The American Brittany

VOLUME LXXI • NUMBER 6 • JUNE 2019

Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

Specialty Shows

SKYLINE
Idalia, CO
March 10, 2019

The Skyline Brittany Club was pleased to be guest of the town of Idalia, CO. We appreciate the use of their Homestead Memorial Building as our specialty show site. This nice facility is a testament to the hospitality of the fine prairie community in eastern Colorado. The residents of the surrounding area came to participate, and several youngsters were very interested in the show ring procedure showing the beauty of our Brittany's. Our Sweepstakes Judge was Ginger Sammonds and our Conformation Judge was Karen Rooks Nauer.

Thank You to Dawn and Chris Craig for their help with the building as well as the arrangements for a very nice prime rib catered dinner that evening. Dawn also brought her 4-H dog project group, the Arickaree Tumbleweeds. They were a huge help in setting up the show ring and trophy table, hanging the Purina Banner, helping exhibitors in setting up and filling/distributing welcome bags. Our national anthem was sung by eight-and-a-half-year-old Talyn Rojas from Kirk, CO as Dawn stood close by for encouragement. Good Job! Thank You Jim Austin, Jim Masolotte and Alice Janssen for help in set up. Chris Ward Weber, Thank You for excellent photography work.

The trophy sponsors were a significant help in our successful show. Joan and Ernie Peters donated a collector's plate of a Brittany head done in 1991 by Robert K. Abbett which was awarded to the Best in Sweepstakes winner Elkhrn Mtn's Southpaw Warbonnet Strut The Big Sky for Tommie Dahl & Todd Breitenfeldt. Best of Opposite Sex in Sweepstakes was Sovereign's American Muscle for Joe and Dawn Droel. Best in Veteran Sweepstakes prize was a grooming table cover made by Kathy's Coverups and donated by Kathy and Jerry Hogan and awarded to Joe Dawn Droel's GCH Sovereign's Chasing Legends.

Our lovely china trophies were made by Alice Janssen of AAB Awards with a ten-and-a-half-inch Brittany themed gold trimmed china plate going to Best of going to Best of Breed winner from the Field Trial class BIS BISS GCH CH Sovereign's Chasing Legends. Best of Winners from the Open Bitch class and Winners Bitch was Sovereign's On Stage. Reserve Winners Bitch was Heel Creeks The Need For Speed for Dawn Craig. Best of Opposite Sex was CH Cimmaron's Good To The Last Drop owned by Christine Ward Weber who also won the Brittany themed china plates. Winners Dog was Sovereign's American Muscle. Reserve Winners Dog was Mtn-Aire Spartan Warrior for owner T.J. Hidalgo. Select Dog was CH Sovereign's Legendary Speed. Select Bitch was GCH CH Firestarter Born Among The Stars owned by Amanda McGavin and Shawn Macleod. Awards of Merit went to GCH Trio-Tonan Bye Bye Birdie owned by Justin Myrick and CH Autumnglows Starr Of Mayberry with Owner Alice Janssen.

The Best of Breed award was given in loving memory of Kay and Sharon Ruske of Decampo Brittany's. We miss them! Best of Winners award was sponsored by Jim Austin. Best of Opposite Sex was sponsored by Ginny and Curt Daily of Nokhu Brittany's. Winners Dog was sponsored by Alice Janssen. Winners Bitch was sponsored by Lori Hugh. Veteran Dog and Bitch were sponsored by Jeff Hoskins of Sniksoh Britts. Field Trial Dog and Bitch were sponsored by Barry Koepke. Open Dog and Bitch were sponsored by Leslee and Jim Masolotte of Windtuck Brittany's. Best Puppy was sponsored by Joan and Ernie Peters.

Blast from the Past

Another Blast From the past, this is Ejner Lund of CA and DC Lund's Trooper. A note on the back of the picture from Nickly Bissell indicates that at that time Trooper "was the winner of more AKC places than any other pointing dog". He was great in both show and field. He used to sit on the hill in AZ and watch the bird field with Mrs. Lund. I'll swear he marked every bird and immediately pointed them when it was his turn to run.

In Memory of JOY (WATKINS) SEARCY 12/18/35 - 4/22/19

Joy Kathleen (Watkins) Searcy, age 83, of De Leon, Texas, died Monday, April 22, 2019, in Fort Worth, Texas. She was a beloved fourth grade teacher for more than 27 years. She also specialized in gifted and talented students.

Joy was my predecessor and mentor as Executive Secretary/Secretary of the American Brittany Club. She served the ABC in many capacities on and off from 1975 to May 1998. During that period of time she held most of the working jobs of the ABC that are now held by numerous committees and individuals. As Executive Secretary she received and approved all applications and reports of shows and field trials. These were copied and set up for the ABC Magazine as she was the Magazine Editor. She sent copies of all reports to statisticians by fax or US Mail. The internet was just becoming a factor of our lives which Joy elected to not use during her last term during the 90s. Early on as Magazine Editor she made the address labels on an addressograph machine and placed them on over 3000 magazines each month after she got them back from a local printer. She handled all membership issues which arose. She served as the recording Secretary at the Membership Meeting. She put together the Agenda Book and supplied that to Board Members for their annual meeting. She kept a record of all Brittany's earning an AKC title and kept a list of current insurance held by regional clubs. Many of the breed referrals came across her desk as well. She served as the Voice of the American Brittany Club as had her predecessors

Nicky Bissell and Velma Tiedemann. Joy was elected to the ABC Hall of Fame and the First Class of Brittany Field Trial Hall of Fame members in 1993 at Grand Junction, TN.

Besides all those duties, Joy was active on the Field Trial Circuit in the Midwest Region. Her dog, FC Second Chance, garnered over a 100 placements which at that time was a phenomenal feat.

Joy is survived by her brother, David John Cassievens, and her children, Joy Kathleen Watkins and son Jerry R. Watkins II, grandson Jerry R. Watkins III, and their families. She was preceded in death by her youngest daughter, Debra Jean Craig, and her husband of nine years, Ronald Charles Searcy. She and Ronald enjoyed camping and were members of two camping clubs. Following her retirement from the ABC, she served as state Recording Secretary for the Texas Camping Association and President of the State Retiree Chapter 89. She also was an active member of the Northside Baptist Church of De Leon, Texas, where she served as church clerk for several years.

I realize that many of our members today never had the opportunity to work with or know Joy Searcy. I hope that you can see that this was a remarkable woman who served tirelessly the Brittany breed, the officers, directors and membership of the American Brittany Club over several decades. She leaves a legacy not only of service to the ABC but also to her church and community. She has been an example that we all should seek to follow.

International Brittany Championship

History and The Early Days

By David A. Fletcher

The International Brittany Classic was inaugurated in 1968 over the property of Dr. Walker Heap of Watertown, N.Y. This was open country, large fields, formerly dairy farming lands acquired by Dr. Heap over which he began his shooting preserve and field trial grounds. Founders included Frank Ash, Walker Heap, Canadian Bill McClure, Bill and Rita Cartmell and Hank Martinet. Judges were Carl Beattie, a notable trainer and handler, and Al Pilon, a great New England trial person and reporter. There were 14 entries, Jaime's Weego Jill, the winner owned and handled by Jim Malia of Owego, N.Y. Second was Sno Fun Mack, owned and handled by Dr. Heap and third, Jaybee's Little Princess, owner and handler not given in the report. It was very apparent the founders were working toward something considered better than the trials of the day which were mainly, all across much of the country, one course, liberated birds, birdfield, and handlers generally walked. Ahead was something in which the founders could expect an effort they could label all-age, with horseback handling, and down the road Championship status. It was pretty apparent their goal was bigger than running Britts not handled on foot. The club staged a second trial in November of 1969 at the Heap preserve, winner Dr. Heap's Sno Fun Mac and Runner-Up Tyoga Sally owned and handled by Bill Cartmell, Carl Beattie and Al Pilon the judges. In 1970 a three-stake spring trial was held and that fall with Championship status, the winner was Jac Pierre's Pride, owned by Jim Cohen, handled by Rick Smith and Runner-Up was Whohe of Bordeaux owned and handled by Jim Malia. Judges were Al Pilon and Jack Fitzpatrick. The club staged another spring trial in 1971. I was invited to judge and report the 1971 second Championship renewal by my good Canadian friend Bill McClure from Ottawa, Ontario, Canada's capital city, a person I had known some years, both of us participating in the trials of the Ontario Bird Dog Association. I met for the first time Dr. Walker Heap of Watertown, N.Y. who owned the two dairy farms we ran the trial over. He had purchased the properties and converted them to a shooting preserve where Pheasants were the game bird and former pastures and crop fields grown up with weed cover provided the venue. It was an excellent place to test a Brittany bird dog. Dr. Heap's method of putting Pheasants on the courses relied on the structure of his spacious Pheasant pens. As I remember, the pens had a fence ten feet or so high, and when a bird could fly over the fence that bird was out on the course. The birds were much closer to "natural wild" than if they had been grabbed from the pen moments before the brace and then liberated. The people who founded this club and staged it were memorable. Walker Heap was the host landowner and he ran dogs, furnished a clubhouse and was very involved in the daily running of the braces. The Conables, Ella and Lloyd, the Cartmells, Bill and Rita, Jim Malia and others were putting the event on. Handlers Rick Smith, Jim Holman, Mark Appleton, Ernie Facer were there competing. There were 20 Britts in that 1971 Championship field, won by Carey's Freckles handled by Terry Cleary with Jamie's Weego Jill, Runner-Up handled by Jim Malia. Judges were Jack Fitzpatrick and Dave Fletcher. In 1972 I repeated as judge and reporter, teamed with another of my great friends, Truman Cowles. We placed a wonderful Britt, Tondee's Sandy Valley Duke, a New England dog handled by his owner, the one-armed Steve Tardy. Duke was a very good dog and Arthur Curtis and I placed him Winner in the ABC Quail Classic at Richmond, Kentucky, a year or so later. There was no Runner-Up named in the 1972 International, although Brandy's Bullet ran a superb hour. His downfall was he was a Texas dog and knew practically nothing about running Pheasants. His owner Bill Norvell was present. Also in attendance were a pair of Brittany ladies, wonderful personalities enjoying the trial from their motor home, Maizda Van Deusen and Dicie Speck. The trial continued to be a fixture on into the middle seventies. In 1973, Judges Truman Cowles and Bob Abric placed Perry's Rustic Prince Champion, with no Runner-Up, over the SnoFun grounds with an entry of 14. Brandy's Bullet, Pacolet Cheyenne Sam, Sno Fun Mack, Jacolet's Wandering Star were in the starting field. New faces were Ben Tobiason and Howard Tutton. In 1974 the Championship field grew to 36, judged by Bob Abric and Dave Fletcher. Winner was Perry's Rustic Prince, owned by Lester May and handled by Rick Smith. The previous five years had also featured spring events staged by the International Club. In 1975 the judges were Dr. Tom Flanagan and Dr. Walker Heap. The new Champion was Goldtone's Doc, handled by Marc Appleton with Runner-Up Ringo De Britt handled by Rick Smith. The entry included Senator TJ, Chip Britt Jill, Tex's Air Man and Dr. Scott's Tough Enough. Dr. John and Judy Webb were present. The 1976 fall Championship was judged by Dr. Tom Flanagan and Irving Clark, again held at Evans Mills. The winner was Jacolet's Wandering Star, owned by Paul Hinch and handled by Rick Smith.

Things were getting tougher for the trial to continue at Watertown, N.Y. It was a long way from home base for trainers in Oklahoma and Illinois driving to Watertown, N.Y. Gasoline was getting expensive and travel over long distances by the major pros who competed was taking a toll.

The club moved the Championship event to Baldwinsville, N.Y. in 1977, an agreeable move by all the participating pro handlers. I took over the club presidency that year, but horseback all-age Brittany trials were not blossoming east of the Mississippi, at least in that era. The 1977 running had 9 entries and was judged by Irving Clark and Elwin Hendrick. Perry's Rustic Prince won the Championship, with no Runner-Up named. The 1978 renewal at Baldwinsville was planned for September 20, but a lack of entries prompted myself as President, along with the Conable and Cartmell Directorate to cancel the event. The International Club had a somewhat modest treasury but it was passed on to a group that volunteered to carry on the Championship. In 1981, Bill Cartmell placed an American Field kennel fixtures ad for the International Brittany Field Trial Association, with the trial slated for Clarksburg, N.J. April 2nd, but no display ad or report was found to substantiate that the event was run. The International did not stage trials from 1979 through 1985. In 1986 a field of 23 Britts competed for the International title at Washington, Indiana. Jack Hires and Jim Cohen were the judges and Warren Montgomery trial chair and secretary, with the Greater Indianapolis Brittany Club as host. Winner was Viking's Yankee Dandy owned by Alan Johnson, Jr., handled by Rosco Staton, and Runner-Up Far Out Bandit, Breuggeman listed as owner and Jim Holman, handler. There was no data available for the years 1987, 1988 and 1989. In 1990 Rimarda's Trademark was the winner, owned by Jim and Janet Chase, handled by Chad Holman, and if I might be bold enough to say bred by Dave Fletcher, writer of this article. Runner-Up was Foot, owned by Dr. John and Judy Webb and handled by Lloyd Budd. The Championship was staged at Petersburg, Indiana, on the Pike County Bird Hunters Club, had an entry of 27 and was judged by Dan Tooker and Dr. Robert Rankin.

Seven more inactive years followed for the International. In 1999 the International Brittany Championship stake was revived and run at Glendale, Indiana. Winner was Gambler's Ace In The Hole, Ed and Donna Janulis, owners, Chad Holman, handler. Runner-Up was Rimarda's Mad Max owned by Jim and Janet Chase, also handled by Chad Holman. Glendale was also the site for the 2000 International Championship with an entry of 20 in one-hour heats. Winner was Lane's End Bowtie Annie owned by Tom and Judy Robin, handled by Chad Holman. Runner-Up was Blazing Rebel Joe owned by Jim Fornear, handled by Chad Holman. Judges were Clarence Conner and Charles Kinney. Glendale was the site in 2001 for a third consecutive year at Montgomery, Ind., the Championship won again by Lane's End Bowtie Annie, handled by Chad Holman, with Buddy Jack Runner-Up owned by Ed Sawicki and handled by Chad Holman.

And The Story Continues

By Lisa Pollock

The Mingo Sportsman Club in Bloomingdale, Ohio has been called by some the "Prairie of the East". Members of the club who had a passion for field trials began grooming the rolling hills of reclaimed coal mining land for field trials in the early 2000's. By 2004, former ABC President Ron Zook, along with members Jack Alexander and Bob Szymanek had over 1000 acres of the grounds shaped into what has become one of the few places East of the Mississippi where All Age dogs can be run. They enlisted a little financial support from Paul Pollock and along with the entries of Pro Trainers Ben Lorensen and Tom Tracy Jr., The International Brittany Open All Age Championship was resurrected.

In March of 2005, after getting approval from the American Field, The Open All Age Championship was held. Approval was also granted for an Amateur All Age Classic. Nineteen entries went to the line in the open stake, 22 for the Amateurs. NFC/2XNAFC Just Call Me Roy, a future Hall of Fame inductee, handled by Ben Lorensen was named Champion in 2005. Winner of the Amateur All Age Classic was Bob Szymanek's Holliewood Magic Man. The International Championship was back in business.

In 2006 the ABC began sanctioning American Field Championships as Regional Classic, giving the winners both American Field and AKC placements. The Amateur All Age Stake was also recognized that year as an American Field Championship, and a Shooting Dog Classic was added to the cluster, held in Memory of Ron Zook. The Shooting Dog stake became a Championship in 2009. Trialers enjoyed the extra hour stakes giving them a challenging course to qualify dogs for Nationals.

Construction of a gas well in the next few years left the grounds with some disruption of the course. For the next few years the International did some moving around. Jackson, OH; Thayer, IA; and Waynesboro, GA were all hosts for the event. In 2014, the International was moved back to the Mingo grounds and has been going strong since.

2019 International Brittany Classics

It was 51 years ago when the inaugural running of the International Brittany Classic (American Field) was held in Watertown, NY. The Classic was granted AF Championship status in 1970. The International is one of the oldest Brittany Championships, unfortunately, there were years that the Championship was not held. The structure of the event has changed somewhat, but the Open All Age stake is still the highlight of the week!

The 2019 running of the International Brittany Championship/Classics were held March 18–23 on the grounds of the Mingo Sportsman Club in Bloomingdale, OH. Spring actually arrived on time this year and conditions throughout the week were near perfect for running bird dogs! As always, there are many people to thank for their efforts to put on a trial like this. Starting with our Sponsor, Purina. The donation of dog food for our winners and their financial support contribute greatly to the success of our trial. I'm happy to report that all the dogs crowned Champion and Runner–up at this trial are fueled by Purina Pro Plan!

Joining us this year on the judging panel in the Shooting Dog Classic and Derby stake were American Brittany Club President Ed Janulis and Leroy Long. When we had a lastminute judge cancellation in the Open All Age Championship, Lee volunteered to fill the spot and judged with Jim Wallace. Brain Sanchez and Anthony Rusciano made the long drive through torrential rain on the east coast to judge our Amateur All Age Classic. We thank these gentlemen for their hours in the saddle.

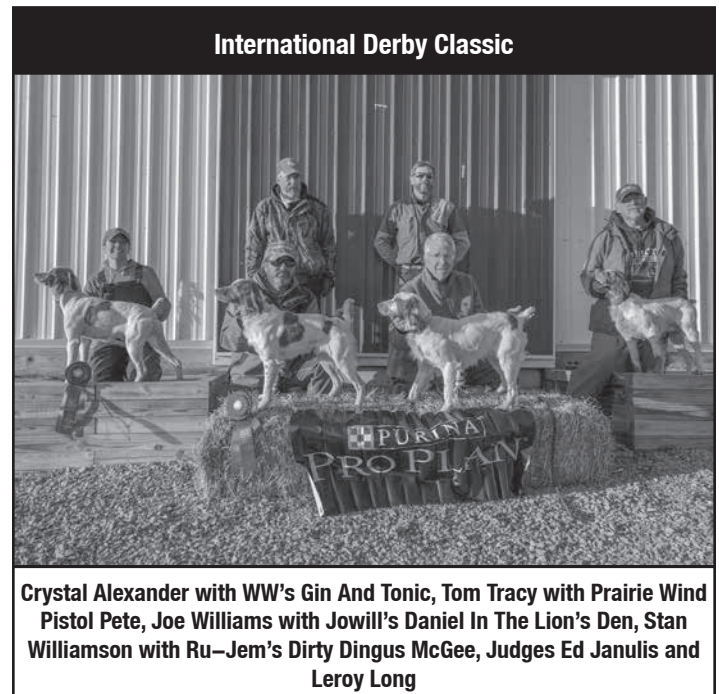

The Mingo grounds were in incredible condition! The work that was going on last year on the gas wells was completed at the end of last year which almost eliminated traffic on the back roads. The few trucks that passed through were very respectful of our presence, a big thank you to them! Road guard/dog wagon drivers Gene Stewart, Bill McLewis and Paul Pollock did a great job of getting dogs to the line on our continuous course. They were always available between braces to share snacks and beverages. Gene was also up early to plant the morning birds, and switched from dog wagon driver to bird planter while we ate lunch. Bill McLewis kept us all fed well. With Bill's help the club put on a steak dinner on Wednesday and Fish fry on Friday night. Thanks again guys!

Our entry was smaller than normal in the Shooting Dog Classic due to a prior judging commitment of professional trainer Bob Burchett. This year's winner was Roustabout All In, owned by Bo Ackerman and handled by Tom Tracy. "AI" ran in the first brace, he had 2 finds while making wide casts to the front. Diamond Hill Work Hard Play Harder, owned by Paul and Lisa Pollock, handled by Lisa, was this year's Runner–Up. "Gin" had 3 finds with a good forward race. John Perry handled Marjo's Fille De La Bretagna for Robert Goldman to the third–place finish and Vince Anderson's young dog High Velocity Copper Magnum rounded out the field.

The Derby stake hosted some very impressive young talent! Tom Tracy and Joe Williams showed up with a good portion of the entries. This year's winner, WW's Gin and Tonic is the littermate to last year's winner. Ginnie is owned by Burton Wise and handled by Tracy. Steve Ralph's Prairie Wind Pistol Pete place second, also handled by Tracy. Joe Williams' Jowill's Daniel in the Lion's Den, sired by his "Levi" placed third, and Tom Tracy handled Ru–Jem's Dirty Dingus McGee for owner Jerry McGee to fourth place. We look forward to seeing these youngsters in the winner's circle in the near future.

Twenty entries went to the line in the Open All Age Classic, but it wasn't until the last brace that the Champion was named. Jerry McGee's Ru–Jem's "Last' Penny came to the line coming off her US Open win and Region 4 Runner–Up win. She filled the course with two stylish finds and plenty in the tank at the finish for handler Tom Tracy. Joe Williams' handled his Levi the Lionheart to Runner–Up honors. Levi ran in the first brace and put on a strong performance that included three finds. Until Penny ran in the last brace, Levi was the dog to beat. Tom Tracy handled the third and fourth place winners, Castaway Wilson for owner Tim Huglan and Routabout All In for owner Bo Ackerman.

The Amateur All Age Classic ran with a mixed bag of weather, the worst of it happened in the middle of a brace on Saturday. A blinding snow squall almost halted running, but as soon as it started, it was gone, followed by sunshine! Ru–Jem's "Last" Penny, handled by Stan Williamson, finished the stake with another strong performance, and another Championship Win! Penny seems to really like the wide–open country here at Mingo and handled like a dream for Stan. Runner–Up honors went to CVK's Spartan King for owner/handler Jack Alexander. Leo knows these grounds well and showed himself in just the right places. John Perry handled Marjo's Fille De La Bretagne for owner Bob Goldman and his own TJ's Black Diamond to third and fourth place finishes.

2019 Prairie State Brittany Championship

By: Ed Janulis

PURINA
PRO PLAN

The Prairie State Brittany Championship was hosted at the Sportsman Club located in secluded Grove Springs, Missouri. The association has made extensive improvements to the corral and parking area with new corrals, new dog kennels and extended RV Trailer parking.

The Prairie State Championship is a long-standing venue; it originated in the mind and hearts of dedicated field trailers from the LaSalle Brittany Club initiating as a Northern Illinois Championship. It initially ran at a number of Northern and Northwest Illinois locations before moving to the Hunt Club in Southern Illinois and currently at the Sportsman Club in Missouri.

We would like to thank Purina for their continuing support of this championship. Their continued support, year after year, allows the Prairie State Championship Association the resources to plan this event for years to come extending the tradition that already exist with this contest. It should be noted that Purina extensively supports the American Brittany Club with support to many different venues within the ABC organization.

Many people contributed their time and other effort to ensure this Championship occurred without an issue. These included Jerry McGee, Field Trial Chairman, Donna Janulis Field Trial Secretary and provider of meals (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner) for the entire venue. Assisting Donna with the meals were Valerie Burchett, Chad Holman and Matt Healey.

The interesting part of this competition was just about every participant participated in some task that helped the event function in a smooth manner; this included bird planting (Jerry McGee, Tim Self, Tom Thomas, Ed Janulis, Tom Tracy, Joe Williams), dog wagon Driving (Bob Travis, Jerry McGee, Donna Janulis, Tim Self, Dave Capstick). Course Marshals (Dave Capstick, Stan Williamson, Ed Janulis) Horse Supplier (Dave Capstick, Tom Tracy, Bob Burchett, Tommy Thomas). Bob Burchett and Tom Thomas also supplied transportation of the Purina dog food graciously contributed by the Purina Corporation. The others, not specifically named, pitched in as needed from distributing Purina food, barn clean up, de-icing of walkways and other tasks.

Prairie State supported the following Venues: Open All Age, Amateur All Age, Open Derby, and Open Shooting Dog. However, the Open Shooting Dog needed to be cancelled due to an ice storm and continued residual ice and cold weather.

Open Derby

Open Derby (Represented by the Bill Schreiber Memorial Trophy). The judges for this event were Stan Williamson and Bob Travis.

The winner of this stake came from the 1st brace; WW's Miss Wendy Peffercorn, owner Burton Wice and handled by Tom Tracy. She broke away strong and continued in a far reaching pattern throughout the 45 minutes to follow. She had contact with birds on more than one occasion, including a couple of wild quail coveys demonstrating her maturity to hunt the objectives effectively.

The runner up was RuJem's Dirty Dingus McGee, owner Jerry McGee and handled by Tom Tracy. He ran strong and hard, enduring the 45-minute length with energy to spare. He extended his range often stretching to the end of the fields. He had two nice bird contacts pointing both times. He showed maturity and independence during the entire brace.

Joe Williams, owner and handler of the third-place dog; Daniel in the Lion's Den. Daniel handled maturely for Joe, ranging as necessary to hunt the objectives presented to him in search of game. He had the endurance to keep up a good pace through the forty-five minutes. He handled kindly for Joe in an independent manner.

Sniksoh Willy's Warrior Princess handled by owner Mitch Sims was awarded 4th place. She broke away with an aggressive start and continued to maintain momentum as the brace matured showing some nice moves (application, range, and handling) through course. She had a nice point and finished the brace demonstrating her endurance.

Amateur All Age Championship

Justin Hess and Bob Thompson made themselves available to judge this stake; their judgments were well accepted. Many good dogs were entered in this stake and there were many good amateur handlers including one of the most distinguished and experienced Ray Trimble.

The winner was GAFC/FC/AFC Piney Run Jake. He ran in the 7rd brace running the second course. He was handled by owner Kent Patterson. Jake had two finds, the first one occurring near the brush line adjacent to the double barns and the second before the bull pasture adjacent to the pond, all in order on both. In between these bird contacts, Jake handled well for Kent extending his range and applying himself showing his maturity on how he attacks the terrain to effectively hunt for game. His finish was as strong as his start.

The runner up was GFC/FC/AFC JJ's Levi the Lionheart handled by owner Joe Williams. He ran the first brace the first day and set a standard for the remainder of the competition. He ran hard and smart through the first course and gained momentum through the remaining terrain up and through Horse Killer Hill. Levi located birds six times during the hour, handling all finds with intensity and style, again "setting the standard".

Third placement was Roustabout's Eustace handled by owner Dave Capstick. "T" ran the third course with a good start through the terrain behind the club house and continued to build momentum as the hour progressed. He located one find during the hour and Dave successfully flushed the quail with "T" exhibiting top notch manners.

Fourth place was Hehi's Slim Chipleigh handled by owner Matt Healey. Slim and T were braced together which made this brace very exciting to watch. During the hour Slim showed independence and intelligence hunting to the front at a forward, ranging pace. He had one game find adjacent to the tree line near the cemetery. Slim maintained style and discipline during the flushing process and completed the hour with an extended cast down the chute.

Open All Age Championship

We were honored to have two experienced gentlemen judging this event; Paul Katzel and Jon Small. They were attentive and respectful and their decisions were embraced.

The winner was GAFC/FC/AFC Piney Run Jake. He was handled by owner Kent Patterson and ran in the sixed brace on Tuesday, but because of short braces preceding the time Jake ran he ran on the second course. Jake and Kent came to Prairie State to compete and they accomplished their goal with this performance. Jake ran forward showing far to the front and handling in a pleasing manner throughout the hour. He located game in two strategic locations and handled the flushing in a positive manner. Jake completed the hour ending far to the front in Sycamore Valley.

Runner up was FC/AFC Ru-Jem's "Last" Penny. She is owned by Jerry McGee and was handled by Tom Tracy. She likes the Sportsman Club courses being the winner of this event last year. Penny ran in the first brace in the afternoon, on the first course. She started off strong extending through the open long fields towards the double gates. She scored two finds, the first occurring on the second cross tree line past the double gates. Here a small covey of quail was flushed - Penny maintained her manners and posture and all was well. The second find occurred along the right tree line in the field approaching horse killer hill. A single quail emerged at Tom's urging with the dog holding fast. Penny finished the hour to the front across the plateau and sycamore valley.

Third place went to NFC/AFC Glade Run Irish owned by David Webb and handled by Tom Tracy. He ran on the second course Wednesday morning, Irish ran a very consistent race maneuvering the open fields displaying range, ground speed and intelligent hunting instincts. He was seen pointing along the fence beyond the double gates and handled the flush with no indiscretions. He finished the hour consistent to the front.

The judges awarded fourth place to FC/AFC JJ's Levi the Lionheart owned and handled by Joe Williams starting on the first course. He started out in an acceptable manner and finished the hour in a moderate and consistent pattern. Levi located game on three occasions and handled each find with manners consistent with the standards required in a championship competition. Levi has been a consistent competitor placing in multiple hour stakes this spring.

Open Shooting Dog Championship

The judges for this event were two well known gentlemen—Gailen Cooper and Joe Williams. However, due to an ice storm and continuing residual ice on the ground this competition was forced to be cancelled for this year. We appreciated all the people who travelled to the Sportsman Club to participate in this event but, unfortunately, we cannot control the weather.

Why Nervous Dogs Benefit from Scent Detection

Does your Brittany suffer from behavioral issues like barking endlessly at the window at strange dogs, or stressing over strange noises? Scent detection is a great way to provide environmental enrichment and transform problematic dog behaviors. Many shy, worried, fearful, anxious or nervous dogs can benefit from scent detection, which helps channel the dog's natural drives and instincts and building confidence. As the proverb says, "A dog in a kennel barks at his fleas; a dog hunting does not notice them".

At first glance, you may think today's pet dogs have it made. They don't need to worry about finding food or a soft bed and they get lots of snuggles. The problem is that life as an indoor couch potato isn't what dogs are built for. Dogs evolved alongside humans, cooperatively hunting for our food. Physically and behaviorally, dogs need daily mental and physical exercise to be happy and healthy. Many dogs are full of energy with nothing productive to do. They have nothing but free time for barking anxiously at the outside world or making up games to entertain themselves. One of the best ways to meet those hard-wired needs in a more positive way is to provide frequent opportunities for scent detection.

Wild dogs may spend as much as 70% of their time searching for food. Most hunts are unsuccessful. Wild dogs sniff, search and hunt many times in order to succeed in catching one meal. They practice catching prey in play: stalking, chasing, pouncing, and shaking. Searching and hunting expend energy, keeping the dog in fit condition, as well as improving problem solving skills. By watching elders model hunting behaviors, they learn to improve their skills. Hunting as a team requires teamwork, which strengthens bonds between hunting partners.

In stark contrast, many pet dogs spend 8 hours a day waiting for their owner to come home from work. When the tired owner arrives, she doesn't have much time or energy for her dogs as she'd like. Someone needs to make dinner. But while the owner's busy cooking on the stove, the dog has little to do. The dog's normal need for movement and stimulation are frequently unmet. Understimulated dogs frequently exhibit problematic behaviors: from destructing objects around the house, to digging, barking, escaping, pacing and other compulsive behaviors like chewing wire crates or walls).

It's not uncommon for new dog owners to complain about their dog's "obsessive sniffing". But don't forget that sniffing is normal behavior for a dog, especially one bred for hunting. Enrichment through scent detection can make a huge difference for dogs with behavioral issues. Scent detection provides an outlet, acting as an "off switch". After meeting the dog's need for mental and physical exercise, most dogs are quieter, more relaxed, and better able to settle down at home.

Environmental enrichment (aka behavioral enrichment) means enhancing an animal's surroundings and lifestyle so he has access to opportunities to learn new things and engage in instinctive behaviors such as searching and sniffing. Not surprisingly, studies of zoo animals show how enrichment reduces compulsive behaviors and self injury, improves learning and memory, reduces aggression and fear, and decreases reactivity to environmental stressors.

The problem behaviors that plague many nervous and high-strung dogs frequently decrease or disappear once their needs are addressed through scent detection. Dogs who are fully engaged in scent detection appears focussed, as they sniff and move to their heart's content. They become less nervous, less bored and frustrated, and pleasantly tired. Environmental enrichment even attenuates cognitive decline normally associated with aging.

Luckily, the vast majority of dogs enjoy scent detection. Puppies can start at 5 weeks, and it doesn't need to be complicated. Start by sprinkling your dog's food on your front lawn. Just point at the food with your hand (a gesture most dogs understand). Then you should be able to sit there and drink your coffee while he finds all the treats. With repetitions, he'll improve his scenting ability so you can hide rewards over a larger area.

All dogs who enjoy sniffing and like rewards can learn. Scenting helps build confidence in nervous and high-strung dogs, builds your relationship and your bond. Older dogs with physical challenges that curtail participation in sports like agility can continue to enjoy low-impact scent detection into old age. You can do scent detection at home, outside and on your travels. It's inexpensive and requires nominal equipment and space. Best of all, it's fun for both humans and dogs.

Dr. Carla Simon has bred Brittanys for Hunter's Heart Reg'd since 1999 (based in Calgary, Canada). From bed bugs to human scent, from narcotics to Scent Work, Carla's motivational training has helped hundreds of scent dogs to reach their potential. Her Brittanys have achieved numerous Top 5 national rankings in agility, conformation and obedience. Follow their blog at <http://nosework.huntersheart.com>.

Field Trials

EAST COAST

SOUTHEASTERN

Hoffman, NC

January 17–20, 2019

Southeastern Brittany Club held its trial Jan. 17–20. We were fortunate weather wise without snow this year. We had a successful 1 hour Open Gun stake but our other stakes were a bit short on entries. This was due to the Eastern Futurity being awarded to Florida in conflict with our trials without our knowledge or consent. The bird population was not as good as the beginning of the trial season and seemed to drop off after deer hunting season on the grounds when no trials are held. A dog had to be a good hunting dog to find the birds.

We had great food prepared by Tina Odom and Judy Tighe and lots of help from Deb Blondin and Fran Gorman. At the happy hour, Martha read a thanks to Judy Tighe for all her years as field trial secretary. Deb Blondin is going to take over as the trial secretary.

The placements are as follows.

CENTRAL

ILLINOIS Pyramid State Park Pickneyville, IL February 14–20, 2019

Immediately following the Mid-South Brittany Championship this same club hosted its spring horseback trial. 71 dogs were entered with only one scratch in the 14 dog Derby Stake. With our Michigan friends iced in, we lost one of our judges and several gun dog entries. By using the flexible format we were able to host all six week end stakes on one course so shuffling judges, dogs, and participants from point A to point B was not required.

We were happy to welcome the Harling father and son team from New York. Besides judging for us, they came with the sole purpose to earn their young charge, Chip an adult placement so he could run in future hour stakes. Mission accomplished! Not only did Chip place in an adult stake, but Junior's Derby Dog Black Creek Cruise also won the Derby giving him entry rights to future limited hour stakes.

This weekend could not have happened without those volunteering their time in the judges' saddle, planting birds, marshaling, dog wagon duties, etc. We want to thank Tom Tracy, Jr. and Chad Holman for bringing their string of dogs. Having a strong amateur presence in So. Illinois, they worked hard for each placement, sharing awards with Joe Williams, Ron Harling, Jr., Ray Trimble, Alan Benson, Tom Jagielski, and William Padovano.

As always, we want to recognize Nestle Purina for their financial support as well as the dog food that fuels our dogs. Their sponsorship of both the Mid-South Brittany Championship and the Lee Holman Classic provided the winners with dog food and each participant received the small bags as well.

As noted earlier, it was a muddy mess at Pyramid this spring. While our horses struggled to put in a good ½ day of work, it didn't seem to slow the dogs down any. Birds were abundant with several wild coveys pointed as well as the birds supplemented each morning.

Joe Williams took top honors in the Lee Holman Classic. Under the watchful eyes of Stan Williamson and Mike Hutchcraft, 25 dogs came to the line. All 25 had some type of bird contact. We did lose a few on deer, but at the end of the day all dogs were accounted for. Cha Hill and his staff did a good job of keeping the courses in great shape. However, this season's deer hunters did not do their job as well as they normally do.

Because of the entry, all four placements will earn a berth at the ABC National All Age Championships: Maxwell's Prickly Pete, Roustabouts All In, and High Hopes Jac's Original Spice will be making the trip to Booneville.

Mid-South Brittany Championship

This Championship has survived several organizations stepping up to the plate to preserve its Championship Status. This is the third year the Illinois Brittany Club has taken over its running from the Southern Illinois Brittany club which took it from the now defunct

Mid-South Brittany Championship Association. Twenty-three Brittyns came to the line for Jarrett and Allison Bell from Troy, Missouri, to judge and name the winners. They were very attentive and plowed through the mud with the rest of the riders. While the mud took its toll on the horses, the dogs did not have any trouble managing the three one-hour courses of the Captain Unit at Pyramid State Rec. Area. Cha Hill and his limited staff continue to improve the grounds. Birds were plentiful with almost all 23 dogs having some bird contact. Unfortunately, the deer were also present and we lost a few dogs on deer, but all were accounted for at the end of the two days running.

This year's Champion was Castaway Wilson JH, 8-year-old male owned by Tim Haglen and handled by Tom Tracy, Jr. He had multiple finds and a good forward race. No one was surprised when he was named Champion. Runner Up Champion was Kashmire, the 5-year-old male owned by Dr. Robert Rankin and handled by Tom Tracy, Jr. Cash was really on top of his game this week as he also placed in the regional trial over the weekend. All four placements qualified for the ABC National All Age Championship. JJ's Levi the Lion Heart and Hi Hopes Jac's Original Spice placed third and fourth for owners Joe Williams and Kathy Gulembo & Cynthia Cropek. Joe handled his own dog and Spice was under the direction of Chad Holman. Southern Illinois is noted for its strong Amateurs. We want to thank Dave Capstick, Kent Patterson, Joe Williams, and Ray Trimble who joined professionals Chad Holman and Tom Tracy, Jr. in running their dogs.

Once again, Nestle—Purina sponsored this Championship with financial resources as well as dog food. Without their support, we would not be able to put on a quality event.

Region 17 Amateur All Age Championship

Region 17 Amateur All Age Championship hosted by Southern Kansas Brittany Club was held on the William Oliver Ranch located in the beautiful Flint Hills of Eureka, Kansas. First and foremost thank you to Bill and Mary Lynn Oliver for great field trial grounds, our sponsor Purina, and our judges, Stan Truksa and Bob Thompson. The weather for the start of the championship was brisk and cold, the winds picked up through the morning at about 15 – 18 mph out of the southeast.

The bird planter was out early the morning of the running, planting birds for the day. As the time approached for the start of the Championship, judges Stan Truksa and Robert Thompson were at the line ready for the first brace and running to begin.

Brace one broke away at approximately 8:03 a.m. according to the Gallery. At five minutes into the brace deer were seen coming out of the cover. Farm Girl Pearl handled by Bruce Heiter was seen at the front. At nineteen minutes there was no sign of brace mate SS Rig's Colorado Gun Runner, handled by Tom Milam, retrieval device was called for a little further into the brace. Farm Girl Pearl went on to have a stop to flush at twenty-eight minutes. Manners were not respected at the next find.

Brace two consisted of Arrow's Tequila Rustler handled by Richard Beaver and Ocaje handled by Terry Gowin. Both dogs were seen to the front at four and half minutes. Rusty was seen again at the front and had a nice find at eighteen minutes. Arrow's Tequila Rustler went on to have three more finds and was making really nice moves seeking promising objectives while locating his birds. Gowin called for the tracker at twenty-five minutes.

Next up to show their style and independence were TLM Tall Tale and MK's My Lil Ammo, handled by Tom Milam and Nick Blasi. TLM Tall Tale went on point, no bird was produced, and dog was taken on by the handler. MK's My Lil Ammo was making some substantial moves ranging out to the front seeking objectives. At thirty-seven minutes both dogs were seen with individual finds on opposite sides of the draw. TLM Tall Tale pointed another unproductive, handler elected to pick up. Handler Blasi, was able to produce a bird for MK's My Lil Ammo, all while showing her steadiness. She went on to take the top of the prairie showing her all age performance against strong winds. She was seen on point at 57 minutes for her final find of the brace and showed at time.

After lunch, brace 4 took the line with Hehi's Slim Chipley, handler Matt Healy and brace mate Tequila Scorcher, handler Richard Beaver. Both dogs completed the course, Hehi's Slim Chipley with no bird work and Tequila Scorcher having three finds and a stop to flush. Tequila Scorcher finished the brace with style and quality of an all age dog.

TNT's Raise 'N a Leprechaun handled by Tommy Thomas and Hehi Miss Poison Ivy, handled by Matt Healey took to the grounds for the fifth brace of the day. Thomas called for the retrieval unit. Hihi Miss Poison Ivy's bird work did not go well and she was overcome with temptation.

Wiyanna and Wichita Wild Woman broke to a line towards the pond at the break away. Both handlers Gowin and Blasi were creatively able to call the dogs back towards a forward motion along the course. Wiyanna completed the hour with no birds. Wichita Wild Woman was making an attempt at handling her birds with respect but failed to point faithfully.

Saturday morning brought clear blue skies and less wind than the day before. Brace seven was released into the bright rising sun. Jazz Em Up Arrow (Rick Hastings) was off to a good start but was picked up by the handler at thirteen and half minutes for breach of manners. Sniksoh Spank's Hank (Blasi) had some stylish and mannerly bird work having 3 finds. His performance didn't measure up to the all age field this day.

SKF Miss Cheap Bourbon Whiskey, handler Steven Foster and A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds (Hastings) broke away for brace eight. SKF Miss Cheap Bourbon Whiskey was a little short on her range as an all age. Although, she had a nice find at 11.5 minutes. She went on to have another find at 19.5 minutes holding her manners respectively. She went on to have 3 more finds and a stop to flush shortly before time was called. A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds showed talent as an all age with a couple of nice casts all while moving in a forward motion. He was cautioned into an honor by the handler. His first find was at 26 minutes, he handled the situation very well. He went on to have another find and ended his performance well at time.

The last brace of the championship was a bye brace with Firestarter's Crossed The Line. Handler Richard Beaver took the dog off the line and through the first two turns of the brace and was later out of site and handler called for the recovery device.

At the conclusion of the Championship the official placings were announced with MK's My Lil Ammo being named Champion. Runner Up was Arrow's Tequila Rustler. Both dogs were entertaining to watch and had all age style and finesse. Third place honors went to Tequila Scorcher and A Trace of Bourbon With Diamonds taking fourth. All dogs were selected on their ability, for intensity on bird work, handling and all age range. They all executed well and were deserving of placements.

Western Brittany Open All Age Championship

The 2019 running of the Western Brittany Open All Age Championship, sponsored annually by the Greater Phoenix Brittany Club, was held at the airstrip area of the Empire Ranch, a historic yet working cattle ranch about 10 miles north of Sonoita in southeastern Arizona. Judging the event were Tommy Negrete of Torreon, New Mexico and Todd Yamamoto of Phoenix, Arizona.

This beautiful area is surrounded by the Santa Rita, Mustang, and Whetstone mountain ranges, which are highlighted by gorgeous magenta sunrises and sunsets, with frequent frostings of snow at this time of year. The landscape features some marshlands (ciénegas), cottonwood-willow riparian forests, sacaton grasslands, mesquite bosques and semi-desert grasslands. Small groups to large herds of pronghorn can be seen frequently, as well as white-tailed deer, coyotes, foxes, javelina, many and varied birds of prey, and even a rare glimpse of a coatimundi. Weather varied from clear to fog and light rain conditions, with temperatures of 20's in the mornings to warm afternoons with highs in the 60's most days.

An hour course in this scenic setting consists of a breakaway through about ¼ mile of flat grasslands covered with very tall native grass, rocks, cacti and debris from fallen mesquite trees. Heading east, there is a mesquite tree lined dry creek bed which borders the left side of the course. Going forward, there is a set of 2 hills, the first higher than the second. At the eastern base of these hills a road crossing provides access across the dry creek bed and up to the water barrel. Once again, the course turns in an easterly direction, through grasslands studded with mesquite trees, century plants, and cholla cacti. A turnaround at about 30 takes the participants west over similar grassland terrain in addition to bottoms covered with mesquite trees. This open country invites the dogs to have a big, strong finish.

The 2019 champion was FC Rusty Ridge Where U Been, "Been", handled by Paul Doiron and owned by Claude and Jan Kilpatrick. Been was sired by NAFC GFC FC AFC Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid x FC Blew By Yet?.

Been's brace broke away first brace after lunch on the first day of running. The heat had moved in but these 2 boys were gone, leaving jet streams through the tall salt grass. Been left signs of his race through rippling grass or the occasional faraway white dot sighting to the extreme front. Been was found at 20 cooling off in the water trough, and he waited until Paul and entourage arrived before beginning his bird search through the cottonwood, willow and mesquite tree lines throughout this part of the course. He continued working the extreme edges at a very fast pace, letting no likely objective go un-searched. At 55, Paul called Been in, watered him up and directed him into the tree lined dry wash where many birds had found in the morning braces. Been dove in but immediately ran straight up the steep embankment and into the grassy meadow for about 200 yards before slamming on point, standing tall and tight. It took a few minutes to catch up to him because it proved difficult to navigate the horses through the tight, tangly vegetation and steep embankment, but Been stood statuesque as we approached. Paul dismounted, flushed a single quail and fired with Been standing stylish and mannerly just as time was called. Been's extreme forward consistent all age race, combined with his stylish and mannerly bird work earned him the well-deserved Championship title.

The 2019 Runner-Up Champion was FC SR's Blew By Typhoon, "Ty", handled by Paul Doiron and owned by Dan Doiron. Ty was sired by NAFC GFC FC AFC Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid x FC Blew By Yet?.

Both dogs cast away to the front, disappearing into the tall grass and showing on the first hill. Going over the top, Ty was next seen at the first water barrel. Departing from there and heading forward to the right of the road, he was gone for a while but showed to the front, where he had his first find. All was in order here. Making the turn across the ditch, he had his second find, with all in order here as well. Ty finished his hour run forward hunting hard, garnering him the runner-up placement. The third-placed dog was MTB Louree's V-0-2 Max, "Max", handled by Tom White and owned by Tom White and Margaret Horstmeyer. Max was sired by FC AFC Kiger Hills Louee x NAFC DC AFC MTB Cabo Rita De Scipio.

Max and his brace-mate exploded off the starting line. Max was not seen until the bottom of the big hill. After going up and over the hill, he took a dip in the water barrel and then continued along the right side of the course, making wide forward casts. After the turnaround, he hunted on the left side along the dry creek bed and was rewarded with a find at

50, with the flush and shot all in order. Max was released and continued to the front to finish his run. He was rewarded with a 3rd place ribbon for his performance.

The fourth-placed dog was Blew Me Away, "Bud", handled by Paul Doiron and owned by Norm and Terry Ahl. Bud was sired by NAFC GFC FC AFC Spanish Corral's Sundance Kid x FC Blew By Yet?.

Bud ran in the first brace of the Championship, in cool weather with clouds threatening rain. He swiftly disappeared into the tall grass off the starting line to be found standing at the top of the first tall hill. Bud stood his find with a high head and tall tail. All was in order with the flush and shot. He was released and over the hour run, Bud had an amazing five finds and a back at 55, all done with style and good manners. The impressive number of finds Bud had somewhat hindered his always forward run but managed to earn him the still admirable fourth place ribbon.

Grilled Pheasant Skewers with Peanut Sauce

- 12 Pheasant Tenderloins (Or 2 Pheasant Breasts, cut lengthwise into thin slices)
- 1 T. Lime Juice
- 2 T. Grapeseed, Canola or Avocado Oil
- 2 t. Sriracha or Chili Paste
- Skewers
- Peanut Sauce
- ½ C. Peanut Butter
- 1 T. Fresh Ginger, grated on a microplane
- 1 T. Lime Juice
- 1 clove of Garlic, minced
- 2 t. Sriracha
- 3 T. Soy Sauce
- ¼ C. Water
- 1 t. Honey
- Optional Garnish: Green Onions, Cilantro and Chili Paste

Mix the ingredients for the marinade in a large bowl. Add the pheasant Tenderloins and mix to incorporate.

While the pheasant is marinating, mix all of the ingredients for the peanut sauce in a food processor or blender.

Skewer the tenderloins lengthwise on the skewers and grill the pheasant over medium high heat until cooked through, about 5 minutes.

Serve with the peanut dipping sauce, cilantro, green onions and chili paste.

Beer Can Pheasant

- 2 empty Red Bull cans
- Enough beer to fill half the cans (use any beer you want)
- 2 whole pheasants
- ¼ cup olive oil to coat birds
- Salt and black pepper
- 1 tablespoon dried thyme

Take the pheasants out and let it rest at room temperature for about 30 minutes. Bring the beer out, too, as you don't want cold beer in the can.

Prepare your grill for indirect heat. If you are using charcoal, put the coals on one side of the grill, leaving another side free of coals. If you are using a gas grill, fire up only half of the burners.

Rub the pheasants all over with olive oil. Mix the salt, pepper, and thyme in a bowl and sprinkle it over the pheasant.

Fill the Red Bull can halfway with beer; it doesn't matter what kind. Drink the rest of the beer. Put the can inside the pheasants' cavity and place the pheasants on the cool side of the grill. The legs and the can will act like a tripod to keep the pheasant upright.

Cover the grill and come back in 40 minutes. After that time, check the pheasants and add more coals if needed. Stick a thermometer into the thickest part of the pheasant's thigh — you want it to read 160 degrees. If it's not there, close the grill lid and come back in 15 minutes. Keep checking this way until the pheasant is done. If you don't have a meat thermometer, poke the spot between the leg and breast with a knife and look for the juices to run clear, not pink.

Carefully move the pheasants to a pan. Let them rest for 10 minutes. Carefully lift it off the can and carve up into serving pieces.

"Laughter is brightest, where food is best."

The Next Dog

By Rick Smith & Sharon Potter

It's often said that the hardest part of owning a dog is the goodbye. Each one of us has our own way of moving forward after losing a fine companion. For some, the loss is so difficult that it takes a period of time before they can even consider getting another dog. For others, the need to add a new dog is immediate and cathartic. Often, when a dog hits a certain age, usually anywhere from six or seven years to maybe ten, a new puppy is added so there will be an overlap; the young dog gets in the pipeline to take over when the older dog retires. However you choose to do this, it's a very personal decision. Once you've decided the "when" part, the next step is deciding how.

Some people are committed to a specific breed while others may decide to choose a different type or style of dog the next time around. Either way, there are choices to be made. Sometimes you can go back to the breeder where you got your last dog, and if they don't have anything planned or are no longer breeding dogs, they may be able to refer you to others who have similar bloodlines. If you've decided to try a different breed, plan on doing some research to make sure it suits your style of hunting.

As we all know, getting a new dog is a long-term commitment. It's always better to take your time and do some research rather than grabbing the first available puppy you find just because it's available right that minute. Why? Well, let's face it: All puppies are cute. And cute is very tempting. The bigger question is whether that cute puppy now will be the bird dog you're hoping for later on. It's entirely possible the litter you just found could be the one – or that impulse buy could break your heart later. The goal is to stack the odds in your favor. What should you look for? One of the best ways to find a good breeder is via word of mouth. Happy puppy buyers are the best advertising a breeder can have. If you've got a friend who has a dog you admire, ask who the breeder is. Find various dog club events in your area, go watch, and talk to people involved in the breed you're interested in.

Another good resource to try are trainers, especially because they often have seen a variety of dogs and may have an idea of where to look. Magazine ads may also be helpful, as well as searching the Internet. When reaching out a distance using the web or other sources, do ask for references and check those references. Be especially cautious on the Internet as a slick website may not tell the whole story. A good breeder should be both willing and able to provide you with several references, and when they do, contact those references. Don't be surprised if they ask you for reference or two as well.

How do you recognize a not-so-good breeder? That's usually pretty easy. If they're selling puppies out of the back of their pickup in a parking lot, that's not a good sign. If they won't send you pedigrees or photos, that's another red flag. Inquiring about any health testing they have done might be met with them telling you their vet says their dogs are healthy. That's not health testing. Ask them for tests specific to the breed you're interested in, and if they refuse, there's your answer. Ask to visit their kennel and see where they keep their dogs. It doesn't have to be fancy or elaborate, but it should be clean and the dogs should all seem friendly and interested in interacting with you. If they tell you they'll meet you somewhere to deliver your pup and won't allow you to see their place, there's a reason they don't want you there and it's rarely a good one. (Editor's Note: Some breeders, out of caution for the welfare of the litter, will hold off on allowing visitors until after the first round of puppy shots, so don't write off a place completely if you're asking to see the pups really early.)

When you're talking to a breeder about their puppies, what kind of questions should you ask? Often when a breeder receives an inquiry, the very first question asked is the cost. While it is part of the equation, it shouldn't be the main concern. Raising pups is not an inexpensive endeavor if a breeder is doing it well, and there are costs involved that aren't readily apparent to the puppy-shopping public. The purchase price is the cheapest part of having a dog, and a pup that you spent $200 on will cost just as much to feed as a pup that you shelled out $1,000 for. The cost of ownership is the same.

Now let's add another little twist to the cost of that puppy. That $200 puppy may end up costing you a lot more if he ends up with some easily preventable health problems that the breeder of the $1,000 puppy tested their breeding dogs for. Imagine having to retire a young dog at age three because he has hip dysplasia and can't hunt anymore, or discovering your pride and joy is deaf and can't hear your voice. While no breeder can guarantee a lifetime of perfect health, they can and do test for those issues that can be prevented, and that takes some of the gamble out of buying

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners worldwide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

a dog. And really, if you take that $1,000 and divide it over, say, 12 years, that's only $7 a month.

Look at the pedigree of puppies you're interested in. The pedigree tells you who your dog's ancestors are and often lists any accomplishments they may have. Reading a pedigree is often confusing if you're unfamiliar with it, but it's really quite simple. On the left side of the pedigree page you'll see the names of just dogs; of those two, the dog near the top is the sire (father) while the dog nearer the bottom is the dam (mother). Following each of those are other brackets, in the same order, for the parents of those dogs, and so on, going back usually four or five generations. There may or may not be competition titles added to those names. Don't get too excited about one dog four generations back that has a title. By the time you come forward four generations, that dog's genetics are so diluted it is a tiny fraction of what you may see in your puppy.

How important are titles? That depends on your needs. If you're competing in events, it's usually a good idea to choose the style of a dog that is also doing well and has titles in those events. If you're looking for a slower, close-working dog, don't go for dogs that have generations of titles competing in horseback trials on wide open prairies.

Another benefit of checking out breeders who compete is that you may just find they have a young, started dog that isn't going to be a star in competition but just might make a fine gun dog for you. That way, you know what you've got right at the start because you can see the young dog work and find out if he suits you. Not everybody enjoys the puppy stage or has the time to raise and train a pup, so a started or trained dog may be just the ticket.

Don't be surprised if the breeder you've chosen has a waiting list and may want you to put down a deposit. Buying a quality puppy might mean waiting a bit. And when you've selected a breeder, keep in touch with them fairly often. Don't call them excitedly once a week but do touch base every couple of months. That tells them you're serious and not just kicking tires. If you know your dog is getting within a year or two of retirement, that's a great time to get on the list for your next dog so you can eliminate the gap of having no dog to hunt with.

That leads us to our next point: Expectations. It is so easy to compare that new pup to the older dog and expect him to step right into the older dog's shoes and be exactly the same. Chances are pretty strong that he won't be. Let's not forget that the older dog has had a few years to become a great hunting companion. The new dog may have different strengths and talents, and your job is to find and develop those. Bringing the next dog into the pipeline is often bittersweet because it means your older dog is getting close to retirement, but it also means you can take all that experience and use it to make the next dog the very best he can be.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
