Dog Championship

This has been an involved and complex process, again, I stress that the Vice Presidents and myself are committed to achieving a first class event with all the competitions in Booneville and Ionia. If you have ideas to achieve this they will be well received; however, what would be even better received is volunteering for the multitude of tasks needed to insure success.

Harms Cattle Company

Valentine, Nebraska

The American Brittany Club's Pheasant Classic was the first "bird" classic created by the parent organization. From inception, it was a west coast staple running from 1960 to 1971, except in 1967 when held at Baldwinsville, NY. In 1972, it was held at Green River, IL and moved about from Pennsylvania, Oregon, Iowa, and South Dakota over the years following. In 2016, it landed on a spectacular venue, the Harms Cattle Company south of Valentine Nebraska. Entries have increased each year as word has gotten out about courses that stretch over 26 miles across 10,000 acres of meadows and sandhills holding native populations of prairie chicken, sharptail grouse, and pheasants. This event has a sister event in the Region 19 AAA Championship held the 4 days prior bringing the largest contingent of amateurs in the brittany community to the sandhills.

Hosted by the St. Croix Valley Brittany Club, Steve Ralph and wife, Lori work tirelessly to make sure all the particulars are covered. Al Gorrow summers on this ranch and provides judges quarters and a hot breakfast each morning. Lori Ralph, Alicia Harms, Barb Harms, Carla Tracy, Bill McLewis and Linda Milam made sure no one left hungry. On Wednesday night, the annual steak cookout had everyone in attendance for the aged New York Strips. The Pheasant Championship is proud to be associated with Tehrani Motors, Purina, Garmin and Cosequin. These fine partners provide equipment or product in support of this sport in a broad and generous manner.

We were blessed to have two gentlemen with a wealth of experience and knowledge look over the field of 69 starters. Charlie Collier is in the Texas Field Trial Hall of Fame and judged a number of noteworthy championships for all breeds. Jason Babbel hails from Dunbar, NE with intimate knowledge of upland birds in the sandhill ecosystem. He and his uncle, Todd Babbel, have a reputation in the field trial community for hard work and class dogs.

With a course of this magnitude, having dogs available for successive braces is a challenge. It requires someone who knows the ground, courses, gates, and equipment to safely transport humans and canines. John Harms knows the country and Tehrani Motors of Valentine Nebraska provided two crew cab Polaris UTV's that allowed flawless execution of this important task

The champion was found in Maxwell's Prickly Pete. The stylish 5-year-old, owned by Bo and Renea Ackerman, on the string of Tom Tracy Jr was coming off an impressive Runner-Up performance in the ABC Chicken Championship held a week earlier. Released south of Ballard's Marsh, he streaked into the hills and found standing at 15. A pheasant was pushed south with all manners in order. He was hitting the gas pedal through the hills as the gallery topped one hill, he was 2 hills in front. He rimmed the meadows leading to the "let down" gate and bending into the west hills. He pinned a group of sharptail at 40, a single pheasant at 48, and a larger group of sharpies at 56. As time was called, he was sailing out the front toward Big Alkali Lake.

Runner-Up Champion Rammer Jammer Jax is owned by Trey Baer and handled by professional trainer Ben Kuykendall of Texas. Jax was released on course 1 and promptly got to work along the edges leading west toward the hay stacker. He was standing at 15 with Ben unable to produce any birds. He began to stretch the front as we went west being seen infrequently through the hills. He shot across the truck meadow and disappeared into the short hills near the old home place and found standing at 35. A group of well-located pheasants went south with all manners in order. Upon release, he probed the hills farther south with another pheasant find at 40. He was flashy and wide across the baler meadow, forward through the east hills finishing nicely near the windmill gate.

Third place Kate is a mostly white female that is classy on the ground. She was eye catching going west on course 1 toward the hay stacker, pinning a pheasant near Big Alkali Lake at 25 and moved well. She moved well over the remainder of the brace having everyone watching across the truck meadow toward the east hills. She was backing her brace-mate at time.

Fourth place Chico was rolling through the hills south of camp, watered at the windmill, as we drop down into the meadow. He was rimming a low uncut grass pocket when he froze, Scott pushing a pheasant to the south. The afternoon sun framed the find in a golden hue. The find energized Chico as he laced up his sneakers and shot west with handler and scout working to restore contact as the party crossed the "let down" fence. As time was called, he was seen far to the south.

The Running

Brace 1: ANJ's Ohio Hellion – Bob Burchett; A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds – Scott Johnson. Hank and Trace were away at 8:00 am under blue skies and temps in the 50's. Hank had 2 nice finds in the hour and finished at moderate range. Trace had a non-productive with Scott electing to pick up at 45.

Brace 2: Molly Mae Alexander – Jack Alexander; Starlight's Mercury Out Ryder – Bob Burchett. Molly and Ryder showed promise early in the hour but faded as the hour progressed with both handlers electing to call it quits.

Brace 3: Romences' Texas Two Step – Bob Burchett; MK's My Little Ammo – Scott Johnson. We were away under warming skies with both dogs going through the country with an animated, eye pleasing fashion. Tess was in and out of pocket and lost at 45. BB had a non-productive at 10 followed by a stylish pheasant find at 25, she ran over a bird moments later to end her bid.

Brace 4: Tequila Scorcher – Ed Tillson; Captain Finn – Bob Burchett. Lincoln and Finn were in the last brace of the morning run primarily south and west of camp. Lincoln was styled up on a pheasant @ 35, everything in order, was at moderate range over the remainder of the hour and credited with a stop to flush at 59. Finn was a handful from the start and lost at 40.

Brace 5: Almaden's Under Lock and Key – Ed Tillson; Hehi's Slim Chipley – Bob Burchett. Oudi is this year's Garmin Award winner with a pleasing gait and application. She suffered a non-productive at 20 with Ed electing to pick up at 40. Slim had non-productives at 20 and 25 with Bob continuing to 45 before cashing it in.

Brace 6: Hopes Chief of Cross Creek – Bob Burchett; Sparky's Prairie Wind Gypsy – Scott Johnson. We started in the hills with both dogs at moderate range. Chief went into Ballard's Marsh and was pulled out at 20. Gypsy had a find at 15 along fence line and was not her normal self over the remainder of the hour.

Brace 7: MK's Magnificent Bandito – Scott Johnson; Whiskey's Little Tip – Bob Burchett. Chico's hour was outlined above. Tip was at moderate range through the hills over early portions of the hour. He went into the marsh at 20 and was pulled out at 28. He got out of pocket to the west of the meadows as the gallery moved toward the "let down" fence crossing. Bob continued northwest and asked for the tracker at 50.

Brace 8: Sniksoh Little Diamond – Scott Johnson; Kinwashkly Tempo – Ed Tillson. Kate's hour was outlined above. Tempo had a big, pleasing, prairie race but couldn't come up with a bird. He finished on a non-productive to cap the hour.

Brace 9: Crescent City Girl – Ed Tillson; Remchester's Premium White Lightning – S. Johnson. Nola didn't have her mind on business this particular morning. Late summer rains had flooded many of the meadows resulting in carp carcasses dotting the landscape. She rolled in several and by 10, Ed had seen enough. Hooch had his sneakers on and was rolling around in a big way...the string broke at 25.

Brace 10: Firestarter's Crossed The Line – Ed Tillson; JR's Cool Hand Luke – Scott Johnson. Ty started the fireworks at 15 with a stylish find on a group of pheasants in the new shelter belt south of camp. After a skunk encounter, Luke was rolling nicely and we had both dogs out of the hills toward the west meadow. Luke jumped in the tank at the gate, swam for a moment, and then stood up as a bird lifted just to the north... Ty was approaching the tank to dive in and stopped as the bird left. Ty was credited with another pheasant find at the meadow ditch and finished nicely in the hills. Luke was standing at 45 and took a few too many steps to end his bid.

Brace 11: Alar's Dirty Dancer – Ed Tillson; Touch of Bourbon Little Chug – Scott Johnson. Dani was flying through the sandhills and found standing at 15...a big group of pheasants lifted and she went with them. Carson got behind early with Scott reaching for the rope at 15.

Brace 12: JWB Artic Cat – Jack Alexander; SS Rig's Colorado Gun Runner – Tom Milam. Leo and Rigs were way under clear, cool skies as we run west toward the hay stacker. Rigs suffered a non-productive at 5 along the bull pasture fence as Leo stretched the front. Both dogs were eye catching over the hour with Rigs have a dead bird find at 20. Both finished the hour.

Brace 13: Ru-Jem's Last Penny – Tom Tracy; Alleycat's Drought – Stan Williamson. Penny and Drought started near the meadow gate and were forward over the early moments. At 7, Tommy had his hat in the air with Penny in cover along a fence line. Drought was in the area with Stan not liking what he saw so he picked up. Birds were pushed east and the party continued toward the old home place. Penny was standing again at 19 with an extended flushing effort and relocation producing at bird. As she was released, she went through a mowed strip. A pheasant lifted nearby, she looked over and decided to follow it to end the brace.

Brace 14: Driving Miss Daisy – Tom Tracy; Jac's Ray of Sunshine – Chad Holman. Daisy and Ray were released toward the east hills under warming skies. Daisy was standing at 5 but no birds were produced. Ray was skimming the hills in fine fashion with bird incident at 35 ending his bid. Daisy continued to impress over the second half of the hour. She was standing at 58 and took steps.

Brace 15: Jagoub's Buzz'n Bayou – Tom Tracy; Chiefs Cross Plains Copper Breeze – Ben Kuykendall. Skeeter and Copper were away under cloudy skies and spitting rain. Their hour was fast, forward and showy. Unfortunately, neither had birds, they needed one.

Brace 16: Roustabout's White Knight – Tom Tracy; JJ's Levi The Lion Heart – Joe Williams. Lance and Levi showed promise early in the hour with Lance having a mannerly find at 10. Levi was cruising and showing in an eye-catching manner. He suffered 2 non-productives to end his bid. Tommy elected to pick Lance up at 35.

Brace 17: Maxwell's Prickly Pete – Tom Tracy; High Hopes Jac's Original Spice – Chad Holman. Pete's hour was outlined above. Spice had her sneakers on as we broke away near the marsh and was holding her own over the hour with a pleasing application. As we exited the meadow at the "let down" fence, she took a few too many steps on a find to end her bid.

Brace 18: TLM Tall Tale – Tom Tracy; Kokomo Josie Joe – Chad Holman. The rain had stopped as Sam and Josie were released. It was to be a short brace with Josie heading into the hills and not returned. Sam had Tommy reaching for the rope at 15.

Brace 19: Roustabout's Eustace – Tom Tracy; Crosscreek Argus' Early Christmas – Chad Holman. T and Gus were away after lunch with temps in the high 40's. They lined out along the creek and crossed to the north where Gus had a stylish pheasant find at 9 with T backing. T slowed to a stop on a knoll of cover at 20, a relocation didn't produce. Gus had another pair of pheasants in the hills near the hay stacker. Both dogs moved through the Alkali hills in fine fashion. In the truck meadow, T was standing on a hill with Gus backing on a sidehill to the south. A pheasant went east with all manners in order for both. Into the baler meadow, T went in the marsh with scout and handler working to pull him through toward the big hills. He showed on the far end was seen sparingly in the hills with a going away finish at the windmill gate. Gus had a turtle find at 58 and finished nicely along the creek at the windmill gate.

Brace 20: Maxwell's Quicksilver – Tom Tracy; You Know Dasher – Steve Chang. Chick and Dash were flashy and eye catching going away from the windmill gate. They crossed in front of the gallery and shot toward the old home place where a bird got up on Chick and she didn't get stopped in time to end her bid. Dash was busy as we traveled east and standing just over a rise near the baler meadow. A pheasant was flushed south with excellent style and manners. He was at moderate range through the hills with Steve electing to pick up at 40 as we dropped down in the valley near Ballard's Marsh.

Brace 21: Shady Way's Joker's Hill Country Express – Tom Tracy; Shot of Whizki – Chad Holman. Stan and Whizki were away at the gate just out of the big hills. Stan headed back up the valley and returned as went through the gate to the camp hills. He was out of pocket as the gallery headed west. He came out the hills and went into the marsh at 20 with Tommy asking for the tracker. Whizki was a moderate range over the first 25 with Chad electing to pick up near the camp gate.

Brace 22: Castaway Wilson – Tom Tracy; Rammer Jammer Jax – Ben Kuykendall. Jax's hour was outlined above. After a nice lunch, Wilson got lined out as the gallery rode toward the hay stacker. He was seen infrequently through the Alkali hills and shot east across the meadow into the old home place hills. He was standing at 35 Wilson with a group of pheasants pushed east. He was flashy across the marsh meadow and stopped at the base of the big hills on a running pheasant. Tommy chased it up the hill, in an attempt to get it air born with Wilson moving.

Brace 23: Glade Run Irish – Tom Tracy; Gunbarrel Godfather Augustus – Steve Chang. Released at the windmill, Irish and Gus shot toward the old home place meadow with Irish taking the eastern fence and Gus farther south along the marsh meadow. Tommy had his hat in the air at 7 in cover just inside the fence as Irish handled a tight sitting pheasant find. Gus had gone through the gate was standing on top of a rise with Steve flushing and relocating for an extended period of time before taking him on. Both dogs were at moderate range through the big hills and we dropped down into no man's land where Gus has a 2nd non-productive to end his hour. Irish continued on with a nice finish near Ballard's Marsh.

Brace 24: Rev'n Gun Runner Tilly – Tom Tracy; Piney Run Jake – Kent Patterson. Tilly and Jake were away near the new shelter belt gate to the south of camp. At 2, quail were sailing east with Tilly in pursuit and Jake standing in cover. Jake continued with a non-productive at 10, a stop to flush at 15, and a 2nd non-productive to end his hour at 56.

Brace 25: Uplands Trail Blazer – Tom Tracy; Brendi Brooks Cowboy Up – Ray Trimble. Scout and Tuff were a pleasing pair to watch. Scout was standing at 30 with a clean pheasant find as Tuff was wide and flashy. Scout was standing near the north marsh with Tommy unable to produce birds, however as the gallery left, birds were seen leaving. Tuff went bird less but certainly would have been a strong candidate for the ribbons had he scored.

Brace 26: CVK's Spartan King – Tom Tracy; Godfathers F.N. Rockstar – Steve Chang. Leo showed big toward the hay stacker with a non-productive at 12. He was standing again at 22 in the stacker hills with relocation. A bird got up during the relocation to end his bid. Rocky was flashy as the party headed toward Big Alkali Lake. He went south at the hay stacker with a stylish and mannerly find in a small shelter belt of trees. He shifted into hunting mode from that point with Steve electing to pick up near the truck meadow.

Brace 27: JJ's Diablo With Rusty Tears – Joe Williams; Wichita Wild Woman – Tom Tracy. Rusty wasn't feeling well and was a scratch so Nikki ran alone. She started with a big move around the meadow with a stop to flush at 40 on pheasants. As the hour progressed, she slowed with Tommy electing to pick up at 50.

Brace 28: Georgia White Lightening – Tom Tracy; Godfather's Lucky Nickel – Steve Chang. George's hour was a bit lateral with Tommy deciding he wasn't moving anything, picking up at 35. Nickel was hunting hard at moderate range over the 40 minutes leading up to no man's land where Steve reached for the rope.

Brace 29: Lambach's Blew By Yet – Tom Tracy; Gun Creek Gangster – Chad Holman. Blue is a nice young dog with a bright future.

He streaked west from break away with a find near the hay stacker, all manners in order. His application and non-productive over the next 35 minutes had Tommy electing to pick up. Gus wasn't on his game this day with Chad also electing to end the hour early.

Brace 30: Roustabouts Blew By You – Tom Tracy; Ace's One Eyed Jack – Chad Holman. It was a foggy morning in the sandhills, that delayed breakaway to 9 am. Blew smoked through the hills showed big at the windmill but got hung up far to the south in baler marsh. It took too long to pull him out. Jack Brace 31: Kinwashkly Fat Bastard – Tom Tracy; Godfather's Red Feather Gunslinger – Steve Chang. Released at windmill Fatz showed well through east hills, he suffered a non-productive in the in dead man zone and was picked up. Gunner was running big through the hills and went west in no man's land and found on a porcupine with a face full of quills.

Brace 32: Jagoub's Spell Caster – Tom Tracy; JJ's Fearless Sam – Al Gorrow. Taboo was lost in the trees near the new shelter belt and counted out at 45. Sam had non-productives at 10 and 45 to end his bid.

Brace 33: Kashmir – Tom Tracy; Dan's Makers Mark – Chad Holman. Kashmir made a huge move through the stacker hills but was far south in the meadow when counted out. He was recovered at the east gate. Dan had a non-productive at 10 with Chad picking up.

Brace 34: Bella Rose – Tom Tracy; Arrow's Tequila Rustler – Richard Beaver. This brace ended at 20 as Bella was showing nicely through hills then disappeared down in the baler marsh. Rusty had been at moderate range over the same period of time with Richard electing to cash it in, as well.

Brace 35: All In – Tom Tracy; Highpoint Blazin' High Noon – Ben Kuykendall. Al wasn't moving anything, so Tommy cashed it in early. Cooper had a find at 4 with all manners in order but wasn't listening to his handler over the next 25 minutes with Ben reaching for the rope at 35.

TRAININ' DOGS

with Rick Smith

Is Your Dog Ready for Hunting Season?

By Rick Smith & Sharon Potter

The anticipation is killing you and has been building for months. Opening day is tomorrow, and you're headed out to your favorite covert first thing in the morning. The truck is packed; the weather looks like it will be perfectly crisp and cool; and all that remains is for the alarm clock to ring at 6:30-dark-thirty so you can grab your dog, hot coffee for the drive, and hit the road.

Let's fast forward to noon the next day. After a brisk start, your dog worked for about an hour, found two birds, and gradually began to stay closer and slow down. It wasn't much longer before you had a dog that was within gun range all the time...and before long, he was walking at your side, following you. Frustrated, you try to encourage the dog to hunt, but you've run out of dog power. Why isn't the dog out there working to find more birds?

There are lots of reasons a dog will come in and stay close. He may simply be thirsty and looking for a drink of water, but he should eagerly go back to work after rehydrating. It's also possible that the dog is feeling pressure, especially if the owner is overusing the e-collar. Both thirst and pressure are easily fixed – give the dog a drink, and keep your transmitter out from under your finger.

The main reason we see dogs come in and quit hunting is because they're tired. They've run out of steam and have no more energy left to hunt. When that happens, there's nothing you can do to fix it on that day outside of resting your dog, and if you're on an out-of-state trip, well... What you can do before opening day arrives – and which is why we're sharing these tips now – is to have your dog as prepared for the hunting season as you are. This means conditioning him for the work he'll be doing. It's unrealistic as well as unfair to the dog to expect him to hunt hard for several hours when he isn't fit.

Several things go into getting a dog ready to work hard during hunting season. First and foremost is physical fitness. Does the dog have the muscle tone and wind power to hunt the way you desire? To build a dog's fitness level, two main things come into play: strength training to build muscle, and cardio training to develop the heart and lungs to work more effectively. This is actually quite similar to our human exercise programs, except we don't have doggie weight machines or personal trainers for our dogs (except maybe in Hollywood!)

A good conditioning regimen begins with a visit to your dog's vet and an assessment of his overall health. The next step is to make sure the dog has adequate fuel for the job, which means feeding a high quality premium dog food. Both the fat and protein content should be high. We personally use a food that has a 30:20 protein to fat ratio, and would strongly suggest a food with at least a 26:16 ratio. Conditioning a dog to be fit will tax and change the body, and good nutrition is paramount to the body being able to strengthen and repair.

Your dog now has a clean bill of health and good-quality nutrition. What's next? There's one more important area to consider, and that is the tires under the racecar – our dog's feet. Be sure the toenails are kept trimmed short so they will be less likely to snag and tear. If your dog is primarily a housedog, his pads are probably a bit on the soft side. Having a dog tear a pad or run it off altogether is no fun for us or him. It's a good idea to help toughen up the pads as you begin your conditioning. One product that does a great job of this is a balm called Musher's Secret, available in many hunting dog supply stores and catalogs.

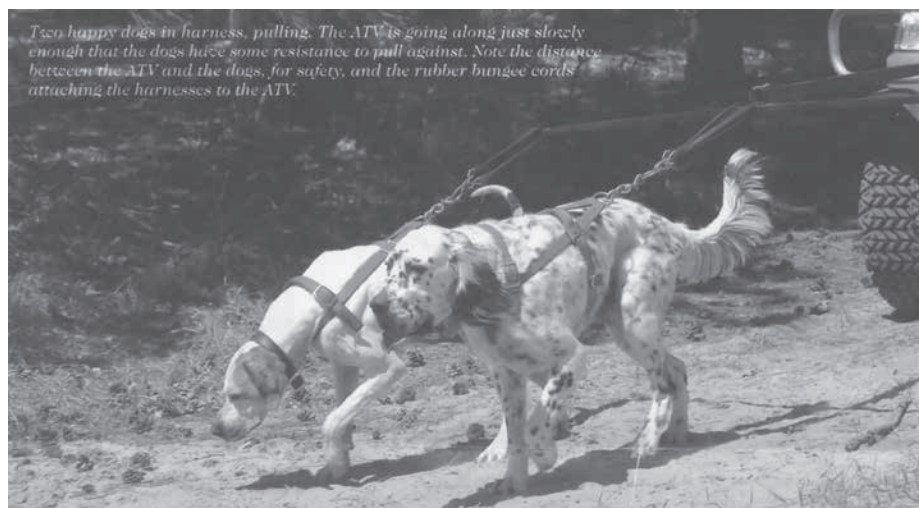

The type of surface your dog will be working on will also play a role in this. Obviously, a dog constantly running on pavement will abrade his feet, so try to find grassy or dirt surfaces to train on. If your hunting area has a lot of sandburs and the like, you may want to use boots on your dog during hunting season; but if you do the prep work before then, his feet will toughen up enough that you'll be a lot less likely to need them.

Now that the foundation is laid,

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

Two happy dogs in harness, pulling. The ATV is going along just slowly enough that the dogs have some resistance to pull against. Note the distance between the ATV and the dogs, for safety, and the rubber bungee cords attaching the harnesses to the ATV.

let's get to the working part of all this. First we have to start building muscle. In humans, building muscle is achieved by resistance training using weights. Now, we don't have little doggie exercise machines and barbells, but what we do have is something the dogs love to do: pull. "Wait just a minute," you're thinking. "You guys have spent countless columns on having us teach our dogs not to pull on us, and now they're supposed to pull?"

We'll clarify by saying that a dog should never pull on a collar or a lead. What we haven't mentioned yet is having a dog pull in what's called a "roading harness." This is a set of straps that go around the dog's body to allow him to safely pull without affecting his throat and neck, much like a sled dog harness. They're also available at most sporting dog-supply outlets and are inexpensive. (Please note that a roading harness is not the same as the harnesses sold in pet stores for leading a dog.) The dogs understand almost immediately that when this is on, pulling is expected. The roading harness must be sized and fitted correctly so it is comfortable for the dog and doesn't interfere with the windpipe or cause rubs on the body.

What is the dog supposed to pull with this harness? You can have the dog pull a small cart or child's wagon with a little weight in it. If all else fails, you can use yourself as the resistance and weight by hanging onto the tow rope (think waterskiing!). The goal is to have just enough resistance so your dog has to lean into the harness and pull to keep moving forward. If you have one, know someone who does, or can rent one, the best way is to use an ATV of some sort with a bar set out to the front that the harness attaches to.

For example, on an ATV roading rig, the vehicle is moving along via engine power, starting out at a slow walk and gradually increasing the speed to the fastest walk you can do before getting into a trot; this creates enough resistance so that the dog pulls. The dog isn't pulling the ATV; he's being restrained slightly by it. This is not about how many pounds a dog can pull.

The second component, building up the heart and lungs, is accomplished by both sprints and long, slow distance work. In both of these, a dog is running without a roading harness. The roading harness is for pulling only, which helps the dog differentiate between pulling and leading. Sprints get the heart rate up; and long, slow distance work increases stamina. Again, if you've got an ATV, just turn your dog loose to run with you as you ride it. A bicycle will also work well.

If your dog has to be onlead while you do this, with a little practice it can be accomplished. Whatever you do, never tie your dog hard and fast to you or to anything else while working at speed. The chances for injury should the dog stumble and get in the path of the ATV, or the dog pulling you over sideways on your bike as well as other potential injuries increase dramatically if the dog is firmly attached. If you have to use a leash, use one that you can quickly let go of; and with an ATV, let the dog run freely. The long, slow distance work is done at an easy pace, while the sprints will need to push the dog to a burst of speed that is maintained for a few hundred yards.

Always start a workout by letting the dog warm up slowly, and the same goes at the end. Slow down and walk to cool down and keep the muscles loose and relaxed. And we cannot stress this enough: Always have water with you and give your dog drinks often!

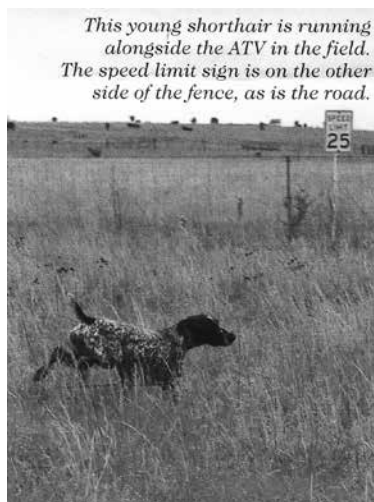

Since summer comes right before fall, we've got to work our dogs in hotter weather than is ideal, so always be cautious of heatstroke. Try to work your dog during the coolest part of the day, usually early morning.

With both roading and running, start with a short time and gradually increase the duration as your dog gets stronger. The most efficient way to use both roading and running is to alternate days. Pulling taxes the muscles and may only last a few minutes at first; the dog will need a day or so between sessions to recover and build. On the days your dog doesn't pull, work on sprints and distance training. How much of this you'll need to do depends on what kind of hunting you plan on doing with your dog and the physical demands made.

The reality is that most of us don't have time to do as much of this as we should, so you may only be able to do this work a few times a week. Every little bit helps, so do what you can. Getting a dog fit for hunting takes a month or two of good solid work. Doing just two conditioning sessions the week before hunting season is of no real benefit at all, so plan to start well in advance of opening day. A great side-benefit of conditioning our dogs is that it helps us get in better shape, too.

Now we can replay our opening scenario of opening day, and we have a dog that has the energy to hunt hard with much less fatigue. Our only hope is that we're fit enough to hunt as long as the dog is!

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

The Condition

A Novella

(For Ed Mack Farris and Little Eva)

Part 5

Bess would run on Monday. Through the weekend, Albert seemed to hold his own. Bobby roared Bess an hour on Sunday afternoon.

Bess was full of spirit and energy. He looked forward to her race on Monday. But he slept only minutes on Sunday night, waking repeatedly after dreams brought on by his worry about Albert.

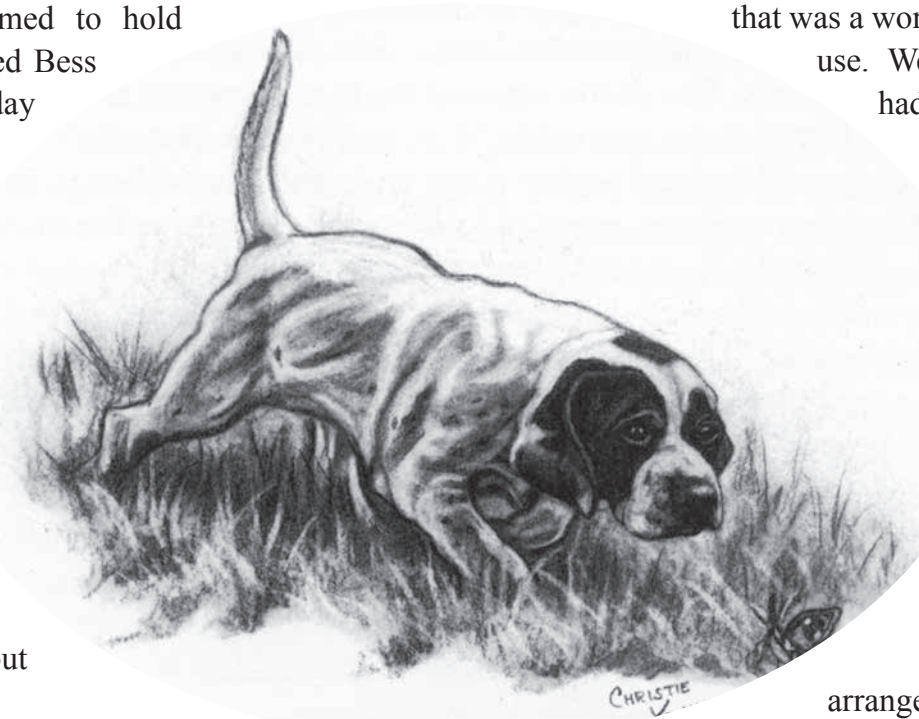

Bess performed wondrously on Monday, found quail four times, handled them with style and manners, finished with a huge cast to the front. The small gallery of handlers applauded when she was awarded first in the open all-age stake. The owners were all gone, scattered to their homes to pick up the pieces of their financial lives after the stock market crash. Bobby accepted the $400 check for Bess' win with thanks to the judges. He gave $40 to James Avent as pay for scout services, sure Avent's scout would see little, if any, of it.

The word was out that Albert would not ride again. Avent had been lobbying Albert's owners to move their dogs to his string, with considerable success. But before trial season ended, more than half of all owners would be out of the game, wiped out by the crash and its aftermath.

Bobby planned to take Albert home on the train on Tuesday, but on Monday night, Albert took a turn for the worse. At three in the morning, with Bobby at his bedside, he died quietly, his heart no longer up to its task. Through their four months together, Bobby had come to be very fond of his father's best friend, and Albert had come to love Bobby, though that was a word he would never use. Week by week he had seen the father's nature revealed in the son, the shrewdness, the love of fun and adventure, the kindness to those less fortunate.

Bobby made arrangements with a lugubrious Springfield mortician to ship Albert's remains back to Alabama by rail. There were no relatives to notify. Albert was an only child and had never married.

Word spread among the handlers of Albert's death. Most were planning to leave by train that morning, but one by one they looked Bobby up and expressed their sorrow. The last to come by was Chesley Harris, the tall Alabama handler and Albert's neighbor. He asked Bobby about Albert's owners and was not surprised to learn most had moved their dogs to Jim Avent's string.

"Just as well. Albert's owners are likely going to broke, if they aren't already. Your daddy was the only good owner Albert ever had.

"Son, what are you going to do?" Harris asked.

"Well, I'm going back to Alabama first. See to Albert's stock, the gun dogs he's got in training, see to Willie...beyond that, I don't know."

Then he told Harris about his father's estate and Albert's will.

"All I've got now is Albert's house and kennel and Bess," Bobby said, not in a way that indicated self-pity.

"Son, in that bitch you've got something every handler in the country would give his eye teeth for... that bitch can win the National Championship. You don't need a lot of dogs in your string. She's worth ten others. When you get back to Alabama, come see me. I'll help you figure out what to do."

And so Chesley Harris and Bobby and Bess and Albert's corpse rode the rails back to South Alabama. Bess and Harris' string were in their crates in the baggage car. Bobby and Harris played cards and Dominos, breaking the games only for meals and sleep and trips to the baggage car to let the dogs out.

Bobby found the jar buried where Albert had told him. It held $1,100 in greenbacks. Willie was devastated by Albert's death. The funeral drew all the handlers based in Alabama and Georgia. Harris and Edward Farrior both gave eulogies that put the best face possible on Albert's life: "He played to win...He looked after his animals...He gave his owners their money's worth."

So will I, Bobby thought as he listened from a front pew. He would miss the old man.

Bobby hired Willie on the same terms as Albert. Then the man who owned Albert's training lands came to pay Bobby a visit. He said Albert was a little behind on his training lease payments. What was the rent? A hundred dollars a year. How far behind? Ten years. Bobby went to the jar and came back with $1,000. The landowner was dumbfounded. Then Bobby gave him another $100 for the current year. If the land was good enough for Albert and his father, it was good enough for him and Bess.

The next day Chesley Harris, Edward Farrior and Jake Bishop came together to see him. They were the three top dog trainer-handlers based in the area, and they were lucky, for all had owners not wiped out by the crash. Harris worked for three of the country's richest men-Teagle of Standard Oil, France of Baltimore, Haggin of Kentucky. Farrior had Johnson of Texas, oil, not stocks. Bishop and the Colemans of Pennsylvania. Bobby poured them coffee.

"Son," Harris said. "We'll help you all we can. The most important thing for you right now is finding the right owner for Bess. Good owners are the secret to surviving in the dog-handling business. Albert had your daddy, and me and Ed and Jake have been lucky with ours. With what's happened with the stock market, lots of owners are going to be broke, already are. And you can be sure a lot of handlers are trying to get their owners to buy Bess from you and bring her to them. You can't let that happen. Check with us when you get an offer. We know everybody in this game that will cheat you. By the way, when time comes to breed Bess, Ed here has got the stud you ought to use. Name's Air Pilot."

Farrior nodded, "Do it on a puppy proposition, he said. "And I'd sure like to buy a puppy or two," said Harris. Bishop nodded that he would too.

Bobby put on a second pot of coffee. He now felt a member of the handlers' fraternity. Bess watched from her spot behind the kitchen stove.

Ginger Citrus Baked Woodcock

4 woodcock
2 tsp. of Wild Cheff Ginger Citrus Spice Blend
½ cup of orange juice
½ cup of Beaujolais wine
¼ cup of water
4 tbsp. of butter
1 cup of seedless red grapes
1 tsp. of orange zest
Wild Cheff Blood Orange Olive Oil

Preheat oven to 350° F.
Coat birds with WC Blood Orange Olive Oil and then add desired amount of Lemon Pepper to inside and outside of birds, then place them into a baking dish that has been lightly coated with olive oil. In a saucepan, heat butter, Ginger Citrus Blend, orange juice, water, wine, orange zest and grapes. Pour sauce over the birds and cook for 45-50 minutes, basting with sauce every 10 minutes. Serve with wild rice that is studded with dried fruit and seasonal veggies.

New England Pheasant Applejack

4 boneless pheasant breasts
1-2 McIntosh apples, peeled and diced
1 tbsp. of Wild Cheff Air-Dried Shallots
1 tbsp. of Wild Cheff Cinnamon Chili Spice Blend
¾ cup of Applejack Brandy
Olive oil and Wild Cheff Blood Orange Olive Oil
All-purpose organic white flour
2 tbsp. of butter
½ cup of light cream

Remove fat from pheasant breasts and then place individually into quart-size freezer bag. Take a meat mallet and gently pound out the breasts into medallions and place onto a dish. Coat both sides of breasts with WC Blood Orange Olive Oil, and then season both sides with desired amount of WC Cinnamon Chili Blend. Once all breasts have been seasoned and coated with specialty olive oil, dredge them in flour. Heat up a large stainless or cast iron sauté pan over medium heat and add olive oil to coat pan. Place floured breasts into pan and cook until both sides are browned up but not overcooked. Remove them from the pan and let them rest on a plate.

Add apples to the pan and once they start cooking, add the shallots. Make sure you have enough olive oil in pan to sauté the apples and the pan is not dry. Now add the applejack brandy and cook until the alcohol burns off. Add butter and whisk in, and then add the cream and whisk to incorporate. Once sauce starts to thicken, shut burner off. Add pheasant pieces back to the pan and coat with sauce by turning them over in the sauce.

Newcomer's Day

By Michel Hébert
VP CEB-Québec inc.

Somewhere in the meanders of Facebook I mentioned that we have a day of activities for newcomers who would like to find out more about hunting over a dog. So, I was very nicely asked if I would contribute an article for the ABC magazine. Well, how can I refuse an offer to share a passion of mine?

Let me introduce myself. Michel Hébert is my name and I live in the beautiful province of Québec in Canada. I have had Épagneul Breton since the early 1990s and dogs much earlier and a member of CEB inc. in Québec. I am also fortunate enough to live in the country. Enough of that big city life.

For a few years now we hold a day for anybody that would like to find out what it is like to hunt upland birds with a dog. Originally we started as a youngster's day and would take young people between the ages of 14 to 18 years old. We soon found that older people would like to participate as well. So in the past couple of years we started accepting people of all ages that had never experienced hunting with a dog. We still do give priority to the 14 to 18 years old. Unfortunately, we are limited to ten participants.

We do go out and get sponsors for this event. The Québec Outdoors Fédération gives us a grant, some sporting stores are giving door prizes, and we usually have enough so that each participant gets something.

So typically, this is how the day unfolds. We start with a safety talk given by qualified instructors in a relaxed manner but taken seriously. Everybody is given an orange vest as well. We then move to one end of the field where a portable clay launcher is set up. Here, an expert is showing the basic to bird shooting. All newcomers get a chance to shoot. By the end of it, everybody is able to break clays. So, smiles all around. Everybody is also talking how they broke the clays and how much fun it is. Remember that for most of them, it is a first time shooting with a scattergun. When all this shooting and breaking is done, time to break for lunch.

Lunch is provided by us and usually on a Bar-B-Q. Sausages, the nice thick spicy ones, salad, bread, a beverage, and fresh boiled corn.

Time to try hunting. The planters leave to plant birds. Each participant is paired with a club member and dog. The handler, dog, newcomer, and a spare gun leave on the course where three birds have been planted. A marshal is necessary because there is usually a gallery following. The back-up gun is to shoot only if the newcomer misses. Seeing the dog work, finding and pointing birds is all new for them. Very often, they forget to shoot the first bird as they are in awe of seeing this spectacle for the first time. But the smiles when they come back from the field is a telltale of how much fun they had. It is also our best reward.

We also take time to answer the zillions of questions everyone has. We also talk briefly on the different pointing breeds. After all, not one breed is good for everyone.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
